Chapter 261 - 261: Hack To The Database

Using her space, Yu Qi completed the assignment given by the lecturer. Lately, she used her space to save her time. Studying, working and training. She did not want to miss out on anything, all of them were important. She was stretching her muscles, after feeling numb.

"Master, are you done?" Aoi asked.

Aoi was waiting for his master to lift up her head. Bo Ya also waited for it. Bo Ya told Aoi not to disturb Master because Master looked very focus when it came to completing her work.

"Yes. I'm finished." Yu Qi answered them.

"Then, let's go and cook!" Aoi and Bo Ya said happily simultaneously.

Yu Qi laughed, of course, they were waiting for her to cook. Yu Qi indeed promised them that she would cook for them today. She had already brought some fish, meat, chicken, and seafood such as prawns, crabs, lobsters, squids, clams and oysters. Other ingredients, such as vegetables and herbs, could be taken out of the garden in her space.

She brought that much because she wanted to cook again. She became too lazy to go to the market all the time. Her space became her shopping bag. Whenever she brought the ingredients, she would put the things that she purchased into her space. Whenever Bo Ya and Aoi looked at the ingredients that their master bought into her space, they would start drooling over the possible delicious food that there would cook for them.

Because she had more work to do, she just made some simple dishes such as Seafood Lasagna, Lobster Bisque and a Frozen blackberry yogurt.

Yu Qi called her two little cuties to eat. They came running over toward the food, expected of a foodie. They ate happily. Yu Qi only ate a little and she was already full. Leaving the kitchen, she entered her room in the space.

Yu Qi opened the computer. She wanted to hack something. It was about the man that was involved with the white powder. Actually, she thought of looking at the students in the Technology Management Faculty, but she was naive. How could she find someone like that in the faculty without knowing his name? It was more like searching for a needle in a haystack.

So, Yu Qi decided to hack the Technology Management faculty database. From that, she could look for the man that she saw from the suspicious trade. She remembered the man's looks, it would be easy for her to identify the man.

Pressing the keyboard, Yu Qi entered the code to hack the Technology Management Faculty data base. She thought that she could use this as a way to improve her hacking skills, but unfortunately, the database did not have much of a defense on it.

She went through the surface information for the faculty. The Technology Management faculty consisted of roughly five hundred students, so to go from one student to another one would consume a lot of time.

However, it was only the simplest of methods that she could use to find the man. She cursed them because, from that conversation, they did not even call each other by their names. If they had only used it once, she could easily key in the name used and get the potential person.

She sighed. She did not have the time, however, she needed to do it. The white powder could be dangerous if it was used in the wrong way. She went through the pictures one by one of the students. After looking through the pictures fifty times, Yu Qi started to get a headache.

"Master, you need to rest." Bo Ya advised as he watched his master pinched the bridge of her nose. "If you want, I can help you."

"What do you mean?"

"Master, you can find someone through all of these pictures, right?"

"Yes."

"I see the outside world through you. If you see something, I see something. So, I can help you find the man that you want."

"Really?"

"Of course. I have many functions." Bo Ya patted his chest proudly.

"You mean whatever thing I see, you will see it?" Yu Qi glanced sharply at Bo Ya.

"Huh? Yes."

"Everything? Including my privacy?"

"Master, calm down. I judge it based on the situation. If I think it is something that I should not watch, I will not watch it." Bo Ya hurriedly explained to his master.

Yeah, like if his master was showering, he would not watch that.

"Really?"

"Yes."

"Then it's okay. If I ask you not to watch it, you should obey me, understand?" Yu Qi gave a warning to Bo Ya.

"Yes, Master, I understand." Bo Ya saluted Yu Qi. "So, Master, what kind of person are you searching for?" He was back to the original topic which was to help his master to find someone.

"Do you remember that day when my club got its new members?"

"Yes, I remembered that."

"Remember the two men who met outside the toilet?"

"Yes."

"I want to find that shorter man."

"Alright, Master. I will go through these pictures and find that man. So, Master, you can rest now."

"Thank you, Bo Ya."

Yu Qi climbed her bed and rested.

"You created something like this?" A man asked while his eyes were running around, watching their surroundings. It felt amazing to see something like this.

"I want to create some space only for me and this is the result. Amazing, right?" A girl, dressed in white traditional clothes, smiled beautifully at the man.

"If the elders learn about this, they will try to take it from you." A man now looked very worried. This girl always made him feel worried about her.

"Don't worry. I don't plan to tell anyone. Just you." The girl wore a carefree expression.

The man sighed, "Okay. I will keep this secret for you."

The man looked at the girl with a longing glance. The girl was putting her legs in the lake.

"Yue, you can not behave like this." The man said in a panic. His face was blushing red when his eyes laid on the white skin of the girl's legs.

"There is no one here." The girl said.

"But I'm here."

"You are fine."

The man sighed. He really could not win against this girl.

Chapter 262 - 262: The Trap

"Xia, come and soak your legs. It is refreshing." The girl called the man to join her.

Feeling helpless, the man sat beside her and put his legs into the lake. Indeed, as the girl said it was refreshing. He felt something else. Then the man turned to the girl with a shocked face.

"This?"

"It's very good, right?" The girl smiled gently.

"How did you do this?" The man wanted an explanation.

"It's a secret. How can I tell you?" The girl avoided the question.

Again, when the girl smiled like that, the man sighed in hopeless. As he said, this girl really knew how to make people worry about her.

.....

Yu Qi woke up from her sleep. Her chest felt heavy. Most likely it was kinda a sad feeling. Even she did not know why she was feeling like this when she just woke from her sleep. It was an uncomfortable feeling. She did not remember what she had been dreaming about.

Climbing out of her bed, she cleaned herself up. She went to look for Bo Ya. Bo Ya was sleeping in front of the computer. The screen was frozen on the picture of the man that Yu Qi wanted to find.

'Bo Ya found him.' Yu Qi smiled warmly at the sleeping Bo Ya. She lifted him up. Bo Ya sought her warmth and moved his face against Yu Qi's chest. Yu Qi wanted to get angry but forgot the feeling when she saw the smiling look on Bo Ya's face.

She put Bo Ya on her bed and went back to the computer. The information about the man was clearly shown on the screen. She read the information and found it all quite normal.

His name was Wen Ji Sang, age 23 years old. He was from HISO City and was in the Science Computer course at the university. He was currently in his third year. He entered the university a little bit late because of some personal issues.

