Chapter 451 - 451: This Girl Is Definitely Not A Normal Girl

"Miss Tang, if your grandfather succeeds in treating my daughter, I will naturally release you and your grandfather. I will even pay your grandfather.", Mu Li Zei said with a smile.

"Meaning if my grandfather does not succeed, you will not release us?", Yu Qi asked a reverse question.

"Well, it depends...", Mu Li Zei said.

He signalled the men to grab Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang. The five men started to approach Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang. Yu Qi asked Grandpa Tang to stand up. Grandpa Tang began to worry as the men got closer to his granddaughter. He thought that he should agree to treat that man's daughter.

"Grandfather, don't worry. We will be fine." Yu Qi whispered to Grandpa Tang.

As soon as she said that, she attacked one of those men. She used about 50% of her strength since she knew that Mu Li Zei's bodyguards were well trained. She kicked the man's stomach. The man screamed in pain. Yu Qi was guessing that two or three ribs had broken.

Without wasting any time, Yu Qi attacked the second man. This time she attacked the man's knee. The knee cap immediately broke. The other three men started to get serious. They started to attack Yu Qi at the same time.

Yu Qi dodged. Yu Qi made a double attack on the two men. One kick at the head and another one kick at the back.

"Stop or I will shoot this old man." The last man shouted to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi froze when she heard that sentence. She turned around and saw the man pointed a gun to her grandfather. The light in her eyes changed.

"You are messing with the wrong person." Yu Qi said with a cold voice. The temperature in the room had dropped.

After Yu Qi said that sentence, she approached the man with very high speed. Even the man was shocked when he suddenly saw the girl was right in front of him. Yu Qi took the hand which was holding the gun and broke it. She then took that gun and pointed it towards the head of the man. She was about to shoot the man's head but was interrupted.

"Yu Qi." Grandpa Tang called his granddaughter.

Yu Qi realized that Grandpa Tang was here. She could not kill anyone here. She lowered the gun and shot the man's shoulder.

"Mr. Mu, can you please let us go now?" Yu Qi turned to Mu Li Zei who was still shocked after what he had seen.

Mu Li Zei did not expect that the slender looking girl like Yu Qi was this good at fighting. The men were his best bodyguards. And the girl defeated them like nothing.

"Jiang Man, Tang Girl." The door was opened from outside.

Grandpa Sang and Grandpa Mu came in. They were shocked to see the situation inside the room. The men were laying and Yu Qi stood and held a gun in her hand.

Yu Qi was surprised to see Grandpa Sang and Grandpa Mu here. Well, she did call Grandpa Sang for help but she did not expect that her grandfather would be here too.

"What did just happen here?" Grandpa Mu asked. He looked at Yu Qi and then Mu Li Zei.

Yu Qi was still holding her gun pointing at Mu Li Zei as she protected Grandpa Tang behind her. Grandpa Tang thought the things were already safe. He got close to Yu Qi and whispered something.

"Yu Qi dear, put down the gun." Grandpa Tang whispered to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi realised everything was finally okay and put down the gun but she still did not release the gun from her hand.

"Mr. Mu Li Zei wants my grandfather to treat his daughter by force. He wants to capture us and will release us after his daughter is healed by my grandfather. If his daughter fails to get better, he wants... Well, you can think about that yourself." Yu Qi sounded so ambiguous.

Grandpa Sang and Grandpa Mu looked at Mu Li Zei with a questionable look. Mu Li Zei ground his teeth. He never thought that this little girl would be so hard to deal with.

"If you don't believe me, you can listen to this recording." Yu Qi showed the handphone to them. She had already used her handphone to record the conversation in this room.

Mu Li Zei's eyes went bigger as he heard the girl mentioning about the recording. 'This girl, how could she predict that this matter will escalate like this?'

Yu Qi did not change her expression even when she had mentioned about the recording. She was well prepared since she knew her dear uncle's character. She just needed to be a step ahead of him to be safe.

"Doctor Tang, you can bring your granddaughter back. I will handle this and give an explanation to you." Grandpa Mu said after a while of silence.

Yu Qi placed the gun on the table and gave a look to Mu Li Zei before getting out of the room. Her lips were slightly curved up.

Mu Li Zei managed to see the slightly curved up lips. 'This girl is definitely not a normal girl.' He needed to know about this girl. The man who was investigating this girl would hand the information about this girl soon.

"Mu Li Zei, we need to talk." Grandpa Mu said.

The voice of Grandpa Mu made Mu Li Zei turned to his father. This situation could not be avoided.

"Yes, Father." Mu Li Zei nodded.

Grandpa Sang understood the situation and excused himself, leaving the pair father and son to talk among themselves.

Chapter 452 - 452: Kneel

"Li Zei, what were you trying to do to them?" Grandpa Mu wanted to hear from his son even though Yu Qi had already told him.

"I just wanted Doctor Tang to heal Rong Xie.", Mu Li Zei said.

"By keeping his granddaughter as a hostage?", Grandpa Mu snorted.

Mu Li Zei was silent. He could not rebuke his father since it was true and that girl had the evidence. He just needed to accept whatever his father was going to give him a punishment.

"You go and kneel in the ancestral hall for 1 week. I hope that will clear your mind and stop playing dirty tricks. As for Rong Xie, I will ask Doctor Tang myself. If he refuses, I will ask Want Yi to research more about Rong Xie's condition. Don't ever think to touch the Tang Family again.", Grandpa Mu made a decision.

Mu Li Zei nodded. "I understand. I will obey your order, father. "

Right after that, the medic people knocked on the door. They had come for the bodyguards who had received a good beating from Yu Qi. The bodyguards finally had peace in their mind when they heard the medic had come for them.

Grandpa Mu left the room. The medic brought the injured bodyguards to the hospital leaving Mu Li Zei alone in the room. Mu Li Zei clenched both of his fists. His plan was destroyed.

