Chapter 61: Wang Fu Ya Make Herself Look Stupid.

The Staff Room door was opened from outside. Yu Qi was shocked. She was about to open that door. Wang Fu Ya appeared in front of her looking so confident. She never knew why this girl looked so confidently when she always lose against her.

Yu Qi stepped aside. Wang Fu Ya entered and approached Madam Tong. Yu Qi was not going outside. She decided to wait and see what was Wang Fu Ya planned to do.

"Madam Tong, I have something to tell you." Wang Fu Ya said politely to Madam Tong.

Madam Tong eyeing Wang Fu Ya. She began to like this girl because of her way to speak with the teacher was very polite. Unlike that girl earlier.

"Madam Tong, actually the answer sheet written by Yu Qi was mine. She forced me to write her name on my answer sheet and she wrote my name on her answer sheet." Wang Fu Ya told the 'truth' to Madam Tong.

Madam Tong and the teacher turned frowned when she spoke about that. When Wang Fu Ya saw the all of them frowned, she thought they were thinking about Yu Qi, she became happy. She did not know about Yu Qi taking some test earlier and proved her capability.

Yes, the teachers including Madam Tong thought about Yu Qi. Thinking why this Wang Fu Ya saying something like this. If they did not see Yu Qi's capability earlier, they might think like that too. However, after seeing that earlier, they suspected that this Wang Fu Ya was lying to slander Yu Qi.

Yu Qi who listening to the lie just smiling. She thought she did not has to deal with Wang Fu Ya this time. The teacher would. She just had to wait and see.

"Madam Tong, I suggest to let Student Wang Fu Ya answer the same question earlier like Yu Qi. But because of limited time, we can ask her to answer only one subject that she choose from. How about that?" A teacher whispered the suggestion to Madam Tong.

Madam Tong also thought it was a good suggestion. She nodded several times. Wang Fu Ya saw this thought Madam Tong would punish Yu Qi, she turned to Yu Qi who standing not far behind her provoked Yu Qi with a smile.

"Wang Fu Ya, can you tell me, what is your favorite subject?" A question from Madam Tong surprised Wang Fu Ya.

"Eh...What?" Wang Fu Ya was dumbfounded

"I ask you, what is the subject that you like and scored the most?" Madam Tong repeated her question.

"Chemistry." Wang Fu Ya answered.

"Okay, prepare the same question as before." Madam Tong ordered.

Wang Fu Ya did not know what happened. So, she just had to wait for Madam Tong to explain to her.

"Wang Fu Ya, please sit here and answers these questions." Madam Tong placed some paper on a table and asking Wang Fu Ya to sit and answers that.

"Madam Tong, can you explain to me what is this all about?" Wang Fu Ya asked for inquiry the situation.

"Please answers that first. You are given 20 minutes. We will explain to you later."

So, Wang Fu Ya did not has a choice but to answer those questions. She frowned when she looked at the questions. She thought that questions were pretty difficult. Of course, under the teachers staring at her, it was a lot of pressure to answer those questions. She tried to fill her answer sheet. She thought the given 20 minutes was not enough to answer all the question. So, when the given 20 minutes was finished, there were two questions that she was unable to finish them.

The teacher collected the answer sheet and marked that. After finished, he gave that to Madam Tong. Madam Tong frowned to see the result. She doubted when this student said that Yu Qi forced her to write Yu Qi's name on her answer sheet.

" Wang Fu Ya, tell us the truth. Is it true that Yu Qi was forcing you to write her name on your answer sheet?" Madam Tong verified again.

"Yes..." Wang Fu Ya confidently said yes but been cut by Madam Tong.

"I never thought you would lie to the teachers so openly. Look at this answer sheet." Madam Tong brought out Yu Qi answer sheet earlier. "This is the same questions given to Yu Qi. She answered it all and got the full mark. Not only this subject, Physics, Biology, Math, English, and Language, she got the full mark. Why did she ask you to write her name on your answer when she can perform well than you?"

Wang Fu Ya flabbergasted. She did not know that Yu Qi also answered this kind of questions and also five other subjects. She also scored full mark on all the subject. She thought Yu Qi was been held by the teacher because she did not admit that she was cheating. Who thought that time she had answered the questions prepared to her to prove the truth.

"Wang Fu Ya, you will be punished for 1-month cleaning the toilet for lied to teacher and also slandering your classmate. The janitor will instruct you starting for today. Go and see her after school hours." Madam Tong gave the final say for Wang Fu Ya.

Yu Qi felt she was seeing enough. She slowly exited the Staff Room going back to the classroom. Feng Yue quickly talked to Yu Qi.

"Are you okay?" Feng Yue hold Yu Qi's hand.

"I'm okay. The teacher will not punish me because I'm not guilty." Yu Qi spoke loudly so everyone heard that.

"Yu Qi did you saw Wang Fu Ya? I think she also went to the Staff room an hour ago." A student asked Yu Qi.

"Owh, I did saw her. She went to the staff room to tell the teacher an interesting fact. You can ask you later." Yu Qi gave an ambiguous smile.

The student who been asked Yu Qi felt weird when she saw Yu Qi smiled like that.

Chapter 62: Sign The Contract

Wang Fu Ya entered the classroom. She bet Yu Qi already told everyone in the classroom about her destructive act. How can she stay in this classroom anymore? She wanted to cry and she held back. She did not want to cry in front of everyone especially Yu Qi.

"Wang Fu Ya, what were you told the teacher?" The student who asked Yu Qi earlier curious wanted to find out what was the interesting fact that Wang Fu Ya told the teachers.

"Did Yu Qi told you already? Yes, I told the teachers, she forced me to write her name on my answer sheet making her answer sheet was mine. But the teachers don't believe me. They make me answered some question and look at my result. They had compared that result to Yu Qi's result. She also answered the same question I did. And my result was bad compared to that bitch." Wang Fu Ya was snapped. She blurted everything happened in the Staff Room.

"What? You lie to the teacher and slander Yu Qi's name?"

All of them were flabbergasted. This time, Wang Fu Ya admitted that she was slandering Yu Qi.

