

INTELLIGENT 21

Chapter 21: Being Slander

Walking to her classroom, she noticed some kids were whispering something but the content was not clear. She ignored them. She opened the classroom door. Something felt off. She thought her relationship between her and her classmate already okay but seeing the situation right now, it was wrong.

Some of her classmates still whispered something. Well, she was too lazy to ask about that. Looking at their gaze to her, that maybe something not good at all.

"Mei, don't say something like that. Maybe it is some kind of misunderstanding." Wang Fu Ya started to portray a white lotus act.

"You still defend her after what you did to you. She is not worth." Shen Mei criticized her best friend.

Yu Qi coldly smirked when she saw that scene. She had been slandering by this two combo. She coolly turned her view to the outside window like that discussion is nothing to her.

"If it was true, I don't want to be her classmate. It is embarrassing." One of her classmate gossiped.

Yu Qi did not make any sound to defend herself. Well, she just felt lazy to communicate with some brats that only knew to gossip. Teacher Song who teach English entered and began the lesson. She just pay a little bit attention with the lesson because she already fluent with this language.

"Yu Qi, please follow me to the staff room." Teacher Song already finished the lesson suddenly called her Yu Qi.

Yu Qi sighed. 'Maybe because of the rumour. I better settle it first.' She stand up from her seat and followed the teacher.

"Slut." Shen Mei whispered.

Yu Qi turned and gave deadly gaze to Shen Mei. 'This girl consistent in provoke her. Did I think I'm weak or what.' She came closer to Shen Mei's ear. "You better watch your mouth. You will invite death with it." Her voice sounds so sinister.

Shen Mei shivered when she heard that. Her voice sound like a grim reaper came to take her life. She looked at Yu Qi scarily. Yu Qi then turned and walked away to the staff room.

This was the second time she was been called in this room. Same with the first time, the teacher leave her and asked her to wait first. Someone had been seen her yesterday with Grandpa Tang and made rumour about it. The rumour that she sold herself to Grandpa Tang. She sighed with this situation.

She made an eye contact with the CCTV camera there and smiled. Once again, the teachers shocked with this. 'This student might knew about that camera.'

Then, Teacher Shim went into the room. Teacher Shim had been in charge in disciplining the student. With a frown look on his scary face, the students were afraid with him. Yu Qi did not afraid with him because her mental age. She already 26 years old in mental age. Not a girl who was 16 years old.

"Did you know why you were been called here?" asked Teacher Shim.

"Please tell me, teacher." Yu Qi was smiling.

Seeing this student was smiling, he felt angry. "We heard rumour about you are selling your body to man to get some money."

"Like Teacher Shim said, it just a rumour." Yu Qi made her sentence.

"Someone saw you with a old man. What's are you going to say about that?"

"That was my master. I...." Yu Qi did not get to finish her word.

Teacher Shim already cut off her sentence and insulted her. "So, it's true that you are being a slut and spread your legs to a man."

Chapter 22: Anger Exploded

Listening to his insult, she bangs the table in front of her. Teacher Shim and the other teacher who been seeing this through the CCTV camera were frightening with these situations.

"Enough. Did you call me here to insult me or what?" She narrowed her cold eyes and glare deadly to Teacher Shim.

Teacher Shim suddenly felt scary with this student. Her eyes look very scary. If a glare can kill, he might die already.

"It seems you already trust the rumor right?" She looked at Teacher Shim and turned to the CCTV camera.

The other teacher now believed that this student knew about this CCTV camera. How she knew about that, no one had the answer.

"Don't think I don't know about the law. You can be arrest by insult and slander me. So, what do you want to do? Hearing my explanation or we can settle this in front of policemen?" She already doesn't care about being rude. 'Dare to insult me and my master? Try it and you will face the consequence.' She already put Grandpa Tang in her heart.

Teacher Shim and other teacher were speechless. This girl is not simple. Very mature. Knew what the advantages that she can use. The room was silent. A few minutes later, Teacher Guan entered the room.