Well, it was not the first time that his plan had failed but this was the first time that his plan was ruined by a young girl on whom he had looked down. He really did not expect that the girl was so agile and very smart to record their conversation. He really needed to investigate her background. He wanted to know who she was.

"Grandfather, are you okay?" Yu Qi asked Grandpa Tang after they arrived at their hotel.

"Yes. I'm worried about you. Are you okay?" Grandpa Tang asked Yu Qi. He was really worried when seeing his granddaughter who was fighting with those bulky men alone.

"Don't worry, grandfather. I have trained a lot. And also, I have trained with soldiers." Yu Qi smiled.

There were several knocks on their door. Yu Qi was cautious. She did not open the door immediately. She needed to be careful since it was Mu Li Zei's territory. Her uncle might send someone to teach her a lesson due to today's matter.

Yu Qi sneaked a peek from the small hole on the door. She saw Grandpa Mu and Grandpa Sang waiting for her to open the door. She opened the door.

"Can we talk with you and Doctor Tang?", Grandpa Sang said.

"We can go to the restaurant downstairs. ", Yu Qi said.

Since the room was not a suitable place to talk, Yu Qi suggested them to have a talk at the hotel's restaurant.

Four of them sat together.

"Doctor Tang, Miss Tang, I'm sorry for my son's behaviour.", Grandpa Mu bowed to them.

"It is not your fault, Mr Mu.", Yu Qi addressed her real granddaughter as Mr Mu since she heard Grandpa Mu had addressed her as Miss Tang.

Grandpa Mu probably knew that Yu Qi had still not told Grandpa Tang about her real family.

"I have already punished him.", Grandpa Mu told them.

Yu Qi just smiled. She knew that Grandpa Mu would not punish Mu Li Zei very badly. Since Mu Li Zei was his son. He probably would make him kneel at the ancestral hall. Grandpa Mu always used that punishment in her past life.

"Doctor Tang, I hope that you can help me by treating my granddaughter." Grandpa Mu bowed once again.

Yu Qi kept silent. She wanted to hear Grandpa Tang's answer.

"Mr Mu, I'm sorry. But I can't. I can't accept the treatment given by your son. And also, I can't stay long in this country.", Grandpa Tang firmly rejected Grandpa Mu. He was not a saint. He really could not accept Mu Li Zei's act. He had given him a threat by using his own granddaughter.

Grandpa Mu sighed. "Okay. I will not force you."

Grandpa Tang booked the flight tickets on the same day. He did not want to stay in this country anymore. He was afraid that Mu Li Zei would do something to him and his granddaughter. It was Mu Li Zei's territory. He might send people to beat them or kidnap them. Grandpa Tang could not afford that danger.

Yu Qi also agreed with Grandpa Tang's decision. It was a wise decision. She still did not have power here. So, she did not want to risk her grandfather's safety. If she was alone, she might have attacked Mu Li Zei's businesses one by one.

Yu Qi had already informed Grandpa Mu about their leave. Grandpa Mu understood. If he was at Grandpa Tang's place, he would also have done the same thing.

As for Grandpa Tang's decision not to treat Mu Rong Xie, Yu Qi could not do anything with it. It was her grandfather's decision. Well, she was quite happy when Grandpa Tang had rejected it since she wanted Mu Rong Xie to suffer more than this.

The person who made the decision to poison Grandpa Mu in her past life might be two people, Mu Li Zei and Mu Yian. They had been targeting the highest position in the Mu Group. When Yu Qi was found and being trained by Grandpa Mu as the heir, those two people were strongly against it. They had constantly voiced their opinions against Yu Qi which made her work harder than anyone to prove that she could do it.

Chapter 453 - 453: Got A Letter

Grandpa Tang could take a long breath of relief after they had arrived at Binhai Nation. It was not the first time he had been threatened by someone to treat them but it was the first time that they had used his family members to threaten him.

Yu Qi only smiled when seeing her grandfather like that. She knew that her grandfather had a difficult time there. She swore that she would never let anything happen to her Tang Family.

The day came back to normal. Yu Qi spent her remaining semester break working on her paperwork for her new brand of skincare. Su Yu Hi had already acquired the medical factory. The previous owner had declared bankruptcy. So, it was easy to get the medical factory. The equipment was still functioning and in good conditions.

As for the workers, Yu Qi only selected people for one position. It was the most important position in the medical factory. It was not head of the factory. It was not head of finance. But the one that would be supervised the whole of the process of making the product. One who understood most of the herbs and knew what the herbs were used for. As for other workers, she would leave it to Su Yu Hi.

As for the position, Yu Qi already knew who was the best for it and had made the decision. She chose Song Tai for that position. He was the one who understood the herbs the most, other than Song Tao. Song Tao already had another responsibility for managing her greenhouse.

Song Tai was excited when Yu Qi mentioned this to him. The medical factory was located at Wenya City. Yu Qi had also planned to open a store to sell her skincare brand. The reason why she had chosen that location to open the store was that it was a very strategic place.

Wenya City was busted with the people, especially, the younger generation? It was because Starlight University was there. Young people, especially, the girls would like to take care of their appearance.

Yu Qi had already sent the sample of her skincare products to the Ministry of Health to get the certificate for selling the skincare products. To sell the skin care products, the products had to pass the assessment of the Ministry of Health to check whether the products had a possible substance which was dangerous to the human body.

Yu Qi was confident that her skincare products would pass the test. Her skincare products were 100% made of the herbs. And the mix of the herbs would not be dangerous to any human skin or body.

Yu Qi already gave her two aunts to try the products. The two of them were very delighted when they had first seen the result. Their skins seemed to lighten and the number of wrinkles has decreased. More than that, their faces seemed to be glowing.

Their friends saw them and were asking what products that they had been using. Her two aunts quickly promoted the products by saying that the products would be launching soon in the market. They would get the same products as them.

Even her two uncles noticed that their wives had become more and more beautiful lately. Her aunties told her uncles that they were using the products made by Yu Qi who had made them using the herbs. Listening to it, the two uncles praised her.

