

INTELLIGENT 441

Chapter 441 - 441: How Are My Another Sister In Law?

"Well, I guess we have already cleared this misunderstanding, haven't we?" Yu Qi smiled to Su Ke Ke.

Su Ke Ke nodded shyly.

"Okay, when that stupid brother of mine wants to talk to you, please give him a chance, okay? He may be a genius in his work but rather pretty stupid when it comes to love." Yu Qi praised her brother at the same time and condemned her brother.

Su Ke Ke smiled when she listened to Yu Qi. She did not expect that Doctor Tang Jin Wei was close to his cousin and consulted his love problem with his cousin.

"Okay. I think I have to go now." Yu Qi looked at her watch. "Miss Su, thank you for giving your time to listen to me." Yu Qi bowed.

"No, no, no. It should be me to thank you because you have cleared this misunderstanding." Su Ke Ke waved her hands strongly.

"See you again." Yu Qi turned and left.

She already decided to go to Traditional Medicine Department. She wanted to see the doctor there and asked about her product's review. Actually, she had developed the scar cream which would make the scar disappear within one week. She had given the cream to the doctor there, last month ago.

She just wanted to know the people's reviews of the scar cream. She had already planned something with it.

The doctor named Kang Sun ran to greet Yu Qi as he saw the girl came into the Traditional Medicine Department. He was very excited to see this girl because her scar cream got so many attention from his patients.

At first, he did not have much expectation from the scar cream. He only followed her order since she was the granddaughter of Doctor Tang Jiang Man. But when he had tested the scar cream on himself, he was very surprised that his scar which he had gotten many years disappeared in one week after he had applied the scar cream.

After that, he began to promote the scar cream to the patients who came for his treatment.

"Miss Tang." Kang Sun greeted Yu Qi.

"Well from your reaction, I can guess that the scar cream has gotten a lot of attention." Yu Qi smiled.

"Yes, Miss Tang. It is very good. Some of my patients want scar cream for their families." Kang Sun said.

"Well, for the time being, I don't have the stock. I will inform you later." Yu Qi looked around.

"Yes." Kang Sun nodded.

Yu Qi planned to explore another sector for the business. Cosmetic products based on Chinese treatment and herbs. She already had the products but she needed to manpower and facilities to make them to the market. But she could not produce hundreds of products by herself.

Yu Qi spent some time at that department. Then she received a call from Tang Han Lee. 'Big Brother Han Lee's call.' She quickly picked up the call.

Tang Han Lee: "Little Sis, where are you?"

Yu Qi: "Wait. I'm at the Traditional Medicine Department. Where are you?"

Tang Han Lee: "At the parking. In front of the main entrance."

Yu Qi: "Okay. I will be there."

Yu Qi left the department after saying something to Kang Sun and the nurse there. She went to the parking as mentioned by Tang Han Lee. She knew which car was Tang Han Lee's.

She entered the passenger's seat.

"Sorry for making you wait." Yu Qi said.

"It's nothing. Let's go for lunch."

Tang Han Lee started the car and went to a famous restaurant which would need a booking before coming.

"Do you already plan to eat here today?" Yu Qi asked.

"No." Tang Han Lee shook his head.

"But, this restaurant needs its customers to book for their table first before coming here." Yu Qi told him.

"You don't have to worry about it." Tang Han Lee signalled Yu Qi to come out from the car.

Yu Qi followed her brother.

The waiter who guarded the restaurant's main entrance stopped them.

"May I get your name, sir?" The waiter asked politely.

"Tang Han Lee."

Hearing that name, the waiter became more polite. He wanted to flatter Tang Han Lee almost.

"Welcome to our humble restaurant, Mr Tang. We have been expecting you." The waiter smiled.

Yu Qi was surprised when she heard the waiter. It seemed Tang Han Lee had some reputation here.

The waiter asked another waiter to lead them to the private room. The waiter gave the menu book for them to choose their food. They made their choice.

"Big Brother Han Lee, do you know the owner?" Yu Qi asked Tang Han Lee after they sat down.

"Yeah. He is one of my patients. He has told me that I can come to eat here whenever I want to." Tang Han Lee explained.

"You are really the best." Yu Qi gave a thumb up to Tang Han Lee.

Not long after that, the waiter came and delivered the food.

"How did your talk go with Jin Wei's girl?" Tang Han Lee asked.

"It went well. We might get sister in law soon." Yu Qi said happily. "How about you, Big Brother Han Lee?"

Yu Qi remembered that Tang Han Lee had a thing with her friend, Ding Na An.

Tang Han Lee coughed several times. Yu Qi handed a glass of water to Tang Han Lee.

"Are you okay, Big Brother Han Lee?" Yu Qi patted his back.

"I'm okay." Tang Han Lee seemed to calm back.

"So, how is my other sister in law? Are you going steady?" Yu Qi grinned. She did not want to drop the topic so easily.

Chapter 442 - 442: His Second Sister Was Stupid Unlike His First Sister

"We are fine." Tang Han Lee said in a simple way.

Yu Qi chuckled. Her Big Brother seemed to be shy when talking about his love life. Well, if her Big Brother did not want to talk about it, she would not talk about it anymore.

"Okay. Okay. Let's not talk about it anymore." Yu Qi said while smiling.

Tang Han Lee nodded. He easily changed the topic of the conversation with Yu Qi.

"How is your study going?" Tang Han Lee asked.

"It is going very well." Yu Qi answered. "For the next semester, we will go for a volunteer project."

"Volunteer? Where" Tang Han Lee knew that the university would send some students who would be volunteering at various place. In his case, he went to a village which had about 70% of the children who were malnourished.

He felt very bad when the first time he visited the village. Fortunately, after he went there, there were some government group and the non-government group came to the village and improved the lifestyle of the villagers there.

"Well, I don't know yet. The place will be announced when the semester break ends." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, I heard what happened at the Long's Party." Tang Han Lee mentioned the matter on that day. Then he continued. "Thank goodness. Nothing happened to you."

"I will be careful in the future." Yu Qi smiled.

...

"Husband, can you please beg?mercy for our children from Uncle Fei Yi." Jang Su Ren cried again when she came home from the hospital.

It had already been two weeks since her children, Long Cui Lang and Long Hua Hong were admitted to the hospital under the police's observation. It was very hard to see her own children when there were a lot of procedures needed to follow.

