Chapter 401 - 401: Grandpa Mu Revealed The Truth To Yu Qi

"Miss Tang, you can enter this room. Mr Mu is waiting for you." Li Yuchen opened the door.

"Thank you, Mr Li." Yu Qi said before entering the room.

In the room, she could see Grandpa Mu sitting at his table.

"Mr Mu." Yu Qi called.

"Oh, you are here. Come and sit." Mr Mu invited them to sit. "This is..." Grandpa Mu looked at Su Yu Hi.

"He is my personal assistant." Yu Qi answered.

Grandpa Mu nodded several times.

"Yuchen, bring the doc.u.ment here." Mr Mu said to Li Yuchen.

Li Yuchen moved quickly, got the doc.u.ments and placed in front of them. Grandpa Mu opened the doc.u.ment.

"I decide to sell the land for this price." Grandpa Mu pointed to the price in the doc.u.ment.

Yu Qi took a look. She turned to Su Yu Hi and asked whether the price was logic or not. Su Yu Hi also looked at the price. He had already studied about the price of land in Fanghai Nation. He thought the price was a bit lower than the normal pricing. However, he felt that it was Chairman Mu's consideration.

"The price is okay but lower than I have expected." Su Yu Hi told his opinion.

Yu Qi nodded. She smiled. 'Lower is better.'

"I have not expected Chairman Mu will sell the land at a lower price than the normal price. Well, I'm thanking you." Yu Qi thanked Grandpa Mu.

"Then, let's settle it." Grandpa Mu said.

Yu Qi went through the contract. After she felt, the contract was okay, only when she signed. Grandpa Mu thought that his granddaughter was a very cautious person. He thought she would sign the contract right now after he mentioned the price. However, she went through all th contract. He was very satisfied with her.

"I will transfer the money after this." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Grandpa Mu nodded.

Yu Qi thought it was over however it was not.

"Yuchen bring the other doc.u.ment to me." Grandpa Mu ordered Li Yuchen.

Following the order, Li Yuchen placed another doc.u.ment in front of them.

Su Yu Hi looked at Yu Qi. He put the guard on. He thought something was not right.

"Yu Qi, look at this." Grandpa Mu pushed the document to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi took and opened the document. It was a result of the paternity test between Grandpa Mu and her. Even though she knew that she was his granddaughter, she did not expect that he already did the test.

Su Yu Hi also read the document. He was shocked. His boss had a blood relationship with Chairman Mu.

"It is..." Yu Qi looked at Grandpa Mu.

"You have the same face as my late wife. When I first saw you, I felt like my late wife came back to life. However, it is just my wishful thought. My friend told me that you are his friend's granddaughter. Recently, he told me that you are adopted. So my friend took your blood sample and get it tested with my blood. That was the result." Grandpa Mu explained.

Yu Qi was silent while looking at the result. The tear started to drop on the paper. She was crying without a sound. Her grandfather did the test.

Seeing his granddaughter was crying in silent, Grandpa Mu stood up and hugged his granddaughter.

"Yu Qi, I'm sorry for late finding out about you." Grandpa Mu said.

"It is good to know that I have a family. I thought you don't want me. So, you abandoned me." Yu Qi said.

"No, no, no, my dear. I just don't know you exist. If I know a long time ago, I would have looked for you." Grandpa Mu felt very sad that his granddaughter felt that she was abandoned.

Li Yuchen gave a look to Su Yu Hi. Su Yu Hi understood and he stood up. They went out to give some time to the grandfather and granddaughter to have a talk.

"Yu Qi, you led a sad childhood." Grandpa Mu felt sorry about that.

"Yeah. But the past was the one made today's me. It is not bad." Yu Qi smiled in tear.

"Your current family treats you very well?" Grandpa Mu wanted a confirmation from Yu Qi herself. If the information was a lie, he would take Yu Qi into the family.

"Grandpa Tang treats me very very well." Yu Qi nodded.

"Oh, I see." Grandpa Mu felt a little bit disappointed but at the same time, he was relieved that the other party was treating his granddaughter very well.

"I heard that you are currently a medical student?" Grandpa Mu asked.

"Yeah. I'm a doctor to be." Yu Qi smiled proudly.

"You like it?" Grandpa Mu asked more. He just thought Yu Qi just wanted to please her adopt family since they were particularly the doctor family.

"Of course, I like it." Yu Qi smiled.

Grandpa Mu knew from her expression. She was genuinely happy with it.

"But I also love business." Yu Qi added.

"Really?"

"Yeah. I currently have three business under my name. YQ investment company, YQ greenhouse, and Saisei Ryokan Hotel." Yu Qi told Grandpa Mu.

Grandpa Mu was shocked to hear that since he did not manage to find out from the information that he asked Li Yuchen to find out. Grandpa Mu remembered that Li Yuchen told her that her current information was well protected.

"All of them are yours?"

"Yeah."

"Where do get all those capital to start the business?" Such a young age had many businesses registered under her name, Grandpa Mu felt impressive with his granddaughter.

Chapter 402 - 402: Rotten Wounds

"Before I been adopted by grandfather, I got and sold a 1000 year ginseng. It was worth a big amount of money. So, I decided to build a greenhouse and a hotel. After a few whiles, I set up an investment company to invest in various companies in the Binhai Nation." Yu Qi explained.

"I see. You really have a business mind." Grandpa Mu smiled. "But I heard that you are studying to become a doctor?"

"Yeah. I want to be a doctor beside being a businesswoman." Yu Qi said.

Yu Qi thought it was the best time to check Grandpa Mu's body.

"Grandpa, can I check your body?" Yu Qi asked.

"Oh, sure. Why not? You are a future doctor." Grandpa Mu did not mind having her granddaughter to check his body.

Yu Qi took Grandpa Mu's pulse and read it. 'Good, grandpa's body seems to be in good condition. He has not been poisoned yet. Maybe since Grandpa Sang is still alive.' Yu Qi let go Grandpa Mu's hand.

"How is my condition?" Grandpa Mu inquired.

"Good. You seem to take care of your health. However, your heart is weak." Yu Qi told his condition.

Grandpa Mu smiled. He knew that his heart was weak from his friend. It seemed Yu Qi was good enough as a doctor since she could tell that just from his pulse.

"I have good medicine to strengthen the heart. However, I don't bring it along. I will give to you later. You can ask Grandpa Sang to test the medicine for you." Yu Qi informed Grandpa Mu.

