

INTELLIGENT 91

Chapter 91: Unexpected Meeting

Yu Qi walked back to her aunties. Her aunties still in the middle of choosing the clothes. Her aunties wanted to buy more clothes for her. This time, she firmly rejected that. She did not want her aunties to waste money for her.

They took a break off from their shopping at a nearby restaurant. Ming Yue suggested for them to eat their lunch since they were here. Yu Qi and Su Xiao agreed to it because they were already hungry.

Their choice of today lunch was Fujian?cuisine. But Su Xiao said they needed something stimulated, so she ordered some of Szechuan chili chicken. Yu Qi did not mind because she liked to eat spicy food. The lunch was very funny.

After lunch, they continued to walk around. They just walked to digest their lunch before went back home. Then, they passed a jewelry shop. It seemed to have some jade in that shop.

Yu Qi was like a crazy fan when came to jade. She wanted to walk inside to see if whether there was a good jade that could get her attention.

"Aunties, can we walk inside and take a look?" Yu Qi pointed to the jewelry shop.

"Sure, why not?" Ming Yue said.

The three of them walked in. The sales girl came and greeted them.

"What can I help you, dear customers?" The sales girl keep her best smile and talked to them.

"We just want to look around. If something caught our attention to buy them, we will call you, okay?" Ming Yue said.

"Okay, dear customer. Take your time to browse your jewelry." The sales girl said and step a little further from them. Her eyes still glued to three of them.

They did not angry. It is understandable because the jewelry was not cheap. If something was missing, the first to blame was the sales girl because it was her job.

Yu Qi was browsing the jade section. Jade was her favorite especially blood jade. Her aunties were browsing some jewelry like earring and necklace.

While she surveyed the jade, some commotion happened in the store. There were some women whispered about something. She looked up at the commotion. Then she stunned.

The reason was an Adonis walked into the store. He walked straight to the counter. The woman at the counter was smiling sweetly to the man.

"Yes, sir. What can I help you?" With that smile, she asked the man.

"I want to see Gen Tao. Tell him its about the blood jade earring that I ordered some him last month." The man maintained his cold face while talking to the girl.

"Yes, sir. Please wait for a moment. I will inform him about this." The girl seemed to disappoint that the man ignored her beauty.

"Long Hui?" A woman called his name.

Yes. It was our Long Hui. He turned to the woman who called him. He saw her. He tried to remember this woman. He seemed to know her but did not remember her.

"I'm from Tang Family, Ming Yue. You knew right?" Min Yue said to remind him.

Long Hui nodded to her question. Of course, he remembered the Tang Family. His beloved is a Tang now. He scanned around.

"She is here with us. There she is." Ming Yue laughed. She knew why Long Hui looked around. It was to find Yu Qi. She wanted to help Long Hui. So she pointed out where Yu Qi was.

Yu Qi was like ΣΣ(¿Δ¿;) when she saw her aunties pointed out her to Long Hui.

Meanwhile, Long Hui was like ∩ ( ^ Δ ^ )? when he saw Yu Qi was here too.

Ming Yue and Su Xiao were excited to see Long Hui and Yu Qi together. It was clear as water that Long Hui liked Yu Qi. From their eyes, Yu Qi seemed to like him unconsciously. She just did not realize it yet.

The girls who in the store was amused as the cold man began to smile handsomely. They wondered why the man changed like this. Then they were disappointed because they could see the reason for the man's change.

"Hi." She greeted Long Hui.

"What are you doing here?" Long Hui asked.

"We came here to do some shopping. I just browsing around." Now she could speak a little bit normal with Long Hui.

"So, what are you doing here?" Yu Qi was also curious about Long Hui being here.

"I had ordered something with this store. So, I came to collect it." Long Hui did not explain much detail about what he had ordered. It was to be a surprise to his beloved. So, he would not tell her yet.

When Long Hui said like that, she became curious about what he had ordered. But to ask more, she was afraid. She could not just ask him like that. It was embarrassing.

"I see." So that was just she could say.

"Sir, Mr. Gen asked you to enter the VVIP room." A girl came and disturbed their conversation.

Long Hui turned to the girl angrily. She just disturbed his moment with his beloved. The girl became scared when she saw the expression on the handsome man's face.

"Yu Qi, can you wait here for a moment? I will finish my matter as soon as possible." Long Hui asked Yu Qi to wait for him.

He could not let this chance passed. The chance of going date with Yu Qi. This was his off day. The off day was not easy to obtain.

Chapter 92: Ask Permission

"Aunties, please don't smile like that." Yu Qi sighed when saw Ming Yue and Su Xiao's smile.

"Smile like what?" Su Xiao teased her.

"What are you talking about just now?" Ming Yue threw a question to Yu Qi.

"It's nothing. He just asked me what's I'm doing here." Yu Qi answered.

That was not satisfying answer for Ming Yue and Su Xiao. They expected Long Hui will throw some hook and bait to Yu Qi.

Then Yu Qi continued, "He asked me to wait for him."

Ming Yue and Su Xiao eyes were lifted up. Yu Qi wanted to laugh seeing her aunties' reaction for her last sentences. They seemed to watch a love drama. However, the actress and actor was someone they knew.

"And then?" Su Xiao wanted to know next.

"I don't know what he wants to do." Yu Qi also wanted to know why he wanted her to wait for him here.

Long Hui walked following the girl that who been informed about Gen Tao. Arrived at a room on the second floor, the girl knocked on the door. Someone answered told them to enter the room. The girl opened the door and invited Long Hui to enter the room.

