Chapter 71: Wang Family Members Were Master Of Scheming

The Wang Family including their youngest son were taken into the police station, when they entered the police station, they saw Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang standing at the corner while Madam Jiang sat down together with a police officer in front of her.

When Madam Jiang saw the Wang Family, she felt her anger increasing rapidly, this family was really something, she felt disgusted for believing these scums.

She wanted to grab Madam Wang and scold her hard but a voice stopped her from doing what she wanted.

"Madam Jiang, please calm down. This is a police station; rest assured we will handle it properly."

Sir Man Pao Thing said in a stern tone, while also pacifying Madam Jiang.

"Madam Wang, please follow me." A police officer asked Madam Wang to follow him.

Children of Wang Family wanted to follow their mother but a police officer told them to wait there, Wang Fu Ya and Wang Ha Na felt afraid when they saw Madam Jiang glaring at them like a sharp dagger as if she could stab them with her glare if she could...

Madam Jiang probably knew about the truth, they felt even more fearful when the realization hit them.

How did she know about that? But, then Wang Fu Ya saw Yu Qi smirking at them as if saying 'you dug your own grave.' This bitch must have said something to the police officer and Madam Jiang, making them suspecting the Wang Family.

Wang Ha Na could not hold herself when she saw Yu Qi. Thus, she approached Yu Qi, but, Yu Qi's expression did not change when she saw Wang Ha Na approaching her, however, before she could reach Yu Qi, Grandpa Tang blocked Wang Ha Na from approaching Yu Qi.

Wang Ha Na stunned when she was blocked by an elderly man, she looked up and saw the elderly man was the rumored rich old man that took pity on Yu Qi, then she thought if she acted weakly in front of this rich old man, maybe this rich old man will take pity of her too. Perhaps she too will become his granddaughter.

"Humph, mister, actually I was the one who told Madam Jiang that Sister Yu Qi sold the vegetables to the shop but actually, I was forced by my mother and sister. If I don't do what my mother and sister want, they will punish me." Wang Ha Na's eyes were teary.

She spoke in a low voice so that her sister would not hear her, she also wanted to appear like she was afraid of her sister, she accused her mother and sister of her wrongdoings, making her pitiful, with this the old man might take pity on her.

"So what?" Grandpa Tang wearing a loathing expression when he looked at Wang Ha Na.

"Er..." Wang Ha Na was speechless, she thought that this rich old man would take pity and protect her, however, it seems she only got a loathe look from this old man.

Wang Ha Na turned her view toward Yu Qi, who did not say anything at all, Yu Qi just silently watched an entertaining performance performed by Wang Ha Na. That confirming Wang Ha Na that this bitch already said something bad about her, and this is why this old man looked at her loathingly.

"Just go to your family, don't disturb my precious granddaughter and me!" Grandpa Tang said with a stern loud voice, he did not appreciate this loathsome girl's presence, why was she acting so pitiful.

So, disgusting!

When his loud voice resounded in the police station, everyone turned towards them, they wondered what did the young miss of Wang Family do to that old man, causing that old man to speak to her with such a stern voice.

Wang Ha Na felt embarrassed when her trick did not succeed, she even felt like her trick was exposed to the old man, adding to salt to her wounds, when she saw Yu Qi smirking at her, which made her more ashamed.

Yu Qi smiled but it was not a smile, she heard everything Wang Ha Na said, Grandpa Tang. Tsk, did she think that Grandpa Tang was an idiot to believe her bullshit?

Grandpa Tang still had the detested look on his face, that girl really could scheme. Was this the education taught in the Wang Family? He thought all of Wang Family members were masters of scheming, but not so cunning as only a fool would believe them...

Meanwhile in a room.

Madam Wang was been interrogated by two police officers, one of them was Sir Man Pao Ting. But, Madam Wang did not admit to her crimes, she refused every accusation until the police officers mentioned about a witness and that he saw Madam Wang's wrongdoings.

"Madam Wang, you required to pay compensation to Madam Jiang. That's for sure, and if Madam Jiang wanted to sue you, that is her decision."

Sir Man Pao Ting concluded the interrogation.

Madam Wang looked lifeless as if her soul flow away from her body when she walked out from the room, now the children of the Wang Family been called to that room to be interrogated.

Wang Fu Ya was calm outside but she was very terrified inside, while Wang Ha Na almost cried as for Wang Yu Jin, he was already crying.

Well, it not like Sir Man Pao Ting wanted to beat them, he just wanted to lecture the three of them about good and bad, these kids were still very young and with parents like that they would not have a good upbringing.

These kids most likely will follow the parent's footsteps.

When Madam Jiang saw Madam Wang, she looked at the wretched woman fiercely as if she wanted to chew her bones.

"Shi Xen. I will make you pay for you have done."

Madam Jiang said to Madam Wang, if this place was not a police station, she would have already pulled that woman's hair and teach her a very good lesson. She actually accused an innocent person and said all those horrible things while believing the real culprit, she felt really ashamed of her earlier behavior towards Yu Qi.

Madam Jiang stood up and walked towards Yu Qi before when she spoke to Yu Qi, she was angry hence she said a lot of hurtful words towards this young girl. She hesitated but it was indeed a misunderstanding so she should apologize.

"Yu Qi girl, I hope you will forgive me for all that I have said to you earlier especially when I called you 'a bastard child'." Madam Jiang apologized.

"Sure, but I should remind Madam Jiang never to insult people like that, everyone has feelings and attacking people like that is not wise."

Yu Qi smiled, she might not take everything to heart and even if she did, it might not affect her as much as it might affect someone else for being pointed at and ostracized.

This drama was not interesting anymore, she was fed up by this Wang family drama. Yu Qi wanted to go home.

"Grandfather, let go home, it's late."

Chapter 72: Jealous

"Yu Qi!!!" A scream and body hug was presented to Yu Qi this morning when she met Feng Yue on the way to school. She did not manage to dodge so she eventually letting Feng Yue hugged her.

"Yu Qi, I heard about what had happened yesterday from my grandfather. That Wang Family really could not leave you alone, is this it?" Feng Yue released Yu Qi from her hug.

"I'm okay. I'm not hurt anyway." Yu Qi smiled. "I just hope they realized they are stupid. They cannot hurt me anymore."

The last sentences she spoke in a loud voice so that Wang Fu Ya and Wang Ha Na who were nearby them heard what she had said.

Wang Ha Na was getting angry and she wanted to approach Yu Qi but Wang Fu Ya held her hand. Everyone nearby them was thrown a mocking look to them. The thing happened in the police station was spreading through the town. Everyone was talking about that. Even the thing about their father was exposed.

Hence, Wang Fu Ya could not afford Wang Ha Na to face Yu Qi in front of everyone. The thing would get worse if Wang Ha Na could not control her mouth and speak something out of line.