"Yu Qi, calm down. We just want to justify that rumor." She became a peacemaker in these situations.

"Okay." Yu Qi answered.

"Then, can you please tell about that." Teacher Guan asked politely.

"I'm selling ginseng that I found at the nearby mountain to a shop named Godly Herbs. That old man was the owner. He wants to take me as his disciple when he sees my talent in learning Chinese herb." Yu Qi stated the truth.

"We heard someone saw you at the bank."

"My master buy that ginseng at a very high price. I don't have an account bank. I'm afraid about the money might get stolen. So we went to the bank to open an account for me." She calmly explained this. "Well, if you don't believe me, you can call my master. He might be there at the Godly Herbs. That's the only shop that selling Chinese herbs in this town."

Teacher Shim and Teacher Guan looked at each other and nodded. They stand up. Teacher Guan turned to the Yu Qi.

"Thank you for your explanation. Wait here. If you want to go to the ladies, please go outside and tell the teacher there, okay." Teacher Guan smiling.

Teacher Shim did not say anything. He glanced to Yu Qi and went outside together with Teacher Guan. This was the first time she lost her calm since her reborn. Maybe because she could not stand hearing her master been insulted like that.

Yu Qi changed her posture. Now she was sitting like a CEO waiting for her partner to agree about her agreement. It was being a habit for her to sit like that. Well, she did become a CEO in her previous life. That's why people could not stand her and wanted to kill her. She smirked coldly.

When she was thinking about her previous life, her expression became darker. She remembered everything that happened but she forgot who was her real family. She really did not know why this happened. She just could wait. She has 4 years now to improve herself. If her real family did not find her, she will be the one who found them.

The teachers who were watching her through the CCTV camera found this student was not like other ordinary student. Her expression was very mature. It was not the expression that the teenager should have.

Chapter 23: Not All Women Like Your Wife.

"What? Dare badmouth my granddaughter? Hmph..." Grandpa Tang also bangs his table. The teacher who came inviting him to go to school frightened with his anger.

"Song Nan, take care of the shop. I want to go to school to settle this matter." Grandpa Tang prepared to leave. "Let go. Don't waste our time. That girl might feel scared."

The teacher only can reply that in his mind. 'Your granddaughter was not afraid with us. We were the one who afraid of her.'

After half an hour, they arrived at the school ground. Grandpa Tang's presence was very big. Some of the students took a look at him. Wang Fu Ya was the one among them.

"That was the old man with Yu Qi yesterday." Wang Fu Ya remembered exactly who's that old man because of his long white beard. Yes, she was the one who spread the rumor about Yu Qi selling her body to get some money.

"Yu Qi, are you okay?" Grandpa Tang spoke loudly when he entered the room and saw Yu Qi.

"Grandfather? They really went to see you?" She glared coldly to the teacher behind him.

The teacher felt the pressure when he saw Yu Qi glared at him like that. 'Don't be angry at me. I just follow the order to bring him here.'

"I want to see your principal ." Grandpa Tang did not want this matter continued.

Now this matter getting bigger when the principal involved. Yu Qi seemed okay with that. They went to the staff meeting room. The principal already there together with Teacher Shim and Teacher Guan.

"Doctor Tang, a pleasure to meet you here." The principal seemed to know Grandpa Tang.

"Hmmp, do you think I will be happy to be here to see my granddaughter been insulted?" Grandpa Tang made an annoyed face.

"No, no, no. I will handle this properly." Cold sweat appeared on the principal forehead.

Yu Qi looked at Grandpa Tang. 'My master is very powerful.' Grandpa Tang accidentally also turned at her and like a mind reader, he gave a proud look at her. 'Don't underestimate me. I'm quite powerful, you know.'

"Assembly all your student and explain this matter to them. Don't let them spread the rumor." Grandpa Tang gave the order.

"Yes, I will do it quickly." The principal nodded and asked the teacher to make an announcement.

All the students were be gathered at Student Hall. Many speculations had been heard among the students.

