Chapter 361 - 361: I Will Waiting For You

Today was the second day and the last day for the conference. Like the first day, the presenters promoted their research. However, there would be a slight difference from the first. After lunch, there would be a ceremony announcing the best research according to the categories.

Yu Qi walked with Ding Na An following the other her university's female students. Meanwhile, two of the male students walked behind Yu Qi and Ding Na An.

The female students did not want to get closer to Yu Qi. Probably An Shu Lin badmouthed her. Well, Yu Qi did not care about that. Yu Qi followed Ding Na An to the booths that Ding Na An marked during breakfast.

During three hours, they managed to go through all the booths that they wanted to go. They listened and asked the presenters about their topic research when they did not understand about it.

"I think it was enough for our report." Ding Na An said.

Exactly, all of the students that came here would have to send a 20 pages report or more than that. So, to write 20 pages report for this medical conference, it would be better to get as much as possible the information.

"Yeah. I think so." Yu Qi nodded.

Yu Qi sat on the chair that prepared for the evening ceremony. Ding Na An went to get some mineral water. Yu Qi watched the videos that she recorded just now. There was a lot of the topic research that interesting especially regarding the heart of the human. And also, the topic of the clone of the organs, it was also fascinating to know and understood about that.

"Here, your drink." Ding Na An gave a bottle of the mineral water.

"Thank." Yu Qi took the bottle.

"What are you looking at?" Ding Na An glanced to Yu Qi's phone.

"The videos about the topic research when we went through booth by booth." Yu Qi showed to Ding Na An.

"You want to eat lunch?" Ding Na An asked.

"Nope. I'm still full." Yu Qi shook her head.

"Okay. I'm hungry. I will go to eat some lunch. See you later." Ding Na An lifted her hand.

Yu Qi began to write the report on her phone. She was totally focused on typing on her phone. She did not pay attention to her surrounding, so she put on earphone on her ears to block all the sound.

Then someone caressed her back. he did not have to guess the identity of the person since she already knew from the smell. The lotus fragrance.

"Brother Hui." Yu Qi turned while calling his name.

"How do you know it is me?" Long Hui asked.

"I knew your smell." Yu Qi chuckled.

"You dog nose." Long Hui pulled Yu Qi's nose.

"Ouch, that's hurt." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui laughed.

"Where are my grandfather?" Yu Qi looked around.

"He is meeting with the organiser." Long Hui explained.

"Oh..." Yu Qi nodded. Then she looked at Long Hui with her slightly blush face. "Brother Hui, last night..."

"Hmm... What about last night?" Long Hui asked.

"I fall asleep last night after... That thing... How do you manage to..." Yu Qi was very embarrassing to complete the sentence.

Long Hui grinned devilishly. "What do you think?"

Yu Qi was very very very shy to explain.

Long Hui grinned when looking at his beloved Qi Qi like this. Last night was a happy and cruel night for him. When Yu Qi completely fell asleep. Long Hui hugged her. However, Yu Qi's hand was moving around. She accidentally caressed his little brother.

Having someone caressing him, Long Hui's little brother that half woke during the kissing was fully awoken due to Yu Qi's hand. Long Hui enjoyed the caress and then Yu Qi suddenly stopped and turned around. Long Hui felt like he went crazy. His beloved Qi Qi really knew how to torture him.

Because of his little brother, Long Hui went to the bathroom and took a cold shower. After he finished, he sat on the bed watching his beloved Qi Qi's sleeping face.

"I'm sorry." Yu Qi said.

"No need to say sorry, Qi Qi. I already told you that I will be waiting for you until you are ready." Long Hui caressed her cheek.

....

Wang San Yi arrived at a company. The receptionists welcomed Wang San Yi.

"Welcome, Sir Wang." The receptionist bowed to Wang San Yi.

"Is my friend inside his office?" Wang San Yi asked.

"Yes. The chairman is in his office. You can go up." The receptionist pointed to the elevator.

They already received the order from the chairman if Wang San Yi came, he could directly enter his office since he was the chairman's doctor. Wang San Yi was also chairman's best friend.

Wang San Yi thanked the receptionist and went into the elevator. He felt the elevator was very slow at th moment.

Wang San Yi could not wait to tell his best friend about what he had met yesterday. The elevator reached the highest floor. Wang San Yi went out and straight to his best friend's room.

"Yo, Guang Qi." Wang San Yi opened the room.

There was an old man that still handsome on his age sitting on the chair. In front of him, there were papers that needed his attention.

When the old man heard someone entered the room, he already knew the identity of the intruder. No one had the encourage to enter his room like that.

Chapter 362 - 362: The Woman In His Memories

"Why are you here?" Mu Guang Qi lifted up his face from reading the doc.u.ment.

"I have something to show you. Wang San Yi excitedly told Mu Guang Qi.

"What is it?" Mu Guang Qi looked at Wang San Yi.

"I went to the medical conference yesterday. Guess who I met there?" Wang San Yi asked.

"Who?" Mu Guang Qi asked him back.

"Tang Jiang Man." Wang San Yi said.

Mu Guang Qi recalled a doctor whom he had met from Binhai Nation years ago when he was still young.

"Oh, I remember him." Mu Guang Qi nodded.

"He is still strong. He came here to attend the conference as a special speaker." Wang San Yi told Mu Guang Qi.

"I see." Mu Guang Qi just acknowledged him. He was not that close to that Tang Jiang Man. They were just acquaintance.

"However, what the thing I want to tell you is not this. It is about his granddaughter." Wang San Yi excitedly said that.

"His granddaughter?" Mu Guang Qi did not understand what was Wang San Yi excited about. It was just a granddaughter. Not like Wang San Yi did not have one by his own.

"Wait until you see the picture." Wang San Yi put out the picture that he took yesterday and put it on the table in front of Mu Guang Qi.

When Mu Guang Qi got someone that looked very familiar in the picture, his hand grabbed the picture. He stared at the picture so hard. Stared on that person.

