Chapter 1774: Bad News About Tang Family

Yu Qi called Qin Xia. Looking at the caller's name, Qin Xia answered it immediately.

"Hello, Senior Brother Xia." Yu Qi said. "How are you?" "Hmm... I am fine." Qin Xia answered. "Is there something that you want to talk to me?"

"You know me..." Yu Qi grinned. "Well, I do have something to tell you. Are you busy this weekend?" "Wait a minute. I will ask Min Liang about my schedule." Xia said.

Qin Xia called Min Liang and asked about his schedule this week. Lucky for Yu Qi he did not have any important plans for this weekend according to Min Liang.

"I don't have any plans this weekend." Qin Xia told Yu Qi.

"Great. I will go and meet you." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Qin Xia nodded.

The call ended there. Qin Xia told Min Liang to put her junior sister's name in his schedule plan. Min Liang, without asking anything, just wrote down Yu Qi's name. As usual, Min Liang would be dismissed whenever he met Yu Qi. Min Liang did not mind because he would have a day off on that day. "Senior Brother Xia already agreed to meet us this weekend." Yu Qi told Long Hui.

"Hmm... Sure." Long Hui nodded.

Then the news about a prestigious family treating their employees badly exploded. The account did not mention who the family was.

However, they gave some points that made everyone guess who the family was. The family of doctors had their private hospital and stayed in the Nanching District where a lot of rich families lived.

"It is the Tang Family, right?" "Hmm.. Who else?"

"But is this news true?"

"I think it is fake news.

"There's no smoke without fire." "Yeah. They must treat their employees badly." There were a lot of insults toward the Tang Family. Mostly these people did not even work for Tang Family. When the news became bigger and bigger, several people who worked for Tang Family at the hospital began to express their opinions. "I am a doctor who is currently working at Tang Private Hospital. Tang Family treated us very well." "Oh... The Tang Family's dogs are here."

"Of course, they are treating the doctors better. Otherwise, who wants to become a doctor at their hospital." "That is right. The hospital without doctors, they would not operate."

"The commenter above, there are nurses, pharmacists, anesthesiologists, physiotherapists, radiographers and others in the hospital for the hospital to operate smoothly. Even janitors are important in a hospital to be operated. Please put your stupidity at home. Don't show it to others here." "Yeah. That's right." "Oh, if that employee has any dissatisfaction about their employer, they could go and make a report to the appropriate channel. They should not use the internet to condemn the Tang Family." "Yeah... I think there must be something wrong with that employee for Tang Family to treat him or her badly." At the Tang Hospital, the board of directors and shareholders called for a meeting to discuss about the matter. The matter needed a solution to prevent the hospital's name from becoming bad.

Yu Qi also attended the meeting since she was one of their shareholders. "Did someone from our hospital get fired recently?" Someone asked.

The person in charge of the Human Resources Department checked the record. "According to my record, no one was fired or dismissed for the past three years. Our employment increased for the past two years." "Then, why was there some news about how we treat the employee badly that came out all of a sudden?" Another asked.

"Hmm... May I say something?" Yu Qi raised her voice.

"Yes, Doctor Yu Qi. You can say what you want." "Hmm... I don't think that employee works here." "Are you telling us that the employee works for your company?" Someone raised the question.

"No. However, recently our Tang Family had fired someone who worked as a maid at our house. I think this news comes from her."

"What? A maid?" "I think so." Yu Qi said. So, it was not the hospital's matter then. It was a private matter of the Tang Family. "Our family would handle this matter. You guys can relax." Yu Qi said. "If you said so, we would leave it to Doctor Yu Qi." They became relaxed. They left the meeting room. Only Tang Family members were left in the meeting room. Tang Jung Wen, Tang Jang Qin, Tang Jin Wei and Tang Han Lee looked at Yu Qi. They wanted to ask what was going on here.

"Yu Qi, is what you said in the meeting earlier true?" Tang Jang Qin asked.

"I am sure about that." Yu Qi nodded.

"If what you said is the truth, the employee probably working with someone else to tarnish our Tang family's reputation." Tang Jung Wen said.

"Uncles, Brother, don't worry. We can turn this matter over." Yu Qi grinned.

"So, you already have a plan?" Tang Han Lee lifted his eyebrow.

"Of course, we can make them suffer for tarnishing our reputation." Yu Qi nodded.

"Then, I will depend on you. You can use our family resources, Yu Qi." Tang Jung Wen nodded.

"Thank you, Uncle. I will not let you down." Yu Qi smiled while nodding. They all left the meeting now. However, Tang Han Lee and Tang Jin Wei still followed Yu Qi. "Brothers, why are you guys following me? Don't you have work to do?" Yu Qi asked.