It was the first week of the new semester. The new students registered at Starlight University. Yu Qi began her semester by her surgery class. She was not involved in the new student registration. While Song Ha Ting and Mei Lilli did.

They wanted to collect some pointers because they had not joined any of the clubs. So Pang Lim had joined a foreign language club. Even Ding Na An had joined the reading club.

"I never thought that new students registrations would have a lots of works to do." Mei Lilli complained to her friends during the lunch hour.

"Yeah." Song Ha Ting was saying the same thing.

"Thank goddess, it is finally over." Mei Lilli said.

They were talking until someone came and stopped at their table. They quickly became quiet and waited for that person to talk.

"This is for you." The person put the paper in front of Yu Qi and ran off.

Yu Qi blinked several times before realizing what just had happened. She looked down at the paper which the person had put just now. The person was clearly a first-year student.

"Wow, Yu Qi, you have gotten a love letter." So Pang Lim giggled. As well as the others. They also giggled.

"Let's see what he has written here." Mei Lilli reached the letter and opened it.

"Lilli, this is wrong. You should not be the one read the letter." Ding Na An opened her mouth.

Ding Na An usually only like to observe but now had spoken to Mei Lilli. Mei Lilli handed down the letter to Yu Qi.

"Okay. I will not read it." Mei Lilli said.

Yu Qi took the letter and opened it. In the letter, only stated, 'You can not run from me. Want to know me? Come to the tennis court at 5 pm this evening.'

Yu Qi raised her brow. 'What an arrogant person. Does he think I have time for him?'

"What? Whoever has written this letter must be a first-year student." Mei Lilli said after she had glanced at the content of the letter.

"Why are you say so confident?" So Pang Lim asked. She could not understand how Mei Lilli could conclude that this letter was from a first-year student.

"Think about it. Our Yu Qi is famous at this university. Most of them knew Yu Qi's personality. Yu Qi would not be interested in any other men since her boyfriend is so handsome. So, only those who do not know Yu Qi are the first-year students." Mei Lilli explained.

"Oh, I see." So Pang Lim nodded several times.

"So, Yu Qi, would you go and meet this person?" Song Ha Ting scooped the ice cream and ate it.

"I don't have time for it. I have to promote my club." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, just like last year?" Mei Lilli asked.

"Well, my new vice captain is a crazy person this year. Well, you can come and see later." Yu Qi gave a smile.

'Crazy person?'

Her friends wondered about that. Crazy person meaning crazy ideas. The new vice captain of Yu Qi probably asked Yu Qi to do something that had a lot of impacts. They needed to see it.

As for the letter, as Yu Qi had said, she would not go. She had no interest in knowing who had written the letter. And also, the letter sounded so arrogant. Why should she go since it was not Long Hui? If Long Hui wanted to meet her, he just needed to call her instead of writing this kind of letter.

Chapter 454 - 454: Another Person From Her Past Memories

"You have already given the letter to her?" The man asked.

"Yes." This was the first-year student who had given the letter to Yu Qi earlier.

"Good. Here is your reward." The man threw some cash on the ground.

The first-year student collected and left the place.

"Woman, we will meet again." The man smiled alone.

.....

Yu Qi walked towards the club. Other club members were already here to discuss the main attraction to promote their club.

The previous captain, Captain Heng Ru Yen chose Zu Wei Han as the new captain and Shi Man Xie as the vice captain. Everyone agreed with the arrangement. At first, Shi Man Xie was nominated as captain but after debating with other club members, they drew a conclusion.

When Shi Man Xie heard that he had been nominated, he quickly rejected that. He told them that the position was too high for him. Actually, he did not want to hold such an important responsibility because he knew it would be hard for him to handle it.

In the end, everyone voted for Zu Wen Han as their new captain. Zu Wen Han had a personality as the previous captain. He should be suitable for the position.

As the idea for attraction for promoting the shooting club, Vice Captain Shi Man Xie provided it. Yu Qu would be shooting the apples placed onto the other club members head if the other club member did not mind about that.

Zhu Xiao Ling suggested something that could enhance that promotion, so everyone agreed.

When they heard the idea, some of them offered their heads... Oops, wrong, it was their help. Well, Yu Qi was an idol in the shooting club. Captain Zu Wen Han agreed to the idea since the other club members agreed on themselves.

So the other club members began to promote the main event. Some of them handed out the pamphlet about the shooting club. The club had three days to promote their club. The shooting club wanted to hold the main attraction on the last day. The best thing always on the last day.

The man had been waiting at the tennis court about a half-hour. The girl still did not appear. He was starting to doubt the boy who he had asked to help. Did he really hand out the letter to the girl?

Because of his handsome face, there were a lot of the girls who had asked him out. Even though he was a playboy, he only had eyes for beautiful girls. Not every girl could enter his eyes.

The girl who he had met before was very beautiful. He wanted to try his chance. Even though he knew that she already had a boyfriend. But it was just a boyfriend. He was not his husband yet. But even she already had married, he could also try for it. Since cheating with other's wife seemed exciting.

But after one hour of waiting, the shadow of the girl could not be seen at all. The girl really had no intention to come. He left the place immediately. Before that, he asked someone to find out more about the girl. Something that he could use to threaten her to come and see him would be nice.

"Yu Qi, we went to the tennis court yesterday." So Pang Lim said excitedly to Yu Qi on the next day.

Yu Qi did not remember about the matter, so she could not understand what So Pang Lim was trying to say.

"Huh? What?" Yu Qi turned to So Pang Lim.

"I guess Yu Qi has already forgotten about yesterday's letter." Mei Lilli said.

"Oh!" Yu Qi started to remember. "So, what?"

"We saw the man who had sent you the letter." Mei Lilli told her.

"And guess what, the man is really handsome. He currently taking first place in the handsome men ranking in our university." So Pang Lim was acting like a fangirl.