Entering the room, he saw the young man dressed in a blue suit. This young man seemed to be in early twenty.

Long Hui walked to the sofa and sat on it without waiting for the young man to invite him sat.

"Where is the item?" Long Hui got straight to the point.

"Huh! What's a friend. Can we have a small talk here?" This young man was the man that Long Hui wanted to see, Gen Tao.

Gen Tao was the jewelry designer. He was the owner of the jewelry store.

"I have something important to do. I don't have time to talk to you." Long Hui was annoyed with Gen Tao.

Yeah, his beloved was waiting for him. He had to hurry up. Gen Tao seemed to love to see Long Hui's annoyed face.

"What is the important thing that you want to do?" Gen Tao smiled to Long Hui.

"Hurry up. My beloved was waiting for me right now." Even though he said in a blank expression, when the word 'beloved' came out from his mouth, there was a gentle tone on it.

The word 'beloved' suddenly arose Gen Tao's interest. Made him more curious when it came from Long Hui.

"Who?" Gen Tao asked.

"Give me the item." Long Hui ignored the question from Gen Tao.

Gen Tao quickly gave the item that Long Hui requested. Long Hui said his beloved was waiting for him. So, she might be nearby. Gen Tao wanted to see who was the unlucky one who caught the Long Hui's attention. He intended to follow Long Hui.

Long Hui grabbed the item and put them in his jacket. He stood up and left the room without saying anything else to Gen Tao. Gen Tao just let him be. He already knew Long Hui's character. Furthermore, he wanted to follow Long Hui.

Long Hui did not care about what was Gen Tao thought. His beloved was more important. He thought he was wasting time with Gen Tao. He saw Yu Qi was still browsing the jade section.

"Yu Qi." Long Hui called her.

"Yes?" Yu Qi turned to Long Hui.

"Can we go somewhere? Just two of them." He highlighted the last sentence.

"But I was with my aunties."

Yu Qi dumbfounded. Long Hui gave up so fast. But she became more dumbfounded when she saw Long Hui went to talk to her two aunties.

Her aunties nodded with a smile. Then her aunties turned their view to her. They just lifted their fingers and made the sign 'OK'.

Long Hui went back to her. He was very quick in his way.

"I already ask permission from your aunties to bring you with me." Long Hui smiled.

"Okay." Yu Qi just had to agree now because she did not have any excuse anymore.

Ming Yue and Su Xiao giggled when they saw the couple left the jewelry store. The way Long Hui came and asked their permission was very cool in their eyes. Making them think about their younger time.

Gen Tao who followed Long Hui was surprised to see Long Hui smiled sweetly to the girl. He felt that the girl was quite beautiful but still young. Maybe in high school. Where the heck Long Hui found that girl? What made the Great Major Long Hui took fancy on that girl? What was that girl's secret? Did she found his weakness and use it against him? A lot of questions appeared in Gen Tao.

Chapter 93: First Date

A young man silently escorted the young girl entering his car. He was relieved that he used his other car instead of his jip. It must be fate. He liked to use his jip but for today, he used another car that rarely used. Then, he met his beloved.

He encouraged himself to bring her out. This was the first time they were going out just two of them. Not like the last time, Feng Yue was together with them.

"Where are we going?" A sweet voice asked him a question.

"We are going for a date." Long Hui answered his beloved.

Yu Qi stunned when she heard the answer. A blush appeared on her heart. The heartbeat that calms a little bit became to increased again.

Date? Thinking about the date, this was her first date in the two lifetimes. She never went for a date. Not like once.

Yu Qi remembered when that bastard asking her to go out with her, he always asked that bitch too. Yeah, the truth might be like this. They wanted to go for a date but it might be bad if someone saw the two of them together. So Yu Qi was been called as their shield.

"Don't worry, I will not bring you to a suspicious place. We going somewhere that you might like it." Long Hui teased Yu Qi when he saw Yu Qi a little bit tense. He did not know that Yu Qi was thinking about her past life.

"Somewhere that I like?" Yu Qi's a little a confused.

"Yes. Wait and see, okay?" Long Hui said.

"Okay." Yu Qi used the time to calm her heart.

They were on the drive so about a half hour. The area was a little be remote. She saw a big greenhouse. Long Hui took her to the greenhouse.

"I hear from Old Man Feng that you built a greenhouse in the town nearby the lake. I bring you here to take a look. They also sell some seed here." Long Hui explained to her.

Yu Qi seemed to be surprised that Long Hui explained the reason why he brought her here. She got some design on how to arrange her greenhouse. But it was much better if she went to take a look at another greenhouse.

About the seeds, she did not think much about that. She remembered that Bo Ya said he had many kinds of seeds. Well, it was not be much damages if she brought some here.

"Thank you." Yu Qi said in the happy tone.

She was happy that Long Hui thought much about her. She was smiling at him.

When Long Hui looked his beloved smiled so sweetly to him, it was worth. He had been asked a lot about Yu Qi from Feng Yue when he trained Feng Yue. Some time to get some answers from Feng Yue, he reduced the amount of training that he gave to Feng Yue. He was glad that it was worth to ask Feng Yue about Yu Qi.

They entered the greenhouse together. The workers in the greenhouse kind of surprised to see a young couple entered the greenhouse. Not to mention, a handsome and a beautiful one.

"Welcome to Forest Greenhouse. We have about 10 thousand species of plant including flower, fruit, even the wild plant. You can get a look for it. We also have some activities. You can try it." A nice worker came and greeted them.

