Chapter 741 - 741: Give Feng Yue Some Advices

"So, you run to me because a man has confessed to you." Yu Qi chuckled.

"Yu Qi, don't laugh!" Feng Yue pouted.

"I think that woman is a problem when you tell me about your life there. Never have thought that it will be a twist." Yu Qi still felt very funny about that.

Feng Yue pouted as she looked at Yu Qi that was still grinning.

"Okay... Okay... I will not make fun of you anymore." Yu Qi coughed and looked seriously at Feng Yue.

She started to give serious advice to Feng Yue. "Actually, I can't give my opinion about this to you since you are the one who has been confessed by him. And I actually do not even know him. How can I tell you my opinion about whether you should accept his feelings or not if I do not even know him?

It will not be fair for him either. You should ask yourself about him. Do you like him? Do you feel comfortable being with him? You need to think about yourself or you can ask other people's opinion who knows him and make the decision based on what you have thought about him."

Feng Yue took Yu Qi's advice very seriously. That was right. She needed to think for herself.

"By the way, Yu Qi, how about you? What do you think when Brother Hui said that he likes you? What is your first thought when he has said that?" Feng Yue asked.

Yu Qi thought about the past. "Hmm... At that time, I have thought it was ridiculous."

Feng Yue was surprised. "Erk?? What? Why?"

"Because he is too handsome. I have even thought he must already have a girlfriend. So, I just think nothing about that." Yu Qi answered.

"Then, what has made you accept him at last?" Feng Yue asked. It became interesting. ~~nOVe-Lb~~-In

"It has changed my mind from thinking 'it was ridiculous' to 'oh, he is serious' when he has told my grandfather that he wants to woo me. After that, I have started thinking seriously about him. After many interactions, I have believed I also like him." Yu Qi explained.

"I see." Feng Yue nodded. "So, I do not need to accept him in hurry."

"Yeah. Think about that properly." Yu Qi advised.

"What if I have realized that I do like him but he doesn't like me anymore? What should I do?" Feng Yue thought it was a very serious matter too.

"Then, he is not worth it." Yu Qi said.

"I see." Feng Yue nodded understanding about that.

...

Yu Qi woke up in the morning. Today, she was not sleeping in her space since Feng Yue also spent the night with her. They were sleeping together in the living room since the bed in Yu Qi's bedroom only can be occupied by one person.

Feng Yue also woke up from her sleep as she sensed some movement. She yawned as she looked at Yu Qi.

"Good morning. What time is it now?" Feng Yue asked as she rubbed her eyes.

"Six a.m. You can sleep more if you want." Yu Qi said.

"No. I will wake up. You probably want to go for a morning jog, right?" Feng Yue stretched her body.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

"Then, I will follow you." Feng Yue said.

"Okay. Sure." Yu Qi said.

So, both of them prepared for the morning jog. When Yu Qi opened the door and walked away, she could see that the door beside her house also been opened by someone.

"Good morning, Brother Xia." Yu Qi greeted Qin Xia as she saw him getting out of the house.

"Good morning. Jogging?" Qin Xia asked when he saw her clothes.

"Yeah. With my friend." Yu Qi answered.

At that moment, Feng Yue walked out. She saw Yu Qi was happened to be talking with a man. And she recognised that man. Qin Xia. He was living beside Yu Qi? What a coincidence. But is it a coincidence?

"Is she your friend?" Qin Xia pointed to Feng Yue.

"Yes. Feng..." Yu Qi did not finish the sentence.

But Qin Xia did. "I know, Feng Yue, right? That granddaughter of Mr Feng." Of course, he knew her. He already investigated people around Yu Qi. Not to mention that 'Yue' name was important to him.

"Yeah. Brother Xia, are you heading to work right now? It is still early." Yu Qi saw Qin Xia in his working suit.

"I need to head to Q Country today. I have a meeting there." Qin Xia answered.

"Oh, I see. Then, Brother Xia, you need to be careful." Yu Qi advised.

"Okay. I will get going first." Qin Xia passed both Yu Qi and Feng Yue and slightly glanced to Feng Yue.

Qin Xia was missing from their sight.

"Let's go." Yu Qi said and locked the door.

"That man, how long has he lived in that house?" Feng Yue asked.

Yu Qi thought that she rubbed her chin. "Hmm... Probably 11 months. The same as mine I guess."

"Oh, why is he living there?" Feng Yue inquired furthermore.

"He has some business here that requires his attention. Not to mention, his company has already won the project here." Yu Qi said.

Feng Yue knew Qin Xia. Her grandfather did like to talk about him and also wanted her to meet him. He owned his company. Instead of coming here by himself, he just could send his employees there to take care of the business. He must have come here for another reason.

'Brother Hui, your girl is about to be snatched by someone!' Feng Yue screamed in her mind.

Chapter 742 - 742: Hang Out Together.

Feng Yue looked at Yu Qi drinking her tea. They were currently at a cafe. Feng Yue wanted to see Guanying City, so, she asked Yu Qi to show her around. But Yu Qi also was not familiar with the city too since she did not go around it either.

"You are not familiar with the city even though you have been staying here for about one year here?" Feng Yue asked.

"Yeah. The place that I often go to is the market to get groceries. Sometimes, I have gone to a restaurant to eat though. Guanying Mountain is also good for hiking and have a beautiful scene on top of it. And I do remember going to the night market once with Brother Hui." Yu Qi listed the places that she went to.

"Yu Qi, I think you are devoting your life to your work too much." Feng Yue was stunned. "You should go out and relax yourself."

"Don't worry. I am not stressing myself." Yu Qi smiled.