"I gathered all of you to clear the rumor about one of our students. I already investigated the matter and found out that the student was not involved in any prostitution. I hope if something like this happens again, please inform the teacher first. Don't spread the rumor among yourself. The teacher will investigate and justify the matter." The principal made his speech.

Grandpa Tang satisfied with the way the principal handled the matter. He nodded during the speech.

"Grandfather, I wonder about your identity. The principal seems afraid with you." Yu Qi amused with the principal.

"What afraid? You can use the word respect." Grandpa Tang rolled his eyes.

Student Yu Qi, you can go back to the classroom now." The principal said with a respected tone.

"Can I speak to the Teacher Shim alone?" Yu Qi requested.

Teacher Shim look surprised when Yu Qi made the request. He knew he was wrong by insulted Yu Qi but his pride as a teacher and an adult did not allow him to apologize to her.

Grandpa Tang looked at Yu Qi for a few minutes. " Let's go out." Grandpa Tang spoke to the principal. The principal left together with Grandpa Tang leaving Yu Qi and Teacher Shim alone.

"Teacher Shim, I ask you to stay not because I want you to apologize to me but to give you some advice. First, not all women like your wife. Second, stop thinking all women are the same. Last but not least, don't plan to commit suicide because of that woman. She doesn't deserve it. Collect the evidence about her cheating you and divorce her." She coolly said it.

How did she know about that? Well, it happened in her past life. Teacher Shim died by committing suicide because his wife was cheating with some men for money.

Teacher Shim did not move even after Yu Qi went out. Yeah, he knew that his wife cheated him. He even planned to commit suicide. But he ever told anyone about this. How did she know about this?

Chapter 24: We Are Just Classmate

Ignoring her classmate, she sat at her seat. Now she did not has the intention to make friends in this class. Even though she did not talk to them much but at least someone should came and asked her about this rumor. Yet, they just acknowledge that rumor and put the distance between her and them. She doesn't need this kind of friends.

"Yu Qi, can I ask you about that old man?" Suddenly Wang Fu Ya showed in front of her.

Raising her eyebrow, she asked her in a cold sentence. "And what's related with you?"

Wang Fu Ya was dumbstruck with her response. She just wanted to know about that old man. She felt that the old man was not a simple person. She knew that action taken by the principal was been instructed by that old man.

"Yu Qi, you should clear it up about the rumor to everyone. We worry about you." Wang Fu Ya said.

Yu Qi smirked. 'She wants to know herself about my master. She involves everyone in classmate. What's she think I will tell her everything if she doing this? Idiot plus moron.'

"No need for your worry. I don't deserve it. After that, we are not close to each other." Yu Qi sneered.

"But we are classmates."

"Exactly, we are just classmates. Coincidentally, placed in a room to study something. No more, no less." She cut off the sentence that came out of Wang Fu Ya's mouth.

Wang Fu Ya was tongue-tied. Same to the other people in that classroom.

"I don't care what's you want to think about me. Whether you think I'm a bitch or what. It does not really matter to me. Because what are you think about me does not affect me at all. After all, we are just classmate." Yu Qi did not want to continue this conversation turned her view to the outside window.

After that, the teacher came and started the final lesson for today. Yu Qi also made her plan for today. She will go the Godly Herbs to see Grandpa Tang and learn about the herbs. Next time she will enter her space. She may be will spend about 6 hours inside the space which mean only 2 hours outside. At night she still has to do her part-time job.

Chapter 25: Buy A Land

"Master, can you please help your disciple buy a land?" Yu Qi suddenly requested during her lesson with Grandpa Tang. Yu Qi likes to call Grandpa Tang, Master during her lesson as a form of respect.

"Huh? A land? What are you going to do with it?" Grandpa Tang felt strange with his disciple request.

"To own my property." She said with a silly smile on her face.

"I will give my land to you." Grandpa Tang stated with a couple of nods.

"No, I don't want your land. I want to buy it with my own money." She quickly cut off that idea.