"Thank you. We will take a look around first." Yu Qi thanked the worker.

She was excited to see the greenhouse full of the plants. She could see some of the weird plants here. She forgot about the handsome man beside her. With the excitement, she grabbed the hand beside her. When she felt the hand, she quickly released it.

Long Hui was kind of shocked when he saw Yu Qi grabbed his hand. He was happy. But the feeling was not last long. Yu Qi released his hand quickly. She looked embarrassed. A tiny blush appeared on her cheek making her cuter.

Long Hui was encouraging himself. He grabbed Yu Qi's hand and walked. He could feel her hand was very soft. He looked at Yu Qi. She became redder. He wanted to tease her more.

Long Hui leaned over to her ear and said, "Hey, look around. Don't look down."

Yu Qi was embarrassed. Well, she kind of happy when Long Hui grabbed her hand. When he whispered to her, she looked over at him. He was making a smile that would seduce her. She quickly turned around and started to look at the plants.

A worker that followed not too further from them had been feeding a food dog. He was jealous to see the couple flirting in front of him. He wanted to see his wife now.

Eventually, Yu Qi became comfortable with Long Hui's hand. Yu Qi was leading the way. Long Hui just followed his beloved. Yu Qi asked about questions about the plants to the worker. She released her hand from Long Hui's hand to touch some plants. After she finished touching them, Long Hui grabbed her hand back.

Long Hui was genuinely happy with this step. He could feel he made progress on wooing Yu Qi. He saw Yu Qi became more and more comfortable with him. The first step on breaking the ice was a success. Greenhouse plan really helped him.

Chapter 94: Fall In Love Again

Yu Qi spent 3 hours together with Long Hui exploring the greenhouse. She also brought many types of seeds. They left the greenhouse around 5 o'clock in the evening.

"Where are we going next?" Yu Qi asked Long Hui.

Obviously, Long Hui did not want to send Yu Qi home yet. The day was not over yet. He wanted to spend more time, just two of them.

"We have one more place to go. After that, I will send straight in front of the Tang House." Long Hui answered.

"Okay." Yu Qi nodded.

They were on the drive for about one and a half hours. Then they arrived at the destination. Yu Qi saw the sea. Long Hui brought her to the beach. The sky started to turn orange.

There was a restaurant nearby. Long Hui choose the perfect place to enjoy their dinner while waiting to see the sunset. The seawater turned to the golden color when the sun was decreasing. It was a lovely scene.

The breeze of the sea made Yu Qi's hair waves around. She was smiling.

Long Hui felt this scene was lovely than anything. Long Hui fell in love again with her.

The dinner was very delicious accompanied with the sound of the sea waves. Yu Qi became more and more comfortable with Long Hui. She responded to his conversation with a little shy. The date with Long Hui turned out to be a fun date.

"When are you going to be a university student?" Long Hui casually asked.

"I have about 2 to 3 months to prepare for it."

"I see. I'm going on a mission next week. So we might not be able to see each other during the time being." Long Hui explained.

"I see." There was a sad tone on her voice.

"I will visit you later if I have free time." Long Hui made a promise.

"Don't force yourself."

"Before I forget about it..." Long Hui searched something in his jacket. He took out a red small box and placed it in front of Yu Qi.

"Congratulation for success on entering your first choice of university. This is my gift. Hope you will like it."

"This is for me?" Yu Qi was kind of speechless when she received a gift from Long Hui.

"Yes, open it." Long Hui urgent her to open it. He wanted to see her reaction when she saw what kind of gift.

Yu Qi took a box and slowly opened it. She was surprised to see the gift. It was a pair of earring. What was more surprised about the earring, it was made from the blood jade. It looked very beautiful. The blood jade was craved with a small rectangular shape. Yu Qi was very happy with this gift.

"You like it?" Long Hui asked.

"Yes, very much. When did you prepare this? What's can I see, this is custom made."

"Right after you came to Yue's home. I had found the blood jade a long ago. Then I asked the jewelry designer to design this earring to you." Long Hui explained.

"How did you know that I like blood jade?" Yu Qi did not remember when she told Long Hui about her liking blood jade.

"From the first time we meet. You brought the blood jade pendant that time. From your expression, I knew that you like blood jade very much." Long Hui recalled their first meeting.

Yu Qi did not expect him to remember that. That was a long time. And that was their first meeting. Usually, people did not pay any attention to people they did not know about. Not to mention for the man handsome like him.

"Thank you. For today and also for this lovely gift. I will treasure it." Yu Qi was grateful for it.

"It was late already. Let me send you home."

"Okay."

"Here we are." They reached the Tang House already.

"Once again, thank you." Yu Qi said before she went out of the car.

"I hope we will go out again in the future." Long Hui smiled to Yu Qi.

"Yes." Yu Qi bowed a little to Long Hui. She went inside the house.

Long Hui stayed in the car for a while until Yu Qi completely out from his sight. After that, he left the house.

Yu Qi entered the house. Steward Hang Ji Chang was there greeted her.

"Welcome home, Young Miss. Do you like some dinner?" Steward Hang Ji Chang asked politely.

"Thank Grandpa Chang. But I already eat dinner. May I know where is everyone?" Yu Qi inquired.

"Everyone was in the living room except Young Master Jin Wei. He is on duty tonight." Steward Hang Ji Chang informed her.

"Okay, thank you." Yu Qi thanked him.

Then she went to the living room. The moment she stepped into the living room, her two aunts, Ming Yue, and Su Xiao came and pulled her hand making her sitting between two of them.