"By the way, has Brother Hui come to see you here?" Feng Yue asked.

"Well, multiple times." Yu Qi nodded.

"He is biased." Feng Yue rolled her eyes thinking of Long Hui.

Yu Qi chuckled. "Do you really want him to come over?"

Feng Yue thought about that and then shivered. "No."

Yu Qi laughed. She knew that when Long Hui met Feng Yue, he would train her.

"So, where will we be going next?" Feng Yue asked.

"We will just walk around. Coincidentally there is a market around there." Yu Qi said.

After spending time at the cafe, both of them headed toward the market. Aoi also followed beside him.

"Wow, there are a lot of people here." Feng Yue was surprised to see people here.

"This must be your first time going here, right? People come to this market because it is cheaper than in other markets. And some of the things here come from our neighbour merchants." An auntie heard Feng Yue's statement and explained it to the two girls.

"I see." Feng Yue nodded. Her eyes were looking around.

"Have you gone to this kind of market in the past?" Yu Qi asked.

"Nope. It is my first time." Feng Yue was seemed excited about it.

Yu Qi smiled. She sometimes forgot that Feng Yue was a lady from a rich family. She probably would never come to this kind of market in the past. n-/o)/v)-e.-ℓ(-B-(l/(n

However, Yu Qi did go a lot to this kind of market in her past time but not in Guanying City. Not as a customer but as a worker. She worked for about 3 months before getting fired from her boss's wife because her boss's wife thought that she seduced her boss.

Yu Qi tried to explain and wanted her boss to explain but her boss just looking around making his wife suspect her even more. It was because her boss wanted to sleep with her but she rejected him.

"Seems you are excited to go." Yu Qi chuckled as she watched Feng Yue turned right and left looking at the stores.

"Well, it is my first time. My father doesn't allow me to go to this kind of place because it does not suit our status." Feng Yue explained.

"What about right now?" Yu Qi asked.

"Screw him. I will not follow his orders any more. He can just ask his beloved daughter to do so." Feng Yue gritted her teeth.

"Then, let's come." Yu Qi said.

Both of them walked around. The market sold a lot of things. Food, clothes, bags, shoes, kitchen equipment. They particularly had everything.

Feng Yue saw people buying a lot of things.

"Wow, they are buying a lot." Feng Yue commented.

"This market is cheaper. Sometimes, they are not buying for themselves. They buy things at a cheaper price here and sells them at a higher price at other places." Yu Qi said.

"I see. It can make a profit from it." Feng Yue nodded.

Yu Qi stopped at a store. The store was selling hat. Yu Qi looked around.

"Are you going to buy it?" Feng Yue asked.

Yu Qi took one that she felt that suited Feng Yue the best and put it on Feng Yue's head.

"Hmm... Nice." Yu Qi commented.

She also took one and put it on her head.

"Sir, we are buying these." Yu Qi said to the man that sat in the store.

The man told her the price. She brought out the money and paid the money.

"What is this for?" Feng Yue asked while touching the hat.

"The sun is striking. We must protect our skin. Even though we wear sunscreen, a direct UV light will not good for our skin." Yu Qi also touching her hat.

"Oh, as expected of a doctor." Feng Yue laughed.

"Woof." 'Master, I want some food.' Aoi barked to Yu Qi.

"Okay. Okay. I will get something for you too." Yu Qi bent down and patted Aoi's head.

"Oh, Aoi is jealous since you have bought something for me only?" Feng Yue chuckled.

Yu Qi laughed. "Yeah. He is jealous."

"Come, I will buy meat for you." Feng Yue said to Aoi.

They saw a stall selling the meat skewer. They buy one for both of them and five pieces for Aoi.

"Woof." 'Thank you, master.' Aoi looked pleased to see the meat.

"Is it okay for us to eat like this?" Feng Yue asked.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

They were standing while eating. Well, it was the first time for Feng Yue to eat like this.

Chapter 743 - 743: Being Observed Again

Feng Yue, Yu Qi and Aoi still walked around the market. Yu Qi kept buying Aoi the food. While they did not buy anything except the hat earlier.

Then they heard someone screamed yelling.

"Stop that thief. He is stealing someone's money."

The girls looked around and saw a man was running avoiding people on his path. He was heading towards their direction.

Yu Qi looked at Feng Yue. Feng Yue smiled while nodding to Yu Qi. Both of them separated giving way to the thief to run between them. The thief did not expect something horrible would happen to him.

Both girls lifted their legs. One kicked the head, another one kicked the stomach. The thief immediately fell on the ground. Everyone watched this, stunned by this situation.

"Yu Qi, is he okay? You have kicked him at the head." Feng Yue looked at the fainted thief.

"Don't worry. I have held back. I have just used 5% of my strength. He will wake up in a while. Don't just make me a villain. You also kicked him at the stomach." Yu Qi said.

The people around that heard the conversation looked at the girls like a monster. Only 5% of her strength could make the thief fainted on the spot. What would happen if she used her 100% strength?

"Sir, he is yours." Feng Yue told the man that just yelled.

"Oh, thank you." The man awkwardly thanked the girls.

The girls walked away and leaving the stunning onlookers.

"There is always a person like that in the market." Yu Qi said.

"You mean the pickpocket?" Feng Yue tilted her head.

"Yeah. People especially men like to put their wallets in their pockets behind them. The pickpocket likes this." Yu Qi said.

.....

"How fierce she is." A man commented.

He had also watched the girls who were kicking the thief.

"You have heard her. It is only 5% of her strength. What do you think about her in the general?" The man asked his friend.

"Nice. Worth being his daughter." His friend commented.