They were afraid that under Jang Su Ren's help, Long Cui Lang and Long Hua Hong would manage to escape. They were only here because of their injuries. Otherwise, they would be straight to jail, waiting for a court's trial.

"Do you think Uncle Fei Yi will listen to me?" Long Chua loosened his necktie.

"You are his nephew." Jang Su Ren replied.

"I know but I don't think he will listen to me. Moreover, this case is completely under Long Hui's surveillance." Long Chua pinched his area between his brows.

"But..." Jang Su Ren wanted to retort back but Long Chua lost his patience.

"Can you shut up? Our company has some problems. I have to take care of them. Now, I'm tired and want to rest. Can you let me off?" Long Chua shouted at his wife. After that, he left his wife who blinked foolishly at him.

Seeing her husband left her alone, she could not help to cry. She just wanted her children to be free from the police. When she had last visited her daughter, she could see his daughter lost her weight. Which mother would not get sad when seeing his daughter like that? This was all that bitch's fault.

She swore that she would make sure that the bitch would pay for this.

...

At Fanghai Nation,

"Why have my wounds still not recovered?" Mu Rong Xie shouted at the doctor who came to her room to check her up.

It was one month since the incident had happened. At first, she was very itchy and scratched all over her body including her face. Then the disgusting thing happened. The maggots were inside her wounds, eating her flesh. She was suffering almost every day when she was looking at the maggots when the doctors came to clean her wounds.

The maggots finally disappeared. But another problem had occurred. Her body's condition was very horrible. The flesh which had been eaten by those maggots had made some kind of holes on her body. Some of them were very deep that they could even see the bone.

It was the same thing on her face. She really could not accept her beautiful face had become like this. She almost screamed every time as she looked at the mirror. Her mother said that she needed to be patient. The wound would be better soon.

Because her mother said it every time, she began to feel fed up. Her family had already invited various doctors in the country. But her wounds still looked like that.

"Rong Xie, you should stop screaming. My ears are hurt hearing after your scream." Mu Kuang He closed his ears when he entered the ward with Su Yu Qing.

"Shut up." Mu Rong Xie glared sharply to Mu Kuang He.

Mu Kuang He did not feel scared of his second sister. From his childhood, he always thought that his second sister was stupid unlike his first sister, Mu Yian. His first sister was a smart person. And the reason why he liked her the most because his first sister always helped him whenever he was in trouble, unlike his second sister.

Mu Kuang He also heard about the drug. He could not believe that his second sister would be so stupid to touch that kind of things. And she was doing it, herself, and not because someone had forced her. Even he was naughty and liked to play around, but he had made the decision not to touch that thing. So, he did not feel pity for his second sister.

"Rong Xie, I heard that Doctor Sang will invite someone to take a look at you. He is a very skilled doctor. He probably can heal you." Su Yu Qing put the thermos which contained chicken soup in it.

"Mum, you always say that." Mu Rong Xie said in a bad mood.

Chapter 443 - 443: Little Sis, She Agrees

"Sis Rong Xie, you can not blame mum for that. Who told you to use the unknown drug? You should blame for your own stupidity." My Kuang He sneered.

"Shut up." Mu Rong Xie snapped at Mu Kuang He.

"Enough, Kuang He. Your sister is sick." Su Yu Qing ended the argument.

Mu Kuang He rolled his eyes. His mother was always like this. She would always like to favour his second sister. Even though his second sister was the one at fault. He thought while in the hospital, his second sister should get her brain to check as well.

"Your father worked so hard to find the doctor for you. It should be one that can help you." Su Yu Qing said to her daughter.

"Right now, you need to calm down and rest. Don't think anything else." Su Yu Qing added more.

Listening to the comfort words from her mother, Mu Rong Xie calmed down a little bit. She was already bored staying in this ward. Even though this was not a normal ward, but the VIP ward, still the boredom was there.

Su Yu Qing served the chicken soup to her daughter. Mu Rong Xie was a little bit hungry so, ate the soup.

.....

"Little Sis, thank you." Tang Jin Wei just came back from the work. Seeing his little sister in the garden, he went to her happily.

He was very happy. All of his emotions showed on his face. He grabbed Yu Qi and hugged her.

"Little Sis, thank you very very very much. You are my best little sister." Tang Jin Wei said it once again.

"First, let me go." Yu Qi had breathing difficulties because Tang Jin Wei had hugged her very strongly.

Sensing it, Tang Jin Wei let her go.

"I assume, it is a success then." Yu Qi said.

"Yes. Yes. She has agreed to be my girlfriend. I'm so happy." Tang Jin Wei said excitedly.

Yu Qi chuckled. Her Brother Jin Wei's reaction was very funny. She wondered about something. Was Long Hui's reaction similar to Tang Jin Wei's reaction when she had agreed to become his girlfriend. Unfortunately, she would never know about that.

"She has agreed to be mine. I'm so happy." Tang Jin Wei already entered the house with his grinning face leaving Yu Qi alone.

Yu Qi chuckled seeing Tang Jin Wei like this. He was like a teenager who fell in love for the first time. Even though Tang Jin Wei liked to flirt with women but this was the first time he was feeling something like this. She hoped that Tang Jin Wei's relationship would be last forever.

....

Yu Qi returned to Shiwa Town after spending four days at the Tang Main House. Before she returned to Shiwa Town, she managed to discuss with Su Yu Hi about her business proposal. She told him that she would like to get involved in the skincare business.

The skincare business right now was still not so popular at this current time. Women wanted to look beautiful, so they used the products containing dangerous ingredients which would affect their health for a long time term.

The awareness about this was still low. So, Yu Qi decided to introduce her skincare which would not only make the women look more beautiful but at the same time, it did not affect their health.

Yu Qi asked Su Yu Hi to find the company which already existed in the skincare business world and did not do well. She would like to buy their shares and made the company under her name.

Su Yu Hi was also interested in that business proposal. He knew that Yu Qi would be interested in those areas. So, he had already prepared for it. He already made his own research about the skincare business.

There were a few companies involved in the skincare business. Some of them went pretty well but some of them were not. He thought Yu Qi would like to study about them. He never thought that Yu Qi wanted to acquire the company which did not do well.

But, Su Yu Hi still gave all the information that he had collected to Yu Qi. He told Yu Qi that she could review the information and select the company that she wanted. He would meet the owner of the company and negotiate with them.