"She really looks like her, right?" Wang San Yi gave a smile.

"She is..." Mu Guang Qi inquired.

"As I told you just now, she is Jiang Man's granddaughter." Wang San Yi said.

"His granddaughter...." Mu Guang Qi gave a sad smile.

"When I first time saw this girl, I thought I'm seeing a ghost. I have never expected that she was Jiang Man's granddaughter." Wang San Yi recalled the memories.

"I see. She is his granddaughter." Mu Guang Qi sighed. He also thought the girl in this picture was her if Wang San Yi did not mention about Tang Jiang Man's granddaughter.

'She died. I put her in the coffin and buried her myself.' Mu Guang Qi leaned over. This girl in the picture coincidently having the same face. But 100% similarity, how was that happen?

"This girl like his grandfather aiming to become a doctor." Wang San Yi told Mu Guang Qi about the girl.

Mu Guang Qi keeps staring at the girl in the picture. He almost felt that the woman that died years ago came back to life again.

Wang San Yi knew Mu Guang Qi was no longer listening to him. In Mu Guang Qi's mind, only the face of the woman that died years ago.

"You can keep the picture. I think you need it more than me." Wang San Yi excused himself.

When Wang San Yi stepped out from the room, he encountered the second son of Mu Guang Qi, Mu Zu Lei.

"Oh, Doctor Wang. You are here too. How is my father's condition?" Mu Zu Lei asked about his father's condition.

"Your father's condition is very good." Wang San Yi left right away after he answered the question. He did not want to stay here anymore. He did not want this Mu Zi Lei to dig out any information from him. Mu Guang Qi was strictly ordered him not to reveal any of his medical condition to any of his family members.

Mu Zi Lei only smirked when he watched Wang San Yi left. This old man really guarded his father very well.

Mu Zi Lei knocked his father's door. When he heard a voice from inside the room telling him to enter, only then he stepped in.

"Father." Mu Zi Lei bowed a little bit to his father.

"What are you doing here?" Mu Guang Qi did not look at his son, he only sat there and reading the document.

"I heard Doctor Wang came to your office. I thought something happened to you." Mu Zi Lei explained.

Only then Mu Guang Qi looked at Mu Zi Lei. "Really?"

"Of course, father. I am just worried about you. You are really old. Better..." Mu Zi Lei did not finish his sentence.

"Enough! I'm just fine. You don't need to worry about me. Just worry about yourself." Mu Guang Qi slapped the table.

Mu Zi Lei nodded. "Okay, father. Since you are okay. I will excuse myself." Mu Zi Lei turned with a grim face and walked out from his father's office.

Mu Guang Qi stood up and looked at the window. He knew her second son, Mu Zi Lei wanted to convert his place. He sighed. Mu Zi Lei was a clever person but he had a black heart. Otherwise, he would like to handle this business to him.

Many of his relatives aimed at his business. This business was his family business. Only his direct descendent could inherit this business. However, he could not see anyone who was worth to inherit this business. He let a sigh escaped again from his mouth.

At the medical conference.

The ceremony just ended. This indicated the medical conference had ended too. Starlight University's students gathered at the corner of the venue waiting for their lecturers to come. They got the instruction that the lecturers wanted to meet all of them here.

Grandpa Tang sat not far from the group. He was just waiting for his granddaughter. Long Hui stood behind Grandpa Tang with his two subordinates, acting as a bodyguard. However, everyone who watched him knew that Long Hui was playing an eye game with Yu Qi who was also looking at him.

Chapter 363 - 363: The Medical Conference Ended

"Okay, the medical conference has already ended. Our flight is tomorrow night. So, you have spare time to go and take a look at Fanghai Nation. However, remember to take care of yourself." Mrs Mo told them.

The students were happy when the lecturers told that they could walk around the Fanghai Nation. The girls already formed a group and discussed where they wanted to go. Ding Na An and Yu Qi looked at each other.

"Let's walk around tomorrow." Yu Qi suggested.

"Okay." Ding Na An nodded.

The lecturers told the students that they were free after this. Yu Qi and Ding Na An went to Grandpa Tang.

"Grandfather." Yu Qi called him.

"Let's eat." Grandpa Tang said.

"But..." Ding Na An wanted to reject.

"Ding Girl, you can follow my granddaughter since you are my granddaughter's friend." Grandpa Tang did not give Ding Na An's room to reject it.

"Okay..." Ding Na An said. She already accepted it because Grandpa Tang said she was his granddaughter's friend.

Long Hui's eyes were not leaving Yu Qi's figure. His eyes seemed to flirt with Yu Qi. Yu Qi ignored Long Hui's flirt. 'This man always flirts with me when his eyes laid on me.' Yu Qi went to Grandpa Tang and hugged his arm.

"When will you go home?" Yu Qi asked Grandpa Tang.

"Same as your flight. The next day at night." Grandpa Tang told Yu Qi.

"Really? Then, we can get some time for touring some places." Yu Qi said happily.

"I want to go to my acquaintance's shop. He has been selling some herbs that only exist here." Grandpa Tang said.

"Really? I want to go to." Yu Qi excited when she heard about the herbs. She turned to Ding Na An. "Na An, do you want to follow us?"

"Yeah. Why not?" Ding Na An did not reject. It was better than just sitting in the room for a whole day waiting for the next day's flight.

"Then it settled." Yu Qi said.

.....

Not far from Yu Qi's standing, there was an old man who was sitting in a cafe enjoying his coffee while looking at Yu Qi. That person was Mu Guang Qi.

"She does resemble you, Qing Wei. I really do not expect to see someone with your face. If you live and our son is still here, I might have a granddaughter like her." Mu Guang Qi was mumbling that himself.

He was jealous of that Tang Jiang Man. Tang Jiang Man was really close to his granddaughter. His eyes kept looking at the girl. He really missed his late wife who died during giving birth to their son. How could he not be longing for his late wife? And now someone with his late wife's face appeared.

