Chapter 31: Like Watching a Drama

The restaurant continued its business again after that. Yu Qi already felt happy with this achievement. She was smiling when she views the document in her hand. She already predicted that the Wang Family will try to get their hand on her money. She never aspect that Wang Family would accuse her stealing their non-existed money.

"Yu Qi, what was the document that you had gave to them to sign?" asked one of the waitresses there.

"This? Hmmm... Well, let call it, a trap. Like you saw what happen today might happen in the future. So, I'm preparing myself."

That waitress did not understand. Other one asked Yu Qi to give the document to read. Yu Qi gave to them. Who's been reading that document shocked with what they were reading.

"Yu Qi dear, you seriously gave them 10,000?"

"Yes." One simple answer increased the shocked among them. 10,000 was not small money.

"Oh, I understand now why you call it a trap. That family was greedy. You gave them the money today. They might want to ask you for the money again. The document will be useful then." The only waiter worked in this restaurant explained to the other.

"Correct, Brother Lian." Yu Qi continued. "That two idiot did not read it thoroughly. They only saw that 10,000 that they would get. They did not think properly."

"But Yu Qi, how do you know that they will come and extort some money from you and prepare this document? This document was verified by the lawyer and can be used in the court." Brother Lian was a law student due to the short of money, he gave up his dream.

Well... I can predict the future." Yu Qi said it calmly.

Everyone became quiet. Then a burst of laugh heard among them. Yu Qi that they knew was a girl who doesn't speak much. Now she was different. She can even joke around.

"Okay, keep quiet. Today we will receive a transfer student from City B. Please enter." Teacher Guan made the announcement.

A cute girl entered the classroom. An excited voice from the boys heard around the classroom. Yu Qi examined that girl. She really looks very cute.

"Okay, quite everyone. Introduce yourself." Teacher Guan gave some space to that girl.

"Hello. My name is Feng Yue. I came from City B." She gave a simple introduction.

"Okay, Feng Yue. You can sit at an empty seat there. I will begin the lesson now."

After 2 hours lesson, the time break started. Shen Mei and Wang Fu Ya approached the transfer student.

"Hi, Feng Yue. My name is Shen Mei and this is Wang Fu Ya." Shen Mei began th conversation.

"Oh, it's you. Never thought to see you here." Feng Yue said that when looking at Wang Fu Ya.

"Fu Ya, you know her?" Shen Mei asked Wang Fu Ya.

Wang Fu Ya shook her head. She never met with this girl. How can she know her?

"Of course, she doesn't know me. But I know you. After all, yesterday's show was very great. I felt like watching a drama." Feng Yue mocking Wang Fu Ya.

Wang Fu Ya suddenly paled. She knew what was she talking about. Hearing Feng Yue speaking like that, some students began their own discussion. The topic was about yesterday matter. Some of their classmates coincidentally at that restaurant. Same as Feng Yue.

Ignoring Wang Fu Ya, Feng Yue went closer to Yu Qi. Yu Qi who been reading a book surprised to see the transfer student approaching her.

"Hi, I'm Feng Yue. Call me Yue. Nice to meet you." Feng Yue smile to Yu Qi.

Sensing the sincerity in that girl smile, she also responded with a smile. "Hi, call me Yu Qi."

"You know what I really like what you did yesterday. Amazing." Feng Yue excitedly talked with her. She was acting like she saw a famous idol.

"You were there?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes, I'm with the old man that spoke. I'm his granddaughter." Feng Yue explained.

"Oh, that old man?" Yu Qi remembered that old man that helped her yesterday. However, she did not remember this girl. "Sorry, I don't remember you."

"It's okay. If I'm in your situation. I will also not remember that. Because of my focusing will be on the shameless people. Like my grandfather said, I never see someone shameless yet an idiot." She was casting a look to Wang Fu Ya.