"Medicine?" Grandpa Mu asked.

"Yeah. I make it from the herbs." Yu Qi nodded.

"Okay." Grandpa Mu believed in his granddaughter.

They were having a long talk until lunchtime. Grandpa Mu decided to have lunch in her office together with Yu Qi and Su Yu Hi who was waiting for Yu Qi.

...

Mu Family House.

"Madam!!! Madam!!!" One of the maids ran calling the mistress of the house.

Su Yu Qing was currently eating felt disturbed by the maid.

"What is wrong with you?" Su Yu Qing asked the maid.

"Madam, you just come and see second young miss." The maid said in a panic.

Realising something was wrong, Su Yu Qing quickly ran to her daughter room. Mu Yian also followed her mother. When they arrived at Mu Rong Xie's room, they could smell the pungent odour. The smell was coming from inside the room.

They entered the room. The smell was very bad when they opened the room. The maids closed their nose using their hands to block the smell.

"What happened here?" Su Yu Qing also closed her nose.

"We also did not know, madam. The smell just started. We don't know what to do. So we called madam here." The maid said.

"Mum, the wounds on Rong Xie have rotten." Mu Yian looked at Mu Rong Xie's wounds.

"What??? How could that happen? She only gets those wounds yesterday." Su Yu Qing said. She also went to look at his daughter's wounds. She could see some of the wounds had a green layer and some of them had maggots inside it.

"Quickly send my daughter to the hospital. Yian, go and tell your father about it." Su Yu Qing shouted.

The maids were terrified with Su Yu Qing's order. To lift the second young miss, they needed to touch her body. They might touch those maggots. So, one of the maids suggested calling the ambulance.

Su Yu Qing was angry. "Don't call the ambulance. My daughter's reputation will be damage."

So, the maids had to lift Mu Rong Xie's body to put onto the push bed. During lifting Mu Rong Xie, some of the maggots came out from the wound and touched one of the maid's hand. The maid screamed. Mu Rong Xie's body fell on the floor.

"How dare you let second young miss fall onto the floor?" Su Yu Qing kicked the maid.

The maid was yelling in pain.

"Quickly lift your second young miss." Su Yu Qing gave a quick order.

The maids were scared getting the kick so they quickly lifted up Mu Rong Xie. They pushed Mu Rong Xie on stretcher bed. They sent Mu Rong Xie straight to Sang Hospital.

Due to the smell, Mu Rong Xie was admitted into the special ward. Due to Mu Family's special status, the doctors checked Mu Rong Xie's first.

Su Yu Qing and Mu Yian waited outside. Not long after that Mu Li Zei and Kang Pian Sue came over. It seemed Mu Yian also informed her grandmother.

"What has happened to Rong Xie?" Kang Pian Sue asked.

"We also don't know. Last night, when she came back, she started screaming and scratching herself until she bled. We called the doctor to give her some knockout medicine since she could not stop scratching herself. This morning, we see her wounds have already rotten. It even has maggots inside it." Su Yu Qing explained.

Kang Pian Sue gave a disgusting look. 'Maggots? Eww.. ..'

"Yian, where does your sister go last night?" Mu Li Zei asked Mu Yian.

"I also don't know about that." Mu Yian answered.

Mu Li Zei called his subordinate. "Find out where did my second daughter went last night."

"Yes, Sir." The subordinate received his order and went quickly.

Then Grandpa Sang and Grandpa Mu arrived. Without saying anything, Grandpa Sang entered the room to check Mu Rong Xie. When Grandpa Sang opened the door, the pungent smell immediately occupied the area. Kang Pian Sue quickly closed her nose.

"What is this smell?" Kang Pian Sue could not help to ask.

"It is stronger than earlier." Mu Yian said.

"Just let Doctor Sang check her first." Mu Li Zei said.

Chapter 403 - 403: Mu Rong Xie's Allergy?

A half-hour passed. Grandpa Sang came out.

"Maybe I know, does your daughter have some allergy to something?" Grandpa Sang posed the question to Mu Li Zei and Su Yu Qing.

"As far as I know, she doesn't have any kind of allergy to something." Su Yu Qing answered.

"What has happened to my daughter, Doctor Sang?" Mu Li Zei asked.

"Actually, we still don't know what the cause is? You said she scratches herself right?" Grandpa Sang frowned.

"Yeah. She has scratched herself until it has started bleeding." Su Yu Qing said.

"Well, your daughter will need to stay at the hospital since we still don't know the cause. It would be some help to know the cause if we know where did she go last night. And we have still tied her hands in case she wakes up and start to scratch herself." Grandpa Sang told the situation.

"I have already got my subordinate to investigate where did she go last night. After getting the information, I will tell Doctor Sang about it." Mu Li Zei gave an assurance.

"Good. Other doctors have currently treated those rotten wounds." Grandpa Sang said.

.....

"Yu Qi, I don't expect that you are Chairman Mu's real granddaughter." Su Yu Hi said.

"I'm also surprised by it." Yu Qi made a lie.

"You should ask that land for free." Su Yu Hi chuckled.

"Can't. You know the businessman's mind. Everything must need to be calculated carefully. Chairman Mu has already calculated the price since he has decided to sell that land to me." Yu Qi said.

"Yeah. Anyway, we have already gotten the land. We can start the construction of the greenhouse. I will go and talk to Mr Su about it." Su Yu Hi said and left.

"Master, what do you think have happened to that vicious woman?" Aoi asked after Su Yu Hi left.

"Probably in the hospital with the rotten wounds." Yu Qi chuckled.

"She deserves it. How dare she plot against you?" Aoi was satisfied with what happened to Mu Rong Xie.

"The doctor here will have to figure out what has happened to her body for her to scratch herself like that." Yu Qi said. However, they would not be able to find out the cause of the scratching.

"What? She went to a nightclub last night?" Mu Li Zei frowned.

"What? My daughter would not go to such a dirty place like that." Su Yu Qing protested. In her eyes, Mu Rong Xie was a good and obedient daughter who would not step into a place like that.

The subordinate reported the information just kept his mouth shut. He knew that the mother would not be able to believe the information.

Mu Yian only heard the report. She did not say anything about it. She knew his younger sister. She was behaving like a good daughter in front of their parents. However, she knew her younger sister's true behaviour. His younger sister liked to party in the night clubs.