"How it's going?" Ming Yue asked with the tone of excitement.

Su Xiao also looked excited to hear from Yu Qi.

"What?" Yu Qi tried to play the fool.

"Just tell us about your date. It was your first date, right?" Su Xiao smiled.

Yu Qi's face suddenly turned to the tiny red when she hearing the word 'first date'.

"Humph! What is the first date? That was not a date. It just a regular outing." Grandpa Tang interrupted.

He did not like to hear Yu Qi date. Her granddaughter was still young. He did not want her to be taken by someone already.

"We just went somewhere and had dinner. That's all." Yu Qi explained it shortly.

"Good." Grandpa Tang satisfied with her answer.

Chapter 95: Work On The Greenhouse

Yu Qi's greenhouse was completed for its building. Now the inside will be fulfilled with the plants. As for the worker, she managed to hire 5 of the worker with the help of Uncle Song Nan. Each of them had knowledge of growing and taking care of the plant.

There were Song Tao and Song Tai, a twin and nephew of Uncle Song Nan, Jung Lian, Lang Bing, and Yin Wen Ding. The twin, Jung Lian, Yin Wei were men. Only Lang Bing was a girl.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Yu Qi. This is my greenhouse. For this greenhouse, I want to grow many types of plants. Especially the Chinese herbs. If you don't know about them, it's okay. I will teach you." Yu Qi spoke for the first time with five of them.

"Miss Yu Qi, don't worry. We knew about the herbs. Uncle Nan taught us about that." One of the twins, Song Jin said politely.

"Really? Great. Owh, one more thing, please call me Yu Qi." Yu Qi felt that calling her 'Miss' was not right. She wanted to interact more with the employee.

"We can't, Miss Yu Qi. You are our employer. We have to treat you politely." Lang Bing rejected.

"That's right. Even our Uncle Nan called you, Miss Yu Qi." Song Tai also argued with that idea.

Yu Qi seemed surprised. She sighed. Seem she could not change their mind on not to call her 'Miss'. She gave up. They could call her whatever they preferred.

"Okay, I don't mind. But, I will call you brother and sister. Brother Tao, Brother Tai, Brother Lian, Brother Wen Ding and Sister Bing, welcome. Hope we will get along." Yu Qi bowed a little bit to them.

For five of them felt this girl was mature in thinking. Bowing like this is the form of respect. As they know, the employer doesn't bow to their employee. This made them thought she worth their respect.

"Yes." The five of them answered.

Then they started to work. The greenhouse was divided into 4 sections. Herbs, fruits, vegetables, and lastly flowers. The largest section was herbs, followed by, vegetables, fruits, and flowers. Yu Qi divided the five of them according to the section. Song Tai and Song Tao in the herbs section, Jung Lian in the fruits section, Yin Wen Ding in the vegetable section and Lang Bing in the flowers section.

Yu Qi took out the seeds and gave them to plant it. Some of the seeds came from her space, she brought them and Grandpa Tang also gave some to her.

She supervised them working. She told them, don't work so hard. If tired, take a rest. Don't force yourself until faint. That was improved her image between her employees.

"Yu Qi." Someone called her in a loud voice.

Yu Qi knew the owner of the voice. Feng Yue came and visited her.

"Wow, Yu Qi. You are a mess." Feng Yue commented on Yu Qi's appearance right now.

"My dear, I'm working on planting these seeds. Playing with dirt. Of course, I will get dirty." Yu Qi showed some seeds in her hand.

"Just speaking nonsense." Feng Yue laughed off. "But if Brother Hui looks at Yu Qi right now, he might praise you even you covered with the dirt." Feng Yue teased her best friend.

"How dare you tease me like that. Take this." Yu Qi rubbed her dirty hand to Feng Yue's hand.

"Yu Qi." Feng Yue wanted to catch Yu Qi.

Yu Qi ran away from Feng Yue. The chasing between those two occurred. Lucky the greenhouse was still had a lot of space for them to run. The scream could be heard during the chase.

Five of the employees smiled when they saw their lady boss looked like the normal teenager right now. When they first met and talked to her, they felt that their lady boss was a little bit mature than her age.

About 45 minutes, Feng Yue had been chasing Yu Qi. Feng Yue started to show some fatigue while Yu Qi still in her full energy. Feng Yue stopped running. She took breaths.

"Yu Qi, how could you not tired after all this running?" Feng Yue asked Yu Qi after Yu Qi also stopped running.

"My dear, if you train yourself every day, you will be like me too." Yu Qi said.

Well, she had been trained outside and inside her space. In the morning, she running about 2 kilometers. Then at night, in her space, she training her martial art. That made her body stronger than Feng Yue.

"Train? No, thank. I will train when my Brother Hui came only. I don't want to tire myself. Owh, speaking about Brother Hui, I heard from my maternal grandfather that he went to a mission. I worried about him" Feng Yue changed the topic to Long Hui.

"Yes, I know about it." Yu Qi also worried about him. The soldier went for the mission if they were not careful enough, they might lose their life. She just hoped that Long Hui managed to take care of his life.

"Huh? How did you know about that?" Feng Yue felt weird. She did not know about that until her maternal grandfather told her about that. How does Yu Qi manage to know it first hand?

"I heard from himself."

"What? When?"

"We meet in FIN City last week. He told me that he was going on a mission this week."

Feng Yue's eyes lifted up. It was a piece of news for her. Her Brother Hui took an advance on telling Yu Qi that. Her Brother Hui never told anyone if he went to the mission in the past.

