Chapter 371 - 371: Their 30,000 Feet Air Date

The time to check in the flight was here. Yu Qi checked in and safely sat at her seat. She adjusted her seat. She put on the sleeping mask.

"Na An, I want to sleep. If something unusual happens, wake me up." Yu Qi told Ding Na An that sat beside her.

"Okay." Ding Na An nodded.

Yu Qi slept for a long time. When she woke up, she was surprised when she saw a handsome man beside her looking at her with a doting look on his face.

"Are you awake?" A gentle voice came out from Long Hui's mouth.

"Yeah. But what are you doing here and where is Na An?" Yu Qi adjusted her chair to normal.

"I change my seat with her." Long Hui said.

"You don't force her right?" Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

"Of... course not." Long Hui did not look at Yu Qi's eyes when he answered her question.

Yu Qi chuckled. Her Long Hui turned around avoiding her eyes meaning he was lying.

Yu Qi was stretching her body.

"Are you still feel tired?" Long Hui caressed Yu Qi's face.

"It's fine. Are we arriving now?" Yu Qi asked.

"Not yet. Still have 2 hours to go." Long Hui said.

"I see." Yu Qi nodded.

Suddenly her stomach gave out a small sound. Yu Qi lifted up her face looking at Long Hui with an embarrassing expression on her face. Meanwhile, when Long Hui heard that sound, he was half-worried and half-laughed.

"You, don't laugh." Yu Qi gave a warning to Long Hui.

"Alright, Qi Qi. I will not laugh at you. I will call the flight attendant." Long Hui pressed the button to call the flight attendant.

Not long after that, a beautiful flight attendant came to greet Long Hui. She was very surprised to see such a handsome man. It would not be a waste if she did not try to know this handsome man. She changed her body language to charm Long Hui.

Long Hui kept his cold look. He knew this kind of body language. He always had seen this kind of act. It made him felt ridiculous.

"What I can help you with, sir?" The flight attendant asked Long Hui with a very gentle voice. A normal man would like this kind of woman.

"Bring my girlfriend something to eat." Long Hui said. He did not even look at the flight attendant.

The expression on the flight attendant's face stiffened as well as her smile. She did not expect that this handsome man would be travelling with his girlfriend.

"Okay... Sir." The flight attendant nodded and walked away. Even though she was embarrassed, she still walked elegantly.

"She wants to seduce you." Yu Qi commented right after the flight attendant left.

"I prefer you to seduce me, especially on the bed." Long Hui smirked. He pressed the word 'on the bed' firmly.

Yu Qi suddenly coughed. 'This man become very good at making me cough. He is so shameless.' Yu Qi glared at Long Hui.

Seeing his beloved Qi Qi coughed in embarrassed with what he had been spoken, he was feeling great. He also imagined what it would be when Yu Qi would be seducing him in the bed. Thinking about that making his blood rushed up to his nose. He quickly stopped imagining about that.

Another flight attendant came to deliver something for Yu Qi to eat. Because she was very hungry, she ignored Long Hui and started to stuff the empty stomach. Aoi who sat in the cage under her chair called her through the telepathy. Aoi was also hungry.

She took him out and gave him a leftover of her food. "Hold back with it. After this, I will give you a lot of food, okay?"

Aoi nodded. He ate the food.

"How about my grandfather?" Yu Qi asked.

"He is in the first-class cabin." Long Hui answered.

"Then you come here to sit at the economy-class and changed the first class with Na An?" Yu Qi looked weirdly to Long Hui.

"What? It is worth because I can sit with you." Long Hui lifted his eyebrow. He was clearly seducing Yu Qi.

'What is he thinking of seducing me here? What if I can not control myself and attack him?' Yu Qi shook her head so that she could stop thinking that.

Long Hui smiled when saw his beloved Qi Qi's reaction. It was too funny. She must be thinking about him. Who did not like when their beloveds were thinking about them? The more the better. He wanted to know what was his beloved Qi Qi thoughts about him at this time.

If long Hui knew that his beloved Qi Qi was trying to hold back herself from been seduced by Long Hui, Long Hui would have increased his charm and seduced his beloved Qi Qi more.

"Will you go back to the military base after landing?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah. After sending your grandfather to his home." Long Hui nodded.

"I see." Yu Qi did not notice that there was a layer of sadness on her voice.

However, Long Hui noticed that. He grabbed his beloved Qi Qi's hand firmly.

"Qi Qi, I love you. Only you, the woman in my life." Long Hui declared.

"Brother Hui, remember your promise. Otherwise, I will just kill you and that woman." Yu Qi gave a warning.

Long Hui smiled when hearing a warning from his beloved Qi Qi's mouth. Anyone who dared to destroy their relationship, he would take care of them nicely without waiting for his beloved Qi Qi to act.

Chapter 372 - 372: Going Back To The University

The flight safely landed at the Binhai International Airport. All the passengers checked out. Because her grandfather came out first with Ding Na An, they were waiting for Yu Qi and Long Hui.

Yu Qi and Long Hui went together while holding hands. The girls from their university were very jealous when seeing this. The two of them ignored the public eyes and walked straight to Grandpa Tang.

Grandpa Tang rolled his eyes when seeing the two of them were acting like this. If he did not know the two of them, he would think that the two of them were newlywed and coming home from their honeymoon. Thinking about that, he became grumpy. He could not allow his beloved granddaughter to go just like that. He still wanted to pamper and dote on her.

"Grandfather." Yu Qi greeted her grandfather.

"Are you okay? Are you tired?" She released her hand from Long Hui's grip and went towards him and asked her grandfather when she saw his grumpy face.

Seeing Yu Qi pulled her hand from Long Hui's hand and asked him in the worried tone, Grandpa Tang secretly smiled proudly to Long Hui behind Yu Qi.

Long Hui's turn to roll his eyes. 'This old man really don't like to accept his defeat.' Ignoring Grandpa Tang, Long Hui's eyes went to Yu Qi. Still, his beloved Qi Qi was the best.

"Remember to take care of your health, grandfather." Yu Qi reminded her grandfather about his health.

"Okay, okay. I know." Grandpa Tang felt like his beloved granddaughter already became like his eldest grandson who liked to nag at him.