"Tell me more about it." Mu Li Zei said to his subordinate.

"During the day, the second young miss went to the hospital. She went to take some medicine. After that, she went to the nightclub with some friends. They started to drink until they were drunk. Then the club people asked someone to send them back to their house including the second young miss. It seems that second young miss often went to clubbing there since the club people knew her." The subordinate concluded his report.

"That is not true. She will never go to that kind of place." Su Yu Qing said.

"Then do you know where she was last night?" Mu Li Zei glared to Su Yu Qing.

Su Yu Qing could not answer that question. She actually did not know about it.

"Then keep your mouth shut up." Mu Li Zei said to Su Yu Qing.

"Go and ask her friends about what she had been drinking or you can ask the night club." Mu Li Zei made a new order to his subordinate.

"Yes, sir." The subordinate received the order and left the living room.

Mu Li Zei stood up and left for his study room. Problem... Problem... Problem... Those always came. Mu Li Zei massaged his head.

In the living room, Su Yu Qing still sat with Mu Yian.

"Your sister must be influenced by her bad friends. Otherwise, she would not go to that place on her own." Su Yu Qing said to Mu Yian.

Mu Yian rolled her eyes when Su Yu Qing did not look at her direction. 'Yeah. Influence. Her friends were influenced by her actually.'

"She must have touched something dirty at that night club." Su Yu Qing mumbled.

"Mum, we just need to wait for the doctors to figure out the cause." Mu Yian said.

Then a young man came in. His face showed that he just woke up.

"Mu Kuang He, where have you been?" Su Yu Qing asked in angry.

"I just came back from my friend's house. We were just playing the game last night." Mu Kuang He said while scratching his head.

"You!!!" Su Yu Qing became so angry.

"Mum, don't get so angry. It is not healthy. You come and bring madam to her room to rest." Mu Yian calmed down her mother and asked a maid to bring her mother to rest.

"What happened, Sis Yian?" Mu Kuang He asked.

"Rong Xie is currently at the hospital. She scratched herself last night until she had bled. This morning, the wound had already rotten. There were some maggots inside her wounds. It was pretty disgusting." Mu Yian explained.

"What!!! Maggots? That is disgusting. Why can the wounds become rotten just in one night?" Mu Kuang He felt weird about that part.

"I don't know. Probably like mum said, she touched something dirty at the night club." Mu Yian lifted up her shoulder signifying that she also did not know about that.

"Oh, her secret came out." Mu Kuang He said.

"Yeah, mum actually did not believe that she went there on her own. She thought Rong Xie's friends influenced her to go there." Mu Yian chuckled.

Mu Kuang He laughed. "Sis Rong Xie was influenced by her friends? The world must be ending soon. Mum just doesn't know her true colours."

"Well, forget about it. We just need to wait for the doctor to find out what just happened to her. Go upstairs. Don't let dad see you." Mu Yian said.

"Dad is at home in these hours?" Mu Kuang He was shocked. Usually, his father would be at the office at this these hours.

"Yeah. Because of Rong Xie, he did not go to work. If he saw you like this, you might need to listen to his lecture. Just go." Mu Yian waved her hand.

"Thank you, Sis Yian for telling me." Mu Kuang He ran to his room upstairs.

Chapter 404 - 404: Tang Jin Wei Fall In Love

Yu Qi and Su Yu Hi's work at Fanghai Nation was mostly completed. The construction work would be handled completely by Grandpa Su. The given time to complete the greenhouse of Yu Qi was 6 months. Grandpa Su promised Yu Qi to complete the greenhouse within the given time. Su Yu Hi would be going to inspect the progress once in every month.

Yu Qi also informed Grandpa Mu that she would be going back to Binhai Nation. Of course, Grandpa Mu felt very sad. He just found out about his granddaughter and now his granddaughter would be leaving.

"Don't worry. I will visit you later. Just don't forget to eat the medicine that I have given you once each month." Yu Qi reminded Grandpa Mu.

"Don't worry. I will take it." Grandpa Mu nodded.

Yu Qi gave two kinds of medicines to Grandpa Mu. One was for Grandpa Mu's heart as she had promised Grandpa Mu on another day. Another one was for blocking the poison as she promised herself to give it to Grandpa Mu. Of course, she did not tell the effect of this medicine. Otherwise, Grandpa Mu would be wondering why would his granddaughter give medicine for blocking the poison for him.

Yu Qi and Su Yu Hi left the Fanghai Nation.

"My dear Yu Qi, where did you go the last week? I heard you took a week leave. Are you sick?" Song Ha Ting asked worryingly when she saw Yu Qi appeared in the class.

"Yeah. You just disappeared just like that. We have been worried about you." Mei Lilli also asked.

"Don't worry. I just have something to do. And I'm fine." Yu Qi answered her friend's questions.

Yu Qi's life became normal back. The semester would be going to end. Yu Qi and her friends studied for the exam. They sat for the exam. After two weeks of struggle, the exams finished.

They went back to their hometown. Yu Qi called her family to pick up since they had already told her to prevent taking the bus. For this semester end-break, Yu Qi wanted to go to driving car school to take her licence. She knew she would pass in the first try since she already knew how to drive the car. It was because she had already learned to drive a car.

Auntie Meng Yue told her that Tang Jin Wei would be coming and take her home. Auntie Meng Yue told her that Tang Jin Wei had taken some days off to relax, so she asked him to go and fetch her.

The next day, Tang Jin Wei came and picked her up.

"Brother Jin Wei." Yu Qi greeted him.

"Yo, Little Sis." Tang Jin Wei greeted back.

"You looks kind of depressed. Why?" Yu Qi noticed Tang Jin Wei's expression.

"Little Sis, I'm indeed in depression." Tang Jin Wei said.

"Why?" Yu Qi asked.

"I have fallen in love." Tang Jin Wei explained.

"What? That is happy news." Yu Qi did not understand.

"She did not believe me. She hates me. She knew the rumour about me saying that I'm a playboy. But I already changed since meeting her." Tang Jin Wei sighed.

"Who is she?" Yu Qi was kind of excited to know about the girl who could attract her brother.

"She is a new nurse who is transferred to our hospital two months ago." Tang Jin Wei was smiling when mentioning about the girl.

Yu Qi also smiled when seeing his brother Jin Wei like this. Her brother must really love that girl. She could not wait to meet the girl.

