Chapter 721 - 721: You Know What, A Doctor Also Can Kill People

The vice captain came after listening to their shouts.

"What has happened here?" The vice captain asked.

"We don't know, vice captain. They have suddenly fell on the ground without knowing the reason and are telling us that they can not feel their legs." One of the men tried to explain.

"Vice captain, I can't feel my legs." The fallen one cried.

"Why do you gather here?" The vice captain asked.

"Actually, we want to have a taste of the girl. There she is." The man pointed to Yu Qi that still stood silently.

The vice captain did not notice that she was there. If the man did not mention it to him, he never knew. The vice captain looked at Yu Qi.

At first, the vice captain thought this woman was an obedient one. She just followed them silently making their job much easier. Then after arriving at their camp, the woman still did not comment much about this place.

After treating their boss, the vice captain could see that she was not even feeling afraid of him. That made him felt, this woman was not a normal woman.

"Is this your doing?" The vice captain asked while looking straight to the woman.

"I have recalled your statement this evening, Mr. Vice Captain." Yu Qi called him vice captain since she did not know what was his name.

"My statement?" The vice captain frowned as he did not understand what this woman tried to say.

"You are belittling a doctor. You said, 'What else we need from the doctor? Not like they can kill people.'" Yu Qi then chuckled. "You know what, a doctor also can easily kill people. We know where and which point in your body that literally ends your life. Once I strike the point, you die."

When Yu Qi explained that, everyone could feel that the chillness of her voice.

"And for your information, I'm not a cruel person that kills a person, I just make them suffer." Yu Qi added.

Everyone was silent. Then someone broke the silence.

"You bitch!!!"

"I'm going to beat and r.a.p.e you."

"Yeah. Brothers, let's beat her first."

Everyone did not use their gun since afraid that they would be struck by the bullet and since it was already dark. So, they brought out the knife.

The vice captain let their men had fun with this woman. So, the men attacked Yu Qi fiercely. They did have their fighting skill.

However, in front of Yu Qi, their abilities were not matched with Yu Qi's skill. Yu Qi avoided the attack as she made her own attacks.

"Ahh!!!"

"Ah!!!"

"Ahh!!!"

Once again, the men shouted in pain after falling to the ground. They held their legs.

"I don't feel my legs. No!!!"

"You bitch!!! Heal me!!!"

"What have you done to my legs?"

The shouts of anger could be heard for a moment. Yu Qi just looked down at the men.

Yu Qi opened her mouth after the man tired shouting at her. "I do tell you. I will not kill, well not for today. But I will not let you go. You can enjoy your life leglessly. Oh, you will never enjoy the women anymore."

BOOM!!! That statement made the men shocked.

"You!!!" Even the vice captain was shocked by what Yu Qi did.

.....

As for Min Gu Su, Ah Kean and several people decided to return to the city. Like the group of men said, they did leave the area. Min Gu Su and his team successfully returned to the city.

The first place they went to was the police station. They reported the incident to the police. Then they told the police to rescue Yu Qi as soon as possible.

The police officer called his leader and told the incident to his leader. The leader told Min Gu Su and his team that they would be investigating this incident tomorrow.

Min Gu Su became angry with this. He told the police that this matter needed to investigate as soon as possible.

The police officer just took this incident lightly. Yeah because they knew that girl would never be found anymore. Why should they waste this time and energy?

Ah Kean looked at the police officer and told him that the missing girl was the granddaughter of the legendary doctor, Doctor Tang Jiang Man.

The leader was shocked. Even though he was just middle aged, but he knew the fame of the legendary doctor. He was a national treasure.

That missing girl was that person's granddaughter? He needed to report to his superior. The leader told the group that he would settle this incident.

Min Gu Su was stunned. Ah Kean really knew to handle things.

....

Aoi ran all the way. Since no one here, he dispelled his invisible ability. After one hour of running, he finally left the jungle. Aoi sensed that man's direction.

It was closer than he thought. He thought he needed to go to Shiwa Town since that man usually there. But that man just about 100 kilometres from his current place.

Without waiting any longer, Aoi ran again. Even though he disliked that man, he was the only one that could save his master right now.

Then he arrived at the place. It was a military compound. Aoi turned invisible again and entered the military compound. Then he searched for that man using his scent.

The strongest scent of that man was here. He pushed the door and entered the room.

Chapter 722 - 722: Talk Directly To Long Hui

Long Hui and several soldiers were talking at each other. Suddenly the door was opened. However, when they looked at the door, there was no one at the door. Then someone opened the door. They ignored the strangeness and started to talk again.

Aoi entered the door. He did not care whether that man was busy or not. He quickly went to Long Hui. He then grabbed Long Hui's attention by rubbing his body at Long Hui's leg. He actually forgot that he was still in his invisible mode.

Long Hui could feel the sensation on his leg. 'Something at his legs.' He narrowed his eyes. He was not imagining things since the sensation was still there. He still felt that.

Aoi wanted Long Hui to ask the people to leave the room since he wanted directly talked to Long Hui but Long Hui still did not say anything. He finally remembered that Long Hui could not see him as he was in his invisible mode. So, he dispelled the invisible mode.

Long Hui widened his eyes as he saw Aoi appeared out of nowhere. His heart triggered some alarm. This dog never left his master unless it was necessary. And the fact he was here meaning something had happened to his beloved Qi Qi.

"All of you can go first. We will discuss that later." Long Hui gave the order to his subordinates.

"Eh? Why?" Ren Qian Yi asked.

"Just get out." Long Hui said that again.

His subordinates went out as they were wondering what happened to their Colonel.

"Lieutenant Colonel Ren, what is going with Colonel Long?" One of the soldiers asked Ren Qian Yi.

"I don't know. Probably he is on periods." Ren Qian Yi laughed as he left the place. n.-ø))V)/e)(L.-B-.1/.n

The soldiers looked at each other. They were already used to it when Ren Qian Yi joked about their colonel like that and got beaten by the colonel if he got to know about that.