"Handsome men ranking? Do we have that?" Yu Qi asked Mei Lilli.

"Yeah. We have. The previous first place is Senior Bai Shu Jin." Mei Lilli nodded.

"Oh..." Yu Qi never thought some like that existed.

"That handsome man is Bai Yu." So Pang Lim said.

"Bai Yu?" Yu Qi could not help but look at So Pang Lim.

"Yeah. He is Senior Bai Shu Jin's younger brother." So Pang Lim nodded.

Yu Qi's eyes narrowed. She thought about something. Bai Yu. Another familiar name. He had appeared too.

"I guess he has fallen in love with our Yu Qi here at first sight." Mei Lilli laughed. "But unfortunately, our Yu Qi already has a boyfriend."

"I guess so. He will be disappointed to hear that Yu Qi has a boyfriend." So Pang Lim said while nodding her head.

"I will leave. Today is the main event." Yu Qi smiled.

"Oh, that's right." Mei Lilli said. "I will go and see you later. Give us the best performance." Mei Lilli gave her thumb up to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi walked slowly towards her dormitory room. As she got closer to the dormitory building, someone blocked her.

"Miss Tang, right?" A man asked her, wanted to confirm her identity.

Yu Qi did not answer that immediately. She looked at the man up and down as she inspected him.

"My boss wants to meet you. Can you go and see him first?" The man asked in polite tone but Yu Qi could sense some threatening tone in his voice.

The man did not understand why his boss wanted him to be polite to the girl like this and not try to force the girl. The most part that he could not understand was when his boss said, 'don't try to fight her.' The girl in front of him was so delicate. He thought she would not even know how to fight.

Chapter 455 - 455: His Heart Ached.

"Do you think I'm a dog..." Yu Qi paused.

The man did not seem to understand what was the girl in front of him was talking about.

Then Yu Qi continued her sentence. "Like you?"

The man was silent for a second. Then his face changed. He understood what the girl had meant. From the sentence, the man caught its meaning. This girl just called him a dog right in front of him.

"Girl, watch your mouth. And just follow me. Otherwise..." The man threatened Yu Qi.

"Otherwise, what? Do you think just because your master wants to meet me and I have to obey him? Who does he think he is?", Yu Qi snorted.

Yu Qi stepped aside to walk away from there. She did not have time to waste on this man. She had already guessed who the boss of the man was. Probably that Bai Yu. He was still the same.

The man tried to grab Yu Qi. However, his arm had been grabbed by Yu Qi. Not only that, Yu Qi snapped his arm from his shoulder which had made the man shout in pain.

"If you dare to grab me again, I will do the same thing to your right hand." Yu Qi was just smiled faintly. But the smile did not reach her eyes.

The man stepped back a few distances. No wonder his boss told him to be careful of the girl. She knew the martial arts. She dislocated his arm from his shoulder just like that.

Seeing the man did not want to mess with her again, Yu Qi went to the club leisurely. She was humming.

Vice-Captain Shi Man Xie came and got Yu Qi. Yu Qi did not know what her senior wanted from her.

"Yu Qi, come here." Vice-Captain Shi Man Xie felt excited when seeing Yu Qi.

"Senior, what do you..." Yu Qi could not finish her sentence.

Vice-Captain Shi Man Xie had already pulled her hand. So, she followed her vice-captain to their club room. In the club room, everyone seemed to wait for her as their face showed a smile upon seeing her appeared in front of them.

"What are you guys doing right now?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yu Qi, changes to this attire." Vice-Captain Shi Man Xie gave a paper bag to her.

"Tell me, what it is? Otherwise, I will not wear them." Yu Qi looked at her club members.

"Sister Yu Qi, don't worry. It is not a weird outfit." Zhu Xiao Ling appeared from behind her senior and assured Yu Qi.

"Oh, you are here too." Yu Qi smiled to Zhu Xiao Ling.

"Sister Yu Qi, go and try the outfit. I can not wait to see you in this outfit. Hurry up." Zhu Xiao Ling pulled Yu Qi to go and change her outfit.

Yu Qi entered the changing room. 'Why are they so excited? What is this outfit?' Yu Qi thought while opening the paper bag.

Yu Qi was indeed surprised by what she saw. Yu Qi smiled.

"Welcome, welcome, welcome to new students and others. For this evening, our club has prepared something special for you to watch. This is our promotion event." Vice-Captain Shi Man Xie was acting as an MC for the event. "I hope you will enjoy our show.", he continued.

Right after Vice-Captain Shi Man Xie finished talking, Yu Qi appeared in an attracting outfit. It was an ancient Chinese outfit which usually used in fantasy Chinese dramas. It was red in colour and really look good on Yu Qi.

This was the outfit that the club members prepared for her. Yu Qi was very happy to wear it. She liked it very much. Yu Qi acted what had they had been practising before.

The club members wanted others to know that the shooting club was a club that not only focused on the shooting skill and training but also fun. So, one of them suggested they made a play. The play portrayed a girl who came from the future and displayed her skills in making the gun and used it for destroying the evil.

This story was writing by Zhu Xiao Ling. Yu Qi never thought Zhu Xiao Ling liked to write something like this. She said that it was her hobby.

Yu Qi took a rest. The play had ended with lots of applause. The audience was very happy with the play. Meaning, it was a successful event. Yu Qi was resting at an open space behind their training ground.

"Yu-er, it has been a long time since I saw you like this."

Yu Qi was shocked when she heard that someone had called her. She did not sense the person at all. When did he come here? Yu Qi turned to the person.

She was surprised for the second time. The person was Qin Xia. She did not expect to see him here at her university.

"Mr Qin, you..."

Yu Qi was pulled into his hug. Yu Qi struggled to get out from his hug. But it was not working. Despite looking skinny, Qin Xia was stronger than his looks. Yu Qi used 100% of her strength but the man still did not move at all.

'How strong this man is?' Yu Qi still struggled. "Mr Qin." She tried to call him.