Chapter 32: A Trip

Once again, Yu Qi and Wang Fu Ya became a topic at school. Everyone knew how Wang Fu Ya cheated to extort some money from Yu Qi. Before this, everybody in the classroom did not talk to Yu Qi. Now, the same thing happened to Wang Fu Ya. Even Shen Mei who a good friend to Wang Fu Ya suffered the same thing. Shen Mei always trusted Wang Fu Ya. Everything that Wang Fu Ya told her was right. This is what we call blind trust.

While Feng Yue stuck to Yu Qi along the time since she transferred to this classroom. Feng Yue was a bright girl. Even Yu Qi that always cold smiling when she talked to this girl.

"Why did you transfer to this school? City B is more advanced than in this town?" asked Yu Qi when having a break together.

"I was running from home. I really hate to stay at that house because it was full of hypocritical people. I followed my grandfather here. This town is much better than there."

"Oh..." Yu Qi did not say much about this. Feng Yue did not explain much so she did not comment about that.

"What the plan you have this evening?" Feng Yue planned to stick with Yu Qi again. She really thought this girl was interesting.

"I will head to Godly Herbs to learn about medicine." She told Feng Yue about her timetable.

"Grandpa Tang's shop?"

"Yes. He is my master."

"Let me join you too. I bet my grandfather also there."

Godly Herbs

"Look. This is that 1000 years old ginseng. This is my treasure. That disciple of mine is really lucky to find this ginseng." Grandpa Tang still brags about this to Old Man Feng.

"I'm been hearing this many time since then. Are you not bored with this?" Old Man Feng annoyed with Grandpa Tang.

"I bet you are just jealous with me." Grandpa Tang showed his proud smile.

"Grandfather, I'm here." Feng Yue shouted to notice that two old man.

"Master, I'm here." Yu Qi bows a little to Grandpa Tang and Old Man Feng.

"Yu Qi dear, I already heard about that incident last night. The family is disgusting." Grandpa Tang displayed his worry about his disciple.

"Don't worry, master. I think they will not find me for the time being. If they come, I naturally have a way to deal with them." Yu Qi sneered when she thinks about that family.

"Oh, you talking about the agreement that you ask Mr. Chu to prepare?" Grandpa Tang excited when he remembered that matter.

"Huh? What's the agreement?" Old Man Feng interrupted?

"Mr.Feng..."

"Oh, please call me, Grandpa Feng."

"Oh, okay. Did you remember that I gave them a document for them to sign it?"

"Yeah. I remember that." Feng Yue was the one who said that.

"I remember it too." Old Man Feng also remember that.

Yu Qi opened her bag and took out something from her bag. Then she placed it in front of them. "It is that document. You can read it."

Old Man Feng took that document and read it. He was speechless. She never thought this little girl would plan this.

"Yu Qi, you really gave them 10,000?" Yu Qi was shocked by the amount that Yu Qi gave to that family.

"Yes." Yu Qi calmly stated it.

Both of them in the shocking state. Grandpa Tang was laughing when he saw his best friend like this.

Old Man Feng finally spoke out. "With this document, if they come to ask you for money, you can finally settle them all."

"Jiang Man, you should go to your hospital sometimes. Shows your face to them and tell them you are not dead yet." This time Old Man Feng spoke to Grandpa Tang seriously.

"Don't worry. I will show up." Grandpa Tang sneered. "Yu Qi dear, tomorrow you will follow me somewhere. It's a lesson trip. Pack your clothes for 2 days." Grandpa Tang said in a sweet manner.

Old Man Feng, Feng Yue even Yu Qi herself rolled their eyes when they listened to that. It almost like a pervert talking to his victim.

"Go back. It's time for Yu Qi's lesson."

Chapter 33: A Noble Lady

Yu Qi watched the scene outside the car. Right now she in the car going to FIN City following her master. Old Man Feng and Feng Yue also tagged along.

"Grandfather, where are we heading to?" Yu Qi was asking Grandpa Tang since then but Grandpa Tang did not answering her question.

