

INTELLIGENT 911

Chapter 911 - 911: Went To See Mu Rong Xie

"Sister Yu Qi, can I follow you?" Dian Qi Qi heard that and asked.

Yu Qi was wandered for a moment. After that, she nodded. "Sure. You can."

Pei Xian asked whether he needed to follow her or not. Yu Qi told him that he needed to be at Grandpa Tang's side. She could protect herself.

So, Yu Qi went to Mu Family House together with Dian Qi Qi. They just took a taxi to go there. Her arrival had been expected. So, the security had been informed.

Su Yu Qing welcomed Yu Qi. The expression on her face twitched a little bit since she saw Dian Qi Qi.

"Welcome Miss Tang." Su Yu Qing smiled. "I have never thought that you will bring a friend together."

Su Yu Qing observed Dian Qi Qi. 'What a weird attire.' But somehow she felt that she had met the girl before. She just could not remember.

She also felt that even though Yu Qi could come to their house, she should not bring her friend together. Her house was not a normal house for Yu Qi to bring her friend along.

"I have gotten the call from you when I was together with this girl. I should not abandon her just because of your call." Yu Qi made a lie.

When she got the call earlier this morning from Su Yu Qing, Dian Qi Qi was not present. She did not even know Dian Qi Qi at that time.

"Oh..." Su Yu Qing could not say anything.

"Let's go and see Second Miss Mu." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Su Yu Qing nodded.

Arriving at Mu Rong Xie's room, Su Yu Qing stopped them before entering the room.

"I hope Miss Tang understand that Rong Xie does not like an outsider. So, this girl can not enter." Su Yu Qing pointed to Dian Qi Qi.

"Why? I am just standing quietly." Dian Qi Qi protested.

"As I have said earlier, my daughter does not like outsiders." Su Yu Qing told them once again.

"Wait for me. I will be back." Yu Qi patted Dian Qi Qi gently.

"Bring her to the living room. Treat her with some tea and dessert." Su Yu Qing told the maid.

So, Dian Qi Qi left with the maid.

Yu Qi entered the room together with Su Yu Qing. The room was dark. The windows and the curtains were closed, which did not allow the light to enter the room.

Yu Qi frowned. "Open the windows and the curtains." She asked.

"But Rong Xie will get angry." Su Yu Qing said.

"How do you expect me to check her condition in the darkroom like this?" Yu Qi asked in a ridiculous tone.

Su Yu Qing seemed to understand. She told the maids to open the windows and the curtains.

Mu Rong Xie was sleeping at that time, frowned as she felt the sunlight shine on her face. She opened her eyes and angrily shouted to close back the windows and curtains.

"Rong Xie, don't be angry. Miss Tang is here to check your condition." Su Yu Qing tried to calm down her daughter.

Mu Rong Xie got up and saw Yu Qi who was watching her. Her face still had some wounds.

"Why is she here again?" Mu Rong Xie screamed again. "My face has still not healed. She is a liar."

Yu Qi approached Mu Rong Xie. She looked at Mu Rong Xie silently for a few minutes.

"Second Miss Mu, you should not blame me since you have chosen this way by yourself." Yu Qi smiled.

"What do you mean by that?" Su Yu Qi asked.

"You have not drunk my medicine, right?" Yu Qi smiled again when she asked the question to Mu Rong Xie.

Mu Rong Xie's body flinched for a second. 'How does she know?' She indeed did not drink the medicine that Yu Qi asked her to drink. The medicine was too bitter. She could not handle the taste.

So, each time Su Yu Qing brought the medicine to her, she would flush the medicine into the toilet. With that, she could make her family believe that Yu Qi was a quack doctor.

"What? Is that true, Rong Xie?" Su Yu Qing looked at her daughter.

"If you have obediently drunk the medicine, the wounds should disappear a long time ago." Yu Qi said.

"Mum, don't believe her. She is lying." Mu Rong Xie shouted.

Su Yu Qing knew that Yu Qi was telling the truth since she knew Mu Rong Xie. When Mu Rong Xie was talking like this, it meant she was lying.

"Rong Xie, don't you want your face to be healed?" Su Yu Qing sighed.

Mu Rong Xie knew that she could not lie anymore, so, she shouted again. "I can't drink her medicine. It is too bitter. It is her fault. Why does she have to make the medicine so bitter?"

Su Yu Qing sighed. "You need to endure the bitterness in order for your face to recover."

"It will be difficult now." Yu Qi said.

"What? What do you mean by that?" Mu Rong Xie asked.

"If you have drunk the medicine in the range of time, it should have healed nicely. Now, the dosage of medicine needs to be increased." Yu Qi looked at Mu Rong Xie's wounds.

Her eyes shined as she looked at the wound. She felt that the poison that she had made evolved to another level.

"And also, I need to take some sample of her wounds to be researched. I will come back later to take the sample." Yu Qi said. "Do you have the medicine anymore?"

"Yes, but the amount left..." Su Yu Qing felt awkward.

"I will bring the medicine but remember to pay me." Yu Qi did not forget about money.

Chapter 912 - 912: She Flushed The Medicine Into The Toilet

Dian Qi Qi was enjoying the cookies when suddenly someone started to talk to her.

"What are you doing here?"

It was Mu Kuang He who had just returned home. He was shocked to see Dian Qi Qi in his house. Dian Qi Qi was also a student at his university.

The girl was famous due to her clothes. Well, a person who wore gothic lolita would be famous among normal people.

Dian Qi Qi turned around and looked at Mu Kuang He. She did not know him. So, she ignored him and focused her attention back on the cake in front of her.

Mu Kuang He knew that she would ignore him since she did that to everyone whom she did not know. He then grabbed a maid and asked about the situation.

The maid explained that the girl came along with Yu Qi. Mu Kuang He was surprised to hear that Yu Qi was here too. It had been a while since her last visit. She had probably come here because of his second sister.

Yu Qi came back. Dian Qi Qi took down the cake and jumped towards Yu Qi. Yu Qi patted Dian Qi Qi again.

