Chapter 931 - 931: Miss Him So Much

"Are you going back?" Dian Qi Qi asked.

"Then, it has been a while since we have come here." Yu Qi said.

"Can you stay here?" Dian Qi Qi asked back.

"I am sorry. We are here to do some business. It is unexpected to meet you." Yu Qi explained. "Don't worry. I will come here again in the? future."

"Okay..." Dian Qi Qi showed a sad face. "Next time, you are going to stay at our house. Not this house."

"Okay... okay..." Yu Qi nodded.

Yu Qi had been told that their family had been living separately. The mansion in the mountains only was where Great-Grandpa Dian lived.

Yu Qi and Grandpa Tang left the mountains, escorted by some people who were guarding the house. They had been told that Yu Qi was their young miss.

They had been escorted until they reached the greenhouse. Yu Qi thanked them before they were leaving.

Su Fan who had just arrived at the greenhouse saw the scene. He came out and walked towards Yu Qi.

"Are you okay?" Su Fan asked.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded. "Where is your grandfather? We want to meet him before going back to Binhai."

"Oh, I think he is inside." Su Fan said.

So, three of them entered the greenhouse together. Grandpa Su was teaching someone about the plants.

"Su Jin." Grandpa Tang called him.

Grandpa Su turned around and saw the three of them. He spoke to the person whom he was teaching. Seeing the person nod, he left him and approached them.

"Yu Qi, thank goodness you are safe." Grandpa Su knew the situation.

"Thank you for worrying about me." Yu Qi smiled.

"We are leaving." Grandpa Tang said.

"Oh, I see. When?" Grandpa Su asked.

"Our flight is tonight." Yu Qi answered.

"I will visit again." Grandpa Tang said. He was happy since there were a lot of interesting things here.

"Okay." Grandpa Tang smiled.

...

The flight touched down safely at the airport. Yu Qi, Grandpa Tang and not to forget, Pei Xian returned to Shiwa Town.

Hang Chu Xiao welcomed them happily. She was probably happy since her beloved person had returned. Yu Qi had some time to tease Hang Chu Xiao, making both her and Pei Xian got red faces.

Seeing the scene made Yu Qi miss that person a lot. She wanted to see him. Remembering that it was the weekend, she decided to go to the military compound.

After saying that to Grandpa Tang, she went out. Grandpa Tang shook his head several times, watching his granddaughter.

Yu Qi drove her car to the military compound. Since it was a weekend, some citizens came to visit their family members here. Yu Qi went to the post guard.

The soldiers already knew Yu Qi. They gave her a salute. Yu Qi was speechless but she nodded at the soldiers.

"Miss Tang, you can enter and wait at the allowed area. We will inform people inside about your arrival." The soldier said.

"Oh, okay." Yu Qi nodded and walked inside the cafe where citizens were allowed to sit while waiting for their family members to come.

Indeed, there were some families who were talking to the soldiers. Then after twenty minutes of waiting, her body had been pulled into a hug. She just let her body got hugged since she knew the one who was hugging her. She also replied to the hug and hugged back.

"I miss you." Long Hui rested his head onto Yu Qi's and breathed on his beloved Qi Qi's fragrance.

"I miss you too. Are you busy?" Yu Qi asked.

"No." Long Hui quickly denied it.

Well, he was busy. But after hearing that his beloved Qi Qi came to visit, he pushed the work aside. Well, the work was not urgent. He could finish it later.

Yu Qi chuckled. She knew how busy he was. He was lying to her. She just wanted to see his face and would return soon.

After a while, Long Hui released Yu Qi from his hug. He looked a look at Yu Qi. Seeing that she was okay, he was relieved. As Yu Qi had predicted, he knew about her being missing.

He was on a mission at that time when the report about Yu Qi came. He read the report after getting the second report telling that Yu Qi was safe.

If he had gotten the report saying she had not been found, he would fly to Fanghai Nation right away to search for her.

"Tell me, what is actually happening?" Long Hui asked.

Yu Qi smiled. She was right. Pei Xian indeed reported something to him.

"I found my family on my grandmother's side." Yu Qi was happy to tell Long Hui about it.

"Oh... Good for you." Long Hui was happy for Yu Qi.

