

INTELLIGENT 391

Chapter 391 - 391: Love Bite

"Miss, do you have time now? My young master wants to meet you?" Bong Bon asked Yu Qi out of sudden.

"Your young master? I don't know your young master. Why should I waste my time to meet him?" Yu Qi rolled her eyes.

Yu Qi sighed. There had always been someone who had disturbed her mood.

"Miss, I think you better listen to me. Otherwise..." Bong Bon gave a threaten smile to Yu Qi. The young miss like her needed to be scared first. Until then, she might follow him without asking.

"Oh, you are threatening me?" Yu Qi snorted.

Bong Bon frowned. 'This little girl needs to be taught first.' So, he wanted to grab Yu Qi first. However, instead of her getting grabbed by him, he was getting grabbed by her. Yu Qi smiled and pushed the man down while pulling his hand and stepping on his back.

"Argh!!!" A painful scream could be heard.

Everyone watched in their direction. They could see a beautiful young girl was pushing down a man, stepped on his back and pulled his hand backwards.

"You dare to touch me? This is what you get." Yu Qi pulled of his hand more.

"Argh!!! Please let me go. I will never make a move on you." Bong Bon was very ashamed while he was begging the young girl to release him. He was a certificated trained bodyguard. How could he become like this?

"Qi Qi, what has happened here?" Long Hui appeared with a shopping bag in his hand.

Yu Qi immediately released the man.

"He said his young master wants to meet me. When I refused, he wants to take me by force. So, I teach him a lesson." Yu Qi explained briefly.

"Oh, you dare make a move on my girlfriend..." Long Hui smiled evilly and stepped hard on the man who laid down.

"Argh!!! Please forgive me." Bong Bon quickly begged for mercy. He knew it would be worse than this if he did not apologize now.

The security team came. Yu Qi explained to them as she explained to Long Hui. The security team nodded. They took him in their custody. When things settled, Long Hui went to process their checkout.

They left the hotel and went to Starlight University. When they arrived, the two of them went out of the car.

"Thank you." Yu Qi said.

"I should be the one who should thank you since you spend some time with me." Long Hui caressed his beloved Qi Qi's hair.

"And also, for the last night." Long Hui whispered.

"You..." Yu Qi got embarrassed.

Seeing his beloved Qi Qi pouted, Long Hui took a chance to kiss her.

"We will meet again." Long Hui entered the car and left.

Yu Qi was still standing there and touched her lips. She was smiling. Then suddenly someone hugged her shoulder.

"My dear, where did you go yesterday?" So Pang Lim smiled.

Yu Qi turned around and saw her friends were here. They were smiling in a weird way.

"What are you guys doing here?" Yu Qi asked.

"We are just about to go to the cafe to find some food and see you got out of the car and...." Mei Lilli smiled while giving some expression.

"It is only 10 in the morning. He has already sent you back. Meaning you have already been together since yesterday." So Pang Lim made a guess.

"Well... Yeah..." Yu Qi nodded. It was not a sinful thing so she did not want to hide. She straightened her clothes.

Her acts revealed something. Her friends looked at each other. Then they were focusing on one place. Yu Qi's white neck.

"Oh, my... Yu Qi, you already made the progress that far." So Pang Lim commented.

Yu Qi did not understand what was So Pang Lim talking about. "What are you talking about?"

Mei Lilli approached Yu Qi. "Your man seems to leave his mark on you here." Mei Lilli pointed to Yu Qi's neck.

"What?" Yu Qi did not know about that. "I will go to my room first. See you guys later."

Yu Qi ran away to her room. She quickly took a look to her neck. It was obviously a love bit.

That man really left a mark on her neck. This must be covered up. Otherwise, she could not wonder what would people make their story when they saw this mark.

She entered her space. When she appeared in the space, her two little cuties jumped straight into her hug.

"Master, are you okay?" Bo Ya asked.

"Master, I'm hungry," Aoi said.

"I'm okay. Don't worry. And I will cook for you guys right now." Yu Qi replied to them.

"Great," Aoi said.

"Yeah." Bo Ya said.

.....

"Useless! Why can't you bring that girl to me?" A young man kicked Bong Bon.

The young man went to a chair and sat.

"I'm sorry, second young master." Bong Bon apologized. He could not tell that young girl refused and beaten him and she had a dangerous man beside her.

"You will be punished." The young man smiled evilly to Bong Ban.

"I will follow your order, second young master." Bong Bon got up and went to receive the punishment.

"Oh, you are here, Big Brother." The young man greeted another young man.

"Bai Yu Chen, what are you doing here?" The other young man was Bai Shu Jin.

"I just came to see your university. Since I will study here later." Bai Yu Chen said.

Bai Yu Chen was Bai Shu Jin's younger brother. He was spoiled and arrogant. He thought that he could get anything as long as he got money.

"Does father know about you coming here?" Bai Shu Jin asked.

"Mom knows about it." Bai Yu Chen smirked.

"Oh." Bai Shu Jin nodded. That meant their father knew too. Their mother would tell their father about that.

"Forget about that. This morning, I saw a very beautiful girl. I wonder if I can get her..." Bai Yu Chen said while smiled luckily

"Hold back yourself." Bai Shu Jin knew his brother's character. His brother just wanted to play around with women.

Chapter 392 - 392: Expand Business To Fanghai Nation

Yu Qi was thinking about the ways to approach Grandpa Mu without getting him suspicious about her. She did not want Grandpa Mu to think that she approached him with another aim.

Business... Yeah, she could approach Grandpa Mu using that way since Grandpa Mu was a figure in the business world.

She wrote the business on her paper and circling that word many times without noticing it. The one who noticed was her friends. They were having a discussion in the library later on. And had they just arrived and saw Yu Qi was doing that.

"Yu Qi, what are you doing?" Mei Lilli asked.

"Eh... You all have already arrived." Yu Qi lifted up her face. Then she looked down and saw what she was doing. "Oh, I just thinking about something else. Sit down. Let's start our discussion."

Her friends sat down and began their discussion.

After two hours of discussion, they were already finished. Her friends wanted to go to lunch. So, they invited Yu Qi too. However, Yu Qi told them that she had another thing to do. So, they left.

Yu Qi called Su Yu Hi. The faster the things were done, the better.

Yu Qi: "Hello, Brother Yu Hi."

Su Yu Hi: "Yeah, Yu Qi. What's up?"