Long Hui lifted Aoi and put him on the table.

"What has happened?" Long Hui went straight to the point.

"My master has been kidnapped by a group. It is about 300 kilometres from here. They are armed. Quickly save my master." Aoi said to Long Hui.

"Armed group?" Long Hui narrowed his eyes as he thought about that.

"Yes." Aoi nodded.

Aoi then explained the direction where his master was. Long Hui marked the place on the map.

No time to think about that. His beloved Qi Qi was more important.

"Okay." Long Hui nodded.

He rushed out and saw his subordinates were still lingering there.

"Good, you are still here. We have a mission. A class mission. I only need 10 to 15 people. Tell Lieutenant Colonel Ren too. Get ready. We will depart in 15 minutes." Long Hui said.

"Yes, Sir." The soldier saluted.

An A-class mission was a rescue mission. The mission could be considered dangerous and tricky since they needed to consider the victim's safety and how to tackle the armed men.

Long Hui also got ready to go. In the ten minutes, he already stood at the military vehicles parking area. Then after two minutes, his subordinates got there.

"What has happened? A class mission?" Ren Qian Yi asked.

"A camp of armed men have been spotted and they have kidnapped someone." When Long Hui said that, everyone could see that he was angry.

"What? Is it what I am thinking? They have kidnapped the third sister in law?" Ren Qian Yi asked worriedly.

Others heard that. They knew that? Long Hui had a girlfriend from Ren Qian Yi and Ren Qian Yi called her, Third Sister in law. Then, their Colonel Long's girlfriend had been kidnapped.

"Let's go." Long Hui said.

The policemen were also working on Yu Qi's case. As Min Gu Su requested, they investigated the case. They also send people to escort the people in the orphanage. Min Gu Su and Ah Kean also joined and helped the policemen.

However, the policemen asked the staff of the orphanage if they knew anything. Then suddenly a woman kneeled down while crying.

"Please forgive me... Please forgive me..." The woman apologized several times.

The policeman asked her why she apologizing to them like that.

"It was me who have told them that there will be a group of doctors that will come here. They need a doctor. I don't why but they have threatened me to keep quiet otherwise, they will kill these children." The woman explained as she faced down. She could not look at their faces.

"Do you know who they are?" The leader of the policeman asked.

"No. I have just met them a week ago when I have been heading to the orphanage. They have appeared and threatened me to give them some food supply. Then two days ago, they have told me that they need a doctor. So, since the doctors are coming today, I have told them to wait until today." The woman sobbed.

"What if Yu Qi does not agree to go? The man has threatened to kill all of us. What will you do?" Min Gu Su questioned the woman angrily.

Ah Kean held Min Gu Su's shoulder and telling him to calm down.

"I'm sorry... I'm sorry..." The woman kept saying there.

"Do you know where they are right now?" The leader of the policemen asked for more details.

"I don't know." The woman shook her head.

She really did not know about that. The group always appeared in the middle where the woman headed to the orphanage.

They sighed. So, where on the earth should they find Yu Qi?

Chapter 723 - 723: Push To Surgery Room

Long Hui had already discovered the place. It was indeed a hidden camp. Long Hui was about to instruct his subordinates to the pointed locations.

Suddenly they heard some shouts, coming from inside the camp. Long Hui could not wait for anything. He quickly ordered his subordinates to directly enter the camp.

The scene was very spectacular. What they saw was a woman stood proudly while looking at laying men around her.

"I have told you that you will regret thinking that you can have fun with me." The woman said while smirking.

Then, the woman was stunned as she caught a smell that should not belong here. She slowly turned around and stopped the Long Hui's group. The woman started running toward Long Hui's group.

Long Hui's subordinates became alert as they pulled their gun. However, Long Hui made a stop signal. The woman straightly hugged Long Hui. The subordinates were shocked. Only a few of them were relaxed since they knew the identity of the woman.

As for the people who did not know, they were hoping that the woman let their colonel go since their colonel might kill the woman because their colonel hated women very much.

"You are safe. Thank goodness." Long Hui hugged the woman back making his subordinates who did not know the woman became more shocked.

"Lieutenant colonel, this... this..." One of them asked Ren Qian Yi.

"Yeah. She is your Colonel Long's girlfriend." Ren Qian Yi said. He looked at the laying men. "I think we don't have to do anything since she has already taken them down."

"They do not manage to touch you, right?" Long Hui asked his beloved Qi Qi after he let go of her from his hug.

"Yes. I have already attacked their acupuncture points and as for the result, they have already lost their ability to stand." Yu Qi sai, like she was talking about the weather.

Others could hear what she was saying. It was like an angel's voice but the things that she said was very horrifying. Everyone was trembling.

The laying men had still had their consciousness. They just could watch what happened in front of their eyes.

The vice captain was still fine, pulled his gun and shot Yu Qi. Yu Qi heard that. Without anything hesitated, she used her body to protect Long Hui.

"Tsk..." That was only the sound that came out from Yu Qi's mouth when the bullet hit her shoulder.

"You bastard!!!" Long Hui shouted angrily to the man that shot his beloved Qi Qi.

Putting Yu Qi carefully, Long Hui marched towards the vice captain. His speed was incredible. In seconds, he was already in front of the man.

Long Hui punched the man right on his face. He did not hold back his power. The man went down after one punch.

"How dare you kidnap my woman? How dare you hurt my woman?"

Long Hui punched him several times. Then the man had fainted. His face was bloody. That only happened in one minute. Long Hui let him go. He then wiped out the blood on his hand.

Long Hui returned to Yu Qi's side. He looked at Yu Qi's wound. The bleeding was not stopping. At this rate, she would die from excessive bleeding.