"Brother Hui..." Yu Qi turned to Long Hui.

Long Hui was waiting for her to finish the sentence.

"Be careful in your missions. Don't neglect your health." Yu Qi was about to leave after saying the sentence.

However, Long Hui stopped her by pulling her hand. Without saying anything, Long Hui gave a light peck on her lips.

"You too. Take care." Long Hui said.

"You brat!!!" Grandpa Tang felt angry after seeing that Long Brat steadily ate his granddaughter's tofu.

Without waiting for any longer, Yu Qi ran away. Her face was blushing. The kiss was light but she could not help but felt embarrassed because Grandpa Tang saw the scene. Yu Qi arrived at the place all the students from her university were waiting for their university's bus to come and take them to the university.

Only two lecturers and Ding Na An was there. Others seemed to walk around. Yu Qi asked Ding Na An. Ding Na An told that the lecturer told the students that the bus would arrive in one hour. So they took the opportunity to walk around while searching for something to eat.

"You are not hungry?" Yu Qi asked.

"No. I have eaten on the flight. The first class flight is very nice. Tell major Long that I'm saying thank you for letting me experience the first class. Probably I will never experience it again." Ding Na An said.

"Okay. I will pass the message. I will buy something for Aoi to eat." Yu Qi remembered that her little cutie was hungry since he ate a little on the flight.

"Okay." Ding Na An nodded.

Yu Qi took Aoi walked around. They found a BBQ shop. Aoi was drooling when looking at the meat.

"You want to eat that?" Yu Qi pointed to the meat while asking to Aoi.

Aoi was very happy when his master asking him that. He nodded happily.

"Okay. Since you want it, let's go and buy it." Yu Qi walked in the shop.

"Sir, I want to buy half a kilo of this." Yu Qi said while pointing to the meat.

"Okay, young miss. Wait for a while." The man said

'Master, buy a lot.' Aoi said.

"Oh, sir, make it one kilo." Yu Qi told the man.

"Alright." The man nodded. "Young girl, you sure eat a lot."

"This is for my little cutie." Yu Qi looked at Aoi.

"Owh, I see. The meat is for you." The man said.

"Woof." 'Of course, she is my beloved master.' The last sentence must not be heard.

"Is this dog male or female dog?" The man said

"Male." Yu Qi answered.

"It is a Siberian Husky breed, right?" The man asked again.

"Yes." Yu Qi could answer 'yes' because she actually did not know which breed Aoi was. Aoi was a beast. Probably different from the breed.

"I also had a dog but he died in a car accident." The man sighed sadly.

Yu Qi was silent.

"Here is your order. Sorry. I talk too much. I just got excited to see a cute dog." The man gave the plastic bag to Yu Qi.

"It's okay." Yu Qi paid for the meat.

Yu Qi left and went back to Ding Na An. Aoi was waiting for Yu Qi to give the meat to him. Seeing the impatient look on Aoi's face, Yu Qi laughed.

"Here. I know you are hungry." Yu Qi gave the meat to Aoi.

Seeing the meat was served in front of him, Aoi did not wait any longer. He pounced on the meat.

One bite and Aoi said, 'It is delicious.'

Ding Na An saw this scene laughed. Somehow she could understand the expression on Aoi's look. He looked very satisfied with the meat.

"Aoi is very cute." Ding Na An commented.

Chapter 373 - 373: Found Him

"How was the trip?"

Yu Qi and Ding Na An were hearing the question many times when they appeared in the first lecture for today.

Because they were very interested in the medical conference but did not have a chance to participate.

"Guys, enough. Yu Qi and Na An are probably tired now to answer all of your questions." So Pang Lim said.

"We will submit the report about the medical conference this week. The lecturers would be giving you access to the report, so you all can read those later." Yu Qi descended from the crowd.

Hearing this, the students finally left Yu Qi and Ding Na An. The two of them could finally take a breath.

"You must have enjoyed the trip. Lucky girl." So Pang Lim said.

They were currently at the cafe eating lunch.

"Yeah. I enjoyed it." Yu Qi answered while smiling.

"What? What is this? Why are you so happy?" Mei Lilli turned to Yu Qi.

"Na An, tell us about it." So Pang Lim attacked Ding Na An when seeing Yu Qi had no intention to tell them.

Ding Na An looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi did not seem to care if someone knew about it. Yu Qi nodded.

"Elder Tang came over." Ding Na An said.

"Huh? Just her grandfather? Really? Na An spill everything." So Pang Lim did not let Ding Na An go.

"With Yu Qi's boyfriend." Ding Na An let out the truth.

"Ho... Ho... Ho... That is why you have enjoyed the trip. I'm very jealous." So Pang Lim loudly sighed.

"You need to find a boyfriend first to be like Yu Qi." Mei Lilli rubbed the wound.

"No one likes me." So Pang Lim pretended to cry.

"You will find someone later."

They smoothed So Pang Lim's feeling.

Yu Qi completed the report that her faculty requested. Finally, she had time to check the information that she got from the bank that she had hacked while she was in Fanghai Nation.

She opened the file. The person that wanted to harm her was indeed a woman. She was from Fanghai Nation.

"Mu Rong Xie? Do I know this name?"

Yu Qi could not remember this name and how had she offend her before. The name did not ring any bell at all.

"Better look at her picture."

Yu Qi opened the picture. She was surprised to see the picture. The woman in the picture was someone she only had met her once. However, she could feel the familiarity when she was looking at this woman.

This woman was the one who argued with her the day when she had brought her friends to eat at the restaurant. She was the one who insulted Yu Qi and her friends saying Yu Qi and her friends did not have the right to eat at the restaurant. Yu Qi slapped her face by entering a private room.

"So, she wants to harm me because of that matter? Yes, probably that matter because that is the only time I have met her."

Yu Qi smiled wickedly. "You want to harm me? Let's see which dirty secrets that you have?"

Yu Qi's fingers started to dance on the keyboard. She dug all the information that Mu Rong Xie had. Her personal information, her education, all of it.

Yu Qi started to read the information. The more she read the information the more she became familiar with the information. She felt that she already knew all of this.