Yu Qi: "Are you around Wenya City?"

Su Yu Hi: "Yeah. I'm at our office."

Yu Qi: "That's great. I have something to discuss with you."

Su Yu Hi: "Oh, when do you want to meet?"

Yu Qi: "I will go to the office this evening."

Su Yu Hi: "Okay, I will be waiting for you."

.....

Yu Qi waited for Aoi. Aoi ran fast to meet his master when he heard his master wanted to take him to the city. He would not let this passed away just like that. He would make his master brought some delicious foods after his master finished her matter.

They went to the city by bus. After 20 minutes, they arrived at the city. Since the office was not far from the place that they stopped, they just walked to the office.

When they arrived at the office, they were been greeted by the staffs. The staff members already knew Yu Qi's identity. Yu Qi went straight to the meeting room when one of the staff members informed her that Su Yu Hi was already waiting for her in the meeting room. Meanwhile, Aoi was left behind to play with the staff.

"Brother Yu Hi." Yu Qi called Su Yu Hi's name to tell him that she was already here.

"Okay. What's up?" Su Yu Hi already knew that Yu Qi must have something important to discuss with him.

"Actually, I'm thinking to expand our business." Yu Qi told Su Yu Hi the matter.

"Oh, which area do you want to expand?" Su Yu Hi asked. He was already interested to hear more about it.

"I'm thinking to open another greenhouse." Yu Qi said.

"That's a great idea. Where do you want to open it?" Su Yu Hi asked.

"At Fanghai Nation." Yu Qi smiled.

"What? Fanghai Nation? It is not in our nation?" Su Yu Hi was shocked.

"Yeah. I want to open it at the Fanghai Nation." Yu Qi smiled.

Su Yu Hi sighed. His boss was indeed one of the crazy genius people. If she told him about this one year ago, he would have protested the idea. Now, he heard about this, he knew she would be successful.

"Okay, I will prepare the survey market and other documents." Su Yu Hi said.

"Great. Oh, you can contact this person. He is a friend of my grandfather. He can help us." Yu Qi placed a business card on the table.

"Okay." Su Yu Hi reached out the business card.

The owner of the business card was Su Jin. He might help them to set up the greenhouse.

"Oh, I would like to invite our staffs for dinner tonight. Can they attend it?" Yu Qi asked.

Yu Qi was rarely in the office. She had already treated her staff at the Shiwa Town. So, she thought it would be nice to treat her staff here too.

"Why don't you ask themselves outside?" Su Yu Hi said.

"Okay." Yu Qi went out of the meeting room.

"Guys, do you have time tonight?" Yu Qi asked her staffs.

Her staff here was not many. And from what she knew, they were still single and not married yet. All of the staff looked at her.

"I have time."

"Yeah."

"We do have time. Do we have to work overtime?"

"No... No.. Actually, I want to treat all of you for dinner." Yu Qi explained.

"Oh. Of course, we have time for that."

"We know, Yichen, you will not say no to free food."

"That's right."

All laughed together.

"So, all of you can come then?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course, Miss Yu Qi." The staff member named Wen Yichen answered.

"Okay. We are going to have dinner together tonight." Yu Qi said. She then turned to Su Yu Hi. "Brother Yu Hi, can you make a reservation? Well, a private room since we don't want to be disturbed. And make sure Aoi can enter it too."

"Woof." Aoi made a sound.

'Master, you don't forget me.' Aoi was running around circling Yu Qi.

'Of course, I will not forget you.' Yu Qi smiled.

'But you tend to forget me when you meet that man, right?' Aoi posed a question.

Yu Qi coughed a few times. That man... Aoi must refer to Long Hui. She knew Aoi was referring to that night where she was spending the night with Long Hui. That night, she indeed forgot about Aoi.

'That night...' Yu Qi wanted to explain.

'It's okay. I understand.' Aoi made a face that showed that he understood Yu Qi.

Yu Qi laughed a little bit seeing the reaction from Aoi.

Chapter 393 - 393: The Deal

Unedited

Yu Qi was hoping that she could split her own body. She was very busy studying, handling her business and doing her research. Thankfully, she had her space to make out the time about this.

The research about the medicine for Grandpa Mu was doing great. Her medicine was tested in the mice lab inside the space that she brought from the outside. And the result was magnificence.

The mice lab showed the result she wanted to see. She fed various poisons to the mice lab. After that, she fed the mice lab the medicine that she made and observed the result for a week. Turn out the experiment was a success. She was very happy with the result that turned out to be she expected.

She already made a plan to get close to Grandpa Mu. For the plan, she took a week leave. She would be flying to Fanghai Nation for that. She did not tell anyone about her trip except Su Yu Hi since he would be assisted her in the Fanghai Nation.

Yu Qi touched down at the Fanghai Nation on midnight together with Su Yu Hi. Not forgetting about Aoi. He also followed Yu Qi here. Since Yu Qi was very familiar with the last hotel that she came to the conference, she booked two rooms for their stay.

In the morning, after getting their breakfast, they went to Ciankui Herbs shop. Since Yu Qi gave a deep impression to the shopkeeper, the shopkeeper remembered about Yu Qi.

"Welcome back to our shop, Miss Tang. It's been a while." The shopkeeper greeted her.

Yu Qi smiled and greeted back to the shopkeeper. "Yeah. It's been a while. It seems you in good condition. I'm happy for you."

"Of course, it's all thank to Mr Su's herbs." The shopkeeper boosted his boss's greatness.

"So, I come here to meet Mr Su. Is he around?" Yu Qi informed her purpose.

"Oh, wait for a minute. I will go and check him for you." The shopkeeper ran to get his boss.

"You know the owner of this shop?" Su Yu Hi asked.

"Yeah. When I came to the conference last time, grandfather took me here and introduced his friend. He should know the best about the herbs business in this nation." Yu Qi told Su Yu Hi.

"Oh, Tang Girl, you are here." Su Jin greeted Yu Qi.

"It is nice to see you again, Mr Su." Yu Qi bowed.

"No need the formality, just call me Grandpa Su. I'm your grandfather's friend. You are like my granddaughter." Su Jin or Grandpa Su gave a happy reply to Yu Qi.

He then saw a man behind Su Yu Hi and could not help to ask. "And who is this?"

"He is my assistant. Actually, I come here for business." Yu Qi introduced Su Yu Hi and smiled meaningfully to Grandpa Su.