Yu Qi was happy with Su Yu Hi since he understood her mindset in business. Yu Qi already planned the skincare products that she wanted to sell first. Her products, of course, would be made from the herbs.

And her greenhouse would be the main supplier for the herbs as well as the greenhouse at Fanghai Nation.

Yu Qi stayed in the house as she went through the information that Su Yu Hi had given to her. Well, she was still talking to Grandpa Tang about the herbs.

After two days of stay home, Yu Qi decided to go to her ryokan. So, after morning jog and breakfast, she walked to her ryokan. Aoi was tagging along.

As she walked, a car stopped in front of her and blocking her way. She frowned. Until she saw the familiar face stepped out from the car.

'Master, it is your lover.' Aoi looked up to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi already ignored Aoi as her eyes laid at Long Hui. She instantly smiled as Long Hui walked, approaching her.

"Qi Qi, I really miss you so much." Long Hui pulled Yu Qi into his hug.

Chapter 444 - 444: Truly A Handsome Man

Yu Qi could not help but smile happily at her Long Hui. Although she had not seen Long Hui for just about three weeks. She missed Long Hui very much.

They were looking at each other eyes. Confirming the person that they wanted to meet was not just an imagination.

They just looked at other each. Not saying nothing after that. Aoi barked once. He just knew that he had to call his master because his master had already forgotten where they were right now after meeting this man.

Aoi's barking made them realized that they were looking at each other. Yu Qi became embarrassed. Yu Qi coughed several times to get rid of the feeling.

Long Hui chuckled when seeing his beloved had acted like that. She was still a shy girl even though they had already known each other for almost 3 years.

"Where are you going?" Long Hui asked. He guessed. "Ryokan?"

"Yeah. I just want to do some spot checking since I'm in the town." Yu Qi answered confirming Long Hui's guess.

"Should we go together?" Long Hui displayed a gentleman manner by offering his hand to Yu Qi.

Seeing Long Hui's stretched out his hand, Yu Qi did not hesitate to place her hand in his hand. They walked together with their hands in hands. They were holding each other's hands.

"What about your car?" Yu Qi glanced at the car which was parked at the side of the road.

"Don't worry about it. It has a military brand on his body. People would not be stupid enough to steal from the soldiers." Long Hui said in a proud tone.

"Oh, I see." Yu Qi chuckled.

So, they walked to the Saisei Ryokan. Oh, Aoi was still silently following his master from behind. He was not stupid enough to disturb his master's time with that man. He knew that man did not like him to compete for his master's time.

They arrived at the ryokan. To avoid the other customers, Yu Qi and Long Hui entered the back door which was used only by the staff. When they entered using that door, someone shouted at them. Well, exactly, the shout was meant for Aoi.

"Oh, Aoi. You come. Let me hug you." Ming Xuebai quickly bent down to pick up Aoi.

However, Aoi was faster to run away from her.

'Master, I will go around to avoid this woman. If you want to return back, just call me via telepathy.' Aoi ran away and quickly disappeared from their sights.

Ming Xuebai was very disappointed when she saw that Aoi had already gone.

"Miss Yu Qi." Only then Ming Xuebai greeted Yu Qi.

"What are you doing here?" Yu Qi asked her.

"I have just finished doing the laundry," Aoi answered.

Then she sneaked a peek at the man who was just standing quietly beside Yu Qi. She was shocked to see such a handsome man.

Seeing Ming Xuebai's sight wandered to Long Hui, Yu Qi introduced Long Hui to Ming Xuebai.

"He is Long Hui, well, my boyfriend." Yu Qi felt a little bit shy when introducing Long Hui in such a way like that.

"Oh." Ming Xuebai was slightly disappointed.

She was disappointed not because the handsome Long Hui already had a girlfriend but she was disappointed because Yu Qi already had a boyfriend. She knew that her brother liked Yu Qi. She sighed. 'Brother, you need to find another woman.'

Yu Qi seemed to love her boyfriend very much. On another hand, Ming Xuebai could assume that this handsome man in front of her doted Yu Qi so much. He did not look at anything other than his girlfriend, not even once.

Sensing she was dazed off, she snapped back. "Miss Yu Qi, I will return to my post. Bye." Ming Xuebai walked away from them.

"She is my newest employee whom I have personally hired. Her brother is also one of them. Actually, I wanted to hook her brother into my company but she is there too. So, I just took her and make her work here." Yu Qi explained.

But Long Hui did not listen to the rest of them. He was focusing on Ming Xuebai's brother. He could feel that Yu Qi was slightly excited when mentioning about Ming Xuebai's brother. Was he just imagining?

Long Hui did not respond even Yu Qi asked him. Yu Qi looked at his face. Long Hui was frowning. Why? Then she thought about something. Her eyes were shining.

"Are you jealous or something?" Yu Qi asked teasingly to Long Hui.

Long Hui narrowed his eyes. He leaned over to Yu Qi's right ear.

"My woman is talking happily about another man. What should I do about it?" Long Hui whispered in Yu Qi's ear. "Should I punish you?" Long Hui licked Yu Qi's ear.

Yu Qi shivered when Long Hui licked her ear. She did not shiver due to fear but she felt her body responded to Long Hui very well. Even holding hands with him making her excited for some reason.

However, she did not want Long Hui to know about it. "How could I look for someone else since I already have you in my mind?" She smiled seductively at Long Hui.

Long Hui smiled. "I know my beloved Qi Qi would never think about another man since I am already this handsome." Long Hui praised his look narcissistically.

Yu Qi wanted to retort but she could not find any words since it was the truth. Her Long Hui was truly a handsome man.

Chapter 445 - 445: Tell Qi Qi

Chui Mei Fung stumbled upon Yu Qi and her boyfriend when she went to the back door. She did know that her boss was coming today. And they were flirting each other.

Yu Qi realized there was someone around them and she looked around. She saw Chui Mei Fung who stood not far from them with an awkward expression on her face.

Yu Qi quickly stepped away from Long Hui's range. Long Hui saw this and frowned. Yu Qi ignored that and greeted Chui Mei Fung.

"Morning, Sister Mei Fung." Yu Qi said.

"Good morning, Miss Yu Qi." Chui Mei Fung grinned to Yu Qi.