"She must be a beautiful girl with whom you have fallen in love." Yu Qi said.

"Of course, she is cute, however, she is a little bit clumsy." Tang Jin Wei nodded agreeing on Yu Qi.

"Brother Jin Wei, you need to work hard to win the girl's heart." Yu Qi said.

"Little Sis, you need to help me with this." Tang Jin Wei begged.

"Well, we will see about that."

...

"Where am I?" Mu Rong Xie opened her eyes and saw she was in a foreign room.

When she wanted to lift her hands, she felt her hands were tied to something. She began to struggle.

"What is this? Let me go." Mu Rong Xie screamed.

Her scream was very loud which made the bodyguards who were guarding her room outside startled. One of the bodyguards went to call the doctors. Another one called the Mu Family.

"Hey!!! Let me go." Mu Rong Xie still screamed asking to let her go.

After a few whiles, the doctors came. Grandpa Sang was one of them.

Seeing Grandpa Sang, Mu Rong Xie felt she had been saved.

"Grandpa Sang, please release me." Mu Rong Xie begged.

"Before that, answer my question." Grandpa Sang wanted to confirm.

"What?" Mu Rong Xie asked.

"Do you have the urge to scratch yourself?" Grandpa Sang looked at Mu Rong Xie.

"No. Why the heck would I want to scratch myself?" Mu Rong Xie asked back.

Seeing there was no hesitation on Mu Rong Xie, meaning she told the truth. Grandpa Sang asked others to release her.

"What had happened to me?" Mu Rong Xie asked Grandpa Sang.

"Wait! You don't remember?" Grandpa Sang wanted to ask for the cause but his tongue was tied when he heard Mu Rong Xie's question.

"Remember what? Wait!!! What has happened to my body? Why is my body being wrapped?" Mu Rong Xie was shocked when seeing her body.

Chapter 405 - 405: Taking Drug

The doctors and bodyguards were dumbfounded when they heard that. The victim herself did not remember the incident. Mu Rong Xie looked around her body. She even touched her face. Her face had also been wrapped.

Mu Rong Xie tried to open the wrapping. When she succeeded in doing so, the pungent smell occupied the room. Everyone quickly put their hands to close their nose. Even Mu Rong Xie doing so.

One of the doctors went to open the window to clear the air. At the moment, Mu Rong Xie managed to see the things under the wrapping. She screamed loudly.

"What? Disgusting." Mu Rong Xie shook her hand which was already unwrapped.

She saw the maggots inside her wound. The maggots fell over.

"Ah!!!!" Mu Rong Xie screamed again when the maggots fell over on her bed.

Doctor Sang frowned when seeing the maggots. He thought they had already cleaned up the rotten wounds and got rid of the maggots. How could the maggots appear again?

Su Yu Qing entered the room when Mu Rong Xie was screaming. She immediately ran to calm her daughter.

"Rong Xie, calm down my dear." Su Yu Qing said.

"Mum, what has happened to me?" Mu Rong Xie cried.

"Doctor will heal you. Don't worry about it." Su Yu Qing said.

"But my wounds has maggots inside." Mu Rong Xie complained.

Su Yu Qing turned to Grandpa Sang.

"Doctor Sang, has the doctors already not cleaned up the maggots? Why are they still there?" Su Yu Qing questioned the doctors.

"Madam Mu, we indeed have already cleaned up the wounds. We already inspected that there were no maggots in her wounds before we wrapped her up." Grandpa Sang explained in the calm tone.

"Then, how can this happen?" Su Yu Qing also felt disgusting with those maggots.

"Well, we still can not explain that Madam Mu. Since the second young miss Mu has already wakened up, she can answer our question in order to investigate more about what has happened to her." Grandpa Sang turned to Mu Rong Xie.

"Well, then, Second Young Miss Mu, can you tell us where do you go last night?" Grandpa Sang asked.

Mu Rong Xie's hands clenched into a fist. Her eyes seemed to move right and left. She could not tell them where she went last night. Her mother was here. It might expose everything.

"You better tell me where did you go last night." Mu Li Zei entered the room and looked straight at Mu Rong Xie.

Mu Yian also followed her father from behind.

"Doctor Sang, could you please leave the room first with your team? I will explain it to you later about it." Mu Li Zei asked Grandpa Sang and the other doctors to leave the room.

Grandpa Sang looked at Mu Li Zei's face. Probably they had something to talk among their family.

"Okay. We will leave first. But still, your daughter needs to tell her last night's activity for us to find the cause of her scratching and wounds." Grandpa Sang said.

"I will talk to you about it later." Mu Li Zei nodded.

"Okay then. Everyone, let's leave first." Grandpa Sang told his team to leave the room.

Also, Mu Li Zei asked their bodyguards and other unrelated people to leave the room as well. Only the Mu Family was in the room.

"Well, Rong Xie, tell us." Mu Li Zei said with restricted tone but anger could be sensed in his voice.

Mu Rong Xie froze when listening to Mu Li Zei's voice. Even though her father often spoiled her, she was slightly scared of her father.

"I... did not go anywhere." Mu Rong Xie did not want to admit that she went to a night club together with her friends for a party last night.

"You dare lie to me, hmm..." Mu Li Zei threw some paper to Mu Rong Xie's face. "You see this by yourself."

Mu Rong Xie took the paper and started to read it. Her eyes were wide opened when reading the information in the paper. The paper stated she went to the night club, drinking and clubbing with her friends. And the more shocking, her father managed to get the information that she was taking some drugs.

Mu Li Zei was totally angry when he received the information as soon as the subordinate gave the report to him. He did not really care that his child wanted to go clubbing or what but using the drug was the only thing that he could not stand. Others could but not his child.

"Dad, it is not true." Mu Rong Xie tried to explain.

"Oh, it is not true. So, you don't want to admit it, do you?" Mu Li Zei narrowed his eyes.

"My dear, she must be forced by others." Su Yu Qing wanted to calm down her husband and diverted the anger that her husband had towards her daughter.

"Shut up!" Mu Li Zei roared to Su Yu Qing. "Also stop protecting your daughter blindly like that. She is taking drugs."

Su Yu Qing was shocked when her husband mentioned about that. She looked at Mu Rong Xie. 'Her daughter is taking the drug?' How can this be?

"How long you had been using the drug?" Mu Li Zei asked more.

Now, Su Yu Qing did not hold back her husband. She also wanted to know that.