"Let go in." Yu Qi pulled Feng Yue enter the school.

"My dear students, remember. You will take the biggest exam in education this year. The exam that determined your future. So, remember to study hard." The teacher ended the lesson.

"Yue, is your grandfather at home now?" Yu Qi asked.

"No, he is out of the town. He went to his company this morning. He only going to back here within two or three days later. Why?"

"I'm finished writing my proposal about the hotel that I want to build. So, I want to show to him and asked his opinion about that."

"Then you have to wait."

"I guess so."

They prepared to leave. When they passed the school gate, they saw someone. Someone that made all the girls throw a look at him. A look that devoured him. However, he was relaxed lend on the vehicles, did not mind the look thrown by the girls.

"Brother Hui." Feng Yue greeted Long Hui.

All the girls looked at Feng Yue. Feeling jealous because she knew that handsome man.

Long Hui patted her cousin's head while his eyes were looking at the girl behind Yu Qi.

Yu Qi hurriedly greeted Long Hui. "Hello."

Long Hui smiled and greeted Yu Qi too. "Hi. How are you?"

When Long Hui smiled, some of the girls stunned. This handsome man became more and more handsome when he was smiling.

"Don't smile." Yu Qi became annoyed when she saw the girls particularly eyeing his smile. Then she realized something.

Long Hui in his blank expression after Yu Qi said that. This girl annoyed when he was smiling. But he did not angry. He somehow knew she said that because of other girls saw his smile when he saw her was eyeing the surrounding when he was smiling.

Feng Yue once more being ignored by her best friend and cousin.

"Guys, I'm here." Feng Yue waves her hand.

Yu Qi and Long Hui in the blank expression when Feng Yue spoke. However, Yu Qi was in her best not making her face blushing when Feng Yue said that.

"Brother Hui, what are you doing here? Should you in the camp?" Feng Yue asked.

"I heard about what happened yesterday. Are you okay?" Long Hui came closer to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi flustered. Her heart began to beat faster. However, she managed to answer Long Hui's question.

"Don't worry. I'm okay."

"Then, it's good."

"You came just to ask her that?" Feng Yue asked. She could not believe what had happened in front of her.

"Yes. Is it any problem with that?" Long Hui did not cover a little bit when came to Yu Qi.

"Okay, fine. I will not ask again." Feng Yue gave up asking.

Her cousin really wanted to woo Yu Qi. 'I will not ask anymore. I will feed a dog food once I ask about that.'

"Come, girls. I will drive you home." Long Hui offered them.

The girls were eyeing three of them felt envy to Yu Qi and Feng Yue for getting close to that handsome man. They wondered what was the relationship between them. Some of them hoping to ask Feng Yue and Yu Qi tomorrow about that handsome man.

As usual, Feng Yue would take a seat behind. Leaving the front seat to Yu Qi. Yu Qi did not have any choice but to take that seat.

Long Hui silently thanked her cousin for paving the way to him to woo her best friend.

Chapter 73: Doctor and Businesswoman

She sat down together with Old Man Feng in his study room. The room was silent. Only could be heard was the sound of paper. Old Man Feng currently reviewing the proposal written by Yu Qi. Old Man nodded several times during reading her proposal with the blank expression.

Seeing this, Yu Qi remembered her real grandfather in her past life. He always read the documents in this blank expression especially the proposal from the clients.

"Show not emotion when reading the proposal. Go through the whole document. Then after you finished read them, ask questions regarding the proposal. Don't directly give the final confirmation. Took your time on judging the proposal."

That what her grandfather taught her when she working in his grandfather company. She missed her grandfather even she forgot his look like.

"Yu Qi, I read this proposal. There are 4 buildings that you want to build, is this it?" Old Man Feng closed the proposal and put it on the table in front of him.

"Yes. I want to build a Japanese hotel which is Ryokan on the land near the mountain, the closed market on the land behind the current market. Lastly the mansion and the greenhouse on the land near the lake." Yu Qi explained and continue, "I hope Grandpa Feng can attract the contractors to bid this project. I already attach the blueprint of the four buildings."

"Okay. I will definitely help you. If not that evil old man will stab me with his knife." Old Man Feng joked around.

Yu Qi laughed when she heard that. 'Evil doctor? What did her grandfather do until he got that nickname?'

"Yu Qi did you already select the university for further study?" Old Man Feng asked.

"Yes, Starlight University." Yu Qi quickly answered that.

"Why?"

"It has the best facilities for the doctor and ranking 2 in the country."

"So, you already decide to be a doctor?"

"Yes, and a businesswoman." Yu Qi smiled when she spoke that.

"Huh? Businesswoman?"

"Yeah. That was also my ambition besides being a doctor."

"Fantastic. That brain of your will not be a waste then." Old Man Feng laughed harder.

Feng Yue who outside the study room waiting for Yu Qi to come out sneak a peek when she heard her grandfather laughed. She cannot enter this study room unless it had something to do with his business. She accidentally entered that study room two weeks ago faced her grandfather anger. That why she had to wait outside until Yu Qi went out.

After 15 minutes of waiting, Yu Qi merged from that room. Feng Yue jumped in front of her.

"Is it okay? Did my grandfather agree to help you?"

"Don't worry my dear. I can handle it myself."

"Owh, Yu Qi, I hear some story about the Wang Family. That Madam Wang was not throw in jail. She was released after spending a night at the police station. Madam Jiang did not sue her after she destroyed the farm. Weird, is this it?"

"Anything weird about that. It must Wang Fu Ya slow talked to her. Begging Madam Jiang to not sue her mother. Madam Jiang maybe did not want to complicate the situation. Instead of sue, she wants compensation. Because with that money, she can repair the farm. If she insists to sue Madam Wang, she will lose money due to the fee of the sue itself." Yu Qi gave her analysis.

"Owh, I never thought of that."

"Woof." They heard the dog barking, well not the dog more like a puppy outside the house so they went out to take a look for it.

Seeing his master, Aoi ran to Yu Qi and looked up to his master.

"Aoi, what are you doing here? Did I tell you to stay in my room?" Yu Qi kneeled down and picked up Aoi.

Aoi licked his master face. 'Master, I finally can talk to you. I can wait to tell you, so here I'm.'

Yu Qi stunned when she heard a voice like a kid in the mind. Just like Bo Ya talking to her outside the space.

'Master, did you hear me? Why don't you answer me?' Aoi whined like a normal kid when Yu Qi did not answer him.

'Aoi? How can you talk?' Yu Qi finally talked after a while.

'This morning. I was excited to tell Master so I walked out to find Master but seemed Master don't like it.' Aoi sulked in her arms.

Yu Qi hugged Aoi. 'No. I like when you can talk like this. It was fantastic. It's easy when you can talk like this.'

'Hah, I know Master will like it.'