"Just do your own work. I just want to look around." Yu Qi said.

"Yes, yes... I will do that." Chui Mei Fung nodded while grinning.

Then Chui Mei Fung left them alone. Seeing Chui Mei Fung left, Long Hui stepped closer to Yu Qi and pulled her close to him. While doing that, he maintained his blank expression. Yu Qi chuckled when seeing that.

"Let's go around." Yu Qi did not mind being close to Long Hui as she told that.

So, they walked around. The first place that Yu Qi went to was the kitchen. Right now, the kitchen staff was working on today's lunch.

The staff saw Yu Qi and an unknown man entered the kitchen. The head of the chefs came and greeted Yu Qi. He knew that this young girl was their boss.

"Just do your own work. I just come and want to make some inspection." Yu Qi said.

"Okay, Miss Yu Qi." The head of the chefs nodded and went back to his work.

Yu Qi went to see the ingredients that they had used. The seafood looked very fresh. Yu Qi nodded satisfyingly. Because Shiwa Town was far away from the sea, Yu Qi made a deal with a seafood supplier that they would send their fresh seafood every day to Saisei Ryokan to keep the freshness.

While doing so, the food would taste good since they used fresh ingredients. As for the vegetables, she did not have to worry about it. It came from her greenhouse. She knew about that.

Yu Qi and Long Hui left the kitchen. When they left, the kitchen staff took a relieved breath. They were relieved that their boss did not find any mistake with their work.

Yu Qi and Long Hui walked around the ryokan. The empty rooms, the laundry room, all of them, she went to take a look. Overall, she was satisfied with what she had seen. Meaning the quality that she wanted for this ryokan was good.

They walked until Yu Qi realized that they were in front of the onsen. Seeing this place, it brought back the embarrassing yet exciting memories to Yu Qi. Her face turned red. She sneaked a peek at Long Hui. At the same time, Long Hui also looked at his beloved Qi Qi with a smiling face.

Yu Qi turned away quickly. She knew Long Hui might also remember what had happened inside the onsen. She sprinted away without waiting for Long Hui.

Long Hui chuckled when seeing her cute and embarrassing self. He knew that she ran away because she was embarrassed when remembering the things that they had done in the onsen. Long Hui quickly followed his beloved Qi Qi.

Yu Qi stepped in the garden. The scene of wisteria flowers calmed her down. Still, her ryokan's garden was indeed beautiful. Chui Mei Fung told her that many of their customers had praised the beautifulness of this garden, especially, the wisteria flowers which hung over the roof.

"It is still beautiful." Long Hui commented.

"Of course, this is my work after all." Yu Qi felt proud when hearing her Long Hui praised them.

They sat at the table and enjoyed the scene.

"Qi Qi." Long Hui called Yu Qi.

"Hum...?" Yu Qi was enjoying the breeze. It felt very good.

"I'm sorry about the thing which has happened to my old m... I mean my grandfather's party." Long Hui said so sudden that Yu Qi could not react in time.

"You know?" Yu Qi managed to ask that.

"Of course. I have my ways to know what has happened at that party." Long Hui said. "I already made them suffer for what they have done to you."

"Oh, really? Can I know about it?" Yu Qi's eyes flashed an evil look for a second.

"You really want to know?" Long Hui asked. He hesitated to tell her since he did not want her to be scared of him.

"Just tell me. I don't mind." Yu Qi smiled.

"Both of them will be going on a trial." Long Hui began to tell her.

"A trial?" Yu Qi pretends not to understand.

"For the past few years, they have committed several crimes."

"What were their crimes?" Yu Qi kept pretending that she did not believe that those siblings would commit other crimes. Were they playing with the drugs? Or selling them?

"Raping countless women." Long Hui answered.

"What?" Yu Qi did not realize that she had almost screamed when she heard Long Hui told her about their crimes.

Yu Qi made a look of being in deep thought that she was the only victim who had almost fallen into their hands. If not for her body that did not react for those things and her amazing sense of smell, she might not be able to escape.

"The younger sister used to drug the women and send them to her brother. After that, they had threatened the women saying they had the videos about them being r.a.p.ed by him. If she reported to the police or told someone about that, they would show the videos to others. That sibling also that the police was their ally" Long Hui humped.

Yu Qi's face turned to cold look. She showed that she had never thought that siblings would be so evil. The women, they must be feeling scared about what happened and could not do anything to that sibling.

"I found those women and made them reported that sibling committed the r.a.p.e crime. At first, they did not want to step forward afraid that the video about them would be shown to others. However, after convincing them there were no such things and explained that we are from the military, they agree to do so. That pair of siblings also did something else. Such as bullying someone, buying the drugs and this evidence lead them to a trial." Long Hui explained.

"Right now, both of them are in the hospital." Long Hui added.

"Both of them? I have only beaten the man." Yu Qi asked.

"That woman has jumped from the room to escape from the police when the police wanted to take her to the police station." Long Hui said.

"Oh, I see." Yu Qi laughed.

Chapter 446 - 446: Slap

"As for their parents...." Long Hui wanted to continue but Yu Qi stopped him.

"Let me guess. Their parents do not do anything especially their father. He does not want to involve in this because he is afraid that this may affect their business. As for their mother, she wants to help their children but she does not have enough power to make the authorities listen to her words." Yu Qi made a guess. While looking at Long Hui, she asked. "Am I right?"

Long Hui was stunned. It was exactly what she had said. "Yeah. How do you know?"

"Well, I just make an assumption after observing their parents' attitude when my incident between them has happened. During that time, their mother has protected Long Hua Hong very tightly. While their father has just kept his mouth shut." Yu Qi smiled.

"I see. My beloved Qi Qi is a smart person." Long Hui praised his beloved Qi Qi.

"They will be punished fairly according to the law. With enough evidence and witnesses, it would not be so easy to get out of this." Long Hui sneered. "That is the payment for trying to touch you."

"Thank you." Yu Qi thanked Long Hui. He was doing that because of her. Of course, she was thankful.

Yu Qi was currently in the plane flying towards Fanghai Nation. Her grandfather was sitting beside her in the first-class cabin.

One day before the flight...

"You want to go to Fanghai Nation? For what?" Yu Qi was shocked when hearing her grandfather suddenly wanted to go to Fanghai Nation. It must be something.

