

INTELLIGENT 231

Chapter 231 - 231: Xia Qin

All of the men were stunned seeing their best fighter injured in the fighting. Yu Qi pulled out her knife swiftly of Hon Fong's flesh.

"Who's want to try this?" Yu Qi talked. She acted like a serial killer in the movie and gone crazy after seeing the blood. She was smiling when seeing the blood in her knife.

The men felt scared. They ran away from that place. No, from the she-devil. They thought if they did not run away from that place, they would be the next person that she stabbed.

Yu Qi put down the knife. She turned to Hon Fong that sat down on the ground wearing indifferent expression.

Yu Qi looked at his right shoulder where she stabbed it. She opened her bag. Her bag almost like a first aid box. She pulled out the things to treat the wound.

Hon Fong was surprised seeing Yu Qi tended to treat his wound. He did not move. He just let the girl treated his wound. The wound closed very beautifully with her skill. Hon Fong once again surprised with her skill.

"Why are you treat my wound?" Hon Fong asked.

"Well, I don't know." Yu Qi said. "Maybe I'm kind."

Hon Fong looked at this little girl inexplainable look. 'Why I think this girl wants to brag?'

"Why don't you dodge my attack?" Yu Qi asked.

Hon Fong's eyes lifted up. This girl was an expert in knife use. He could see from her move just now. If he dodged that attack, another one would follow up. It was better to stop first.

"Well, I want to see the knife. It is a beautiful knife. That is why I don't dodge it." Hon Fong answered Yu Qi's question. Well, it was also the truth. The knife looked very beautiful. The knife handle crafted with beautiful marks.

"Can I have that knife?" Hon Fong shamelessly asked for the knife.

"Mr. Hon, are you stupid or I'm stupid?" Yu Qi left after asking that question.

Hon Fong was smiling even after Yu Qi insulated him.

"Little girl, my true name is Xia Qin. We will meet again." Hon Fong or Xia Qin shouted to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi did not even turn back.

The bloody scene just occurred at this place. The iron blood smell intruded the air. A lot of people trembled to see what just happened. It almost like they encountered some devil and came from hell.

A person was standing in the blood flood. He was looking at the people in front of him. He was holding the gun at the left hand. He lifted up the gun and smiled at the people in front of him.

"Who's order you to hurt her?" The devil asked.

"It was... A girl." A man spoke in trembling.

Someone needed to talk. Otherwise, this devil would berserk again. The bloody scene was his doing. He could kill people just like that. But he did not. He just shot at the area that not critical. He just wanted to torture them.

"A girl?" The devil asked again.

"Yes. She asked us to rape the girl and recorded the act. So, she can use it to threaten the other girl." Another person answered.

"Oh, that is interesting." The devil flashed a smile. Yeah, a smile that could freeze their life.

They started to tremble again. The devil wore the same smile when he was in the berserk mood just now. Would he go to berserk again?

"You and you. Go and bring the girl that you mentioned earlier. Don't you dare to run.? Otherwise, I will hunt you." The devil ordered the two men.

"Yes. We will find the girl and bring her here. We will not run away." The men said in a hurry.

"Go now."

The two men ran to complete their mission.

"And now, we will be waiting for them." The devil said.

.....

"Mum, I'm leaving." Wang Fu Ya said before she left the house, she went to her job.

"Okay." Madam Wang said goodbye to her daughter.

Madam Wang sewing the teddy bears. It was her current job. Wang Ha Na got out of her room and approached her mother.

"Mum, you know what is sister's job?" Wang Ha Na inquired.

"Why are you asking about it?" Madam Wang did not look at Wang Ha Na.

"I just feel weird. Sister always has the latest season of things. Those things must be expensive. Why she throws the money buying those expensive things?" Wang Ha Na told her mother.

"Your sister said it was a gift from someone. Maybe her boyfriend." Madam Wang told her daughter. But it was more to convince herself.

Wang Ha Na smirked. Boyfriend? More like a sugar daddy. Maybe her mother already knows but did not want to acknowledge it.

However, who thought that would be the last day they heard about Wang Fu Ya.

Chapter 232 - 232: Questioned By The Police Officers

Yu Qi was currently massaged her grandfather's back. Grandpa Tang gladly accepted his granddaughter's massage. His granddaughter was indeed skillful in massaging people.

"Is the pressure okay for you, grandfather?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah. It is very good." Grandpa Tang sighed happily.

Yu Qi smiled. It was worth that she learned about massage. She could massage her grandfather as long as she got the time. Her grandfather needed to take care of his body since his old age. Even though she already gave the pill that she created but it was not enough. Extra taking care of the body also needed.

"Miss, someone is looking for you. They are waiting for you." Sister Chu Xiao came inside the living room and informed Yu Qi.

Yu Qi frowned. "Do they say who are they?"

"They are police officers." Sister Chu Xiao said.

"Police?" Grandpa Tang already stood up. "Let's go to see what are they want from you?"