"HISO City. That was in the Hanwen University area. Is there such a coincidence?" Yu Qi smirked at her thought.

She did not believe that it could be such a coincidence. This Wen Ji Sang knew about the white powder and the white powder may have originated from that place. However, she did not know what was Wen Ji Sang's aim or who was his target.

The White powder seemed to affect only women. It could be that he wanted to use it to trick some women for his pleasure only. But because of the frequency of his purchases, it was indeed extremely suspicious.

This Wen Ji Sang, she needed to monitor his movement. She wanted to know the person behind this white powder and Wen Ji Sang was a piece on this chessboard. She knew even the taller man who had brought the white powder to Wen Ji Sang was also just a pawn in this trade. The person behind the scenes must be found to fully stop the white powder from being used in an evil way.

Then she saw something that caught her attention. It was Wen Ji Sang's phone number. It could be useful in the future. She quickly pressed her keyboard. Confirming the Yu Qi's guess, this belonged to the mobile phone of Wen Ji San.

With that confirmation, Yu Qi once again danced her fingers around the keyboard. No more than fifteen minutes later, she stopped. The trap had already been laid down, she just needed to wait for her prey. If the prey was smart, he should realize something was wrong.

However, Yu Qi did not think that he would realize it until the end. The trap might take a long time to catch her prey, but it was necessary.

After that, she stretched. She needed to go to class. Coming out of her space, she looked at her watch. It showed that it was only four o'clock in the morning. She still had two hours before she needed to begin her morning routine. Seeing that, she took the opportunity to sleep for a little while longer.

....

'Master, wake up. It's already time.' Yu Qi could hear Aoi's voice in her head. Waking up from the bed, she refreshed herself and changed into her sports clothes.

'Master, come and take me out too.' Aoi wanted to get out of her space.

Yu Qi entered the space, grabbed him and went out. She started her morning routine and jogged around the university area. However, today was unlucky. She saw someone that she did not want to see.

"Miss Tang."

Bai Shu Jin smiled. He was not angry when he saw that Yu Qi did not respond to him. He knew that she did not like him. However, because of his feelings, he hardened his heart in case she treated him like this.

Bai Shu Jin started to run beside her. If someone saw them, they could see that they looked like a couple that always ran together.

Yu Qi looked at Bai Shu Jin. What was he planning to do? She was waiting for Bai Shu Jin to talk, but during the run, Bai Shu Jin did not say a word after greeting her.

Not feeling like running anymore, Yu Qi stopped. Bai Shu Jin also followed her. She frowned. Aoi already growling while looking to Bai Shu Jin. He just waited for his master to give the order to bite him and he would gladly accept that order And fulfill her wish.

"Mr. Bai, what are you try to do here?" Yu Qi asked ending the silence. She already could not stand, standing beside Bai Shu Jin for a long time.

"I just want to go for a run." Bai Shu Jin answered.

"Then you can go on your own after this." Yu Qi left the place. Her mood was already ruined.

Bai Shu Jin sighed. He wanted to improve his relationship with Yu Qi. Even if he couldn't be her boyfriend, Bai Shu Jin wanted to become friends with her. But Yu Qi seemed to not want that either. If she accepted him as a friend, he would have a chance to get her heart.

"Miss Tang, I know my confession earlier brings you, problems. I apologize to you." Bai Shu Jin bowed.

Yu Qi stopped. "There is no need for you to apologize. Just stay away from me." Then she left Bai Shu Jin.

"Sorry, Miss Tang. I can't do it." Bai Shu Jin said while watching Yu Qi left.

Chapter 263 - 263: The Picture

"Master, what is he trying to do?" Aoi asked when they were already far away from Bai Shu Jin.

Yu Qi made the gesture by lifting up her shoulder. "I don't know."

"Master, I really don't like him. After all, because of him, you lost control of yourself. I don't want you to fall into that state again." Aoi said.

"Don't worry. We won't see him again. He is already in the last year in his studies so he is going to be busier. We will not see him again." Yu Qi explained to Aoi.

"Okay." Aoi nodded.

Yu Qi nodded back.

....

Her Saisei Ryokan would begin its operation sooner or later. Yu Qi got the news from Chui Mei Fung that she had already finished her training and would be returning home soon. Chui Mei Fung sounded very happy, not like how she was two years ago.

Chui Mei Fung had mentioned that she wanted to bring some of her friends that trained together with her to work at the Saisei Ryokan. Hearing this, Yu Qi was more than happy to accept them. Yu Qi had already said to her before she went to Japan for her training, that she should bring back those people that she thought would work well with her.

Yu Qi needed to think of the best time to do the grand opening for her ryokan. She wanted to be present when it was officially opened and she also wanted for her Tang Family to be there with her. Her two aunties would be extremely excited to try the hot springs. She could have them take a holiday and bring them to her ryokan.

She was currently at the library. Sitting in front of the computer, she was looking at her ryokan's picture, she was satisfied with the final result.

"Wow, it is very beautiful. Where is this?" Song Ha Ting appeared from behind and asked about the picture that Yu Qi currently looked at.

"It is in the FINN City, my hometown." Yu Qi answered Song Ha Ting's curiosity.

"Oh. I see. It would be great if I could go and spend my time there." Song Ha Ting said in an excited voice, however, in the end, she calmed up. "Well, not like I have money to go to."

"I'm glad you understand your situation." Ding Na An patted Song Ha Ting's back while nodding herself.

Song Ha Ting did not come from a rich family but she was not poor either. Her expenses were given to her by her parents, but to go on a holiday, Song Ha Ting did not think her parents would be willing to send her.

"But Yu Qi, why are you looking at this picture?" Ding Na An asked.

"Yu Qi, are you planning to go on holiday with your boyfriend?" Song Ha Ting excitedly asked Yu Qi. She looked so excited like she was the one who going to go on holiday with her boyfriend.

"What?" Yu Qi did not expect this kind of question been asked, so she was feeling flustered and shy about it.

"Oh....." Song Ha Ting teased her.

It was truly rare that Yu Qi felt flustered like this. Her friends laughed hard and loud. Although they were still in the library, it was fine to make some sound because they were inside a room that they had booked for a group discussion.

"You did not answer my question. Do you plan to go..."

"No. I'm just looking at them." Yu Qi ended the conversation.

"So, where are the other two girls?" Yu Qi looked at her watch. It already passed the time for their group discussion.

"Hmm, I don't know. They told me that they want to change their clothes." Song Ha Ting looked outside the room. "Hey, students outside seems to be looking at us."