"You are like a cat who likes attention." Yu Qi laughed.

Dian Qi Qi just smiled. She did not know why she felt very attracted to Yu Qi.

"Mrs Mu, I will come back tomorrow." Yu Qi informed Su Yu Qing.

"Okay. Sure." Su Yu Qing nodded as she watched the two girls leave the house.

"How's Sister Rong Xie's condition?" Mu Kuang He asked his mother.

"Turn out she has flushed the medicine into the toilet. That is why she is still not healing." Su Yu Qing said.

"What? Why will Sister Rong Xie do that?" Mu Kuang He was dumbfounded.

"Why? Because the medicine is too bitter. Sigh... That child." Su Yu Qing answered.

"What the heck?" Mu Kuang He felt stupid. Usually, for the sake of beauty, a woman was willing to endure any pain as many women went under the knife to fix their appearance. They wanted for themselves to be beautiful. none/1b/1n

But her second sister, just because the medicine was too bitter, so, she did not drink it and allowed her faces with the wound. Isn't that crazy?

Yu Qi left Mu Family House together with Dian Qi Qi. The place was a high profile residential area, there was no taxi that was around since people thought their taxi services were not needed here. Yu Qi was kind of regretting taking a taxi earlier.

"Sister Yu Qi, I will call my driver, okay?" Dian Qi Qi voiced her suggestion.

"Oh, sure." Yu Qi nodded. 'Does this girl come from a rich family?'

Dian Qi Qi immediately called her so-called driver. Not long after that, there was indeed a car that came by and stopped in front of them. The car was a low key car but still over one million.

"Young Miss, please enter the car." A middle-aged man said to Dian Qi Qi.

Dian Qi Qi pulled Yu Qi's hand and entered the car. The middle-aged man seemed to be surprised as he watched his young Miss reacting that way with another young Miss.

"Where do you want to go, Young Miss?" The middle aged man asked.

"Home. Thank you in advance, Uncle Raimon." Dian Qi Qi said to Raimon.

"Sure, young Miss." Raimon nodded.

So, the car started to move to go to their destination.

"Since Sister Yu Qi has already introduced her grandfather to me, I will introduce my great-grandfather too." Dian Qi Qi smiled.

"Okay." Yu Qi did not see any problem with that.

One hour later, they were already at their destination. Well, it was for sure that the place was at the mountain. The mansion was hidden in the forest. Yu Qi wondered what kind of family, Dian Qi Qi had actually come from.

"Welcome home, young Miss." An old man came to greet Dian Qi Qi and bowed.

He then lifted up his head because he knew that the young Miss was not alone. She came back with a guest. When he saw the face, he was extremely shocked.

"Eldest lady?" The old man said as he saw Yu Qi's face.

Yu Qi was confused with the name that the old man called her. 'Eldest lady?'

"What are you talking about Grandpa Ray?" Dian Qi Qi asked Grandpa Ray. She was also confused with Grandpa Ray's reaction when seeing Yu Qi.

Grandpa Ray seemed to realise his behaviour. He then bowed while apologizing to both girls. "Please forgive me."

"This is my new friend, Sister Yu Qi. I come here to have lunch with her and my grandfather. I also want to introduce my new friend to my grandfather. Is he available?" Dian Qi Qi asked about her grandfather.

"Old Master must be happy since young Miss wants to have lunch with him." Grandpa Ray said.

"Young Miss, you can go and meet the Old Master. He is in the study room. Meanwhile, I will prepare a delicious lunch for you." Grandpa Ray said.

"Okay. Thank you, Grandpa Ray." Dian Qi Qi nodded.

Grandpa Ray left and both Yu Qi and Dian Qi Qi walked in. It was a huge mansion. The interior design looked like an oriental Chinese design.

"Xiao Qi, please wait a minute." Yu Qi seemed to remember something.

"What is it, Sister Yu Qi?" Dian Qi Qi looked at Yu Qi.

Chapter 913 - 913: Coincidence

"I need to call my grandfather to tell him that I am having lunch with you. So that, he does not have to wait for me." Yu Qi said

"Sure." Dian Qi Qi nodded.

"But it seems that there is no signal around here." Yu Qi looked at her handphone.

"Oh, here, you need to use our phone to call the outside world." Dian Qi Qi said as she remembered something.

Yu Qi was astonished as she heard about that. It seemed that this mansion was disconnected from the outside. Who on the earth lived at a secluded place like this and why? Yu Qi was very curious about the matters.

Dian Qi Qi brought Yu Qi into a room.

"Here, you can call Grandpa Tang using this phone." Dian Qi Qi showed a phone.

Yu Qi used the phone to call Grandpa Tang and told him that he could have lunch ahead. Grandpa Tang said okay because he already promised Grandpa Su to eat lunch together. He also called Grandpa Sang together.

It would be boring for Yu Qi to have lunch together with three old men. So, it was okay for Yu Qi to have lunch with someone else.

"Done." Yu Qi said to Dian Qi Qi.

"Okay. Let's go and meet with my great-grandfather." Dian Qi Qi said.

So, Yu Qi went to follow Dian Qi Qi to meet her great-grandfather. The study room was located in the deepest corner of the mansion. If someone who was unfamiliar with the place wanted to go to the study room without the guide, they probably lost.

Seeing this, Yu Qi got more curious about the family. Normal people would not have such a complicated layout for their houses.

"Xiao Qi, is it okay for me to come to your grandfather's study room?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah, don't worry about it." Dian Qi Qi said while smiling.

Arriving at the study room, Dian Qi Qi knocked on the door. A few moments later, the door was opened from the outside. A middle-aged man with a stern face opened the door. He looked at Dian Qi Qi and Yu Qi.

"Young Miss." He bowed over.

"Hi, Uncle Henry. What is my great-grandfather doing right now?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"He is reading. Who is this?" Henry looked at Yu Qi.

"This is my friend, Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi introduced Yu Qi to Henry.

Then Henry was glancing at Yu Qi sharply. Yu Qi also felt some pressure coming towards her.