"Don't worry my dear. I'm not selling you to the black market."

Yu Qi rolled her eyes. 'He really did not want to tell me. Hmmm...Okay. I will not ask him anymore.'

"We arrived." Grandpa Tang made the announcement. The car was stopped.

Yu Qi got out of the car. She did a little stretch. Her body felt tired after 3 hours sitting in the car. Feng Yue also here. She nagging to her grandfather about feeling tired.

Yu Qi scanned her surrounding. In front of her, there was a building. Its signboard stated 'Tang Hospital'. She then looked at Grandpa Tang and then turned to the hospital.

"Come in. I will show you around." Grandpa Tang shows off.

Yu Qi and Feng Yue laughed at Grandpa Tang. The four of them entered the hospital. But, the moment Grandpa Tang stepped in into the hospital, a group of men that wearing the doctor coat appeared and blocking Grandpa Tang.

"Director Tang, you are back." They happily greeted Grandpa Tang. Well, almost look like a happy dog greeted her owner.

"How do you know I'm back? I don't want to see you all." Grandpa Tang snorted at that group.

"Director Tang, you are our director. We are happy to see you back." A doctor from that group spoke ignoring the Grandpa Tang's mood.

"Humph...I'm here. Not because of work. I want to show around to my disciple."

"Director, who is your disciple?" Now the group turned to the two girl behind Grandpa Tang. The inquisitive and envy look arise in their eyes.

Feng Yue was startled with that group. She quickly went to her grandfather back to hide from that group. Yu Qi calmly standing there. Even her expression did changed at all.

"This is my disciple and my granddaughter. Yu Qi." Grandpa Tang introduced her to that group.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Yu Qi. Nice to meet you all." She made a little bow to the group. Yu Qi was smiling elegantly. That group was dazed with Yu Qi.

'Wow, she's beautiful. Like a noble lady.' That what they thought right now.

"Go. Go. I will accompany her myself." Grandpa Tang repelled those group that looking that her disciple like a fool.

Chapter 34: A Weird Genius

"My dear granddaughter, what you do you thinking about my hospital?" Grandpa Tang asked Yu Qi with expectation.

"It is very big. From the layout showed at the main reception, there are a lot of departments in this hospital. What's the more interesting department is traditional chinese medicine." Yu Qi seriously gave her point of view about the hospital.

"Ha ha ha... I knew you will notice that. That's my disciple." Grandpa Tang felt proud with his granddaughter a.k.a her disciple.

"But, did people went to that department to get the treatment?" Yu Qi really curious about that. Since the modern medicine were been introduced, the popularity of the chinese medicine became lower and lower.

"You don't have to worry about that." Grandpa Tang grinned.

"I wonder who's like to eat the bitter medicine." Feng Yue made a statement.

"Brat, there are a lot of people appreciate the chinese medicine than modern medicine." Old Man Feng opposed Feng Yue's statement.

"Yeah...Someone old like you." Feng Yue made a joke and laughed. Yu Qi, even Grandpa Tang also joined her laughing.

"Jiang Man, you dare to laugh. Did you not consider that you are also an old man?" Old Man Feng sneered.

"Your own granddaughter called you old. Why did you angry with me?"

Then the childish argument between two old man began again. Yu Qi was shaking her head while Feng Yue continued her laugh when she saw this scene.

"Grandfather, what are you doing here?" A man voice interrupted their argument.

Grandpa Tang startled when he heard that voice. He slowly turned to that voice. "Tang Qin Hao, you too, what are you doing at this floor?"

"I walked." The man just answered with two words.

" Pfft..." Feng Yue could not hold to laugh.

Grandpa Tang rolled his eyes to Tang Qin Hao. This man can angered people with just talking to him.

"Grandfather, you did not answer my question yet." Tang Qin Hao reminded her grandfather.

"I just take a stroll here." Grandpa Tang answered like that in order to annoy him.