"Chairman Mu, there are some matters that need your attention right now. Can you come back to the office with me?" His secretary asked politely to Mu Guang Qi.

Mu Guang Qi sighed. "Okay, let's go." Mu Guang Qi stood up and turned away, walking away from the place.

If he stayed for a second later, he might notice the girl whom he kept staring at, turned around and looked at her direction. But sadly they were not destined to meet here.

Yu Qi felt something, so she turned away looking around. Nothing in particular that unusual. Just now, she felt someone was staring at her. Well, not in resentment intention but a longing intention. She did not know anyone here except for his grandfather's old friend, Wang San Yi. Ignoring the feeling, Yu Qi walked away with his grandfather.

"I want to buy something for Aoi to eat. He must be hungry since he missed lunch." Yu Qi told them.

"Okay. But be careful. Long Brat, accompany my granddaughter." Grandpa Tang ordered Long Hui.

"Okay." Long Hui smiled. Of course, he would be following that order, since he would be together with his beloved Qi Qi.

Grandpa Tang knew the meaning of Long Hui's smile. Well, he did not mind. He just wanted to protect his granddaughter even he ended up using a major of the nation to do so. Well, that major seemed to be happy to obey the order.

"In that case, I will go first." Ding Na An said. Because the hotel was nearby, she could get there on her own.

"Okay." Yu Qi replied.

Grandpa Tang and the two of Long Hui's subordinates walked away leaving Yu Qi together with Long Hui had been smiling to Yu Qi. The onlooker especially women turned to the smiling Long Hui. Yu Qi felt annoying when other women looking at her Long Hui.

"Stop smiling. Others are looking at you." Yu Qi glared to Long Hui.

Long Hui realized that his beloved Qi Qi was feeling jealous. So, he grabbed her waist and leaned closer to Yu Qi's ear. He then whispered to her.

"Don't worry. I don't smile at them. I only smile at my beloved Qi Qi." Long Hui whispered. He particularly seducing his beloved Qi Qi.

Yu Qi's ear turned red. 'This man is really good at seducing me.'

"Qi Qi, let's go. Aoi must be hungry." Long Hui pulled Yu Qi's hand and lead Yu Qi to walk together with him.

The women who had been watching the couple were very jealous. It might be better if their boyfriend was loving as much as that handsome man. The girl was very lucky since she met someone like him.

Chapter 364 - 364: The Warmth In Her Palm

Long Hui and Yu Qi walked into one of the nearby restaurants. The restaurant was in the district which was not busy. Yu Qi ordered some fried chicken and meatball with black pepper sauce. The owner told them it would take about half of one hour to ready. Yu Qi did not mind since they had the time.

Long Hui ordered two drinks for him and his beloved Qi Qi since the meal would be ready in half of one hour.

The customers at the restaurant were only them. Probably because it was already past the lunch hour.

The waiter came and put the drink for Long Hui and Yu Qi. Long Hui wanted to drink it. However, Yu Qi pulled Long Hui's hand under the table. Long Hui turned to Yu Qi. Yu Qi leaned closer.

"You have to pretend to drink. Something is wrong with this drink." Yu Qi whispered.

Then she giggled to Long Hui. It was because the waiter was looking at them in a suspicious way. It seemed that he wanted to confirm that the customers drank the drink or not.

Long Hui played along with Yu Qi. He also noticed the strangeness of the waiter. Long Hui took the glass and pretended to drink. Yu Qi was also doing so. Seeing this, the waiter smiled and left.

The reason for why was Yu Qi doing this was she had smelled something else in the drink. Maybe some kind of knock out drug.

Then a group of men, probably about thirty men came into the restaurant. The men gave a dangerous look when they were watching Long Hui and Yu Qi.

Long Hui and Yu Qi became alert. Long Hui gave a look to Yu Qi. Yu Qi nodded and smiled casually.

"Hello." A man greeted them with a smile. He seemed to be the leader of this group.

Long Hui glared at the man. It was a cold look. It was a kind of murderous look that telling people that this man had killed people before.

The man gulped. He could tell this man was a dangerous person. However, he thought that he could win this since he had a few men with him and the man was alone.

If he could win this, he could get the money and enjoy the beauty who was sitting silently in front of the man. He could see this beauty was very rare around here.

"Dong Yi, close your door, right now." The man shouted.

The owner of the restaurant quickly ran to the door and closed door. It seemed the owner of the restaurant, Dong Yi was their accomplice.

The men surrounded the two of them. Long Hui quickly pulled Yu Qi and protected her behind him. His hawk eyes were eyeing the people that surrounded them.

"Brother Hui, can I fight too?" Yu Qi posed a question.

"But..." Long Hui wanted to say something but...

"Brother Hui, there are too many of them. I can help you." Yu Qi interrupted.

Long Hui looked at her outfit. His beloved Qi Qi was wearing the long skirt. It would hinder her movement.

Understood the given look by Long Hui, Yu Qi smiled. "Don't worry. I will not be using my legs."

Watching the couple was flirting in front of them, the man said, "Bro, don't worry. I will take care of your girl."

Long Hui sneered. Without waiting for any longer, Long Hui attacked the men. It seemed they had some training. Long Hui would have some difficulties to defeat all of them.

While Long Hui was surrounded by the men, Yu Qi had been surrounded by some men too. They thought this beautiful and delicate young girl was a weak girl that had been protected by the man over there.

"Beautiful girl, let me take care of you." The leader of the men said while looking lustily at Yu Qi's body.

"Dare to come closer, you will suffer for the rest of your life." Yu Qi gave a warning.

"You think that man over there will save you, huh? I actually don't want to force you but since you are very stubborn, I don't have any choice. Brothers, grab her." The leader ordered while giving a sinister smile to Yu Qi.