"I don't understand why do we need to observe her more. She should be invited by now." The man sighed.

"No need to think about that. We just need to observe her and report to the HQ." His friend said to the man.

"Well, it is very refreshing seeing her outside. Not just at the hospital." The man commented.

That was right. There were some people who had been watching Yu Qi daily. They even watched her in the hospital.

....

Yu Qi looked around. Nothing unusual. Sometimes she gets the feeling that someone had been watching her. However, when she tried to find the people, she could not find anything. Even Bo Ya had failed.

'I hope nothing bad will happen.' Yu Qi wished.

"Yu Qi... Yu Qi... Yu Qi!" Feng Yue waved her hand in front of Yu Qi's face while calling her name.

"Huh?" Yu Qi finally snapped out.

"What are you daydreaming about? I have called you so many times." Feng Yue asked.

"Sorry. Something is in my mind." Yu Qi grinned.

"Something? You must be thinking about Brother Hui, right?" Feng Yue rolled her eyes.

"Then you should have someone that you can think about." Yu Qi replied.

"What... What are you talking about?" Feng Yue stumbled in her words.

"Nothing." Yu Qi said while looking at Feng Yue.

"I think we have already arrived at the end of the market." Feng Yue said and ignored the previous conversation.

'Master, I sense something.' Suddenly, Bo Ya's voice popped out.

'What?' Yu Qi asked.

It was unusual for Bo Ya to speak to her like that. It must be important if he could not wait until she met him.

'Something around here has your space's aura.' Bo Ya told Yu Qi.

'Meaning there is an item here from the space?' Yu Qi inquired.

'Yeah.' Bo Ya assured.

'Tell me the direction.' Yu Qi said.

Bo Ya told her the direction.

"Yu Qi, where do you want to go?" Feng Yue asked when she saw Yu Qi heading somewhere.

"Let's go enter that stall." Yu Qi pointed to one stall.

That stall sold various things like pendant, ring, pot and many things. When Yu Qi and Feng Yue arrived at the stall, an old man came to greet them.

"Welcome, welcome young ladies. Come and take a look at my things here." The old man was very friendly. "We have a lot of charms that can protect you."

Feng Yue approached Yu Qi and whispered to her ear. "Yu Qi, why are you looking for? Do we need to buy the thing here? I feel this old man is a scam."

"I am just looking for something to give to you." Yu Qi said.

In her mind, she was listening to Bo Ya's instruction.

'That pendant, Master.'

'This one?' Yu Qi took a pendant.

'Nope, that one. On its left.' Bo Ya said.

Yu Qi put back and took the pendant that Bo Ya mentioned. It was a four-leaf clover's pendant.

'Yeah. This one. It could protect someone from danger and give luck to the person who wears it.' Bo Ya explained.

'I see.' Yu Qi smiled.

"Sir, I will take this one." Yu Qi said to the old man.

"Oh, you really have a good eye." The old man said. "I will give a special discount for you."

Yu Qi paid for the pendant.

"Here. A gift from me." Yu Qi gave the pendant to Feng Yue.

Chapter 744 - 744: Being Invited

"Eh, is it for me?" Feng Yue was surprised.

Yu Qi realized that Feng Yue might not like this kind of jewellery since it was cheap.

"I'm sorry. You must have a lot of things like this. Probably much better from this." Yu Qi said. She considered retreating her hand.

However, Feng Yue snatched the pendant from Yu Qi's hand.

"Yu Qi, how dare you to take back the thing that you want to give to me?" Feng Yue scolded Yu Qi.

"You accept it?" Yu Qi asked.

"It is from my best friend. Of course, I will accept it." Feng Yue smiled.

'I hope it will protect you in my place.' Yu Qi watched Feng Yue who looking happy with the gift.

'Are you sure you want to give to her, Master?' Bo Ya asked.

'Hmm... If the pendant is like you have said, it can protect Yue from danger. It is more useful from just getting back and place it back in the space.' Yu Qi answered.

'Up to you, Master. It is yours.' Bo Ya smiled.

...

Feng Yue finally returned back to her place. She already told Yu Qi that she was going to think about what Yu Qi said earlier.

Only two weeks left for the internship. This week, a lecturer from her university would be coming to see and evaluate her. A lecturer would come to the student's internship place and evaluated them. The student also needed to prepare a report.

Yu Qi wondered who would be coming for her evaluation. Well, anyone was better than nothing.

The day where the lecturer came to supervise Yu Qi had arrived. It was Professor Shi, the lecturer that taught the students about the surgery.

Yu Qi already prepared the report for it. She welcomed Professor Shi. Professor Shi told her that she did not need to take care of him and told Yu Qi to do her own work.

So, following Professor Shi's order, she worked her normal day as usual. The professor observed her, the way she worked, the way she interacted with the patient.

And Professor Shi even asked the patient about Yu Qi's treatment to them.

"Doctor Tang is very gently. She has assured me that she is not hurting me."

"She has explained to me in detail. If I don't understand, she will explain in a simple way."

Professor Shi nodded as he recorded that. He was very satisfied with Yu Qi's performance. So, she only needed to submit her report to him and it would settle.

Yu Qi handed over her report to Professor Shi. When he read the report, he was shocked by what was written in the report. Usually, the student only needed to write one topic.

But Yu Qi, she wrote several topics including the technique that she applied on the girl when she had fainted on the top of the mountain. She also wrote several surgery techniques in the detail. n/-o-12-(e/- ℓ-B-1((n

Even Professor Shi impressed with it. He even questioned Yu Qi.

"Do you really write this report?" Professor Shi asked.