Hearing her voice, Qin Xia woke up. He let her go. He looked so shocked. Then he faced Yu Qi with a sad expression. The girl who he loved did not call him Senior Brother Xia but Mr Qin. He actually forgot that she did not remember him or their time together. When he saw her in this outfit, he thought that what happened was a dream and she was still the same as like usual.

He forgot that thousands of years had passed. But his heart ached when seeing her like this. It was torturing him.

Yu Qi was affected by the look given by Qin Xia. She did not know why but she wished that Qin Xia would be happy rather than looking like this.

Chapter 456 - 456: Call Me, Brother Xia

"Senior Brother Xia... Senior Brother Xia... Stop dreaming." Yu-er hit her senior brother's head.

"Owh. Yu-er... Can you stop hitting your senior brother? It hurts, you know..." Qin Xia patted his head, the place where he had been hit by his junior sister.

"Don't forget our plan tonight." Yu-er left Qin Xia after saying that.

Qin Xia did not have time to talk with his junior sister. His junior sister was always bizarre in her doings. She was naughty and mischievous. She liked to sneak out from Kunlun Mountain and went to the city to play.

And her partner always was Qin Xia and another senior brother, Qian Sui. Yu-er had probably already informed Qian Sui about this. He sighed. Well, he should accompany the two of them since they might get into some problems in the city. He thought that he needed to strictly look after the two of them.

The night had arrived. Yu-er and Qian Sui were already waiting for him at the secret door. The two of them smiled when seeing Qin Xia walked towards them.

"Senior brother Xia." The two of them called him excitedly but in a low voice.

"I know Senior Brother Xia will come too. He also wants to play in the city." Qian Sui said to Yu-er.

"Without wasting any time here, let's go." Yu-er grinned.

"Today, the city is more lively. I wonder what has happened?" Yu-er said to Qian Sui and Qin Xia.

The person who standing near her had heard that. He turned to Yu-er and spoke to her.

"Young man, today, our crown prince has gotten married to the most beautiful girl in the country, Miss Su Jing, daughter of Prime Minister. That is why the city is more lively." He said to Yu-er.

Yeah, he was referring and speaking to Yu-er because Yu-er was currently wearing men's clothing which old men wore...She had disguised herself as a man because it looked easy and convenient.

"Oh, I see. Thank you, Sir, for telling me." Yu-er made a gesture to the man.

"Senior Brother Xia, Senior Brother Qin, do you want to go and see the wedding?" Yu-er asked her senior brothers excitedly.

"Even I said no, you will go, right?" Qin Xia looked at her.

Yu-er just grinned. Her Senior Brother Xia knew her very well.

"Wow, it is very grand. The wedding." Qian Sui commented.

"It's crown prince's marriage. Of course, it is very grand. He is our future emperor." Another man said after hearing the comment from Qian Sui.

"It's a free drink. Let's drink it." Yu-er said.

"You can drink but stop before you get drunk, okay?" Qin Xia reminded her.

"Okay." Yu-er made an 'Ok' symbol with her hand.

"Senior Brother Xia, are you sure she will remember that?" Qian Sui whispered to Qin Xia.

"If she doesn't remember, i just will knock her up and bring her back." Qin Xia said.

"Then, I will drink too." Qian Sui also wanted to drink.

"As for you, if you get drunk, I will knock you up also but leave you there." Qin Xia told him.

"Senior Brother Xia, you are biased." Qian Sui pointed.

Qin Xia just turned around and went to Yu-er.

....

"Mr Qin... Mr Qin..." Yu Qi kept calling Qin Xia.

However, he seemed to be in another place. His eyes did not move. Yu Qi approached Qin Xia and tried to make him conscious.

"Mr Qin..." Yu Qi waved her hand in front of his eyes but there was no response.

She then tried to grab his hand. Only then, his eyes focused on Yu Qi.

"Yu-er..." Qin Xia said.

"Mr Qin." Yu Qi called him again.

Qin Xia realized that he was at a different place, not in his past. In front of him, there was Yu Qi who appeared worried while looking at him.

"I'm sorry. I was thinking about something just now." Qin Xia apologized.

Yu Qi shook her head. "It's okay if you are fine, Mr Qin."

"Can I ask one request?" Qin Xia asked.

"Request? If the request is something that I can do, I will do." Yu Qi nodded.

"Can you call me, Brother Xia?" Qin Xia said.

"Huh?" Yu Qi was dumbfounded. What was that request? Call him, Brother Xia?

"Yeah. Call me, Brother Xia." Qin Xia nodded.

'Well, it is just a name. He is also older than me. It will not hurt if I call him Brother Xia.' Yu Qi thought.

"Brother Xia." The word naturally came out from Yu Qi's mouth like she was used to calling him that way. Even Yu Qi felt the same way.

Qin Xia finally smiled. He looked at Yu Qi with affection.

"Yu Qi, I hope you will call me like that in the future." By saying the sentence, Qin Xia turned away and left. Leaving Yu Qi in a dazed state.

"Sister Yu Qi, what are you doing here?" Zhu Xiao Ling came and pulled Yu Qi's hand.

Yu Qi looked at Zhu Xiao Ling and turned to the direction where Qin Xia had left again. Then she sighed. She felt something was wrong but she could not point it out.

"Nothing. I just took some rest here." Yu Qi left the matter aside. "How about our club? Do the new students apply for the club?"

"Right after Sister Yu Qi's excellent performance, there are a lot of students who wanted to join our club. But there are too much of them. Vice-Captain has told us to accept the letter of applications first and tell the new students to come to our training ground for tomorrow and further notifications." Zhu Xiao Ling explained.

"After that, I have heard that Vice-Captain talking with Captain. They are saying that they need to use that method then. What have they meant by 'that'? What method?" Zhu Xiao Ling asked.

"Oh, that method." Yu Qi smiled.