"Owh, okay. Be careful. You are already old." Tang Qin Hao threw the casual remark and just walked away.

Grandpa Tang who planned to make him felt annoyed explored in anger. Feng Yue laughed loudly until a nurse reminded her to keep quiet.

"That was Grandpa Tang's youngest grandson, Tang Qin Hao. 24 years old. He is a genius in neurological surgery. The funniest thing about him, he really can make people feel angry with his words. Just like before." Feng Yue introduced him to Yu Qi

"Tang Qin Hao, let go to your room. I have something to tell you."Grandpa Tang stopped him from leaving.

Tang Qin Hao turned back and looked at everyone. "Okay. Come." He was free anyway and bored.

Chapter 35: Grandpa Tang's Grandsons

All of them followed Tang Qin Hao into his room. The room was unexpectedly big. There were the bedroom, toilet, and the meeting table in here. He basically lives here.

"Qin Hao, you don't go back home?" Grandpa Tang asked him.

"You also not going home." He replied casually. "It's easy there. No one can nag at me."

"Humph, as you wish." Grandpa Tang stopped that topic. He also could not comment much because he also did not want to go home.

"Let me introduce to you. This is my granddaughter and my disciple. Yu Qi."

"Nice to me you, Brother Qin." Yu Qi smile to Tang Qin Hao.

"Owh... Nice to meet you too." Tang Qin Hao did not ask much about his new sister. How and where his grandfather picks her, he really did not care much about that. If his grandfather like her, it was fine to him. He also did not has a sister though.

"About Jin Wei, do you know where he is right now?" Grandpa Tang inquiries about his another grandson.

"Now, but I might know about Han Lee."

Grandpa Tang quickly responded to Tang Qin Hao. "No...Don't need to call him." Grandpa Tang looked scared when Tang Qin Hao spoke that name.

Yu Qi turned to Feng Yue asking for some explanation. Feng Yue probably understand about Yu Qi's look gave to her.

"Grandpa Tang has 3 grandsons. The eldest name is Tang Han Lee. Second is Tang Jin Wei lastly him." Feng Yue pointed at Tang Qin Hao and continued, "Brother Jin Wei is very playful. He really like making joke. All the nurse here really like Brother Jin Wei. While the eldest, Brother Han Lee is serious person. Even Grandpa Tang scared to him because his lecture when he started is very long. I'm happened to hear him nagging me once. It was a torture, a torture, you know. Since that, if I planned to do something mischievous, I will make sure Brother Han Lee did not know about that."

Yu Qi grinned when she heard about Feng Yue's story. This three grandsons of Grandpa Tang had different character. A serious person that can torture someone using his nagging, a playful person probably same character with Grandpa Tang and last a weird genius. She looking forward to see another two grandsons of Grandpa Tang.

"I don't want to see Han Lee, that brat. Don't ask him to come." Grandpa Tang said to Tang Qin Hao.

"Owh... Okay. I also don't want to meet him." Tang Qin Hao also did not want to see Tang Han Lee because Tang Han Lee would nag to him about his lifestyle. Yeah, like Feng Yue said, a torture.

Chapter 36: Blood Jade

Grandpa Tang brought Yu Qi to a hotel. Feng Yue also tagged along. She wanted to stay in a room with Yu Qi. She did not want to go home. Old Man Feng just smiled sadly. He knew why the reason Feng Yue did not want to go home. He left after gave Feng Yue some advice.

Yu Qi informed Feng Yue that she wanted to rest earlier due to the travel today. Yet, the truth is Yu Qi wanted to enter her space. Usually, she always entered her space with her body. Due to staying with Feng Yue, she decided to enter her space only with her consciousness. It would be a bad thing if Feng Yue saw her body suddenly disappeared.

Entering her space, she could see Bo Ya was waiting for her as usual. She already decided to learn about poison today, following with her shooting training and lastly the new thing, about the computer. It contents all thing about the computer which was normal use of the normal, coding the program and the most interesting part was hacking.