The men slowly approached Yu Qi. One of them tried to grab Yu Qi. However, Yu Qi blocked his hand and gave a push on his chest. The man was pushed back strongly until the wall had to be his stopper. He then coughed some blood. He closed his eyes slowly.

One of the men ran to him and checked his breath. "Brother Ren, he has died."

The moment the man said his friend died, the men who wanted to approach Yu Qi looked at the girl in horror. How strong this girl was as she could just kill the man with one push on the chest? They also could see the indifferent look given by this girl. Like she felt nothing when she just killed a person. Only the person that killed before could possess this kind of indifference.

Yu Qi smiled. The inner energy that she had been practised for months finally bore the fruit. At first, she did not believe the martial arts that she had been practised had this kind of power. However, Bo Ya was telling the truth about the martial arts. She could feel the warmth gathering toward her palm when she pushed the man's chest.

Sensing the girl was in deep thought, the leader signalled the men to take down her now. The men ran toward the girl. Then something strange happened. About half of the men fell down on the ground.

Chapter 365 - 365: A Devil That Wore The Goddess's Appearance.

"I don't feel my leg anymore."

"Me too."

"What has just happened?"

"Brother Ren, help us. We don't feel our legs."

The leader looked at Yu Qi. Just now, he did not look the girl moved at all. The men were shouting saying that they could not feel their legs. Yu Qi just made a faint smile.

All of the men that fell on the ground was her doing. This time she used the poison that destroyed the part of their nerve system. As for how she gave to them was by using the needle.

On the other side, Long Hui already finished the fight. The men already laid on the ground, probably unconscious due to the pain. He did not kill any of them. He quickly turned and looked at his beloved Qi Qi. He ran to her.

"Are you okay, Qi Qi?" Long Hui asked.

"I'm fine." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui looked at the situation. He could see some of the men were laying down gripping their legs and one of them were stuck at the wall. He did not know what had just happened since he was totally focused on fighting those men.

Yu Qi stepped towards the leader. Seeing Yu Qi stepped toward the leader, the leader stepped backwards. He did not want whatever happened to others happened to him.

"Don't do it." The leader begged the couple since he knew that he could no longer do anything. He even kneeled down.

"Just answer my question. Why are you doing this?" Yu Qi looked down at the leader.

"Erk... It..."

"Tell the truth. Otherwise, I will inject something into your body." Yu Qi coldly glued to the leader.

"Someone wants to humiliate you. She wants us to r.a.p.e and make a videotape about it. After that, she wants to sell you to prostitution." The leader told Yu Qi trembling.

"Someone?" Yu Qi could not think of anyone. She did not even know anyone from here. So it was impossible that she offended someone here.

"You are lying, do you?" Yu Qi posed a threaten question again.

"Grand aunt, I'm telling you the truth. It was a woman. She ordered us to do it. We had been paid handsomely." The leader said again.

"I don't know someone from here." This time she told Long Hui.

"I will investigate this matter." Long Hui hugged Yu Qi. He then asked that leader. "Do you remember her face?"

"No. She hides her face with a mask and sunglass. Oh... But I remember she has some kind of bodyguards around her when she walked away." The leader recollected back his memory during the day.

Yu Qi narrowed her eyes. Thinking the person that wanted to harm her. She needed some information about that woman.

"How did she contact you?" Yu Qi asked.

"Well, yesterday night, I suddenly got the phone call from a man. He told me that someone wanted to meet me and offer a job. So I go to the place that the man mentioned. When I arrived there, a man probably the man who had called me yesterday brought me to meet the woman." The leader said.

"Where did you meet her?" Yu Qi asked again.

"At a bar. Not far from here."

"So, she told you to harm me. How did she pay you?" This information was very important.

"She paid directly to my account." The leader answered.

Yu Qi was smiling. Her finding culprit might be easy as ever. "Give me your account number."

"Why?" The leader felt scared when hearing the girl in front of him asked him about his account bank.

"Just give it to me if you want to live normally." Yu Qi threatened the leader.

The leader wrote down his account bank number. His ability to walk normally was much important than money.

"Don't worry. I will not take even one cent of your money." Yu Qi said. 'Well, I will not take it because I will let someone take the money from your account.'

"Can you let us go?" The leader begged.

Yu Qi gave a sinister smile. The leader and other shivered when they saw those smile. Like now, Yu Qi was like a devil that wore the goddess's appearance. They thought they might be having trouble with the handsome man that standing beside the devil. But they never thought the girl was more troublesome than the man. They very regretted about this. However, there was no cure for regret.

Yu Qi turned to the waiter and the owner and said, "Call the police right now."

The two of them did not move at all. They were looking at each other and looked at the leader. They were hoping the leader might have the heart to save them. If they called the police, they would be caught with the men as well because they also involved.

"Call the police right now if you don't want to end up like that." Yu Qi told them as she glanced to the men that laid down.

The owner and the waiter gulped. The owner asked the waiter to quickly called the police. He did not want to be like those men. Probably been arrested by police was a safe choice than losing their leg.

Long Hui silently watched Yu Qi who handling the matter. He felt his beloved Qi Qi was very effective. Calmly collected information about the person who wanted to harm her.

Chapter 366 - 366: Foreigner Here

The police had come and arrested all the men. The police had to call the paramedic to take some of the men who were obviously injured. The others yelled something like they could not feel their legs. The police could not do anything but to wait for the ambulance to take them to the hospital and check the cause this.

Yu Qi and Long Hui told everything that they found out from the leader but Yu Qi left out the information about the account bank since Yu Qi and Long Hui felt that the police did not take this matter seriously. Maybe because they were foreigners.

As for a dead man, Yu Qi also explained that she did not mean to kill him. It was self-defence. She told the police that she just pushed him away from her and then he ended up by crashing the wall behind him.

The police told Yu Qi and Long Hui that they would investigate the matter. Yu Qi and Long Hui only nodded. They left the place.