"Yeah. Is there any problem with my report?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

She was very sure that she wrote it by herself after reading and looking at the other doctors' techniques.

"No... No... No... Its just... I am impressed with what you have written here." Professor Shi said.

And the emergency treatment that she wrote was very helpful for others who really needed it.

"I think there is no problem with your report. I will take and submit it to the faculty for evaluation. I think it will pass straightly." Professor Shi said.

"Thank you, Professor Shi." Yu Qi bowed 90 degrees to the lecturer.

Professor Shi left the hospital. Yu Qi took a relief breath.

"Done?" Gu Min Su asked.

"Yeah. My professor has accepted my report without there being any need to repair it." Yu Qi said.

The report could be written back if the visiting lecturer was not satisfied with the report. They would have only 1 day to repair the report and resubmit it to the lecturer.

"Do you have night duty tonight?" Ah Kean asked both of them.

"Nope." Min Gu Su shook his head.

"No." Yu Qi shook his head.

"Great. Other first year residents want to go hang out together. Do you want to go too?" Ah Kean asked.

"Where?" Min Gu Su asked back.

"They want to go to eat dinner. After that, they want to go to drink somewhere." Ah Kean said.

"Well, I think I will go since it is the first time we are free at the night and its probably going to be the last gathering." Min Gu Su agreed to join that.

"So, how about you?" Ah Kean turned to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi thought about it for a moment. She did not have any work to do tonight. So, it would not be a problem if she joined them.

"Okay. I will join too." Yu Qi answered Ah Kean.

After completing the work for the day, Yu Qi prepared to leave. When she got out of the locker room and walked to the entrance, she saw other people were gathering at the parking lot.

Yu Qi saw Min Gu Su and Ah Kean among them. So, she knew that they were the people that going to the gathering tonight. She approached them.

"Hi, everyone." Yu Qi greeted everyone.

"Oh, Doctor Tang, you really come." One of the residents said, somehow in an excited tone.

Chapter 745 - 745: Gathering

"Eh, I think I have already told Doctor Ah that I am coming along, though?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

The person who spoke before scratched his head. "We have just thought that he is lying since Doctor Tang has not joined our gathering once before. So, we have thought you will not join us tonight."

'Doctor Tang' for them, was an outstanding person among the first year residents. She was the one among them that led the operation even though she was just a first year resident. So, to be simple, she was a legend among them.

Yu Qi understood. She really did not interact much with other first year residents, other than Min Gu Su and Ah Kean because they were in the different departments.

"I'm sorry." Yu Qi bowed.

"Eh, no... No... Doctor Tang, you don't need to apologize. We are also wrong. We have also never asked you to join us."

"No more talk here. Let's go to the restaurant." One of them said.

"Since it is probably our last night, let's eat big tonight."

"Hoi... hoi... hoi... Who will be paying if you eat big?"

"Don't worry about that. I will be paying. You can eat and drink as much as you like." Yu Qi suddenly said.

They were speechless for a while.

"No... No... We can't do that."

Others rejected the idea. It was their invitation. How could they let a girl like Doctor Tang pay for it?

"I insist. It is my first time hanging out with all of you." Yu Qi firmly said that. "Have you decided which restaurant you want to go to, then?"

"Yes, we have thought we will be going to the same restaurant that we always go to."

"Its name?" Yu Qi asked.

So, they mentioned the name.

"Well, how about the Moon Hotel? I have eat there. The food is not bad." Yu Qi suggested.

"But..."

"Don't worry about the payment." Yu Qi said again about the payment when she saw the hesitant faces.

They finally agreed with Yu Qi's suggestion.

Yu Qi brought her handphone. "Wait a minute." She dialled a number.

"Hello... I am Tang Yu Qi... Yes... I will like to book a room right now... About 10 people are coming... Yes... About 15 minutes... Thank you." The conversation ended.

"Let's go." Yu Qi looked at the people.

"Are you sure, Doctor Tang? I'm sure that place is expensive."

"I am telling you, don't worry. I will get it covered." Yu Qi smiled.

They looked at each other.

"Okay. Let's go. We will enjoy it."

They went to the Moon Hotel separately. There were some of them that shared the car to go there. Yu Qi went there using her car.

They arrived at the Moon Hotel. Yu Qi walked in front of them to enter the Moon Hotel.

"Welcome Miss Tang. I am Manager Wang. Let me escort you to your room." Manager Wang welcomed them.

"Oh, okay." Yu Qi nodded. She did not expect the manager to come welcoming them himself.

Manager Wang smiled. He was surprised to get a call from Yu Qi. The big boss had already told him to treat the girl better if she wanted to come to the Moon Hotel. The person that his big boss wanted them to treat better, he would not do half heart. They were led to the room.

Manager Wang signalled the waiter to bring the menu book and gave it to Yu Qi and her friends.

"Here. Take your time to choose the dishes." Manager Wang said.

The people took the menu book and started to discuss what to order.? Sometimes they called the waiter to ask about the menu and asked for the suggestion which one was delicious. The waiter cooperated very well with them.

After everyone selected which ones to order, a waiter took the order while another waiter was serving drinks to them.

"Doctor Tang, I have heard that you are from the 'Tang Family', is it true?" One of them asked.

They usually did not have a chance to talk with Yu Qi even though they were working at the same hospital. So, when Yu Qi joined this gathering, they wanted to talk to Yu Qi in person.

"Yes. But I am adopted daughter of the family." Yu Qi thought that it was no point to hide anymore. So, to be honest, was better.

"Being adopted into 'Tang Family' is very good."

"Yeah. But how you have been adopted into the family? I am curious."

"Do the Tang Family have the test to enter their family?"