"Why?"

"Because that is yours, not mine." She smirked.

"You are my granddaughter." Grandpa Tang doesn't mind giving her, his asset.

"Master, I guess you have a family too. If you give your asset to someone, your family might question it. Someone of them might not agree with it. I don't want to offend your family, Master." She explained. She already experienced it in her previous life.

Her grandfather found her and brought her back. Some of the family members did not accept her as family. Because of her talent in business, her grandfather named her as his heir. She thought it was normal. She worked hard and deserved it but never thought it would harm her.

Grandpa Tang in deep thinking. He understands what Yu Qi want to tell him. She might be the target. He did not any danger to Yu Qi.

"Do you know which area do you want to buy?" Grandpa Tang already gave the thought to give her his asset.

"Yes, " Yu Qi said with excitement. She already knew which area that she wants to buy.

"I want to buy three of them. One at a nearby mountain. Two, at behind the market and three beside the lake." She happily listed what she wanted.

Grandpa Tang was like [° | °]...Totally speechless. 'Why this lass want to buy so many lands?'

"Yu Qi Girl, what are you want to do with those three lands?" He managed to let the question from his mouth.

Yu Qi smiled widely. "It is a secret. I will let you know about it later."

Yu Qi felt very happy. There were some reasons why she chooses those three lands. The land at the nearby mountain was totally inhibited. Yeah, for now. Probably in the next three years, the price will increase because of tourism. The mountain contents flora and fauna that can attract nature lovers. It also has a waterfall.

The second land was behind the market. The market was a small one. If she gets the land now, she can be profitable with it. It was because of the next four years, the market will enlarge its size. The lastly, the land beside the lake. Well, she wished to build her house there.

Chapter 26: Buy A Land (2)

Nothing happened within these two days. Yu Qi felt her life became calm and she liked it. No one schemes and mess with her. Her classmate?? Yeah, they keep a distance. The far the distance, the better she felt.

She already has a plan with her master. He wants to bring her to see the broker of the land. Actually, she already knew the process to buy land. But she afraid a normal adult might not trust her and she also can get cheated. That why she asked Grandpa Tang to do on her behalf.

After school, she went to the Godly Herbs. She did not see Grandpa Tang around. Only Song Nan there taking care of the herbs.

"Hmm...Uncle Song, where is Grandpa Tang?" She asked politely.

"Just wait for a minute. He will come out later." Song Nan turned to her and answered it. Then he turned his attention back to the herbs.

"Thank you, Uncle Song." She still said thank you even though the person she was thanked for was not paid attention to her. She likes this kind of person. They just do what they want to do and don't mess with other people.

"Oh my disciple, you came." Grandpa Tang gave her a weird welcome to her.

She did not give any reaction to him. Only a strange look. Grandpa Tang who caught her looks that she gave him rolled his eyes.

"Hmph...You don't even play with me." Grandpa Tang felt upset. He just watched a drama regarding a master and its disciple and wanted to re-act the scene where when the disciple came to his master.

Yu Qi sighed. Sometimes she felt like Grandpa Tang like a kid. This was her thought about Grandpa Tang.

"Grandfather, you promise me today. We will be meeting the land broker. Don't tell me that you forget about that." Yu Qi gave him a reminder.

"Alright, alright. Let go now." Grandpa gave up when he saw her disciple serious look.

"Doctor Tang, nice to meet you again." Mr. Chu shakes hand with Grandpa Tang.

"Yeah, yeah. This is my disciple, Yu Qi. She is the one who wants to see you." Grandpa Tang introduced Yu Qi to Mr. Chu.

"What's a lovely girl. Nice to meet you."He also shakes hand with her.

Yu Qi was smiling politely.

"So, what kind of business do you want to see me?" Mr. Chu asked straight the point.

"I want to buy lands. Basically 3 lands."She answered confidently.

Mr. Chu is already interested in her attitude. She explained which of the land that she wants to buy. She also skillfully negotiated the price of the lands. That two adults surely surprised with her.