'Interesting.' Yu Qi commented in her mind as she looked unaffected by Henry's pressure. Henry narrowed his eyes as he saw the girl did not seem to be bothered due to his pressure.

Henry could feel that the girl was not a normal girl. He should be cautious of this girl. He was afraid that the girl had another intention of coming to this place.

"Can we enter now?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Yeah. You can enter." Henry gave way for them.

Yu Qi felt that she was entering a different world. It felt like she was time travelling to the ancient world. She looked around and saw an old man who was reading at the window.

When she looked at that old man, she felt like she knew him but she could not remember who he was.

"You are here, Xiao Qi." The old man said without lifting up his head.

"Yeah. I come here to introduce someone to you." Dian Qi Qi said.

"Hmm... who is it?" The old man asked. Then he looked up.

The moment he looked up, he saw Yu Qi behind Dian Qi Qi. The book that he was holding, fell onto the ground. He went straight towards Yu Qi and hugged her.

"Xiao Yi, you finally come back." The old man was hugging Yu Qi while crying on Yu Qi's shoulder.

Both girls were dumbfounded by this situation. Even Henry who stood not far away from there was confused when looking at the situation.

"You finally came back. I miss you so much." The old man was still mumbling.

Yu Qi did not know what to do. So she just let the old man do that for a while. After seeing that the old man had finally calmed down, the old man finally let her go.

"Great-grandfather, are you okay?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Xiao Qi, thank you for bringing back my daughter." Great-Grandpa Dian said to Dian Qi Qi.

"What? Your daughter? Great-grandfather, this is my friend, Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi said to Great-Grandpa Dian.

Great-Grandpa Dian looked at the girl beside Dian Qi Qi. He stared at Yu Qi hard. She had a very similar face as his beloved daughter. But how could someone did not age at all, after so many years?

He finally connected the dots. The girl was not his daughter.

"Young girl, I am sorry for behaving like that with you." Great-Grandpa Dian apologized for his behaviour just now.

"It's okay. I don't mind." Yu Qi just smiled.

"Great-grandfather, why do you thought Sister Yu Qi was your daughter in the first place?" Dian Qi Qi asked as she was curious about that.

Great-Grandpa Dian looked at Yu Qi with a complicated face. "She has a similar face as my daughter. The only difference is her eyes." When he was observing the girl for another look, he noticed that difference.

"Oh, I see. Such a coincidence does exist." Dian Qi Qi said.

Chapter 914 - 914: She Was An Orphan

Yu Qi narrowed her eyes as she heard about the description of the daughter, Great-Grandpa Dian had mentioned.

"Oh, I have never heard about it. Can I take a look at her picture?" Dian Qi Qi said as she requested to take a look at her grand-aunt's picture.

Of course, none of his great-grandchildren knew about it. Her daughter ran away from home at a young age. She was rebellious and disliked being restricted.? Great-Grandpa Dian sighed. He just let her go. She then never came back home.

Great-Grandpa Dian took out one picture. In the picture, a girl who looked like Yu Qi stood and was smiling brightly. She was around 17 or 18 years old.

If someone who knew Yu Qi would tell people that the girl in the picture was Yu Qi. However, when taking a closer look at the picture, they would know there was a difference in their eyes between Yu Qi and the girl in the picture. n-OvelB1n

"You really look like each other." Dian Qi Qi nodded. Her great grandfather did not lie to them.

"Is her name Dian Yi Yi?"

Great Grandpa Dian turned around swiftly and looked to Yu Qi who had asked that question. "How do you know?"

"Well... She is my biological grandmother." Yu Qi stretched her index finger towards the photo.

"What!!!"

Both Great Grandpa Dian and Dian Qi Qi turned towards Yu Qi with expressions full of shock.

Yu Qi was also surprised by this discovery. In her past life, she just knew that her biological grandmother was an orphan.

Her biological grandfather, Grandpa Mu also did not talk much about his wife. Probably he would get sad if he talked about his wife because he loved his wife so much.

Even after so many years, his wife's died, he still could forget his wife. Yu Qi once saw that Grandpa Mu was crying alone in his study room while holding his wife's picture.

"Is that the truth?" Great Grandpa Dian grabbed Yu Qi's shoulder.

"I don't know if my grandmother is your daughter or not. Because from what I know, she was an orphan." Yu Qi said.

Hearing that answer, Great Grandpa Dian let go of Yu Qi's shoulder. His face showed a sad expression.

"That is probably my fault. I am the one who has made her say something like that." Great Grandpa said. He then continued. "She was a cute girl. Somehow after she turned into a teenager, she became rebellious. She liked to go against my word.

Then, she wanted to work. But I did not allow that. She wanted to run away. She got caught by me. I told her if she ran away again, I would not admit that she was my daughter anymore."

Great Grandpa Dian held his tears.

"So, when did she leave?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah after hearing that she would be married." Great Grandpa Dian nodded regretting his decision back then.

He thought when his daughter got married, she would mature. Turned out, she disliked that so much and ran away and felt that she was already an orphan.

"Tell me how is she right now?" Great Grandpa Dian asked.

Yu Qi was silent for a second before answering. "She had died a long time ago after giving birth to my father."

Great Grandpa Dian fainted when hearing that news.

"Elder Master!!!" Henry ran towards his master.

"Great Grandfather!!!" Dian Qi Qi screamed.

Yu Qi swiftly supported Great Grandpa Dian before he could fall down on the group.

"I will call the doctor." Henry quickly ran towards the phone at the table.

Yu Qi got him laying down. She took his pulse. She was panicking as she knew about the reading.

She then brought out her needles bag. She placed the needles in the several acute points of Great Grandpa Dian.

Great Grandpa Dian was about to get attacked by a stroke. She did not want that to happen. So, she quickly blocked the attack using acupuncture.

"What the hell do you think you are doing?" Henry shouted angrily at Yu Qi after making the phone call.

He was terrified as he saw the several needles on his master's body. He wanted to pull the needles out from his master's body. But his hands had been slapped away by the girl.