Grandpa Su saw this smile and understood what she meant by that.

"Oh, come to my office. It is just behind the garden. Let's go." Grandpa Su invited them to his office.

They all already sat down. Grandpa Su asked one of the maids to bring some tea to them.

"What is this about?" Grandpa Su asked.

"Actually, I want to open the greenhouse for herbs here, in this Fanghai." Yu Qi stated her purpose clearly.

"Greenhouse for herbs?" Grandpa Su frowned. Meaning she might be one of his competitors.

"Grandpa Su, please don't misunderstand what I'm trying to tell you." Yu Qi understood why did Grandpa Su frown. She then continued her speech.

"I want to invite you to be my partner in this deal." Yu Qi explained.

"Partner?" Grandpa Su was surprised.

"Yeah. Partnership." Yu Qi nodded.

Yu Qi's words caught Grandpa Su's attention. Even though he loved the herbs, without enough money to take care of all of them, they would die.

"As you know, I'm from Binhai Nation. So, I'm not very familiar here. So, to begin the business here, partnership with someone that familiar with this Fanghai would be nice." Yu Qi made little lie here.

She was very familiar with this Fanghai Nation. She had been lived here about 8 to 9 years. She had learned all the inside and outs about business here. She had been trained by Grandpa Mu since he wanted her to his heir.

"Why are you want to open the greenhouse for the herbs here?" Grandpa Su asked.

"Actually, I already opened one in my country. It was operated nicely and it made quite a lot of money." Yu Qi told.

"Then why are you still want to open one here?" Grandpa Su asked again.

"Because some of the herbs here can not be planted in our country. I'm like my grandfather. A person that love herbs. Some of the ancient herbs already went to extinction. If we did not take care of the herbs that still exist, they might go to extinct too. So, my plan is I want to open the greenhouse for them." Yu Qi paused. "Also, the herbs here could export to another country that needs the herbs. It is two-way trade."

"I will use my money to build the greenhouse and its facilities. While you will find the manpower to handle the greenhouse afterwards. Just don't worry about the money. I will handle that part. However, for the location, I need you to discuss with you." Yu Qi explained more about her plan.

Grandpa Su was silent. He was thinking about the deal. For him, it was a nice deal for him. It must be great if the business plan was going to succeed.

"So, about the..."

"I will take 60% and you take 40%." Yu Qi smiled.

Grandpa Su shook his head. "No no no... That is too many. I will take 20% and you will take 80%."

"But..." Yu Qi wanted to protest.

"No... If you don't want that, you forget the deal." Grandpa Su said firmly.

Yu Qi and Su Yu Hi looked at each other. Su Yu Hi nodded. He suggested Yu Qi accept the deal.

Chapter 394 - 394: Faint

Due to Grandpa Su's firm decision, Yu Qi only could accept what Grandpa Su had suggested. They discussed more the business plan. This time, Su Yu Hi also took part in the discussion.

"By the way, Tang Girl, does your grandfather know about this?" Grandpa Su asked.

"Nope. He doesn't know about this. I want to keep this plan a secret until it is finally opened. So, just don't tell my grandfather yet." Yu Qi said happily. "Even my trip here is a secret too. No one knows about this."

"You are really working very hard." Grandpa Su commented.

"I need to work hard to prove myself." Yu Qi said.

"Prove yourself? To whom?" Grandpa Su felt weird with Yu Qi's sentence.

"To myself, to my family and especially to people who think I am just a parasite on Tang Family." Yu Qi explained.

"Parasite?" Grandpa Su still did not understand what Yu Qi was talking about.

"Actually, I am adopted into the Tang Family by grandfather. I do not know who is my real family." Yu Qi displayed a sad smile.

"Oh... I see. Don't be sad Tang Girl. I know my friend. He totally loves you." Grandpa Su patted Yu Qi's head.

"Okay. We will continue this discussion another time. We should have lunch together to celebrate our partnership." Grandpa Su said.

"Okay. It would be nice." Yu Qi nodded.

"Come, I will bring you to a nice restaurant." Grandpa Su smiled.

Grandpa Su brought them to the hotel. The temperature was increased up to 38 degree celsius making the day became very hot. Since the parking lot was a little bit far, they walked to the restaurant.

When they were about to enter the restaurant, Yu Qi suddenly fell onto the ground. Aoi barked alerting Su Yu Hi and Grandpa Su who were wearing in front of her. They turned around and saw Yu Qi had already fainted on the ground.

"YU QI." Su Yu Hi shouted.

"Tang Girl." Grandpa Su also shouted.

Su Yu Hi lifted Yu Qi and brought her into the restaurant. He put Yu Qi on the sofa. The scene was a little bit chaos since some of the customers saw Yu Qi fainting outside. Su Yu Hi asked the staff to bring some water.

"Move away. I'm a doctor." A man shouted asking the onlookers to give the way to go and take a look at Yu Qi.

The doctor was Sang Wan Yi, one of Grandpa Tang's friend. He checked Yu Qi's condition. After a while, he nodded.

"What has happened to her?" Su Yu Hi asked.

"She has fainted because of the weather and her body is very tired. I suggest that she must take a rest for a few days. Or after she wakes up, just send her to the hospital for further check-up." Sang Wan Yi diagnosed Yu Qi's condition.

"I see... " Su Yu Hi took a relief breath.

However, he thought about Sang Wan Yi's suggestion to bring Yu Qi to the hospital was a good idea. Yu Qi seemed to exhaust herself about the business plan here. Probably with a doctor's recommendation, Yu Qi would be resting.

While Sang Wan Yi was very shocked when he realized that the girl who had just fainted was Yu Qi. Grandpa Su greeted Sang Wan Yi.

"Never thought to see you here." Grandpa Su said.

"Oh, it is you, Jin. What are you doing here?" Sang Wan Yi greeted him back.

"Actually I come with this girl who has just fainted." Grandpa Su explained.

"You know her too?" Sang Wan Yi looked at Grandpa Su.

"Yeah. Jiang Man visited me last time. He brought his granddaughter too." Grandpa Su told him.

"I see." Sang Wan Yi nodded.

"I'm jealous of Jiang Man having such a great granddaughter like her. I want to adopt a granddaughter too if I find one like Tang Girl." Grandpa Su sighed.

"Huh? What do you mean by that?" Sang Wan Yi asked.