Long Hui opened his bag and brought out the first aid kit. He cleaned out the blood and tightened the area with a bandage hoping that it would temporary stopped the bleeding.

"Hold on. I will bring you to the hospital, okay, Qi Qi?" Long Hui whispered to Yu Qi's ear.

"Okay." Yu Qi answered weakly.

"Lieutenant colonel Ren, take care of the things here. I will bring Yu Qi to the hospital now." Long Hui lifted Yu Qi.

"Yes, Sir." Ren Qian Yi saluted as he accepted the order.

"You, follow Colonel Long." Ren Qian Yi pointed to one of them. He wanted the man to be the guard for Long Hui in case they would get ambushed.

"Yes, Sir." The soldier saluted and followed Long Hui.

"Let's get to work." Ren Qian Yi said.

... n)/O-.v(-e)-l./b-(l.(n

Everyone was shocked to see Yu Qi in a soldier's arms with a pale face. They also could the blood on Yu Qi's shoulder.

"She has been shot by someone on her shoulder. Please save her." Long Hui said to a nurse.

"Shot? Quicky call Professor Liu and prepares the surgery room. We have a gunshot patient." A nurse gave the order. She then turned to Long Hui. "Put her onto this bed."

Long Hui followed the nurse's instruction. He put Yu Qi gently on the bed. The nurses pushed to the surgery room as soon as quickly.

"We will take care of the patient right now. Please wait outside." The nurse said to Long Hui. Long Hui stood helpless outside the surgery room.

Aoi also waited outside the surgery room. However, no one saw him since as he had put on his invisibility.

'Bo Ya, Master will be fine, right?' Aoi said Bo Ya.

'Yes. Don't worry.' Bo Ya assured Aoi.

The news which said that Yu Qi received a gunshot spread within the hospital. Two hours ago, they had received the news that Yu Qi had been kidnapped by an unknown group of men during their charity project. Everyone was very worried about her.

Now, she was saved from the kidnapper but had been shot by them. The management team called the police to tell the information in case the police was still looking for Yu Qi.

Chapter 724 - 724: Let Bygones Be Bygones

The police who had received the information came to the hospital together with Min Gu Su, Ah Kean and several doctors that were involved in the charity project.

They were greeted with two soldiers and other people outside the surgery room. The leader of the police looked at these two soldiers. He was surprised to see the higher ranking soldier there.

He went to greet Long Hui. Long Hui did not have any mood to reply to the greeting. So, he just nodded to the policeman. The policeman saw that and retreated back.

After three and a half hours, the doctor came out. Long Hui stood up and went to the doctor.

"How is she?" Long Hui asked.

"She is okay. She is sleeping right now. She will wake up soon. Probably in three to four hours later. No one should disturb her for now." The doctor informed Long Hui.

"Thank goodness." Long Hui took a relief breath. "Thank you, doctor."

Everyone also felt relieved after hearing the words from the doctor. n))Over EL1n

"Staff sergeant Lim, let's go. We have jobs to do." Long Hui called the soldier with him.

"Yes, sir." The soldier saluted and went with Long Hui.

The police saw this and went to talk to Long Hui.

"Colonel, can you tell us where do you find Miss Tang?" The leader of the policemen asked Long Hui.

"It is better if you follow us." Long Hui said.

"Yes, Sir." The police nodded.

The policemen did not know what to describe right now. The hidden camp. The people in this camp were gathered in the middle of the camp. All the men were laying down while the women were sitting obediently.

One of the policemen went to ask one of the soldiers. "What has happened here? Why are those men laying down like that?"

"Well, their acupuncture points were pressed so, they have lost their ability to use their legs." The soldier answered.

"What? Can't use their legs? Who has done that?" The policeman shocked.

"Our Colonel Long's girlfriend. And she is the one who has been shot and is currently in the hospital." The soldier answered again.

'What? The one who has been shot? Meaning, the doctor that has been kidnapped by them? She has done this to them? Terrifying.' The policeman thought in his mind.

Ren Qian Yi reported what he found out about this camp. They were the deserted soldiers from their neighbouring country, Cambodia. The one that they had attacked last week.

They managed to run away before Long Hui and his team managed to destroy them completely. Never knew that they had already formed their camp in Binhai. Their leader was the man that Yu Qi gave the treatment before.

Well, their mission was completed with the help of Yu Qi. These men would be given to the military. Since they could not walk anymore, Long Hui ordered his subordinates to use the path the men used to get out of this camp.

Long Hui left all of the work to Ren Qian Yi. Ren Qian Yi sighed. Man in love...

Yu Qi opened her eyes. The first thing that she saw was the hospital's ceiling. She turned around and saw Long Hui was in a sitting position, holding her right hand with his eyes closed.

'My man is the most handsome man.' Yu Qi smiled.

Long Hui opened his eyes when he felt some movement.

"Qi Qi!" Long Hui was relieved.

"Brother Hui..." Yu Qi smiled.

"Please, don't do that again." Long Hui begged her.

Yu Qi's mind was processing Long Hui's word. 'What is he talking about? Oh, it must be that one.'

Yu Qi shook her head. "I will do it again and again if the same thing has happened. Even though I will get the hurt, I will not regret it."

Long Hui sighed.

"You also will do the same thing, right? We are the same." Yu Qi said again.

"I'm afraid of losing you." Long Hui kissed her hand.

"Don't worry. I will be careful next time." Yu Qi only said to assure Long Hui. If something like this had happened again, she would definitely do the same thing. She would protect him as he would protect her.

"By the way, is everyone at the orphanage safe?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes. They are safe. They have reported about you to the police." Long Hui answered.

"Actually, I have thought you will arrive the next day since you are at Shiwa Town, I have never thought it will only take a few hours, you will find me. Aoi do run faster than before." Yu Qi chuckled.

"No, I have been in Guanying City only. It is also related to my mission. That is why I have been there earlier." Long Hui explained.