After spending 9 hours in space, she went out. It was only 12 clocks at midnight. She turned to Feng Yue who sleeps on the bed beside her. She felt thirsty. She got out of the bed and opened the refrigerator. She pulled out a bottle of mineral water. She drunk a few mouths of mineral water and went back to her bed. At this time, she always thought about his past life. She never expected that the woman who called herself as her best friend and a man who called himself as her fiance could betray her. And the most unexpected part, her family also took part in it, helped that bitch and bastard poisoning her grandfather.

"You will lose something that important to you if you want to do this. Are you still want to continue?" A man voice asking Yu Qi.

"Yes, I want revenge."

"Yu Qi...Yu Qi...Wake up. It is already morning." Feng Yue tries to wake up Yu Qi who still in deep sleep.

Feeling her body was shaking by someone, Yu Qi forced her eyes.

"Wake up, sleeping beauty." Feng Yue joking around. "Let go shopping. I always want to go shopping with my friend. We can tell Grandpa Tang about this."

"Okay. Go and tell him. I want to take a bath first."

_____ Restaurant _____

"You girls want to go shopping after breakfast, right?" Grandpa Tang confirming Feng Yue request earlier.

Feng Yue nodded. "Yes, I want to shop with Yu Qi. Yu Qi never left her hometown, right? I will show around to you."

"Good. But remember to take care of yourself. Nowadays, there are a lot of girls been kidnapped and got sold to another country. So, pay your attention to surrounding too." Grandpa Tang gave his reminder to those girls.

"Okay, Grandpa Tang. I will protect your beloved granddaughter."

Then the two girls walked to the shopping mall. They browsed many shops. Clothes, jewelry, makeup and also jade shop. That jade shop, Yu Qi who the one that pulled Feng Yue to enter that shop. She always loves Jade. In her past life, she never wore a branded accessory. At her left wrist, she only wore a blood jade. She got that blood jade from his grandfather.

She surveys the jade in the display. Indeed, the jade is beautiful. She found a blood jade necklace. The design of the necklace was simple yet intriguing her eyes. She decided to buy that necklace. Looking at that price, she knew the money she had with her was not enough to buy that necklace.

"Feng Yue, nice to meet you here. How is your life? Is it good to live in a remote place?" A group of girls who came into the shop belittles to Feng Yue.

Feng Yue ignored them and walked past them and approached Yu Qi. Those girls did not want to let Feng Yue go just like that. They also followed Feng Yue approaching Yu Qi.

"This is your new friend from that remote area, right? Does she want to buy jade? Can she afford it? Please don't embarrass yourself." Yu Qi became their new target.

"You...." Feng Yue wanted to retort but Yu Qi silently prevented that.

"Don't argue with them. They are such a brat. Ignored them. Don't lower ourselves to their level. It is embarrassing." A clear remark given by Yu Qi making them wanted to vomit blood.

Yu Qi pulled Feng Yue's hand and exited the shop elegantly. Feng Yue smirked to Yu Qi.

"You..." They threw some nasty words but Yu Qi and Feng Yue totally ignored them.

People around those girls rolled their eyes to that group. They never thought that the girls like them can throw some nasty words like that in the public.

Chapter 37: Unexpected Encounter

Yu Qi and Feng Yue went into a restaurant nearby for lunch. They took a table a little hidden from anyone. They did not want to be disturbed by some crazy girls.

"Who are they?" Yu Qi began to ask while her hand was playing with the straw.

"My ex-classmate. Those girls always like that. They like to find a problem with me. A group of arrogant girls. They think they can do whatever they want because of their parent." Feng Yue explained to Yu Qi.

"Do you have a plan after lunch?" Yu Qi asked another question closing that unpleasant topic.

"No. What? Do you want to go somewhere?"

"Yes. I needed some money. Do you know where is the nearest bank here?"