Yu Qi told him everything that happened to her. Meeting with Dian Qi Qi by the coincidence, ti ending up reuniting with her biological family on her grandmother's side. She also told Long Hui about the poison and how she had treated her great-grandfather which made her sleep for 3 days straight.

"Then are you okay, right now?" Long Hui asked in a worried tone.

"After sleeping for 3 days straight, how can I not be fine?" Yu Qi laughed about that.

"Please be careful while treating the patients. Don't use that method ever." Long Hui begged.

"Okay... okay... I don't think that I will use the method on another person. I have used it because I know he is my family." Yu Qi said. "I will use everything that is available to save my family including you."

"I know." Long Hui nodded as his fingers were playing with Yu Qi's fingers

Chapter 932 - 932: Another Delusional Woman

While Long Hui was talking to Yu Qi, someone was watching them. After listening to the story from her comrade about Long Hui was meeting a woman in the cafe, she ran to see who the woman was.

She was surprised to see Long Hui who was talking to the woman with a soft expression. She never saw Long Hui with that expression since she knew him.

And she never thought that she would see him with that expression. She heard about the rumour that Long Hui had a girlfriend and he even got engaged with the woman.

However, she ignored it. She thought that it was the way Long Hui had used to block women who came asking to be his girlfriend. She never thought that it was the truth.

She observed the woman. The woman looked like a soft woman who could not fight at all. She felt that the woman was not suitable for Long Hui.

Long Hui needed someone who understood his work and could fight beside him. Yeah, someone like her.

She was Zhu Shanggun, the granddaughter of the current general, General Zhu Guang. He was a soldier. She was also a soldier. He was the grandson of the former General and she was the granddaughter of the current General.

However, everything that she saw today crushed her thoughts. The reality forced her to accept what in front of her was.

She was startled when suddenly the woman's eyes fell on her. The woman watched her for a few seconds before moving her gaze away.

She felt that the woman had mocked her by telling her that she could not have Long Hui as she was there. She trembled in anger. But she managed to calm it down.

After a half-day together with Long Hui, Yu Qi wanted to return home. Of course, it was hard to separate from Long Hui. Not like she could stay there.

Long Hui was also sad when Yu Qi was about to leave. Thinking about the work, he sighed.

"I will start working at the hospital and may not have time to come here anymore." Yu Qi said.

"Don't worry. I will go and meet you." Long Hui quickly replied.

"Okay. Go. I can go by myself. You should complete your work." Yu Qi said.

"Okay." Long Hui said.

"I will call you later." Yu Qi made a call signal.

"Then I will be waiting." Long Hui nodded.

Long Hui finally left. So, Yu Qi also wanted to return home. She walked to the parking lot.

However, in the way, she was blocked by someone. She remembered seeing the woman who had blocked her right now, at the cafe earlier.

"Hello." The woman said.

"Oh, hi." Yu Qi replied.

The woman looked up and down at Yu Qi. Yu Qi could feel that the woman was looking down on her.

"Is there something?" Yu Qi said.

"You are not suitable for Colonel Long. You should give up." The woman said.

"Huh?" Yu Qi gave an unbelievable look to the woman.

"The one who should be at his side is the one who can fight together with him. Not some wallflower." The woman said. Then without waiting for any reply from Yu Qi, the woman left.

Yu Qi was speechless. 'Is she another woman who is attracted towards Brother Hui?' It must be. Yu Qi then forgot her and started to walk again towards the parking lot.

The newspapers were still reporting about the update of Wei Zhu Feng's news. Wei Zhu Feng had betrayed the trust given by the government, so it was a huge matter.

Aside from him, Ling Zhu Yao and Wei Hai Jin also got the attention of the citizens about the kidnapping case which they had committed. They had kidnapped many young girls and sold them as slaves.

Ling Zhu Yao had been criticized by many people because she was a girl too. How could she kidnap other girls and sold them just like that?

Ling Zhu Yao still denied her involvement in the case. But the authorities were not listening to her due to the evidence that they had managed to gather.

Ling Zhu Yao's family tried to get some help from others. But it had hit the news, people who were friends with Ling Family separated themselves from them.

They had some friends who worked in the government but they ignored them and did not want to meet them at all.