"I see." Yu Qi smiled.

"Luckily he has found me." Long Hui nodded.

"Once he got the smell, he can pinpoint your position. My good dog." Yu Qi was proud with Aoi. "By the way, where is he?" She tried to sense Aoi's presence.

"I have just given him some food. He will be here soon." Long Hui said. He gave some food to Aoi since it had been one day he had nothing.

Yu Qi smiled. "He must be hungry since he is glutton."

Then, there were knocks on the door.

"You can enter." Long Hui said.

The door was opened. A group of people came in. There were doctors with her during the charity project. Min Gu Su and Ah Kean were also here.

"Doctor Tang, how are you feeling?" Min Gu Su asked.

"I'm okay." Yu Qi replied.

"Doctor Tang." Another first year resident stepped forward. 'Thank you. If you have not volunteered at that time, they would kill us. Thank you very much for saving us.' He bowed.

Then all of them bowed to Yu Qi as they expressed their gratitude.

"Don't mind about that. Let bygones be bygones" Yu Qi smiled.

Chapter 725 - 725: You Will Be Straight To Hell

"Enough." Long Hui said one word.

Others gulped. They forgot that a handsome man sitting beside Yu Qi's bed. His face gave a disgusted look to the people inside the room.

"Okay, Doctor Tang, we will go first. Hope you will get well faster." The first year resident seemed to understand what Long Hui's meant.

Everyone also understood the situation. After they said something to Yu Qi like 'get well soon'. they left the ward.

"You have scared them." Yu Qi glanced to Long Hui.

"They are disturbing us." Long Hui said without feeling wrong about what he was doing.

"Who are those people actually?" Yu Qi asked.

"Intruders from the neighbouring country. They are from their army but breaking the law. They ran away from their country and are staying here.

My mission is to catch those people. But they are so sneaking. But, you have already helped me with that. Thank you." Long Hui explained.

"I see." Yu Qi nodded.

"I have never thought they will do something like that to you. I hold back my anger knowing what has happened to you." Long Hui clenched his fists. n-(0--V-)ε-(ℓ/(ℓ(.1((n

"I have thought they are planning to do something like that to me but they are probably regretting doing so." Yu Qi chuckled. "Wait, have you tell my family about this?"

"No. I know that you will not let them know." Long Hui knew Yu Qi would not like to know her family knew about her injury like this.

"Thank you." Yu Qi took a relief breath.

Long Hui looked at his watch and clicked his tongue. "I have to go first. I will come back later." He was fl.u.s.tered when he could not stay with his beloved Qi Qi because of his work.

"Don't worry. I will be fine." Yu Qi nodded.

The news Yu Qi was injured by the gunshot known in the hospital. They went to visit Yu Qi. Her story about being a volunteer for saving others was also being told to others by the people involved in that incident. They told others that they were very grateful to Yu Qi.

The next reason why Yu Qi had been so famous right now also due to Long Hui. He would come to visit her in the morning and at night. The female staff would like to watch Long Hui coming to visit Yu Qi.

One of them thought that she could have the chance to replace Yu Qi. So, one day, when Long Hui came to visit Yu Qi, the female staff offered herself to lead the way to Yu Qi's room even though she knew that Long Hui already knew where Yu Qi's room was.

Long Hui directly ignored her. He was already used to the women who wanted to throw herself into him. He did not want to make trouble at Yu Qi's workplace.

Since the female staff saw that Long Hui did not say anything, she assumed it was okay to do so and it was her chance to attract Long Hui's intention. So, she walked beside Long Hui.

There were some people who watched the scene. As they walked together, she attempted to hold Long Hui's hand.

When Long Hui felt that something was about to hold his hand, he moved his hand straight to the female staff's neck. He strangled the female staff's neck. The female staff was aghast by Long Hui's action. Even the onlookers that watched was also shocked when seeing this scene.

"If you want to die, I don't mind doing so." Long Hui strengthened his hold.

"Please... Don't... Kill... Me..." The female staff begged while her tears flew down.

Long Hui showed a disgusting expression on his face and let the female staff go. The female staff fell on the ground because her legs felt very very very weak at the moment. She felt that she was about to die just now.

Long Hui grabbed the handkerchief from his pocket. He wiped his hand that just held the female staff. After wiping his hand thoroughly, he threw the handkerchief into the dustbin there.

"It is a warning. After this, there is no warning. You will be going straight to hell." Long Hui glared icily at the female staff and then he left the place.

The onlookers quickly went to help the female staff.

"Are you okay?"

The female staff could not answer that question. She was still feeling frightened and her body was still trembling. She felt that she was just facing, not a human, but a demon king.

Well, it was this female staff's fault. She knew that the man already had a girlfriend but she still wanted to try to snatch the man and failed terribly. So, they could not blame him for acting like that toward the female staff.

Long Hui walked into Yu Qi's ward with a cold face. Inside Yu Qi's room, there was Nurse Shing Yu Ten and another nurse visiting Yu Qi. Yu Qi could see that Long Hui was angry about something.

"Doctor Tang, we will visit you again." Nurse Shing Yu Ten could sense something. She pulled her friend's hand and quickly left the ward.

"Yu Ten, why are you pulling me like that?" Her friend asked.

"I am afraid of Doctor Tang's boyfriend. He is indeed look very handsome but at the same time, he is very fierce. Look at him just now..." Nurse Shing Yu Ten said.

"Yeah. I have also felt that too." Her friend nodded.

Chapter 726 - 726: Possessive Girl

"Why are you looking so angry?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

"Nothing." Long Hui turned from a devil king to a charming prince in front of Yu Qi.

"Really?" Yu Qi deepened her gaze to Long Hui.

"Well... Someone wants to hold my hand. So, I have choked her." Long Hui explained as he avoided Yu Qi's eyes.