"What? Did that bitch told you everything?" Wang Fu Ya hissed.

"Yu Qi did not tell us anything. She told us to ask you about what happened in the Staff Room. I never thought a girl like you would do something like that. So, I guessed the rumor was true then. Your family hated Yu Qi and abused her." A girl who also hated Wang Fu Ya voiced her opinion.

Then, people started mumbling about all the rumor regarding Yu Qi and Wang Family.

"Did you happy, Yu Qi? You destroy our reputation." Wang Fu Ya screamed to Yu Qi who talking to Feng Yue and did not pay any attention to Wang Fu Ya.

"Humph...Stupid. It was you, who destroyed your own reputation. Did Yu Qi ask you to lie to the teacher earlier? You did yourself. Don't blame someone else for your stupidity." Feng Yue retorted what Wang Fu Ya said.

Other nodded acknowledged that Feng Yue said. Wang Fu Ya was the one who went to the Staff Room herself and made herself a fool.

YU QI entered Godly Herbs. She saw Grandpa Tang approached her.

"Did you have a plan today?" Grandpa Tang asked.

"I have a class with you. What happened?"

"Mr. Jang called me earlier asking whether is it possible to sign the contract this evening?"

"Owh...He had already finalized the contract. Let sign it this evening."

"Okay, I will call him now."

Grandpa Tang disappeared into his study room. Yu Qi went to her room and took a bath. After finished her bath, he heard a knock on her door.

"Yes?"

"Miss Yu Qi, Doctor Tang said get ready in half an hour." Song Nan conveys Grandpa Tang's message.

"Okay, I got it. Thank you, Uncle Song."

She began to dress. She wanted to dress formally but she forgot that she did not have formal attire. She just took her school uniform and wore it.

She stepped outside her room and saw Grandpa Tang was already waiting for her.

Grandpa Tang drove his car to the location stated by Mr. Jang. It turned out it was the bank she previously opened the account. Grandpa Tang informed the bank officer about their business. They were lead to a room. Mr. Chu and Mr. Jang were already there. They stand up and greeted Grandpa Tang and Yu Qi. Grandpa Tang and Yu Qi greeted them back.

They sat opposite the Mr. Chu and Mr. Jang. Without wasting any time, Mr. Jang placed the new contract on the table in front of them.

"Miss Yu Qi, this is the new contract that I revised later. Please check it. I already revised the payment term that you requested."

Yu Qi took and read the contract. She was satisfied with this. The soon she got those lands, the better.

"I think this contract was okay. Can I sign it now?"

"Yes. Please." Mr. Jang nodded.

She signed the two copies of the contract and Mr. Jang also signed them too. Yu Qi brought out the cheque that she was prepared earlier and gave to Mr. Jang.

"It was my pleasure to do business with you." Mr. Jang stands up and shakes Yu Qi's hand.

"Me too." Yu Qi bows a little to him.

Now, the lands belonged to Yu Qi. She will start to develop the land at the nearby mountain first. She wanted to build a Japanese Traditional Hotel known as Ryokan. She also wanted to build the outdoor hot spring. So, the tourist could enjoy nature when in the hot spring.

"Grandfather, do you have contacts with construction contractor? I want to open tender for them to bid." Yu Qi asked Grandpa Tang when they already outside the bank.

"Well, I have some but you better asked that Old Man Feng. He has more contacts when comes to the construction." Grandpa Tang said.

"Owh, I see. I will meet Grandpa Feng tomorrow."

Chapter 63: Who Is This Man?

Grandpa Tang drove Yu Qi to Old Man Feng's house. Yu Qi saw Feng Yue in the middle of training. When Feng Yue was aware of Yu Qi's presence, she immediately stepped her training and ran to Yu Qi.

"Yu Qi. You came." Feng Yue greeted Yu Qi.

"Are you in the middle of training? Sorry for disturb you." Yu Qi said.

"No no no. It was good you came. Now I had a reason to stop." Feng Yue whispered to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi confused.

"Hi, Yu Qi. We meet again." A husky voice greeted Yu Qi.

'This voice was that man's voice.' She lifted her head and turned to the voice's direction. Yeah, it was Long Hui. Long Hui was smiled charmingly to her. She swallowed her own saliva. This man, is he not aware of his smile could kill the maiden heart.

Long Hui still smiled when he looked at Yu Qi. The more he looked at her, the more he thought she become beautiful. Now they were staring at each other and forgot about Feng Yue who was in the middle of them.

"Cough..cough." Feng Yue made a sound.

Yu Qi broke the contact and turned her view somewhere else. Only Long Hui was still looked at her intensely. Feng Yue smiled when she saw these two people reaction.

"Yue, where is Grandpa Feng? I want to see him and discuss something." Yu Qi stated the reason why she came here in the first place.

"Grandfather? I think he might in his study room. Come, I will call grandfather for you." Feng Yue pulled Yu Qi's hand and entered the house.

Feng Yue asked the maid her grandfather. The maid stated her grandfather was with Grandpa Tang. Yu Qi actually forgot that she came with Grandpa Tang. Feng Yue asked the maid to tell her grandfather that Yu Qi wanted to meet him.

"I will go and take a quick bath. My body was stink. You can wait here." Feng Yue ran to her room.

"She left us alone." That sentence made Yu Qi shocked. She turned to Long Hui who sat not far from her.

Long Hui chuckled. This girl stunned when she heard his voice.

"Why you look so scared with me?" Long Hui began to talk to Yu Qi.

"Who...scare you?"

"Owh...Then can we talk together?"

"Yeah...Sure."

Long Hui move closer to Yu Qi.

"Why are you sit close to me?" Yu Qi quickly asked when she saw Long Hui move closer to her.

"It was more convenience like this. We don't have to speak louder." Long Hui smiled. Now he thinks he finds a new hobby which is teased Yu Qi.

"Moreover, we can take a better look when we were talking."

Yu Qi started to turn red. She was never thought that this Long Hui was good in flirting.

"No need to look. Just talking was enough."