Then, she started to read the information about her family. She had a father, mother and an older sister. The older sister was Mu Yian, another woman who had accompanied her another day when she had insulted Yu Qi and her friends.

However, when she took a look at one picture. Her tear suddenly busted out.

"It's him... It's him... I finally found him." Yu Qi said while crying.

Aoi and Bo Ya heard her master cried, quickly entered their master's room. They were worried about the sudden cry.

Aoi: Master, what happened?

Bo Ya: Master, why are you crying?

Still, in crying, Yu Qi hugged her two little cuties. She did not answer their questions. Finally... Finally... She found him. When she saw his picture, all the memories of her real family in her past life played in her mind.

How she was found by her real grandfather in her past life... How she entered university... How she became a friend with Fung Meng Xuan... How she had been told by her grandfather that she had a fiancée... How her relatives expressed their dislike to her? How she managed her life in her real family...

All of them came in her mind like she was watching a movie. Ironically, the main lead of the movie was her.

"Grandfather... Grandfather... Grandfather... I have found you... I have found you..." Yu Qi let the words out while she was still crying.

Aoi and Bo Ya looked at each other. They were feeling confused. 'Grandfather? Was that Grandpa Tang?'

The two little cuties that still in their master's hug remained silent. They just let their master cry until she was satisfied.

After one hour of crying, Yu Qi finally calmed down. The two little cuties were very worried while looking at her.

"I'm sorry to let you two see me like this." Yu Qi patted the two little cuties.

"It's okay master. But can you tell us why are you crying like this?" Bo Ya asked. He was very shocked to see his master crying like that because she had never cried like that.

"See this old man?" Yu Qi pointed to the picture on the computer.

Aoi and Bo Ya turned to the picture.

"This is my real grandfather." Yu Qi stated.

"Your real grandfather?" Aoi asked.

"Yes. After rebirth, I have forgotten all the memories of my real family. It's like it has been sealed by something. So, I have kept searching for the clues. Still not working. But when I have a look at this picture, all of the memories have come back to me." Yu Qi traced her finger on her real grandfather's picture.

They were silent for a while.

"So, master, do you want to return to your real family?" Bo Ya posed the question.

"No." Without hesitation, Yu Qi answered the question.

"Why, master?" Aoi did not understand. His master should be happy since she found her real family.

"If your real family wants to kill you, do you want to stay with them and always be on guard?" Yu Qi asked.

"No." This time Aoi quickly answered without hesitation.

Who wanted to stay with a family like that? It just like order a grave for yourself.

"I only care about my grandfather. He gave me the family love that I wanted in my past life." Yu Qi sighed.

Chapter 374 - 374: Yu Qi's Past Life (Part 1)

Yu Qi's Past Life

After finishing school, Yu Qi worked at the flower shop in a neighbouring town. She earned a mediocre salary. However, Yu Qi was still in poor condition because of the Wang Family.

Since Wang Ha Na and Wang Yu Jin were still in school, Madam Wang requested her to hand over her salary to her. So that Madam Wang could cover the school expenses of her children. Madam Wang said Mr Wang's salary can not make both ends meet because of Wang Fu Ya. Since Yu Qi was their older sister, Yu Qi should support them.

Wang Fu Ya was studying at a university. No one knows how she managed to enter the university. Even though it is not that good she used to show off. But poor villagers sing praise for her. And also always compared Yu Qi with her. With that, she always felt a sense of accomplishment.

Thankfully, the owner of the flower shop was a good person. She provided her with a place to live. And also fed her. The owner of the flower shop was a middle-aged woman. She had a daughter and a son. They did not live with her. So Yu Qi did not know many details about them. It was not like she cared about them anyway.

One day, Yu Qi was greeted by a man. That man looked similar to the owner of the flower shop, so she guessed him to be the son of the flower shop owner.

Indeed her guess was right. He was the son of the flower shop owner.

That night, she was invited to the owner's house for their family dinner gathering. She felt touched when her owner invited her. She felt like it was her home too. The dinner was served. Their dinner was filled with tasty food, jokes, and laughter. Which made her feel warm.

Since it was late at night, the owner asked her to stay at her place for that night. She wanted to reject her as she felt uncomfortable with her son's presence. But she did not want to reject her kindness. So she accepted at the end.

She could not fall asleep. She tossed and turned on her bed. When she was fiddling with her sleep. She heard a click. She got up and started at the door. Before she went to her sleep she locked the door. Now Someone opened her door. It only meant it was either the owner or her son.

The room was filled with complete darkness. But still, she can see a figure entering her room. But the figure which entered her room was not similar to her owner's figure. When the figure took a few more steps she can clearly see that figure. It was the owner's son.

Warning sirens are blowing in her mind. She became alert.

The man who just entered saw Yu Qi was awake. He smiled at her gently.

"Yu Qi, you are awake." He said.

"What do you want? Why do you enter my room at this hour?" Yu Qi asked in a scared tone.

"What do you think about that?" The son did not answer her question but giving her a question.

"No. Get out. Don't come over." Yu Qi panicked

He approached her slowly. She backed out until she reached the end of her bed. She got off the bed and ran towards the door. But she was quickly blocked by him. She screamed. She called the owner. But everything is futile.

She was tossed on to the bed by him recklessly. He climbed over her. And pressed her down. Now she was trapped by him completely. She had no way to run.

She screamed again very loudly in such a way that his eardrums hurt. He closed her mouth with his hand. She saw his eyes turning dark. His eyes filled with nothing but l.u.s.t. She shivered at his gaze. She started crying.

The owner who was sleeping heard the commotion. She decided to wake up from her sleep. When she came down she heard Yu Qi's muffled cries. She went to her room only to see her despicable act.

She saw her son hovering over Yu Qi's body. She quickly entered her room and took a lamp near her. She hit her son with it and pushed him aside. You Qi, who was crying ran away from the house the next second. She ran aimlessly.

She ran, ran, and ran until she reached a silent beach filled with sand. She started at water dazed by. She saw the tides rising and falling continuously. She stayed until the sunrise.

She went to the flower shop. The owner was already doing the chores in the shop while gazing at the clock on the wall from time to time. It looked like she was waiting for Yu Qi.