"Eh... No..." Yu Qi shook her head. "Actually, because I was always hurt while I was younger, I learned to mix the herbs. That caught my grandpa's eyes. I became his disciple. After knowing I was an orphan, he decided to adopt me into the family."

"Oh, Doctor Tang Jiang Man is a very good person."

"I heard the Tang Family has three young masters." This time, one of the three girls from the group asked. Her eyes were shining.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

"Do they have a girlfriend?"

"Big Brother and Brother Jin Wei do have a girlfriend. But I am not so sure about Brother Qin Hao since he is usually at the hospital doing his research." Yu Qi said after thinking for a while.

"Oh, what a shame..." A girl said in a low tone.

Yu Qi heard but she did not respond.

The food arrived. They ate happily.

"Delicious."

"Yeah."

Chapter 746 - 746: You Don't Know Her

Unknown to Yu Qi, Manager Wang called Min Liang and reported the things here. His big boss already told him that if the girl with the name 'Tang Yu Qi' came, he needed to inform him.

"What is it, Manager Wang?" Min Liang currently prepared a document for Qin Xia, answering the call.

"I want to inform you that Miss Tang has come to have dinner at the Moon Hotel with several peoples. Probably her colleagues." Manager Wang said.

"What is it?" Qin Xia asked without looking at Min Liang. He knew that Min Liang's eyes on him right now.

"Manager Wang inform that Miss Tang has come to have dinner with her colleagues." Min Liang told Qin Xia.

"Oh, just gave her 20% discounts for all the dishes that they eat." Qin Xia gave the order.

Min Liang passed the order to Manager Wang. Manager Wang nodded. He did not understand. Big Boss should not ask them for the payment, it was a good idea to impress the girl.

Not only Manager Wang did not understand, but Min Liang also did not understand about it.

"What is this?" Once again, Qin Xia asked without looking at Min Liang.

"Mr Qin, you should let them eat for free. That way, Miss Tang will have a good impression of you." Min Liang explained.

Qin Xia chuckled. "Min Liang, you don't know her. She will not like that."

Qin Xia knew her character. She only took what she paid for. That was her moral.

"Doing that just makes her think that you are looking down on her." Qin Xia said. "Min Liang, you should learn more about women." He gave a loathing look to Min Liang.

Min Liang was speechless. 'Mr Qin, you are not normal. Miss Tang too.' He just protested in his mind before returning back to his work.

...

Yesterday gathering was very fun. Yu Qi managed to take a sip of the c.o.c.ktail. She did not drink much.

Others invited her to drink more but Yu Qi rejected softly telling them that she could not drink too much due to her health. Hearing that, as a doctor, they understood and finally let Yu Qi go.

One of them suggested that they should play the 'truth or dare' together with a combination of a spinning bottle game. They would be spinning the bottle. Once the top of the bottle stopped and pointed to someone, others would ask that person to choose truth or dare.

Then they would be asking a question. If that person chose 'truth' at the beginning, he or she needed to answer it honestly. If that person chose 'dare', he or she needed to perform that task that others gave to him or her.

They played several times. Until the bottle stopped and pointing to Yu Qi. Yu Qi was blinking several times. Yu Qi chose 'truth'.

Everyone was excited to ask Yu Qi. But they did not want to offend Yu Qi by asking something that might hurt Yu Qi.

Then someone asked a question. The question was, 'If you are not a doctor right now, what are you going to do?'

Yu Qi was laughing, saying it was an easy question. She directly answered that she would be a businesswoman.

Some of the men were angry at the man that asking Yu Qi that question. They wanted to ask some personal questions to Yu Qi but now the chance gone.

As for the girls, they also were angry. They actually wanted to ask for some information about the three young masters.

However, the mood heated up again after one of the men confessed to one of the girls. Both of them were from the same department.

The man told her that he already liked her from day one. He did not have the courage to confess the feeling to her. But their internship would be going to end soon, he was afraid that he would never meet with her again.

So, he encouraged himself to confess to her tonight. He even prepared a gift for her. It was a bracelet. The girl shyly accepted the man's feeling. It was a happy event.

"Emergency! Emergency! Emergency! All staff, please standby. We will be received a lot of patients. Please standby."

There was an announcement telling them that they would be received the patients. Yu Qi rushed to the emergency department. There were already three vans at the entrance.

"What is just happen?" Yu Qi asked the staff.

"It was an earthquake at Shela City. However, the place is near to our hospital. They are sending the patients to our hospital first." The staff explained.

"Oh, thank you." Yu Qi said and began to her work.

The people kept being sent to their hospital. The staff maintained their work in order. Yu Qi treated someone that had a huge wound in her leg.

There was a patient that had a rock stuck in his head. Yu Qi asked her nurse to call another doctor to help with his case. It was more complicated compared to others. He would be needed surgery to remove the rock.

Then she heard some voices that yelled to a nurse. The nurse was on the brink of tears when the voice keeps yelling at her.

"What happens?" Yu Qi asked.

"Are you a doctor?" The man asked arrogantly.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded. She signalled the nurse to leave and let her handled it.

The nurse slowly retreated to help others.

Chapter 747 - 747: A Strange Woman

"Please treat my boss first. He is injured." The man said and pointed to the fat man beside him that currently sat up.

Yu Qi looked at the fat man. "Where are you hurt?"

The fat man lifted his finger and showed the wound on his middle finger. It was just a small wound.

Without saying anything, Yu Qi treated the wound. The fat man purposely made contact with Yu Qi's finger as Yu Qi treated him. Yu Qi ignored it. After treating the wound, she bandaged his wound. And it was done.