Ling Man sighed as he thought about it. He did not manage to get help from others. nove.1b(1n

Ling Wang took a break from his work because he could not stand the looks given by his colleagues. Sometimes he heard some people talking about his daughter which made him feel very embarrassed.

Song Ci was crying every day when remembering her daughter who was currently in the police's custody. She wanted to see her daughter but the police did not allow her to go and see her daughter.

She managed to see her daughter once. And at that time, she made a scene at the police station saying that the police was horrible, arresting her daughter. So, the police banned her to come and see her daughter.

"Father, please save Zhu Yao." Song Ci cried.

"Do you think I am not trying? I am trying but no one wants to help us." Ling Man said.

"My daughter... my daughter..." Song Ci cried again.

"Father... what should we do right now? At this momentum, Zhu Yao will go to jail." Ling Wang said.

"This is your fault. You did not teach your daughter properly. Otherwise, she would not get involved in this." Ling Man shouted.

Ling Wang and Song Ci were silent when Ling Man exploded in anger.

Chapter 933 - 933: First Day As Houseman Doctor

Yu Qi stayed at Shiwa Town for two more days. She handled the rest of her work. At night, she had been called by Long Hui. He was very busy. For the next two days, he would go to M Country for a mission. He did not tell about the mission.

So, Yu Qi hoped that he would take care of his body and would not act recklessly. She even joked by telling him that his body was her property.

Long Hui promised that he would take good care of her property and return it to her in a good state.

After a while, they ended the call.

Yu Qi returned to FINN City to start her career as a resident doctor. She reported herself to the Tang Private Hospital. She had been given to work under Doctor Zhu Shang.

Doctor Zhu Shang was a surgeon doctor who had about 15 years of experience. Yu Qi who was determined to be a surgeon felt excited about having Doctor Zhu Shang as her supervisor.

On the first day, Yu Qi had been given the task to check all of the patients who just had surgeries. She did not realize that it was almost lunchtime. She just realized when her brother, Tang Han Lee came and invited her for lunch.

"Big Brother." Yu Qi greeted him.

"Busy?" Tang Han Lee asked.

"Oh, I am just reading some medical information about the patients." Yu Qi said.

Tang Han Lee looked over the documents that his little sister was reading.

"Well, let's have lunch together. I don't have any patient for now." Tang Han Lee said.

"Okay." Yu Qi nodded.

Yu Qi arranged her table and followed her big brother. Before they managed to get out of the room, they were blocked by Tang Jin Wei.

"What are you doing here?" Tang Jin Wei looked at Tang Han Lee and asked him.

"Probably the same purpose as you." Tang Han Lee said.

"I am late then." Tang Jin Wei sighed.

"What are you talking about?" Yu Qi looked at her brothers.

"Nothing. Let's go and have lunch together." Tang Jin Wei said.

Then, three of them walked into the cafe. They had the eyes following them as they walked inside the canteen.

The nurses were talking among them.

"It is our princes."

"They are so handsome."

"Wait, why do they seem to escort the girl? Who is the girl?"

"You don't know her, do you?"

"What?"

"She is the princess of the Tang Family. Our princes' sister."

"It will be perfect if the other brother of them has joined them."

"Doctor Tang from the neurology department is usually busy with his research. He never eats lunch at the cafe."

"Hey, then, who is that?"

The nurses looked in the direction which their friend pointed to. They were surprised to see the doctor that they had just been talking about was in front of them. He walked to his siblings.

"Brother Qin Hao, you are here too. Let's have lunch together." Yu Qi said as Tang Qin Hao was close to them.

"Hmm... Okay." Tang Qin Hao nodded.

So, four of them went to the cafe and ordered some food. As usually, they attracted attention as they walked into the cafe. They sat at the table much far from others.

"It is a surprise to see Qin Hao come out from his room in the afternoon to eat." Tang Jin Wei said while grinning at Tang Qin Hao.

"Is it that rare?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yeah." Tang Han Lee nodded.

"It must be my first day here that Brother Qin Hao wants to have lunch together with me." Yu Qi shamelessly bragged about it.

"Yeah." Tang Qin Hao admitted it easily.

Yu Qi, Tang Jin Wei and Tang Han Lee were silent. They were currently eating but stopped at that moment. They stared at Tang Qin Hao with an unbelievable look on their faces.