"But talking while looking will give a great impact."

Yu Qi was flustered with this new Long Hui. Feng Yue said her Brother Hui was a cold man, did not speak much. Then, who was this man? Is he been possessed by a ghost?

"I never thought that Major Long was a talkative person." Yu Qi made a comment.

"You can call me Brother Hui like Yue call me." Long Hui paused a moment and continued back. "Well, it seems when I meet you, my mouth wants to talk to you."

'Why no one come here yet? I can not handle this man flirting.' Yu Qi turned her face right and left looking for someone.

"Yu Qi seems afraid to me this time. Compared to last time."

'Yes, you seem to be possessed by a ghost.'

"Did you do some training?" Now Long Hui talked seriously. His eyes looked up and down at Yu Qi's body. He could see some changes when he looked at her body. Her muscles seemed to develop. Which mean she did some training to herself.

"Training? Well, I did some of it. Running 3km a day, mountain climbing, push up, tai chi, and many more." She tried to list them but there were too many of them. Well, some of them, she did in her space.

Long Hui stunned. He never thought she did that training. No wonder her body changed. He thinking to recruit her into the military. She did have the ability. Her agile, her speed, her quick, and the most impressive was her marksmanship. The night when she went to save her boss, when she shot the two men in the middle of their forehead was brilliant.

"Why did you ask that?" Yu Qi curious when Long Hui asked that.

"Well, your body looks nice." Long Hui narrowed his eyes while looking at Yu Qi's body.

Yu Qi took that as a provocative and pervert look. She immediately shielding her body. "Pervert."

Long Hui just smiled. Seemed like this girl thought the wrong way however he did not bothered to explain it.

"Brat, what are you try to do with my granddaughter?" Grandpa Tang and Old Man Feng appeared where Long Hui and Yu Qi sat right when Yu Qi shouted 'pervert' to Long Hui.

Long Hui just made an expressionless face. "I just flirting with her, that all."

Grandpa Tang "..."

Old Man Feng "..."

Yu Qi "..."

Chapter 64: Attract Business Tycoon

Old Man Feng was staring at Long Hui. He could not believe what he just heard. Did he just said he was flirting with Yu Qi? This cold man had shown interest in the opposite gender. This is a piece of good news. He had to tell the Long Zhen Wu. Wait, but this girl was only 16 years old and still in the school. She was still very young compared to Long Hui which in his 22 years old. Wait, it was just a six years difference. It was acceptable.

While Old Man Feng felt happy with this, Grandpa Tang felt a different way. He did not like this brat. He felt this brat would take Yu Qi from him. He just got this granddaughter. And he thought he could found another amazing man to her granddaughter if he wanted to in the future. But not now.

"Nice, Brother Hui. Yu Qi might be my sister sooner or later." Feng Yue joined the group after finished taking the bath.

"Humph." Grandpa Tang made a sound.

Feng Yue laughed when she saw a reaction from Grandpa Tang. She knew that Grandpa Tang only hated this idea because he only getting Yu Qi and Yu Qi was still young. She knew that Grandpa Tang will agree when the time is coming because her Brother Hui is an amazing man. He managed to climb to Major rank only when he was 22 years old. He was the youngest major in history and he will climb further higher.

Yu Qi just silently all the time. She stole a glance at Long Hui. And she was caught by himself. Long Hui just smiled charmingly. Yu Qi quickly turned her view to another direction. 'How come I been caught stole a glance to him? How embarrassing.' Then she coughed adjusting her voice.

"Grandpa Feng, I came here to meet you." Yu Qi was back to her original aim coming here.

Old Man Feng automatically sat straightly when he heard Yu Qi's tone. "What is it?"

"I come here after grandfather told me that you have a large contact from the construction contractor. I would like to ask you a favor."

"What's kind of favor?" Old Man Feng asked.

"Actually, I just brought the land nearby mountain. I want to build a hotel. A Japanese hotel actually. So, I want to open the tender to invite the contract to bid. I don't have any contact in the industry. So, I hope that you can help me with this." Yu Qi made a humble request.

"Owh...I see. I can help you. But I would like to see some documents like the proposal, design of the hotel and the what's related to it. So, I can attract the contractor." Old Man Feng responded professionally. He was kind of interested in the project itself.

"Okay, I will show to you if I'm done preparing those documents." Yu Qi felt happy. In her brain, she already drafted her proposal. As for the design, she already had the idea. In her past life, she went to Japan for business and for holiday. Mostly the hotel she went to were traditional hotels known as Ryokan. She also enjoyed the outdoor hot spring. So, she was planning to build the ryokan and outdoor hot spring.

"Yu Qi, did you said you brought the lands?" Old Man Feng just realized that Yu Qi said that she brought the lands.

"Yes, I did. I brought three of them." She said innocently.

"Three of them?" Now Old Man Feng's jaw dropped.

'What is this girl plan to do when she brought those lands? This girl's mind was very mature.' Old Man Feng's eyes were shining when he looked Yu Qi. This girl also seemed to have knowledge in business. He was thinking to pull this girl to his side.

"Old Man Feng, don't think about that. This is my disciple. She will become a doctor." Grandpa Tang said to Old Man Feng. He knew that Old Man Feng wanted to pull his precious granddaughter to study business.

"Old Man Tang, she has talent in the business. If I sharpen her, she might be a legend, you know." Old Man Feng smirked.

"She also very talented in medicine. I will not give her to you." Old Man Tang retorted.

Then, the mouth fighting between the two old men began.

"Grandpas, I have something to say." Yu Qi came between those two old men.

The two of them turned to her. One was looking at her with 'come to me' look. One was looking at her with 'don't abandon me' look. She chuckled.

"For the time being, I want to study medicine. I do like business though. I will come and looking for Grandpa Feng if necessary." She calmed those two men.

Grandpa Tang and Old Man Feng were staring each other. Finally, both of them gave up and said one word.