"About what?" Grandpa Su did not get Sang Wan Yi's meaning.

"About you want to adopt a granddaughter too. What do you mean by this?" Sang Wan Yi asked again.

"Oh, Tang Girl told me that she has been adopted by Jiang Man. Eh, I don't think I should tell you about this. Ignore it." Grandpa Su slipped his tongue.

Meanwhile, Sang Wan Yi felt shocked when he heard about this news. 'She was adopted by Jiang Man.' The words kept playing inside his mind. He thought that he needed to tell his friend about this.

After a while, Yu Qi regained her consciousness. She opened her eyes and looked around. She saw an unfamiliar place.

'Master.' Aoi called his master with a worried tone.

'Aoi.' Yu Qi reached out Aoi's head and patted him gently.

"How are you feeling, Yu Qi?" Su Yu Hi asked when he realized Yu Qi had already wakened up.

"I'm sorry to make you worry about me like this." Yu Qi smiled weakly.

"You just work so hard. I will send you to the hospital after this. You need some rest." Su Yu Hi had already made the decision whether she wanted or not.

"That's right, Tang Girl." Sang Wan Yi also joined the conversation.

"Mr Sang?" Yu Qi was shocked to see Sang Wan Yi here.

"Tang Girl, just call me Grandpa Sang." Sang Wan Yi or Grandpa Sang smiled.

"Let's go to the hospital first." Su Yu Hi said.

Facing three men who wanted to send her to the hospital, she gave up. She just followed the men's instruction. She actually knew that she was tired recently but because of the business plan, she neglected her health.

Chapter 395 - 395: Grandpa Sang's Help

Yu Qi was admitted to the Sang Hospital. Sang Hospital was owned by Grandpa Sang. Grandpa Sang took care of her in person. Grandpa Sang drew some of Yu Qi's blood.

"I will get this blood sample to be tested to check whether you have another problem." Grandpa Sang told Yu Qi when she gave a weird look to Grandpa Sang.

Grandpa Sang actually made out that lie. He just wanted to take some of Yu Qi's blood to be tested for DNA Test. He made the decision when Grandpa Su had told that Yu Qi was adopted. She needed to be tested for DNA Test with Grandpa Mu.

Yu Qi just let Grandpa Sang to take her blood. She knew Grandpa Sang was a private doctor of her grandfather, Grandpa Mu. However, she did not think that Grandpa Sang knew about her face was similar to Grandpa Mu's first wife.

After Grandpa Sang took her blood, Yu Qi let herself to sleep to enter the space. Only her soul entered since she was in the hospital. She did not want people to be shocked seeing her body missing out of nowhere. She left Aoi outside to guard her body.

"Master, are you okay?" Bo Ya asked worriedly.

"I'm okay. I am just tired. That's all. Since I have already taken some rest, I'm fine now." Yu Qi explained to Bo Ya.

"It's good then. I was very worried when you fainted like that. I thought you will leave me alone like my previous master." Bo Ya spoke as he held back his tears.

"My little cutie, I will try to take care of myself more, okay?" Yu Qi hugged Bo Ya. "I want to get some sleep right now since sleeping in the space will have more hours."

"Let's sleep together." Bo Ya said happily.

"Sure." Yu Qi nodded.

Bo Ya was happy since he could conquer his master for himself today since Aoi was outside the space.

....

Grandpa Sang went to Grandpa Mu's office after he got Yu Qi's blood sample. He wanted to tell Grandpa Mu this news. When the assistant announced Grandpa Sang's arrival to Grandpa Mu, he gave his permission to let Grandpa Sang to enter his office.

"What are you doing here?" Grandpa Mu said while doing his work.

"Do you know who I met today?" Grandpa Sang asked.

"Do I need to install bodyguards beside you so they can tell me about your daily tasks?" Grandpa Mu asked sarcastically.

"Tsk... You still can not take a joke." Grandpa Sang rolled his eye. Then he continued. "I meet that Tang Girl."

"Who?" Grandpa Mu stopped doing his work. He knew who was his friend mentioning about, but he still wanted to confirm.

"I said I met Tang Girl who resembles your late wife." Grandpa Sang said.

"Oh... So what?" That girl resembled his late wife but she did not have any connection with him.

"I heard the news that she was actually adopted by Jiang Man." Grandpa Sang dropped the news.

"What?" Now Grandpa Mu wanted to pay full attention to Grandpa Sang.

"She has actually been adopted." Grandpa Sang said again.

"Adopted?" Various things played in Grandpa Mu's mind right now.

"Yes. I think you should do a DNA test with her." Grandpa Sang suggested.

"But do you think she would do the test? From what I heard that Tang Jiang Man treat her like a princess. Even Tang Family love her very much. Do you think she just wants to do the test with me since her family now treat her very nice?" Grandpa Mu posed the question.

"That is why I suggest you do the test secretly." Grandpa Sang grinned.

"What do you mean by that?" Grandpa Mu frowned.

"Actually, she fainted in the restaurant where I went for lunch today." Grandpa Sang tried to explain but...

"What??!! Did she faint? Why?" Grandpa Mu stood up. He was worried.

"That girl works very hard. She does not take a good rest so, her body has been tired. Her character is like someone that I know very well." Grandpa Sang smiled.

"So, is she okay now?" Grandpa Mu asked.

"She is in the hospital. If she rests properly, she will be okay." Grandpa Sang said. Then he continued.

"After she had fainted, I talked with Su Jin. He is the one who told me that Tang Girl was adopted. So, when she was admitted to the hospital, I took the opportunity to draw some of her blood to have a DNA test with you."

"So do it for me. I want the result as soon as possible." Grandpa Mu said.

"Okay." Grandpa Sang nodded.

.....

Yu Qi did not that the plan was going in her favour. After she got enough sleep, she went outside. Aoi was still guarding the door for her.

Aoi was very happy when seeing his master woke up. "Do you get enough rest, master?"

"Yes. Bo Ya can assure that." Yu Qi chuckled. "Are you hungry?"

"No, that Su Yu Hi already got some food for me. I'm still full." Aoi told his master.

"Great. But I'm a little bit hungry." Yu Qi put her hand on her stomach.

The door was opened. Su Yu Hi entered.

"You are awake. But who are you talking to?" Su Yu Hi asked while looking around. He heard that Yu Qi was talking to someone just now.