When she heard a noise at the door she turned back to see Yu Qi

"Yu Qi, are you okay?" The owner asked.

She was worried when she didn't find her yesterday night. She thought she went to the police station to report.

"Owner, I..." Yu Qi wanted to say something.

"Yu Qi, I beg you. Please, Don't report this to the police. The owner cut Yu Qi's sentence.

She froze in her spot. She was speechless. Yeah, every mother would do anything to protect her children. They would not let their children be wronged.

"My son is not in his correct state of mind yesterday. Otherwise, he would not do something like that." The owner said again.

Yu Qi did not respond to the owner. Seeing Yu Qi remaining silent, the owner begged again.

"Yu Qi, please. Think about all the kindness that I showed you. Repay my kindness by leaving this thing. " The owner begged her again as she kneeled in front of her.

Yu Qi quickly helped the owner to stand up. She could not see the kind lady that helped her when she kneeled in front of her.

"Please Yu Qi. Don't report this to the police." The owner held Yu Qi's hand.

Finally, she understood one thing that her owner will not leave until she agreed.

"Okay. I will not report it to the police." Yu Qi finally said the thing that her owner wanted to hear.

"Thank you, Yu Qi. Thank you." The owner thanked Yu Qi many times.

"Owner, I want to freshen up." Yu Qi wanted to go to her room behind the flower shop.

"Okay, okay. You can go." The owner released Yu Qi's hand.

Yu Qi became silent, who was a chatterbox. Normally she used to talk a lot with her owner about a lot of itty-bitty things. But now she was no longer the chatterbox. She spoke only if it was necessary.

It was obvious that their relationship was affected after that incident.

The owner realized the changes but she could not do anything as it was her son's fault.

After a month she decided to quit the job. The owner panicked when she mentioned it. She wanted to stop it by offering high pay. She was afraid that if she quits she might complain to the police.

She thought if she worked here she could watch Yu Qi. She particular begging Yu Qi for Yu Qi to continue working with her.

Yu Qi who knew the owner's intentions didn't say a word. She stood in front of her with a smile. The owner felt for the first time the smile that Yu Qi gave her was filled with contempt.

Yu Qi could not spare her owner's presence. Whenever she saw her she remembers that fateful night. Which made her feel scared. Every time she remembered it a chill ran through her spine. She did not feel safe anymore here. She only wanted to quit.

Chapter 375 - 375: Yu Qi's Past Life (Part 2)

Yu Qi was quitting the job despite the owner's offer. However, when Yu Qi got home, Madam Wang was very furious when she knew that Yu Qi quitted her job. Madam Wang was very angry that she wanted to hit Yu Qi but Mr Wang held her back.

Mr Wang said if she hit Yu Qi, she would get injured and it required money for treatment. They might have to get their money out. And she would not get out to find another job.

Yu Qi was very sad when she heard those words. She even wondered why was she been treated like this. She was their daughter too. She ran to her old room.

The next day.

Yu Qi woke up and prepared some breakfast for the family. She hoped her father and mother would be pleased with it.

"Morning, mum, dad. I cook breakfast." Yu Qi said with a smile.

They just sat and eat breakfast without gave a response to Yu Qi.

"Good morning mum, dad." Wang Yu Jin greeted her parent and eat breakfast.

"Good morning, my dear son." Madam Wang patted her son's head.

Wang Yu Jin just glanced at Yu Qi and treated her as an invisible person.

"Morning, guys." Wang Ha Na appeared.

"Morning, everyone." Wang Fu Ya also sat at the table.

Then the table was full. All of the seats had been taken. It was the normal routine for Yu Qi in the morning when she was still living at this parent. She was left out.

"Oh, you are here too. Elder Sister." Wang Fu Ya smirked.

"Humph... She's here because she quit her job. Stupid. You better left and found another job." Madam Wang said in an angry tone.

"What? Why are you quit your job, Elder Sister? We need money for Ha Na and Yu Jin." Wang Fu Ya said with a smile.

"It's just... I don't like the job." Yu Qi gave an excuse. She would not tell anyone the reason why she quitted the job.

"Elder Sister, you must not choose the job since you are not highly educated. Unlike me." Wang Fu Ya put a proud look on her face.

"That's right." Mr Wang opened his mouth and said one sentence.

"I know. Today, I will be out and find another job." Yu Qi responded and left to the kitchen.

She ate her breakfast in the kitchen. Sometimes she heard the laugh from the dining room. They were laughing at each other. They never included her even the new year dinner. The kitchen was always the place where she eats.

Yu Qi went out to find another job. Yu Qi greeted some of the villagers. Then she asked about the job. They sad they heard a new hotel had been opened in their town. Maybe she could get a job there. She needed to try and checked it. She thanked the villagers for the information.

She walked to the hotel. She could see a hotel. It was not so big but nice. She walked into the hotel.

"Yes, may I help you miss?" The receptionist greeted Yu Qi with a smile.

"Erk... Miss... Actually..." Yu Qi felt embarrassed.

"Yes, miss?" The receptionist still in her kind and gentle smile.

"Is this hotel need some workers?" Yu Qi asked in one breath.

"Oh, miss, you want to apply for a job here?" The receptionist asked.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded.

"Okay, please wait there. I will inform the HQ management about it." The receptionist said while pointing to the waiting lobby over there.

"Okay." Yu Qi went to the waiting lobby and sat there.

The receptionist seemed to call someone. Probably from the HQ management. Not long after that, someone in a woman office suit came and met Yu Qi.

"Miss, are you here to apply for a job?" The woman asked.

"Yes." Yu Qi quickly stood up and answered the woman.

The woman looked at Yu Qi up and down. She scanned Yu Qi from her head to her legs. Then she nodded several times.

"Come with me." The woman said.

"Yes." Yu Qi followed the woman.

They arrived at an office room. They entered the room. In the room, another woman sat on the chair.

"Madam, it is good." The woman that brought Yu Qi here said to another woman. "I will leave first."

The woman that had been called Madam lifted up her face from her paper. Yu Qi had been scanned for the second time.

"Good. Sit here." The woman said.

Yu Qi sat on the chair in front of the woman.

"Hi, I'm Hong Wen Yi. You can call me Madam Hong." The woman introduced herself.