"Don't touch them. You will endanger him." Yu Qi glared at Henry.

Henry was shocked after being glared at like that. This aura was the same as his master. He felt that he was facing his master.

Yu Qi continued to place the needles. Then she took the pulse reading again. Feeling that Great Grandpa Dian was finally out of danger, she took a relief breath. She took out the needles one by one.

Seeing Yu Qi pulled out the needles out from her great-grandfather, she asked Yu Qi. "Is he okay?"

"Yeah. He is fine, right now." Yu Qi nodded.

Dian Qi Qi immediately hugged Yu Qi while crying. It was her first time seeing her great grandfather like this. It was terrifying.

Yu Qi calmed down Dian Qi Qi.

Then the door was opened by someone

"Grandfather!!!" One of the two men shouted and ran towards Great Grandpa Dian after seeing him laying down on the ground.

"Doctor, please check my grandfather." The man asked.

Another man quickly checked Great Grandpa Dian's condition. The doctor was stunned for a moment.

The others who were waiting for the doctor's answer were very nervous as they saw the doctor's expression.

Chapter 915 - 915: Their Grandfather Had A Daughter?

"Elder Master Dian is okay. He is just sleeping right now." The doctor announced.

Everyone was relieved after hearing that.

"But he was about to get attack by a stroke just now." The doctor dropped a bomb.

"What?" Everyone was shocked.

"Can we talk after bringing Great Grandfather into his bed? We can not let him stay on the floor like this." Dian Qi Qi said.

The men also agreed with that. They lifted up Great Grandpa Dian and brought him to his bed.

They moved to another room afraid that their discussion would disturb Great Grandpa Dian's sleep.

"Doctor, what do you mean by your last statement just now?" It was Dian Jung Gi who spoke. He was the eldest grandchildren of Great Grandpa Dian.

"Yeah. We would like to know about that." Dian Ling Shi, the fourth grandchildren of Great Grandpa Dian and also the father of Dian Qi Qi.

"He was indeed being attacked by stroke but someone stopped the attack." Doctor Guin said.

"It must be Sister Yu Qi's work." Dian Qi Qi said.

"Qi Qi, what are you talking about?" Dian Ling Shi asked her daughter.

They just noticed that someone unfamiliar was sitting beside Dian Qi Qi. They looked at the girl.

"Just now, Sister Yu Qi put the needles on Great Grandfather's body after he fainted." Dian Qi Qi said.

"That girl probably performed the acupuncture on Elder Master. But I never heard that it can stop a stroke attack." The doctor was a little confused.

"Great Grandpa Dian was almost being attacked by Ischemic stroke. The brain's blood vessels become narrowed or blocked, causing severely reduced blood flow. Doing the acupuncture at some point at the body would dissolve the blocking." Yu Qi explained.

The doctor nodded understood what the girl meant. "Are you a doctor?"

"To be honest, I am not an official doctor since I have just finished my study." Yu Qi humbly admitted it.

"No wonder. But acupuncture is not included in the syllabus." The doctor said.

"My grandfather insisted I learn it. It is useful for the first aid too." Yu Qi said.

"Is your grandfather a Chinese traditional practiser?" The doctor said.

"Well, he practices both." Yu Qi thought about that.

"Not many practices both of them. They used to practice western medicine. Not like the legendary doctor, Tang Jiang Man." The doctor showed an admiring look as he mentioned him.

"Tang Jiang Man? Sister Yu Qi, isn't your grandfather's name Tang Jiang Man?" Dian Qi Qi asked Yu Qi because she remembered meeting Grandpa Tang this morning. n-.OvelB1n

When the doctor heard that, he turned to Yu Qi for confirmation. Yu Qi awkwardly nodded. Then, the doctor's eyes shot the admiration look at Yu Qi.

"Can I meet him?" The doctor asked.

"Well... My grandfather has already retired. He dislikes attention. I am sorry. But I will try to ask my grandfather." Yu Qi could not force her grandfather if he did not want to.

After seeing the doctor had calmed down a little bit, Dian Jung Qi stopped up and thanked Yu Qi for saving his grandfather.

"Miss, thank you for saving my grandfather." Dian Jung Qi was willing to bow to the younger generation. It showed that Great Grandpa Dian was very important to them.

"It is nothing. I have done what I need to do." Yu Qi said.

"Yes, First Uncle. Beside Yu Qi is..." Dian Qi Qi did not have enough time to have time to finish the sentence.

Because they heard Great Grandpa Dian's voice asking for the person.

"Where are you?" Great Grandpa Dian said.

"Grandfather."

"Grand Grandfather."

"Where is she? Where is my grand granddaughter?" Great Grandpa Dian asked them.

"Qi Qi, come here." Dian Ling Shi called his daughter.

"Not her." Great Grandpa Dian shook his head. He then saw Yu Qi. "Come here. Let me take a look at you."

Dian Jung Gi, Dian Ling Shi and the doctor were surprised to hear this. Yu Qi went closer to Great Grandpa Dian.

"No wonder, you have the same face as her. You are really her grandchild." Great Grandpa Dian held Yu Qi's hand. "If I have not chased out my daughter back then, she might still be alive and you can enjoy your life as my great-grandchildren."

"We can not predict life. If you chase her out back then, I am probably would not be born in this world." Yu Qi said.

Dian Ling Shi and Dian Jung Gi were confused. Their grandfather had a daughter? It was the first time they knew about this. Well, it seemed that they needed to ask their father about this matter. He would know better about this.

"Let's eat lunch together. You come here to have lunch together with me, right?" Great Grandpa Dian wanted to stand up.

"Grandfather, you should rest." Dian Ling Shi said.

"Humph!!! I want to have lunch with my great-granddaughters. Xiao Qi, Yu Qi, let's go." Great Grandpa Dian already stood up and called his great-granddaughters.

Dian Ling Shi wore an awkward expression. He felt like he had been abandoned by his grandfather. He then changed his thoughts. Another matter was important. That girl... Even though his daughter and his grandfather seemed to believe that girl, he needed to be careful about this.