Grandpa Tang "Humph"

Old Man Feng "Humph"

Feng Yue and Yu Qi laughed when they saw the same reaction came from their grandfathers. Long Hui who also there made a small smile. Looking at Yu Qi, he also thought this girl had a brain for business. She managed to get acknowledge from the most strict doctor. Now Old Man Feng was known as a business tycoon wanted to pull her to his side. He wondered what would his grandfather do when he met this genius marksmanship.

Chapter 65: Aoi

After dinner with Grandpa Tang and Uncle Song, Yu Qi went upstairs to her room. She told Grandpa Tang that she will be doing her homework, so she did not want to be disturb. Actually, she wanted to enter her space. She wanted to finalize the proposal that she wanted to show to Old Man Feng. With the blink of eyes, she entered her space. Bo Ya was excited to see her again.

"Master."

"It is nice to come here. The air is fresh but to the outside. The outside air is polluted." She took a deep breath.

"Indeed. The outside air cannot compare in this space. Then, Master, you want the usual routine?"

"Yes, but I want to decrease the duration. I want to prepare and finish my proposal."

"Owh, sure. You can take your time."

Yu Qi went into Pagoda. As usual, she took a lesson about herbs and medicine and the training about martial art and shooting about 2 hours each of them. Then, she took a break of about fifteen minutes before she started to finalize the proposal.

She entered the room on the 1st floor of the Pagoda. That room was equipped with the computer so that she could find more information in the ryokan itself regarding its design. Even though she already had designed the ryokan but she wanted to improve the design.

There was a lot of design that looks interesting to Yu Qi. She wanted to touch up a little bit of her design. When she working on her design, Bo Ya came. He seemed to carry something.

"Master, look at what I found." Bo Ya showed Yu Qi that he just found.

Yu Qi stopped working and looked at Bo Ya found. She did not find anything weird at all. It was just a dog. Well, actually it just a puppy.

"Master here is your space. You don't remember? How can this get inside here?" Bo Ya reminded Yu Qi where they were right now.

Yeah, she forgot about where they were right now. They were in her space. It should not have living creatures inside her space except Bo Ya. Well living creatures, of course, not including what had Pagoda illustrated to her during her training.

Yu Qi kneeled down and took the puppy. She noticed it was a Siberian husky breed. The puppy opened its eyes and looked straight to Yu Qi. What's an eye. The beautiful blue eyes of the puppy were very attracting to Yu Qi. She wanted to keep the puppy.

"Master?" Bo Ya called Yu Qi when he saw Yu Qi seemed to lose in dazed.

"How can this puppy appear in this space?" Yu Qi asked.

"Well, I don't know. I found it when I was wondering around the lake."

"Lake? Maybe that lake connected to the outside world?"

"I don't know Master. It might be possible."

"Bo Ya, I wonder if I want to keep this puppy with me. Can I?"

"Well, it's up to you. Master can make the decision."

"Okay then. I will keep this puppy. Its name will be...Hmm...I know. Your name will be Aoi." Yu Qi lifted and kissed the puppy.

Yeah, Yu Qi did make some effort thinking about this puppy name. Aoi means blue color in English. Because of the puppy's eyes were blue, its name would be Aoi.

Aoi seemed to understand Yu Qi. It licked Yu Qi's face with its small tongue. Yu Qi was very happy about getting a pet. She hugged Aoi while humming. Then she felt some sharp but short pain on her hand.

"Ouch." She made a sound.

"Master, what happened?" Bo Ya quickly asked when he heard Yu Qi.

"Aoi bite me." She said.

She then looked at the place that Aoi bite. A mark appeared on her backhand. She studied the mark. Why this mark appeared on her hand right after Aoi bite her?

"Master, it was a blood contract. This puppy makes a blood contract with you." Bo Ya explained when he saw the mark on his master hand.

"Blood contract? What is supposed to mean?" Yu Qi asked.

"Well, blood contract means you and Aoi have a relationship as a master beast and beast. He can appear beside you if you summon it wherever you are. It also will die if you die. It was different between you and me."

"Eh, did we also have a contract?" Yu Qi interpret.

"Yes, we do. But it slightly different you can summon me in this space only and I will not die if you die."

"Owh, I see. Meaning I can get it out from here too, right?" Yu Qi confirming that.

"Yes."

"Aoi, wait. Let me check its gender." Yu Qi checking it. "My dear, you are a male. Aoi, my cute dog." Yu Qi hugged and kissed Aoi once again.

Bo Ya was looking at this scene felt envy. "Master, do you hate me now?"

Yu Qi who was smiling stunned when she heard Bo Ya spoke like that.

Yu Qi kneeled down. She put Aoi on the ground and facing Bo Ya.

"Bo Ya, why are you saying that?"

"Master, you already get someone else."

"Aoi is Aoi, Bo Ya is Bo Ya. You are not the same. I like you and Aoi. You are my family right now." She patted Bo Ya's head.

"Then, can Master hug and kiss like you do to Aoi?" Bo Ya requested with puppy look.

Yu Qi laughed. She hugged and lifted Bo Ya up. Then, she gave two kisses on his right and left cheek. Bo Ya then smiled looking at Yu Qi.

Chapter 66 : Their Lady Boss

After school, Yu Qi went to the mountain. She wanted to look at the land that she brought. It might give her some idea about the design. Well, it was part of her aim today going to the mountain. The truth was she wanted to pull out Aoi from her space.

She wanted to get him out yesterday but Bo Ya reminded her about something. Grandpa Tang, Uncle Song will be wonder where this dog came from. It might chaos later.

So, Bo Ya suggested that Yu Qi went to the mountain and get Aoi out from her space. It would be an excuse where Yu Qi found that puppy. She just could say that she picked up the puppy in the mountain and decided to take care of him.

She entered the space after seeing the land. Bo Ya and Aoi jumped excitedly when they saw Yu Qi appeared. Yu Qi came and hugged the two cuties in front of her.

"I want to go to take my lesson. Do you want to follow me, Bo Ya, Aoi?"

Bo Ya "Yes."

Aoi "Woof."

Yu Qi "Come."