"Actually, I'm talking to Aoi." Yu Qi pointed to Aoi. She was grinning. "I told him that I'm hungry."

"You are talking to your dog? Yu Qi, sometimes you do act silly." Su Yu Hi brushed off the topic.

Yu Qi just smiled and looked at Aoi.

Chapter 396 - 396: Caress The Portrait.

Two days resting made Yu Qi's body wanting to move around. Grandpa Su wanted to call Grandpa Tang. Thank God, she heard about that and prevented Grandpa Su from doing so. She did not want Grandpa Tang to know her trip to this nation.

Su Yu Hi settled all of the works that she had left during the two days resting. They already had found the perfect place to build the greenhouse. However, there was one problem appeared when they found out the place. The place already had its owner.

And the owner was Mu Group. Yu Qi frowned. This was not the time for her to counter the Mu Group yet. So, she asked Su Yu Hi to be her representative to ask about the land. She wanted to buy the land directly from the Mu Group.

While on the Grandpa Sang and Grandpa Mu's side, today was the time to see the result that the DNA Test which was tested a few days ago. As soon as the resulting test completed, Grandpa Sang took the file and headed to Grandpa Mu's private villa.

Grandpa Mu did not want others to know about this. So, he requested Grandpa Sang to bring the result straight to his private villa. The staff had already been informed that Grandpa Sang would be here. So, the staff let him enter directly.

Grandpa Mu was already waiting for him in the study room. Grandpa Sang went straight to the study room.

"Here is the result. I still haven't open it yet." Grandpa Sang placed the file on the table.

"Open it." Grandpa Mu said.

"Okay." Grandpa Sang opened the file.

"There is 26.9% of the DNA matched. Meaning that Tang Girl is indeed your granddaughter." Grandpa Sang explained the result.

Grandpa Mu did not react to the result. The words 'indeed your granddaughter' kept playing in his mind. No wonder she looked like his late wife. She was his granddaughter. Then his tears came out without even noticing it.

Grandpa Sang did not say anything about it. He understood his friend's feeling. His friend loved his first son very much due to his late wife. So, it was possible that his friend would love this girl so much.

"Yuchen, come in." Grandpa Mu called someone through his phone.

His personal assistant, Yuchen came into the study room.

"Yes, Sir?" Yuchen asked.

"Go and find out everything about a girl name Tang Yu Qi. Everything including her past." Grandpa Mu ordered.

"Yes, Sir. I will investigate the girl." Yuchen bowed and went out.

"So, is she still in the hospital?" Grandpa Mu asked.

"No, she had already checked out yesterday." Grandpa Sang informed him.

"Do you know why is she here, in Fanghai Nation?" Grandpa Mu asked again.

"No. But she appears a lot with my friend, Su Jin. Su Jin owns a herbs shop. That Tang Girl loves the herbs. She is probably here for that reason." Grandpa Sang made an assumption.

"Okay. I need to be alone." Grandpa Mu said.

"Alright, I will leave now. Take care of your health." Grandpa Sang advised him to take care of his health.

"I know." Grandpa Mu nodded.

Right after Grandpa Sang left the room, Grandpa Mu went to another door that connected the study room to another room.

The room was full of portraits of the young girl that had a sweet smile on her face. Grandpa Mu sat in front of the portrait and caressed the picture of that young girl.

"Yi Yi, I have finally found our granddaughter. She looks the same as you. She lives in another nation. What do you think her reaction will be when I tell her that I'm her real grandfather? Do you think she will believe me? Do you think she will accept me as her grandfather?" Grandpa Mu posed the question.

"I regret my decision at that time. I just should let Xiao Ye marry the woman whom he loved. Otherwise, he would not elope with that girl. Now he is still missing. And his daughter is adopted by another family." Grandpa Mu sighed.

"If I did not reject that girl, they would still be with us. Yi Yi, you must be angry with me, right? Because I had rejected Xiao Ye's beloved. I'm sorry. I'm really sorry about it."

Grandpa Mu spent hours talking to his late wife.

....

"Dad, I want to marry this girl." Mu Xiao Ye said in one evening.

He brought a young girl together with him. That girl seemed to wear a veil that covered her face. Only her eyes could be seen. She only kept herself shut up.

"Xiao Ye, you are my heir. You should know that your marriage partner should be from another well-known family." Grandpa Mu said strongly.

"Dad, I just want to marry the woman beside me here." Mu Xiao Ye looked up to Grandpa Mu.

"MU XIAO YE!!! Don't challenge my patience." Grandpa Mu shouted.

"Dad, I love her." Mu Xiao Ye ignored his father's shout.

"If you marry her, I will remove you as my heir." Grandpa Mu gave his warning.

The door was opened. Other family members entered.

"Oh, what do we have here?" Mu Li Zei sneered.

"It is the Big Brother Ye." Mu Zi Lin said.

"But who is the babe beside you, big brother Ye?" Mu Li Zei asked.

"Yeah, you should tell us, Big Brother Ye." Mu Zi Lin licked his lips showing the lustful expression. He thought that the girl besides his brother had a really nice body even though she covered her face.

"Shut up, two of you!!!" Grandpa Mu shouted to his other two sons.

Mu Li Zei and Mu Zi Lin shut up their mouth. They knew their father was currently in the rage. They knew it was because of Mu Xiao Ye. They were delighted when seeing their father became angry with him. It was because their father only expected from Mu Xiao Ye.

Their father always put Mu Xiao Ye first before them. It made them felt unhappy about that. Their father did not feel angry whether Mu Xiao Ye did right or wrong. This time, Mu Xiao Ye could not escape their father's rage made them so happy to witness that.

"Dad, I want to marry whether you agree or not." Mu Xiao Ye said that sentence, pulled the woman's hand and walked away.

"If you step out from this house, you can expect nothing more from Mu Family." Grandpa Mu said out of rage.

Mu Xiao Ye paused a little moment. Then he started away again without looking back. He was already determined to marry the woman. He would not hesitate to leave the Mu Family for her.

Chapter 397 - 397: You Need To Be Sly In Business

Su Yu Hi went to negotiate the price of the land. The negotiation did not turn well. Group Mu seemed to have another plan for the land which Yu Qi wanted.

"Yu Qi, they have another plan for the land. What should we do?" Su Yu Hi asked Yu Qi's opinion about that.

"I still have three days to go back to Binhai Nation. Things need to force up." Yu Qi smiled narrowing her eyes.