However, she heard the man, assuming, he was the fat man's assistant, telling Yu Qi that his boss wanted to stay at the ward.

Yu Qi ignored them and ran to another patient that needed her treatment more. She felt ridiculous when the fat man wanted to stay at the hospital just for the small wound.

Well, she did not care. He could stay at the paid ward. She just did not want to care about that nonsense when there were a lot of patients waiting for the treatment. She could hear the slimmer man shouting angrily at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi spotted a woman who had injured her hand and her leg. Yu Qi checked her injuries. The injury at her hand was somehow serious and needed to be operated on now.

Yu Qi called a nurse to ask her to call the doctor. So, the doctor could operate it now. Because of the number of patients that needed, the doctors were all busy and there was no doctor who was free right now.

The woman who was injured was just silent. She did not say anything. Her face did not show any emotion. She waited there. Yu Qi felt something. She did not know how to describe her feeling right now.

She looked at the injury at the woman's leg. She checked that injury. The ankle bone was just dislocated. Yu Qi thought she could treat that injury.

"The bone of your leg is just dislocated. I can treat it right now but it will be hurt so much for a moment. Can you bear the pain?" Yu Qi asked the woman.

The woman nodded. Given permission from the woman, Yu Qi touched the leg.

"I will start it. Endure it, okay." Yu Qi gave her advice.

A minute after she said that, her hands did its done. 'Krak'. The dislocated bone had already in its original place. The woman still did not make any sound at all.

Yu Qi asked the nurse about a free doctor that could operate on the woman. But there was still no doctor who was free.

Director Zheng also came to the emergency department to see the situation. He happened to see Yu Qi asking for the doctor to operate on the woman. Director Zheng looked at the woman. Indeed it was serious injury.

"Prepare the surgery room immediately. Doctor Tang, you will be the main surgeon." Director Zheng ordered.

Yu Qi was surprised when she heard the order. She had not forcefully operated on this woman like before when she became the main surgeon of the man that had the tree stuck near his heart.

This time, the injury was quite serious but still could be waited. Since Director Zhen gave the order, Yu Qi nodded. She asked the nurse to transfer the woman to the empty surgery room. n-(0vElb1n

The nurse brought the woman into the surgery room.

The surgery was done. When Yu Qi got out of the surgery room, the situation in the emergency department already could be controlled. The patient from the earthquake had decreased and there was no serious injury that had been reported.

Then a nurse came to Yu Qi and told her that her presence was needed at a certain ward. Yu Qi nodded and went to that certain ward.

It was a luxury ward. Yu Qi suddenly had a bad feeling about it. When she arrived at the ward, she could hear an angry voice from inside the room.

"I want that doctor here. Where is she?"

"Be patient, Sir. She will be here soon. I have already asked someone to call her here."

"How long I have to wait?"

"She will be here at the moment."

Right after the sentence came out, Yu Qi pushed the door open. Yu Qi entered the ward.

"Yes. Is there anything that needs my help?" Yu Qi asked.

"Humph... You have come."

It was the fat man that just injured his finger before. He really requested to stay at the ward for a cut on his finger.

"Doctor Tang, how can you treat your patient like that?" The doctor inside the room asked Yu Qi with a righteous tone.

Yu Qi turned to the doctor. She narrowed her eyes while looking at the doctor. The doctor felt scared for a moment.

"What do you mean by that?" Yu Qi asked the doctor.

"How can you reject to treat him?" The doctor pointed to the fat man on the bed.

"Doctor..." Yu Qi looked down and saw his surname. "Yong, I have already treated this man. He is having a small cut on his finger, so I have treated and bandaged his wound. After checking his pulse, everything has come out normal, so I set him free."

The doctor panicked a little bit when he heard Yu Qi's explanation. However, he calmed down himself. He could handle it.

Chapter 748 - 748: Feeling Weird.

"My boss is injured. It is acceptable for him to in a room." The slimmer man that seemed to be the fat man's assistant talked.

"That's right, Doctor Tang. You should hear the patient's request." Doctor Yong supported the man.

Yu Qi narrowed her eyes once again. "Okay. He already has his place in the ward. So?"

Yu Qi felt ridiculous that she had been called here. She even felt ridiculous with this doctor.

"As for the apology, you should take care of Mr Gong." Doctor Yong suggested.

The suggestion sounded very weird. Even Doctor Yong, the fat man and the assistant had a weird smile on their faces.

Apparently, the surname of the fat man was Gong. The assistant of Mr Gong nodded and agreed with the suggestion.

Yu Qi was not a stupid girl. She understood what Doctor Yong's suggestion meant.

"Taking care of him?" The sentence came out at a very slow speed.

Right now, Yu Qi released her deadly aura. The temperature in the room was already low but it became even lower. Yu Qi's cold eyes looked at the three men.

The men were already trembling.

"I don't have any time for this nonsense." Yu Qi said.

Her focus right now was on the fat man. The fat man gulped.

"I don't mind making you stay forever in this room if you want." Yu Qi's flashed a cold smile. n-)OvelbIn

"No... No..." The fat man shook his head.

"Doctor Tang, you can't threaten the patient like that." Doctor Yong reminded Yu Qi.

"As for you, I will remember your name." Yu Qi turned to Doctor Yong.

"I think that it is enough. I hope you can enjoy your stay in this luxury ward. Probably it is your last time get to stay in this ward." Yu Qi went out of the ward.

"Doctor Yong, you have told me that doctor is just an intern. She will listen to you." Mr Gong said angrily.

"I'm sorry, Mr Gong. I will get it covered." Doctor Yong promised Mr Gong.