"Actually, you know, my friend, Sang Wan Yi called me to go there. There is something that he wants me to take a look at." Grandpa Tang explained.

"Take a look?" Yu Qi confused.

"Yeah. Probably some new virus perhaps." Grandpa Tang nodded.

"Okay. But I'm going too." Yu Qi made the decision.

"Fine. Actually, I also want you to come with me. You can learn about this too." Grandpa Tang said.

Because of that conversation, they were in the flight now. Grandpa Tang seemed in a deep sleep. Yu Qi did not want to wake up her grandfather. So, she moved to another seat where there was no passenger. She opened her laptop and read some emails. Almost all her emails had come from Su Yu Hi, Song Tao, and Chui Mei Fung. Those were basically the reports about her businesses.

She was reading some of the reports until she was so tired. She closed the laptop and moved back to her original seat. She closed her eyes taking some rest.

"Yu Qi... Yu Qi..."

She heard someone calling her name. She opened her eyes and saw an unfamiliar place. Suddenly she remembered that she was in the flight going to Fanghai Nation together with her grandfather.

"You are awake." Grandpa Tang said. He was the one who was calling Yu Qi's name just now.

"Have we landed already?" Yu Qi asked.

"Not yet. But we are about to land." Grandpa Tang answered.

"I see." Yu Qi adjusted her position.

Then they could feel that the flight currently landed on the ground safely. It was morning at Fanghai Nation.

"Let's go to our hotel first. I will inform Wan Yi about our arrive later." Grandpa Tang said.

So, they went to the hotel to refresh themselves and breakfast. After breakfast, someone from Grandpa Sang's side came and invited them to go to the Sang Hospital.

Grandpa Sang greeted them after meeting them in his office.

"Oh, you are here too, Yu Qi." Grandpa Sang seemed to be surprised to see Yu Qi here.

He did not expect that Yu Qi was going to come here too. He had forgotten that this girl was Tang Jiang Man's adopted granddaughter. And now he was about to bring her to see her real family. He looked at Yu Qi. He sighed. 'Well, they can not know this girl is a member of their family unless that old man wants to tell them.'

"What is the thing that you wanted to show to me?" Grandpa Tang did not wait but got straight to the point.

Grandpa Sang gave a laugh. "You really are an impatient person. Come. Follow me."

They walked to a VIP ward. Grandpa Sang knocked on the door. When he received the answer from the person inside, only then Grandpa Sang opened the door and entered. Grandpa Sang invited Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang to enter the room. Grandpa Tang entered but Yu Qi did not.

Yu Qi excused herself to go to the toilet first. She would come back later. Grandpa Tang nodded.

In the room, Grandpa Tang saw a man with three women. One of the women sat on the patient bed with a pretty bad wound on her face.

"Mr Mu Li Zei, this is a famous doctor, Doctor Tang Jiang Man. I have invited him to take a look at your daughter." Grandpa Sang introduced Grandpa Tang to Mu Li Zei.

"Nice to meet you, Doctor Tang. I have so much about you." Mu Li Zei greeted Grandpa Tang.

Grandpa Tang only nodded. Turned to Grandpa Sang, he said. "I bet you have called me here to take a look at this girl right?" Grandpa Tang pointed to Mu Rong Xie who was laying on the bed.

"Yeah. I have already used various method to heal the wounds But still..." Grandpa Sang sighed.

"I can take a look but I can not promise that I can heal them as well." Grandpa Tang said.

"Just take a look first." Grandpa Sang nodded.

Grandpa Tang approached Mu Rong Xie. Mu Rong Xie just ignored Grandpa Tang. She just let the old man take a look at her wounds. Grandpa Tang frowned. He never saw something like those wounds.

"Tell me about these wounds first." Grandpa Tang turned and asked Grandpa Sang.

Grandpa Sang nodded and he began to tell Grandpa Tang. "It started when she scratched her whole body. She said that she felt itchy and she seemed did not realize that she had scratched herself. Then the thing started to get weird. Her wounds had maggots in it."

"Maggots? How could those things appear inside her wounds?" Grandpa Tang was feeling disgusting.

"That... I actually did not know how it has happened. After cleaning and throwing those maggots, they actually returned back on the next day when we opened to clean the wound. I was pretty sure that we threw all of the maggots before wrapping the wound." Grandpa Sang sighed.

"After three days, the maggots did not return back. But the maggot already eats her flesh. And the wounds did not show any kind of healing." Grandpa Sang continued.

"Do you know why she started to catch this in the first place?" Grandpa Tang asked.

"Well, it was probably..."

Grandpa Sang did not manage to answer that yet, and Su Yu Qing shouted.

"What? If you can't heal my daughter. Just say so. You useless old man." Su Yu Qing shouted.

PANG!

Su Yu Qing felt her face was burning due to the slap. She did not manage to dodge the person who had slapped her. It happened too fast.

Chapter 447 - 447: He Knew That Face

Everyone looked at the girl who had slapped Su Yu Qing just now. The girl seemed to stand proudly even after she had slapped someone.

"Who the heck are you? How dare you slap me?" Su Yu Qing roared at the girl. She did not know this girl. Why had she come into this ward and brazenly slapped her?

"Your mouth should be washed since it stinks." Yu Qi snorted.

"You...!" Su Yu Qing pointed her finger at Yu Qi.

"It's you, bitch. Why are you here? How dare you slap my mum?" Mu Rong Xie stood up and shouted at Yu Qi.

Mu Yian also recognised the girl who had slapped her mother. What was she doing here?

"Why have I slapped her?" Yu Qi glared at Su Yu Qing. "How dare she insult my grandfather? Do you expect me to remain silent when someone insults my grandfather?"

Mu Rong Xie did not expect that this girl was the granddaughter of the famous doctor. She snorted. 'What if he is a famous doctor? He did not even know how to cure me. Useless doctor.'

"What? What my mother has said is the truth. He can't cure me either." Mu Rong Xie snorted.

"Oh, then. There is no need for me to be here anymore." Grandpa Tang smirked. He did not want to treat someone that looked down on his skill. Not like he was the one that needed help. "Let's go, Yu Qi."

The pair of grandfather and granddaughter left the room leaving the stunned Grandpa Sang. He did not expect that Su Yu Qing behaved like this. Was she stupid or what?

"Mrs Mu, you actually don't want your daughter to get better, do you?" Grandpa Sang asked while grinding his teeth.