When Su Yu Hi saw his boss like this, she had already planned the way to make things went her way. So, he just should relax and wait for his boss to use her plan.

Yu Qi did make a plan. The plan... Of course meeting with the owner of the Mu Group itself. How was she going to meet him? She would use the middle man. She knew Grandpa Sang was Grandpa Mu's private doctor from her previous life.

Grandpa Sang died in the traffic accident two years after she was brought back in the Mu Family in the previous life. Grandpa Mu was sad because not only Grandpa Sang was his private doctor but his friend whom he could share his thoughts which could not be shared with anyone else. She did not know whether the traffic accident was man-made or not because she did not suspect anything about the traffic accident in her previous life.

Yu Qi went to the hospital which Grandpa Sang owned. She asked the nurse to see Grandpa Sang. The nurse said she needed to confirm with other doctors about Grandpa Sang's schedule. Yu Qi said she did not mind waiting for it.

After a one-half hour waiting, suddenly, the nurse whom she had asked earlier was running into her direction. She was kind of astonished when seeing the nurse in such a hurry. She did not think that the nurse was in such a rush because of her. She thought it was an emergency which had made the nurse ran this way.

"Miss Tang, Doctor Sang invites you to his office." The nurse said.

"Huh? Then why are you running in such a hurry? I thought you have an emergency case or something." Yu Qi patted the nurse's back.

"Calm down and take a breath. I need you to lead me to Doctor Sang's office." Yu Qi smiled.

"Oh... Yeah..." The nurse took a breath.

After a few minutes, the nurse calmed down. She led Yu Qi to Grandpa Sang's office. Arriving at the Grandpa Sang's office, Yu Qi thanked the nurse with a sweet smile.

The nurse dumbfounded when seeing such a beautiful young girl had smiled at her like that. She felt like she had fallen in love with that smile of the girl.

Yu Qi did not know what was playing in the nurse's mind. She knocked on the door. When she heard someone said 'you can enter', she opened the door and saw Grandpa Sang was waiting for her.

"Come in, Tang Girl." Grandpa Sang said.

Yu Qi entered and sat in front of Grandpa Sang.

"I heard that you are looking for me." Grandpa Sang began the conversation.

"I come here because I want to ask for your help." Yu Qi said.

"My help? Sure. What can I help you?" Grandpa Sang did not mind to help this girl.

"Actually, I have some business to talk with the owner of Mu Group." Yu Qi smiled.

"Mu Group? But I'm not from the Mu Group." Grandpa Sang shook his head.

"Yeah. But you are his private doctor." The sly smile appeared on Yu Qi lips.

"What exactly do you want me to do?" Grandpa Sang felt he was facing his friend, Grandpa Mu right now when he saw that sly smile.

"Well, I want to ask you to arrange some time in which I can talk directly to the owner of Mu Group." Yu Qi told him.

"Why do you think I will help you with that?" Grandpa Sang did not want to be used by this little girl.

"Because it will directly influence the medicine world in the future." Yu Qi said.

"Medicine?" Grandpa Sang now was kind of interested to hear about Yu Qi's plan.

"Yeah. But in order to make it successful, I need to meet Mr Mu about the plan." Yu Qi did not want to tell Grandpa Sang to make its suspense.

Grandpa Sang wanted to hear about it too. This girl really wanted to use him to order to see his friend. He really wanted to make his friend meet his granddaughter. He also knew that his friend was eager to meet with his granddaughter too. Meanwhile, his granddaughter also wanted to meet her grandfather to discuss some business with her grandfather. Well, it was not so bad since the meeting would benefit both parties.

"Tang Girl, I can arrange the meeting between you and him. But I don't know if he will agree to meet you or not." Grandpa Sang said.

"Well, you can just arrange it. If he doesn't agree to see me, I will try another way. I will stay in the Fanghai Nation for about three days. I hope during that time, I can meet him." Yu Qi smiled.

"But why are you looking from me?" Grandpa Sang wanted to know that.

"Well, from my investigation, you are the closest way to meet directly with him. In the business, we must be sly in order to make the business success. Well in a legal way, I mean." Yu Qi remembered the business lesson that Grandpa Mu taught her in her previous life.

Grandpa Sang was stunned. He was laughing. This girl was indeed his friend's granddaughter. Their thinking was the same when coming to the business.

Chapter 398 - 398: First Meeting Between The Grandfather and Granddaughter.

Unedited

Yu Qi left her card in order for Grandpa Sang to call her to inform her about the meeting with Grandpa Mu. After she left, Grandpa Sang quickly arranged the dinner with Grandpa Mu. Grandpa Sang purposely did not tell Grandpa Mu about Yu Qi wanted to meet him. He wanted to make it a surprise. He knew his friend would be shocked when he found out about it.

Yu Qi left the hospital. However, when she was about to exit the hospital, she managed to avoid someone that entered with running. It was a girl that running felt shocked and wanted to avoid Yu Qi. However, she missed the step of her feet and ended up fell onto the ground.

"Ouch, it's hurt. How dare you push me?" The girl was embarrassed because of the fall so, she wanted to push the blame.

"What? When did I push you? You are falling on your own. Not my fault." Yu Qi looked down to the girl's face.

Her eyes were narrowing when she saw the girl's face. It was Mu Rong Xie. It was nice to see the enemy delivered herself into her hand.

Mu Rong Xie stood up and saw the girl she faced. "It's you." Mu Rong Xie glared to Yu Qi.

"Do I know you?" Yu Qi pretending to forget Mu Rong Xie.

"You!!!" Mu Rong Xie felt very angry.

She was very angry when hearing this girl already forgot her. Last time, she arranged some people to do something to the girl. She paid an amount of money to the gang. However, the next day, she heard that the gang was arrested by the authorities. The plan ruined just like that. She was lucky because the gang did not recognize her since she wore some camouflage items.

"You push me. I will sue." Mu Rong Xie said in a loud voice.

"Sue me, then. I would like to see whether you or I will win the sue. Since I have the evidence that you fell on your own." Yu Qi smirked.

"Evidence? What evidence do you think you have, huh?" Mu Rong Xie thought Yu Qi just said something like that because Yu Qi was scared about the sue.

Yu Qi was smiling while pointed to the CCTV camera. Mu Rong Xie looked up. Her face changed a little bit.