"She wants to hold your hand?" Now, it was Yu Qi's turn to look like she wanted to kill someone. "Give me your hand."

Long Hui handed out his right hand where the woman tried to get hold of it. Yu Qi closed her eyes and out of a sudden, there was a bottle and a handkerchief in her hand. She calmly used these things to wipe Long Hui carefully. Well, more to sanitise his hand.

Long Hui obediently sat there and let his beloved Qi Qi wiped his hand. As for those things that appeared out of nowhere, it must be her space. Well, he knew that she must be feeling jealous when hearing that some woman wanted to touch her. Possessive girl, he chuckled.

"All done." Yu Qi smiled as she finished wiping clean Long Hui's hand.

"Thank you, Qi Qi." Long Hui smiled.

"By the way, is that okay for you to come here every day?" Yu Qi asked about Long Hui's job.

"Don't worry about that." Long Hui just brush the topic off.

"My injury probably will heal completely in two days. So, you can focus more on your work." Yu Qi touched her shoulder.

"Qi Qi does not like me to be here?" Long Hui put a pitiful expression on his face.

"NO! Of course not. I like to be with you." Yu Qi strongly denied that statement. noVe.l6(In

"Hmm... I knew. I also like to be with you. To be more specific, inside you." Long Hui licked his tongue.

That statement made Yu Qi stunned. Then she also smiled seducing Long Hui.

"Me too. I also like you inside me." Following Long Hui's action, Yu Qi also licked her lips.

Long Hui's hand caressed Yu Qi's cheek and then transferred to her lips.

"Can I kiss you?" Long Hui said politely.

"I don't know that you will be this polite." Yu Qi raised her eyebrows.

"I know you don't like the polite me. Then I will not hold back." Long Hui chuckled.

After that, Long Hui kissed Yu Qi. At first, he was gentle. Then, the longer the kiss, the intense the kiss would be. Feeling his beloved Qi Qi going out of breath, Long Hui finally let her go.

Yu Qi's expression right now was very attracted to him. If not for that wound, Long Hui would take her right now. He needed to endure until she completely healed.

In order to make that feeling disappeared, Long Hui felt he needed to cool down first.

"Qi Qi, are you hungry?" Long Hui asked.

Yu Qi nodded. "Hmmm... A little."

"I will buy something for you." Long Hui coughed and made his way out.

...

After ten days of resting, Yu Qi had completely healed. She had been discharged earlier in the morning. She quickly put on the white coat to start her duty.

When she appeared at the morning meeting, everyone was very surprised.

"Doctor Tang, are you sure that you don't want to rest for one more day?" Doctor Zhu asked.

"Yeah, I am already bored to death resting for ten days. And my wound has completely healed. There is no reason for me to? rest anymore." Yu Qi said. She was completely serious about this.

"Okay. But let us know if you feel uncomfortable." Doctor Zhu said.

"Yes, Doctor Zhu." Yu Qi nodded.

The morning meeting began. After that, Yu Qi went to start her morning routine. The patients that had been assigned to her before the incident mostly had discharged.

Only one of them had still not discharge yet. Other than her, two of her patients were the new ones. So, she needed to study about her patients.

She sat in the meeting room before someone came in and told that a man came and wanted to see her.

Yu Qi was confused at the moment. Long Hui already told her that he would be busy for the next few days. So he would not come to the hospital to see her.

As for Su Yu Hi, usually, he would call her first if he wanted to see her. By the way, she already asked Su Yu Hi to go to Fanghai Nation today. So, it would not be him.

She did not know who would come and ask her to see her. The person that wanted to see her was at the cafe. Yu Qi walked to the cafe.

It was not lunchtime yet. So, only a few people there. Yu Qi looked over if someone that she knew.

Yeah, there was someone. That 'someone' saw Yu Qi and excitedly waved his hand to Yu Qi.

"Little Sis." That 'someone' was Tang Jin Wei.

Yu Qi slowly walked to Tang Jin Wei.

"Brother Jin Wei, what are you doing here?" Yu Qi was surprised to see Tang Jin Wei here therefore she asked the question.

"Well, I have some business around here. So, I have thought to pay you a visit." Tang Jin Wei's eyes waved around.

Yu Qi raised her eyebrows as she suspiciously looked at Tang Jin Wei.

"Oh, what kind of business you have here?" Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

Chapter 727 - 727: Meeting with Tang Jin Wei

Tang Jin Wei felt that he could not hide from his little sister. "Su Su was born in this city. So..."

"Oh, you have come to see her family. Never thought you will be so serious with her." Yu Qi chuckled.

"Of course, I'm serious about her. It is my first time feeling this." Tang Jin Wei said seriously to Yu Qi.

"Okay... Okay... I understand." Yu Qi laughed. "When will you get married? Auntie Ming Yue must happy with this."

"Well, in the progress." Tang Jin Wei grinned. "When will you be finished with your internship?"

"Two months later." Yu Qi said.

"I see. Are you already thinking about your next plan?" Tang Jin Wei asked.

"I may consider continuing my residentsip at Tang Private Hospital for five years since surgery is my speciality." Yu Qi did think about her next plan.

"Oh, I see." Tang Jin Wei nodded several times. "Grandpa will indeed get happy if you come to work with us. He is already unhappy since you choose this hospital for your internship." He said.

"Grandpa is unhappy?" Yu Qi did not know about that.

"Yes. But of course, he will say not that to you. He understands your reason. Well, I understand too since I also do the same thing for my internship. Same as Big Brother." Tang Jin Wei said.

"Speaking about Grandpa, how is he?" Yu Qi switched her attention to her grandfather.

"Same as usual." Before he came here, he went to see his grandfather first.

Grandpa Tang became more obsessed with growing up the herbs.

"I bet he is taking care of his herbs." Yu Qi chuckled. She just saw her grandpa two days later using her special CCTV.