Mu Rong Xie knew that her cover already blew up. "At first, I just tried since my friend suggested. They said it was a new drug with no side effect. So... I tried it." She explained in a small voice.

"How long have you been taking it?" Mu Li Zei questioned her again.

"Three months." Mu Rong Xie said.

"Where do you get the supply from?"

"From this hospital."

Last time, when Mu Rong Xie met Yu Qi at the hospital entrance, she was going to buy the drug from a doctor here.

Mu Li Zei frowned. He did not think that Sang Hospital would be selling drugs to others.

"Do you know who was the person who sells the drugs to you?" Mu Li Zei wanted to know that person.

"Yes. I remember him. I buy the drug at the pharmacy hospital here. I think his surname is Ling." Mu Rong Xie could not help but exposed all of it.

"Stay low for now. I will handle it." Mu Li Zei left the room.

Su Yu Qing went to her daughter and hit her daughter's shoulder.

"Mum, it hurts." Mu Rong Xie shouted.

"Now, you know it hurts. When you used the drugs, why don't you think so?" Su Yu Qing shouted back at her daughter.

Mu Rong Xie could not reply back. Her friends took the drug longer than her, about 6 months but nothing unusual happened to them.

"Mum, will I recover as usual?" Mu Rong Xie asked because she did not want to be wrapped or have some maggots on her body.

"I guess we have to wait for the doctor to find out the cause." Su Yu Qing sighed.

"Mum..." Mu Rong Xie cried again.

"But Rong Xie, you really are stupid to take such drugs." Mu Yian commented.

"I just want to try... But getting hooked up." Mu Rong Xie said as she cried.

Chapter 406 - 406: Mu Li Zei's Offer

"Doctor Sang, can I talk to you for a moment?" Mu Li Zei left the ward and went to Grandpa Sang's office.

Grandpa Sang currently took a look at Mu Rong Xie's case. He was feeling weird when he saw the maggots on Mu Rong Xie's wound after the doctor had cleaned it up. Then Mu Li Zei appeared to knock at his door. Grandpa Sang invited Mu Li Zei in.

"Doctor Sang, I have something to inform you." Mu Li Zei began to talk.

"Sure, what is it?" Grandpa Sang waited for Mu Li Zei to talk.

"From my daughter's story, she is taking some kind of drugs." Mu Li Zei was feeling very ashamed to tell this matter to Grandpa Sang.

"Drugs? Do you have some sample of it?" Grandpa Sang really wanted to experiment with that drug.

"From the information given by my daughter, she bought the drug from your hospital's pharmacy." Mu Li Zei said.

"My hospital?" Grandpa Sang was shocked. He did not know that the drugs were sold in his hospital.

"Have she told you, whom does she buy from?"

Mu Li Zei could see the anger from Grandpa Sang.

"From someone with a surname Ling." Mu Li Zei told him.

"Surname Ling?" Grandpa Sang frowned.

It was a common surname. However, Grandpa Sang thought that he could find him. Grandpa Sang called someone by phone.

"Jasmine, email all the files of our personnel with the surname Ling." Grandpa Sang ordered her.

Jasmine was a nurse a.k.a his personal assistant. Receiving the orders, Jasmine quickly performed her job. After half hour of waiting, Grandpa Sang received the email. There were 20 personnel that had the surname 'Ling'.

Eliminating the women, the cleaning staffs, only two left with that surname. One from the physiology department. And one from the x-ray department.

"We still don't know which one is the real person." Grandpa Sang said.

"Well, my daughter might recognise him. Just let my daughter look at these two pictures.

"Owh, okay." Grandpa Sang nodded.

The two of them went to Mu Rong Xie's ward. Su Yu Qing and Mu Yian were also there.

"Doctor Sang, you are here? Do you already know the cause?" Su Yu Qing asked.

"We need to ask Mu Rong Xie a few questions." Grandpa Sang asked without looking at Su Yu Qing. He looked straight to Mu Rong Xie.

Mu Rong Xie felt very pressured when Grandpa Sang looked at her like that.

"What is it, Grandpa Sang?" Mu Rong Xie asked nervously.

Grandpa Sang put one picture in front of her first. "Do you know him?"

Mu Rong Xie tried to take a look at the picture. Her eyes just showed a blank look.

"No. I don't know this guy." Mu Rong Xie shook her head.

"Then how about this guy?" Mu Li Zei placed another picture.

"Oh, he is the guy from whom I buy the stuff." Mu Rong Xie pointed to the picture.

"LING HAN." Grandpa Sang was very angry.

Ling Han was a doctor from the physiology department. He had recruited by Sang Hospital about 5 years ago from a local university since he had a good result. Grandpa Sang never knew that that man used his hospital as the place to sell some kind of drugs.

Mu Rong Xie immediately felt scared facing the anger from Grandpa Sang. Su Yu Qing immediately protected her daughter behind her.

Grandpa Sang went out. Mu Li Zei also followed.

"Doctor Sang, I will help you catch that guy. But in one condition." Mu Li Zei offered.

"What is it?" Grandpa Sang said.

"Cover the news that my daughter is taking the drug. Especially for my father. I don't want others to know that the Mu Family's second daughter took some kind of drugs." Mu Li Zei stated the condition.

Grandpa Sang thought once. He wanted to know where did that Ling Man gets the supply from. Having help from Mu Li Zei was good too.

"Good, deal." Mu Li Zei shakes hand with Grandpa Sang.

Mu Li Zei took the work done faster by calling his subordinates to catch Ling Han from Grandpa Sang's information.

Ling Han who was just working in his room, reading some patients file, as usual, was very shocked when a group of bodyguards entered his room and took him away. He was caught unprepared could not do anything but to get dragged by the men.

Ling Han was brought to an old warehouse. The bodyguard threw him on the ground.

"Mister, what do you want from me?" Ling Han asked half begging to them.

The bodyguards did not answer his questions. They totally ignored him. They just guarded Ling Han in case he wanted to escape from them. If that happens, the least news, they would be fired. The worst news, they might end their lives by their own hands.

Grandpa Sang left the matter to Mu Li Zei to extract the information from the man. He would not care about the man been tortured by Mu Li Zei as long he got the information about those drugs. The drug was his bottom line. He would not forgive people who sold such things that could destroy the human body.