The two cuties followed beside Yu Qi. The cute boy and the cute puppy. Ah, how cute. She could die from the cuteness of these two cuties. She went to take a lesson about herbs about an hour and enter the practice room to make some medicine from the herbs that she learned before. Aoi also took part. He listened to the lecture given. Yu Qi thought he might understand because he was not a normal dog. He could understand what Yu Qi and Bo Ya said. And most important evidence that proved this dog was not normal was the blood contract that he established when he bites Yu Qi.

Then Yu Qi went to the training room. She did some training on her martial arts and her shooting skill. Aoi seemed wanted to follow Yu Qi. However, Yu Qi prohibited him. She considered him as the puppy. He indeed needed some training but it could wait until he became a little big first.

After finished all her routine, she decided to visit the farm. The fresh fruit and vegetable look very delicious to Yu Qi. It attracted Yu Qi. Then her stomach was growling. Bo Ya who listened to it laughed.

"Master, you can eat them if you are hungry."

Yu Qi also laughed when she heard her own stomach growled. She took some violet color grapes and ate them. The sweetness of the grapes was very delicious. Aoi looked at Yu Qi. He seemed to taste the grapes.

"You want some?" Yu Qi said to Aoi.

"Woof," Aoi answered.

"Here. Have a taste." Yu Qi put some of the grapes in front of Aoi.

Aoi ate them. He looked very happy when the grapes entered his mouth.

"You are not normal dog if you like fruit." Yu Qi patted his head. His fur was very soft to touch.

"I want to collect some vegetables to sell to that auntie." She finally remembered the reason she came to the farm after playing with Aoi's fur.

She entered the working mode. She collected some wild vegetables. Collected after collected, she had two baskets full of vegetables. Thank to her daily training, she could lift up all of them. She decided to get out of the space.

"Bo Ya, I will leave first with Aoi." Yu Qi said to Bo Ya.

"I also wish to go out with you, Master." Bo Ya looked up to her with his teary eyes.

"If you are not bound to this space, I also would like to take you with me." She gently patted the little boy's head.

"It's okay, Master. Hurry up and go." Bo Ya said.

"Woof." Aoi came closer to Bo Ya and licked his hand.

"Take care of Master to me." Bo Ya reminded Aoi.

Yu Qi who listened to their conversation chuckled. Not like she going anywhere danger to make Bo Ya said like that.

"Come, Aoi." She lifted Aoi and touch the two baskets. She makes sure that all two baskets touched her hand. Then she closed her eyes. After she opened her eyes, she already out from her space.

She looked at her watch. Five o'clock in the evening. That auntie's shop still open. She quickly getting outside the mountain with the baskets and Aoi walked beside her.

"Yu Qi, what are you doing here?" A voice startled Yu Qi from behind. This voice belonged to that man.

Yu Qi turned around and saw a breathtaking Long Hui in his military uniform and several men. Aoi sensed that Yu Qi seemed afraid to that man making a low sound. Long Hui saw a puppy beside Yu Qi, a Siberian husky breed, making the growling sound toward Long Hui.

"Aoi, stay." A word from Yu Qi stopped Aoi for making the sound.

Long Hui was smiling when Yu Qi gave order to that puppy. This was the first time he saw this puppy beside Yu Qi. He came closer to Yu Qi.

"What are you doing here, dear Yu Qi?" Long Hui asked again with a teasing tone.

The several men who came together with Long Hui stunned when they heard Long Hui spoke like that with the young girl.

"I...collected...some wild vegetables...to sell...to the market." Yu Qi flustered answered his answers.

Long Hui looked at the two baskets with Yu Qi. "Market? In the town?"

"Yes."

"How do you planning to bring them?"

"Huh? By lifting them." Yu Qi felt weird when Long Hui asked that question.

"By your own self?"

"Yes."

Long Hui narrowed his eyes. How can this girl carry the baskets walking to the market by herself? Long Hui sighed.

"I will send you by my vehicle."

"No. You don't have to. I will go by myself."

"My dear, did you know the market was 1.5 kilometer from here? How can you walk with the baskets?"

"But I can." Yu Qi protested. Been with this man was more dangerous.

"I will send you. No more protest."

"No."

"Why? Are you afraid of me?"

"What?!! Who are afraid with you? Fine, I will go with you."

Long Hui smiled when Yu Qi agreed to go to with him. The angry face of Yu Qi was very cute and attracted him.

While Long Hui and Yu Qi in their word battle, his subordinates were dumbfounded when they saw their major teasing the girl. First, he was smiling, then he was teasing the girl, and then he wanted to help the girl by sending her to the place she wanted to go. Is this their major? The cold major that hated woman?

"You guys can continue. I will be right back." Long Hui gave instruction to his subordinates.

"Yes, sir."

They would get their lady boss soon or later. Their Major was not gay. That was something to celebrate. They had a silly smile when they looked at Long Hui currently carried the girl's basket.

Chapter 67: Stunned With Her Smile

Meanwhile, Yu Qi sat in Long Hui's vehicle nervously. She regretted agreeing to Long Hui so that he would send her to the market. Her mouth was faster than her brain. Aoi licked his beastmaster to calm her. He also turned to Long Hui. He marked this man. His beastmaster seemed afraid to this man.

"Did you always went to the mountain?" Long Hui started to question her.

"Yes."

"Why?"

"Why what?"

"Why did you went to the mountain? It was dangerous to a girl like you."

"It was safer than being with you." She mumbling slowly.

"What?" Long Hui asked. He could hear her answered him but he could not hear the detail of it.

"I went to find wild vegetables to sell. I can get some money from it." Yu Qi finally answered his question.

"Did you have Doctor Tang support you?"

"I can get the money from my own effort. Besides food and place to stay, I cannot ask Grandpa Tang for money. It might consider rude because I already received a lot of help from him."

"Then, what about the lands?"

"That money came from the money that I sold the ginseng." She retorted.

Long Hui stunned. He thought she asked her grandfather the money to buy the lands.

"I'm sorry." He apologized.

"Huh? Why did you apologize?"

"Because I thought that you asked your grandfather money."