Many people wanted the benefit of being Dian Family's relative. He felt that the girl wanted that.

Dian Jung Gi observed Yu Qi from behind. He had the same thought as his younger brother.

Chapter 916 - 916: Must Investigate The Matter

The lunch was very pleasant, especially to Great Grandpa Dian. He finally saw this great-granddaughter that he just knew her existence for an hour ago.

"Yu Qi, I want you to acknowledge your ancestor." Great-Grandpa Dian said.

"Grandfather." Dian Ling Shi protested.

"Grandfather, we need to investigate this matter very carefully." Dian Jung Gi also voiced his opinion.

"That's right, Great-Grandpa Dian. You must investigate this matter carefully. What if my late grandma is not your daughter? It will be terrible." Yu Qi said.

Both Dian Ling Shi and Dian Jung Gi were surprised to hear Yu Qi support their opinion. This girl probably did not know about their family. That was why she said something like that. If she knew that, she would rush to acknowledge her ancestor.

Both of them seemed to forget that that girl was the legendary doctor's granddaughter. There was no need for her to do such a thing.

"Okay." Great-Grandpa Dian could just give up his idea for now.

"Sister Yu Qi, when will you go back to Binhai Nation?" Dian Qi Qi said.

"Why do you want to go such a far place?" Great-Grandpa Dian asked.

"Great-Grandfather, I come from that place. I am only here because of work." Yu Qi answered.

"What? How come..." Great-Grandpa Dian was surprised when he heard about that.

"It is true. I have grown up in Binhai Nation." Yu Qi nodded.

"No wonder I have never seen you before." Great-Grandpa Dian sighed. Then he suggested. "How about you stay here for a few days?"

"I don't think that it is a good idea. My grandfather will be worried about me." Yu Qi wanted to reject.

It was because the two men were staring at her consciously. It was not comfortable.

"Sister Yu Qi, you can discuss with it your grandfather since he is also here." Dian Qi Qi was excited to have Yu Qi slept over together with her.

"Your grandfather is also here. Good. Let me see him. I want to know the man who has married to my daughter." Great-Grandpa Dian said.

Yu Qi was silent. She actually did not want to tell them her story. But she did not want her grandfather to get mistaken with this.

"No... He has not married to my late grandmother." Yu Qi said.

"Oh, you mean she is your maternal grandmother?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"No... She is my paternal grandmother... but...." Then she sighed. "The grandfather that you have met earlier is my adopted grandfather. I have been adopted into the family when I was 17 years old." She began to tell her story.

"What?" Everyone was shocked after hearing that.

"Where are your parents?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"I don't know. I heard from the orphanage that I was left behind at the gate at their orphanage before being adopted by a family. My life is a little hard with the old family." Yu Qi continued.

"What? Grandpa Tang did not do anything to help you?" Dian Qi Qi could not believe that such a good old man would let Sister Yu Qi suffer like that.

"You are wrong. The family that I first being adopted from was not my current family. Grandpa Tang is the one who took me away from my previous adopted family." Yu Qi corrected Dian Qi Qi.

"But I do recognise my biological grandfather recently. He is Fanghai Nation's people. He is the one who got married to my late grandmother, Dian Yi Yi." Yu Qi continued her story.

"Who is he? Can I meet with him?" Great-Grandpa Dian asked.

"I am not sure if he can meet you or not since he is pretty busy himself. His name is Mu Guang Qi." Yu Qi said.

Great-Grandpa Dian and Dian Qi Qi did not react much when hearing the name but both Dian Ling Shi and Dian Jung Gi looked at each other in shock.

They knew the name. It was a big name in the business world in Fanghai Nation. This girl was his granddaughter? Even though their family was okay in finance but still they could not defeat the king.? If the girl did not target them for money, then she might target for something else, they began to worry more.

"Then, you should know where are your parents right now?" Dian Qi qi asked.

"According to my biological grandfather, they ran away after he disapproved them to be together. Until now, there is no news about them." Yu Qi was also frustrated about it.

"Sister Yu Qi, your life is miserable." Dian Qi Qi was sad for Yu Qi. "But now, you have us."

"It is not confirmed that I am actually related to your family." Yu Qi smiled.

Well, deep in her heart, she was confident that they were indeed related to each other. But both Dian Ling Shi and Dong Jung Gi were not so confident about that.

They were very wary about her. It must be something related to their family. The family did not seem to be normal at all. The situation in the house, the labyrinth-like path, and the disconnection with the normal line telephone.

"Okay. I will investigate it. Can you come over tomorrow as well?" Great-Grandpa Dian knew that both of his grandsons would help him to investigate the matter. But still, he wanted to see the girl since she had his daughter's face.

"I have already promised Xiao Qi that I will accompany her." Yu Qi said.

"Sister Yu Qi, we can accompany Great-Grandfather together." Dian Qi Qi did not mind it.

Chapter 917 - 917: Similar To Aoi

Yu Qi went back and explained everything to Grandpa Tang

"You are lucky that you can actually meet them." Grandpa Tang felt that his granddaughter was very lucky.

Not everyone could meet with their relatives after so many years.

"Well, but the men from their family said that they still need to investigate it further. I know that some of them are afraid that someone might have some intention towards their family, so they are wary of me." Yu Qi smiled.

"So, will you go to their place again tomorrow?" Grandpa Tang asked.

"Yeah. There is something that I need to check." Yu Qi remembered that there was some poison in Great-Grandpa Dian's body.

She wanted to confirm it tomorrow and confronted Great-Grandpa Dian about it. She noticed something when she was giving the acupuncture to him earlier.

Someone wanted to poison him. She noticed the poison already in Great-Grandpa Dian's body in such a long time. Great-Grandpa Dian probably noticed it too.? If today's incident did not happen, Yu Qi probably would not know about that.

"Okay. I will be at your greenhouse." Grandpa Tang said.

"Are you looking for something interesting?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes." Grandpa Tang nodded excitedly.

...