"Tell me, Sister Yu Qi. I want to know too." Zhu Xiao Ling urged Yu Qi to tell her.

"Our club has a special method to choose our new members. By holding two buckets of water with both of their hands. Well, you can take a look tomorrow." Yu Qi chuckled.

Chapter 457 - 457: Meet Bai Yu

The club received about 30 new club members this year. 20 male students and 10 female students. This was the highest amount of students who had joined the shooting club.

Captain Zu Wei Han used the same method that the previous captain had used whenever the application for entering the shooting club would exceed the limit. To their surprise, a lot of students decided to go through the test. And the results were very good.

Yu Qi was getting busier more than ever. At the morning and afternoon, she would attend the classes. Then, in the evening, she would be training at the shooting club on the required days. Sometimes, she coached the new students about the shooting.

The new club members were admiring her so much. So, they were very excited when Yu Qi turned out at the training ground and coached them about something.

As for the weekend, Yu Qi would go to her factory to see their progress. Or she would go to have a meeting with Su Yu Hi and Ming Xuehai. Her schedule was very very packed. Even she needed to take notes about her daily task in case she might forget.

"We have already gotten the confirmation and approval of the Ministry of Health. All the product have passed the tests." Su Hu Yi informed them in the meeting.

"Then, we can start mass production." Song Tai also attended the meeting.

"Yeah. As for selling the products, I already have acquired a store in the mall. The store is currently in renovation. It would be finished soon." Su Hu Yi said.

"The estimation date?" Yu Qi asked.

"Probably in the second week of October." Su Yu Hi answered.

"Then, we have enough time to produce the first batch of skincare. Before that, I wonder what is the name of this skincare product?" Song Tai looked at Su Yu Hi and Yu Qi.

"Brother Tai, you haven't read the doc.u.ment that I have sent to you, right?" Yu Qi sighed.

Song Tai grinned while answering, "Well, I read it but probably missed that out." He scratched her back head.

"Its name is 'Qi Qi' meaning 'vitality qi'." Yu Qi told Song Tai.

"Oh, it is good. It has a nice meaning." Song Tai nodded several times, happy with the name.

"Well, we will end the meeting here." Yu Qi adjourned the meeting.

"Woof, " Aoi barked. (Master, have you done?)

"Hmm... I'm done." Yu Qi answered Aoi.

Her workers in the office were already familiar with this scene. Their boss had a dog and the dog liked to eat so much. He ate every single bit of the food that people in the office would give to him. In a simple word, their boss's dog was a glutton.

"Woof, woof, " Aoi barked again. (Let's go eat then.)

Her workers could guess that Aoi was asking for food again.

"Yes, we will go and find some food before returning to the university." Yu Qi answered.

Her workers secretly laughed when they had guessed correctly.

Yu Qi left the office with Aoi. She walked to the market to find some fresh ingredients to stock up. The ingredients in her space had already used up. For the glutton cuties, Aoi and Bo Ya, she needed to stock up the ingredients.

After buying the fresh ingredients, she went to an unused alley to enter her space. She made sure that none of the people there watched her disappeared. She wanted to put the ingredients directly in her space so, it would easy for her to return to the university.

Also, the existence of the ingredients would not be a question for others because one of the dormitory's rule was the students were forbidden to cook in the dormitory. Well, in case, the fire would occur.

"Master, cook something delicious." Bo Ya made a cute gesture.

"Wait until I return to the university." Yu Qi patted Bo Ya's head.

Yu Qi came out from the space. Since it was getting dark, Yu Qi decided to get into the public bus. She thought that she should buy a car since she had a lot of things to do outside the university.

When she was about to go to the bus, she had been held back by someone. Yu Qi sighed. Someone probably was bored and wanted to get some beating.

"Miss Tang, it is very hard to meet you." The man said to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi with a blank expression looked up at the man. She did not know the man.

The man was Bai Yu, the man who had given Yu Qi a love letter. He gave a sweet smile to Yu Qi. He was confident that Yu Qi would melt with his smile. His looks did not loose to his brother, Bai Shu Jin. He thought that Yu Qi just did not know about his looks. That was why she did not come to see him.

"Who are you?" The simple question with a blank expression on Yu Qi's face crushed his fantasy.

Bai Yu frowned. He did not expect Yu Qi would give, well, let's say, did not give any reaction after seeing his face. 'What is with this girl? Why??Am I looking bad today?' Bai Yu examined his face by touching it.

Seeing the man in front of her, ignored him, Yu Qi thought that he might get the wrong person. So, she stepped aside leaving the man.

When Bai Yu saw Yu Qi was about to leave him, he wanted to stop her by grabbing her hand. But Yu Qi was faster to escape his grab, so Bai Yu just grabbed the air.

Chapter 458 - 458: Dare To Mess With Her Family?

"You better keep your hands off me, otherwise..." Yu Qi glared at his hand.

Bai Yu quickly retreated his hand. There was not like he did not know how strong the girl was. She managed to break his bodyguard's hand like that.

"Calm down Miss Tang. I just want to have some talk with you." Bai Yu once again displayed his handsome smile.

"Don't have time." Yu Qi rejected it without any consideration.

"Miss Tang..." Bai Yu currently begged.

Aoi just glanced to Bai Yu. His master told him that Bai Shu Jin had already finished his study, so he would not come to his master anymore. But judging from this situation, the same thing would happen. Another fly came to disturb his master.

What would that man think if he got the news? Would he be angry? Probably he would brew some vinegar. Aoi was laughing inside despite his stoic dog face.

Yu Qi glared to Aoi since she could sense what he was thinking right now. Aoi stopped laughing. He did not want to annoy his master anymore in case she did not want to cook for him anymore.

"Miss Tang, let's be friends?" Bai Yu tried his luck again.

"No need." Yu Qi rejected again.

She already remembered who he was. Bai Yu, another Bai Family's member. The person who also liked Fung Meng Xuan in her past life.