"Yes, it was around the corner. I will lead you there after this. But why? Do you want to buy something?" Feng Yue inquired about that.

"Yes, I want to buy something. But let eat first." Yu Qi saw the waiter already brought their order.

After a pleasant lunch, they were headed to the nearest bank. They arrived at the bank after walking for about 15 minutes. There was a little number of people in the bank. So Yu Qi assumed the process to withdraw the money might faster than she thought.

She picked out the number and waited for a while. Her number was called and she went to the counter to proceed with her purpose. After the process was settled, she walked to Feng Yue that was waiting for her.

"Yue, I want to go the ladies first. Wait for a moment."

"Okay."

Yu Qi went to a bank officer and ask the direction to the ladies. The bank officer gave the direction to her, so she went that way. After about 15 minutes, she headed back to where Feng Yue was.

'Something was weird.' Yu Qi saw the iron bars that indicated that the bank was closed was moving down covering the main entrance of the bank.

"Don't do anything stupid. I will shoot you if you dare to do so." A loud shout from some man made Yu Qi became alert to her surrounding.

She quickly scanned around. She could see three men were wearing all black clothes and also covering their faces with the black mask. They also were equipped with the gun.

'Beretta M800, Cougar type F, each magazine holds 15 +1(1 in the barrel) 180 mm bullets, armed with a standby function.' That what was come to her mind when she was scanning the gun.

'Bo Ya, are you there?' Yu Qi called for Bo Ya.

'Yes, master. I'm here.' Bo Ya's sweet voice answered her master.

'I just to ask you one thing. Can I take out a gun from my space?'

'Technically yes. But Master, it might be the problem later.'

'What's the problem?'

'Master, you might be questioned about the gun by the authorities. How are you to answer? You can't just tell them about your space.'

'Owh... Yeah. Never thought about that.'

'If you want to handle this situation, find the nearest person that you think from the robbery group, knock him out and take his gun.'

'Hmmm...'

Bang. The sound from the gunshot could be heard.

"Dare to play a trick in front of me? That what's you would get. Hurry up. Put the money in the bag quickly." They already shot one man. Seemed that man was the bank manager.

Yu Qi had to do something. She saw that one man from that robbery group move and standing near to her place that she hiding right now. She remembered what's the instructor that taught her about martial arts. To knock out a person, apply a strong force straight to the neck. Clear and sharp.

Yu Qi took a deep breath. Concentrate. Have to find the opportunity. At the moment, she saw the two other men turned their back to the man that she was trying to aim. She quickly took the action. The man fell to the ground. Fortunately, there were tables that cover Yu Qi. She quickly hides.

The other two men turned to their friend when they heard something fell down. When they saw their friend was not there, they aimed randomly in the direction of their friend last standing.

Yu Qi took the gun. Now she stands up and aimed at one of the man's wrist. She shot the gun. The bullet straight through her target. The man screamed. Next, she aimed at the second man. Found out, that man had already been taken down by one man. They tied the three men together.

"Call the police and medic, quickly." The man who helped her gave order to the bank officer.

"Yu Qi." Feng Yue went to Yu Qi.

"Are you okay?"

"Yes."

"Wait here, I want to look at the man." Yu Qi went to see the bank officer that been shot. "Give me first aid box." She screamed loudly.

One bank officer took the action. Scanned the wound that he got from the gunshot was not threaten his life. Luckily, maybe due to bad aim, the bullet passed through her thigh.

"Don't worry. You will be just fine." She said encouraging word to the man while her hand was busy cleaning and bandaging that wound.

The police and the medic arrived. Yu Qi explained the condition of the man to the medic officer.

"Yu Qi." Feng Yue called Yu Qi after she saw Yu Qi was done with her job.

"Scary?" Yu Qi took Feng Yue's hand and hold it.

"Yes but I become more afraid when I see you take the action. And that gun. How do you know how to shot?" Feng Yue asked her.