"Where do you want to go today, Qi Qi?" Wei Sha Lin, Dian Qi Qi's mother, asked when seeing her daughter who was getting ready to go out after breakfast.

She could see that her daughter seemed to be excited about going out. She was sure that her daughter was not going to the university.

"I am going to go out with Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi said.

Wei Sha Lin remembered that her husband mentioned the girl. She was afraid that the girl wanted to use her daughter to get closer to their family.

"My dear, just be careful with her. You know our family's situation." Wei Sha Lin could just advise her daughter.

"Don't worry Mum. I don't think Sister Yu Qi is a bad person." Dian Qi Qi nodded.

Wei Sha Lin was hoping so. She did not want her daughter to face disappointment.

Dian Qi Qi went outside. Today she used her driver to go to Yu Qi's hotel. She then called Yu Qi. Turned out Yu Qi had just finished her breakfast with Grandpa Tang and Pei Xian.

She informed Yu Qi that she had already arrived at Yu Qi's Hotel. Then, she saw Yu Qi walking out of the hotel together with Grandpa Tang and another man.

"Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi waved her hand.

Yu Qi saw it and waved back.

"Brother Pei, please protect my Grandpa." Yu Qi said before leaving.

"Don't worry about it, Miss Yu Qi." Pei Xian nodded.

Yu Qi approached Dian Qi Qi. Dian Qi Qi called her all night and told her that she wanted to hang out together. When Yu Qi asked about her study, Dian Qi Qi just told her that she did not have to worry about that.

Yu Qi did not want her to skip out her classes. So, she wanted to reject Dian Qi Qi's invitation. Then the girl told her that she did not have a class tomorrow.

And with a slight proud tone, Dian Qi Qi told Yu Qi that she had a good result. Afraid that Yu Qi did not believe her, she even showed her results to Yu Qi.

It seemed that Dian Qi Qi was not lying to Yu Qi because the girl did have a good result. Then, Yu Qi agreed to hang out with Dian Qi Qi. The girl seemed to be happy with that.

"Morning Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi greeted Yu Qi.

"Morning." Yu Qi entered the car.

"Sister Yu Qi comes from Binhai. So you probably don't know about our country. I will bring you to visit some interesting place around here." Dian Qi Qi said.

"Sure... sure..." Yu Qi agreed.

To be honest, she indeed did not know much about the country. Even though she lived here for almost 5 years in her past life. She used to learn everything that she thought she needed in order to fit into the family. So, she did not go out for fun.

"Sister Yu Qi, you don't have to worry because I am a good tour guide." Dian Qi Qi patted her chest proudly.

Yu Qi felt that the girl was very cute. She wore the gothic lolita attire but a different style from yesterday. Today, it was more simple.

"I trust you." Yu Qi nodded.

So, the first place that Dian Qi Qi brought Yu Qi to was Akiba Garden. It was a place that was similar to Akihabara, Japan but in a smaller size.

Yu Qi never knew that the place exist in Fanghai Nation before. It was her first time knowing this place. Getting out of the car, Yu Qi could see that the street was bursting with people walking around.

It was a weekday, but still, there were a lot of people who had come to this place. Dian Qi Qi seemed to fit in the place perfectly with her outfit because many people wore the same outfit. Many of them also wore cosplay's outfits.

Dian Qi Qi looked at Yu Qi's outfit. It was too simple. She wanted to doll up Yu Qi.

"Sister Yu Qi, can you do me a favour?" Dian Qi Qi asked with a hopeful expression.

Yu Qi felt cold on her back. However, she could not reject her because her current expression right now was similar to Aoi when he wanted to eat. She could not bear to reject her.

"What is it?" Yu Qi asked.

"Can I dress you up?" Dian Qi Qi asked with an expected look.

"Erk... Okay..." In the end, Yu Qi agreed.

Dian Qi Qi immediately smiled. "Okay. Let's go, Sister Yu Qi." She pulled Yu Qi to follow her.

The first place that they entered was the clothes shop. Yu Qi did not whether to laugh or not. She felt that Dian Qi Qi was very similar to her aunties who liked to dress her up.

But of course, the clothes that Dian Qi Qi wanted to choose for her was a little bit out of her style.

The shop helper excitedly greeted Dian Qi Qi. "Miss Dian, welcome back to our heaven."

"Yeah. Today, I want to choose an outfit for my Sister Yu Qi." Dian Qi Qi pointed to Yu Qi.

The shop helper looked at Yu Qi. Her eyes lifted up when she saw Yu Qi. She seemed to see a diamond in front of her.

"I am sure that your sister's body is suitable for all kinds of clothes. Let's find something that suits her the most." The shop helper said to Dian Qi Qi.

So, the beginning of choosing an outfit for Yu Qi was going on until 2 hours later. Yu Qi changed the outfit countless times. Until they finally made their choice.

The outfit that they chose was the upper was the qipao with the bottom was the skirt. When Yu Qi wore this, both of them snapped a lot of pictures.

Yu Qi gave a reminder to the shop helper that she should not use the picture anywhere since she did not have any intention to get famous with the outfit.

The shop helper nodded understanding the situation. She knew that the girl should not be offended since she knew that Dian Qi Qi came from a rich family. The girl with her was probably the same.

Dian Qi Qi also snapped the pictures together with Yu Qi. She wanted Yu Qi to wear the outfit for the rest of the day. But Yu Qi did not want to. She felt embarrassing.

Dian Qi Qi knew that she should not force Yu Qi. She was afraid that Yu Qi would be angry and leave her. It was her first time liking someone like this. She did not want to ruin it.

But she bought the outfit for Yu Qi. Yu Qi accepted it. Then, they left the shop after spending two hours there. They walked around.

Then, there was some chaos that could be heard behind them. Then, they were about to turn around, their body had been held by two men.

"Stop. Otherwise, we will hurt these girls." One of the men shouted.

It seemed they were criminals who were being pursued by the police. Yu Qi and Dian Qi Qi had been held by the criminals as a hostage.

"Please don't hurt them." The police said to the criminals.

"Let us go." The criminal shouted.