"Hohoho...Young miss, is that something that I don't know between you two?" Feng Yue made a weird laugh.

Yu Qi thought she made a mistake on telling Feng Yue that she knew about Long Hui was going on a mission. Feng Yue would not stop pestering her telling about the detail. Yu Qi gave up on running. So, instead of running, she told Feng Yue about her meeting Long Hui during her outing with her two aunties. She made a little lie. She did not tell Feng Yue about her date with Long Hui.

Chapter 96: Prepare for Entering the University

The things that she wanted to bring to Starlight University already done packed. Her grandfather was been fussy about what she should bring to the university. She just packed her clothes and her daily necessities. There was no need to bring all the things. She could buy things that she did not have later at the university. She betted there were shops in the university or area around it.

Her aunties wanted Yu Qi to go registering into the university from their house at FIN City. That why she was packing earlier. She would go to the Tang House tomorrow. The day after tomorrow she would register to Starlight University as its student.

Yu Qi already told Feng Yue about her plan on the day she saw Feng Yue at the greenhouse. Feng Yue was a little bit sad. She also was preparing to enroll in the university that she applied. She was going to Hanwen University majoring in business management.

The Hanwen University was located at the HISO City. While Starlight was located in WENYA City. It was about 3 hours driving and 2 and a half hours while traveling by train. So, if they wanted to hang out, it was easier than you thought.

The greenhouse became more and more full of the plants. She had been working with her employees until yesterday. She felt sad to leave the work for her employees only. Hope she got more time for it. Unfortunately, the semester would be started soon. She promised during the break, she would come back to see the progress. Uncle Song Nan already promised that he would be supervised their work.

The construction progress of her ryokan also been well. They had been fulfilled the dateline required. About 40% had been completed. Seeing this made she relieved. This ryokan would be completed in one and a half year later.

About money, she would not be worried anymore. Her studies were been sponsored by the Starlight University itself. Her registration fee, hostel fee, exam fee, and others fee all been paid by the university. She only had to use her own money for her pocket money.

However, looking for the situation, she might not be going to use her saving money because the Tang family would give her the money. Grandpa Tang insisted to give her money saying that 'What's wrong giving money to my granddaughter? That was grandfather doting his granddaughter.' So, Yu Qi ended up receiving the money.

Aoi licked his master's hand when he watched her master dazed around. Feeling Aoi's tongue licking her hand, Yu Qi patted Aoi's head. She noticed Aoi grew a little bit. She also noticed that Aoi grew a little bit slower than the normal dog.

'Master, of course, he was not normal. He was a beast. What's a normal dog make a contract with you by blood? That answer is no.' Bo Ya interrupted her mind.

'Owh, I see.' She nodded a little. 'How long he was estimated to live?'

'It depends. But Master, don't forget you had been in the blood contract with him. You die, he dies.' Bo Ya answered her curiosity.

Yu Qi understood. Aoi was her long life companion. Not to mention Bo Ya. She was grateful when she had reborn. She could meet those who were nice to her.

'Master, what had happened to that handsome man?' Bo Ya asked curiously.

'Handsome man?'

'Yes. That Long Hui man. I had not seen him.'

'Why are you asking about him?'

'Huh? Because you seem excited to see him. I like when you felt like that.' Aoi said innocently.

Yu Qi blushed. 'Excited?' She was embarrassed. Yes, it had been a long time since their last meeting. She grabbed the small box that contained a pair of the blood jade earring. She opened it. Seeing the blood jade earring reminding her first date with that man.

Long Hui indeed straight forward man. He was wooing her after he spoke to Grandpa Tang about wooing her. He had been seducing her with his handsome smile. Yes, she admitted he was tempting.

She remembered that he was saying that he was going on a mission. She was worried. It might not an easy mission. Is he safe? She sighed. She took the earring and wore them. She decided to wear them from now on.

She took a break from her studies. Whether from her Grandpa Tang and her space. Even she said so when she met her master, Grandpa Tang gave an informal lecture to her about the herbs.

Grandpa Tang was working on his herbs garden when she saw him. So without he realized he began to give his disciple the lecture. She laughed in her heart. She started to help her master taking care of the herbs garden while listening to her master's lecture.

Chapter 97: Nice To Meet You Again, Bitch

"Remember to take care of yourself. Don't forget your meal." Yu Qi had been heard about this since yesterday.

Her aunties keep repeating the same advice or some kind like that. Yu Qi just nodded and smiled to her aunties. They were worried about her staying alone in the room. Yu Qi had been asked by her aunties about that.

"Why are you staying alone in this room? Should the room consist of two people?"

"This is my request to have the room for myself. It was more convenient for me. I also brought Aoi here. A student who shared this room with me might not like it. So, I request not to share a room with anyone."

Yes, it was her personal request to have this room for her alone. Not sharing with anyone. This allowed her to enter her space freely in the room. If she was sharing the room with another student, it would not be easy to enter her space. This was one of her conditions if Starlight University wanted to recruit her as its student.

Bringing Aoi and staying with him in the room was also one of her conditions. The university permitted students to bring their pet but they had to take care of the pet carefully. If the pet made any trouble to others, they must leave their pet outside the university. Because of this rule, many students don't bring their pet to the university.

Yu Qi had no such problem. Aoi was not a normal pet. He possesses intelligence like a human. He could understand human speech.

Yu Qi started to unpack her bag and arrange her things into the proper place. She will live in this room for 4 years. She would decorate this room according to her taste. Aoi wanted to help her master but with his small body, it would not help at all. Aoi sat in the corner feeling helpless.