Doctor Yong was also surprised when Yu Qi acted like this. He was a fourth year resident who just got transferred to this hospital. So, he did not know much about Yu Qi. Since Yu Qi was just an intern, so, he did not pay much about her.

When this Mr Gong requested to be placed at the expansive ward, he happened to be around. Looking at Mr Gong having some trouble getting the ward, so, he helped Mr Gong. Mr Gong rewarded him with some money.

Then when he heard that a young doctor disrespected him, Doctor Yong decided to help Mr Gong in punishing the young doctor. Knowing it was just an intern, he felt it would be much easier. Interns usually listened to the experienced doctor. He did not know Yu Qi was such a doctor.

The younger generation needed to be respectful to the older generation. He needed to teach Yu Qi. But in the earlier situation, he did feel scared of that girl.

....

Han Baise was watching anime on one of the screen monitors. Suddenly, a message popped out from another screen monitor.

He paused the anime and open the message. He looked at the sender. 'Snow'.

Snow: "Find out everything about these men."

There were two pictures attached below. He opened the picture. It showed two different men. One wore the white coat. Only one look, people would know he was a doctor. Another picture showed a fat man.

Shiro: "Their names?"

Snow: "One with the surname Yong, the fat one with the surname Gong. Find the information that I can use to destroy them."

Shiro: "Okay."

Han Baise leaned over after he finished typing the word. He just could pray for these men. Their happy days would end. His boss was a very terrifying person when someone provoked her.

He wondered what kind of stupid things, these men did to his boss so that she ordered him to dig out their information.

So he started to investigate these men.

.....

"What? That patient is discharged?" Yu Qi asked the nurse.

"Yes. Two hours after the surgery, a group of men came and took her. They also paid for the surgery." The nurse said.

"Did you stop them?" Yu Qi asked again.

"We did. We also said that the woman needs to be warded for a few days before she could be discharged. But the men did not listen to us. They even brought a doctor. After checking the woman, that doctor told the men that the woman could be discharged. They forced us to do so." The nurse explained.

"Doctor? Is the doctor genuine one?" Yu Qi felt stressed.

"We did ask about that. That doctor brought out his doctorate license. A doctor nearby had confirmed it." The nurse explained more.

"I see." Yu Qi nodded. "Thank you for telling me."

"No problem Doctor Tang." The nurse smiled.

Yu Qi walked to the meeting room. The woman was already okay. She did not need to think anymore about it. She did not know why she was very flustered when she heard that the woman was already discharged.

When she had first landed her eyes on the woman, she felt something that she could not explain. And when she saw the injuries on that woman, she felt distressed about it.

"Why am I feeling this way?" Yu Qi questioned herself.

She did not even know who that woman was. As for the men that wanted that woman discharged earlier also got into her mind.

Chapter 749 - 749: Charming The Women

It was the last day for the first year residents. Yu Qi and others finished the report for that day. They handed the report to their respective doctors. Their patients would be transferred to another doctor starting by the next day.

Since it was the last day, they decided to have dinner together and wanted to go to the karaoke after that. They would have fun and drinks as a celebration for finishing the internship.

They booked the large room at the karaoke box since they were a lot of them.

"Doctor Tang, you should sing too." One of them offered Yu Qi.

"Me? I don't know how to sing. My voice is not good." Yu Qi tried to reject.

"Don't worry about whether it is good or not. Just have fun."

They pushed the microphone to Yu Qi. Their eyes showed some wishes to hear Yu Qi singing. Since they wanted it, Yu Qi stood up and chose her song.

When Yu Qi wanted to choose her song from the list, her eyes caught a song's title that she liked after reincarnating into her second life. She immediately chose the song. The song was called Phoenix Nirvana.

'I live in the darkness

No one seems to remember me

No one seems to see me

Darkness is my friend

I embrace it like a thousand years

Alone and alone

Suddenly the light came through

I have been pulling out

Like a clueless child

I stand alone

Looking around

This is the new world

This is the new world

I am alive again

I am alive again.'

The song was very powerful. Yu Qi just sings like she wanted to sing. She was very very immersed with the lyrics.

After she finished singing the song, it was a moment of silence. Then everyone was cheering and clapping their hands.

"Doctor Tang, I don't know that you know how to sing. You are very good."

"Your voice is very good too."

"Cheer for Doctor Tang's sing."

They raised their cups and drank. Yu Qi chuckled. They just wanted to drink.

Yu Qi told them that she wanted to go to the toilet for a moment. A girl from their group asked Yu Qi whether she wanted someone to accompany her or not. Yu Qi shook her head and told them it was okay. She could go alone.

After finished her business in the toilet, she walked out. When she was passing a corner, she heard some one talking.

"Let me go."

"It is not fun playing by yourself. Come with us. We can show many interesting ways to play around."

"No need. We already have our accompanies."

"What? Your boyfriends?"

"Please, let us go."

Yu Qi took a look at the corner that she heard people talking. It was two women surrounded by four men. It was clear that these two women were afraid of these four men.

"What are you doing?" Yu Qi asked them.

"Oh, another beauty."

"I like this one."

"Doctor Tang." Both women called Yu Qi. $n \rightarrow \sigma(V) - E(l, \ell)(1 \rightarrow n$

It meant that these two women were from her group. When she looked at their faces. She remembered that it was Doctor Lu and Doctor Xie.

"I hope you can let my friends go." Yu Qi did not want to use her hand yet.

"How about coming with us too? We can have a lot of fun too." A man raised his eyebrows several times while showing a lust look to Yu Qi.

"So, you do not want to cooperate with me?" Yu Qi sighed.

These men really liked to do the hard way. Yu Qi approached the men slowly.