The room had a glass wall where people inside and outside of the room could see each other. As such, they could see the students were looking at them while making a disgusted look, especially the female students.

"Yu Qi, look at this." So Pang Lim and Mei Lilli entered the room while holding a paper.

Song Ha Ting took the paper and read it. "What's the heck is this?"

Yu Qi and Ding Na An also read it. The paper showed a picture of Yu Qi and Bai Shu Jin running together. They looked just like a couple that exercised together. This scene was definitely from this morning.

Mei Lilli also opened the university forum website. The same article was shown in the forum and there were some nasty comments in the comment section.

'Slut. Already have a boyfriend but still, seducing another man.'

'Bet one man is not enough for her.'

'I bet this is not the first time she seduces a man.'

'I think all the men in the shooting club have already tasted her.'

'I think so too.'

"What's the hell of these people? How could they talk about a person like this?" So Pang Lim got angry while reading some of the comments.

"Oh, another new comment." Ding Na An said.

They looked at them.

'You all, what nonsense that you talking? I think you people fuck your own parents.'

'What's the fuck that you talk about?'

'So, you guys know how to get angry when people slander you like this. So, you have a nerve to slander a girl just because you see her with a man? She may just happen to be with that man by Whoever ever took this picture and published it clearly wanted to ruin the girl's reputation. Maybe this picture came from the man's crush. As expected, the girl's jealousy is a very dangerous thing.'

'You are that bitch's fan, aren't you?'

'Yes. I'm her fan. She is beautiful, smart, and talented.'

"This comment is very good. I wonder who is this person." Mei Lilli commented.

So Pang Lim laughed. "He just told us, he is one of Yu Qi's fan,"

Chapter 264 - 264: Another Outside Training

"As this commenter said, someone wanted to ruin you, Yu Qi." Ding Na An said.

"Yeah, I believe that. Our Yu Qi is indeed very beautiful, smart and talented. Someone is bound to be jealous of her." So Pang Lim nodded.

"Ours? When the heck Yu Qi become ours?" Mei Lilli chuckled.

"It's just a word," So Pang Lim argued.

They were laughing over her explanation. The atmosphere became calm, no longer as tense as before. However, they knew it was true that someone was trying to ruin Yu Qi's reputation.

Bai Shu Jin is a handsome man and came from a rich family, he had so many admirers that they could not be counted. They also dislike Yu Qi since Bai Shu Jin came forward and confessed to her. His admirers must be very angry with Yu Qi since they felt Yu Qi had snatched Bai Shu Jin from them.

Maybe they also had an unspoken rule such as Bai Shu Jin being for everyone. Someone that came forward and confessed to Bai Shu Jin might be bullied by his other admirers.

"This picture might be taken by one of Bai Shu Ji's fans." Song Ha Ting assumed.

"Or maybe not." Yu Qi smiled.

The girls around Yu Qi looked at her. They could see that while Yu Qi's lips were curved up, her eyes were cold.

Yu Qi already thought about the possible people who wanted to destroy her reputation, and the highest probability was Fung Meng Xuan. She was quiet now. Is she making her move right now?

"Let's forget about it. We still have the assignment to complete," Yu Qi ended the topic.

They began to discuss what to do about the assignment and left the topic of the picture behind.

...

When Yu Qi left, she could see some of the girls were glaring at her. She turned to the girls and gave them a cold smile. When the girls saw the smile, they quickly left. They were kind of scared of Yu Qi when she gave that kind of smile.

Yu Qi saw that the girls were leaving and smirked. 'I just smiled at you and you are already running away?' Yu Qi exited the library and made her way to the shooting club.

Her club members seemed to be gathered around. It was the same as the scene before when Captain Heng Yu Ren came and ordered them to train. They saw Yu Qi enter the training ground and they quickly approached her.

"Yu Qi, don't let those rumor affect you." One of the club members smoothed Yu Qi, afraid that the rumor had made Yu Qi upset.

"Don't worry everyone, I'm okay." Yu Qi nodded. Her shooting club still believed in her.

"Yeah, everyone. Yu Qi is always involved in one scandal and another." Shi Man Xie said to the club members.

"Senior Shi Man Xie, is that insult or what?" A club member asked.

"No, I was praising her. She is so beautiful, so that is why she keeps getting involved in these scandals." Shi Man Xie followed up.

"That follow-up seemed weird," Another club member said.

"Shi Man Xie is weird. He is like our Vice-captain, that's for sure."

Zhu Xiao Ling came in to train not long after that. Seeing Yu Qi already there, she quickly approached Yu Qi.

"Sister Yu Qi." Zhu Xiao Ling greeted Yu Qi.

"Oh, hi." Yu Qi smiled.

"Sister Yu Qi, I also heard about the rumor. I don't believe it." Zhu Xiao Ling stated her opinion.

"Thank you." Yu Qi thanked Zhu Xiao Ling for believing in her.

"Let's start training." Captain Heng Ru Yen came in and the club members began their training.

For the new club members, they used a different set of training before they were expected to adapt to the normal set of training that the older members did. Captain Heng Ru Yen wanted them to get used to the easier set of training before moving to the more intense one like the normal club members used right now.

Yu Qi started her training. Her marksmanship was already perfected, so Captain Heng Ru Yen suggested that she should train to shoot with her eyes closed like what she had done for the club promotion. Yu Qi happily accepted the suggestion and started to practice.

The training ended two hours later. However, the club members did not leave immediately. Captain Heng Ru Yen seemed to have an announcement to tell everyone, so, they were waiting for him to speak.

"I think I can guess what Captain wants to tell us."

"Yeah. Me too."

"What is it?" The new club member asked them.

"Just wait for the captain to tell us. We can not tell you in case it is wrong."

"Oh, okay." The new club member said.

"Guys, our outside training is really set up." Vice-Captain Jung Xi Wan said.

"So, we are right." The club members said.

"So, where are we going this time?"

"We are going to the military camp at Shiwa Town weeks week." Captain Heng Ru Yen informed the club members.

"Huh? Shiwa Town?" Yu Qi said in shock.

"Yu Qi, you know this Shiwa Town?" One of the club members asked.

"Yeah, well, that is my hometown." Yu Qi answered him.

"Hometown? But I thought Tang Family lived at the FINN City."

"Yeah, the other members of the Tang Family did live there, but my grandfather and I lived in Shiwa Town since grandfather loves it there."

"I see."

"Captain, so Commander Long will be there?"

"I don't know about that." Captain Heng Ru Yen answered that inquiry.