"Hello, Madam Hong. I'm Wang Yu Qi. You can call me Yu Qi." Yu Qi greeted her with respect.

"You want to ask you a job here, right?" Hong Wen Yi smiled.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded. She really needed the job.

"Good. We just accept a beautiful girl working here. You need to change your image if you want to work here. Do you dare?" Hong Wen Yi challenged Yu Qi.

"Yeah. I don't mind." Yu Qi did not care if her image changed.

"Good. I like the quick decision. We will train you for six months. In the six months, you will be learning all about the hotel. During that training, we might send you to work different position. To see what position that you really good at." Hong Wen Yi explained.

"So, you might have to stay in our dormitory room within the training period." Hong Wen Yi continued.

"Hmm... Can I ask you something?" Yu Qi asked Hong Wen Yi.

"Yes. You might." Hong Wen Yi gave permission.

"Do I get the salary within the training period?" Yu Qi felt embarrassing to ask the question but she needed to ask because it was important for her.

"Yes. You do. Can I ask why?" Hong Wen Yi returned the question.

"I have siblings that still in university and school. So, that's why..." Yu Qi explained.

"How about your parents? Are they already..." Hong Wen Yi did not finish the sentence.

"No... No... No... They are still alive but the money is still not enough." Yu Qi looked down.

Hong Wen Yi smiled. 'So, she sacrifices herself to help her family.' She already started to like the girl in front of her.

"This is the contract for starting workers. Read it. For the salary, it is stated on the contract. However, after two months of training, we would place you at the position that you good at and the salary would be different. Don't worry. The salary will not low than starting salary." Hong Wen Yi explained further while placing the contract in front of Yu Qi.

Yu Qi read the whole contract. The contract was simple. All of what Hong Wen Yi said just now stated in the contract very clearly.

"I agree." Yu Qi said to Hong Wen Yi after finished read the contract.

"Good. Sign here." Hong Wen Yi said.

Yu Qi without hesitation signed the doc.u.ment. Hong Wen Yi gave one copy that doc.u.ment that Yu Qi signed just now and another one would be in her hand.

"Okay, Yu Qi. I will see you tomorrow. You will enter the dormitory room starting from tomorrow." Hong Wen Yi stood up and extended her hand to shake the hand with Yu Qi.

Yu Qi shook Hong Wen Yi's hand and repeatedly thanked Hong Wen Yi for giving the opportunity to work here.

Yu Qi went back to Wang House and told them about that. However, she was been rated as stupid because signing a contract like that.

"You must ask for a higher salary." Madam Wang asked.

Mr Wang just sat there and let his wife handled it.

"Go back and ask the higher salary otherwise you will not work with them." Madam Wang slammed the table.

"But, I already signed the contract. If I'm breaking the contract, I have to pay one thousand RMB to them." Yu Qi said.

"Stupid! Stupid!" Madam Wang shouted to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi only looked down.

Mr Wang calmed his wife down.

"Calm down, Shi Xen. We don't the much money to pay for breaking the contract. I suggest Yu Qi should go and work there. All of your salaries will handle down to your mother." The last sentence was for Yu Qi.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded. It always like that. She would not be holding her money. Madam Wang would hold it.

"Now, get out of my face. Stupid girl." Madam Wang shouted again to Yu Qi.

Did not want to anger her mother anymore, Yu Qi quickly disappeared from her mother sight.

"Just lets her work there first. I will ask her to stop when the time came." Mr Wang said.

"Stupid girl. Anger me to death. Whose kid she is? Humph!" Madam Wang fumed in anger.

"Shhh!!! Don't talk about it too loud. She might hear that. What happens if she runs away after knowing that? Who will earn extra money for our family?" Mr Wang closed his wife's mouth.

"Sorry." Madam Wang said. However, still, she was angry with that little bastard.

.....

Yu Qi left the house with her small bag. She did not bring much. Only her clothes and somethings that she might need when she stayed at the dormitory.

When she entered the hotel, she met the?receptionist again. She got to know her name, So Lan. So Lan already knew that another new worker would be joining them today. She greeted Yu Qi with a smile.

"Wait a minute. I will call Sister Fan to take you the dormitory." So Lan said.

"Okay." Yu Qi nodded.

Not long after that, the woman that So Lan called Sister Fan came over. Apparently, So Lan and her was a sibling. Sister Fan or her true name So Fan take Yu Qi to the dormitory.

"This is our dormitory. You will share with another person. However, for now, you can have the room for your own because you still don't have any roommate. Here is your room. You can unpack your bag and settle in. After one hour, wear the uniform in the closet and meet me at the entrance." So Fan left after giving Yu Qi some instructions.

Yu Qi entered the room. The room was very nice. It had two beds, two tables and two small tables. It also had a bathroom inside the room. The room was much much better from her room at Wang house and the previous workplace.

Yu Qi unpacked her bag and put her clothes inside the closet and her things on the table. The room already cleaned so she did not need to clean it anymore. Since she still got time before going to So Fan, she laid down on the bed. The mattress was very soft. She never used this kind of mattress.

At the Wang House, she just used a towel to sleep on. She did request to Madam Wang. But what she got was her scold.

Yu Qi stood up after a few whiles and changed to her uniform. As So Fan requested, she went to the entrance and waited for So Fan at the entrance door. Five minutes later, So Fan appeared with a smile.

"Let's go, then." So Fan said.

Yu Qi followed So Fan. So Fan walked while explaining all the place. Yu Qi needed to remember since she might be appointed to do the work at certain places. Yu Qi nodded. She took a note on So Fan explanation.

Two hours of walking, lunchtime arrived. So Fan brought Yu Qi to the worker canteen. The workers needed to follow their shift to eat.

So Fan told Yu Qi that they should need to eat first. They would continue after lunch. They eat together.

"So, how old are you, Yu Qi?" So Fan asked.

"I'm 19 years old." Yu Qi answered.

"Oh, you are still young. I thought you are already 20 years old and above. So, you don't further study?" So Fan casually asked.

Yu Qi was silent for a moment. It was not like she did not want to further study but she could not. Her result was stolen by Wang Fu Ya. Since Wang Fu Ya was her younger sister, she thought she could sacrifice herself for her younger sister.