Grandpa Tang pulled Yu Qi's hand and went to see the police officers. As Sister Chu Xiao said, there were two police officers waited for her. Who was not anxious when the police officer came to their house and looking for their family?

"What do you want from my granddaughter?" Grandpa Tang agitated so he asked them with an angry tone.

"Grandfather, calm down." Yu Qi said patting his back. Then she turned to the police officers. "Please forgive my grandfather."

The police officers nodded. They understood about her grandfather's attitude. It was an old man worried about his granddaughter.

"I'm the one you looking for. Can I know why are you looking for me?" Yu Qi spoke to them with a calm tone.

The police officers smiled when seeing this girl asked them politely about their purpose for coming here. If someone else, they might look very worried.

"We received a report about missing people. Do you know a girl with the name Wang Fu Ya?" The police officer named Sir Kang on his uniform asked.

"Yes, I know her." Yu Qi nodded.

"When did you last met her?" Another police officer named Sir Jun took a turn to ask.

"Two days ago. We were having a meeting at Suran's Restaurant." Yu Qi answered with an explanation.

"What are you talking about?"

Yu Qi suddenly smiled. The police officer became weird when she smiled like that.

"She wanted to have a talk with me. So we went to that restaurant. She said she wanted to apologize but..." Yu Qi paused.

The police officer really wanted to hear the rest urgent her to continue. "But what?"

"She drugged my tea. Having the nose that sensitive to the smell, I know something else was added inside my tea. She put some?aphrodisiac inside my tea and wanted some unknown men to defiled me. After exposed her plan, I left the restaurant." Yu Qi ended the story.

The two police officers had a complicated expression on their faces. Listening to Yu Qi's story, the police officer could not conclude anything. It just one sided story. No one knew the truth. And again, from the story, Yu Qi might be a suspect for Wang Fu Ya's missing case.

"Oh, just for your information, I did record the video that day. Would you like to see it?" Yu Qi said that sentence.

That sentence was like a bomb to them. They watched the girl with a weird look again. In their mind, they were thinking why a girl like her brought a camera to record something like that. However, they put the thought aside and asked for the video.

"Sister Chu Xiao, please bring my laptop on my bed here." Yu Qi asked Sister Chu Xiao.

Sister Chu Xiao quickly went to her young miss's room. The laptop was exactly like her young miss said, was on her young miss's bed. She took and brought it to her young miss.

"Thank you, Sister Chu Xiao." Yu Qi thanked Sister Chu Xiao after the laptop safely got onto her hand.

Yu Qi opened the laptop and turned on the video for the police officers to see. The police officer watched the video until the end.

"So, this waiter was her?accomplice. He was the one who put the?aphrodisiac inside your tea?" Grandpa Tang asked in angry.

"Sigh... Grandfather, just calm down. Let the police officer dealing with this kind of thing." Yu Qi once again calmed down her grandfather.

"Miss Tang, can we have a copy of this video?" Sir Kang asked politely.

"Sure. I will give a copy to you." Yu Qi nodded.

"Miss Tang, I just want to ask one more question. Forgive me if you think it is a rude question." Sir Jun asked for permission.

"Sure. Just ask."

"Why did you bring the camera and record your meeting with Miss Wang?" Sir Jun gave her the question.

Chapter 233 - 233: New Office

"It is for my safety. Wang Family used to threaten me for my money. Not to mention, even the younger daughter of Wang Family, Wang Ha Na came to see me at my workplace three days ago asking for the money. That was the reason." Yu Qi explained the reason.

The police officer nodded.

"Thank you for your cooperation, Miss Tang. If you have some information again, please don't hesitate to call the police and tell us about that." The police officer stood up and excused themselves.

"That Wang Family. How dare they trying to ask for my granddaughter's money." Grandpa Tang bangs the table.

Yu Qi smiled. Grandpa Tang got angry on her behalf. It was proof that Grandpa Tang loved her. It made her heart felt warm.

"But I wonder where did Wang Fu Ya go?" Yu Qi was curious about that.

"Just ignore that family. They were nothing to us." Grandpa Tang said.

"Yeah. I will listen to my grandfather. Oh, do you want to continue the massage?" Yu Qi asked with a genuine smile to her grandfather.

"Of course. I was enjoying it until that policemen came. You need to restart it." Grandpa Tang demanded.

"Okay. Anything for my beloved grandfather."

.....

Yu Qi went to the office that Su Yu Hi set up in Shiwa Town. Su Yu Hi said Mrs. Wong wanted to see her regarding the interior design of the ryokan. Seemed Mrs. Wong already finally the draft of the interior design.

Yu Qi was greeted by a woman dressed in the business attire. In the office, only three people were presented. They did not pay attention to her at all. They were just doing her own job.

"Miss, what is your business coming to our office?" The woman asked.

"I want to see Brother Yu Hi. Is he not coming yet?" Yu Qi asked while smiling.

The woman's mouth twitched. 'Another stupid woman fell to Mr. Su. Pitiful.' The woman gave a sad look to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi watched the woman's expression. She wondered why this woman gave her that expression.