"Who is Commander Long?" This time, the new club member asked.

"Commander Long was the one who trained us the last time."

"Commander Long is very scary."

"Commander Long gave the hellish training to us."

The old club members gave the comment about Commander Long.

"However, he will be the one who also gave us a lot of dog food. So, everyone, be prepared." Shi Man Xie gave a smile to Yu Qi.

"Dog food? Why?"

"You will know soon or later."

The old club members did not tell the new ones that Commander Long was their goddess's boyfriend. They wanted the new club members to be surprised when they found out.

Yu Qi glared at Shi Man Xie after he made that statement. The training would be held in a military camp at Shiwa Town so Yu Qi already knew who was responsible for this arrangement. There was no need to think about it.

Yu Qi knew it was Long Hui who made the arrangement. That area was his territory. She was kind of missing him so this arrangement was good.

Chapter 265 - 265: Meeting With Feng Yue

The rumor about Yu Qi seducing Bai Shu Jin was still there, someone was not letting the rumor die. Yu Qi smirked to herself, 'Those people are working so hard.' She already knew who it was who wanted to ruin her reputation. How did she find out? She hacked the forum university website and found the username of the person who posted the picture and the username of the one that berated her so many times.

Her guess about Fung Meng Xuan proved to be true. However, the person behind the picture was someone unexpected. It was Meng Qiang Su, the girl that Yu Qi defeated in the archery competition two years ago.

The two girls were working together to try and destroy her. How funny. Fung Meng Xuan's motive was to make Yu Qi looked bad in other people's eyes. She was doing it so that Long Hui would know and leave Yu Qi. That way she could take Yu Qi's position beside Long Hui.

As for Meng Qiang Su, she didn't know why Meng Qiang Su would want to do that. Their encounter was two years ago And it was only that one time. Was Meng Qiang Su still held the grudge about it after all these years?

Yu Qi deleted the picture posted in the forum. The girls would have no idea who deleted the picture. As for the explanation of the picture, Yu Qi could not be bothered about it. She was too lazy to be bothered to explain anything. Even Bai Shu Jin did not step forward to clarify things.

However, Yu Qi was not surprised about that. Bai Shu Jin in her past life did not do anything that did not benefit him. He was that kind of person.

As for the white powder case, Wen Ji Sang, who had been monitored by Yu Qi, still did not show any hint about the white powder. His phone had ready been hacked by Yu Qi and all the calls and messages would be recorded and sent to Yu Qi.

From what she had been listening to through the calls and by reading his messages, Wen Ji Sang already had a girlfriend. She was not a student at Starlight University but rather attended Hanwen University. The other calls and messages looked very very normal, there was nothing suspicious that could be found from any of them.

Her phone started to ring. She looked at the caller and discovered it was Feng Yue. She quickly answered the call.

"Yu Qi." An excited voice from Feng Yue could be heard from the other side.

"Yue. How are you?"

"I'm fine. Yu Qi, I want to meet up with you."

"Huh? Meet up? But..."

"My university got two days off because of its anniversary. Plus with the weekend, I got four days off. So, I decided to go to you."

"Shouldn't you go back to your family?"

"What? Go back to that house, no. I don't want that."

"I mean Grandpa Feng's house."

"Grandfather had gone to overseas for his business so there is no one there. Yu Qi, please. I miss you. I haven't met for a long time. I also miss Aoi. Please. Please. Please." Feng Yue begged Yu Qi several times.

Yu Qi sighed. Well, it was okay since Yu Qi was staying alone in her room. Others could not say anything if Feng Yue came over and stayed with her for a while. She could even introduce Feng Yue to her friends here.

"Okay. When do you want to come over?" Yu Qi agreed with Feng Yue's request.

"Really! Yu Qi, thank you. I will not be bored. Oh, I will come over this week, I will call you later to let you know when." Feng Yue was excited since Yu Qi agreed to meet her.

"Okay, see you soon."

The call ended.

....

"Yu Qi." Feng Yue called her name when she saw Yu Qi was waiting for her to come to get her.

Feng Yue ran toward Yu Qi and hugged Yu Qi when she reached her.

"I am so happy to see you again!"

"Me too." Yu Qi hugged Feng Yue back.

Feng Yue released Yu Qi and bent down to lift Aoi up since he sat obediently beside Yu Qi.

"Aoi, I miss you too. You seem to be getting bigger." Feng Yue looked around Aoi.

"Of course he would be bigger, given how much he eats." Yu Qi chuckled while looking to Aoi.

'Master, I need to eat a lot to grow.' Aoi complained like a girl that been teased about her weight.

"Yu Qi, look. He must be complaining to you." Feng Yue laughed when seeing Aoi's reaction.

"Let's go. I want a tour of here." Feng Yue demanded.

"Okay. I will obey your order, princess." Yu Qi behaved like a gentleman.

The girls went around window shopping for a while. Feng Yue did not want to buy anything since nothing managed to catch her attention. Meanwhile, Yu Qi brought food to Aoi.

"No wonder Aoi looks rounder." Feng Yue commented.

"He wants it." Yu Qi pushed the blame to Aoi.

Aoi did not bother to say anything since his master brought him food. He would forgive her for today.

Feng Yue was lucky that Yu Qi did not have evening classes today. That way they could look around after fetching Feng Yue.

"Yu Qi, how are your studies going?" Feng Yue asked.

They were currently stopped at a cafe and taking a rest from all their walking. Aoi sat on the ground while eating some food that Yu Qi had ordered for him.

"Very good." Yu Qi answered it shortly.

"Sorry, I forget that I'm talking to a genius."

"I'm so glad you realize that."

"Yu Qi, you seem to have learned about the term narcissist."

"Yes."

Feng Yue laughed.

"Then, what's about Brother Hui? Are you making progress with him?"

Yu Qi, currently drank her water, choked. Feng Yue did not miss any of it. It meant her Brother Hui successfully making his way to Yu Qi.

"What? What? What is this?" Feng Yue teased her friend.

"What are you talking about?" Yu Qi wanted to play dumb.

"Please, Yu Qi. You can not play dumb. I know something happened between you and my Brother Hui. You have to tell me."

Chapter 266 - 266: Window Shopping With Feng Yue

"We got together." Yu Qi explained with a short answer after Feng Yue asked her many times.

"Nice one Brother Hui." Feng Yue praised her Brother Hui. Then she turned to Yu Qi again. "So, tell me the details."