"They will not investigate this matter." Long Hui suddenly said after they were far away from the restaurant.

"I know. It seems that the person had some relationship with the police." Yu Qi nodded.

"Yeah. And we are foreigners here." Long Hui added.

Yu Qi sighed. It was already late in the evening. Her dog must be hungry.

Hearing his beloved Qi Qi sighed, Long Hui quickly assured Yu Qi. "Don't worry. I will investigate this."

Yu Qi suddenly laughed. Long Hui was truly feeling confused. "Why did my beloved Qi Qi suddenly laugh?"

"Brother Hui, I was not thinking about that matter. I just feel sorry to Aoi. He must be hungry right now." Yu Qi explained.

"Owh." Long Hui did not expect that. He really thought his beloved Qi Qi was worried about this matter but turned out that she was worried about her dog, Aoi.

"Look like Aoi have to wait for tonight's dinner." Yu Qi said.

"Yeah. Let's go back. I will send you back to your hotel." Long Hui said. He was very worried to let her go back on her own after this matter and the culprit of this matter was still unknown.

Yu Qi nodded. She knew Long Hui would not let her went back alone. They arrived at the hotel. Before Yu Qi entered her room, she told Long Hui something.

"Don't tell grandfather about this matter. I don't want him to be worried about me." Yu Qi said.

"Okay. I promise." Long Hui nodded.

Yu Qi entered her room. When Yu Qi disappeared from his sight, he left.

Ding Na An and Yu Qi, of course not forget about Aoi, were waiting for Grandpa Tang to come and take them for dinner. Aoi was very hungry.

"I will order meat for you." Yu Qi patted Aoi's head.

'It's a promise, isn't it ?' Aoi looked at his master.

Then they saw the female students from their university. Those people might go searching for dinner. One of the girls greeted Yu Qi and Ding Na An.

"Hi Senior Tang, Senior Ding. What are you doing here? We are going out for dinner. Let's go together." It was a first year student.

"Yeah, let's go together." Others invited them.

"No need to wait for us. We are waiting for people to come and take us to dinner." Ding Na An said.

"Then we should go together." Another one guessed.

The group nodded. They knew Yu Qi's grandfather would come and take Yu Qi and Ding Na An for dinner. Yu Qi's grandfather would bring the two of them to a good restaurant. How could they let only the two of them go? They could go together with the two of them. They could enjoy the tasty food without worry about its price.

"Sorry. I will go only with Na An." Yu Qi rejected them.

"Why?" The people asked.

"Then tell me why shall I bring all of you with me?" Yu Qi glared to the group.

"We just..."

"Yesterday, my grandfather already invited all of you to dinner. You want my grandfather to take all of you for dinner again?" Yu Qi gave the question.

Some of the students did not look at Yu Qi. They were so embarrassed because it was the truth. If they eat with Yu Qi, her grandfather would be paying for them as well.

However, some of them asked about Ding Na An. "Then, why does she go with you as well?"

"Because I invite her."

"Then you can invite us too."

"Who do you think you are? Ding Na An is my friend. Of course, I will invite her. You are not even my friend. We are just students from the same university. No less, no more. Then tell me, on what basis I should invite all of you?" Yu Qi put out all the facts.

Now, all of them did not talk. They could not think a word to retort back Yu Qi's statement. Yeah. They were not Yu Qi's friend. They also did not want to get closer to Yu Qi since they were jealous of her beauty and her talents. The lecturers also compared them to Yu Qi made them hate Yu Qi more.

They left with the embarrassing faces. They thought that they would get a free dinner and Yu Qi might give them some faces. Who knew Yu Qi slapped their face strongly.

"Humph! Stupid." Yu Qi rolled her eyes toward the group.

"It is very funny for them to think about such an idea." Ding Na An commented.

"I don't know why they think that I'm a good person that let anyone use me." Yu Qi sneered.

"You are not a good person. Just a sly person." Ding Na An laughed.

"You...."

One van stopped and Long Hui came out from the van. Yu Qi, Ding Na An as well Aoi went into the van so that they could go for dinner.

Chapter 367 - 367: Hacking The Bank

Grandpa Tang brought them to another famous restaurant there. Yu Qi ate, full-filling her empty stomach. Because Aoi was very hungry, he asked his master to order a lot of food for him. Yu Qi felt guilty about this evening, so she just followed Aoi's request.

As for the incident, Grandpa Tang did not know anything about that. Long Hui remembered his promise. Yu Qi did not want her grandfather to worry about this. Grandpa Tang might cancel the tomorrow trip to go to the herbs shop. Because Yu Qi also wanted to take a look at the herbs, so she did not want her grandfather to know about the incident.

Since the police here did not want to take this incident seriously, Yu Qi would be investigated on her own. It was a lot better and faster. She already got the information that she needed. The only thing that was needed was the time to look at the information. She knew that she would find the culprit who wanted to harm herself.

The dinner was over and Long Hui sent Yu Qi, Ding Na An and as well as Aoi straight to their hotel. Yu Qi entered the room, took a bath and brought Aoi to space. Yu Qi put Aoi and told him to play with Bo Ya. She told them if she had some time later on, she would cook. Aoi and Bo Ya became immediately happy. They went outside to play without being a disturbance to their master.

Yu Qi opened the computer. She began her hacking. The information was the bank account number of the man. Since Yu Qi already tried to hack the bank once, she already knew the pattern of the codes particularly used in the bank system. She managed to disable the firewall of the bank system.

Then she succeeded in entering the bank system. She typed the account number of the bank. She saw all the transactions of the bank account. The last transaction was 3 million. It was probably the money from the woman who tried to harm her.

Yu Qi began to crack another security system in order to get information about the transaction. However, unluckily Yu Qi triggered something that alerted the people of the bank.

"Sir, someone hacked our security system." A person said.

"Investigate that person. Try to locate the location of that person." The security system manager ordered his people to act fast.