"Don't sulk like that. This is not easy for you. I will ask your help if required, okay?" Yu Qi coaxed Aoi.

'Okay.' Aoi answered but still in sulking.

"I will take you for a walk after this." She said.

Aoi became happy when his master promised him for a walk. Yu Qi smiled when seeing the change in Aoi's mood. Yu Qi also wanted to take a walk. She wanted to look at the university. Tomorrow, there would be starting for orientation week. She would be busy by then.

After one and a half hour, she finished all the work. She did not have many things from the beginning making her work finished faster.

"Aoi, come. We are going for a walk. Behave yourself okay?" Before stepping out of her room, she reminded Aoi.

'Don't worry, master.'

The master and the beast left their room and walked around the university. Starlight University was a big university. She just walked about 10% of the university. During their walk, they saw cafes, exercise ground, and many other facilities. Yu Qi also found a convenience store.

"Cute dog. Come here." A girl's voice stopped their walk.

Aoi did not move closer to that girl. He just stayed at the place where he stopped. The girl did not stop there. She moved closer to Aoi wanting to pet his head.

"Come here." Yu Qi called Aoi to come to her side.

Hearing his master order, he walked to his master. He took a glance at his master. His master face looked normal. However, there was some chilling feel on his master face. Like she wanted to kill someone right now.

The girl looked up at the owner of the cute dog she saw just now. She was surprised to see the owner of the cute dog was a beautiful girl. Look at this girl she assumed this girl was like her. A new first-year student. She was taken a like at her dog. She must befriend with this beautiful girl.

"Hi, you must be a first-year student like me, right? I'm Fung Meng Xuan. I'm studying Psychology Course." She introduced herself.

"I don't intend to become a friend to you. Excuse me." Yu Qi coldly spoke like that to Fung Meng Xuan who had been smiling like an idiot.

Then Yu Qi walked passed by Fung Meng Xuan. She had to stay away from her. Otherwise, she would kill that girl on the spot.

Yes, she was that bitch who had seduce her fiance, plotted with her relative to poison her grandfather, cut off her hands and legs while Yu Qi had to see her hands and legs had been cut off and threw the remaining body into the forest leaving her as the food to the animal in the forest.

Yu Qi also first met Fung Meng Xuan on the first day when she enrolled in the university as her grandfather in her past life requested. She also used that smile to introduce herself to Yu Qi. She also taking the same course as the past life.

Yu Qi was emitted a cold aura. While her face was smiling but not her eyes. Aoi was startled when seeing his master like this. This was his first time seeing his master like this. He wondered what kind of relationship that her master and that woman had before. He knew that after seeing that woman, his master turned like this.

"Nice to meet you again, bitch." She said while gave a cold smile.

Chapter 98: You Are Not Even My Friend

Fung Meng Xuan still standing at the place that she talked to that woman. That girl said in a clear intention that she doesn't want to be a friend with Fung Meng Xuan.

'What? This is the first time she meets that girl. Why is she hostile to me?'

Fung Meng Xuan could not stop thinking about that girl. She just wanted to become her friend. She felt a little sad. This was her first day at the university.

Meanwhile, Yu Qi entered the cafe with Aoi. Yu Qi was still silent. However, Aoi could feel her mood became better than earlier. So, he took the opportunity to speak about what had happened earlier.

'Master?' Aoi tried to call his master.

'Hmm? What?'

'Did you know that girl?'

'Yes, she is my enemy from my past life.'

That answer reminded Aoi about what Bo Ya talked to him before. His master was undergone rebirth. This is her second life and she possesses some of her memories of her past life.

'I see. I will stay away from her.'

Yu Qi wanted to laugh when she saw Aoi determined's face. She held back. She was in public. She could not just start laughing out of sudden. People would think she was a weird person.

Yu Qi brought some food for her and Aoi for dinner. She did not want to eat at the cafe. So, they went back to their room. Arrived at her room, she saw some of the students wandered in front of her room.

"Excuse me?" Yu Qi said in order to get the attention of them.

They turned to Yu Qi. Then someone asked Yu Qi. "Are you the owner of this room?"

"Yes, it is me." Yu Qi answered them. She wondered why were they here in the first place?

"I see. You are the perfect scorer in our nation." The student said with excitement and slight admiration.

Yu Qi just smiled politely. They just came to see her. The rumor that the perfect scorer in the nation chooses Starlight University.

"What a cute dog." A student wanted to pet Aoi.

Aoi did not like someone he did not know pet his head, so he moved behind Yu Qi and made some angry sound.

"Sorry, my puppy doesn't like someone she doesn't know touch him." Yu Qi apologized politely making that student could not retort about that.

"Can we see your room?" That voice made Yu Qi made cold.

Yu Qi released cold aura. All the student suddenly felt cold out of nowhere. Yeah, that voice belonged to Fung Meng Xuan.

"No, I don't like having someone that not close to me invade my private space."

"But..." Fung Meng Xuan wanted to retort.

"Miss, you are not even my friend. Why do you want to enter my room? On what right?" Yu Qi casually asked her.

"Yeah, we can't force her to let us enter her room." One student said.

"Yeah, why you want to see her room?" Another student asked Fung Meng Xuan.

Fung Meng Xuan stunned. She felt she was been wronged by others. She just asked to see her room. She did not have any intention. This girl clearly targeted her. Why? She really wanted to know that.

"Let stop now. Sorry to take your time. We will see again tomorrow in orientation." One student stopped all of this.