"Good. Come to me." A man raised his arm to touch Yu Qi's face.

However, Yu Qi chopped that hand. A scream could be heard.

"You bitch. What are you doing to my friend?" His friend asked angrily.

"Do you think I will let his dirty hand touch me?" Yu Qi snorted.

"You bitch!!!" Three men wanted to pounce on Yu Qi.

"Doctor Tang, be careful!!!" Both of the women shouted.

However, what they could see only the three men fell onto the ground groaning in pain.

"I think it will be enough." Yu Qi wiped her hands. She looked at these two women. "Let's go."

These two women blinked several times while looking at each other. They were very shocked when they saw these men had fallen onto the ground.

'Doctor Tang is so strong.'

That was what these two women thinking right now.

'So manly.'

These two women looked at Yu Qi's back admiring Yu Qi. They were changing their perspective of Yu Qi right now. Before this, they did not like Yu Qi much since she was beautiful, good at her work and also had a good family background. All people were jealous of Yu Qi. And that included them.

But this accident just now made them realised how small their thinking. Yu Qi approached them in order to help them even though she was alone. She was very strong.

'Doctor Tang, you are a nice person. Very manly.'

These two women changed their view of Yu Qi. They began to admire Yu Qi in different ways.

Yu Qi was ignorant about what these two women thinking about her right now. She also was ignorant that she was changing two normal women into a lesbian.

She was thinking that this kind of place always had scum men around. It was indeed a dangerous place to come. Same as the night club.

Chapter 750 - 750: Give The Information to Director Zheng

As for the next day, Yu Qi did not rush to return to Finn City or Shiwa Town. She still had something to do at Guanying City.

She received the information regarding Doctor Yong and Mr. Gong from Han Baise. When she read the information about them, she felt disgusted.

Doctor Yong. 30 years old. Single. He used to work at Ming Hospital for almost 5 years, another 3 years at Rain Hospital. During these 8 years, there were a lot of things he did many things that could make him ended up behind the bar or losing his job permanently.

S.e.xual harassment the female doctors especially the interns or new doctors and nurses. This crime was in Yu Qi's blacklist bucket. The crime that she really hated the most. Regarding what he did, she could not forgive this crime.

The next bad things that he had done was misdiagnose the patients. Not just once but several times that the patient got complication from his misdiagnosis. However, most of them were from poor families. They could not afford to do anything.

This man should not be a doctor. That's what she could conclude.

As for the fat man, Mr. Gong, he was 45 years old. A businessman. However, the company was not his. He was just a shareholder involved in the management.

The company was involved in the construction industry. It was not that bigger but they had their name in the industry.

A first look, this Mr. Gong looked clean. But after reading several pieces of information, Yu Qi was shaking her head. Embezzlement of their company's funds. He had done it multiple times. noVe.13/1n

He sometimes used the money for his own purpose. Or the money was used for the bribery.

Since she was free this time, she investigated furthermore about Mr. Gong. To completely destroy him, she also needed to know about his enemies. He should have some enemies.

After further investigation, she knew that he got several enemies. Yu Qi smiled as she knew that she could use these enemies against Mr. Gong.

....

"Miss Tang, why do you call me here?" Director Zheng asked.

They were having a meeting at the cafe that they met for the first time.

"Here." Yu Qi pushed the file toward Director Zheng.

Director Zheng took the file and read it. As he read more, the more he frowned.

"This person..." Director Zheng could not finish his words since he felt disgusted with this man.

"My friend has investigated him. You can choose to believe or not." Yu Qi said.

"But why?" Director Zheng asked. It should be a reason why Yu Qi had this information.

"This person has asked me to do something. Do you remember that earthquake incident?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes. We have received a large number of patients on that day." Director Zheng nodded. He also went to the emergency department to see the situation.

"On the day, I have treated a man. He just had a cut on his finger but he still wanted to be warded. I did not have time for that. So, I ignored them. After the situation became calm, I had been called and asked to go to the VIP ward. It was the same man that had a cut on his finger. This person..." Yu Qi pointed at the name on the fail. "He asked me to take care of the man. With many ways."

"Many ways?" Director Zheng frowned. He understood what Yu Qi had meant by this. He was asking for confirmation.

Yu Qi nodded.

Director Zheng's face changed. It was clear that he was angry about this.

"I just hope that there is no one who would be his victim anymore." Yu Qi said.

That was right. She did not want other women to be used as his tools to gain the favour of the men.

"Miss Tang, you do not need to worry about this man. We will do something about this man." Director Zheng said.

"Okay." Yu Qi thanked Director Zheng and excused herself.

....

Doctor Yong was currently chilling in his room. He was tired of having his morning routine. He did not expect that this hospital was very strict with the rules even though it was just a border hospital. If not because of something, he would not choose this hospital in the first place.

However, the things that he really liked at this hospital were the female doctors and nurses. They were beautiful in their ways.

That intern was the most beautiful one. It was his loss that he could not get a taste of that beautiful intern since she had already finished her internship.

She finished her internship one week after he joined the hospital. Not to mention the different department. He could not see her at all.

She was busy like hell. He was stunned as he heard that she became a co-surgeon of the surgery. Even he was not so confident being the co-surgeon despite eight years of becoming a doctor. And she was just an intern.

However, the past was the past. He needed to focus on the current. He could have a taste of other women.

There was knocking on his door. He shocked. Then he stabilised his sitting posture and pretended to do some writing.

"You can enter." Doctor Yong said to the person knocking on his door.

The door was opened. A woman entered. Doctor Yong's eyes lifted up. 'Not bad.' He praised the woman's look.