Then all the bodyguards bowed respectively to one man who walked towards Ling Han. Ling Han also turned around to see who was the person that those bodyguards gave their whole respect. When Ling Han saw the man, he knew why was he had been caught here.

Chapter 407 - 407: As Beautiful As An Angel

"It seems that you know me." Mu Li Zei said to the man on the ground.

"Mr. Mu, please forgive me." Ling Man immediately begged Mu Li Zei.

"I don't mind if you sell your stuff to others but you sold them to my daughter." Mu Li Zei stepped on Ling Han's hand.

"Argh!!!!" Ling Han shouted in pain.

Mu Li Zei lifted up her feet and stepped back. He smiled at Ling Han.

"Well, I can let you go if you tell me one thing." Mu Li Zei said.

"Thing? About what?" Ling Han desperately wanted to know since it was his chance to escape.

"Tell me who is your supplier." Mu Li Zei smiled.

Since it was a source of money, Mu Li Zei thought it was good for him to know it. He could make it as his side business.

"Okay... Okay... I will tell you. It is...." Ling Han told Mu Li Zei everything about it.

Mu Li Zei listened carefully to what Ling Han told him.

"I told you everything. Can you let me go now?" Ling Man was very hoping.

"Let you go? Ha ha ha... You are so stupid." Mu Li Zei mocked Ling Han. Then he turned to one of the bodyguards.

"Finish him and dispose his body carefully."

"No, Mr Mu... It is not what we agree with." Ling Han shouted to Mu Li Zei who already had walked away to leave the place.

The bodyguards held Ling Han back and shut his mouth up.

.....

It had been five days since Yu Qi was staying at the Tang Family House in FINN City. Yu Qi already decided to stay in FINN City since she wanted to take the driving license. Because of that, Grandpa Tang returned to FINN City.

In the morning, Yu Qi went to the hospital to see the surgery being performed if they had any scheduled surgery at that time. Since she was the granddaughter of Grandpa Tang, she had been given permission to see the surgery.

In the afternoon, after lunch, she went to driving school to learn about driving the car. Well, it was not learning. She just recalled what she had learnt from her past life. To get the driving license, she needed to meet the required hours. So, she had to go to driving school. If not for that, she just needed to get the license, and it had done.

Yu Qi was sitting at the hospital cafe drinking some water. She just finished seeing the leg surgery. Some of the onlookers took a look at Yu Qi especially the men. Yu Qi made a blank expression. Finishing the water, she was about to leave the cafe. Someone collided in her from the opposite direction.

Yu Qi managed to stable herself. However, the other party did not. Yu Qi quickly pulled the other party's hand to avoid her to fall onto the ground.

"Are you alright?" Yu Qi asked the other party.

The other party still did not answer. She already stared blankly to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi used her hand to pat lightly the person's cheek.

Having her cheek been patted, the person realised that she was spacing out when seeing someone who was really beautiful in front of her.

"Oh, I'm sorry for colliding into you." The person clumsily apologized to Yu Qi.

"It is okay. Make sure to be careful next time." Yu Qi waved her hand and left the scene.

The person then stared blankly again at Yu Qi who had walked away from her. She really felt that woman was really as beautiful as an angel.

"Su Ke Ke, why are you spacing out here? Your break time will be over if you do ot hurry up." One of the nurses reminded Su Ke Ke.

Su Ke Ke quickly went to buy something to eat. She ate in fast speed since it was very late.

Yu Qi looked at her watch and realized that it was about time for her to leave for her driving license class.

"Little Sis." Someone called her.

She turned around and saw her brother, Tang Jin Wei who was walking towards her direction.

"Brother Jin Wei, what are you doing here?" Yu Qi asked.

"I have just finished my surgery and am about to leave. Do you want to go to driving school now?" Tang Jin Wei asked back.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

"Let me send you." Tang Jin Wei said.

"Okay. I get my free driver." Yu Qi smiled.

Usually, she would take a bus to go to driving school. The Tang Family allowed her to take the bus rides since it was in the city. Sometimes if her big brother Tang Han Lee spotted her at the time, he would send her.

"What surgery have you watched today?" Tang Jin Wei asked. He knew that his little sister entered the operation theatre to watch some live surgery for her study. He basically saluted his little sister who was very well, what was the word that he could use... Yeah hardworking in her study.

"Leg surgery. That person broke his leg in a motorcycle accident. The doctor basically inserts some kind of metal to support the leg." Yu Qi explained.

"You are really hardworking." Tang Jin Wei said.

"How about your surgery, Brother Jin Wei?" Yu Qi asked. She already wanted to know what kind of surgery Tang Jin Wei performed this morning.

"Partial colectomy. Ah~~~, I'm tired. It was slightly hard surgery since the position of his intestine is closer to the bladder. I need to be extra careful around that area." Tang Jin Wei commented while stretching his body.

Yu Qi remembered that surgery from what she had been reading in the book. A partial colectomy was removing part of the large intestine (colon). This may be done to treat cancer of the colon or inflammatory conditions such as ulcerative colitis or diverticulitis.

"I see. I wish I could watch it." Yu Qi said.

Someone was watching them interacting with each other.

Chapter 408 - 408: Not A Drug But A Slow Acting Poison

Su Ke Ke was watching the couple interacting with each other. They looked very close. 'Is she his girlfriend?' She thought to herself. Why were men always wanted to cheat? She really could not understand that.

Su Ke Ke was transferred to this Tang Hospital about four months ago. When she entered the hospital, she was assigned at the reception in the emergency department. When she started to work there, she often saw the handsome doctor who liked to flirt with other nurses.

Then, she got the information about the doctor. He was one of the grandsons of the person who owned this hospital. Due to his handsomeness, he always liked to flirt with other nurses. He always wanted to flirt with her but she had ignored him.

Now, when she saw the beautiful girl who had saved her earlier together with that kind of man, making her felt pity for that girl. That girl should never be together with him. She thought it was the first time that the girl came and looked for that playboy doctor. That girl might not know about the true behaviour of that playboy doctor.

Yu Qi and Tang Jin Wei did not know that someone misunderstood their relationship.

...

When Yu Qi returned back to Tang Family, she got a welcome hug from someone.

"My best friend, I miss you." The girl said while hugging Yu Qi.

"Yue, what are you doing here?" Yu Qi was surprised to see Feng Yue here.

"I came to visit you." Feng Yue smiled happily.

"How long have you been here? Why don't you call me? I can cancel my appointment for today." Yu Qi sighed.