'But how did you find me here?'

'Master, we are bound with our blood. I can find you wherever you are.'

'Owh, I forgot about that.'

"Yu Qi, do you know this dog?" Feng Yue finally asked when seeing Yu Qi forgot about her here.

"Yue, this is my dog. Cute, is this it?" Yu Qi answered her. Yes, like Feng Yue thought she actually forgot about her friend here.

"Your dog? Where did you pick it up?"

"In the mountain where I was collecting the mushroom. I saw him and fall in love with him. Look, his eyes are blue in color. That why I named him as Aoi." Yu Qi showed Aoi's eyes to Feng Yue.

When Feng Yue saw that eyes, she also fell in love with the dog. "Yes, the eyes are cool. It looks cute. Is this dog male or female?"

"Male."

"Hah, how cute. I want to stroke his fur."

"Go on. His fur was very smooth."

The two girls were playing the puppy when the evening came to end. Yu Qi excused herself to Feng Yue and Old Man Feng. She walked home with Aoi in her arms.

Chapter 74: Seeing Live Surgery

The project to build the ryokan was in progress thanks to Old Man Feng instruction. The contractor hired by Old Man Feng was so efficient. She went to the site construction of the ryokan with Old Man Feng and Feng Yue. Grandpa Tang also tagged along with them.

The first phase work would be clearing the place. The land covered by weeds and small trees. Three days, the land was clear from anything. Now, they entered the second phase. According to the worker that Old Man Feng spoke before, they will make the foundation as a base to make sure the ryokan strong.

Yu Qi smiled when she was looking at the worker that working hard on building her hotel. In her past life, everything was given by her grandfather. Nothing was her. Now, she will build her empire. Her own empire.

The library was full of the students that were preparing for the final examination. Only 2 months for the final exam. Feng Yue asked Yu Qi to study together at her house. Yu Qi agreed. Yu Qi would not hold back anything. She would give her best on the exam. And she also had the cheating chips. Her space. Every night she spent her time in her space studied. She stopped all her usual routine for the time being.

Finally, the exam was coming. Yu Qi was confident with her capability. As she said to Old Man Feng, she was aiming at Starlight University. In this life, she wants to become a doctor. She made up her choice when she becomes a disciple of Tang Jiang Man.

One week struggled with the exam, it was finished. Feng Yue jumped to Yu Qi and hugged her.

"Yu Qi, the horrible time had passed. Time to enjoy life has come. What are you planning to do?" Feng Yue asked.

"I have to make up the lesson that I missed during these two months for my study." Yu Qi answered.

"Huh? What's kind of lesson?" Feng Yue felt weird. The exam was finally ended. So, what is the lesson for?

"Lesson with Grandpa Tang. You know right, I'm studied under him for medical knowledge. I took a break for about two months. So I want to make it up."

"I want to ask you to go on holiday with you." She whined.

"Sorry. Next time okay. Let celebrate after we get our result, okay?" Yu Qi pacified Feng Yue.

"Promise, okay?" Feng Yue lifted her hand and make a pinky promise.

"Okay."

---

"Yu Qi, you are back. Pack your bag. We are going to FIN City this evening." Grandpa Tang greeted her.

"Huh? Why?"

"Something's up." Grandpa Tang did not explain much.

"Okay." She hurried up and went to her room.

Aoi who lazily laid on the floor stand up and greeted his master.

'Master, you are back.'

"Aoi." She picked up Aoi and kiss him. Then she put him down and started to pack her clothes.

'Master, where are you going?' Aoi asked when he saw her master packed some clothes.

"Yes, I'm going to another city."

'Can I tagged along?'

"I will bring you too. Just whether it is openly or secretly. That's it." She smiled.

'What do you mean by that, Master?'

"I will ask grandfather first. If he agrees, I will bring you together openly. But if he doesn't agree, I will put you into my space."

'I see. Nice idea, Master.' He hopes his master grandfather will agree with it.

After packing, she went down with her luggage. Aoi also followed her from behind. She saw her grandfather was waiting for her.

"Grandfather, can I bring Aoi too?" Yu Qi asked.

Grandpa Tang looked at Aoi. He could see that the puppy was clever sometimes. More likely he was very obedient.

"You can bring if you want too." Grandpa Tang answered.

"Woof." Aoi barked. More like he was thanking Grandpa Tang for allowing him to tag along.

Then Aoi looked up to Yu Qi. Yu Qi picked up Aoi into the car. The car finally started to move and traveled to FIN City. Aoi behaved himself, he just lay down quietly on Yu Qi's lap. Grandpa Tang smiled when he saw the puppy behaved like that. He knew that this puppy was very clever. The puppy can understand what human surrounding him want.

Three hours driving, they arrived at FIN City. The car driving toward the Tang Hospital and stopped in front of it.

"Yu Qi, you will follow me. The puppy will stay here. Bo Han will take care of him." Grandpa Tang ordered when he got off of the car.

"Aoi, stay here okay. Don't be naughty. I will back soon. Uncle Bo Han, please take care of him." Yu Qi requested.

"Woof, " Aoi spoke.

"Don't worry, Miss Yu Qi. I will take care of him." Bo Han, the driver said.

Yu Qi quickly followed Grandpa Tang.

"Grandfather, where are we going?"

"We going to the surgery room. I will conduct surgery and you will follow me and learn about the surgery." Grandpa Tang replied seriously.

Yu Qi changed her tone. "Is that okay for me to follow you, master?"

"You are my disciple." That sentence stated other meaning which is 'who dare said something to my disciple.'

So, they prepared themselves to enter the surgery room. There were some doctors and nurses that already inside the surgery room. A doctor wanted to ask Yu Qi to get out of the surgery room but Grandpa Tang spoke for her.

"She is my disciple and she will stay here." That made doctors shut down themselves.

Who dared to throw Yu Qi outside when knowing she was Doctor Tang's disciple. Doing that may make your job lose forever. Everyone knew about Doctor Tang personality. Very very protective to his own people.

Then the surgery started. It was cholecystectomy surgery which removes the gallbladder. It was pretty normal surgery. Yu Qi wondered why Grandpa Tang needed to perform himself. Then, it hit her. Maybe this patient was a very important or rich person.

After two hours, the surgery was over. Grandpa Tang hand over the patient to another doctor as he went outside. Yu Qi followed him.

"Did you learn something?" Grandpa Tang asked.

"Yes. It was a very precious experience. Thank you, master." Yu Qi smiled.

"Okay, let go out before that person appears." Grandpa Tang now turned to her grandfather from her master.

"Huh, who?"

Chapter 75: Meeting The Tang Family (1)

"Huh? Who?"

Before Grandpa Tang managed to answer her, a voice answered her question first.

"That would be me, right, my dear grandfather?" A handsome man standing behind Grandpa Tang narrowed his eyes.