"No." Yu Qi did not want to tell Feng Yue. It was embarrassing to talk about her own love life.

"Alright then, I will ask Brother Hui about it later." Feng Yue pouted.

"I wonder if Brother Hui will tell you." Yu Qi glanced at Feng Yue.

"You bully." Feng Yue knew that there was no way that Brother Hui would tell her about it, however, she was dying to know the whole story.

"Yu Qi, please tell me." Feng Yue held onto Yu Qi's hand and shook it.

"Alright, alright... Let go of me first, please." Yu Qi felt dizzy when Feng Yue shook her like that.

"Tell me." Feng Yue could not wait to hear about their love life.

"You know that Brother Hui's intentions for me and I believe he is sincere, so, I accepted him." Yu Qi made a long story short.

"Just because he is sincere towards you, you accepted him?"

"Well, I do like him too." Yu Qi blushed red when she admitted that.

"That is what I wanted to hear." Feng Yue said happily. "I can not imagine how Brother Hui looked when you accepted him at last."

"So, how far you have you gone in this relationship?" Feng Yue dropped a bomb question to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi choked her own water and coughed several times. After she calmed down, she glared at Feng Yue. Yu Qi was silent. She did not want to comment on anything like that, especially that. That moment was one of her most treasured.

Feng Yue's eyes lifted up. "Tell me, tell me." Feng Yue could not believe that her Brother Hui would have already made a move on her beloved best friend.

"I will not tell you that." Yu Qi rolled her eyes to Feng Yue.

Feng Yue smiled. She would not push it far. She would not force Yu Qi to tell her everything. She knew the limit.

"Alright, don't be angry." Feng Yue smoothed Yu Qi's mood. "I really happy for Brother Hui that he found someone he loved and that person is you. Before this, I thought Brother Hui will be spending his life alone."

Yu Qi smiled. Feng Yue really loved her Brother Hui.

"Enough about me. How about you?" It is Yu Qi's turn to ask. "What about the man that I saw last time? Do you make a move?"

"Yu Qi, what are you talking about? I don't have anything to do with him." Feng Yue strongly said that.

"Then you should make one."

"No, no, no. I don't want that. He actually already has a girlfriend, I don't want to be a third person in their relationship." Feng Yue hated that because of her, a relationship might turn sour because of the third party. She knew that pain.

"Oh, I'm sorry." Yu Qi felt wrong because she suggested something like that.

"But, do you know who his girlfriend is?" Feng Yue suddenly asked Yu Qi about that.

"Huh? Who is it?" Yu Qi inquired.

"It was Miss Ling." Feng Yue said.

"Miss Ling? Who is Miss Ling?" Yu Qi did not remember anyone with the surname of 'Ling'.

"Remember the old man with the surname Ling on Grandpa Tang's birthday? The old man that accused you that your gift was a poison?" Feng Yue tried to jog Yu Qi's memory.

"Oh, that one, I remember him."

"Miss Ling is his granddaughter."

"So? What is weird about that?"

"I heard from Grandfather that old man Ling still wants his granddaughter to marry into the Tang Family."

"Who will marry her? Let him dream about that. Not to mention my grandfather, even my two Aunties would not like her." Yu Qi said.

"It is already late. Let's go back to my hostel."

The girls took a bus to go back to Starlight University. Since Yu Qi always took a bus, the driver on the bus seemed to recognize her.

"You are with a friend today?" The driver asked.

"Yeah. She came from HISO City." Yu Qi smiled politely.

The girls took the seat. Feng Yue gave a weird look to Yu Qi.

"What?" Yu Qi asked Feng Yue because she could not stand the look given by Feng Yue.

"Yu Qi, are you a loner at university? Don't you have friends?" Feng Yue asked.

"What? A loner? No, I do have friends, okay." Yu Qi rolled her eyes.

"But just now the driver asked you something like that. I could not stop thinking that my Yu Qi is a loner." Feng Yue said with fake sadness.

Yu Qi smashed Feng Yue's head.

"Ouch. It's hurt." Feng Yue gave a small shout.

"Joke about that and you can go back to your own university." Yu Qi gave her a warning.

"Yu Qi dear, don't be angry. I'm just kidding." Feng Yue gave a sad face to Yu Qi. She did not want to go back. All of her friends had gone back home, her grandfather had to go overseas for the business and she did not want to go back to her father's house. She would end up fighting with her father's daughter. She wanted to cry when she thought about that house.

Yu Qi sighed. "Okay, please don't cry."

"Thank you, my best friend."

'Master, you are sure weak when it comes to facing a girl's tears.' Aoi commented on what he had seen.

'That depends on who the girl is,' Yu Qi said.

Feng Yue smiled after that. Her Yu Qi loved her. She always knew that. Luckily for her Brother Hui, he already got her. She felt impressed with him.

Chapter 267 - 267: Your Enemy Is My Enemy Too

"I have a class today and should be back in two hours. You can wander around, just bring Aoi and your phone with you." Yu Qi said before she left the room in a hurry.

Feng Yue and Aoi looked at each other. Feng Yue suddenly laughed. She had imagined a scene where Yu Qi was her husband that left for work to support his family and she was his wife and Aoi was their child.

Aoi watched Feng Yue suddenly laugh and felt very weird with his master's friend. He really did not understand humans except for his master.

"Aoi, I want to go for a walk," Feng Yue said.

'Who is the human and who is the dog?' Aoi thought to himself.

"Aoi, hurry up." Feng Yue urgent Aoi to follow her out.

With a lazy feeling, Aoi followed Feng Yue. His master had already asked him to watch out for Feng Yue. Aoi wondered why a dog like him supposed to watch over a human, Feng Yue should be the one who watched over him.

"This university is very good. I kinda regret not choosing the same university as Yu Qi. If I had, I wouldn't have to see that woman's face over and over again." Feng Yue sighed.

"I should have just killed her before," Feng Yue faced morphed into an expression of hate. "But killing her would not bring my mother back."

Feng Yue walked into the cafe. She wanted to buy a drink.

"Aoi, do you want to eat something?" Feng Yue asked Aoi.

"Woof." Aoi was barking and jumping around Feng Yue excitedly saying he wanted to eat something.

Seeing Aoi jumping so excitedly, she understood that Aoi wanted to eat something. "Okay, I will get you something."

Feng Yue looked around the cafe, searching for the food that she could buy Aoi. Fried chicken, 'Dogs should eat this.'

"How much should I get for Aoi?" Feng Yue asked herself. Looking down at Aoi's, she asked the owner of the body how much he wanted to eat.