"Why are you saying like that, Doctor Sang?" Su Yu Qing frowned.

"He is probably the only one who can cure your daughter." Grandpa Sang said. He continued, "He is an expert in traditional medicine. Since your daughter can not be cured by modern techniques, I want to try the traditional one. But I think right now you can forget about it."

"But Doctor Sang, you just tried to tell that my daughter had been using drugs to that doctor. It was not necessary to tell him." Su Yu Qing rebuked.

"To find the cure, all information is needed." Grandpa Sang responded in angry. "Since it becomes like this, you can let your daughter live her life like this."

"No!!!" Mu Rong Xie shouted. "I want to get better."

"Then you should try to convince that useless old man at whom your mother has shouted just now." Grandpa Sang left the ward after saying the sentence.

"Mum..." Mu Rong Xie called her mother.

"Don't worry, father and I will do something." Su Yu Qing calmed her daughter.

Mu Yian sneered. Her mother acted recklessly. She looked at her father. It seemed that her father was thinking about something else.

Mu Li Zei did not say anything. He was busy thinking about something. That something was Yu Qi. When Yu Qi entered the ward and slapped his wife, he was stunned. He knew that face. The face that had made his mother sad over the past many years

When he grew up, he always saw his mother crying alone in her room. When he became a teenager, he started to ask his mother about it. Her mother told him that his father loved someone else. He became angry. At that time, he did not want his father to leave his family alone. Not soon after that, his mother told that the woman had already died. But his father did not forget her. He never loved his mother because of that woman.

His mother showed him one picture of that woman. Since she was the source of the unhappiness of his mother, he remembered that woman's face vividly.

Now that face had appeared in front of him again and more precisely alive. That woman should have died for a long time ago. But the face which had appeared in front of him right now was 100% copy of that woman. Was it just a coincidence? Or that girl had a relationship with that woman? Or that girl was the product of his half brother? He needed to investigate it.

Mu Li Zei wanted to leave the room. Seeing this, Su Yu Qing called her husband.

"Li Zei, where do you want to go?" Su Yu Qing asked.

"I have something to do." Mu Li Zei answered and left without waiting for Su Yu Qing to stop him again.

"Mum, Mum, I don't want to stay like this for the rest of my life." Mu Rong Xie cried.

"Then, why did you fight with that girl earlier?" Mu Yian snorted. She really did not understand her mother and sister. Why were they so stupid? They should have let the doctor check her first. Instead of bickering with the doctor and his granddaughter.

As for the girl, Mu Yian did not expect that she had such an identity. No wonder, that girl did not easily bow to them during the incident at the restaurant last time.

Su Yu Qing made a terrible expression. "What should I do?" She looked at Mu Yian.

"Mum, you should go and look at the earlier doctor." Mu Yian suggested. Well, that only if the doctor agreed to heal her after all of this.

"But what if he doesn't want to heal your sister?" Su Yu Qing asked.

"Then we should find another doctor." Mu Yian said.

"Okay. I will go and ask Doctor Sang about this." Su Yu Qing went out.

"Sister Yian, what if my face could not be healed?" Mu Rong Xie asked while crying.

"Stop crying. It might worsen your wound on your face." Mu Yian advised her sister.

Actually, she disliked her sister's character. She was arrogant, no matter where she was. She also an idiot. Earlier, she should let the doctor diagnose her first, even after their mother insulted the doctor. She should assess the situation for her own good. But she was very stupid to add the insult and made the situation worse.

"I have work to do at the office. You just should wait for mum to come back." Mu Yian left the ward.

Chapter 448 - 448: Who Is That Idiot?

"My dear granddaughter, you are very domineering earlier." Grandpa Tang was very happy when his lovely granddaughter had slapped that woman.

"She was daring to insult you. She needed to be taught some lesson into her head." Yu Qi was very angry. When she was about to step into the room, she heard the insult that Su Yu Qing has thrown at her grandfather.

She already had enmity with that woman's family. So, she snapped out.

"Humph... She has already called me useless. So, I will not treat her daughter even if that Wan Yi asks me. She can find another doctor." Grandpa Tang nodded. If the patient rejected his treatment, it would not be his loss.

"Grandfather, since we are here, let's go and meet Grandpa Su." Yu Qi suggested.

Since she was here at Fanghai Nation, she wanted to see the progress of the construction of the greenhouse here.

"You want to buy some seeds, don't you?" Grandpa Tang thought his granddaughter wanted to buy some seeds so that she could plant them at their country.

"No. Actually, I have some business here with Grandpa Su. I want to build a greenhouse here. Like my greenhouse at our Shiwa Town." Yu Qi grinned and exposed her plan.

"Greenhouse?" Grandpa Tang was dumbfounded.

"Yeah. Some of the herbs could not be planted outside Fanghai Nation but they are highly demanded. So, I want to build a greenhouse for those herbs to plant them and once they are matured, they will be exported to other countries which has a need or demands for those herbs." Yu Qi explained her plan to Grandpa Tang.

Grandpa Tang was speechless. He did not expect that his granddaughter was not only a genius in the medicine but as well in the business sector.

"You are really something, do you..." Grandpa Tang praised his granddaughter.

So, the two of them went to see Grandpa Su. Grandpa Su was currently at the construction site. He supervised everything.

When he heard that his old friend had come, he welcomed him happily. He did not expect to see him with his granddaughter.

"Jiang Man." Grandpa Su greeted Grandpa Tang.

"Grandpa Su, how are you?" Yu Qi greeted Grandpa Su.

"Much better than the previous meeting. I'm excited to see the grand opening of the greenhouse." Grandpa Su laughed.

"How is work progressing?" Yu Qi inquired.

"In the proper schedule." Grandpa Su answered.

"It's good then." Yu Qi smiled.

"But why do you guys come here?" Grandpa Su turned to Grandpa Tang.

"Wan Yi asked me to take a look at one of his patients. But that patient refused to be treated by me, so I left." Grandpa Tang felt angry when he refreshed his memory back to that time.

"Huh? Who is that idiot?" Grandpa Su felt funny when hearing this topic.

A famous doctor like Tang Jiang Man had been refused by a patient. The doctor community would like to know that patient.

"I don't know. Why should I know her?" Grandpa Tang rolled his eyes.

"It's a girl from Mu Family." Yu Qi answered.