Grandpa Tang turned around and saw the man. The old man turned into a kid in front of this handsome man.

"How are you, my dear grandfather?"

"Fine."

"Why did you not answering my call?"

"Busy."

"Busy with what?"

"That was my business." Grandpa Tang snapped.

"Sigh, can you just pick up the call? I'm just want to know whether you are okay or not." That handsome man sighed.

Grandpa Tang was silent.

From this, Yu Qi could assume the identity of this man. This handsome man may be Grandpa Tang's grandchildren. More likely the eldest one, Tang Han Lee, the one which that Grandpa Tang did not want to see him.

"Forgive me, young lady." Tang Han Lee bowed.

"Humph, this is my granddaughter." Grandpa Tang began to show off.

"That makes you my little sister. Hi, I'm Tang Han Lee, a doctor, an ophthalmologist, you know what is it, right?" Tang Han Lee introduced himself and also tested her knowledge in the medical term.

From what he heard from Tang Qin Hao, his grandfather took a disciple and that disciple was this girl in front of him. Knowing she managed to get his grandfather's approval, this girl might be a genius.

"Hi, Big Brother Han, I'm Yu Qi. An ophthalmologist is a doctor that specializes in eye and vision care." Yu Qi smiled.

"That's right." Tang Han Lee patted herself.

Yu Qi felt a little shy. She could feel a brother's love from Tang Han Lee. Even though she got an older man cousin in her precious life but they were not close at all. More like he hated her because she got her grandfather's attention.

"Grandfather, would you go back home? Your birthday is coming soon." Tang Han Lee gave a reminder.

"Owh, yeah. It will be your birthday soon." Yu Qi remembered that.

"Huh? Do you know about my birthday? How do you know that? I'm don't think I talk about that before." Grandpa Tang thought he never told her about his birthday.

"Hehe, I ask Grandpa Feng about that." Yu Qi remembered she asked Old Man Feng about Grandpa Tang's birthday.

"What's special about that day? It just a birthday."

"I like to celebrate your birthday."

"Okay, then let celebrate it." Grandpa Tang changed his thought faster.

The reason why he changed because of her granddaughter. She is an orphan. From what he looked at Wang Family, this child led a sad life before. She might don't even have a grandparent. He wanted to give her a happy life. If celebrating his birthday made her happy, he willing to do it even though he hated it.

Tang Han Lee silently observed his grandfather and his new little sister. He could see his grandfather totally love his new little sister. He also likes her because the moment she saw him, she did not bewitch by his look. Other girls might look shy and wanted his attention but his new little sister just ignored him and talked with his grandfather.

However, Tang Han Lee never know his new little sister had seen another handsome person beyond his look. That why she was not stunned with his look.

"I forgot to ask. How about your school? Is it okay if we stay here?" Grandpa Tang suddenly remembered that Yu Qi was a student. It might not good for a student took a leave for a few days.

"Today was my last paper. It was over. So, it's okay to stay over here." Yu Qi told Grandpa Tang.

"How is the surgery?" Tang Han Lee finally asked about the surgery.

"Humph, that was easy. The quack doctors were stupid. Owh, my dear disciple, what are you think about that?" Grandpa Tang turned to Yu Qi.

"Cholecystectomy surgery is normal surgery that used to removes the gallbladder. It was quite normal surgery. Even though this is my first time seeing the live surgery, I managed to remember it." Yu Qi gave her an understanding of the surgery that she learned. Hah, actually, she saw many of live surgery performed in front of her. Yeah, she saw them in her space. Well, she could never tell his grandfather about that.

Some of the doctors who happened to pass three of them shocked when they heard what she had said. That was quite normal surgery? Even Tang Hao Lee was speechless when he heard Yu Qi saying that.

Yu Qi actually forgot about the time period of this. In the future, it would be normal surgery, but now, it was quite difficult.

"Hahaha, as expected my disciple." Grandpa Tang laughed proudly.

Yu Qi felt weird when Grandpa Tang said that. It was normal surgery why... Now she knew. The time period was not the same. She only could laugh it off.

"Let go home." Grandpa Tang said.

"Home?"

"Yes, my home here. I will introduce you to our family." Grandpa Tang was in a good mood.

She was happy when Grandpa Tang said 'our family'. It made her felt like that. She just hopes that Grandpa Tang's family can accept her.

Chapter 76: Meeting The Tang Family (2)

"Master Jiang Man, welcome home." The head steward, Hang Ji Chang, greeted and bowed to Grandpa Tang and then he stood up, turned to Yu Qi greet her.

"Welcome, Miss Yu Qi. I'm the head steward of Tang House, Hang Ji Chang. I heard everything about you from my granddaughter, Miss Yu Qi." Steward Hang Jin Chang said.

"Huh? Your granddaughter? Who?" Yu Qi was confused, she did not remember meeting his granddaughter.

"The maid who takes care of Master Jiang Man in the town." Steward Hang Ji Chang giving her a hint of who his granddaughter was.

"Oh, Sister Chu Xiao." She remembered Sister Chu Xiao because she was the only maid in the house that took care of Grandpa Tang.

"Indeed, since it is already late, I prepared light dinner for the two of you. Please follow me." Steward Hang Ji Chang politely said, leading the way.

"Everyone else?" Grandpa Tang inquiries about other members of the family in the house.

"They ate and already in their bedroom. Your daughter in-laws wanted to greet you but your sons said it would be better to greet you tomorrow morning."

Steward Hang Ji Chang answered respectfully to his master.

"Good. Yu Qi dear, let's go eat. You, my dear, haven't eaten since this afternoon, right? I am also hungry." Grandpa Tang was satisfied with the steward's reply hence he didn't dwell on it much so, he pulled Yu Qi's hand and went to the dining room.

Steward Hang Ji Chang observed those two, grandfather and granddaughter pair, he realized his master behaves more like a loving grandfather with Miss Yu Qi compared to his three young masters.

Moreover, surprisingly he also felt Miss Yu Qi was well behaved like a young lady born in a rich family. But he couldn't brood on his observations as his master's order bought him back to reality.

"Ji Chang, prepare a portion for my granddaughter's puppy." Grandpa Tang's ordered him but also making him quickly obey his order.

Aoi was over the ninth cloud when his master's grandfather remembered him, he was barking at Grandpa Tang as if saying 'thank you'.

"Woof."

"Hahaha, are you thanking me?" Grandpa Tang laughed.

"Woof," (Yes) Aoi answered.

"Yu Qi, this puppy is very clever." Grandpa Tang praised, feeling happy for his granddaughter for having such a lovely and clever puppy.

Yu Qi just smiled. Of course, he was very clever. He was not a normal puppy to begin with as he appeared outside.