"Aoi, how many do you want to eat? One? Two? Three?"

Aoi was still silent.

"Hmmm... Ten?"

"Woof," Aoi answered. 'Yes, I want ten of them at first.'

"Okay, I will get it for you." Feng Yue quickly brought ten fried chickens for Aoi and a drink for herself. After paying, Feng Yue looked for a place to sit down. She then gave the fried chickens that she had brought to Aoi. Aoi received them happily.

Feng Yue relaxed while drinking her drink and watched the students as they entered the cafe. It was the same scenario at her university too. Aoi finished his meal.

"Owh, you are sure fast. Is it delicious?" Feng Yue asked Aoi.

"Woof." Aoi barked once.

Suddenly two girls came in front of Feng Yue. Feng Yue did not know the girls and looked at them while, waiting for them for saying something.

"Who are you? Why are you with it?" One of the girls asked while pointing to Aoi.

Aoi growled to the girls. Feng Yue looked at Aoi and then turned back to the girls. Feng Yue understood that these two girls were not Yu Qi's friend if Aoi growled angrily to them.

"What?" Feng Yue asked.

"Miss, this dog belongs to my friend. Why is it with you?" Another girl asked Feng Yue with a gentle tone, but her voice could be heard by people around them.

Aoi growled at the two girls. They stepped back when they saw that the dog seemed to want to attack them.

"Owh, it is your friend's dog. Then why does he look so angry towards you two?" Feng Yue asked while smirking to the two girls.

The two girls felt wronged. This dog really looks like its master. The onlookers looked at them.

"Is that Tang Yu Qi's dog, right?"

"Yes. I always saw her with that Siberian Husky."

"I don't think they are Tang Yu Qi's friend."

"Is that Yi Ren Shiang and Fung Meng Xuan?"

"Those two girls are really not Tang Yu Qi's friend because I've had seen them argue outside of the cafe. Tang Yu Qi was meeting with a man and those girls came to disturb them and started calling Tang Yu Qi unpleasant names. However, Tang Yu Qi gave them a triple kill. I really agreed with Tang Yu Qi back then." Someone mentioned the past situation of when Fung Meng Xuan, Yi Ren Shiang, and Yi Su Rang disturbed Yu Qi's meeting with Su Yu Hi in a loud voice for everybody to hear.

"How can they call themselves Tang Yu Qi's friends?"

"That Yi Ren Shiang is a dog lover. She must have taken a liking to Tang Yu Qi's dog."

"So shameless."

"Shut up." Yi Ren Shiang snapped.

"Owh, I never thought that could happen to Yu Qi." Feng Yue gave the girls a cold smile.

Fung Meng Xuan and Yi Ren Shiang looked at Feng Yue. This expression on Feng Yue was similar to Yu Qi.

"Remember, if you make trouble for my best friend, I will make your life a living hell." Feng Yue threatened the two girls.

'Smack.' Feng Yue felt someone hit her back. She turned around.

"What are you doing?" Yu Qi looked at Feng Yue.

"I'm protecting your dog." Feng Yue looked at Yu Qi teary. It was really hurt.

Yu Qi looked at Aoi. Aoi was the one who called her, telling that Feng Yue and he were at the cafe. Yu Qi knew that Aoi made Feng Yue buy him some food.

"Thank you." Yu Qi thanked Feng Yue.

"Your enemy is my enemy too. Plus I want to try to say what Brother Hui likes to say." Feng Yue pouted.

"What Brother Hui likes to say? What is it?"

"I will make your life a living hell."

Yu Qi did not give any reaction upon hearing that. Long Hui was a soldier, right? A major right? Why his favorite phrase more like what a gangster would say?

Chapter 268 - 268: Picnic

"Brother Hui?"

That question was from Yu Qi, but Fung Meng Xuan made Feng Yue turned to her.

"Yu Qi, does this girl know Brother Hui?" Feng Yue asked Yu Qi.

"Well, yeah." Yu Qi answered.

"How?" Feng Yue asked.

"Brother Hui came to see me here. She saw him at that time." Yu Qi replied.

"Owh, so they are just my cousins' admirers." Feng Yue looked at Fung Meng Xuan and snorted.

Fung Meng Xuan was shocked. This girl was Long Hui's cousin. She should establish a connection with her since she was a family member of Long Hui. However, she had already destroyed that chance.

"Sorry." Fung Meng Xuan left after apologizing. She needed to think about a new plan to become friends with Long Hui's cousin.

Feng Yue knew what was going on in Fung Meng Xuan's head. She had already faced this kind of woman before, a woman that wanted to become closer to her Brother Hui. A woman that wanted to make friends with her because of her connection to Brother Hui. She really hated it.

Only Yu Qi did not use her. Yu Qi wasn't to get closer to her Brother Hui. Instead, it was her Brother Hui that wanted to get closer to her. That was why she really liked Yu Qi.

Seeing Fung Meng Xuan leave her alone, Yi Ren Shiang did not wait too long to leave the place too.

"I bet you don't have a peaceful life here." Feng Yue commented.

"No, I don't." Yu Qi shook her head, admitting everything.

"Yu Qi, who is this?" So Pang Lim arrived with the others. They looked at the unknown face.

All except for one girl. Seeing her favorite here, Song Ha Ting rushed to Aoi's side.

Aoi, who did not have time to run away, got a big hug from Song Ha Ting.

"Aoi, I miss you." Song Ha Ting hugged Aoi closer.

'Master. Help me.' Aoi looked at his master.

However, Yu Qi turned away and answered So Pang Lim's question, so, Aoi had to just let this crazy dog lover hug him until she was satisfied with it.

"This is Feng Yue, my friend from Hanwen University." Yu Qi introduced Feng Yue to her friends.

"This is Mei Lilli, So Pang Lim, Ding Na An, and the dog lover is Song Ha Ting." Yu Qi introduced her friends to Feng Yue.

Mei Lilli: "Hi."

So Pang Lim: "Yo!"

Ding Na An: "Nice to meet you."

Song Ha Ting: "Hi... Aoi, let me hug you some more."

Feng Yue: "Nice to meet you, everyone."

...

The weekend.

The girls made a plan to go for a trip to Mianyang Waterfalls and have a picnic. It was a two hour drive away from their university and it was going to be their first time there. Because they wanted to cook there and so, needed to bring a lot of things, they decided to rent a car. The drivers were So Pang Lim and Mei Lilli since they already had their driver's license.