"Miss, Mr. Su got an appointment. So, he will not enter the office today." The woman said politely.

"Oh, I can wait." Yu Qi said.

"But..." The woman did not manage to finish the word.

"Yu Qi, you are here."

It was Su Yu Hi escorted Mrs. Wong into the office.

"Oh, Miss Tang, I already finished the design. I can't wait to show it to you." Mrs. Wong greeted her in an energetic way.

"Really? Let me see it." Yu Qi said. Influenced by the energetic way of Mrs. Wong, she responded to Mrs. Wong.

Su Yu Hi sighed. This two. "Okay, Yu Qi, you can use that office." Su Yu Hi pointed to the closed room.

"Mr. Su, that is the boss's room." The woman reminded Su Yu Hi.

"Do you ask that girl's name?" Su Yu Hi asked.

"No."

"Then, do you listen to what's name that I use to call her?"

"Hmmm... Yu Qi." The woman opened her eyes as far as she could. Her hands were placed onto her mouth. It was a sign of shock.

"Is that our lady boss?" The woman managed to ask Su Yu Hi.

"Yes."

Inside the room

"I already designed as you requested. Take a look at it." Mrs. Wong showed the file inside her laptop.

Yu Qi looked?meticulously the design. The more she looked, the more she felt impressed by the design. After a long period, Yu Qi already did go through the design. The overall design was very impressive.

"Mrs. Wong, thank you for the great design." Yu Qi smiled. Then, she continued, "When you want to start it?"

"As soon as possible." Mrs. Wong quickly replied to Yu Qi.

"Well then, I will get Brother Yu Hi to draft the contract. After you sign it, you can start the job." Yu Qi stood up and shakes hand with Mrs. Wong.

"Pleasure to work with you, Mrs. Wong."

"Me too."

Mrs. Wong left the office.

"Draft the contract for Mrs. Wong. I already satisfied with her design. I want to use her design for my ryokan." Yu Qi gave order to Su Yu Hi.

"Here, I already draft it. Please review it." Su Yu Hi quickly placed the contract in front of. yu Qi.

"Thank you."

Yu Qi reviewed the contract. She did some corrections to the term and conditions of the contract. Only after that, she gave back to Su Yu Hi.

"Oh, let me introduce the employees here." Su Yu Hi said. "This is Sang Ya Min, Fong Jue Rei, and Han Yi Dong."

"Hi, everyone. I'm Tang Yu Qi. Nice to meet you."

"Miss Tang, about earlier... I'm sorry." Sang Ya Min, the woman earlier bowed to her.

"I know. You just do your work." Yu Qi waved her hand.

"Thank you for not firing me, Miss Tang. I'm promised to work hard."

Chapter 234: Accusation

The semester break going to end. She only got about five more days before she would be going back to Starlight University. And Yu Qi was definitely busy. Most of her time spent at the greenhouse.

Today, transportation came to transport the goods to Wenya City, J Market. Yu Qi supervised the workflow. However, something happened at the main entrance. Someone, oh it was two people came and disturbed the work.

"Come out, you little bitch." They shouted loudly.

"Miss Yu Qi, it is the girl before together with a middle-aged woman." Song Tao came to inform Yu Qi.

Well, she could predict that. They were the only idiots that liked to provoke her. Yu Qi calmly walked approaching the main entrance.

When those people saw her, they shouted louder. Yu Qi sighed.

"You little bitch. Give me my daughter back." Madam Wang screamed again.

"Why are asking me to give your daughter back?" Yu Qi asked in a relaxed tone.

"I know it was you that kidnapped my daughter. Give me her back. Or I will report the police." Madam Wang grinded her teeth. She was very angry when she knew that Wang Fu Ya was meeting with Yu Qi from people around. She thought it was definitely Yu Qi's work to hide her daughter.

"Sister Yu Qi, can you be kind and let go of my elder sister. We will forget the matter and never tell the police." Wang Ha Na said with the tear in her eyes.

Yu Qi was laughing in her mind. She knew people in front of her wanted people around especially her employees lost their respect for her.

"Oh, really?" Yu Qi paused seeing the mother and daughter pair with her cold eyes. "I would like to involve the police in this case."

"Brother Tao, can you call the police here?" Yu Qi asked Song Tao made the report call to the police about this situation.

Understood her order, Song Tao entered back the greenhouse and made a call to the police station and told them about the situation here.

"Your beloved daughter is missing and you are thinking that I was the one that kidnapped your daughter. Do you think I have time to do so?" Yu Qi was mocking the mother and daughter pair.

"You may be not doing it by yourself. You can use other people to do the crime. Since you have a lot of money." Madam Wang retorted back.

"If I want to do something to her or your family, you will leave this world already." Yu Qi crossed her hand hugging her own body, standing like a queen.

"You are not worthy of my time." Yu Qi smirked.

Wang Ha Na and Madam Wang glared angrily to Yu Qi. It was the truth. Yu Qi could destroy them completely two years ago but Yu Qi did not do so.

"But if it is not you, then who? You are the only one had a grudge toward our family." Wang Ha Na Said.