"She did not watch her step and fell down. Now she wants to sue people? Who does she think she is?"

"Keep quiet. I know her. She is one of the princesses of the Mu Group. You can not offend someone like that or you do not know how you will end."

"Yeah. I pity another girl."

"I think that girl comes from a rich family too. She has that kind of aura. Probably nobler than that Mu Princess."

The onlookers discussed around them. Mu Rong Xie became angrier when she heard some of the discussion. 'How can this girl is richer than me?'

"I will make you pay for this." Mu Rong Xie said before she left Yu Qi.

Yu Qi just smiled while her eyes narrowed. After a few whiles, she said the sentence. "I hope you will like my present."

....

"Yu Qi, how does it going on?" Su Yu Hi asked.

"I still don't know about that. It will be a success if I can meet Mu Group's owner before we are going back. We still need to wait for Grandpa Sang for that." Yu Qi said.

Then her phone was ringing. Yu Qi looked at the number and did not recognize it. However, she still picked it up.

"Hello." Yu Qi answered.

"Tang Girl, it is me. Grandpa Sang." Grandpa Sang's voice greeted her.

Yu Qi: "Oh, it is you."

Grandpa Sang: "Tang Girl, I already invite my friend for dinner at the Moonlight Hotel tonight."

Yu Qi: "Moonlight Hotel? It is where I staying."

Grandpa Sang: "You can go to their restaurant and tell them I'm with you. They will lead you to my table."

Yu Qi: "What time?"

Grandpa Sang: "8 o'clock. Don't forget."

Yu Qi: "Okay. Thank you."

"I will be dining with Mr Mu tonight." Yu Qi told Su Yu Hi.

"Oh, it is great. I will have dinner with Aoi here." Su Yu Hi looked at Aoi.

'Aoi, can I go with you?' Aoi made a sad face.

'My little cutie, I can't bring you. Wait for me, I will compensate you later okay.' Yu Qi patted Aoi's head.

'Okay.' Aoi agreed.

At 8 o'clock, Yu Qi went to the restaurant hotel. She told the waiter that she was invited by Grandpa Sang. The waiter led Yu Qi to a room. When Yu Qi entered, her eyes caught Grandpa Mu's eyes.

Grandpa Mu was very shocked to see the girl here. Then he turned to his friend, Grandpa Sang that currently smiling.

"Tang Girl, come and have a sit." Grandpa Sang said while waving his hand.

Yu Qi sat in front of Grandpa Mu. She just made a small smile on her face. Actually, she was very happy to see her grandfather directly like this. Since she died in her previous world, she totally forgot about him. She just remembered that she just had a grandfather. Thank God, she found and remembered all about her grandfather.

"Hello, Mr Mu." Yu Qi greeted Grandpa Mu.

Grandpa Mu's expression twitched a little. His granddaughter greeted him with a term. Well, he could not blame the girl because she did not know who was him.

"Well, how about we order the food first?" Grandpa Sang looked at two of them.

"Okay." Both of them answered.

Chapter 399 - 399: It Brings Money Too.

"Actually Tang Girl has requested to meet you." Grandpa Sang told Grandpa Mu.

"Requested to meet me?" Grandpa Mu turned and looked at Yu Qi.

"Yes. Actually, I want to talk to you about some business." Yu Qi said.

"Business?" Grandpa Mu asked.

"I'm planning to buy the land own by Mu Group. I wonder if Mr Mu wants to sell that land?" Yu Qi jumped straight to the point.

"Land? Which land?" Grandpa Mu wanted to know which land that his granddaughter wanted to buy. He might give it for free to her.

"The land located at Yanlong." Yu Qi answered.

"Yanlong?" Grandpa Mu remembered that land was at the place that not very strategic for the development. He wondered why she wanted to buy the land.

"Yes. Yanlong. I wanted to buy that land." Yu Qi displayed a smile.

"For what? The place is not very good." Grandpa Mu stated.

"No, it is not. It is perfect for my business plan." Yu Qi said.

"What do you want to build over there?" Grandpa Mu asked.

"Greenhouse." Yu Qi told him.

"Greenhouse?" Grandpa Mu was dumbfounded with his granddaughter's answer.

"Yes. Greenhouse for the herbs." Yu Qi smiled.

"You really love the herbs." Grandpa Mu smiled for the first time in front of Yu Qi.

"Yeah. It brings money too." Yu Qi smiled.

Grandpa Sang laughed when he heard that. "That's right. Who does not love money, right?"

"I will prepare the contract by tomorrow." Grandpa Mu finally said what Yu Qi wanted to hear.

The food came and they were having a good dinner while chatting.

....

"Li Zei, I think I had seen your father in the Moonlight hotel."

Mu Li Zei received a call from his friend.

Mu Li Zei: "So?"

Mu Li Zei did not think that anything was weird about it.

Friend: "But I saw him with a woman."

Mu Li Zei: "What? With a woman in the hotel."

Friend: "I think that woman is very beautiful. I don't see her face just her figure."

Mu Li Zei: Is that woman young?"

Friend: "I'm not sure about that since I only just her back. But in my opinion, it must be a young woman."

Mu Li Zei: "Thank you for telling me."

Friend: "You can thank me in different ways."

Mu Li Zei: "Okay."

Mu Li Zei knew what his friend's meaning was. He was not fooled. His friend wanted some projects. He would just give them to him. Right now, the most important thing was to find out about the woman beside her father.

"Li Zei, come and see your daughter quickly." Su Yu Qing entered his study room.

"What's wrong with you? Have I not told you, not to enter my study room?" Mu Li Zei was angry.

"But... But... It is important. " Su Yu Qing was crying.

"Just tell me." Mu Li Zei did not like the sound of the crying woman.

"Rong Xie, she is scratching her skin saying it is very itch. The more she scratches, the more the itch feeling. Right now, she has scratched her arm until the blood come out." Su Yu Qing explained while crying.

"Let's go and look at her." Mu Li Zei walked away from the study room with Su Yu Qing.

"It is itchy so much." Mu Rong Xie screamed.

Su Yu Qing ran to her daughter. "Rong Xie, don't. Don't scratch anymore." Su Yu Qing approached Mu Rong Xie and caught her hand.

She then turned towards the maids. "I order you to hold your second young miss." She screamed.

"We... did... but second young miss started kicking us. So, ... We let... Her go..." One of the maids explained in scared tone.