Chapter 27: Your Family Bad Luck

Wang Family House

"Mother, that bitch become more and more arrogant." Wang Fu Ya complained to her mother. "I went to talk to her but she ignored me many times. If not because of our safety, I don't want to waste my time talking to her. Mum, are you still want to try to convince her to come home? After a week, nothing happens. I think we are safe already." Wang Fu Ya did not want to talk to Yu Qi already.

Madam Wang in deep thinking. She also thought the same. But she could stop thinking about what the shaman told her that time.

"Arrrggh!!!" A loud scream can be heard outside their house.

The two of them quickly went outside to see what happen. Both of them was shocked by what were they seeing. They saw Wang Ha Na in the drain in front of their house.

"Ha Na, what's going on? Why are you sitting in the drain?" Wang Fu Ya asked a stupid question.

"What? Do you really think I want to sit in here? Of course not. I was fell down here." Wang Ha Na rudely retorted to Wang Fu Ya.

Wang Fu Ya frowned. She just asking. 'Hmph, not my fault that you fell down there. It's because of your stupidity.' She rolled her eyes.

"Quickly call your father. We have to lift your sister up." Madam Wang felt distressed when she saw her daughter sitting in the dirty drain.

Wang Fu Ya did not want to argue with her mother entered the house to call her father. Her father was sleeping. Hearing his daughter situation, he quickly runs out. Unfortunately, when he was running, he missteps and fell down. His left leg was sprained. He groaned.

Madam Wang heard the sound when her husband was fell down. Madam Wang runs to her husband. "Are you okay?"

"I think I sprained my legs." He said.

Wang Ha Na found out her mother was not with her. "Mum, hurry up and call father to lift me up. This drain is dirty and smelly. Mum." She screamed loudly.

Madam Wang just remembered that her daughter was in the drain. Now she was running toward her daughter. "My dear, your father fell down. Now your father's leg was sprained. Can you rise up yourself?"

"Mum, my leg was hurt. I can't stand up." Wang Ha Na could saw that her leg somehow bend strangely. "Mum, it started to hurt a lot." Wang Hana started to cry.

"Fu Ya, call Uncle Ming. We need his help to lift up your sister." Madam Wang began to panic.

After half of the hour, Wang Ha Na had successfully been lifted up by two men. Their neighbor, Madam Wang, thanked them. She was sitting beside Wang Ha Na's bedroom. She could see Wang Ha Na's leg. It really bends weirdly. She has to go to the hospital to get the treatment. Not only her daughter but also her husband. It's going to need a lot of money. How can she get some money?

"Mum, my legs... I'm going to be crippled and cannot walk anymore?" Wang Ha Na asked with her eyes full of tears.

"No, my dear. You will not. Mum will take care of something, okay." Wang Ha Na patted her daughter's head.

She went to see her husband. Her husband also in pain. She sighed. 'Why this happen? Don't tell me this happens because of that bitch who left my family.' She grinned her teeth hatefully.

"Husband, we need to send Wang Ha Na. She's in pain. Her legs look weird. If she doesn't get the treatment, maybe she will be a cripple." Madam Wang gave the look 'I need money' to Mr. Wang.

Mr. Wang hesitated to tell the truth to Madam Wang. The truth that he was gambling yesterday and lost the money. He does not have any money on him right now.

"Actually..." He eventually told the truth.

Hearing the truth, Madam Wang roared to her husband. She was really angry about this husband. She went to the living room to calm her anger. Wang Fu Ya and Wang Yu Jin were also there.

"Mum, please don't be angry anymore. You don't look beautiful that way." Wang Yu Jin started to coax her mother.

"Thank you, my son." Madam Wang patted his head gently.

"Mum, I already hear about father's gamble. We need money as soon as possible. I have a plan." Wang Fu Ya was smiling evilly.