The atmosphere was serene as the three individuals ate in a happy mood. After eating, Grandpa Tang asked Steward Hang Ji Chang to show a room to Yu Qi to take the rest for the night. She thanked Steward Hang Ji Chang for showing the way.

Entering the room, she locked the door, and while grabbing Aoi she entered her space. She wanted to take a rest about 1 hour before began her routine, she did want to rest outside because of the difference in time, then it would be a waste.

"Aoi, Bo Ya, I want to sleep in the pavilion for about 1 hour, wake me up in an hour, okay." She asked the two cuties to become her alarm.

"Okay, Master." Both of them answered simultaneously, happily obliging to her requests.

Yu Qi quickly landed in the dream world, whilst both of the two cuties began to talk to each other.

"You can talk now." Bo Ya began asked curiously.

"Yes, I'm learning from the Master." He happily nodded his head.

"How is the outside world? Is it fun?" He looked enviously at Aoi, oh how he wanted to go out and see the mundane world.

"Being together with Master was very fun." Aoi didn't realize his cute buddy was envious of him, delightfully discussing his happiness.

"Sigh...I'm jealous of you. You can go outside, while I only can be together with Master here. I don't know why. I tried to go outside by grabbing Master's clothes several times but it does not work." This made Bo Ya even more upset when he thought about his unsuccessful attempts to go out.

"Oh, I see."

"Also, before I forget about this, I want to ask you, how come you are here in this space?"

"Em...I remembered I was being chased by humans after they killed my mother, I ran and ran and then I ended here. How I enter this space is not in my knowledge. I just, fortunately, ended in here."

"Oh, I see. I thought you knew about this space."

They talked about many topics like old friends seeing each other after a long time, hence one hour passed rapidly. So, the two of them began to wake their master up.

"Master, wake up."

Bo Ya began to pat his master's cheek while Aoi patted her hand. Sensing her surroundings, Yu Qi woke up. She yawned while stretching her limbs then, she went to the lake and washed her face.

After that, Yu Qi walked toward the Pagoda. Before going to the usual rooms, she entered another room. This room belonged to her, she put some of her stuff inside the room and entered to look at something. After satisfied with what she had looked for, she went to her usual routine.

---

At six o'clock in the morning, she woke up, feeling refreshed. Yu Qi got out of her room and went to look for Steward Hang Ji Chang in the kitchen, as expected she found him there.

"Grandpa Hang." She decided to call Steward Hang Ji Chang, Grandpa Hang instead because she assumed that he might be the same age as Grandpa Tang.

"Yes, Miss Yu Qi. What can I help you with?" Steward Hang Ji Chang approached Yu Qi.

"Hmm...Where can I find someplace to do my morning exercise?" She asked as she did not want to go to a random place. After all, it would be rude if the owners of the house know about that.

"Owh, you can use the garden. Let me show you the way." Steward Hang Ji Chang led the way to the garden, while also feeling amused by the girl's cautious behavior. She really was a well-bred young lady.

"Thank you, Grandpa Hang." She followed Steward Hang Ji Chang. After a few minutes of walking, they arrived in front of the garden.

"Here is the garden. Miss Yu Qi, you can do the morning exercise here, but please be aware that breakfast will serve at 8 a.m." Steward Hang Ji Chang kindly reminded her of the household breakfast time.

"Thank you, Grandpa Hang." Yu Qi bows to Steward Hang Ji Chang.

Steward Hang Ji Chang left the garden.

Yu Qi took a deep breath, the air in the city was different compared to her hometown. The fresh air of the town could never be compared to the polluted air of a city, but she didn't dwell on it much. She started to stretch herself, as Aoi quietly watched his master doing the morning exercise. After 30 minutes of exercise, she sat down and rested a little bit.

However, unknown to her, someone approached her from her back and hugged her. As a response, she performed a judo technique she learned, doing a single back throw to that person who hugged him.

The unfortunate person was groaning pain. Yu Qi took a look at the daring person, she did not recognize the daring stranger, hence, she looked at the facial features of the young man. He looked like someone she knows. She caught up quickly with her sharp sense, this should be the second grandson of Grandpa Tang, Tang Jin Wei.

"Are you okay?" Yu Qi asked.

"How can a girl like you, single back throw someone?" Tang Ji Wei stood up and looked at the girl, grimly.

He did not know who this girl was, but he thought this little girl was one of their maids. So, he decided to pull a prank on her. Who would have thought this petite girl would do the single back throw, but the point was she knew judo and seriously god, it hurts!

"You are the wrong one, how dare you hug me? You should grateful I'm not castrating you." She smirked to Tang Jin Wei, as an evil glint passed through her eyes.

Tang Jin Wei shocked. "How can a girl just throw words like that?" Feeling embarrassed, whoever this girl, she was really shameless.

Yu Qi did not answer him, simply ignoring his refute, as she just casually glance at one direction.

Tang Jin Wei quickly defended himself, seeing his reaction. Yu Qi smiled and went inside the house.

Chapter 77: Meeting The Tang Family(3)

A few minutes before 8 o'clock in the morning, Yu Qi came out of her room together with Aoi, she went to the dining room where she could see Grandpa Tang, Tang Han Lee, Tang Jin Wei, and other two men and women sitting in the dining room, hence she approached them and greeted Grandpa Tang.

"You are here. Sit down first." Grandpa Tang said delightfully.

"This is the granddaughter I have adopted and she is also my disciple, Yu Qi. I hope you can treat her as our family member."

Grandpa Tang introduced her to everyone, there was mirth in his eyes when he introduced Yu Qi to his family, he has been waiting for this moment for a long time.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Yu Qi, nice to meet you." Yu Qi bows a little bit, feeling a little nervous.

"It's you! From this morning." Tang Jin Wei shouted he could never forget what happened earlier this morning. He was still mortified.

"Nice to meet you too, Brother Jin." Yu Qi smirked while looking at Tang Jin Wei. She did not feel any sense of guilt for what she did to him because she felt he deserved it.

"You have seen her before?" Grandpa Tang asked Tang Jin Wei, looking at both individuals curiously.

"Yes, she gave me a single back throw." Tang Jin Wei tried to gain sympathy from his family, after all, he was the biological grandson.

Unfortunately...

"Humph! It must be because you did something to her, right?" Grandpa Tang retorted, he had an absolute trust towards his granddaughter, unlike his lousy grandson.

"Grandfather, I'm your grandson. Why don't you trust me?"

"I trust her. She is my granddaughter."

Tang Jin Wei pouted when he saw Grandpa Tang was siding his new granddaughter. It was truly hoeing before bros but in this case granddaughters before grandsons. His grandfather was really biased. Humph!

The two men and women laughed witnessing such a spectacle.

"Yu Qi, I'm Tang Jung Wen, Han Lee, and Jin Wei's father. This is my wife, Ming Yue. You can call us whatever you prefer." Tang Jung Wen introduced himself and his wife.