"Are you sure about that?" Yu Qi gave a smile to Madam Wang and Wang Ha Na.

Madam Wang startled when she saw that smile.

"Only you are so ungrateful when you left our family." Wang Ha Na replied to Yu Qi.

You might not know, your sister does have a lot of enemies. I meant future enemies." Yu Qi said.

"What do you mean by that?" Wang Ha Na asked. She indeed did not understand that statement.

"Well, considering her current work right now, she may have a lot of enemies around her. After all, she is..." Yu Qi did not manage to finish the sentence.

"You, stop right there." Madam Wang stopped Yu Qi.

Yu Qi knew Madam Wang already knew her daughter's current job. She made some assumptions from this. Firstly, Wang Fu Ya might follow someone rich and left her family behind. Maybe she left her family on her own or that rich man did not allow her to return again to her family. The second assumption was she got caught by the rich man's wife and got killed somewhere else.

That two assumptions already in her mind since the last visit of the two police officers. If Wang Fu Ya was in the first assumption, she was fine. But if her current situation was the second assumption, Yu Qi afraid she was not already in this world.

However, Yu Qi impressed with Madam Wang. Madam Wang seemed to know Wang Fu Ya's true job and still allowed her to continue the work. She knew their current financial situation. If Wang Fu Ya found the normal job, she could also survive along with her family.

Chapter 235: Have Future Enemy

"Don't you dare speak nonsense." Madam Wang shouted again.

"Are you not tired of shouting like that?" Yu Qi asked Madam Wang again with a mocking tone.

Madam Wang was very angry so she cursed a lot to Yu Qi. Yu Qi just standing there. She did not make anything to stop Madam Wang from cursing her.

Later on, there were two police officers came to their place. The two police officers were Sir Jun and Sir Kang that Yu Qi met last night questioned about Wang Fu Ya's missing case.

"We received a report regarding the trespassing of the private property." Sir Jun talked to them.

Sir Jun recognized one of the people here. It was that girl, Ms.Tang. He met this girl another day.

"Miss Tang, we met again." They greeted her.

Yu Qi nodded acknowledging them.

Then, Sir Kang looked at three of them and asked. "What is happening here?"

"Sir, she hides my daughter." Madam Wang pointed to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi did not respond to that?accusation. She knew if she denied, Madam Wang would not believe it. She would let the police officer took charges dealing with this.

"Madam, I'm not biased but if it is true that Miss Tang here really kidnaps your daughter, you must present the evidence." Sir Kang calmly explained to Madam Wang.

"She is the only one who has the motive to kidnap my daughter." Madam Wang said angrily while pointing to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi sighed. "Madam Wang, there are a lot of people who have a motive to do so. Would you like me to tell about those people?"

Madam Wang knew Yu Qi was threatening her about telling the truth about Wang Fu Ya's current job. The police might already know about the truth but others were not. She could not let Yu Qi destroyed Wang Fu Ya's reputation.

The police officers did know about Wang Fu Ya's current job. They already investigated that. Wang Fu Ya was an escort. Her job was to accompany the rich men that wanted some services of the young girls.

"Madam, we currently investigate this case. Please don't act rash. Please wait until we get the conclusion about this case " Sir Jun said.

Madam Wang still did not satisfied with Yu Qi. But she knew she could not do anything to Yu Qi. So, she pulled Wang Ha Na leaving the place. Before she left, she glared with anger in her eyes.

Yu Qi saw and sneered. 'Glare as many you wanted. I am not afraid of you."

"Sirs, thank you for your help. If you don't come here, I bet they would not leave this place." Yu Qi thanked the two police officers.

"This is nothing. We will leave. Miss Tang, please be aware of your surroundings." After that, the two police officers left the greenhouse.

"Miss Yu Qi, the goods already transferred into the lorry. They are going to leave now." Song Tao came to inform the progress of their work.

"Hmm... Okay." Yu Qi nodded.

"About the matter earlier, I think those people will come to disturb us." Song Tao told Yu Qi.

"Brother Tao, if people from the Wang family come again, ask first, what do they want? If they want to disturb our workflow, simply report it to the police. And if you can't take it anymore, call Brother Yu Hi. He will know how to deal with them." Yu Qi explained.

"Okay, Miss Yu Qi. I will do as your instruction." Song Tao said.

"One more thing, please inform all of the YQ Greenhouse. We are going to have dinner two days later. The place, well we can not do it at my house. There is not enough space. Hmm... Okay. I will book a restaurant. I will inform you later about the place." Yu Qi said.

"Alright, Miss Yu Qi." After that, Song Tao left Yu Qi alone.

Yu Qi wanted to reward her employees. She did last time when she only had five employees at that time. So, she cooked for them. However, to cook at a large number, she had to give up the idea. So, the best choice is to treat them at the restaurant.

Yu Qi immediately called Su Yu Hi. She wanted to discuss this matter as soon as possible since she would leave soon or later.

"Hello." A man's voice answered the call.

"Brother Yu Hi, do you know the nearby restaurant that can be booked for one night?" Yu Qi asked directly.