Chapter 28: Scheme to Extort Yu Qi's Money

Wang Fu Ya began to explain her plan. "Mum, did you know that that bitch has a lot of money now? I don't know how she got it but I think I can assume. She became a mistress. Remember what I told you another day when she had been in the rumor about becoming a slut. That old man became her back up. From what I see, that old man is a rich man." Wang Fu Ya paused and took a breath then continued again. "We can go to her and accuse her for stealing our money. We can tell other people that you keep some amount of money and you also tell that bitch the location you keep the money."

"But it's been a week since that bitch left our house. Do you think people can believe it?" Madam Wang felt hesitated with this plan.

"Mum, we can say that you did not check the keep money for a long time. Our family suddenly need the money and want to use the money. So, you look for that money. Turn out the money was missing. This way people might think that she is the one who stole that money and that why she suddenly wants to left our family. We will ask her to return the money." Wang Fu Ya explaining to her mother.

"So how we will get the money from that bitch, sister?" Wang Yu Jin also joined in this conversation.

"We will keep pushing her until we get the money. Under the pressure and people around, I think she will give up and asks that old man to help her if she doesn't have the money with her." Wang Fu Ya felt this plan will succeed.

"We need to face her in front of many people. We need to get people to our side." Madam Wang already understands the full plan.

"Yes, mum. Did she has a part-time job at that restaurant? We will visit her tonight." So the plan to extort money from Yu Qi began.

In the Space

Yu Qi just finished her lesson about Chinese medicine. She already could treat some minor injury using Chinese herbs. She probably will start to learn about modern medicine. She wants to combine that two methods. It will create a good treatment.

Now she heading to the martial arts room. But she will not learn about the martial arts for today. She will learn about firearms. Ways to handle the gun, how dispart the gun, and the most interesting part is the way to shoot.

She selected the instructor. Today instructor was also handsome. She randomly picked the instructor. From what she could see from a week training, all the instructors were very good looking. If they came out to the outside world, maybe they can become the idol. She became immune with a good looking man. That for sure.

She looked down to her hand. She was holding a gun. 22 LK. The instructor told her it was a safe choice for the beginner to learn about shooting. It was a tiny rimfire round chambered in the anemic 22 caliber.

This gun was a perfect training caliber for shooters looking mainly to target practice and plink.

She spent about 3 hours learning about the firearm. Her hand still trembling due to the excitement. She still remembered the first time she pulled the trigger.

"Master, are you okay?" Bo Ya looked at Yu Qi and her hand.

"Bo Ya, I'm okay. I just felt excited. In my previous life, I did want to learn about the shooting but my grandfather forbids me to do so." Yu Qi keeps looking at her hand.

"Don't worry master. What are you want to learn, you can learn here." Bo Ya's small hand holding her hand.

"Let's go. I want to pick up some wild vegetables to sell. I sold some to the auntie at the market, she requested me to sell to me if I want to sell these again. She told me that some of her customers want to buy them again. I'm so happy to hear that. And the most interesting is the money." She said with a happy tone.

So they went to the garden to collect some wild vegetables. Yu Qi also collected some fruits to give to her boss.

Chapter 29: The Agreement

The restaurant was full with its customer. The food keeps came out from the kitchen to be served to its customer. Yu Qi was the one among the waitress who served the customer.

Outside the restaurant, Madam Wang and Wang Fu Ya prepared themselves to enter the restaurant. Tonight plan has to succeed. They smile. They were confident with their plan. That bitch will not be free from their accusations. Then they get the money.

"Where is Yu Qi? I want to see her." A loud voice from Madam Wang make a restaurant with the noise became quiet.

Everyone was looking at Madam Wang. Behind her, Wang Fu Ya followed her step entering the restaurant. Yu Qi narrowed the eyes. No good came from these two humans. Yu Qi approaching them. She was eyeing them with cold eyes.

"I'm here. Why do you want to see me?" asked Yu Qi.

"Return our money that you stole." Madam Wang began to accuse her.

Yu Qi's face did not make any changes. She still had a blank expression on her face. It seems that accusation from Madam Wang was nothing to her.