"I'm Tang Jang Qin and this is my wife, Su Xiao. I heard you have meet Qin Hao. That is my son." Tang Jan Qin introduced himself and his family after his brother.

"Everyone, nice to meet you." Yu Qi greeted everyone again after their introduction.

"Okay, everyone. Let eat first." Grandpa Tang said.

Everyone was eating in silent. The two couples observed Yu Qi's table manners. They were surprised by how she looked very familiar with it.

Almost as if she was born in a noble family. Well, Yu Qi practiced her table manners from her previous life, when she first entered the family, she became a joke when she ate without any table manners.

It was an embarrassing moment. So her grandfather found her a teacher that taught her etiquette.

"Yu Qi, where is Aoi?" Grandpa Tang was very fond of Aoi.

"He's here." Yu Qi looked at her feet.

Aoi was laid lazily beside her feet.

"Ji Chang, give him food." Grandpa Tang ordered.

"Who is he?" Tang Jin Wei asked curiously looking at the new individual.

"Aoi, my puppy." Yu Qi answered.

Tang Jin Wei who already finished his breakfast went to look at the puppy.

"Wow, he is cute." He praised Aoi.

Hearing that, Aoi looked at him aloofly and turned his back at him, he did not like this shameless man at all.

"Why do I feel like he just looked at me aloofly?" Tan Jin was speechless.

Everyone laughed when they saw that scene, with a cute scene, they finished breakfast happily. The men of the Tang Family held a meeting, while the women sat in the living room together with Yu Qi. Their attitude towards Yu Qi was very friendly, it was because they did not have a daughter, the two of them gave birth to boys. So, they felt Yu Qi was a daughter they never had.

"We heard about your situation from father. Don't worry, my dear. Think of me as your mother. I really wanted a daughter but I gave birth to two boys. Then I had some complications, so I cannot get pregnant anymore." Ming Yue said, whilst signing.

"Same for me my dear. After I gave birth to Qin Hao, that brat, my body became weak." Su Xiao also sighed.

"Aunties, you should be proud as all of your sons are successful doctors." Yu Qi said.

"Yeah, we are proud but those three are not young anymore. They should be looking for a wife right now but you see, they are busy all the time. How can they find a wife? Not to mention Qin Hao. Even I as his mother did not see him for about 2 weeks."

Su Xiao released her burden in her heart.

"Aunties, they might find the right woman soon. We just have to wait for them patiently."

Yu Qi just could only say something like this because she also could not do anything about this matter.

"I want to match them with someone but I don't think it would be the best idea." Ming Yue sighed.

"Enough with those brats. Yu Qi, do you have a boyfriend?" Su Xiao changed the topic. Now their focus was on Yu Qi.

Yu Qi was flabbergasted when the topic was changed to her. The word boyfriend reminded her of a handsome man. She felt the heat rising up her face, making her face blush when the two aunties caught her blushing. They became excited.

"Owh...My...You already have someone in your mind? Great. How is he?" Su Xiao asked.

Yu Qi had trouble answering her question since she did not have a relationship with Long Hui except as a friend. She could not just say he is in the middle of wooing her, right? Looking at her auntie's reaction, it would be chaos.

"What are you guys talking about?" Tang Jung Wen asked when he looked at his excited wife and sister in law.

"Yu Qi has a boyfriend. We want to know who he is." Su Xiao was the one who replied.

"Oh, what kind of man he is?" Now Tang Jin Wei also joined the conversation.

"How come I don't know you have a boyfriend, Yu Qi? Huh, don't tell me that brat is your boyfriend?" Grandpa Tang looked at Yu Qi.

"Father, do you know her boyfriend? Tell me about him." Ming Yue inquiries.

"Everyone, listen to me, okay. I don't have a boyfriend." Yu Qi spoke loudly to get everyone attention, flustered by their ridiculous curiosity.

When everyone looked at her, they felt disappointed except Grandpa Tang. He nodded his head several times.

"Good, you are still young. No need to rush." Grandpa said because actually, he did not want a man take her from him just yet. She was also young so there was literally no need for a rush, unlike his grandsons.

It seems like his daughter in laws shared the same thought.

"Yes, you are still young. Unlike those brats here. Tang Han Lee, Tang Jin Wei, when are you going to get married? You are not young anymore." Ming Yue looked at her two sons.

Tang Han Lee who wanted to leave stopped at his track. While Tang Jin Wei who looked excited before as he wanted to know about Yu Qi's boyfriend now had an ignorant face.

Yu Qi secretly laughed when she saw her two new brothers' reactions, she felt blessed when she got to know Grandpa Tang. Now his family also accepted her, she couldn't really ask for more.

Chapter 78: Shocked The Doctors

Yu Qi followed Grandpa Tang entering the main entrance of the Tang Hospital together with all of the male members of Tang Family except Tang Qin Hao.

She received many curious looks from the people inside the hospital, mostly were envious look from the female doctors and nurses.

The two Tang brothers spoke to her so intimately. They felt like crushing Yu Qi with just their glare, as those two brothers were well known as handsome doctors in the industry.

Not to mention Tang Qin Hao was also well loved by the female staffs even though he was kind of weird. Moreover, they were talking to her so intimately with a gentle look in their eyes. No wonder she received such an ugly envious glare.

"What are you doing?" Tang Qin Hao joined them.

Now Tang Qin Hao has completed the whole family.

"You are here too, little sis?" Tang Qin Hao greeted her, with a friendly tone.

"How are you, Brother Qin?" Yu Qi exchanged words with Tang Qin Hao, she was delighted to see this brother of hers.

The word 'little sis' reached the ear of the people surrounding them. So, she was their little sister? But from the information and what they have heard had stated that the Tang Family did not have a girl in their younger generation.

"Go to work. Yu Qi will stay with me, I will teach her." Grandpa Tang told them to go to work.

"Can I stay with little sis?" Tang Jin Wei asked with a sad face, looking at her intently hoping she would agree with him. But clearly, he was digging a hole for himself.

"Jin Wei, if you take a lesson with me, you can stay with Yu Qi." Grandpa Tang said while smiling slyly.

"Huh? What's the lesson about?" Tang Jin Wei did not notice the slyly smile on his grandfather's face, he asked curiously.

"Chinese herbs." Grandpa Tang said.

"I have to go to work now, bye little sis, see you soon" Tang Jin Wei particularly ran away from there, he would rather work then learn about Chinese herb.

"Why does he look so scared?" Yu Qi whispered to Tang Han Lee.

"A long time ago, he took a lesson about Chinese herb, but since he was unwilling to learn, Grandfather punished him by asking him to eat the bitter herbs. From that day on he is scared of Chinese herbs." Tang Han Lee whispered back answering her question.