When she told her mother that she wanted to retake the test to apply for university, her mother scolded her for being non-reasonable. Her mother said she should work instead of thinking to retake the test. She needed to help the family.

"Yu Qi... Yu Qi..." So Fan called Yu Qi since she did not get the answer from Yu Qi.

"Oh, sorry. I just thought about something. Actually, my family had a finance problem. So, I need to help them since I already am a.d.u.l.t." Yu Qi gave her answer for So Fan's question below.

"Oh, I'm sorry." So Fan quickly apologized thinking about her rude question. Usually, families in a remote town like this had the same finance problem.

"It's okay." Yu Qi shook her head giving a small smile.

So Fan did ask many questions about Yu Qi since it was better to ask herself rather than heard from someone.

After finished eating lunch, they continued what they were doing before. So Fan explained about the hotel to Yu Qi for the whole day.

"Okay. We are done for today. Tomorrow you will assign to a certain job. Complete the work nicely. I will be watching you. You can go to your room to rest. See you tomorrow. Oh before I forget, dinner at seven. You can go to the canteen where we eat lunch before to have dinner. Okay, bye." So Fan leave.

Yu Qi bowed. " Thank you for today."

So Fan heard the words and waved her hand without looking back.

Yu Qi walked to her room. She took the shower and laid down on her bed. She wanted to skip dinner since she did not actually hungry and feeling lazy to go to the canteen.

....

Mostly six months passed. Yu Qi still worked at the hotel. Yu Qi worked in many positions. Gardener, waitress, housekeeping service, laundry maid, as well as the?receptionist. She really gained a lot of knowledge from the position that she worked on.

One day, Yu Qi had been called by Hong Wen Yi herself. The six months period was going to end. It was possible Yu Qi would get the permanent position.

"Sit down, Yu Qi." Hong Wen Yi welcomed the girl.

Hong Wen Yi was very impressed with the girl. Hearing So Fan's view about this girl, it was very great. She was kind, helpful to others and the most important to smile and keep calm. However, she was a little bit shy in front of the customers. Hong Wen Yi already thought which position that she should put the girl.

"Yu Qi, the reason why you are been called here is I want to tell your permanent position in this hotel." Hong Wen Yi said.

"Really, Madam Hong?" Yu Qi did not even hide the excitement that she felt.

"Yeah. Of course." Hong Wen Yi nodded.

"I assign you to be the?receptionist." Hong Wen Yi announced.

Yu Qi was shocked. "But Madam Hong, that position belongs to Sister Lan and Sister Qun." The?receptionist position usually for two people. They would take turn who would work at night, who would work at daylight. If Yu Qi had been assigned there, meaning one of them would be leaving the position. She did not want to take another person's source.

"Oh, you don't know right? Qun will get married soon, so she requests to leave the job. She also recommends you to take her own position." Hong Wen Yi informed Yu Qi.

"Oh, Sister Qun will get married. It is really nice." Yu Qi was happy for her co-worker.

"So, the receptionist position belongs to you. You will be a partner with So Lan." Hong Wen Yi stood up, took a file and got some papers out from it.

She then placed the paper on the table. The cover stated 'Permanent Contract For Worker'.

"This is the contract. You can read first." Hong Wen Yi pushed the paper to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi took and read it.

"This amount..." Yu Qi lifted her face and looked at Hong Wen Yi.

"Is it not enough?" Hong Wen Yi asked.

"No... No... It just too much I think." Yu Qi did not expect the Hong Wen Yi would be so generous about it.

"It is worth." Hong Wen Yi said.

Yu Qi continued to read the contract. She was very satisfied with the contract. So, she signed it on the spot.

"Good. You can go and greet your partner now." Hong Wen Yi smiled.

Yu Qi stood up and bowed deeply to Hong W Yi.

"Madam Hong, thank you very much. I will work harder." Yu Qi said expressed her gratitude.

Yu Qi began her work as the receptionist. Since she already worked as one before, the task was easy for her. She was very happy with this workplace. Her other co-workers were 90% woman. Only 10% of men worked at this hotel.

It would be a lie if she said she did not affect by the incident where she almost get r.a.p.ed by the owner of the flower shop's son before. However, she slowly overcame the feeling. Since there were a lot of male customers that came and stayed at the hotel.

She did not go back to the Wang House. She just gave the salary to Wang Family every month by transferring the money directly to Madam Wang's account. The family also did not ask for her news like she did not exist at all.

Yu Qi sat at the front desk doing her job by sorting the file of the customers. Then she heard the sound of a bell. Meaning the customer came. She turned around and greeted the customer with a smile. It was an old man. He appeared to be a businessman.

"Welcome to our hotel, Sir. May I help you, Sir?" Yu Qi welcomed the old man with a warm smile.

However, the old man did not answer her question. He was staring at Yu Qi with a shock expression on his face.

"Sir, are you okay?" Yu Qi asked.

Since the old man did not respond to her question and did not move, Yu Qi approached him. Suddenly the old man grabbed Yu Qi. Since Yu Qi was still scared to the men, she was so scared since the old man grabbed Yu Qi out of sudden.

"Tell me what is your name?" The old man asked.

However, Yu Qi seemed to not hear what the old man asked her. She screamed loudly. "Let me go."

The scream was very loud. The co-workers that happened to be nearby ran to her. They saw the old man grabbed Yu Qi's hand while Yu Qi was crying in terror while pulling her hand from the old man.

"Sir, please let her go." One of the co-workers asked nicely.

The old man realized the situation was a little bit weird to others. He immediately let Yu Qi go. Feeling the old man finally let her go, Yu Qi quickly hid behind her co-workers while staring at the old man in fear.

Since the situation was like this, they called Hong Wen Yi to settle it. The old man seemed like he could not be offended. Hong Wen Yi came and invited the old man to her office with Yu Qi.

Yu Qi actually did not want to be close to the old man but since Hong Wen Yi's order, she followed them to Hong Wen Yi's room.

"Sir...." Hong Wen Yi asked for the old man's name.

"I'm Mu Guang Qi. Sorry for the earlier behaviour. However, I have something to ask the young girl beside you." Mu Guang Qi apologized and looked at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi still afraid of the old man but she looked at the old man in confused.