"By the way, are you free tonight? I want to invite you for dinner tonight with Su Su." Tang Jin Wei asked.

"Sure." Yu Qi agreed. She did not assign for the night shift for today.

"Nice. I will inform you of the place later." Tang Jin Wei smiled.

"Okay." Yu Qi nodded.

...

"Dinner with your sister?" Ke Su Su asked.

"Yeah. She is having her internship at the hospital here. So, since we are here, I suggest we have dinner with her too." Tang Jin Wei informed Ke Su Su when they were about to go to the restaurant.

"I don't mind. Is that okay with my clothes?" Ke Su Su asked when she looked down on her clothes.

"Eh, why are you asking that?" Tang Jin Wei somehow an idiot at this time.

"Well, I am meeting with one of your family members..." Ke Su Su said.

"Don't worry. My little Sis does not mind about that. And I think you have already met her in the past." Tang Jin Wei laughed off about that.

"Yeah... But, at that time, I don't know it was your sister." Ke Su Su remembered that time where she thought Yu Qi was Tang Jin Wei's girlfriend and she was embarrassed when Yu Qi said she was Tang Jin Wei's sister.

"Little Sis is open-minded. Don't mind about that." Tang Jin Wei said.

"Okay." Ke Su Su nodded.

They entered the restaurant. Tang Jin Wei had already told Yu Qi which restaurant that they would have dinner at. Yu Qi said that she would be there later.

A waiter led the two of them to the empty table. Tang Jin Wei informed the waiter that they would be ordered the food after the third party arrived. The waiter nodded and left them first.

They did not know that someone was paying attention to them especially to Ke Su Su.

After 15 minutes, Yu Qi arrived. "Sorry, I am late."

"It's okay." Ke Su Su shook her head.

"I think this is our second meeting, right, Sister Su Su?" Yu Qi smiled.

"Ye. Yeah..." Ke Su Su nodded. Tang Jin Wei's sister was so beautiful. They were indeed from the same family.

"Let's order the food." Tang Jin Wei said called the waiter to order food.

So, they talked while eating. At first, Ke Su Su felt afraid of talking to Yu Qi. But after spending a few time talking to Yu Qi, she became more comfortable talking with Yu Qi. Sometimes, both of the girls ignored Tang Jin Wei.

After a moment, Ke Su Su excused herself to go to the ladies. So, she asked a waitress about the ladies. The waitress showed and led Ke Su Su to the ladies. She said thank you and entered the ladies.

Done with her business inside, she went out. Right after she got out, her body was pushed back inside the ladies. The culprit locked the door and pinned her to the wall.

"My dear, long time no see." The culprit said.

Ke Su Su then looked at the culprit. She was shocked. It was actually her ex-boyfriend, Jian Hee.

"You become more beautiful since I last saw you." Jian Hee smiled.

"Let me go." Ke Su Su struggled.

"Don't be so distant from me. I'm your ex-boyfriend." Jian Hee chuckled.

"You are just ex-boyfriend." Ke Su Su said.

"Yeah. You already have a new boyfriend. He looks richer than me." Jian Hee said. "Is he already have a taste of you?"

Ke Su Su's expression on her face changed.

Jian Hee caught that. "Oh, he hasn't yet tasted you? So, you are still a v.i.r.g.i.n?" Jian Hee licked his tongue. "This is great. I shall get a taste first since I'm your first boyfriend."

Chapter 728 - 728: How Dare You Touch My Sister In Law?

Ke Su Su was shocked. "Let me go." She screamed.

"You can scream more. People will know you are getting r.a.p.ed inside here." Jian Hee gave her a warning.

Ke Su Su freeze. However, the door in front of her was kicked open. She looked at the person who had kicked the door and entered as she kicked Jian Hee aside.

Jian Hee fell over and hissed in pain. He could feel that his bones had broken. He looked over at the person who kicked him. It was a woman. The woman who was having dinner together with Ke Su Su just now.

Yu Qi looked coldly at the fallen man. "How dare you touch my sister in law?"

She approached the man as she cracked his bones that could be heard by the man and Ke Su Su.

"Wait... I'm sorry. I'm sorry. Don't hit me." Jian Hee begged. This woman was so strong. He could feel that from her first kick.

"Save your thoughts." Yu Qi said before her hand punched that man's face several times.

Everyone including Tang Jin Wei appeared outside the ladies. Well, they heard the loud sound when Yu Qi kicked the door open.

Tang Jin Wei entered the ladies when he saw his girlfriend was sitting at th corner while his little sister punched a man. He opened the coat and put on his girlfriend. He also covered his girlfriend's face. He understood this situation.

"Call your manager and the police right now." Tang Jin Wei ordered one of the waiters there.

None of them moved. Tang Jin Wei became angry.

"CALL YOUR MANAGER RIGHT NOW!!!" Tang Jin Wei shouted angrily.

Until that, the waiters quickly moved away from that place.

Yu Qi already stopped beating up Jian Hee. She then took the tissue and wiped her hands.

"Trash." Yu Qi glanced at the man who had already fainted from the beating.

There were still people outside the ladies. When they saw the man fainted from the girl's beating, they shivered. The girl looked very weak but had a strong power.

The manager came after five minutes. It was a middle-aged man. He looked around and saw a beaten-up man fainted and that man was the restaurant's waiter.

"Let's move to my office, Sir." The manager thought it was not a good place to talk. So, he suggested his office.

"Call the police too." Tang Jin Wei would never let this man got away from what he had done.

"Yes, sir... Yes, sir." The manager thought it was unavoidable. He asked his staff to call the police and asked several people to bring the faint man into his office too.

"Sir, may I know what has happened just now?" The manager asked Tang Jin Wei.

However, it was not Tang Jin Wei that answered the question. It was Yu Qi that opened her mouth.