"Oh, it's okay." This guy quickly apologized when he thought he was wrong. His image in her eyes improved a little bit. Just a little.

They arrived at the market. Yu Qi saw the auntie that brought her wild vegetable before. She quickly greeted her.

"Aunt Chang." Yu Qi greeted her.

"Owh, my dear. It has been a long time since the last time you came here. Did you have vegetables? The last time I brought vegetables from you, my customers came back to buy it again." Aunt Chang happily reported to Yu Qi about what had happened.

"I'm busy lately. Only today I have time to go to the mountain. Wait here, I will get the vegetables." Yu Qi turned around and her eyes locked to the man quietly standing behind her with the baskets.

"Thank you."

"Welcome, my dear." Long Hui smiled sweetly to Yu Qi.

Aunt Chang who looking that the couple also smiled. This man was very handsome. If she was young like Yu Qi, she may be falling in love with this man. Seemed this man was chasing Yu Qi. She could tell that this man tried to tackle Yu Qi.

"What a good man you have here." Aunt Chang praised Long Hui and continued, "Yu Qi, is this your boyfriend?"

Yu Qi "No."

Long Hui " Not yet."

They answered quickly and stared at each other. Long Hui was smiling charmingly to make Yu Qi fall in love with him. Yu Qi, on another hand, when she looked at that smile, her heart fluttered. She then turned around.

"Aunt Chang, this is the vegetable that I managed to collect today." Yu Qi changed the topic and talked to Aunt Chang and pointed to the two baskets that Long Hui put already.

"Owh...It's a lot." Aunt Chang's shined when she looked at the vegetables. She asked her staff and separated them according to its types.

"Yu Qi can I pay you tomorrow? I have to calculate them first." Looking at the vegetable, she sure they don't have enough time to calculate them while Yu Qi was waiting. The night approaching. She also had to close the shop.

"Sure. I don't mind. I will come here for two days later." Yu Qi really did not mind because she knew that they have to separate them, weigh them and calculate according to the market price.

"Okay, Yu Qi. Thank you. I am sure that your collected vegetable is out of stock when you came later." Aunt Chang nodded.

"Okay, I have to go. See you later." Yu Qi turned and walked home.

"Come. I will send you home." Long Hui blocked Yu Qi's way.

"My home was only 15 minutes from here. You don't have to send me back." Yu Qi lifted Aoi and hugged him to her chest.

"Well, I want to." He ignored Yu Qi's protest.

Eventually, Yu Qi gave up. She allowed Long Hui walked her home.

"It was in my mind since then. Where did you find this puppy?" Long Hui asked about the puppy that looked so happy in her hug.

"Aoi? I found him on the mountain. He was so cute so I decided to take care of him." Yu Qi did not realize that she was smiling happily to Long Hui.

Long Hui stunned when she smiling at him looking like this. This was the second time that she genuinely smiling at him.

"Look at his eyes. His eyes are blue in color. So that why I named him 'Aoi'. And look. His fur was very smooth. I like to pat him." Yu Qi totally blabbering about Aoi to Long Hui. She seemed to forget who was with her.

Long Hui had a gentle look on his face. Now he thought Yu Qi was very very cute when she was blabbering about her puppy.

While someone was looking at them with hatred. That girl could not be happy. She had to suffer after what she had done. Then, that 'someone' turned back left.

Chapter 68: Accused For Being A Thief

Yu Qi in the middle of preparing the Chinese herbs into the tonic. Grandpa Tang silently sat there and supervised what Yu Qi was doing. He gave the test Yu Qi to see whether she remembered or not what had she learned before.

After thirty minutes later, Yu Qi presented the tonic to Grandpa Tang. Grandpa Tang seriously inspected the tonic. Its smell, color and lastly taste. In part of preparing the tonic, Yu Qi already passed his test.

"You passed. Remember what I taught you before. There will be many tests like this in the future." Grandpa Tang said.

"Yes, master. I will remember that."

"Then the class ended." He said serious tone and paused for a moment then continued in doting grandfather tone. "I'm proud you are my disciple."

Yu Qi sighed. Her grandfather could change his character as fast as an actor.

"Let go and have evening tea." Grandpa Tang dragged Yu Qi along with him.

Yu Qi just followed her grandfather quietly. The maid made the Puer Tea. This tea had medicinal properties and had an earthy favor. As expected as a master in Chinese herbs, Grandpa Tang liked to drink this tea.

"Doctor Tang, there are police officers want to meet Miss Yu Qi outside the shop." Uncle Song Nan came and delivered the news.

"Come to see me?" Yu Qi felt confused.

"Did they tell why they come and want to see my granddaughter?" Grandpa Tang asked.

"No." Uncle Song Nan answered.

"Grandfather, I will meet them." Yu Qi stands up from her seat.

"I will go with you."

Yu Qi knew her grandfather would definitely want to follow her. The three of them went to see the police officers.

"Hello, Sir. I'm Yu Qi. May I know why you want to see me?" Yu Qi politely greeted the police officers.

The police officers saw the girl politely greeted them and felt her respect toward them. Normally when the police officer wants to meet someone, the person will be suspicious and guard toward the police officer but this Yu Qi was anything like that.

"Miss Yu Qi, I received the report from Madam Jiang about a theft came to her farm and stealing the corps. Two days before, she was away from this town. When she was back this morning, she noticed that some of her crops were missing and been destroyed. I hope you can help us investigate this case." The police officer gave a rough explanation.

"Owh...Then tell me, why did you come and find me?" The question from Yu Qi made the police officers hesitated to answer that.

"Er...Actually, when we investigate this case, we found out that Miss Yu Qi sold some of the vegetables to a shop in the market yesterday. It leads us here." The police officer spoke the truth.

"Owh...Then I'm a suspect." Yu Qi calmly stated that.

"Suspect? How can my..." Grandpa Tang wanted to retort being held back by Yu Qi.

"Okay, let go then." Yu Qi smiled at the police officers who in the dumbfounded state.

Police officers who came and saw Yu Qi felt this girl was calm when she was being told as the suspect. Not panic and hesitated when she offered herself and wanted to go to the police station.

Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang went to the police station. Madam Jiang also there. When she saw Yu Qi, she stands up and accused Yu Qi for being a thief.

"How dare you steal and sell my crops? And you also destroy most of my plant." Madam Jiang shouted to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi narrowed her eyes slightly. The police officers who knew her before felt shivered again when they saw Yu Qi narrowing her eyes. They remembered this girl was a devil before.

Yu Qi remembered this woman was Madam Wang's best friend. She wondered if this was a play directed by Wang Family. The timing was very good. The thief went to her farm, stole and destroyed the farm. And she sold the vegetables to Aunt Chang's shop yesterday. Seemed like a coincidence, right? She smiled coldly when she looked at Madam Jiang.

"You bitch, why are you looking at me like that? Hmph! Bastard child. No wonder your parent throw you before." Madam Jiang said.

After Madam Jiang finished her sentence, the surrounding became chill. This aura was emitted by Yu Qi. Bastard child? That word triggered her emotion.

"Woman, mind your language. She is my granddaughter. I can sue you." Grandpa Tang stepped in front of Yu Qi and shielding her from Madam Jiang.

"Madam Jiang, you cannot speak like that to Miss Yu Qi. This case had been investigated. Without the evidence, you cannot accuse her like that." A police officer spoke.

Madam Jiang suddenly became quiet. It was not when the Grandpa Tang and the police officer spoke up but when she was looking at Yu Qi right after she finished that sentences. The fear she felt was terrified her so badly. If that old man did not block Yu Qi from her, maybe she would die.

Chapter 69: Not Give Up On Easy Money

Everyone sat down after the chaos began to compose itself. Yu Qi silently sat beside her grandfather. She did not speak a word after Madam Jiang called her 'Bastard Child'. Those words really triggered her deep emotions.

Grandpa Tang was worried when he saw Yu Qi became silent. He knew Yu Qi has been affected by those words. Yu Qi has told him about how she had been adopted to the Wang Family and how she was living after all the years. Grandpa Tang reached her hand and held it tightly, comforting her silently.

Yu Qi turned to Grandpa Tang, while Grandpa Tang showed his proud smirk at her.

Seeing him like this, Yu Qi slightly felt warm inside her heart. She should not feel anything when people say something like that, because she knew what had happened.

"Sir, please hurry up and solve my case. Don't we already know who was responsible for this? They just need to pay compensation for all of my losses." Madam Jiang said, glaring daggers at Yu Qi.

Actually, she did not want to stay here any longer after the fear she felt just now, she just wanted to get out of here as soon as possible. But she did not want to go home without getting any compensations. After all, she heard from Madam Wang that Yu Qi was loaded with money now.

Even the old man that she lived with was rich. She was sure they did not want to tarnish Yu Qi's reputations. It will ruin a young girl, who had been called as a thief. No one would want to marry her after this chaos.

"I'm sorry. I will not pay for anything because I'm not guilty," Yu Qi said, without any hint of guilt in her voice.

"You...You were the one who stole my crop and destroys my farm."

"Then, please give your evidence to the police. If you can provide the evidence that states I was the one who did this, I will gladly pay you compensation." Yu Qi said in a firm tone.

She postured her sitting position like a queen, looking down on the peasants. She sneered when she looked at Madam Jiang, Yu Qi was totally looking down at Madam Jiang.

Grandpa Tang smiled, feeling thrilled when he saw Yu Qi's attitude. Grandpa Tang felt it was okay to look down on someone like this woman.

A woman who just accused people without any evidence.

Madam Jiang was grinding her teeth, when she heard Yu Qi. Of course, she did not have any evidence.

How would she have any evidence? She heard from Wang Ha Na that Yu Qi was selling vegetables to the Chang shop. Hence, she just assumed that this girl was the one who stole from her farm.

"From what my subordinates' investigation, Madam Jiang, your farm grew some vegetables like onions, garlic, leek, shallot, chives, cauliflower, cabbage, brussels sprouts, and broccoli. Is it right?"

The person in charge of this case was Sir Man Pao Ting, he asked for confirmation from Madam Jiang.

"Yes, that right." Madam Jiang gave her confirmation.

"Oit, did you get the list of vegetables that Miss Yu Qi sold to the shop?" Sir Man Pao Ting whispered to his subordinates beside him.

"It should be done right now. They will give you when they arrive." The subordinates answered.

"Please wait for a moment. My subordinates are currently working on this case. They are on the way back from the shop that Miss Yu Qi sold the vegetables." Sir Man Pao Ting said to calm the rowdy people here.

After fifteen minutes of waiting, his subordinates arrived at the police station, they gave the information that they got from the shop to their superior, they also brought back the owner of the shop, Aunt Chang.

Sir Man Pao Ting reviewed the information that he got in a flash. he nodded several times, then he looked up at the group of people.

"From the information that we got from the shop; Miss Yu Qi had sold many types of vegetables. There were butterbur stalks, butterbur buds, ostrich fern, flowering rapeseed, spring chrysanthemum, bamboo shoots, mountain asparagus and many types of mushroom such as white button mushroom, brown mushroom, open cap mushroom, Chinese black mushroom, clamshell mushroom, hedgehog mushroom, and king brown mushroom." Sir Man Pao Ting paused for a moment to breathe and then continued.

"From this information, there are no vegetables from your farm in the list of vegetables that Miss Yu Qi sold to the shop. This can be concluded that Miss Yu Qi was not the one who did that to your farm, Madam Jiang."

"Humph, maybe that Chang Moon Ju was her accomplice." Madam Jiang retorted, she just did not want to give up on the easy money that she could obtain from Yu Qi.

"Jiang Sung Wa, you better mind your word. I swear to god that I have provided genuine information to the police." Aunt Chang said to the Madam Jiang.

"Enough! This information is sufficient enough to prove that Miss Yu Qi is not guilty. We will be looking for new information for this case. Madam Jiang, you have to wait first. As for, Miss Yu Qi, Elder Tang, and Madam Chang, you all can go back to your houses. If you have some information for this case, please let me know about it." Sir Man Pao Ting said and bows a little to them.