"Number of people?"

"Around one hundred and twenty."

"When?"

"Two days later."

"Sure I will come back to you this evening."

"Okay, thank you." Yu Qi ended the call.

Yu Qi really likes Su Yu Hi's style of working. If he told her, he would do it, he would find a way to complete the task.

Chapter 236: Being Followed In The Dark

As Su Yu Hi said, he called Yu Qi in the evening. At that time, Yu Qi prepared to leave the greenhouse. She picked up the call.

"Hello, Yes, Brother Yu Hi, what is it?" Yu Qi asked.

"Oh, Yu Qi, regarding the restaurant you wanted to booked." Su Yu Hi began to talk.

"Yes?"

"I already booked a restaurant called Qianya Restaurant in Pinyin Town. It is worth the price. The menu choice also great." Su Yu Hi told her about the restaurant.

"Okay. Before I forget, ask those who on the YQ office too. You too, Brother Yu Hi." Yu Qi said to Su Yu Hi.

"Okay. I will inform them."

"Oh, one more thing." Yu Qi's voice turned to a serious one. Like the matter that she wanted to speak after this, it was a very grave topic.

"What is the thing?"

Su Yu Hi waited for Yu Qi to speak.

"Brother Yu Hi, please bring your girlfriend too. Bye." After saying it, Yu Qi hangs up the call and smiled.

Yu Qi always wanted to prank Su Yu Hi. She bet Su Yu Hi was speechless at this time. Like Yu Qi thought Su Yu Hi was speechless. He was looking at his phone. Is that brat teasing him because he did not have a girlfriend?

Yu Qi turned on the PA system. Adjusting her voice, Yu Qi talked to the microphone.

"Attention to all the workers, please gather in front of the office." Yu Qi spoke.

About 15 minutes later, all of the employees were gathered in front of the office. Yu Qi stood in front of them.

"Before I'm going to back to study, I want to reward all of you." Yu Qi smiled.

Hearing word reward, all the employees were happy. Who did not like the reward?

"For that, I already booked a restaurant, Qianya Restaurant. For those, who did not have transport, please list down the name, we will arrange that. Those who already have a family, you can bring your family. To those do not have your own family, you can bring at least two people with you."

All of the employees were smiling when hearing there would be dinner for them. Song Tao took out papers and distributed it to the employees that did not have transportation to go to the Qianya Restaurant.

Yu Qi walked along the road to her house together with Aoi. The sky already turned its color to darkness. Yu Qi could feel someone was following her.

"Aoi, do you smell someone behind us?" Yu Qi asked Aoi for confirmation since the dog could smell the thing far away.

Aoi stopped and watched back. He frowned.

"Master, you are right. Someone is following us right now. Be careful. I smell this once before. But I don't remember it." Aoi confirmed it.

"Okay." Yu Qi became more alert with the surrounding. She had many theories in her mind about the person that currently following her. Maybe it was the Wang family that hired the person. They wanted Yu Qi to handle back Wang Fu Ya. Or Wang Fu Ya herself initiated someone to hurt her.

Yu Qi increased her speed. Even though she considered herself strong but she did not want to take the risk. What if that person was stronger than her? That would be bad.

"Master, that person also increases their speed," Aoi informed Yu Qi.

"Meaning, their target is me." Yu Qi smiled. "Just walk fast. I don't like to fight in the darkness." Yu Qi said to Aoi.

"Okay."

The two of them arrived at Godly Herbs safely. She took a relief breath. Nothing happened.

Chapter 237: Where Is Your Girlfriend?

Two days later

The day of the arranged dinner with her employees arrived. Yu Qi was waiting for her grandpa to go together. Sister Chu Xiao would be joined them too. Yu Qi also asked Uncle Song Nan to join them but Uncle Song Nan rejected it. He did not like to be around with a crowd. Yu Qi did not force him because she knew his character. He would send them and return home waiting for them to come back, so he would go and fetch them.

However, something unexpected did happen. When they got out of the house, a car stopped right in front of their house. Yu Qi recognized the car. A dashing handsome man stepped out of the car.

"Qi Qi." Yeah, it was Long Hui, our male lead. Only him that called Yu Qi like that.

"Brother Hui." Yu Qi smiled. "What are you doing here?"

"Just want to meet you. I miss you." Long Hui caressed Yu Qi's face.

Yu Qi smiled shyly. Grandpa Tang had to fake his cough to make sure that the two little love birds did not forget about other people around them.

Yu Qi and Long Hui turned to Grandpa Tang. One looked very shy and one looked very proud.

Ignoring Long Hui, Grandpa Tang spoke to Yu Qi. "Let's go. We are going to be late."

"Where are you going?" Long Hui asked Yu Qi.

"We are having dinner with my greenhouse's employees. Oh, come with us. That's if you have free time." Yu Qi invited Long Hui on the spot.

"Of course, I have free time for you. Let's use my car." Long Hui accepted her invitation without thinking a second thought.