"Ok, I will go first." Tang Han Lee excused himself as he was done responding to Yu Qi, but he didn't forget to mention. "Grandfather, don't torture Little Sis too much."

His grandfather can overdo sometimes. In addition to that, his little sister was a delicate little girl, he didn't want her to be over exhausted.

"Brat, what do you mean by torture?" Grandpa Tang shouted. He didn't appreciate how that brat described him as a tyrant, clearly, he was a gentle old man. Humph!!!

Tang Jung Wen and Tang Jang Qin went separately to their own workplace, not paying attention to the old man's tantrum.

As for Yu Qi, she followed Grandpa Tang. As they proceed few of doctors came and greeted Grandpa Tang.

"Chairman Tang, good morning." The leader of the doctors greeted Grandpa Tang, respectfully.

"What do you want?" Grandpa Tang asked straightforwardly without any politeness.

"We are doing some research right now, would like you to come and give us some of your opinions?" The leader politely asked. He didn't want to provoke this old man whose mood was the most unpredictable thing ever.

"What kind of research are you doing right now?" Yu Qi interrupted the conversation because she was kind of interested in the research they were talking about.

"Hmm...This is..." The leader hesitated, he turned to Grandpa Tang, as if asking who this young lady was.

"This is my granddaughter and disciple." Grandpa Tang told them her identity.

They heard some rumors about Grandpa Tang taking a disciple, it never crossed their mind that the disciple was his granddaughter. Wait! When did this great doctor have a granddaughter? That question popped in their mind, causing a whirlwind of chaos. However, no one had the incentive to ask who was this girl exactly.

"My granddaughter is asking you a question. Why are you not answering her?" Grandpa Tang asked impatiently.

"It about... Hmm..." The leader of the doctors seemed hesitated to tell her.

"What is it?" Grandpa Tang lost his patience.

"It is the Viagra pill." The leader's face became red when he said it, he was so embarrassed. He really wanted to dig a hole and hide.

"Owh, that pill." Yu Qi casually said it, not bothered by the doctor's embarrassment.

The doctors were speechless. Does this girl know what the Viagra pill is and its effects? How come she knows it?

"Yu Qi dear, do you know about this Viagra pill?" Grandpa Tang asked when he saw her seemed to know about that pill.

"Yeah, I heard about that pill somewhere. It was commonly used on men over the age of 40. It works to increase blood flow to assist men during intercourse."

She explained about the pill without realized the looks given by the doctors, who were dumbfounded when they listened to her explanation.

"Er...Miss Yu Qi, where did you hear about that?" The leader of the doctors asked since it hasn't been used or known by the public.

"I don't remember. Sorry." Yu Qi realized her mistake.

The Viagra pill would be commonly be used in the future. Damn her tongue slipped again. Being from the future was somewhat problematic, she seems like she became the know it all god.

"Hahaha...As expected of my disciple." Grandpa Tang was delighted hence he just ignored that part and sang praise to Yu Qi.

"What are you waiting for? Let go." Grandpa Tang urged the doctors to lead the way to the research lab.

Yu Qi silently followed them. She did not want to be more suspicious.

The doctors showed the research to Grandpa Tang, Grandpa Tang discussed some points to them. Sometimes, he asked his disciple about her opinions.

But, since Yu Qi did not want to show off her knowledge, she just said a little bit, as she did not want to arouse anymore suspicious look, she already has a lot.

She was getting a lot of skeptical look from the doctors ever since she mentioned the effect of the Viagra pill.

Chapter 79: Birthday Party

"How cute you are." Ming Yue said with affection when looking to Yu Qi.

Su Xiao also in the same state as Ming Yue. She was hairdressing Yu Qi's hair.

"It is why I love a daughter." Su Xiad added.

"Me too." Ming Yue made the final touch up for Yu Qi's make up.

Su Xiao also had done her job.

"Perfect." Both women were satisfied with their job.

"Take a look at yourself." Ming Yue brought Yu Qi to a mirror and said that.

Yu Qi was stunned by her own self. She used to dress up for the party in her previous life but this was beyond her imagination. She looked very beautiful even she did not believe herself.

"Yu Qi, you are very beautiful. I cannot wait to show you to others." Ming Yue excited when she thought about that.

"It's almost time for the party. Let go and meet some people." Su Xiao said while looking at the clock on the wall.

Ming Yue and Su Xiao entered the hall first. They asked Yu Qi to entered slightly later than them. Yu Qi just followed the arrangement made by two of them. After a few minutes, she walked inside entering the hall.

Many of the guests who came to celebrate Grandpa Tang's birthday already here. Her beauty made people curiously took a look at her. Many questions appeared in their minds. 'Who is this girl?' 'Where does she come from?' 'What the connection she has with the Tang Family?'

Yu Qi calmly scanned the surrounding. She found the Ming Yue and Su Xiao. She walked gracefully towards the two women.

Ming Yue whispered to Tang Han Lee. Then the three young masters of the Tang Family approached the girls. They escorted her to their mothers.

All the young girls who came to the party were envy with that girl. The Tang Family was very famous in FIN City because of their looks and their intelligence. The three young masters were a famous doctor in their specialties. So, many of the girls wanted to extend their hand to the young masters of the Tang Family.

"Never thought that Brother Qin would also be here." Yu Qi said to the Tang Qin Hao who looking very lazy.

"I was forced to attend this party because of my mum. Do you think I want to come here?" Tang Qin Hai replied to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi laughed. She knew that. A person like Tang Qin Hao would not like this kind of function.

"Little Sis, you look so beautiful." Tang Han Lee said while patting her head.

Yu Qi noticed that Tang Han Lee like to pat her head.

"Thank you Big Brother Han." She said while smiled sweetly.

"I never thought you will be this beautiful." Tang Jin Wei also praising her beauty.

"I think Brother Jin saw many beautiful women before." Yu Qi said.

"Of course. But tonight you are the most beautiful girl."

"Brother Jin, your mouth is very sweet."

"Tsk, brat. I was praising you, okay. Humph! I will never praise you anymore." Tang Jin Wei faked his angry.

Ming Yue and Su Xiao who listened to their bickering were laughing. Yu Qi became closer to their sons after 3 days.

Once again, she became the guest attention. Other girls bite their nail when they looked Yu Qi was so close to the three young masters. They making many guesses which one of the young masters of the Tang Family taken by this girl.

"Hmm...Everyone. Thank you for coming to my father birthday party." Tang Jung Wen spoke through the microphone caught all attention of the guests.

"I will invite my father to give his speech." He gave the microphone to Grandpa Tang.

"Years after years, I got old. I felt the time for me to leave arrived. But this year, something good happened to me. That good thing makes me don't want to leave. I still want to live. I bet you wonder what the good thing happened to me, right?" Grandpa Tang paused. He looking for someone.