The two grandpas turned to Yu Qi.

"How do you know that?" The same question came out from the two grandpas' mouths.

"Well, when I was inquiring about the land on which I wanted to build the greenhouse, I had asked someone about the Mu Family's information. From that information, I came to know about the Mu Family's people." Yu Qi made a little lie.

Yu Qi remembered all of the Mu Family members. Earlier in the room, she clearly saw Mu Li Zei, her first uncle, Su Yu Qing, her aunt whom she had slapped, Mu Yian, the first daughter of Mu Li Zei and Mu Rong Xie, the second daughter. Only Mu Kuang He was missing. He was her first uncle's son.

She did not see her second uncle's family. From her previous memories, the first uncle and the second uncle were not having a close relationship. Their mother, Kang Pian Sue had loved her first uncle more than her second uncle because her first uncle was smarter than her second uncle. Also, in the company, her second uncle's position was lower than her first uncle. Her second uncle wanted the same attention from their mother but had never succeed. So, her second uncle kind of hated her first uncle.

However, she hated all of them. All of them had played a role in plotting her and her grandfather's death in her previous life. Just because her grandfather had announced that she would be the heir of the Mu Family. She would never forget and forgive those things that they had done to her.

Yu Qi knew that Mu Li Zei was already suspicious of her when she had stepped into the room. He knew that her father had a wife. His wife had died, so he married his mother. He also had seen the face of his stepmother.

But she was not afraid. She was ready to face him. Well, he could investigate if he wanted to. But the information that he could assess was she had been adopted by the Wang Family and later by the Tang Family. As for her birth, there was no information about it.

"In the room earlier, there was a middle-aged man. I assume it was Mr Mu's son, Mu Li Zei. That middle-aged woman whom I had slapped was probably his wife, Su Yu Qing. The woman who was standing beside the bed was Mu Yian and lastly, the patient was Mu Rong Xie." Yu Qi told the two grandpas.

"What? You had slapped the wife of Mu Li Zei?" Grandpa Su opened his eyes bigger.

"Yes. What's wrong with it?" Yu Qi blinked her eyes innocently.

"You..." Grandpa Su made a horrible expression on his face.

"What? She had insulted my grandfather. Telling that my grandfather was useless. Even though she might not know him but she could not insult anyone just like that. Moreover, my grandpa was an elder in front of her but she did not give any face to his age." Yu Qi was not afraid of the woman's rage.

That woman could try but did not expect that Yu Qi could also counter-attack her. Who was she in front of her? She would make everyone pay who dared to provoke her.

"Jiang Man, you really has a good granddaughter. I wish to have one like this too." Grandpa Su looked at Grandpa Tang with an envy look.

"I wish she is my biological granddaughter rather than my grandson." Grandpa Tang grinned.

Grandpa Su rolled his eyes. 'This man, his grandsons are very good. He wants more.' Grandpa Su thought about his grandson and sighed.

Chapter 449 - 449: It Is Impossible

"Mother." Mu Li Zei greeted his mother who was in her garden trimming the flowers.

"Hmmm..." Kang Pian Sue just made a sound to acknowledge her son.

"Mother, I have seen a familiar face today." Mu Li Zei started to speak.

Kang Pian Sue waved her hand telling her maid to make some tea for her son. The maid turned around and left.

"Familiar face?" Kang Pian Sue did not turn towards her son. Her eyes were still at her flowers.

"Yes. The face which Mother hates so much." Mu Li Zei said.

Hearing that, Kang Pian Sue had wrongly trimmed the flower as her hand trembled which was holding the scissors. Kang Pian Sue turned slowly towards Mu Li Zei. She looked at her son. Her son's face indicated that he did not lie to get his mother's attention.

"Really?" Kang Pian Sue asked Mu Li Zei.

"Yeah. I am also kind of shocked when seeing that face." Mu Li Zei told her.

"She has not died, has she?" Kang Pian Sue asked herself in a lower tone. However, Mu Li Zei could hear the question somehow.

"I don't think so, Mother. I don't think that person is her." Mu Li Zei shared his opinion.

"Oh, why is that?" Kang Pian Sue asked.

"From her identity." Mu Li Zei simply stated it.

"Her identity?" Kang Pian Sue frowned. "What is the identity that she has?"

"She is the granddaughter of the legendary doctor, Tang Jiang Man from Binhai Nation. Moreover, she is just around 20 years old. That is why I think that person is not her." Mu Li Zei explained.

"Oh, really?" Kang Pian Sue turned back to the flowers and started to trim the flowers again.

"But, I want to confirm it. Having a similar face is probably a coincidence but still, it is better to investigate her." Mu Li Zei told his plan to his mother.

"Why do you want to investigate her?" Kang Pian Sue asked.

"Because she has a lot of similarities with that woman."

"Oh, you mean..." Kang Pian Sue turned to look at her son and narrowed her eyes.

"There is a possibility." Mu Li Zei nodded.

"That is impossible." Kang Pian Sue denied.

"But still, I will investigate her thoroughly." Mu Li Zei said.

"Well, then, tell me after you get the result." Kang Pian Sue smiled. It was a terrifying smile for those who could see the smile.

"Don't worry, Mother. You will be the first to know when I have gotten the result from the investigation." Mu Li Zei also smiled.

"How about my granddaughter, Rong Xie?" Kang Pian Sue changed the topic.

"She is still like that. That Su Yu Qing is stupid to offend the legendary doctor by insulting him. Right now, that doctor probably does not want to treat Rong Xie." Mu Li Zei told the situation.

"Sigh... She is indeed stupid. It is my fault for marrying you to her. I have thought that she would be easy to control since she was like that." Kang Pian Sue stated her regret with her decision. "But, I want Rong Xie to get better. Find the doctor to treat her."

Even though Kang Pian Sue was a cruel woman, she still loved her own family. Especially her blood-related ones.

"I will try, Mother. You don't have to worry." Mu Li Zei assured his mother.

"Go. I want to rest. Don't forget about the matter earlier." Kang Pian Sue waved her hand.

"I will go first, Mother. Take care of your health." Mu Li Zei bowed to his mother before leaving.

...

"You are that beauty." Su Fan appeared and said to Yu Qi. He accessed the surrounding. Seeing that handsome yet terrifying man was not here, he quickly approached Yu Qi with the intention of hugging her.