"Grandfather, let's go with Brother Hui's car. We don't have to trouble Uncle Song Nan by sending and fetching us." Yu Qi smiled.

"Yeah, yeah... I know. Let's go now." Grandpa Tang walked to Long Hui's car and entered the back seat.

Yu Qi looked at Long Hui and chuckled. Then all of them were ready to go.

"Why are you here anyway?" Yu Qi asked for a second time.

"Told you that I miss you. Well, I came back from the mission." Long Hui told Yu Qi a truth.

"Are you okay? You are not injured, right?" Yu Qi asked in worried.

"Don't worry. I'm okay." Long Hui smiled.

Sister Chu Xiao turned deaf to Yu Qi and Long Hui interaction. Meanwhile, Grandpa Tang decided to look outside the window. He was angry that the two of them flirted with each other forgetting others that still inside the car.

"We arrive." Long Hui asked after parked the car.

Yu Qi got out of the car and opened the car for Grandpa Tang. Yu Qi held Grandpa Tang's hand and supported him to walk.

"I thought you already forget me after seeing that brat." Grandpa Tang said to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi smiled. "How can I forget about my beloved grandfather here?"

"That's my granddaughter." Grandpa Tang sneered while looking to Long Hui.

Long Hui saw that sneer. He then turned to Yu Qi that smiled at her grandfather. To him, if her beloved Qi Qi was happy, he would close his eyes to anything.

"Yu Qi." Someone called Yu Qi when Yu Qi entered the restaurant. That person was Su Yu Hi.

Long Hui frowned when he saw the same man that talked to Yu Qi another day. Su Yu Hi looked to Long Hui and nodded acknowledging him. Long Hui also did the same. Song Tao also came and greeted Yu Qi.

"Is everyone already here?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah." Song Tao answered.

"They already eat." Su Yu Hi said.

"It's okay. But it is a great idea serving them with a buffet style. It is easy to pick what we want to eat then. Thank you, Brother Yu Hi." Yu Qi thanked Su Yu Hi.

"I just do my own job." Su Yu Hi said to Yu Qi.

"But Brother Yu Hi. You seemed to forget something." Yu Qi said in a serious tone.

Su Yu Hi did not think of something. Did he forget something? Then what is it? He thought very hard but still could not point what was it.

"What is it?" Su Yu Hi gave up on thinking. He just could directly ask Yu Qi.

"Where is your girlfriend?" Yu Qi asked.

Su Yu Hi stunned. Then he managed to recover back. "Nonsense. I don't have a girlfriend."

"You should find one then." It was not Yu Qi that told Su Yu Hi that but Long Hui did.

Su Yu Hi, Grandpa Tang and especially Yu Qi were surprised by Long Hui's remark. Yu Qi the one first to laugh.

Chapter 238: Dinner

Long Hui said that because he did not want this man to fall in love with his beloved Qi Qi. So its solution was to find him a girlfriend. With that, Yu Qi would be his alone.

"It's right." Yu Qi laughed. After a while, the laughter stopped.

Only then, a growl from someone's stomach could be heard. Yu Qi looked at Sister Chu Xiao. Sister Chu Xiao's face turned red. It was her stomach that protested asking for some food.

"Sorry, Sister Chu Xiao. Let's go to eat." Yu Qi held her grandfather's hand.

"You too, Brother Hui." Yu Qi said.

They went to select the food and sat at the place prepared for them. They ate the food. Sister Chu Xiao went to the dessert as she was a fan of the dessert. There were a lot of desserts. So, Yu Qi also digs in too.

Long Hui did not like the sweet thing ended up eating them too because Yu Qi took it for him. Well, that was a power of love.

"Everyone, thank you for coming. I don't want to talk much tonight. I just want to say this. I hope you can continue working diligently. Thank you." Yu Qi took a second time to talk and it was done.

The short speech ended followed by the clap by everyone. The employees totally thought of her as their boss.

The dinner was ended. Yu Qi only could leave after the employees left because everyone came and said thanked her. She was thanking them for their hard work and here, they were thanking her for being their boss.

Yu Qi finally entered Long Hui's car. Everyone was waiting for her.

"Sorry for being late." That was the first thing she told them after sat. "Grandfather, are you okay?"

"Don't worry. My body is still strong. Let's go home now." Grandpa Tang made a gesture showing his muscle.

Yu Qi chuckled. "Okay, Grandfather."

Long Hui started to drive back to Shiwa Town. Yu Qi glanced at Long Hui who looked very dashing when he was driving.

"Am I look very attractive now?" Long Hui's question made Yu Qi startled.

"It is okay. You can look anytime. I don't mind though." Long Hui flirted with Yu Qi.

Yu Qi turned to the window ignored the shameless man. At the window, she could see the reflection of the man.

"It is better to look at the original than the reflection." Long Hui's voice could be heard after that.

Yu Qi turned back to Long Hui. Long Hui was still looked at the front, driving. 'How can he know I'm looking at him?' Yu Qi keep quiet until they arrived at the Godly Herbs.