They went back to their room. Yu Qi just standing here watching Fung Meng Xuan's back as she walked away. Fung Meng Xuan turned back and saw Yu Qi was still watching her. She felt scared when saw the look on Yu Qi's eyes. She felt Yu Qi was looking at her like a dead man. She fastened her step.

Yu Qi was smiled when she saw Fung Meng Xuan was walked faster after she turned back looking at Yu Qi.

'Master, I'm hungry.' Aoi said breaking the silence.

Yu Qi was chuckled. She looked at Aoi with a lovely look.

"Let enter and eat."

She was nervously waiting for her new roommate. She hoping that her new roommate was a girl that she could get along. She entered this university under her grandfather order. Her grandfather said he did not want other people looked down on her because of her education.

She was 21 years old. It was a bit late for her to start study at the university. Mostly student enters the university at the age of 18. She was afraid others will look down on her age.

She heard the door had been opened by someone. She looked at the person. The girl was dressing in casual attire. She was smiling sweetly.

"Hi, I'm Fung Meng Xuan. Starting from today, we will be roommate for 4 years. Hope we will get along." The girl introduced herself.

Yu Qi stood up from her bed. She was also smiling to Fung Meng Xuan.

"Hi **** Yu Qi. You can call me, Yu Qi."

Yu Qi helped Fung Meng Xuan moved her luggage. After done unpacking, they started to chat again.

"Actually I'm 20 years old. Next month, I will be 21 years old." Fung Meng Xuan confessed.

"Huh? You too?" Yu Qi was shocked.

"Huh? What do you mean by that?"

"I'm already 21 years old."

Both of them were silent. They never expected this. Then they began to laugh.

"Maybe the university intends to put us together because of our age." Yu Qi said between laugh.

"Yeah, I think so too." Fung Meng Xuan laughed. "Why are you start to study at this age?"

"Well, many things happened." Yu Qi smiled embarrassedly.

"Well, me too. But we are here now. Let study smart and graduate together." Fung Meng Xuan holds Yu Qi's hand.

"Yes!"

Chapter 99: Orientation

Yu Qi woke up at six o'clock in the morning. Her body already had its own timer. She would automatically wake up at that hour. Refresh herself, then turned into the sports attire. She walked out of her room together with Aoi.

She was kind of forcing Aoi to join her for her morning exercise. At first, Aoi did not want to follow her. After she said she wanted to make Aoi as her genuine pig, testing her poison, Aoi more happily on joining her. He did not want to suffer that.

The female hostel was completely in silence. No everyone had yet woke up. Yu Qi walked soundlessly. Her train in martial arts was very useful. Stepping out from the female hostel, she started to stretching. Feeling her body finally warmed up, she was jogging slowly. She wanted to familiar with the path.

Using Bo Ya as her calculator, she knew how far she had been jogging. She had been jogging about 3km for a half hour. Thinking she still got time, she ran another 3km.

One hour completed for her morning exercise. She went back to her room to prepare for the orientation. She already got the schedule for the orientation when she was registered as the new student. The problem began at 8 a.m. She took a bath and turned to casual attire.

Exiting her room, she could see other students exited their room too. Because of the room designed for two students, normally the two students walked together. She walked alone. About Aoi, she sent him into her space. He could play with Bo Ya.

"Morning." A girl greeted her.

"Good morning." Yu Qi also greeted her.

Then from behind, a voice greeted Yu Qi.

Without acknowledged that greeting, Yu Qi just simply walked away. The person who greeted her was feeling embarrassed when her greet was not been answered.

"Hey, are you deaf?" A girl blocked Yu Qi's path.

"What?" Yu Qi asked.

"Meng Xuan said 'morning' to you. Why are you not answering her?" This girl might be Fung Meng Xuan's roommate.

"Then, let me ask you. Why should I answer her?" Yu Qi threw the question to that girl.

The girl who been asked Yu Qi was stunned to hear the question from Yu Qi. She could not understand. It was normal to greet back someone who greeted you.

Fung Meng Xuan pulled her friend's hand. "It's okay, Jan Di." Fung Meng Xuan was activated her white lotus character.

"But Meng Xuan..." Heng Jan Di wanted to retort.

Fung Meng Xuan was shaking her face.

"Can I go now? I don't want to be penalized because of you." Yu Qi was bored to see the drama now.

Without waiting for their answer, she passed by the two of them. She clearly told Fung Meng Xuan that she did not want to be her friend. Even did not want to talk to her.

Yu Qi entered the hall full with the new students. Their faces appeared in happiness and slightly nervous about the new environment. Yu Qi just sitting in the corner without talking to anyone.

A man appeared as the senior student walked up to the stage. He touched the microphone and tested. After confirmed the microphone was completely working, he started to speak to the new students.

"Welcome my juniors to Starlight University. I'm Ting Quan, your head of facilitator. I have about a hundred seniors students that acted as a facilitator that will help you to get know better about this university. First, I need all of you to form rows. On my left is the men and on my right is the women. Let's move." Senior Ting Quan quickly gave instruction to the new students.

The students move according to what they been asked to. Yu Qi also moved to the women rows. In 15 minutes, the students were arranged in perfect rows.

"Okay, thank you for dear brothers and sisters. Let's move to the next section. The next section is the speech from the alumni department. Make sure you don't fall into sleep, okay?" Senior Ting Quan made jokes making the new students laughed.

The person was walked up to the stage made his speech. Well, his speech was about the history of Starlight University. Also its achievement in the nation. Yeah, that speech already made the students sleepy. However, they tried so hard to make sure that it was not so obvious that they were sleepy.