Yu Qi was not afraid. She fought with them. Her fingers became faster and faster dancing on the keyboard. She swore that she would find the information about the transaction.

She now had two aims. One was to find the information. Another one was to fight the security people. After two hours on the fight, Yu Qi got the information. She slowly retreated from the fight.

The people with whom she was battling were kind of confused about this. They could not think the reason for this attack.

"Sir, that person has already retreated." The people of security told their manager.

"What about its location? Do you all get it?" The manager said.

"No."

"Then the motive?"

"We still don't know about that."

"Can you still call yourself are the best if you can't catch that person? And not even know their motive?"

The people kept quiet.

"Suppress the news that we had been attacked. I will tell the director myself." The security manager went out.

The people were looking at each other. They just hoped they would be able to keep the job here.

Meanwhile, the culprit of the attack was very happy with the result. Since she got the information, she would keep it first before she analysed that. She was not in a hurry.

So, Yu Qi went to cook for her two little cuties.

....

Ding Na An went to Yu Qi's room. She knocked on the door. Yu Qi opened the door.

"You are early. Come in." Yu Qi waved her hand. "Wait for moments. I'm currently busy with Aoi."

In the room, Aoi was wet. Yu Qi was currently wiping the dog. It seemed that the water had already wiped out but his fur was still wet, Yu Qi took the dryer and used it on Aoi.

Aoi wanted to run but his master gave a look which threatened him and saying that he would not get the food for breakfast if he ran away. So, the pitiful dog sat there obediently letting his master dry all of his furs.

"I will get ready." Yu Qi said after she finished with Aoi.

"Okay." Ding Na An nodded.

Ding Na An approached Aoi. She took the opportunity to caress Aoi's fur. Aoi's fur seemed very smooth after he took the bath.

"Very smooth." Ding Na An praised Aoi.

'Of course.' Aoi put an arrogant look.

"You seem to understand my word." Ding Na An chuckled.

Yu Qi also chuckled when she heard what Ding Na An had said that to Aoi.

"I'm ready. Let's go now." Yu Qi said after she was ready.

Grandpa Tang and others had still not arrived yet. So, Yu Qi and Ding Na An were waiting for them at the lobby. They saw the students from their university. Probably because of yesterday, the students just glanced at them and left.

Then two of the male students approached Yu Qi and Ding Na An. One of them was first year student and another one was the fourth year student.

"Junior Tang, Junior Ding, where are you going later?" The fourth year student asked.

"We are going to see a herbs shop that my grandfather knew. Why?" Yu Qi answered and asked.

"Can we follow you, Senior Tang?" The first year student asked shyly to Yu Qi.

"Well... " Yu Qi did not know how to answer it.

"We thought it would be nice to visit something like that here instead of going shopping. Don't worry. We will cover our own expense. So, you don't think to worry about that." The fourth student said.

Yu Qi looked at Ding Na An. Ding Na An gave a look, 'why not?'

"Okay. Two of you can follow us. By the way, what is your name?" Yu Qi asked two of them.

"My name is Kang Wan and this is Yun San. I'm a fourth year student and he is a first year student." Kang Wan introduced themselves.

"Nice to meet you, Senior Kang, Junior Yun. I'm Ding Na An and she is Tang Yu Qi." Ding Na An smiled.

"Of course, we know the two of you. You are famous for our faculty." Yun San said.

"Famous?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah. The lecturers are always talking about the two of you, that we, the first years shall be like you." Yun San said shyly.

Yu Qi actually was his idol. He was very happy to come here and talk to his idol.

Chapter 368 - 368: Shotacon Virus

Grandpa Tang arrived together with Long Hui and another two bodyguards. Yu Qi explained to Grandpa Tang that the two students also wanted to follow them to visit the herbs shop. Grandpa Tang did not mind because he also liked that the students took the opportunity to learn about the herbs.

However, Long Hui was not happy with the two males, especially, with the one who looked younger. He kept looking at his beloved Qi Qi with the sparkling eyes. He needed to guard his beloved Qi Qi from been infected by the shotacon virus.

They arrived at the herbs shop. Grandpa Tang led the way in. Yu Qi was very excited to see the herbs that were produced in Fanghai Nation.

"Welcome everyone to our Ciankui Herbs Shop. What can I help you with?" The shopkeeper was welcoming them.

"Is Su Jin here?" Grandpa Tang asked.

The shopkeeper was startled when this old man directly called the owner of this herbs shop. Probably this old man was an acquaintance of the owner.

"Wait for a moment sir, I will call him. In the meantime, you can look around to see our herbs." The shopkeeper had time to promote the herbs before leaving to the upper floor.

Yu Qi turned and looked around. Ding Na An also looked around. Seeing Yu Qi was alone at the moment, Yun San wanted to approach Yu Qi. However, when he was about to step closer, he saw a man, Grandpa Tang's bodyguard, put his hand on Yu Qi's waist and looked at Yun San threatening him to stay away from Yu Qi.

Yun San was confused. Why was that bodyguard casually touching Yu Qi? Yu Qi seemed not angry and just showed a little annoying expression to that bodyguard.

Kang Wan approached Yun San and patted his shoulder. "He is Junior Tang's boyfriend. You should give up." Kang Wang gave Yun San a piece of advice.

"Her boyfriend?" Yun San heard about Yu Qi had a boyfriend but he never saw her boyfriend before. He also thought it was just a rumour to make a bad image of Yu Qi.

"Yeah, it seems that their family already know about them." Kang Wan wanted Yun San to give up early so that he would not be hurt by it.

"Thank you, Senior Kang, for telling me." Yun San nodded.

Meanwhile, Yu Qi had been followed by Long Hui very closely.

"What are you doing, Brother Hui?" Yu Qi narrowed her eyes. Looking Long Hui acting like this, she felt something fishy.

"I'm protecting you from shotacon virus." Long Hui said in a serious tone.

