Chapter 1780: Went To The Capital City

Yu Qi already put Duan Chunhua's matter behind. Right now, the one who needed the attention was the person behind Duan Chunhua.

They probably wanted to ruin Tang Family's reputation. So, they were probably from someone from the same industry.

That was not a difficult task to find out. She just needed to find out who paid the marketing account. The difficult part was how to punish those people.

Yu Qi wanted them to regret targeting the Tang Family in the first place. She already asked Neko-chan to hack... Well, to investigate the matter. It was probably about time that she would receive the report.

Her phone vibrated noticing that she received something. It was from Neko-chan.

It was about the report regarding the matter. Yu Qi's guess was right. It was the Song Family. Song's Family was from the Capital City.

They dominated the medical industry in the Capital City. They wanted to develop their business at FINN City too.

So, in order to accomplish that, they decided to ruin Tang Family's reputation first. After that, they would touch the Tang Family's business.

Yu Qi narrowed her eyes while reading the report. 'How dare they touch my family? They will pay for it.'

Yu Qi did not plan to do it right now. She would let them be for now.

.....

Long Hui drove Yu Qi to the Capital City. Yu Qi set an appointment with Qin Xia at his office.

Long Hui was supposed to join the meeting. However, he had something to do that needed his attention.

He could not push the matter. It was regarding the nation's security. Not to mention, it was the president's order.

Yu Qi told him that she would go and meet Qin Xia alone. Long Hui disliked the idea but there was nothing that he could do.

Long Hui dropped Yu Qi at the Yue Corporation Building.

"I don't know how long my meeting would be." Long Hui said.

"Don't worry. I will be fine. I am thinking to go and see Grandpa Long later." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm... I will call you if my meeting is done." Long Hui said.

Yu Qi entered the Yue Corporation Building. She went to the reception counter. The two receptionists smiled at Yu Qi.

"Hello, I have an appointment with Mr Qin Xia. My name is Tang Yu Qi." Yu Qi stated.

"Wait a minute." The receptionist nodded and checked something. "Miss, I don't have your name on the list."

Yu Qi was stunned. She did not expect that. She thought she already set the appointment.

Behind Yu Qi, stood a woman. Apparently, she was an employee because she was wearing a tag name lanyard.

"Another woman who wants to meet our CEO." She snorted. "Our CEO would not see you. So, you can get lost."

Yu Qi did not even glance at the woman. She took out her phone and called Qin Xia.

Qin Xia was having a meeting with his employees. Everyone was stunned when they heard a call. They looked at each other asking whose phone that had been ringing.

After that, they glanced at Qin Xia who casually took out his phone and answered the call. They were even shocked when they saw Qin Xia's expression. It was so gentle.

"Hello." Qin Xia answered.

"Senior Brother Xia, have you forgotten about our meeting?" Yu Qi asked.

"Is it today?" Qin Xia was stunned.

It seemed he did forget about that.

"Hmm... I am at your company's reception counter." Yu Qi stated.

"I will send Min Liang to bring you up." Qin Xia said.

"Okay. I will be waiting." Yu Qi said.

"Hmm..." Qin Xia nodded.

He ended the call. His expression turned normal. His employees wondered who was calling Qin Xia just now which made Qin Xia's gentle expression.

Qin Xia looked at Min Liang. Min Liang stood up and approached Qin Xia.

"Yes, Mr Qin?" Min Liang asked.

"Go and pick her up. Let her stay in my office. Tell her that I will see her in half an hour." Qin Xia said.

Min Liang was stunned. Then he understood what Qin Xia meant by that. Only one person could make Qin Xia like this.

"Yes, Mr Qin. I will go and fetch her." Min Liang nodded.

Yu Qi just ended the call. The woman was still behind Yu Qi.

"I think you give up. Our CEO did not have time to meet with someone like you." The woman said.

The two receptionists frowned. They felt that this woman was kind of rude. One of the receptionists recognized Yu Qi.

Yu Qi ignored the woman. Since Qin Xia already told her that he would send someone down, she just needed to wait. She went to the waiting area.

The woman still followed her.

"Stop waiting. You should leave." The woman said.

"You seem free. You don't have any work to do?" Yu Qi asked.

The woman became angry when Yu Qi asked that question.

"Of course, I do. I should be the one who asks you that question." The woman said.

Yu Qi ignored the woman. She saw Min Liang come out of the lift. She stood up. She knew that Qin Xia sent Min Liang.

"Hey, you..." The woman wanted to say something.

"Miss Tang." Min Liang greeted Yu Qi respectfully.

The woman turned around and saw Min Liang. She was shocked to see Min Liang here.