"Do you hear me? Return our money." Madam Wang stated it twice.

"You stole our money and asked me what money? Little bitch." Madam Wang started to curse her.

"Mother, calm down. We here just want sister to return our money, that all. I don't want mum get sick too." Wang Fu Ya rubbed her mother's back. She then looked at Yu Qi and continued. "Sis, please return the money you stole from us. Our father and sister are injured. We need the money to bring them to get some treatment."

"As I said, what money. I did not steal money. Why are you accuse me when I already left your house?" Yu Qi still needs some information to confirm something. She thinks she can guess what is this duo want to do.

"Mum keeps some money for an emergency at some place. Mum said only you knew about it since mum told you about it. Even I don't know about it." Wang Fu Ya made a sad face. "Today our father and sister are injured. Mum went to get the money and found out the money already missing. Mum doesn't check the money for a long time. So, we think....." Wang Fu Ya really went to the character.

"So, you all think I stole it." She made an icily laugh while stared straight to Wang Fu Ya's eyes.

Wang Fu Ya instantly felt shivered. She could felt Yu Qi see through their plan. But she could not give up now. This plan must succeed.

"And then, you think that I left your house because I stole your money." Yu Qi told the rest of their plan.

Wang Fu Ya's face slightly changed her expression but it was just for a minute. However, Yu Qi caught it.

"Please, sis. Return the money to us. Father and sister need that money." Wang Fu Ya started to cry.

"Then may I know how much money I stole from you?" It was a normal question but Wang Fu Ya got the strange feeling from it.

But Madam Wang seemed did not get it. Her greedy surfaced on her face. Quickly she answered that question.

"One thousand." A slightly excited tone can be heard from her voice.

Wang Fu Ya frowned. 'This plan might be ruined by mum.' She could not afford that. However, the response from Yu Qi surprised her.

"Okay. Wait for a minute. I will get it upstairs." Yu Qi turned and went upstairs.

Everyone was shocked. That Yu Qi really stole the money from her ex-foster family. Madam Wang felt very happy with this. The plan was successful. That bitch did not have anything to say but to obey it. Madam Wang turned and looked at her daughter. 'My daughter is very clever.'

Wang Fu Ya keeps got the strange feeling like something will happen. It was very weird because of Yu Qi seemed to surrender without fighting. After a few minutes of thinking, she began to accept Yu Qi surrender. Maybe Yu Qi doesn't have any explanation for this. She started to make a small smile.

Yu Qi showed up with two envelopes. A big one and a small one. Firstly, she opened the big one and gave th document inside it to Madam Wang. Madam Wang felt confused with this document.

"If you don't understand, you can give to your daughter to read them." Yu Qi made a gesture toward Wang Fu Ya.

Madam Wang gave them to Wang Fu Ya. Wang Fu Ya started to read it. It stated in the document, Yu Qi will give 10,000 to them and just this once. If the Wang Family try to get some money from her again, Yu Qi can reject and make proper legal action will be taken. Please sign below if you agree with this.

Those two only saw that amount that Yu Qi will give to them. 10,000. It was a very big amount. Wang Fu Ya made her mother this document quickly. She was afraid Yu Qi would change her mind. Madam Wang signed it and gave the document to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi saw the expression on their look. It almost like a dog waiting for its master to play with it. She took a small envelope and gave to Madam Wang.

"You can go to that room and calculate the amount. If you calculate it here, people might want to steal that money." Yu Qi made a small whisper to Wang Fu Ya.

Wang Fu Ya then asked her mother to follow her. They went to the room that Yu Qi pointed out. They took out the money from the envelope and smiling when they saw the money.

"Mum, I told you. That bitch now very rich. She can give this amount of money in a blinking eye. She might have more. Don't calculate it. Just tell her it's enough for. The moment the money is out, we can tell her, the amount that she gives to us is not the right amount. We can get more money from her." Wang Fu Ya happily made a plan to get more money from Yu Qi. She seemed to forget the agreement that they already signed before. They went out and want to go home.