"I was going to find my sister in law at the ladies. Then I heard a woman's scream telling 'let me go' inside the ladies. When I wanted to open the door, it was locked. So, I kicked the door opened. Then I saw that man pinned my sister in law at the wall. So, I beat him up." Yu Qi told his story.

The manager gulped his saliva. He looked at his waiter. There were bruises on his face.

Then, there were knocks on the door. It was a policeman who entered the room. The policeman looked surprised when he entered the room and saw a familiar face inside the room.

"Miss Tang, what are you doing here?" The policeman asked.

"Something has happened." Yu Qi got to know these policemen after she got shot.

"So, what has happened here?" The policeman asked.

Yu Qi began to repeat the story when she was telling the manager earlier.

"Is it okay for Miss Ke to speak?" The policeman asked Ke Su Su.

"Are you okay? Can you speak?" Tang Jin Wei asked gently to the lady that still in his hug.

"Yes." Ke Su Su nodded weakly.

"Then, can I know what happened from Miss Ke's side?" The policeman asked.

"I was about to get out of the ladies and suddenly he came and pushed me into the ladies. He said he wants to..." Ke Su Su could not finish her sentence and started to tremble again.

It was visible to others to see it.

"Okay, you can stop." The policeman understood.

"I want me to charge him." Tang Jin Wei said to the policeman.

"Yes sir." The policeman could not ignore this man.

From his understanding, this man was Miss Tang's brother. Meaning he was also the legendary doctor's grandchildren. He asked his subordinates to bring Jian Hee to the police station after getting the treatment.

"I will go first. You guys can come to the police station later." The policeman excused himself.

The manager looked at the scene. From what he could conclude, the people in front of him had special identities since even the police seemed to respect them.

"I'm sorry for having you experience the matter." The manager apologized sincerely. "You don't need to pay for tonight's dinner."

What the important was to build a relationship with these people. He was willing to pay for their dinner.

"No need. We still will pay for it." Tang Jin Wei put on his card on the table. "Can you process the payment? We would like to leave after this."

"Of course... Of course..." The manager called his staff to process the payment. noVE-Lb/In Chapter 729 - 729: Sleep Together?

Tang Jin Wei sent Ke Su Su to the hotel room.

"Hmm..." Ke Su Su seemed to speak something when they already arrived at the room.

"What is it?" Tang Jin Wei asked gently.

"Can... Can... You stay... With me... Tonight?" Ke Su Su asked without looking at Tang Jin Wei's face.

"What?" Tang Jin Wei was shocked.

"I'm scared... To stay... Alone in... This room..." Ke Su Su explained.

Tang Jin Wei understood. This girl had undergone such a terrifying situation. So, she was scared to stay alone.

"Okay. I will accompany you." Tang Jin Wei nodded.

Ke Su Su unlocked the room and they entered the room. Ke Su Su opened her closet and pulled a towel. She gave it to Tang Jin Wei.

"You can take the shower first." Ke Su Su said.

"Oh, okay." Tang Jin Wei nodded and walked to the bathroom.

Entering the bathroom normally. Then Tang Jin Wei realized that he was going to be alone with Ke Su Su tonight. Even though he had already dated Ke Su Su for such a long time, he had never spent the night with her. n.(07E1BIn

Ke Su Su told him that she needed time to get used to this. Tang Jin Wei did not mind at all. Since he had also never been with a woman s.e.x.u.a.lly.

Well, Tang Jin Wei also flirted with some women but it was all that. He had never touched a woman. But now... now...

"Jin Wei, you can use the bathrobe." Ke Su Su's voice stopped his imagination.

"Oh... Okay..." Tang Jin Wei said.

Tang Jin Wei shook his head. Ke Su Su did not mean anything with this. She just wanted him to accompany her since that incident. That's all. He nodded. He would wait until she was ready for that.

After that, Tang Jin Wei took the bath with a normal feeling. He got out with the bathrobe.

Then Ke Su Su went to the bathroom. Tang Jin Wei was actually nervous. He covered it by looking at his handphone.

Not long after that, Ke Su Su came out in her pyjamas. She sat at the corner bed looking restless.

"You can sleep on the bed. I will sleep on the sofa." Tang Jin Wei said.

"No!" Ke Su Su shouted. Then she looked embarrassing. "No need for you to sleep on the sofa... The bed is large... You can sleep on it too."

Tang Jin Wei was surprised. "But, it is a bad idea."

"I feel scared when thinking about the earlier incident. But your hug gives me a sense of security. So... Can... I... Sleep with... You tonight?" Ke Su Su asked shyly.

Tang Jin Wei blinked several times. His mind was in chaos.

"Are you sure? You want to sleep with me?" Tang Jin Wei asked.

"Well, just sleep." Ke Su Su nodded.

Tang Jin Wei felt that he understood right now. Ke Su Su did not mean that kind of sleeping. It was a normal sleep. Sigh... He was excited about nothing. But his girlfriend requested to sleep with his hug since it gave her security made him felt happy when listening to that.

"Okay. Sure." Tang Jin Wei nodded.

Both of them got onto the bed. One on the right corner, one on the left corner. Both of them were silent.

"Hmm... Jin Wei, can I hug you?" Ke Su Su asked after a moment of silence.

"Oh... Sure..." Tang Jin Wei slowly got closer to Ke Su Su and pulled her into his hug. Well, it became he hugged her.

Ke Su Su leaned her head on Tang Jin Wei's chest. She felt safe in Tang Jin Wei's hug. Not the feeling when that man hugged her. Unconsciously she smiled.

Tang Jin Wei also thinking about something. His girlfriend's body was very soft. It felt good to hug her. He thought that it was not long until he could fully eat her.

Both of them fell in a drowsy state and fell to sleep while hugging each other.

However, Tang Jin Wei woke up in the middle of the night. He looked down and saw his girlfriend in the deep sleep. Then she moved to lean closer to Tang Jin Wei's body.