"Are you serious?" Tang Jin Wei asked.

"Do you think I am joking?" Tang Hao Qin glanced at Tang Jin Wei.

Then, Tang Jin Wei and Tang Han Lee were laughing. Yu Qi was just smiling as she looked at Tang Qin Hao. The atmosphere was very harmonious as people looked at them.

"How's the work for today?" Tang Qin Hao ignored the laughter and asked Yu Qi about the work.

"It is okay. I can handle it." Yu Qi did not think the work was hard. It was fun since it was the thing that she wanted to do.

"If there is something, just refer it to others. They will help." Tang Han Lee gave the advice too.

"Okay." Yu Qi said. "By the way, where is my future sister in law?" Of course, that question was given to Tang Jin Wei.

Tang Jin Wei coughed for a second before answering Yu Qi's question. "She is absent today."

"Oh..." Yu Qi looked at Tang Jin Wei while smirking.

Yesterday, Tang Jin Wei did not return home. According to her aunties, Tang Jin Wei recently spent the night at her girlfriend's house. How did her aunties know? Of course, they tied... Oh, no, they asked him nicely.

"What?" Tang Jin Wei asked when he saw the look in his sister's eyes.

"Nothing." Yu Qi grinned.

"Your smirk means something." Tang Jin Wei narrowed his eyes.

"Big Brother, I am just smiling at him. Nothing else." Yu Qi turned to Tang Han Lee.

Tang Jin Wei rolled his eyes.

"Okay... Okay... I will say it. Brother, don't forget to use protection." Yu Qi teased Tang Jin Wei.

"You!!!" Tang Jin Wei pointed to Yu Qi.

"Oh, lunchtime is over. I have to go back to work. Bye, Brothers." Yu Qi quickly ran away from that place.

Everyone who saw the scene chuckled. They did not know what they were talking about but it seemed their relationship was very close.

Chapter 934 - [Bonus ] 934: Have Ability To A Good Surgeon

Yu Qi already got used to her duty. She made a quick and good decision for the patient. Doctor Zhu Shang noticed her efforts.

In the beginning, she dislike Yu Qi for a little bit. She assumed that Yu Qi got into this hospital because of her family background. But after observing the girl for a while, she understood.

The girl was a gem in the medical world. Yu Qi proved to her that she (Yu Qi) had the ability to be a good doctor. Doctor Zhu Shang read what Yu Qi wrote in the cover letter that she wanted to be a surgeon and she really aimed for it.

Doctor Zhu Shang had already heard about Yu Qi's deed when she was the intern. Doctor Zhu Shang, of course, had some friends over there. The doctors over there praised Yu Qi highly.

And what the shocking thing that Doctor Zhu Shang heard was that the girl became a lead surgeon on one of the surgeries done when the natural disaster had happened.

After that, Doctor Zhu Shang invited Yu Qi to listen to the meeting where she discussed the surgeries that would take place. Yu Qi gave some good opinions about the method of the surgeries that would be used in the surgery theatre.

In the next two months after Yu Qi started her job, Doctor Zhu Shang began to ask Yu Qi to shadow her in the surgery theatre. Of course, Yu Qi was happy about that.

Yu Qi entered the ward where she was going to check a patient who just came out of Laparoscopic Appendix Removal (Appendectomy) Surgery. Before going to the ward, she had already read about the patient's information. no ve(lb-1n

The patient requested to discharge earlier. But the hospital did not allow it. Doctor Zhu Shang asked Yu Qi to go and check the patient and determine if the patient was in good condition or not to be discharged.

When she stopped in front of the door, there were a pair of bulky men who were standing there in black suits which indicated their identities as bodyguards, blocked her from entering the room.

"What is your purpose?" One of the men asked.

"The patient has requested to discharge. So, I have come here to check his condition." Yu Qi answered without feeling a bit scared.

"Wait here." The man said before he entered the room himself.

Yu Qi nodded and did not mind waiting outside. She remembered that this ward was a private ward. The patient inside was probably someone who came from rich people.

Not less than 30 seconds, the man came out and invited Yu Qi to enter. When she entered the room, she saw another three bulky men. Two were guarding the windows and another one was standing beside the patient bed.