"Sure, just don't hurt them." The police tried to calm down the criminals.

"Prepare the car and money for us." The criminals demanded.

"Yes. Yes." The police nodded.

"Mister, are you sure that you don't want to let me go?" Dian Qi Qi asked in an innocent tone.

"Shut up and do what I say," The criminal said to Dian Qi Qi.

"Then, I will not hold back." Dian Qi Qi smiled.

She then did a back throw to the man who held her. The man was laying on the ground growling in pain. Dian Qi Qi then stepped on the man's head once and kicked in the stomach.

The partner of the criminal saw this and was shocked. Yu Qi took the opportunity to elbow the man's stomach. Feeling she had not been restricted anymore, she escaped. She turned around, lifted up her leg and gave a kick to the man. The man was flying back twenty meters before falling unconsciously on the ground.

"How dare you touch me?" Dian Qi Qi said as she looked down at the man.

The man had already fainted due to the pain. The police and onlookers who watched the scene were dumbfounded by this.

The two girls were really ruthless. One did the back throw, another one kicked the man until he flew twenty meters away. How strong that was. They never thought those cute girls like them would be so strong.

"Mister Police, you can catch them now." Dian Qi Qi said to the police with an innocent look.

"Tha... Thank you." The police said awkwardly. He then ordered his subordinate to catch the criminals.

He felt pity for the criminals. If they did not catch and hold the girls as their hostage, they would have a thin chance to escape but they made a wrong decision by making the girls their hostages.

The two girls left the place. The men who wanted to call the girls backed off immediately after seeing the incident. They thought that the girls would be an easy target. But after seeing the incident, they gave up. They loved their life more.

"Sister Yu Qi, you know to fight?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Yeah. It is important for us to protect ourselves. You also know it." Yu Qi said.

"Yeah. For me, it is a necessity for a Dian family member to know how to fight." Dian Qi Qi smiled awkwardly. Then she said excitedly while looking at Yu Qi. "But Sister Yu Qi, you look so awesome when you have given the man a kick."

"You also look cool when you have done the back throw move." Yu Qi praised Dian Qi Qi.

Chapter 919 - 919: Being Poisoned

After hanging out for another two hours, Dian Qi Qi brought Yu Qi back to the mansion when they had gone yesterday. Yu Qi told her that there was something that she needed to check with Great-Grandpa Dian.

Grandpa Ray saw the girl who came together with Dian Qi Qi yesterday came again, he was smiling. He was the longest person who was together with Great-Grandpa Dian, so, he knew that Old Master had a daughter who ran away later.

He also felt that the girl was a relative of the Old Master's daughter. Otherwise, how could a person have a similar face as the daughter?

"Welcome back Young Miss, Miss Tang." Grandpa Ray welcomed them.

"Hi, Grandpa Ray." Dian Qi Qi greeted Grandpa Ray.

Yu Qi was smiling and nodded at Grandpa Ray.

"Is my great-grandfather in his room?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Yes." Grandpa Ray nodded.

"Okay. We will see him." Dian Qi Qi said.

"I will ask someone to bring some refreshments later." Grandpa Ray nodded.

The girls went to Great-Grandpa Dian. Again, they used the same path to go there. Since Yu Qi had a photographic memory, she already remembered the path.

When they arrived there, Henry opened the door when Dian Qi Qi knocked on the door. He bowed respectfully to Dian Qi Qi and did not glance at Yu Qi at all. It seemed he was suspicious of Yu Qi.

"Qi Qi, Yu Qi." Great-Grandpa Dian smiled as he saw his great-granddaughters here.

Even though his grandsons wanted to investigate the matter regarding Yu Qi but he had already believed that she was indeed his great-granddaughter.

"Great-Grandpa Dian, may I take your pulse?" Yu Qi asked.

"Sure." Great-Grandpa Dian nodded. novE)13/1n

Henry then looked intensely at Yu Qi. Yu Qi ignored him and read Great-Grandpa Dian. She noticed that Great-Grandpa Dian heartbeat was not normal. Sometimes it was beating slow then for the next minute, it was beating faster.

She already knew what kind of poison was inside Great-Grandpa Dian. She had read in the book in her space. It was a tasteless and colourless poison. Someone would never know that he or she just drank the poison.

They would only know after experiencing the pain in their chest. Sometimes, people took it like heart disease. The poison was not going to kill the person but to torture the person.

Yu Qi then took a look at Great-Grandpa Dian's face. Nothing changed. It seemed Great-Grandpa Dian really knew how to control his facial expression.

"It really hurts, right?" Yu Qi asked.

Then Great-Grandpa Dian changed his expression. Henry who watched them closely saw the change. He then tried to attack Yu Qi. However, his punch had been caught easily by Yu Qi.

Henry was shocked. Even though he only used about 50% of his strength, the girl should not easily catch his hand like that.

"Henry, stop!" Great-Grandpa Dian ordered Henry in a harsh tone.

Henry quickly stepped back. Yu Qi did not say anything. She just glanced at Henry for a moment before turning back to Great-Grandpa Dian.

"Qi Qi, can you step out from the room for a moment? You too, Henry." Great-Grandpa Dian said in a command tone.

Dian Qi Qi reluctantly got out of the room. Henry also stepped out in the heavy steps. After the two were out of the room, Great-Grandpa Dian turned to Yu Qi.

"How do you know about it?" He meant about the poison.

It was a lost poison. There was no record of the poison in the world after the person who poisoned him died. After the person died, he had burned all the records.

"I am a doctor. At the same time, I am a poison expert. I have come across this poison before." Yu Qi calmly answered it.

Great-Grandpa Dian suddenly laughed. "My great-granddaughter is very good."

"Who poisoned you?" Yu Qi asked.

Then Great-Grandpa Dian's face turned bitter. The one who poisoned him was his best friend. Before his best friend died, he did not know about it. Right after his best friend died, someone passed the letter to him. It was from his late best friend.

When he read that letter, he was shocked by the content. In the letter, his late best friend told him that he had been poisoned by him. He also stated what poison it was.