Su Yu Qing looked at Mu Rong Xie. Her daughter's face was full of the blood due to the scratches.

"Mum, let me scratch. It is itching very much. Please mum." Mu Rong Xie begged while crying.

Mu Li Zei who was just standing there kept silent and suddenly ordered the maids. "What are you waiting for? Call the doctor right now." Mu Li Zei shouted.

The maids were about to run away from the room until the second order came.

"Just one person goes to call the doctor. The rest of you go and hold your second young miss." Su Yu Qing shouted angrily to the maids.

One maid ran away quickly before others could react. So the rest of the maids needed to hold their second young miss.

"Mum, please let me go." Mu Rong Xie begged again. She could not stand the itchy feeling. Like something moved under her skin.

"Be patient my dear. The doctor will come soon. You need to hold back." Su Yu Qing said to her daughter.

"Mum, what has happened here?" Mu Yian asked before she saw Mu Rong Xie.

After she looked at Mu Rong Xie, she was shocked. "Rong Xie, your face..." She could not finish that sentence.

The doctor came with a nurse. They were the same as Mu Yian.

"Quickly come and examine my daughter." Mu Li Zei said to the doctor.

"Huh... Okay." The doctor quickly approached Mu Rong Xie.

However, who thought that even Mu Rong Xie was held by four people, she managed to let herself go and started scratching again. She used more force when scratching again.

Su Yu Qing held her daughter's hand again to stop her from scratching her face.

"Quickly doctor, knock her out." Mu Li Zei said.

The doctor did his job and gave medicine to make sure Mu Rong Xie was unconscious. The nurse then started to clean the bloody face and place where Mu Rong Xie had scratched.

Chapter 400 - 400: Itch Poison

Unedited

The doctor started to check Mu Rong Xie's body. He frowned because he did not know why this happened in the first place.

"Doctor, what happens to my daughter?" Su Yu Qing asked.

"Madam, I can't pinpoint the problem. Maybe I know whether Second young Miss Mu has an allergy to something or not?" The doctor asked.

"I don't think she has before this." Su Yu Qing answered.

"I suggest Madam Mu bring her to the hospital for further check." The doctor suggested. He could not do anything here.

"But what if she gains her conscious and starts to scratch again?" Su Yu Qing inquired.

"She will sleep for up to 8 hours. After that, you need to bring her to the hospital quickly." The doctor said.

"Before I forget, don't let the wounds touch the water." The doctor gave the reminder.

The doctor left with the nurse.

"Four of you, stay here and watch your second young miss. If she wakes up and starts to scratch herself, hold her and quickly inform us." Mu Li Zei gave his order.

Su Yu Qing and Mu Yian followed him to the living room.

"Mum, what's happening to Rong Xie?" Mu Yian asked.

"I also don't know about that. We need to bring her to the hospital here to check it." Su Yu Qing sighed. Her mother's heart was very sad when seeing her daughter like that.

....

"I guess the poison should be working right now." Yu Qi smiled.

"What poison?" Aoi asked.

"I gave some of my itch poison to someone." Yu Qi told him.

"Who?"

"Mu Rong Xie."

"Owh, that woman."

Aoi already knew who was Mu Rong Xie. His master already told him about her past life. Mu Rong Xie was one of his master's cousin that very jealous of his master.

"What is the itch poison?" Aoi wanted to know the effect of the itch poison.

"The poison only would be activated on 5 hours after getting contact with it. You will start getting the itch feeling that something is moving beneath of your skin. You will try to scratch it. Once you scratch, the itch feeling will increase and you will scratch your skin until it bleeds. It will leave the scar. The poison will leave without the trace. And the most important, the wound will rotten and give a bad smell after 6 hours." Yu Qi explained about her poison.

"Wow, that is great. That woman dares to do something to you last time." Aoi mentioned about the incident where she got caught by men in the Fanghai Nation during the conference.

"I hope she would stand the itch feeling without scratching herself. Once she starts scratching and it will over." Yu Qi laughed.

"That woman will scratch without a doubt." Aoi also laughed.

The next day, Yu Qi was called by Grandpa Mu about the purchasing of the land. Grandpa Mu asked her to go to his office to get the contract signed. So, she went to the office together with Su Yu Hi on the next day.

When they got there, they were held back by some guys. From Su Yu Hi, she found out that one of these men was the person that he negotiated about the land.

"Mr Su, Mu Group will not sell the land. You should not waste your time here." The man said.

"We are here to meet Chairman Mu." Su Yu Hi said. He did not explain the detail.

"Why would Chairman Mu want to meet you? Mr Su, you don't need to lie about this." The man put an arrogant look on his face.

"Then should we ask the?receptionist about that?" Su Yu Hi smiled.

"Go ahead." The man taunted.

Yu Qi stepped forward to the receptionist.

"My surname name is Tang. I have an appointment with Chairman Mu. Can you check it?" Yu Qi smiled very sweet to the receptionist.

The receptionist was stunned to see the smile of the girl in front of her.

"Miss?" Yu Qi called.

"Oh, wait for one minute." The receptionist quickly called someone.

She talked for the person for a while. Then she hanged up.

"Miss Tang, I have been informed that someone will come down and get you. You may sit there first." The receptionist pointed to the waiting chair not far from the place.

"Thank you, sweetheart." Yu Qi said.

"You are welcome." The receptionist blushed.

"Brother Yu Hi, let's go and sit first. Someone will come and get us." Yu Qi said to Su Yu Hi.

"Okay." Su Yu Hi replied while looking back to the man that berated him before.

The man had a bad expression. He did not expect that the other party actually had an appointment with Chairman Mu. He just hoped that the other party would not mention him acting like that towards them to Chairman Mu.

Then one man came towards Yu Qi and Su Yu Hi.

"Miss Tang?" The man called.

"Yes?" Yu Qi looked at the man.

"I'm Li Yuchen, the personal assistant for Mr Mu. Mr Mu would like to invite you to his office." Li Yuchen said.

Yu Qi stood up. "Thank you, Mr Li. Sorry to trouble you to lead us to Mr Mu's office."

Li Yuchen smiled. This girl was really attractive. He had trouble getting her information. He only got her information during her childhood. The latest information that he got was she adopted by Tang Family and currently attending her bachelor degree in the medical course.

Others information had been hidden by someone in purpose. No matter he did, he could not get it. From that, he knew that this girl was not simple at all.