Bai Yu was a playboy even in her past life but that was before he had met Fung Meng Xuan. When she first met him in her past life, Bai Yu had already gotten a chance to meet with Fung Meng Xuan. As how they knew each other, Yu Qi did not have an idea about that. They probably stumble upon each other.

At that time, Bai Yu was already mesmerised with Fung Meng Xuan. He did not know how Fung Meng Xuan described her to Bai Yu making Bai Yu looked at her with disgust. More likely, he looked down to Yu Qi.

"Miss Tang, is that so expensive to be your friend?" Bai Yu frowned. He did not expect to get rejected for the second time from the same person.

"No. But I just don't like you." Yu Qi did not lie. She truly disliked him. Maybe because of his attitude or maybe because of her past memories. She did not know.

"You..." Bai Yu's face turned bad again. "Do you like your family to suffer?"

He grinned. He had already gotten the information about Yu Qi's family. It was a doctor's family. They owned a hospital. Nothing else. It would be so easy to make trouble for that hospital.

Bai Yu only knew Yu Qi's family on the surface. When he got the information about Yu Qi, he just read a little, enough to know that her family owned a hospital. He did not read the part that the legendary doctor who had been respected by all doctors around the world was her grandfather. He thought that it was just a small hospital that his family could crush.

This time, Yu Qi's turn to frown. 'This man is threatening me. Do I need to teach him?' She would not let anything threaten her current family.

"Woof." Aoi made a sound to make sure his master calm down.

'Master, calm down. You can't kill him here.' Aoi talked through telepathy.

'Okay.' Yu Qi replied.

"Oh, it is your dog." Bai Yu looked at Aoi.

He knew Yu Qi usually brought her dog particularly everywhere.

"Miss Tang, the small breed like chihuahua is suitable for you ." Bai Yu commented.

Hearing this kind of comment from Bai Yu, Aoi became angry. He was growling to Bai Yu which indicated that he might bite him out of anger.

'Master, how dare he say something like that? Does that useless chihuahua suit Master better? Don't make me laugh.' Aoi was very angry with that statement.

That breed was useless. Other than looking so small and cute, what else that breed could do? Nothing. He instead when he got bigger, he could help his master. And the fact, he was not a normal dog but a beast, making him so special.

'I know. Aoi is the best.' Yu Qi's words soothed Aoi's heart but he was still growling at Bai Yu.

"Mr. ..." Yu Qi tried to pretend that she did not know his name since he did not tell his name before.

"Oh, my name is Bai Yu. You can call me Yu." Bai Yu quickly told his name.

"No need, Mr Bai. I will call you Mr. Bai. I will tell you once again. I am not interested in being your friend. You can find another woman. I bet you will not have any difficulty in finding another woman, I guess." Yu Qi stopped his fantasy.

The bus had arrived in time after she had finished talking. Without waiting for any response from Bai Yu, Yu Qi entered the bus with Aoi. She did not have time to deal with Bai Yu. However, if he dared to mess with her family, she without mercy would destroy him. And that was not just a word.

'Master, do you think he would give up?' Aoi asked.

'Well, I don't think so. He is a hot-blooded man. He probably would not give up. But I don't care about that. He can do whatever he likes. Just don't try to touch my bottom line.' Yu Qi looked outside the bus.

Aoi knew his master's bottom line. It was his master's family. Who dared to touch her family, would get their retribution.

Chapter 459 - 459: Qi Qi Skincare

The shop which would sell the 'Qi Qi' skincare brand finally could be launched. Yu Qi chose the second weekend of October to launch her skincare branch.

The company promoted the skincare to the public. The reaction of the public was not so big. Yu Qi thought that it was nothing wrong. It was quite normal for the public to think that way because the skincare brand was new to them. They might not believe it in the first place.

Yu Qi also helped them to promote her skincare brand to her friends. As she had proposed her business plan, the market target of this skincare brand were women, no matter what age that women were. All women like to enhance their beauties.

When her friends heard that Yu Qi had produced skincare products, they were astonished when they found out about that. Despite her study, she managed to do so. They wondered how Yu Qi had managed her time.

"I saw someone promoted this 'Qi Qi' skincare product when I hang up at the town last week. They said their shop would be open this weekend. At that time, I don't think that is your product." So Pang Lim said while feeling proud of her friend.

"Well, I did give some free testers to you for using." Yu Qi smiled.

"Wait, you mean some liquids and creams that you have given us to try, that are your products?" Mei Lilli was shocked.

They suddenly remembered that Yu Qi sometimes casually gave them something for them to you. And the effects were brilliant.

Yu Qi nodded. She did give out the products that she had created to them to use after she had used them herself.

"Oh my God, Yu Qi, you should study business instead of medical." Mei Lilli thought that Yu Qi was being forced to study to be a doctor since her family was the doctor family.

"This skincare product is just my side business. I still want to be a doctor like my grandfather." Yu Qi did think like that.

"Well, since Yu Qi's shop will open this weekend, let's go and celebrate it." Song Ha Ting suggested.

"That's right. We need to celebrate." So Pang Lim nodded.

Yu Qi brought Aoi to her shop on the day of the opening. The staff at the shop already knew Yu Qi since Su Yu Hi had already introduced her as their boss. They never had expected that such a young girl would create the skincare brand.

In the beginning, they thought that Su Yu Hi was their big boss, not Yu Qi when Su Yu Hi had first brought Yu Qi to the shop. They thought that Yu Qi was his assistant. When Su Yu Hi told them that she was their big boss, they were surprised.

Su Yu Hi also told them that all the skincare products were created by Yu Qi. That made the staff respect Yu Qi.

"Miss Yu Qi, you have come." One of the staff members greeted Yu Qi.

"How are the preparations?" Yu Qi asked.

"Good." The staff member only said one word.

Yu Qi nodded while smiling. She looked around. The shop was ready to be opened.

"Don't mind me. You all can continue your work." Yu Qi waved her hand.