His late best friend wanted him to suffer. As for the reason why he had been poisoned, his late best friend was angry that he snatched the woman he( the best friend) loved.

"He has also burned all of the records. I don't want to worry anyone so I have kept quiet about the matter." Great-Grandpa Dian sighed.

"How long you have tolerated the pain?" Yu Qi asked.

"I don't remember that exact time. But I think it has been 80 years." Great-Grandpa Dian said.

Hearing this, Yu Qi burst into tears. '80 years. He had been dealing with the pain for such a long time.'

"I am sorry that I have found you this late." Yu Qi was crying as she apologized.

"Child, why are you crying? It is not your fault." Great-Grandpa Dian patted Yu Qi's head.

Yu Qi was crying when remembering her past life. In her past life, she never knew about his existence. Then he probably had been tortured by the pain until he died. The thought made her cry harder.

"I will cure you." Yu Qi said.

"You really can cure me?" Great-Grandpa Dian asked with hope. Even though he was already this old, he really wanted to get released from the pain.

"Yes." Yu Qi nodded confidently.

Chapter 920 - 920: The Treatment Plan

She went straight into her space after returning to the room. She wanted to research more about the poison before making the cure for Great-Grandpa Dian.

She even told Grandpa Tang that she was having a period's pain and wanted to rest. She also told him that she did not want to get disturbed. Grandpa Tang wanted to check her condition. But she rejected him and told him that she would be alright after one day of resting.

Shino, Aoi and Bo Ya were worried when seeing their master came back with swollen eyes. It indicated that their master had cried hard for a long time. They were staring hard at Yu Qi.

Yu Qi was uncomfortable with their staring. She was smiling weakly at them. Before this, Dian Qi Qi also stared at her asking for the answer for her swollen eyes.

"Don't worry. I am okay. Just something happened." Yu Qi said something to comfort her little cuties. "I want to research something. Don't disturb me."

"Okay." The three of the little cuties obeyed their master's order.

Yu Qi went to the poison room. She went through the archives where she read about the poison in Great-Grandpa Dian's body.

After spending about 12 hours in her space without resting, she finally managed to make the cure of the poison. Thank goodness that the herbs that she needed were available in her space. So, there was no need for her to go out and search for the herbs.

She wanted to go to Great-Grandpa Dian right away but seeing the time, she gave up the thought.

Great-Grandpa Dian had probably already slept. She would go to him tomorrow and gave the cure to him.

Her body also needed some rest. She then went to her room and fell into sleep.

.....

"Miss Tang, you are also here today?" Grandpa Ray was surprised to see Yu Qi in the morning. And she was all alone.

"Has Great-Grandpa Dian already woken up?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes. He has just finished his breakfast and gone to his study room." Grandpa Ray said.

"Can I meet him right now?" Yu Qi requested. Her face showed the urgency of the matter.

Seeing this, Grandpa Ray nodded after thinking for a few moments. "Come. I will lead you."

Yu Qi followed Grandpa Ray to Great-Grandpa Dian's room. As usual, Henry was the one who opened the door. He narrowed his eyes as he saw Yu Qi behind Grandpa Ray.

"What are you doing here?" Henry asked.

"Henry, she is Old Master's guest. Mind your language." Grandpa Ray reminded Henry.

Henry was only silent when Grandpa Ray reminded him but his eyes did not stop glaring at Yu Qi.

"Is it Yu Qi? Let her in." The Voice of Great-Grandpa Dian could be heard.

"Great-Grandpa Dian." Yu Qi called him. "How is your condition?" She asked. n/-o-)p)-E-(l)(b.)l-/n

Grandpa Ray and Henry who listened to Yu Qi's question was a little bit confused.

"Master, are you feeling unwell?" Grandpa Ray was concerned about Great-Grandpa Dian.

Great-Grandpa Dian looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi nodded.

"To tell you the truth, I have been poisoned." Great-Grandpa Dian revealed the truth.

"What!!!" Grandpa Ray exclaimed.

"It must be you." Henry pointed to Yu Qi. He wanted to kill Yu Qi.

"Henry, stop!" Great-Grandpa Dian said loudly.

Henry was stunned at his place. He could not fight against Great-Grandpa Dian's words.

"She is going to save me." Great-Grandpa Dian said.

"But, Master..." Grandpa Ray could not believe Yu Qi 100%. After all, she was a person that they just met two days ago.

"She knows that I have been poisoned by reading my pulse and even recognized the poison that is in my body. She has come here only to cure the poison. I have been waiting for 80 years ago for someone to come and cure me." Great-Grandpa Dian told them.

"Why don't you tell us, Master?" Grandpa Ray asked. He was shocked when his master told them that he had been poisoned for about 80 years.

"All the doctors that came and do medical check-ups for me did not find anything about the poison. That is because they did not have knowledge about the poison." Great-Grandpa Dian continued.

"The treatment is extremely terrifying. You will feel the pain ten times from the normal one. Do you seriously want to continue this treatment?" Yu Qi wanted the confirmation.

"Yes." Great-Grandpa Dian nodded confidently.

"Because the poison had been in your body for a long time ago, the time to force the poison out, I estimate is one to two days. When I start, we can't stop until the end. Otherwise, our effort will be ruined." Yu Qi explained the plan.

"What? Then, are you going to be okay?" When Great-Grandpa Dian heard the plan, he was worried about Yu Qi. How did she would be okay doing the treatment without resting?

"Don't worry about me. When I present the treatment, I am confident that I can do it." Yu Qi smiled.

"Master, you should think about it properly. Or we should call other doctors to oversee the treatment." Grandpa Ray suggested.

"I don't mind if someone watches me doing the treatment but I am hoping that no one disturbs me during the treatment." Yu Qi said.

"Let's do it." Great-Grandpa Dian said to Yu Qi.

"Okay. Let's do it tonight. Can I request you to prepare a room for me? I will like to rest before the treatment." Yu Qi said.

"Sure." Great-Grandpa Dian nodded.