Yu Qi turned to the voice and saw that Su Fan was already running towards her with his open arms. Yu Qi narrowed her eyes. 'This man is inviting his own death.'

Su Fan did not know what Yu Qi was thinking. He just wanted the beauty in his arm. He did not expect that the same thing with Ding Na An would happen today as well.

When he was about to get the beauty in his arms, he felt his body was flying before his back fell down onto the ground. He was hissing in pain.

"Ah. It really hurts." Su Fan said.

"Serves you right." Grandpa Su told his grandson who was still laying on the ground.

Su Fan slowly got up. "Are all Binhai girls really this violent?" That question was pointed towards Yu Qi.

Yu Qi rolled her eyes without answering that question.

"Boy, you should be grateful that her boyfriend is not here. Otherwise, you will die without knowing how." Grandpa Tang asked.

"What!!! He is an assassin?" Su Fan asked a foolish question.

"If you really want to die, I don't have to get his help. I will personally do it." Yu Qi looked at Su Fan.

"Grandfather, please protect me." Su Fan hid behind Grandpa Su.

"Stop it. Have you already completed the works which I have given you?" Grandpa Su asked his grandson.

"Yes, sir. I have already completed them. It is the report." Su Fan pulled out the USB from his pocket. "I will print it out later and give it to you."

"Okay. I want to have lunch with those two. Do you want to join?" Grandpa Su asked.

"Of course. It is my aim of coming here." Su Fan stated happily to Grandpa Su. He already forgot about the earlier matter.

'What a simple guy.'

Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang thought the same thing.

Chapter 450 - 450: Threatened

Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang received an invitation from the Mu Li Zei's wife, Su Yu Qing for having dinner together via Grandpa Sang. Grandpa Tang had directly rejected the invitation. He did not want to get involved with Mu Family even if his friend had begged him.

Hearing this, Su Yu Qing panicked. She went directly to the hotel to meet the two of them. But the hotel did not provide her with the information so she had made a scene. Until one of her bodyguards had called Mu Li Zei.

Mu Li Zei came personally to get his wife. He told his wife that he would try to talk with Grandpa Tang later. He also told her not to make a scene here.

Sensing the danger from her husband, Su Yu Qing obeyed her husband and returned home.

As for Mu Li Zei, he returned to his office. He had to think about how to persuade the legendary doctor to treat his daughter. Mu Li Zei requested Grandpa Tang's contact number from Grandpa Sang. Grandpa Sang did not mind and just gave him. Grandpa Sang knew that Mu Li Zei probably wanted to talk to Grandpa Tang about his daughter's treatment.

Mu Li Zei called Grandpa Tang.

Mu Li Zei: "Is this Doctor Tang?"

Grandpa Tang: "Yes. Who is this?"

Mu Li Zei: "I'm Mu Li Zei."

Grandpa Tang: "I have already told you that I will not treat your daughter. You can find another doctor."

Mu Li Zei: "Doctor Tang, I apologize on the behalf of my rude wife. But can we meet tomorrow? We really need your help."

Grandpa Tang frowned. He did not want to treat the patient who did not believe in his skill. Because if things got worse, the doctor would be blamed by the patient and the patient's family.

Yu Qi also listened to the call since her grandfather had put it on the speaker mode. She wanted to know her grandfather's decision. Then Mu Li Zei's voice could be heard again.

Mu Li Zei: "Please, Doctor Tang. Can we meet tomorrow?"

Grandpa Tang: "Okay... Okay... Let's meet tomorrow. I will go to the hospital."

Mu Li Zei: "Oh, no. Let's meet at my office at the Mu Group HQ. You can just tell your name to the front desk. They will lead you to my office room."

Grandpa Tang: "Alright."

Mu Li Zei: "Thank you, Doctor Tang."

The call ended. Yu Qi was silent. She thought about something. 'Why does Mu Li Zei want to meet Grandfather at his office? It will be better if they meet at the hospital.' Yu Qi felt something was off but she could not point it out.

"Grandfather, I will follow you too tomorrow to meet that man." Yu Qi said.

"Okay. I don't have any problem with that." Grandpa Tang nodded.

....

The next day, Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang stepped into Mu Group HQ. Yu Qi felt nostalgia when she entered the building. She spent 5 to 6 years of her life, working in this place before she had got killed.

The two of them went to the front desk and told the person that they had an appointment with Mu Li Zei. The person called someone. After she got the confirmation, she called someone to lead Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang to Mu Li Zei's office.

Actually, without the person's guide, Yu Qi could easily found Mu Li Zei's room if he still used the same room. But well, people would think weird about her if she knew something like that. Because she had never been here in this lifetime.

They arrived at Mu Li Zei's room. Yeah. He was in the same room. The person knocked on the door. Hearing someone said 'you can enter' from the inside, the person opened the door and asked Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang to go in.

Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang entered the room. Mu Li Zei was sitting at his desk. Then Mu Li Zei stood up and welcomed the two of them.

"Welcome to my office, Doctor Tang, Miss Tang. Please sit here." Mu Li Zei led them to sit at the guest chair.

"Thank you." Grandpa Tang said and sat on the chair.

Mu Li Zei called his assistant to bring some tea for the guests. Then he sat in front of them.

"Doctor Tang, I once again apologize on the behalf of my wife. She was emotional since our daughter has been sick for a long time." Mu Li Zei showed a humble attitude.

"I have already forgotten about it." Grandpa Tang waved his hand.

"Then, can I ask you to treat my daughter? " Mu Li Zei requested.

"No." Grandpa Tang rejected it quickly.

Mu Li Zei was silent. He observed Grandpa Tang and Yu Qi. Then his eyes slightly narrowed.

"If the soft approach doesn't work, we can also use the hard approach." Mu Li Zei pressed some button on his watch.

Immediately, the five men in a black suit entered the room. Yu Qi impulsively stood up in front of her grandfather to protect him.

"Mr Mu, what are you trying to do?" Yu Qi asked in a cold voice.

Mu Li Zei slightly smiled. 'This girl...'

"Miss Tang, I just want your grandfather to treat my daughter. But he has refused. So, I have to do this way." Mu Li Zei answered Yu Qi.

"My grandfather has the right to refuse. Mr Mu, you can't do this." Yu Qi glanced at the five men in the black suit. She tried to analyze the situation.