After half an hour, the shop finally opened. To promote the product, the first fifty customers that came to the shop would be given a complete set of skincare products which consisted of cleanser, eye cream, day moisture cream, night moisture cream, serum, and UV cream for free. It was Yu Qi's long term strategies.

At first, Su Yu Hi and other staff felt that it was a waste. Giving customers a whole set for free. However, Yu Qi was giving them the assurance that the customers who would get their hands on the free sets would be coming back to buy her skincare products.

Yu Qi was confident that they would come back again to buy her skincare products. That was fully sure.

When the shop opened, there were people came in to see what kind of the skincare products that the shop had. It seemed that the previous promotions did a good job. As Yu Qi promised, the first fifty customers got a whole set for free.

The customers did not expect that the shop would be giving their products for free. Since the price of each product could be considered expensive. The staff said they would be only giving the first fifty customers who came to the shop for free.

The staff also offered free testers in the shop. The customers could try their face masks. The staff explained that the face mask was made up of the promising herbs that would smooth the skin of their faces.

One of the customers was eager to try it. She had some acne on her face. Before she wore the mask, the staff washed and massaged her face a little bit, telling her that there is saying face needed to free of the makeup to make sure the better effect from the face mask.

After 20 minutes, the staff took off the face mask from the customer. The customer took a look on her face at the mirror. To her surprise, the acne on her face had decreased and her face looked smoother than before. And she noticed something.

"I think my face looks slimmer than before." The customer commented.

"Yes miss, it is one of the effects of this face mask. It makes your face look slimmer." The staff said.

"Really, then I need to buy this face mask too. It is very comfortable to use. It has some cooling effect. I thought the cold effect just when the face mask touched my face. But it has lasted until the end." The customer told her opinion.

The other customers who watched and heard the comments made the decision to get the face mask for themselves. Because free products did not include the face mask.

The effects of the face mask were this amazing, then how were their other products? They would not wait to try themselves.

Chapter 460 - 460: It's Impossible

The sales were not so bad even though it was just the first day. The staff were kind of expected that the product would be well received by the customers. They knew because they already tried the products themselves.

Their boss told them to try the products themselves. She said if they wanted to sell the products better, they needed to understand the products better. To understand the products, the best way was to use the products themselves.

They were told by the factory workers that their boss used the same products. Then, they braved themselves trying the products. Turns out, after only a few days of trying, their faces looked better than before.

Because they knew the effects of the products, they answered the questions given by the customers so confidently.

Like...

"Yes, madame. The effects could be seen in a few days. I also tried the products myself. After a few days, my skin becomes smooth and brighter."

"Yes, miss. Our products are made up 100% from the herbs. Our researchers put a lot of effect on making this product. I can 100% guarantee that you will be satisfied with the product."

From that moment, they knew the products would be sold. Probably it would be like a hot potato in the skincare market later.

The store was already visited by fifty customers since the free set was already gone. Yu Qi's friends, such as Mei Lilli, So Pang Lim, Song Ha Ting, Ding Na An and even Yun Xiao came to congratulate her.

They already got the free sets. Yun Xiao also got one. So Pang Lim told him to give the free set to her since it was for women skincare. But Yun Xiao refused to give it to her. He told me that he could give it to his mother as a present.

Yu Qi told them that she might produce skincare for men too in the future. She just needed to do some research about them.

"Do you get the full information about the girl?" Mu Li Zei asked the person.

"It is what I get from the investigation." The person put the file on the table in front of Mu Li Zei.

Mu Li Zei signalled his assistant. His assistant nodded. His assistant gave a cheque to the person.

Receiving the cheque into his hand, the person smiled and kissed the cheque. "Sir, if you have to find the information again, please contact me. I will satisfy you." After saying that, the person walked out of the room.

Mu Li Zei opened the file. When he read the information about the girl, he was very astonished. This girl's information was really mind-blowing. He did not expect that the girl had a magnificent background.

At a young age, she already owned various businesses. An investment company, ryokan hotel, greenhouse, and her almost recent business was the newly established skincare brand. How could a young girl like her own many of the business like this?

When he investigated her background last time, nothing like this was stated in her information. When he asked his assistant, his assistant told him that the person who did the investigation had done a poor job.

He read about her past. From the information, he got to know that she was left by her parents in front of the orphanage. Then shortly after that, she was adopted by a family named Wang. After living about 16 to 17 year in the Wang Family, she suddenly cut off the tie and was adopted by Tang Family.

This information was also the same as the last investigation. Meaning it might be true.

"Then, she is not their daughter." Mu Li Zei made the conclusion.

So, it was just a coincidence that the girl had the same face as that woman. When he first saw the face, he was thinking about the probability that this girl might be his niece. But when he was looking at the age of the girl, it did not match.

They already died two years before the girl was born. It would be impossible for the girl to become their daughter.

Mu Li Zei sighed. Looked like he was thinking too much recently. He pinched his eyebrows. He was probably tired. With that wife and daughter, it became more tiring.

His wife, Su Yu Qing cried day and night begging him to find a doctor to heal their daughter. Her daughter, Mu Rong Xie, made a scene at the hospital saying that she wanted to kill herself if her wounds did still not heal. The doctors needed to use the sedative to calm down her.

"You can leave. I want to rest for a moment." Mu Li Zei waved his hand while telling his assistant to leave the room.

Mu Yian was about to knock her father's door, surprised when she saw the door was opened from inside. She saw her father's assistant, Mr Gou Sheng stepped out from the room.

"Yes, young miss?" Gou Sheng inquired.

"My father is in?" Mu Yian asked.

"Yes, but he tells me that he wants to rest. You can't disturb him." Gou Sheng politely told Mu Yian.

"Okay, I will come later. Thank you, Mr Gou." Mu Yian left the place.

She could wait. She did not want to disturb her father. Her father was very angry when someone disturbed his rest. Even her mother did not miss out being yelled of when her mother disturbed her father's rest.