"I just came two hours ago. Don't worry. I just have fun by having a conversation with your aunties. Anyway, I have a lot of time to spend with you since I have already decided to spend a night with you." Feng Yue grinned. She had already made the plan.

"I see. It's great then." Yu Qi smiled. She already missed Feng Yue and would like to spend time together with Feng Yue.

"I have heard that you are trying to get your driving license?" Feng Yue asked.

"That's right. I feel it is inconvenient for me not having a license." Yu Qi said.

"I think so too but I will try to take one in the next semester break." Feng Yue told her.

"So, who send you here?" Yu Qi asked.

"My chauffeur. Well, he is actually my father's chauffeur. My grandfather asked him to send me here." Feng Yue made an annoying face.

Yu Qu understood. "Well, then let's spend time together."

Feng Yue saw Aoi who was walking towards them.

"Oh, my. Aoi is growing up." Feng Yue bent down and lifted up Aoi. "He has become more chubby too." She commented after lifting up him.

"You know how much he eats." Yu Qi glanced to Aoi.

'Master, I am still growing up. That is why I'm eating a lot.' Aoi complained to his master through telepathy.

"But chubby is good. It feels very nice to hug him." Feng Yue hugged Aoi.

They talked a lot since it had been a long time since they had stayed together.

...

Fanghai Nation,

It had been a week since Mu Rong Xie stayed at the hospital. During her time staying at the hospital, she had been screaming in disgust due to the maggots in her wounds. The doctors were dumbfounded to see the maggots inside the wounds after they had cleaned them up.

It happened every day, so, they needed to clean up the maggots several times a day. Only a week later, the numbers of maggots decreased. The doctors felt relieved about it.

However, another problem had occurred. Since the maggots had been eating her flesh, the wounds had become deeper. They were black and very ugly to see. It was very difficult to make them heal as before.

Mu Rong Xie had not seen her wounds yet. Since she would already close her eyes whenever the doctors cleaned up her wounds. And also there were the some wounds on her face. If she looked at her face right now, she might have screamed in horror.

As for Grandpa Sang and his team, they were still unable to find the cause of Mu Rong Xie's wounds. Grandpa Sang had already investigated the drug that Mu Li Zei had gotten from Ling Han. Still, the drugs had not caused Mu Rong Xie's current condition.

Mu Rong Xie told that drug did not have any side effect was a lie. It indeed had side effects. However, the side effects could not be seen in the short term. Usually, some drugs we would show side effect within three or six months and according to the drugs consumption period.

But this drug was very interesting. The side effects of this drug would appear after a long time consummation like two or three years. Heart failure, brain failure, most likely all the organs would be not able to function, resulting in death. It was not a drug but a slow acting poison.

The person who had created this drug was very malicious. Grandpa Sang frowned when thinking about it. Who was such a cruel person inventing such deadly drug and how did it appear in his own hospital without him realising it?

According to Mu Li Zei, he told that Ling Han buying from someone. However, Ling Han never meets that person. All the buying process on the phone call and the money was handed with such simple way. That person would ask Ling Man to leave the money in various location and that person would go and collect it.

Chapter 409 - 409: Going to Antique Street.

The doctors who had cleaned up Mu Rong Xie's wounds reported to Grandpa Sang that the maggots completely had gone after a week. It made Grandpa Sang relieved. He still investigated the cause of this bizarre situation. Now they also needed to think on how to make sure that the wounds recovered back to normal.

Mu Rong Xie was very happy when she heard about the news that the maggots inside her wounds had completely gone. So, she wanted to unwrap the wounds.

Su Yu Qing and Mu Yian came to visit her. They were relieved when they heard the news. However, when the nurses opened the wrapping, Mu Rong Xie's eyes opened widely. She could not believe that her condition was very bad and it looked very ugly.

"Mum, my face... I'm disfigured." Mu Rong Xie cried.

"Don't worry, my dear. It will heal. You will be beautiful again." Su Yu Qing tried to calm her daughter although she was also worried when she saw Mu Rong Xie's condition.

...

"Before I forget, next week, Long Family will have a party." Feng Yue told Yu Qi.

"A party? For what?" Yu Qi asked.

They would be going out later to hang out.

"My dear, Great General Long would be retiring from the military." Feng Yue stated the reason. "And, the whole Long Family would be present." She added.

"I see." Yu Qi nodded.

"Actually this is the reason why I have come here. Grandpa asked me to inform you. Here is the invitation card. The whole Tang Family is invited." Feng Yue handed out the invitation card.

"I see. Thank you." Yu Qi took the invitation card.

"Yu Qi, you need to be careful that day. A lot of families would like to push their daughters towards Brother Hui. You need to defend him." Feng Yue gave a smile.

"It seems you would be going to enjoy the show." Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

"Yu Qi, please don't narrow your eyes like this. You seem to look like my Brother Hui." Feng Yue stepped back.

"Now you know how to be scared ." Yu Qi rolled her eyes.

Feng Yue grinned. "Yu Qi, I think you don't need to worry. Brother Hui would not look away from you."

"Sigh, let's go now." Yu Qi urged Feng Yue to go out now.

Aunt Ming Yue told them to use their family driver since they did not go outside for today. So, Yu Qi did as her aunt said. Yu Qi asked the driver to send them to the shopping mall.

"Young miss, you can call when you want to go back. I will wait around." The driver said.

"Okay. Thank you." Yu Qi nodded.

The two ladies entered the shopping mall. Since it was a weekday, the people were not so many around the shopping mall. They walked around to see if there was something that could catch their attention.

Yu Qi saw the signboard 'History'. It was a massage spa she had went last time together with her aunties. She suspected that Yung Ha Ren knew who her parents were. Her behaviour toward Yu Qi was very suspicious. She seemed to look at someone else whenever she looked at Yu Qi.

"Yu Qi... Yu Qi..." Feng Yue called several times.

Yu Qi realised that she dazed off. She turned to Feng Yue. "Sorry. I'm dazed off."

"Actually I want to buy something for grandpa as her retirement gift. But I don't think I will find something suitable here." Feng Yue sighed.

"I suggest we should go to an antique shop." Yu Qi suggested.

"Well, I don't know where we could find an antique shop." Feng Yue grinned.

"Probably we should ask someone." Yu Qi said. "Wait. Let me ask Uncle Guan whether he knows or not." Uncle Guan was that earlier driver.