Then Ke Su Su's leg touched one part of Tang Jin Wei's body that made him freeze. He gulped. The drowsiness was gone. The hardening was not stopping as Ke Su Su's leg touched that part.

Tang Jin Wei wanted to let Ke Su Su go but he was afraid that it could disturb her sleep. So, he gave up that choice. The choice that he had right now was only to endure.

"Jin Wei, thank you... And I love you..." Ke Su Su suddenly said that.

Tang Jin Wei was surprised as he heard that. He looked at Ke Su Su's face. Her eyes were still closed. Meaning she was just sleep talking.

Tang Jin Wei grinned. Even in the dream, Ke Su Su was thinking about him. He never thought that he would like someone onto this level. Someone that could stir his feelings like this.

When he saw Ke Su Su in the ladies, he felt that he wanted to kill that man. However, he knew that would make things worse, he cooled down and asked to call the manager and the police. Attempt to r.a.p.e was a crime. That man would end up in jail.

Chapter 730 - 730: That Is What Family Is

Tang Jin Wei could not sleep until dawn. So, right now, he lacked sleep. After breakfast, Tang Jin Wei and Ke Su Su went to the hospital to take Yu Qi to the police station regarding yesterday's incident.

The police called Tang Jin Wei to come to the police station to give their official statement. Since Yu Qi was also involved in the incident, Yu Qi also needed to go to the police station.

Jian Hee, the man that attempting to r.a.p.e Ke Su Su was treated and then sent to the police station. Even though the man felt the pain in his waist like some bones broke, however, when the doctor scanned it was nothing broke at all. Still, the pain was there.

When Jian Hee saw Yu Qi again, he shivered up. He did not want to feel that again. That girl was too strong. When the policeman asked about what happened yesterday, he was being honest and told the policeman what had happened yesterday.

Ke Su Su was surprised when Jian Hee admitted honestly. As Tang Jin Wei wanted, he would be charged with attempt to r.a.p.e and if he would be found guilty, he would be sentenced to four years in prison.

When Ke Su Su heard that punishment, she told Tang Jin Wei not to charge Jian Hee. She did not want to destroy Jian Hee's life. He was in his primer age. If he ended up in jail, his future would be destroyed. Ke Su Su did not want that to happen because of her.

Tang Jin Wei did not want that but since it was Ke Su Su's decision, he respected that. So, he dropped the charge.

When Jian Hee heard that, he requested to meet Ke Su Su. He ended up crying while thanking Ke Su Su for not charging him for what he had done.

Ke Su Su knew this man for a long time. She also grew up with him. He even became her first boyfriend but that relationship would not last long. Only five months and they broke up. Thinking about that, she forgave him.

They were about to leave the police station when suddenly an officer came greeted Yu Qi.

"Miss Tang, you have already healed from that gunshot? That was fast. Oh, I need to go first. Have a nice trip." The officer said.

"Eh?" Yu Qi blinked several times.

"Little Sis, what is that policeman talking about?" Tang Jin Wei asked while looking at Yu Qi very seriously.

"Nothing. That policeman was joking." Yu Qi grinned.

"Really? Do I need to ask the hospital about your medical record?" Tang Jin Wei did not buy that.

Yu Qi sighed. She needed to be frank about this.

"I just received a gunshot on my shoulder twelve days ago. But it has all healed now. I am already okay." Yu Qi moved around the shoulder that was shot.

"Let's go to the cafe first. Let Yu Qi tell us everything." Ke Su Su said calming down Tang Jin Wei.

"Okay. Little Sis, let's go. You need to tell me everything." Tang Jin Wei gave a threatening smile to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi gulped. 'My second brother can be so scary sometimes.'

So, they went to the nearest cafe. Yu Qi sat in front of Tang Jin Wei and Ke Su Su. After ordering some drinks, Tang Jin Wei looked at Yu Qi very seriously.

"So, can you tell me what happened to you in detail?" Tang Jin Wei stressed out the word 'detail'.

"Well, I joined a charity program and went to do the medical check up for the orphans at the orphanage. Suddenly men or let just call them terrorist, they needed a doctor to treat someone. So, to keep others safe, I went to follow them. I treated that person. But they planned to do something to do." Yu Qi felt angry when she thought about that again.

"So, I attack them with acupuncture. Luckily for me, Brother Hui arrived at the place. But someone pointed a gun at us and shot. That bullet hit my shoulder. After surgery, I spent twelve days to rest and now, as I say, I am already 100% healed." As Tang Jin Wei wanted, Yu Qi did explain in detail.

Tang Jin Wei and Ke Su Su were speechless. 'Attack them with acupuncture?' But it happened to his little sister.

"Why don't you call us, your family?" Tang Jin Wei sighed.

"Well..." Yu Qi scratched her cheek gently. "I just don't want you to get worried about me. It was not a big deal." n(-OvelbIn

"Not a big deal, you say? Getting a gunshot is not a big deal?" Tang Jin Wei looked at Yu Qi with widened eyes. He even stood up.

"Jin Wei, calm down... Calm down..." Ke Su Su pulled Tang Jin Wei's hand to sit down back.

Tang Jin Wei eventually sat back. He sighed.

"Little Sis, you need to tell what if something like this happens. That is what family is for." Tang Jin Wei said.

Yu Qi looked down. "I'm sorry." She did not think about that.

"I know that you don't want to worry us but still..." Tang Jin Wei did not finish the sentence.

"I'm sorry." Yu Qi said that again.

"The thing is already in the past." Ke Su Su said.

"Brother Jin Wei... I promise if something like this happens again, I will tell our family. But this time, can you keep the secret for me? I don't want to trouble our family to come and see me since I am already fine." Yu Qi begged Tang Jin Wei.

"Okay." Tang Jin Wei sighed for... Well for what times, he did not know.

"Thank you, Brother Jin Wei." Yu Qi smiled.