'Shotacon virus? Is that some kind of new virus?' Yu Qi already in deep thought. In the end, she still did not get it.

"What is the shotacon virus?" Yu Qi asked Long Hui directly.

"Someone younger than you is eyeing you." Long Hui explained it simply.

"Huh?" Yu Qi was thinking again. 'Someone younger than me is eyeing me? Someone younger than me... What? Hah! My Long Hui made another jar of vinegar.' She suddenly laughed making everyone turned their eyes to her. Feeling embarrassed, she laughed silently while watching Long Hui.

Long Hui knew that his beloved Qi Qi already understood what was he talking about.

"Brother Hui, you are cute." Yu Qi made a comment.

"What? Cute?" Long Hui did not know what to do, whether he had to get angry or laugh when to be called cute by his beloved Qi Qi? Personally, he never thought any man would be happy to be called cute by his woman.

"You are jealous. But I like it." Yu Qi whispered to Long Hui's ear.

'Sigh... This girl really knows how to tease me.' Long Hui felt a reaction on his body when his beloved Qi Qi whispered something like that to him.

Yu Qi was surveying the herbs again. She found three of the herbs that were particularly hard to find in the Binhai Nation. Yu Qi wanted to buy some seeds of the herbs so that she could try to plant the herbs in her greenhouse. If that was not working, she would plant it inside the space.

Grandpa Tang was nowhere to find. Perhaps he was currently meeting with his acquaintance, Su Jin. Yu Qi approached the shopkeeper. The shopkeeper was very polite to her.

"Sir may I know, can I buy the seeds of these three herbs?" Yu Qi put the herbs that she picked just now.

The shopkeeper looked at the herbs that the young girl put on the table. It was not very rare herbs. He could just give the seeds.

"These are common herbs. Can I ask you what will you do to the seeds since these herbs could not grow outside Fanghai Nation?" The shopkeeper knew that the group with the old man did not come from Fanghai Nation.

"I will find a way to make it grow." Yu Qi smiled.

"Then, wait for the moment." The shopkeeper had disappeared into the back door.

Yu Qi was waiting until her grandfather patted her shoulder.

"Grandfather." Yu Qi called.

"Do you find something interesting in this shop?" Grandpa Tang asked.

"Of course. I found three of them..." Yu Qi started to explain about the herbs.

"She is indeed your granddaughter." Su Jin laughed.

"Yu Qi, this is the owner of this herbs shop. You can call him Grandpa Su." Grandpa Tang said.

"If you want you can call me, Brother Su, I don't mind." Su Jin made a joke.

Chapter 369 - 369: Flirting Man

Everyone laughed when they heard Su Jin was joking about something like that. However, only one was watching Su Jin with a cold look. Su Jin could not help to tremble when he sensed someone was looking at him intensely. He turned to that source. He saw a young and handsome man that looked at him like that man wanted to kill him.

"Joke like this again, I think you will be missing from this world." Grandpa Tang whispered to Su Jin.

"Who is that man?" Su Jin asked.

"He? He is the major general in my country, Long Hui. He is my bodyguard on this trip." Grandpa Tang told him.

"Then why is he looking at me like that?" Su Jin whispered again.

"Because from his perspective, you are flirting with his girlfriend." Grandpa Tang said grumpily.

"Huh? His girlfriend? Who is...." That question did not finish yet but Su Jin already got the answer.

Long Hui still gave a murderous look to Su Jin. Even Yu Qi could feel it. Yu Qi turned to Long Hui and glared to Long Hui. After that, Long Hui was looking very gentle like he was not the person that let out the murderous look to Su Jin.

The people who kept watching the scene were dumbfounded with this. It was indeed the truth. People in love were behaving differently in front of their beloved.

"Grandpa Su, I'm sorry." Yu Qi apologized.

"It's okay. Don't worry about that. I understand." Su Jin waved his hand while giving out a small laugh.

"Miss, these are the seeds that you have requested for, earlier." The shopkeeper came out and handled the three bags of seeds.

Yu Qi reached out her hand took the three seeds with a smile. "Thank you."

"What are these?" Su Jin asked looking at the bags.

"Spring root seeds, Bianca flower seeds and Anise hyssop seeds." Yu Qi said.

"Yu Qi, you want to plant these herbs in our country?" Grandpa Tang guessed Yu Qi's intention.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"But you know it would be hard right?" Grandpa Tang told the truth.

"Don't worry. I have various methods to try." Yu Qi would not give up.

"Your granddaughter is an ambitious person." Su Jin praised Yu Qi.

"Of course, she is my granddaughter." Grandpa Tang put the proud face.

"Grandfather, I'm here." A voice came from the door.

All of the eyes turned to the source of the voice. At the door, there was a man dressed in a great outfit giving out the vibrate of a young man that liked to play around.

The man looked around and stopped at Yu Qi. He was mesmerized with Yu Qi's beauty. So, he was approaching Yu Qi. However, before he got close to Yu Qi, someone had blocked him from approaching Yu Qi.

"What the hell..." He wanted to get angry with the person that blocked him but he got scared when he looked at that person's face.

The man gulped his saliva. 'This person is very scary.' Then he turned to his grandfather asking for some help.

"Grandfather." The man hid behind Su Jin.

Su Jin wanted to laugh. His grandson needed to be taught otherwise he would flirt with anyone whom he thought beautiful.

"Brother Hui." Yu Qi called Long Hui's name.

Long Hui no longer paid attention to the man.

"That was scary. I thought my time had come." The man said.

"You should learn your lesson. Don't just go flirting with anyone." Su Jin hit the man's head.

"Grandfather, it hurts." The man stepped back avoiding Su Jin's hand.

"Tang Girl. This is my grandson, Su Fan. I'm sorry for his behaviour." Su Jin said.

"It's okay." Yu Qi shook her head.