"Oh, that's a good idea." Feng Yue agreed.

Yu Qi took out her phone and called Uncle Guan.

"Yes, young miss? Have you already finished?" Uncle Guan asked.

"No, actually I want to ask whether you know where can I find an antique shop?" Yu Qi asked politely.

"An antique shop? The antique street is a few blocks from the shopping mall where young miss is standing currently. " Uncle Guan answered.

"Then, can you send us there?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course, young miss and Miss Feng, you two can wait at the same place I have dropped you earlier." Uncle Guan said.

"Okay." Yu Qi ended the call.

"Let's go. Uncle Guan says the antique street is a few blocks from here. We are going there." Yu Qi pulled Feng Yue's hand.

"Okay." Feng Yue started to walk.

When they arrived, Uncle Guan was already waiting for them. They quickly entered the car.

"Uncle Guan, are a lot of antiques being sold there?" Feng Yue asked.

"I went there once. There are a lot of antique stores there. Even people sell their antiques down the street. That is why it has been called Antiques Street. However, not all antiques are genuine. After you buy an antique, you can go to the appraisal shop to know whether the antique is genuine or not." Uncle Guan explained as he understood about Antique Street.

"I see. It is like a gamble." Yu Qi nodded several times.

"Sigh, I'm really not good at selecting this kind of thing." Feng Yue sighed. She thought that she was not a lucky person. She was afraid that whatever she chose was a fake thing.

"Don't worry. I will help you with it." Yu Qi patted Feng Yue's back.

Chapter 410 - 410: The Dragon Cup

They arrived at Antique Street. Unlike that shopping mall, there were a lot of people here roaming around. However, most of them were elders.

"Wow, there are so many things being sold here." Feng Yue looked around.

"Let's walk and see whether we can find something worth. Does Grandpa Long like something in particular?" Yu Qi asked about Long Fei Yi's preference.

"Well, my grandpa likes the dragon animal." Feng Yue thought.

"I see. Let's go and watch around first." Yu Qi said.

The two of them were walking around. They looked at the stuff that was being sold in the down street stall.

'I feel something.' Bo Ya suddenly said something in Yu Qi's mind.

'Something? Like what?' Yu Qi asked.

'Something that from our space is here.' Bo Ya explained.

'Oh, I see. Where is it?' Yu Qi excited to see what kind of the antique from her space.

'Its direction is along the street.' Bo Ya informed her.

'Okay." Yu Qi nodded. She did not want to go straight to it now. Since Feng Yue seemed to look around for something.

Feng Yue stopped at one stall. Her eyes caught something. She bent down to take a closer look to the item. The item was a Chinese dragon cup. It looked like an English wine glass however the stand of the cup was an eastern dragon that stood proudly. The hand of the dragon seemed to hold something like a ball. It was made from something like iron but Yu Qi could not determine what was its material.

"Yu Qi, I like this." Feng Yue called Yu Qi and pointed to the dragon cup.

"I think it is beautiful too." Yu Qi nodded.

"Young girls, don't be fooled. That man is a liar. All of so-called the antiques that he sells are nothing but junk." The other old man that in the opposite stall suddenly spoke with them.

Feng Yue turned to Yu Qi when she heard that statement.

"Stupid Dong Old Man, just take care of your stall. You are not much better than me." The man in front of the Yu Qi shouted in anger.

"Can we touch this dragon cup for a moment?" Yu Qi asked the man.

The man turned to Yu Qi and smiled at the girl. "Of course, you can. Please."

Yu Qi signalled Feng Yue to take the dragon cup. Feng Yue took the dragon cup. It weighted more than Feng Yue expected. Its surface was smoother than she had expected too. She became more interested in the dragon cup.

The man smiled when he saw Feng Yue liked the dragon cup. This girl might buy this dragon cup. It was a while since he got the customer. So since he managed to get one, he wanted to exploit more money on the dragon cup.

The man did not expect that his expression had been observed by another girl. Yu Qi saw the greed on the man's face. She already guessed what was inside the man's mind. The man probably wanted to sell the dragon cup at a higher price than the usual price. Well, if he managed... Yu Qi sneered.

"Yu Qi, I like this dragon cup." Feng Yue told Yu Qi.

"Then you can buy it." Yu Qi nodded.

Turning to the man, Feng Yue asked. "How much is this?"

"50K RMB." The man said the price.

Feng Yue frowned. She did not have that much money. She sighed. Guessed she needed to give up on this dragon cup.

However, Yu Qi stepped forward. "Sir, are you sure it is 50K RMB?" Yu Qi showed a cold smile.

The man surprised when he faced Yu Qi once more. The aura that this girl had was very different than earlier. He clenched the fist. He must not be intimidated by a girl like her.

"Well, I can decrease the price to 30K RMB." The man decreased the price.

"Really? Are you sure?" Yu Qi could not believe this was the price.

"Miss, I can't lower the price more than this." The man did not want to lose.

"1K." Yu Qi stated the price that she wanted.

"Miss..." The man wanted to negotiate again.

"Yue, put the thing down. We are leaving." Yu Qi told Feng Yue and was about to leave.

Feng Yue followed Yu Qi's words and put down the dragon cup back. She might not be destined to buy the dragon cup for her grandpa. She walked away from the stall following Yu Qi.

"Oh my dear, don't leave first. Alright, I will sell it on 1K RMB." The man shouted.

It had been a long time since he sold something. He thought he could get 50K for today. But the girls decided not to buy it for anything, he felt the 1K RMB was more than enough. It was better than not getting anything.

The two girls stopped on their back. Feng Yue turned around.

"Really?" Feng Yue asked.

"Of course. It is a 1K RMB." The man displayed a pleasing smile to Yu Qi. He thought he must convince this girl to buy the dragon cup.

Yu Qi glanced to the man. Then she turned to Feng Yue and nodded.

Feng Yue took out the book cheque and wrote on the spot. She actually wanted to pay by credit card but she could not see anything like the swipe machine. She did not have the cash money on her. So she could just use the cheque.

Feng Yue was happy since she already selected the gift for her grandpa. The man felt very desperate. This girl obviously came from a rich family. If the other girl had not interfered, he might get more money today.

Other stall owners were very jealous when they saw that the man got 1K RMB with his junk. So, other stall owners fought for the two girls' attention. Who knew the girls might be interested in their things too?