"Yu Qi dear, come to grandfather side." Grandpa Tang called Yu Qi to come to his side.

Yu Qi made her way to Grandpa Tang's side.

"Everyone, let me introduce my granddaughter to you. This is Yu Qi. She is not my blood-related granddaughter. I don't want to hear some nasty rumor about her. So, I will tell you about her. She is an orphan." Grandpa Tang stopped a minute.

Then the buzz sounded among the guests.

"However, she is my and only disciple. She is very talented in medical knowledge especially Chinese medicine. If I heard a nasty rumor about my beloved granddaughter and disciple, I will find the source and make that person bear the consequence of spreading the rumor." Grandpa Tang gave a threat.

Everyone here knew about Grandpa Tang. When he gave a warning and someone was brave to ignore the warning, he or she would get the taste of it.

Chapter 80: Ginseng Tonic Wine

"Give a threat on your birthday is not nice to you." A voice interrupted.

"Yeah, it was not nice of you." Another voice spoke.

Everyone searched the source of the voices. They found them. They were a well-known businessman and honorably the highest rank officer in the military, Feng Mong and Long Fei Yi.

Together with them, the breathtaking grandson of Long Fei Yi, Long Hui walked behind them. Long Hui was eyeing Yu Qi from the moment he entered the hall. Also, Feng Yue together with the bunch of Feng Family members that Yu Qi did not know about them.

Seeing her best friend, Feng Yue ran and hugged her. It was a long time since they met. Well, it was not that long. Only 4 days. But Feng Yue missed her so much. In the beginning, she did not want to attend this birthday party with the Feng Family members. However, after hearing Yu Qi also would be attending, she agreed to participate.

"Happy birthday, Grandpa Tang." Feng Yue congrats Grandpa Tang.

"Ho, thank you, Little Yue."

"I have a present for you. I wonder you will like or not."

"What is it?"

"Grinding Stone." Feng Yue gave her present to Grandpa Tang.

Grandpa Tang opened the present. "It is a beautiful grinding stone. Little Yue, thank you."

Everyone hurriedly presented their gift to Grandpa Tang. Grandpa Tang just received them as a formality. All the guests including his own grandsons had given their present to Grandpa Tang. The only who not presented their present was Yu Qi.

Some of the guests whispered among them.

"She doesn't prepare the present for Master Tang. How unfilial."

"She is just an orphan. What gift she can give to Master Tang?"

"I bet she doesn't have money to buy the present."

"Excuse me, grandfather. I will take a moment." Yu Qi excused herself.

She left the hall. She found Steward Hang Ji Chang. She asked to borrow the trolley. Steward Hang Ji Chang quickly found what Yu Qi wanted.

She went to her room with the trolley. She put something on that trolley and covered it. She did not want other people to see it when she decided to show them. She met Tang Han Lee in a middle way back to the hall.

"Little Sis, are you okay?" Tang Han Lee worried about his little sister. He could hear some guests whispered about his little sister. He afraid his little sister offended by that. So, he came out finding her.

"I'm okay, Big Brother Han. Don't worry." She smiled assured Tang Han Lee.

"What is this?" Tang Han Lee noticed the trolley.

"Grandfather's present." Yu Qi said.

"Owh, I wonder what is it."

"You will see it later."

The two of them entered the hall back. All of the eyes were on Yu Qi. Everyone became curious when Yu Qi pushed a trolley together with her. Yu Qi ignored them and went straight to Grandpa Tang.

"Grandfather." She called.

Grandpa Tang turned to her. "Yu Qi dear, what is it?"

"Grandfather, I give my present to you." Yu Qi uncovered the thing on the trolley.

A large glass jar appeared in front of everyone. Inside that jar, big ginseng and other Chinese herbs can be seen. Also, there had a yellow liquid surrounding them.

"Yu Qi dear, this is..." Grandpa Tang approached that.

"My present to you." She smirked to Grandpa Tang.

"Traditional Chinese medical wine." Grandpa Tang's eyes were shining.

"Grandfather, I forget to tell you. Actually, I found two 1000 years old ginseng. One, I already sold it to you. And another one..." She whispered and glanced at the ginseng inside the jar.

"What? This is 1000 years old ginseng?" Grandpa Tang almost shouted when he heard about this.

'1000 years old ginseng?' Everyone was dumbfounded. They knew that Grandpa Tang was a fan of Chinese herbs himself. This must be the best present for him.

She glad when Grandpa Tang happy seeing her present. That was worth. She decided to make this tonic wine as her present to Grandpa Tang. After hearing about Grandpa Tang's birthday from Old Man Feng, she decided to make this for his birthday present.

Grandpa Tang was lingering around the glass jar looking to the ingredients in it. He nodded several times. Yu Qi smiled when watching her grandfather behaved that way. She knew he was tried to guess what kind of medical wine that she had made.

"Yu Qi dear, this is ginseng tonic wine, right?" Grandpa Tang proudly said it.

"You guess it right, grandfather? So you knew what kind the benefit that you get from it, right?" She grinned.

"Thank you, Yu Qi dear. This is the best present I got." Grandpa Tang patted her head intimately.

"We had lost." Tang Jin Wei said sighed.

"But Little Sis's present is the most suitable present to grandfather since he like herbs the most." Tang Han Lee added.

The guests who insulated her with some kind of words just hang down their heads.

"Master Jiang Man, we don't know whether this wine can benefit you or not. Better we check it first." An old age man spoke to Grandpa Tang.

Everyone looked at the person who just talked. Grandpa Tang knew who is that person. All family member of Tang Family knew that person. That person was a man that married one cousin of Grandpa Tang. The cousin was Tang Hong Lan. She was married to Ling Man. So this person could be called a distant relative.

Grandpa Tang narrowed his eyes. He never liked this person. This person was so ambitious. From what he heard from Tang Jung Wen, he wanted his granddaughter married to one of his grandsons. Well, he did not mind if his grandson like his granddaughter but this Ling Man seemed to had a different intention by married his granddaughter to his grandson. Well, he also did not like his granddaughter because she was a spoiled brat.

"You mean she might poisoning me?" Grandpa Tang said with a cold tone.

"That is possible. We cannot simply believe the outsider." Ling Man said proudly while looking down to Yu Qi.

Ling Man always thought that their family was a close relative of the Tang Family. He knew that Master Jiang Man will listen to his thought. He hated Yu Qi from the moment she had been introduced as the granddaughter of The Master of the Tang Family. This might destroy his plan to make his granddaughter became the beloved granddaughter of Master of the Tang Family. So, he wanted to plant suspicious on Yu Qi's head.

He will take the medical wine for the test. Then he will put the poison in the portion that he going to test it. When the result shows, he can get rid of Yu Qi and get the medicinal wine himself. He smiled to Yu Qi.