"You can ask, Mr Mu." Hong Wen Yi made the decision for Yu Qi since Yu Qi did not respond.

"May I know your name, young girl?" Mu Guang Qi asked.

"My name is Wang Yu Qi." Yu Qi calmed down and answered his question.

"Are you an orphan?" Mu Guang Qi asked again.

Yu Qi frowned when she heard the question. "No, my parents are still alive."

"Are there a possibility that you are being adopted by them?" Mu Guang Qi still threw the question.

Yu Qi frowned more and more. 'Adopted by them?' The words were played in her mind. Thinking about her family's attitude, she began to suspect that she might be adopted by them.

"I don't know." Yu Qi answered in shaking tone.

Hong Wen Yi was silent. She investigated Yu Qi before. Her family seemed did not care about this girl at all. They just cared about her salary. Every month, Yu Qi gave almost of her monthly salary to the family. She even did not take a day off since she started working at the hotel.

"Actually, I have a son. However, because I did not allow him to marry the woman he loved, they eloped. Since then, I never found them anymore." Mu Guang Qi told them a story.

"So,?what does that have to do with me?" Yu Qi asked.

"Your face is similar to my late wife. I could not help to think that you are my granddaughter." Mu Guang Qi looked at Yu Qi with a loving look.

"So, can I meet your parent? They may be my son and daughter in law." Mu Guang Qi asked in hope.

"I will just look from the far. I will not see them face to face. They probably live happily. I just want to see them only." Mu Guang Qi said in a sad tone.

Looking the old man like this, Yu Qi felt she needed to help this old man.

"My shift ended in one hour later. We can go to my home then." Yu Qi said.

"Well, you can take a day off actually. Someone will cover you." Hong Wen Yi said to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi looked at Hong Wen Yi. Hong Wen Yi nodded while smiling.

"Okay. Thank you, Madam Hong." Yu Qi bowed.

Chapter 379 - 379: Yu Qi's Past Life (Part 6)

Yu Qi brought Mu Guang Qi to the place from where he could see the Wang House. It was already in the evening. So, Yu Qi thought her parents were already at home. Her guess was correct. She saw Mr Wang and Madam Wang were talking outside their house and arguing about something.

Yu Qi looked at Mu Guang Qi. The expression showed on his face was of disappointment then it turned to sadness. Yu Qi could hear he was sighing.

"Er..... Mr Mu, they are not your son and daughter in law?" Yu Qi asked in a low tone.

Mu Guang Qi realized that he was not alone. He looked at Yu Qi. Then his eyes were lifted up. 'This child might be adopted by them.' Mu Guang Qi thought so because he did not see the resemblance between Yu Qi and her parents.

"Can you come with me to have a DNA test?" Mu Guang Qi asked.

"DNA test?" Yu Qi looked at Mu Guang Qi.

"Yeah, I can not help but think that you are my lost granddaughter. Since you do not look like your parents." Mu Guang Qi really hoped that Yu Qi would agree to take a DNA test with him.

Yu Qi was silent for a moment. "Okay." She finally agreed.

"Really? We will go tomorrow. I will ask for permission from your boss." Mu Guang Qi was very excited when he heard that Yu Qi agreed with his request.

....

At the hospital

The doctor brought Yu Qi and Mu Guang Qi to a room to take their blood. Usually, the DNA test took a few days but due to Mu Guang Qi's force, the hospital completed the DNA test in one day.

The doctor called the two of them to his room. In his hand, there was an envelope. It was the result of the DNA test.

The two of them sat in front of the doctor. The doctor opened the envelope. Mu Guang Qi was very nervous as well as Yu Qi.

The room was silent only the sound of the paper could be heard. When the doctor read the result, his expression did not even change at all. So, they could not guess the result of the doctor's expression.

"Sir, Miss,... Congratulation. Both of you have a blood relationship. About 35% of your DNA has matched. Meaning, you both are grandfather and granddaughter." The doctor announced the result.

Yu Qi was speechless. She was staring at the doctor without saying anything. It was because she was very shocked after knowing that she was not the daughter of her current parents. Oh, that was why they did not treat her as their own.

Meanwhile, Mu Guang Qi was very happy when he heard about the result. As he had expected, this child was his granddaughter from his missing son. Mu Guang Qi or Grandpa Mu stood up and hugged the girl.

"My granddaughter... My granddaughter... I'm so sorry. I just found you now." Grandpa Mu said while holding back his sadness.

Yu Qi stiffened when Grandpa Mu suddenly hugged her. However, the stiffness had lost when she heard Grandpa Mu's words. She began to cry.

"My granddaughter... My granddaughter..." Grandpa Mu patted his granddaughter's back.

Grandpa Mu actually did not expect to find his granddaughter in this country. Looking at her condition, she must have suffered a lot.

"Don't worry, my granddaughter. I will make up for everything." Grandpa Mu said.

...

"Wow, you mean that the old man is your real grandfather?"

"You already have done the DNA test?"

"Our Yu Qi here is the long lost granddaughter of a rich old man."

"Our Yu Qi has become a Cinderella."

Her co-workers were talking about Yu Qi's topic. Yu Qi told them the truth. They were even joking about that.

Grandpa Mu still stayed at the hotel. He came to this country for a business matter. So, he needed to settle it first. He already missed the meeting for the sake of Yu Qi.

After settling the business matter, Grandpa Mu wanted to settle Yu Qi's matter. He wanted Yu Qi to come back with him to Fanghai Nation. He would not leave his real grandfather outside here. So, he must begin with the Wang Family.

The Wang Family took care of his granddaughter since she was still a baby. He was grateful to the Wang Family. Paying them with the money should be suitable since he noticed that they needed the money.

So, he went to Wang House to settle the matter. He also wanted them to sign the agreement. He already asked his assistant to prepare the document.

"Hello Mr Wang, Madam Wang." Grandpa Mu greeted them.

Mr Wang and Madam Wang were scared because of the men in black behind the old man. Meaning, this old man was the one whom they should not offend.

"Hello, Sir..." Mr Wang wanted to say his name but he did not know it.