"I have some information about this case."

Chapter 70: True Culprits

"I have some information about this case." This sentence caused everyone to look at the direction of the unexpected person, who voiced out this sentence.

That unexpected person walked inside the police station, while Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang who wanted to leave stopped, looking at that person.

The unexpected person was none other than, a middle age man, Mr. Liam, a neighbor of Madam Jiang. Mr. Liam slowly approached Madam Jiang and Sir Man Pao Ting.

"Sung Wa, Sir, I saw someone entering your farm yesterday evening," Mr. Liam said, while, he looked seriously at Madam Jiang.

"What? Did you saw that incident? Do you know who the culprits are?" Madam Jiang stood up anxiously, hurriedly grabbed Mr. Liam.

"Yes, I know them, you also know them. She has been entering your farm for 3 days now. I thought you gave permission to her to enter and take your vegetables since their actions were very natural." Mr. Liam, slowly replied to Madan Jiang, explaining what he has witnessed.

"Who were them?" Sir Man Pao Ting, this case has caused so much trouble, and now there was a real eye witness, he asked Mr. Liam with a little urgency.

"It was the Wang Family. The ones who entered your farm were Wang Shi Xen and her daughters." Mr. Liam said, but he didn't realize that his statement was like an atom bomb to Madam Jiang.

Madam Jiang was grinding her teeth hard. How dare they? The Wang Family were very good at framing other people while stealing other people's goods.

She totally believed the Wang Family, when they told her about their ex- adopted daughter stealing her vegetables and selling them.

The way they told her the story was very convincing. Wang family! Very good, ah, very good, Madam Jiang was fuming.

"How do you know about this case?" Sir Man Pao Ting asked Mr. Liam, he didn't want another baseless claim, he was already having a headache when thought about what happened just before.

Hence, he wanted to clarify things before this mess got more complicated.

"He was in my shop buying some vegetables when the police officers came and asked me about this case." Aunty Chang answered on behalf of Mr. Liam when she heard Sir Man Pao Ting question him.

"Bring that Wang Family to the police station immediately." Sir Man Pao Ting ordered his subordinates, he really didn't know what to say, this case was more ridiculous than he thought it would be.

Sir Man Pao Ting knew about Wang Family, he already heard the previous case regarding Wang Family from his senior, the Wang Family held grudges against Miss Yu Qi. The Wang Family planned the kidnapping of Miss Yu Qi's boss to lure her out, as they planned to sell her into prostitution.

But, that wasn't enough, they even wanted to take her money and now they wanted to frame Miss Yu Qi for committed a theft. This Wang family was truly something. The more he thought about it, the more speechless he was.

Meanwhile in the Wang Family house.

The Wang Family were currently in the middle of eating, eating the stolen vegetables without any consciousness. The four members of the family were eating and complaining about the dish, especially the youngest son, Wang Yu Jin was the one who complained the most about the dish.

"Mum, can we eat meat? We have eaten vegetables for the past three days straight. I am already bored with this."

Wang Yu Jin threw a tantrum, he really wanted to it meat, the vegetables tasted like grass.

"My dear, it's not like I don't want to give you meat but we are in a tight budget. Our money is barely enough to support us for two months, without your father here, we have to save some money. I promise we will eat some meat soon, okay?"

Madam Wang coaxes her youngest son and tried to feed him the stir fry vegetables, while hatred was building up for the girl who caused this misery.

Wang Fu Ya and Wang Ha Na rolled their eyes when they saw their mother coaxing their younger brother, Madam Wang was biased to her younger son, their mother pampered their younger brother to no end heavily spoiling him.

Each of them finished eating with their inner complains, Madam Wang offered some watermelon to her children. Wang Yu Jin ate some and ran to his room leaving Madam Wang and her daughters.

"After this, we cannot get free food anymore." Madam Wang sighed, feeling worried.

Wang Fu Ya and Wang Ha Na were staring at each other. They understood what was Madam Wang meant by that.

"Mum, do you think Auntie Jiang will know that we were the ones who stole her vegetables?" Wang Ha Na asked.

"Don't worry. She would never know about it. No one saw us." Madam Wang assured Wang Ha Na, feeling very confident.

"After all, she already suspected someone else." Wang Fu Ya smirked, she felt delighted when she thought about how someone was going to be spending time in jail.

This morning, when Madam Jiang returned to her home, she found her farm was destroyed. Hence, Madam Wang sent Wang Ha Na to speak with Madam Jiang, Wang Ha Na told Madam Jiang that she saw Yu Qi selling vegetables to Chang Moon Ju's shop, this made Madam Jiang suspicious of Yu Qi.

Actually, Madam Wang did not plan to frame Yu Qi in this matter, she had a different plan. Her plan was where she would tell Madam Jiang that she accidentally saw someone entering Madam Jiang's farm, and stealing her vegetables. Unfortunately, her plans were ruined, as Madam Wang did not mean to destroy Madam Jiang's farm.

This happened because when Wang Ha Na came to see her, while she was collecting some vegetables for their dinner, she mentioned that she saw Yu Qi was selling some vegetables. Madam Wang ended up venting her anger on the vegetables, almost all of the plants were destroyed.

But it was too late, when she realized what she had done, she became petrified of the situation she was in.

When Wang Ha Na saw what had happened, she ran to their house looking for her sister, Wang Fu Ya, to help their mother, Wang Fu Ya immediately went to her mother.

Thus, Wang Fu Ya made a plan to frame Yu Qi on the spot, and this was how everything happened.

The Wang Family did not realize their plan had failed until the police officers came and knocked on their door. Wang Fu Ya who was the one receiving the guests was shocked when she saw the police officer in front of their door, she couldn't utter a word.

"Fu Ya, who is it?" Madam Wang came to see who it was?

"Madam Wang, we are from the police station. We hope you and your family can come and follow us to the police station."

Wang Fu Ya and Madam Wang paled when they heard that order from the police officers, petrified of what was coming for them.