"It's just a coincidence. I just take the gun and randomly aimed to that guys. Never thought it would hit his wrist." Yu Qi made a lie.

"Really?" A man joined their conversation. The same man helping her earlier.

"Yes..." Yu Qi answered.

That man was a very handsome man with hazel eyes. He was watching at Yu Qi. Yu Qi in her alert mood. 'This guy is a dangerous man.' She could felt it.

"Owh, Yu Qi. Let me introduce to you. This is my maternal cousin, Long Hui. Brother Hui, this is my friend. Call her Yu Qi." Feng Yue introduced Yu Qi to that man.

Chapter 38: Staring Each Other

Long Hui scanned the girl in front of him carefully. She said that shot was a lucky shot. However, he believed that was a lie. Totally a lie. Her stand when she aimed to that man was not simple. The way she pulled the trigger showed that she had many experiences in handling the gun.

"Brother Hui. Brother Hui." Feng Yue waved her hand in front of Long Hui when she saw Long Hui dazed when looking at Yu Qi.

"What?" Long Hui did not startle.

"Why are you looking at Yu Qi like that?"

Long Hui coughed a little. "Nothing."

"Brother Hui is in the military. The youngest major in history." Feng Yue said with proud.

Compared to her paternal family, she was more close to her maternal family. So, she was really in good relationship with Long Hui. Her personality was more to her maternal family. Straight and forward. It was because of the military influence taught by her mother.

"Military?" Yu Qi narrowed her eyes for a moment and back to normal. 'That why he doubted my words about my randomly aim. He knew I'm was lying to Feng Yue. Just faking it. He can not bring out the evidence.'

Long Hui saw the changes in Yu Qi's face. Long Hui was watching her since she began her action.

"Humph...You two are staring at each other. Are you having a contest here?" Feng Yue who been ignored by the two people finally snapped.

Yu Qi quickly coaxes her friend. The situation in the bank already in control of the authority. People who have small injury been taken care of by the medic there.

"Miss, we want to say thank you. Because of your action, everyone was safe. Only Mr. Han is injured." A group of people came and thank Yu Qi.

"It was just a coincidence. That man was close to me. I did not think much about that." Yu Qi humbly said that.

Well, people think differently. They knew how what really happened. How she took action and treat their manager. This girl is a nice girl.

"We have to go now. Excuse us." She politely left the bank.

Long Hui quietly followed those girls. Yu Qi still on her plan. She decided to buy that blood jade necklace.

"Yu Qi, where are we going? What's the thing that you want to buy?" Feng Yue just followed Yu Qi felt curious about what she wanted to buy.

When they were window shopping just now, Yu Qi did not react much. What's made Yu Qi decided to buy it?

The answer revealed when they standing up in front of the shop that two of them visited right before they had the lunch.

Chapter 39: Spirit Energy

"Eh, this is the jade shop, right?" Feng Yue looked at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi just smiling while she entered that shop. The sales girl in that shop recognized this girl. The girl who did not like trouble, she just left because of the three rude girls.

"Hi, miss. Welcome again to our shop." The sales girl greeted her with a nice smile.

"Yeah, I came again. Sorry for the inconvenience that caused by us this afternoon. They did not troubling you after we left?"

"Well, miss don't worry. We can handle it. Now, how can I help you?"

"I want to buy that blood jade necklace." Yu Qi pointed her finger to a direction.

"Owh...Please follow me." The sales girl requested Yu Qi to follow her.

The sale girl carefully took out the blood jade necklace from the display place. Yu Qi really likes this blood jade necklace.

"Can I touch it?" Yu Qi was eager to touch this blood jade necklace.

"Yes."

Hearing the answer from that sales girl, she touched that blood jade. When she touched that blood jade, she could something flow through the touch.

'Master, this blood jade come from your space.' Like a call pass through by mobile phone, Bo Ya spoke out.

'What? Really? How you do know about that?'