After one and a half hour, the speech was over. The students made some noise feeling happy after hearing some boring speech. Yu Qi felt it was a waste of time hearing that speech. They should put some fun for the slot.

"Okay, wake up guys. The speech was over." That sentence gained a lot of laugh from the students. "We give you a 30 minutes break. There are some food and minutes outside the hall. You can get it. After 30 minutes, we will start our next slot." Senior Ting Quan said to the students.

The hungry students went out to get their food. Well, the boys conquered the food table first. Fortunately, the food table was divided into two. One for the girls and one for the boys.

Yu Qi walked slowly toward the food. Yu Qi also wanted to get some food. She was thinking to give some food to Aoi in her space. Her little puppy might also hungry as well. When she waited to her queue, she saw someone. She was totally shocked when seeing that person.

Chapter 100: It's Really You.

Yu Qi turned to a better view. Unfortunately, that person was disappeared from her view. Impossible. That person would not be here. She convinced herself about that matter.

It was her turn to take the food. She went to someplace that hidden from anyone. After confirming no one was there, she entered her space. Bo Ya and Aoi pounced to her.

"Why are you here, master?" Bo Ya asked. It was unusual to her master to come at this time. From his knowledge, this was morning outside the space.

"I have a 30 minutes break. I have about 15 minutes to go. So I can spend about 45 minutes here." Yu Qi made a quick calculation. "Aoi, Bo Ya, here food."

Yu Qi shared her portion with Bo Ya and Aoi. The glutton Aoi quickly swallowed the food. While Bo Ya using his small hand, he grabbed the food and eat it cutely. Bo Ya liked to taste outside food. Usually, he eats something in this space only. Like fruit and vegetables. After Yu Qi became his master, he could taste something different than usual.

"Master, how about you cook here?" Bo Ya suggested.

"Here?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes, you can cook here too. You can use ingredients here too. Well, for some meat, you can bring them from outside." Bo Ya was very excited. Why he did not think about this earlier?

"Well, I can cook here. But I'm not promised. I'm busy. You know my schedule." Yu Qi did not want Bo Ya hoping so much. It will be more disappointed later.

"Okay, master." Bo Ya nodded.

"I want to eat Master's food too." Aoi also nodded.

Yu Qi laughed when hearing a cute voice from Aoi. The breeze was very relaxing. Yu Qi wanted to sleep but she had to endure. It will be troublesome if she was late for the next slot.

"My cuties, I have to go outside now."

The two cuties made the salute stand. ㄟ(≧▽≦)ㄏ.

Yu Qi saw that was laughing. She went out of her space. The next slot would start about 5 minutes more. She entered the hall. Like always she was standing in the corner.

"Hi, brothers and sisters. The break was over. Now we are going to introduce ourselves to our friend. Don't worry. We are not going to call you one by one up here to introduce yourself. Your facilitators hold some boxes that contained small paper. In that paper contains a number. The one who picks the same number is in one group. So please picks your number." Senior Ting Quan gave his order.

The new student went to the facilitators that holding the boxes. Everyone was picking their number including Yu Qi. Her number was number 10. She was looking around searching for group number 10. The students started to call their number. With that, she found her group.

However, she found out she was unlucky. That Fung Meng Xuan was in her group too. It was very unlucky of her. She sighed. In the group, there were about 20 students. She might don't have to interact with Fung Meng Xuan at all.

"Okay, I see everyone already in their group. I will explain this slot. You can introduce yourself to everyone. The first student introduces herself or himself. Then the next student, remember to say the student name before her or him before you introduce yourself, okay? You can tell anything about yourself during the introduction. But make sure it is not long. There will be two facilitators that will monitor you. Have fun." Senior Ting Quan ended his speech.

The facilitator began to introduce herself. It will be continued until Yu Qi's turn. The person before her was named Liang Heng Pao.

"Hi Liang Heng Pao and everyone. I'm Tang Yu Qi. I came from S Town. Taking a medical course. Nice to meet you." Yu Qi made a short introduction.

"Yu Qi...Yu Qi... Wait are you the one with the full scorer in the nation?" Someone called Ting Mong in the group asked Yu Qi.

"Well...yes." Yu Qi made an awkward smile.

"Wow, that 'Yu Qi' in my group. Never expect that 'Yu Qi' in our group. Nice to meet you, Yu Qi. Oh, sorry, can I call you Yu Qi?" Another student called Hong Jeng Ping, he asked her permission.

She smiled. It will be weird if she did not give permission about that. "Okay."

"Okay, guys, let's finish our introduction first. You can chat later." The facilitator, Senior Sheng Mei calmed her group.

Then the introduction continued. All the student finished introduced themselves.

"We still have time to finish this slot. You can talk among yourself." Senior Sheng Mei said.

"Yu Qi, what method you used to get the perfect score in all subject."

"Yu Qi, I admire you. I glad that I'm in the same group as you."

"Yu Qi, what are you used as your skincare? You look so beautiful."

Yu Qi was attacked by the people in her group. She was smiling and responding to each of them. Only Fung Meng Xuan, Yu Qi ignored her completely.

Facing Fung Meng Xuan like this, it triggered her past. When she asking for her reason on doing that thing. Her hate toward Fung Meng Xuan was increased. She could still remember that pain that she felt that time. Her hands...Her legs...Her desperate situation.

"Sheng Mei, I'm done the task."

That voice. She did not forget that voice. She remembered that voice. Totally remembered it.

'Bai Shu Jin. It's really you.'