Ding Na An appeared. She was walking outside the herbs garden. She wanted to go to the toilet however she did not find one. Also, there was nobody around. So, she entered the shop. But she saw many people gathered around. So, it was kind of embarrassing to ask where was the toilet. Ding Na An spotted Yu Qi.

"Oh, another beauty." Su Fan stepped closer to Ding Na An as he wanted to hug Ding Na An.

Seeing an unknown person wanted to hug her, Ding Na An grabbed his hand and made a judo skill, which was 'throwback'.

"AH!" Su Fan screamed on pain.

People were dumbfounded once again. Then Su Jin let a small laugh and then became sober.

Ding Na An glared to Su Fan. He dared to hug her in the public, this was what he got.

Meanwhile, Long Hui silently gave a thumb up to Ding Na An. This man needed to be taught some lesson.

After enough of laughing, Su Jin helped Su Fan to get up.

"Grandfather, slowly... It hurts." Su Fan got up.

"How dare you do this to me?" Su Fan pointed angrily to Ding Na An.

Ding Na An did not answer that. She gave a cold snort to Su Fan.

"Sir, where is the toilet?" Ding Na An asked the shopkeeper in low voice.

"Oh, it is right this corner." The shopkeeper also replied in the low voice.

"Thank you." Ding Na An said.

Seeing Ding Na An left, Yu Qi also followed her.

"That girl just leave after hitting this young master?" Su Fan shouted angrily.

"Serves you right." Long Hui sneered to Su Fan.

Su Fan remembered that Long Hui was very terrified.

Chapter 370 - 370: Protect His Beloved

The situation in the herbs shop eventually calmed down. Yu Qi and Ding Na An came back. Ding Na An apologized to Su Jin about the matter. Su Fan was angry and asked why did she apologize to Su Jin, not to him. Because she was hitting him not his grandfather.

Ding Na An told that she apologized not because she hit him but because she caused the problem in the herbs shop. Su Fan wanted to retort but Su Jin held him back.

Su Fan glanced angrily to Ding Na An. Ding Na An was not afraid of him. She just snorted. Su Jin brought them to walk around the garden which was full of the herbs. He was also a person who loved the herbs very much like Grandpa Tang. He gave some lectures to Yu Qi, Ding Na An as well as Kang Wang and Yun San.

They heard Su Jin's lecturer about the herbs. Even Kang Wang and Yun San took notes about the lecturer.

After a while, Grandpa Tang wanted to leave the herbs shop. Yu Qi remembered about the seeds which she wanted to buy. She had not paid for those yet. When she wanted to pay, Su Jin said that he wanted to gift her, so she did not have to pay for it. Yu Qi thanked Su Jin.

All of them went to a restaurant for lunch. Su Jin and Su Fan joined too. After lunch, all of them except Su Jin and Su Fan went back to their hotel to get some rest since their flight was tonight.

When they went back to their hotel, they encountered the girls from their university. The girls seemed to give some resentment look to Yu Qi and Ding Na An. The two of them ignored them and started heading towards their room.

The girls took the opportunity to ask the two boys. The fourth year students from the girls came and asked Kang Wan.

"Kang Wang, where did you just go with them?" 'Them' was referring to Yu Qi and Ding Na An.

"We just went to a herbs shop." Kang Wang told them the truth. There was nothing to hide.

"What??? Just a herbs shop?" An Shu Lin felt stupid when hearing Kang Wang's answer.

"What? Is there anything wrong going to a herbs shop?" Yun San opened his mouth joining the conversation.

"Eh... No... No... No... The herbs shop is good." An Shu Lin said waving her hand. She could not help to feel scared when she heard Yun San's voice.

"Is there anything else? If not, we want to return to our room and get some rest." Kang Wang said.

"Oh, that's it." The fourth year students said.

So, Kang Wang and Yun San walked away leaving the girls.

"I thought they went somewhere fancy. Who thought they just went to a herbs shop. It is funny." An Shu Lin said.

"They might be regretting following the girls." The other girl added.

After checking out the hotel, all of them, the lecturers and the students headed towards the airport. There was still 3 hours before they could check in to their flight.

Yu Qi walked around with Aoi looking for the food store because she wanted to buy food for her little cutie. She arrived at the area which had stores that sold the food. She looked for meat. Then she heard Aoi's voice telling her about the store that sold fried chicken. So, she brought the fried chicken to Aoi, herself and Ding Na An.

'Master, I can feel someone is watching us.' Aoi suddenly gave a warning.

Yu Qi's expression changed to stern. Someone? Is this the work of that person? The person who wanted to harm her yesterday.

'Master, it is possible that person.' Aoi knew that his master had been under attacked by someone who wanted to harm her. That was the reason he could not eat yesterday. Thinking about yesterday's matter, he was very angry.

'Master, let's go back to our place. They are probably watching us. If they attack, we will attack too.' Aoi made a resolution.

'Okay, my dear.' Yu Qi walked normally.

Until someone grabbed her hand. "Qi Qi."

"You like to surprise me, do you?" Yu Qi glared to that person. Only one person called her with that name.

Long Hui smiled. As well, when they were together, many eyes were watching them. Some were fascinating about them. Some were jealous of them since they looked so perfect with each other.

'Master, those people who were watching ypu had already made a retreat. Probably because they see you with a man.' Aoi informed the situation.

"They are probably scared when suddenly a man appears beside me that they can not make their move on me.' Yu Qi smiled while watching her surrounding.

Long Hui looked at his beloved Qi Qi. His beloved Qi Qi seemed to survey her surrounding. 'Have those people still not left?' He was worried about his beloved Qi Qi since someone from this country wanted to harm his beloved Qi Qi.

When he arrived at the airport, the first thing he did was looking for his beloved Qi Qi. When his beloved Qi Qi's friend told that she was walking around alone, he got worried. He detected some group of people seemed to blend with others and watched his beloved Qi Qi. Someone must order that group of people to harm his beloved Qi Qi just like yesterday. He would never allow that to happen.