'Master, you felt something right, when you touch it?'

'Yeah, something flow. I don't know how to describe that.'

'Everything in your space has spirit energy. This blood jade has your space spirit energy. That why I knew it.'

'How this blood jade is here instead of my space?'

'Well, I don't really know about that. Maybe the previous master take it out?'

'You don't remember?'

'Yes, I remember about having masters but I could not remember who they are, their personalities, how they look like even what were they done in the space also unknown to me.'

'So, your memory has been erased by something?'

Yes. Anything Master. You must buy this blood jade. It has spirit energy and can protect you from harm.'

'Don't worry. I already intend to buy it.'

"Yu Qi, you want to buy this jade?" Feng Yue approached Yu Qi making her conversation between Bo Ya ended.

"Yes, it is beautiful. Please wrap this to me." Yu Qi gave that blood jade necklace to the sales girl to proceed the purchase.

The sales girl received happily. Who's did not happy with this? 'This girl decides to buy the jade which is the most expensive jade in this shop without blinking of eyes.' She is happy when she is polite to that girl even after she heard that three rude girls humiliate that girl by calling that girl bumpkin country. 'This girl is not a bumpkin country.'

Yu Qi paid the purchase with the credit card that she received earlier when she wanted to withdraw the money. The bank officer offered her to apply for the credit card. She did not think about that. Agreeing with the bank officer offer, she applied for it.

Chapter 40: A Living Adonis

"You really buy this blood jade..." Feng Yue could not believe Yu Qi spent so much money on that blood jade.

"Yeah. Because I really like jade. Especially the blood jade." Yu Qi was fond of the blood jade.

Feng Yue shut up herself when she saw the look on Yu Qi's face. Long Hui still followed the two girls. The two girls seemed to forget about his existence. He made some coughs to notice the ladies.

"Brother Hui, I actually forget you are here." Feng Yue said while Yu Qi did not make any sound.

Feng Yue excused herself to buy some refreshment. Yu Qi stayed alone with Long Hui. Actually, she did not want to stay with him but Yu Qi did not want Long Hui thought that she was afraid with him.

"Where did you learn to shot a gun?" Long Hui broke the silence between them.

Yu Qi was surprised when Long Hui decided to ask her about that right now. She could not lie to someone who's in the military. He probably knew that.

"And what have to do with you?" Yu Qi did not want to admit it.

Long Hui narrowed his eyes making his charming face became more and more charming. "It is nothing to do with me but Feng Yue is my beloved cousin. I just don't want her to get hurt."

Yu Qi swallowed her own saliva. 'This man is a living Adonis. Girls will surround him to make their own.' She silently prayed to this man safety.

Long Hui keep felt weird when he talked to Yu Qi. It seemed he felt like talking with a mature woman, not a teenage girl.

"Don't worry, I will not bring any danger to her. I will protect her." Yu Qi made a vow.

Long Hui frowned. That is not what he means. 'Why she thinks like that? She also a girl.'

"Then tell me, where did you learn about shooting?" The same question had been thrown to Yu Qi.

'This man still don't give up. Better give him some convincing answer. Otherwise, he would keep questioning her.

"Actually, it is my first time holding the gun. But I did learn about it. I sneak in the military camp near the mountain where I was living. Well, I can't say anything else if you don't believe me."

Long Hui still did not believe it but he decided to drop the topic since Feng Yue already here.

Feng Yue brought some refreshments and gave some to Yu Qi and Long Hui. "What are you guys talking earlier?"

Long Hui and Yu Qi stared at each other again. Seeing this situation seemed became the rose bubble, Feng Yue smiled foolishly. She ever thought her Brother Hui, who been hated the woman beside his family would be interested with Yu Qi.

"Guys, I still here." Feng Yue gave a reminder.

Both of them startled and broke the contact.

"I just ask about your behavior in your new school, that all." Long Hui gave an answer.

"Hey, I'm well behaved, okay. Humph."