Grandpa Tang went out with the help of Sister Chu Xiao. He then cast a glance to Long Hui and Yu Qi that standing beside each other. Yu Qi was not moving in.

"Don't spend too long. The night wind is not good for the body." Grandpa Tang advised them and turned walking into the house.

Yu Qi and Lon Hui looked at each other. Long Hui with his sweet smile while Yu Qi with her shy smile.

"I miss you." Long Hui began the conversation.

"Hmm... I miss you too." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui grabbed Yu Qi's hand. He caressed it. It was a very wonderful feeling when he held his beloved Qi Qi's hand. He always wanted to hold them. It became his motivation to complete the mission as soon as possible, came home and holding this soft hand.

"You are not hurt, do you?" Yu Qi asked in a worried tone. She wanted to ask this question after hearing he just came back from the mission.

"I'm okay. It is nothing. If I am hurt badly, I will not come to see you." Long Hui's answer assured Yu Qi.

"Really? You have not hurt anywhere?" Yu Qi asked again for double confirmation.

"Yes, sweetheart." Long Hui wanted to change the topic, so he teased her by calling her sweetheart. And that technique was a success.

Yu Qi looked away when she heard Long Hui with his killer smile calling her sweetheart. 'It is bad. My heart... Please calm down.' Yu Qi said in her mind. Her heartbeat increased.

"Enough about me. What's about you?" Long Hui questioned Yu Qi.

"I? What?" Yu Qi did not get the meaning.

"Oh, I mean when you will go back to the university?"

"Maybe three days later, I guess. Since the new semester will start next week." Yu Qi calculated the date on her mind. Yeah, she got another three more days to be at Shiwa Town.

"I see. So you still here tomorrow? That's great." Long Hui said.

Chapter 239: Dress Up

"Why is that?" Yu Qi asked.

"Because I plan to have a lovely date with my beloved. Join me, Qi Qi?" Long Hui casually asked Yu Qi for a date. He would understand if she rejected his invitation.

"Date?" Yu Qi was stunned.

"Oh, are you busy?" Long Hui could not help to help disappointed hearing Yu Qi might reject him.

"Eh... No.. No.. No. I would like to." Yu Qi quickly answered. It was not because she did not want to go on a date with him but she was embarrassing.

"Really? Then that's great." Long Hui quickly changed his tone.

Yu Qi smiled when hearing the change in his tone. He must be looking forward to having a date with her. Well, she also felt the same way.

Long Hui keeps looked at her lips. He wanted to catch and feel the soft and hot lips again. However, before he managed to do so, a bark disturbed the moment. Long Hui and Yu Qi looked down. Aoi was looking at the two of them.

'Master, your grandfather asked me to bring you in.' Aoi said through telepathy. He was rolling his eyes to Long Hui.

Long Hui who saw that look Aoi gave felt weird. This look was more like a given human look.

"Qi Qi, he rolled his eyes to me." Long Hui said and pointed to Aoi.

Aoi already turned to look away. Yu Qi chuckled. She also saw that.

"Maybe my grandfather asked him to fetch me. It's late. You should go back and rest." Yu Qi forced him to go back.

"Yeah. I need to rest for our date tomorrow." Long Hui mentioned tomorrow's date.

Yu Qi knew Long Hui wanted to tease her. She pushed Long Hui to enter the car so that he could go back.

"Just go home." Yu Qi spoke while grinding her teeth.

Long Hui know she was embarrassed and pretended to angry.

"Okay, Qi Qi. I will come and pick you up at nine a.m." Before Long Hui entered the car completely, he stole a kiss from Yu Qi. "Sweet dream. It will be nice if you dream about me."

Long Hui did not wait any longer. He started the engine and drive away from Yu Qi. Yu Qi stood while her finger traced her lips. 'He stole a kiss from me again.'

"Master, let's go in. It is cold outside here. You might get sick." Aoi's voice made Yu Qi realized that she was still outside. So, she quickly went in. Aoi's sentence about she might get sick made her quickly took a bath to warm her body so that she did not get sick for tomorrow's date.

Yu Qi was currently in the middle of choosing the clothes. Which outfit that she would be wearing? This made her drained her energy.

"Is this dress okay?" Yu Qi picked a dress that she brought with Long Hui when Long Hui came to her university.

"Master, it is beautiful." Aoi praised Yu Qi.

'Master, you look very beautiful.' Bo Ya also praised her through telepathy.

Yu Qi did not wear this type of dress very often. It made it look rare. Yu Qi remembered that Long Hui said when he insisted on buying those dresses. It was for their date. So, she had fulfilled Long Hui's wishes.

Yu Qi got out of her room and went to a living room. Sister Chu Xiao spotted her.

"Young miss, you look very beautiful." Sister Chu Xiao also praised her. It was not a lie. Sister Chu Xiao meant it. Her young miss looked very beautiful today.

"Young miss, you have a date with your boyfriend, Mr. Long?" Sister Chu Xiao asked.

"Hmm..." Yu Qi felt very awkward and admitted that she would go for a date with Long Hui. "Where is my grandfather?"