Luckily for them, they left for the waterfalls early, so the best spot of the place taken by them. They placed the things that they brought away and started the fire. Yu Qi was in charge of cooking while the others just followed her orders.

Yu Qi decided to barbeque. They bought some chicken, meat, and seafood such as prawns and squids. Those things were already prepared yesterday so that they were sure to be marinated well. They also bought some vegetables so Yu Qi decided to make some coleslaw.

Yu Qi told them to enjoy the waterfalls while she was doing the barbeque. The girls quickly jumped into the water, swimming and playing around. Aoi also joined in. That only left Ding Na An and Yu Qi to look after the barbeque.

"Na An, are you still talking to my brother?" Yu Qi suddenly asked Ding Na An.

Yu Qi had wanted to ask Ding Na An about the matter a long time ago, but they were around other people. Yu Qi did not want to ask Ding Na An in front of others because she was afraid that Ding Na An would not be comfortable talking about this matter in front of others.

Ding Na An was surprised when Yu Qi suddenly asked her question. Ding Na An thought Yu Qi did not know about the matter since Yu Qi did not ask about it.

"Humm, yes." Ding Na An gave an honest answer.

"I see. What do you think about him?"

"A good looking person."

"Well, his personality?"

"A serious and honest person."

"I see." Yu Qi nodded. 'Brother Han Lee, you need to work hard to win her heart. Maybe be like Long Hui. What!!! Why am I compared to my Brother Han Lee to Long Hui?' Yu Qi shook her head, wanting the thoughts of Long Hui to leave her mind.

Ding Na An saw and could not help to ask, "Are you okay?"

"Oh, I'm okay. Well, what types of things do you usually talk to Brother Han Lee about?"

"Apart from asking about my wellbeing, we always talk about matters relating to medicine. He really helps me a lot regarding this."

It was true Tang Han Lee helped her a lot with her studies. Whatever the things that she did not understand something on her own, she turned to Tang Han Lee for help. She was very grateful to Tang Han Lee.

Yu Qi nodded. She did not have to worry about them anymore. Even though it was slow, they were becoming closer. Yu Qi did not disturb their pace. Luckily she gave some advice to her Brother Han Lee. If not, they would still just be sending greetings to each other.

"Will you meet your brother this semester break?" Ding Na An asked.

"Maybe, if he is not very busy and decides to return home. Why are you asking?"

"Well, could you give something to him for me?"

"Sure, but I have two weeks of training at the beginning of the semester break."

"It is okay. You can give it to him later."

"Okay."

Yu Qi agreed. Yu Qi did not want to ask what it was that she wanted to give to her Brother Han Lee.

Chapter 269 - 269: Saving Little Girl

The girls then came out of the water half an hour later. They were very cold. Yu Qi knew about this might happen and prepared some hot drinks for them to warm up their bodies.

"Yu Qi, is it done?" Song Ha Ting asked, her stomach already demanding to be filled.

"You can eat this one." Yu Qi pointed to one plate. "Alright everyone, come and eat."

The girls, like the hungry zombies, quickly approached the food.

"Yu Qi, can you be my wife?" So Pang Lim asked as a joke.

"You can try and snatch her from my cousin, but Brother Hui will turn into a demon until he gets her back." Feng Yue replied.

"Do you think she would really choose someone else? She already has such a good looking boyfriend." Mei Lilli also commented on So Pang Lim's joke.

They laughed as everyone started joking around.

"But, honestly, this is very delicious. Even my mother could not make it as good as this." Mei Lilli praised Yu Qi's food.

Mei Lillie asked Yu Qi and Ding Na An to eat with others while she took over Yu Qi and Ding Na An's cooking duties. The food was finished quickly due to the fast eaters like So Pang Lim and Aoi. They were even fighting at each other on who could eat the most food. At last, Aoi was the winner.

"Yu Qi, where does your dog store his food? He is simply bottomless." So Pang Lim commented.

"Aoi is very cute while eating." Song Ha Ting smiled, like an idiot, at Aoi.

"Ah! I forgot that I brought a camera." So Pang Lim said and started searching inside her bag.

"Found it!"

So Pang Lim started taking pictures of everyone. After they had finished eating, they jumped into the water once again. This time, Yu Qi and Ding Na An joined them.

Suddenly a scream could be heard not far from them. The girls quickly went to see.

"My child. My child. She is dead!" The woman, who appeared to be the child's mother, was crying beside an unconsciously little girl.

Yu Qi took a faster step approaching the little girl.

"Step aside. Let me help and perform some first aid. Someone, call for an ambulance and medical help." Yu Qi quickly gave the order.

"I will call them." Ding Na An called the emergency number quickly.

Yu Qi checked the little girl's breathing, there was no response from her and her breathing had stopped. Yu Qi proceeded to perform CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) on the little girl. After two minutes of doing CPR, the little girl coughed up some water.

The little girl then cried in pain. The mother, seeing her daughter crying, pulled her into a hug, calming the little girl down. Seeing the little girl crying, Yu Qi and others gave a sigh of relief.

The mother looked at Yu Qi and said thank you. "Thank you for saving my girl. Thank you."

"It's my duty as a human to help. But you better let the doctor check your child. Drowning in the cold water may lead to hypothermia or a drop in core body temperature. The worst things that can result from that is pneumonia, acute respiratory distress syndrome and/or hypoxemia." Yu Qi advised the mother.

Even though the mother did not understand all of Yu Qi's words, she knew she should follow her advice. The medical help came and took the mother and little girl to the nearby hospital.

"As expected of our future doctor. You are really very good." Feng Yue gave a big thumb up to Yu Qi.

The onlookers, who had watched the situation, felt very impressed after watching how Yu Qi handled the situation without panic. It turns out she was a medical student.

"You should learn it too. It is very helpful." Yu Qi said to Feng Yue. "I should tell Brother Hui to add that into your training."

"Yu Qi, you are really hateful. Humph." Feng Yue turned and jumped into the water again.

The girls followed suit and soon they started playing again.

After a while, Yu Qi got out of the water and opened the other box that she had brought. She brought out the cake that she purchased and cut it into slices.

"Hey, there's cake! Let's all have some." Yu Qi shouted to the girls.

Hearing that there was more food, the girls quickly got out of the water and reached for the slices. They happily ate the cake beside the water.

"My mind is free from stress." So Pang Lim said while enjoying the cake.

"However, my dear, you need to remember you still have to complete your assignment. You need to submit it by Monday." Mei Lilli reminded So Pang Lim.