"Forgive me. My name is Mu Guang Qi. I'm from Fanghai Nation." Grandpa Mu introduced himself.

"Yes, Sir Mu. What can I help you with?" Mr Wang asked.

"Actually, I came to your home because I want to thank you." Grandpa Mu began to talk.

"Thank us?" Mr Wang did not remember when he had helped this old man nor he had known him before this.

"Yes, I want to thank you because you have taken care of my granddaughter since she was a baby." Grandpa Mu explained.

"What? Your granddaughter?" Mr Wang and Madam Wang looked at each other. Their eyes were talking with each other confirming what they were thinking.

'His granddaughter? Is it what I am thinking?' Madam Wang signalled his husband.

"Sir Mu, may I know who is it?" Mr Wang wanted to confirm.

"Of course, I'm talking about Yu Qi." Grandpa Mu said in a happy tone.

Mr Wang and Madam Wang were very shocked. They did not expect that their little bitch was from a rich family.

"You are sure that she is your granddaughter, Sir Mu?" Madam Wang asked.

"Of course, we have already confirmed it by doing the DNA test. She is indeed my missing granddaughter." The sentence was a bomb to Madam Wang and Mr Wang.

Chapter 380 - 380: Yu Qi's Past Life (Part 7)

"So, I want my granddaughter to come back and live with me." Grandpa Mu dropped another bomb on the Wang Couple.

Madam Wang felt lost because Yu Qi's current salary was very high. With that money, the expense of the house was affordable and she had money balance in her pocket. So, losing that source of money was very hard for her.

"Sir Mu, we really love our daughter. I think..." Madam Wang did not even finish the sentence.

Grandpa Mu interrupted her talk. "Oh, really?" Grandpa Mu narrowed his eyes.

When that happened, Mr Wang and Madam Wang could feel the pressure. The pressure was very great. The Wang couple clenched their fist and were held back by the pressure from Grandpa Mu.

"Humph!" Grandpa Mu gave a cold look to the Wang Couple.

Grandpa Mu already asked his people to investigate how was his granddaughter treated in this family. Yeah, his granddaughter was very loved in a certain way. They used her granddaughter to make money for the family. They had been treating his granddaughter very bad even when she was at a young age.

"I want my granddaughter at my side whether you accept or not. If you will accept this matter nicely, I will give compensation for it. Otherwise, we can see in court." Grandpa Mu needed to scare this couple as it seemed that they did not want to give his granddaughter.

Hearing the word 'court', the Wang Couple shivered. For them, the word 'court' meant, jail. No, they did not want to go to jail.

"Yeah, Yu Qi should go to her real family." Mr Wang quickly said.

"That's right. She should know her real family." Madam Wang added.

"Good." Grandpa Mu nodded.

Then Grandpa Mu turned to his assistant. The assistant stepped forward bringing a bag and one document. He placed them in front of the Wang Couple. He opened the bag. The money was neatly arranged in the bag.

"Here is 30 million for the compensation since you have taken care of my granddaughter." Grandpa Mu said.

Madam Wang lifted up her eyes. '30 million.' It was the first time she had seen this amount of money. With this money, she could buy many things.

Mr Wang was also very happy after seeing the money. With this money, he could go to gamble without worrying about money.

Grandpa Mu smirked when he looked at the reaction of the two people. Simply greedy.

"However, you need to sign this contract saying you will not have any contact with my granddaughter in the future. Also, you can not acknowledge her as your daughter in the future." Grandpa Mu pointed out the contract.

The Wang Couple did not need to think longer. Yu Qi was no longer an important thing for them. The important thing to them was the money in front of them now.

"Yes. We will not disturb Yu Qi in the future." Mr Wang said while smiling.

"Then, sign this." Grandpa Mu said.

Wang Couple quickly signed the contract. Seeing that the contract was already signed by the two of them, Grandpa Mu stood and took the contract. He no longer needed to face this couple.

"The money is yours." Grandpa Mu left with his assistant and bodyguards.

Right after Grandpa Mu left, the Wang Couple screamed in excitement loudly. They were very happy about getting a lot of money.

"That little bitch does have her own use. We get the money because of her." Madam Wang said.

"Yeah." Mr Wang agreed.

Not long after that, their daughters and son came home. They saw their parents were in a good mood.

"Mum, the Dad, has there something happened today?" Wang Fu Ya asked.

"Yes. We get a lot of money. 30 million." Madam Wang said excitedly.

"Huh? Who has given you so much amount of money?" Wang Fu Ya was very shocked.

"That little bitch's real family." Mr Wang said.

"What? She has found her real family?" Wang Ha Na joined the conversation.

"Yeah. An old man name Sir Mu came and claimed her as his granddaughter. As for the compensation of taking care of his granddaughter, he gave this money to us." Mr Wang explained.

Wang Fu Ya was thinking about a different matter. The brain started to think about a plan.

"Mum, Dad, how about I claim myself as his granddaughter? Saying Yu Qi is your real daughter. With that, we can continue getting the money from her family." Wang Fu Ya said to her family.

She wanted to become rich. She wanted to have a life in which she would not get worried about money.

"I think it's not going to work." Mr Wang shook his head.

"Why?" Wang Fu Ya did not want to give up.

"Because she has already taken a DNA test with that Sir Mu. It is confirmed that she is his real granddaughter." Madam Wang explained.

"And we can not go and find her after this." Mr Wang added.

"Why?"

"Because we have already signed the agreement saying that after we accepted this money, we can not acknowledge her as our family member." Mr Wang said.

"What? Mum, Dad, why are you so stupid?" Wang Fu Ya screamed.

"Fu Ya, why are you getting rude?" Mr Wang became angry after hearing his daughter calling them 'stupid'.

"Mum, Dad, why have you signed that agreement? If you have not signed that agreement, we can probably get more than this 30 million?" Wang Fu Ya was very angry with her stupid parents.

"But, if we have not signed that agreement, Sir Mu said that they will bring this matter to the court." Mr Wang did not want to bring this matter to the court.

Wang Fu Ya bit her lips. If she was in her parent's place, she might have done the same thing. If she insisted to bring this matter in the court, she would have to pay attorney fee and another hidden fee. She would probably lose more money.