"He is in the study room after having breakfast." Sister Chu Xiao answered.

"Oh, I will see him before I'm going out." Yu Qi said.

"Young miss, have fun." Sister Chu Xiao said.

Yu Qi ran to his grandfather's study room quickly. She did not want Sister Chu Xiao to tease her anymore. Yu Qi arrived in front of her grandfather's study room. She knocked on the door. She heard a voice asking to enter the room.

"Grandfather, are you busy?" Yu Qi peeked inside before entering the room.

"No, come in." Grandpa Tang closed the document that he read and put aside before lifting his face, facing her granddaughter.

His granddaughter looked very beautiful on that dress. He only praised her in his mind. She dressed up for that brat, Long Hui.

"Where are you going?" Grandpa Tang still questioned Yu Qi even though he already knew about it.

"I'm going out with Long Hui." Yu Qi told the truth.

"Remember when that brat wants to do something to me, beat him." Grandpa Tang advised.

Yu Qi smiled. Beat him? He already did something and she could not prevent it. However, she listened to her grandfather and nodded. "Alright, grandfather."

"Young Miss, Mr. Long arrived." Sister Chu Xiao came and informed about Long Hui.

Chapter 240: Watching A Movie

"Thank you, Sister Chu Xiao." Yu Qi said to Sister Chu Xiao.

Sister Chu Xiao went outside leaving the pair of grandfather and granddaughter. Yu Qi turned to Grandpa Tang.

"Grandfather, don't worry. I will protect myself well. And also I don't think Brother Hui will force me to do something that I don't like." She believed Long Hui.

Grandpa Tang rolled his eyes. His granddaughter just protected that brat. "Don't be too late." Grandpa Tang opened back the document and started to read it.

Yu Qi smiled. "I will go first, grandfather."

When Yu Qi stepped out of the house, she saw Long Hui was waiting for her by leaning to the car. The man watched Yu Qi approaching him, made him smiled gently.

"Sorry, I'm late." Yu Qi apologized.

"Not really. It is worth waiting." Long Hui looked up and down at Yu Qi.

Long Hui thought his beloved Qi Qi was very beautiful all the time. But now, she looked very stunning at his eyes because he knew she was dressed up for him. For today's date. Who's not happy when seeing his beloved dressed up just for him?

"You looked very beautiful. Very very very beautiful." Long Hui repeated the word many times.

"Thank you." Yu Qi said with a blush.

Long Hui also recognized the dress. It was the dress that he chose during their date.

"I guess this is the dress I chose for you, right?" Long Hui asked.

Yu Qi was surprised when Long Hui remembered the dress.

"Yes."

Long Hui felt kind of satisfied when he looked at his beloved Qi Qi wore the dress that he chose to her. 'I think this is the feeling when seeing your loved one wear something that you chose to her.'

"Let's go." Long Hui opened the door's car to Yu Qi.

They ride the car. They went to another town. This town was one kind of place that the young couple would go on date. Long Hui decided to go on date here.

Stepping outside from the car, the couple already got some attention from the onlooker. The women threw some looks to Long Hui. While the men checked Yu Qi. Long Hui sensed the look. So, he made a claim on the girl beside him by placing his hand on her?waist while they were walking.

Yu Qi looked at Long Hui and realized Long Hui was jealous when the men looked at her. She chuckled. Long Hui looked at her. The stern look disappeared, only the trace of doting could be found on his face right now.

"Where do you go to first?" Long Hui asked.

Yu Qi did not know where to go. Before she found by her real family, she did not have a boyfriend. The boys gave a disgusted look to her. Then after her family found her, her fiancée did not ask her to go on a date. So, she basically lost.

Seeing the undecided look on his beloved Qi Qi's face, Long Hui made the decision. "Let's go for a movie."

"Hmm... Let's go." Yu Qi agreed.

Many of her first time tried on something with this handsome man. She was grateful to him.

"What kind of movie you want to watch?"

Long Hui asked when they stepped into the cinema. There were some people that line up. Mostly they were a couple.

"Well, let's go on the action genre." Yu Qi pointed to the poster showing a soldier holding a shotgun.

Long Hui knew his beloved Qi Qi was not a normal girl. Mostly, a normal girl would like to watch a romance genre movie. Long Hui smiled.

"Okay."

They brought the tickets and some refreshments. Because it was a story about the soldier, there were fewer people on the side of this room. They sat at the place.

The movie was not started yet. Yu Qi looked around. 'It is the theater.' It was her first time watching a movie at the cinema. The screen was very big.

Yu Qi casually placed her hand on the hand seat but someone had already occupied it. Yu Qi was shocked when her hand accidentally touched Long Hui's hand. She glanced at Long Hui.

Long Hui took her hand and held it together. "We can share the space."

"Yes." Yu Qi could only agree on it.

Then the movie started. Yu Qi paid attention to the movie. Long Hui in the middle of the movie found out that his beloved Qi Qi was a maniac gun. She mumbled the name of the gun that appeared in the movie with a look that full of admiration.