"You just ruined my mood." So Pang Lim said, rolling her eyes at Mei Lilli.

They laughed. They spent another hour in the water before preparing to leave. After making sure that the place they had used was clean and there was nothing left, they returned to their car.

However, before they could get in, a couple, together with a child came over to them.

"Darling, she is the one who saved our daughter." It turned out that the woman who was approaching them was the mother of the girl that Yu Qi saved back then.

"Thank you, miss. We really appreciate your help. If you hadn't helped my daughter, she might already be gone." The man bowed to Yu Qi.

"Sir, I just did what I should have done." Yu Qi quickly said when she saw the man bowing to her.

"Sa Cha, this sister had saved you. Go and say thank you to the sister." The woman put down her daughter.

The little girl approached Yu Qi and thanked her in a cute manner. "Big sister, thank you for saving me." She said, then she smiled cutely to Yu Qi.

"Remember to take care of yourself." Yu Qi patted the little girl's head several times.

"Hmm." The girl answered.

The man reached into his pocket and brought out something. He then gave it to Yu Qi.

"Here is my card. If you ever need help, you can call me on this number."

The thing that the man gave to Yu Qi was a business card. Yu Qi put away the card first and thanked him. The family turned around and walked away. After the family left, Yu Qi took out the card back and read the card properly.

'Ping Lang Wen. An executive in the minister of tourism.'

"So, he works for the government." Mei Lilli commented.

Yu Qi smiled. Heaven had helped her again. She might need his assistance in the future.

Chapter 270 - 270: Mysterious Man

Feng Yue had finally gone back to her university and Yu Qi's life returned to normal. Since her days were so busy, she did not have as much time to go to the office. This meant that she needed to have her meetings with Su Yu Hi at the cafe near the university in order to continue managing her companies. She waited for him to arrive at their regular spot as she put in an order for the two of them.

"Sorry for making you wait." Su Yu Hi sat down opposite to Yu Qi.

"It's okay. I've already ordered some green tea for you." Yu Qi looked at Su Yu Hi.

"Thank you for that. So, let's start our meeting."

"Okay. This meeting's purpose is to discuss the opening ceremony for the Saisei Ryokan. I have already set a date for it."

"When were you thinking?"

"February 20th."

"Okay." Su Yu Hi wrote down the date that Yu Qi mentioned in his notebook.

"That is two months from today. We have just enough time to organize everything, especially since I don't want a grand ceremony. We need to keep it simple, but elegant. I don't want to waste too much money on the ceremony. About the workers, have you already settled things?"

"Yes, I already hired the new employees including the Chefs, helpers, security guards, and the other positions."

"We will have two head chefs, one will manage all of the local dishes while the other one will manage the Japanese dishes. You don't need to find the Japanese Chef, Sister Mei Fung will bring her from Japan." Yu Qi told Su Yu Hi.

Su Yu Hi nodded while writing in his notebook. He knew who Sister Mei Fung was that Yu Qi had mentioned. Yu Qi had told him that this Sister Mei Fung was Yu Qi's first employee. Chui Mei Fung went to Japan for her training in order to learn how to manage the ryokan. Chu Mei Fung would be in charge of the Saisei Ryokan as its 'Okami'.

"I want the ribbon-cutting during the opening ceremony." Yu Qi already had an idea of how the opening ceremony would be held.

Yu Qi explained the details that she had planned to Su Yu Hi. Su Yu Hi nodded and added some ideas of his own on to it.

"Who should be the one that cuts the ribbon? Should we invite someone famous or influential in order to get some impact?" He did not know what she Yu Qi was thinking about when it came to that matter.

"No need for that. I will have my grandfather be the one to cut the ribbon. He is already famous enough." Yu Qi chuckled.

Su Yu Hi also laughed. Indeed, her grandfather was famous enough. Tang Jiang Man's name was very powerful to many people.

"So I don't need to take the fee into account." Yu Qi continued her sentence.

Su Yu Hi laughed again. His boss was very conscientious when came to money. She would definitely find a way for them to save.

"Then I will arrange a meeting with the planner for the opening ceremony."

"I need you to attend that meeting as my representative. I have already told you what I want and expect for the ceremony." She was very busy with her studies.

"Okay." Su Yu Hi nodded.

.....

Unknown to Yu Qi, someone had been watching her for a long time. Knowing that Yu Qi had a sense of being watched, he lowered his aura so that Yu Qi would not notice him.

It had been a long time since he last saw Yu Qi. Even though she looked different from the last time, he could still easily recognize her. She still looked as beautiful as ever.

Suddenly, he could feel the vibration from his chest. It was his phone. He answered it.

"Hello."

"Sir, can you come to the office now?"

"Why?"

"Because you have a lot of documents to take care of and these documents need your approval, sir." The voice on the other side wanted to cry.

"Okay, okay. I will be back in two days." He ended the call.

The other side wanted to cry more when he heard his boss just saying he would only be back in two days. He sighed. He would just have to handle things like always. This was not the first time his boss left all the work for him to do.

Back to the man

He returned to looking at Yu Qi. It had taken a little time to find out everything about her and his heart itched when he read her information.

She had not lived the best life during her childhood. After many years of being abused by her adopted family, she turned around and left the family. After that, she encountered the Tang Family Head and started to live like a normal girl. He was very happy for her.

But, one thing that he could not be happy about was how she became so close to a man named Long Hui. He knew she started to fall in love with that man. A man that was not him. Again.

He sighed. Why could she not fall in love with him? He was not that ugly. He remembered what that monk told him about their destiny. He said their destiny would not be able to cross each other except for one purpose. This meant that she would never be anything more than a friend to him.

Now, even when she was reborn, she was still not designated to be together with him. He could just force her to be with him but, he knew that was not the way. He was afraid that she would come to hate him if he would ever cross that line against her will. That was the one thing he did not want to happen, he did not want her hatred.

That is why he just could stalk her like this. With his super hearing, he could listen to their conversation word by word. Apparently, she wanted to do some opening ceremony for a hotel. A Japanese style hotel that was known as a Ryokan. Her ryokan was named Saisei Ryokan. When the word Saisei had been translated into their language, it meant to be reborn.

Did she know that she had been reborn? In that case, she might remember him.

When he read the information about her, he found out that she already had multiple businesses in her name. Even though she tried to hide, with his power, she could not hide much. He felt very impressed with her. Her mental age did not match with her actual age. With her mind, she might become one of the powerful figures in business.