"Thank you, Sis, for returning our money. I hope you will stop it." Wang Fu Ya did not forget to accuse her for stealing the money one more time.

"Why are you want to return first? Wait. I have something to tell you." Yu Qi's statement holding them from going home.

Chapter 30: A Twist Truth

Seeing Yu Qi blocking them to return home, Wang Fu Ya and Madam Wang frowned. They were afraid if Yu Qi wanted them to return the money back.

Yu Qi was smiling sweetly. How could she don't know about their thought? It already was written on their face. She did not want that money back. She wanted to give Wang Family for their effort raising her until now.

"Just to be clear, I did not steal your back. I will never admit to the crime that I did not do it." Yu Qi said loud and clear.

The frown look on the Wang Family keeps increase. Wang Fu Ya mind this moment tried to figure out what was Yu Qi planned to do.

"They try to accuse me stealing the money that was never existed." Yu Qi's statement made people in that restaurant making the noise.

"Sis, we don't want the matter to be pursued anymore. You already return the money to us. If you keeping doing this, your reputation will be ruined." Wang Fu Ya silently gave Yu Qi to stop.

"My reputation? I will manage it myself. May I ask Madam Wang since when you started to keep that money?" Yu Qi had laid her trap. She was waiting to Madam Wang to jump into it.

"One year old." Madam Wang quickly answered that. She just to leave this place quickly.

"Oh, then let me ask you, what is your husband monthly wage?" Yu Qi threw the question again.

"500. What? It is not related to this matter." Madam Wang started to feel angry. Madam Wang thought Yu Qi just randomly ask that question.

"Idiot." Yu Qi stated that word. Clearly, it was aimed at Madam Wang. "Did you said before you started to keep 1000 one years old. Calculating from your husband's wage, minus monthly rent, daily utilities around 450, you will get around 50 to save. Then that 50 multiple with 12 months, you only can save around 600. Did you say you did not check it for a long time?" Yu Qi laid her last trap.

"Yes." Madam Wang still answered confidently. Wang Fu Ya already understand what Yu Qi tried to say. She tried to pull her mother sleeve. But her mother did not notice that.

"Moron." Yu Qi stated the same meaning of the word 'stupid'.

"So, that money never existed in the first place. This old man really opens his eyes now. I saw many shameless people but never thought I would see someone shameless yet an idiot. Accuse someone stealing her non-exist money?" One old man standing and joined their conversation.

Wang Fu Ya already pale. This was because of her mother. She just ruined everything with her mouth. Seeing her mother wanted to say something, she pulled her mother sleeve strongly making Madam Wang turned to her. She shakes her head. Madam Wang knew something was wrong.

"Let me tell you something. Five days ago, I went to the nearby mountain to find some wild vegetables to sell."

"Yeah, we saw that girl. We also reminded her not to go to that mountain but she insisted." The man just spoke is the villager that she meets on the way to the mountain.

Yu Qi continued her story. "I went into the mountain and manage to collect some wild vegetables. However, I also found something else. I found ginseng. It's not normal ginseng. It's a 1000 years old ginseng. So, I sold to a shop. They paid in 5 million for that ginseng. That why I have some money with me. I don't steal your money. If you don't believe me, you can go and ask that shop. Its name was Godly Herbs." Yu Qi finished her story looking provoked to Wang Fu Ya.

" Oh, you are the one who sold that ginseng to Old Man Tang. He brags to me about that." The old man earlier spoke again.

With this, it was proof that Yu Qi was telling the truth. Now everyone looked at Wang Fu Ya and Madam Wang with many different looks.

"I will give that money to you as my gratitude for raising me. Now we own nothing each other." Yu Qi pointed straight to the envelope that Madam Wang hold.

That two women froze when they heard. Madam Wang managed to recover herself pulled Wang Fu Ya's hand escaped from here. Yu Qi smirked evilly. She will never be kind to that person who wanted to hurt her.