Yu Qi then looked at the patient's face. Nie Feng La. With an unchangeable expression on Yu Qi's face, she began her job.

"I am Doctor Tang. I will check your condition to see whether you can be discharged or not." Yu Qi introduced herself and told him about her purpose.

Nie Feng La nodded. Yu Qi checked the wounded areas. There was not any swelling in these areas. Then she checked the temperature. It was normal.

It was important to check the temperature because in some cases, there were some patients had a fever over 101 degree Celsius after doing the procedure.

"Do you feel any severe pain in your stomach?" Yu Qi asked.

"No." Nie Feng La answered simply.

"Are you feeling nausea or something like that?" Yu Qi asked again.

"No." Nie Feng La answered again in one word.

Yu Qi seemed to write something on the file. She then nodded.

"I think you can get a discharge tomorrow evening. You need to be hospitalised for tonight. If you still don't have any complications tomorrow, you can get a discharge." Yu Qi said to Nie Feng La.

"Okay." Nie Feng La quickly obeyed the doctor's word.

The bodyguards who were listening to their young master twitched their lips. Just now, their young master had insisted on getting discharged. But now, after having such a beautiful Doctor checking on him, he became obedient.

"I will leave first. Take a good rest." Yu Qi said before leaving the room.

Yu Qi was on duty tonight. After checking the patient named Nie Feng La, she was free. Then she went to her usual spot when she was on night duty. Not because she neglected her duty but there was no work on the night unless it was an emergency.

The place was Tang Qin Hao's office. Tang Qin Hao was doing his research. At first, she just visited one night. During that time, they talked a lot about the human brain. Yu Qi was also interested in it.

Who knew in the future, she would receive some cases regarding the human brain, it would only help her in need. As usual, they talked a lot.

Yu Qi told Tang Qin Hao that she would be going to the staff dormitory to take a nap. Hearing that, Tang Qin Hao offered his room to take a nap.

The staff room was indeed prepared for the doctors who doing their night duty to take some rest. However, Tang Qin Hao felt that the room was not safe for his sister to rest because it could be accessed by other doctors.

The room was inside Tang Qin Hao's office. It was completed with a bed, a sofa and a closet. No wonder he did not return home, he had a bedroom here.

"You can use the bed. I don't use it often. And I have just changed the sheet this morning." Tang Qin Hao said.

"Oh, thank you, Brother Qin Hao. I will take a nap." Yu Qi entered the room while Tang Qin Hao continued doing his work.

Chapter 935 - 935: Scary Looking Men

Yu Qi completed her job for today. Doctor Zhu Shang did not give her any task for today. So, she cleaned up her table and prepared to go home.

"Doctor Yu Qi, are going home already?" A nurse saw Yu Qi taking her bag from the locker.

Yu Qi preferred other staff to call her Doctor Yu Qi to avoid confusion since her uncles and her brothers had the same surname.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded.

"It is a surprise because you usually stay at the hospital late." The nurse said.

"My job is complete for today. I will go now. Bye." Yu Qi said goodbye and left.

When she was about to walk towards her car, she was blocked by some men in black suits. She frowned. What did they want by blocking her like this? The parking lot for staff was usually a quiet area. Not many people were here. The visitors were not allowed to park their cars here.

"Who are you?" Yu Qi asked.

"Doctor Tang, we hope you can follow us. Our young master wants to meet you." One of the men said.

"No." Yu Qi rejected it with one word.

"Doctor Tang, I hope you can follow us. Otherwise, we will make you follow us." The men said threatening Yu Qi in the process.

"Oh, I would like to see what you would do." Yu Qi smirked. She then looked around searching for a CCTV camera.

The men seemed to know what Yu Qi had been searching for.

"Doctor Tang, people would not know what is going on here." The man said.

"I see." Yu Qi understood what the man meant by that.

They had probably already touched the CCTV Camera to avoid the problem. Yu Qi sighed.

"I see. I will not hold back then." Yu Qi put on her bag on the road.

In a split second, Yu Qi was already in front of the man who spoke to him. She gave a punch straight on his stomach. With that force, the man knelt on his knee while holding his stomach. It was very painful.

Without wasting any time, Yu Qi beat up the other two men. They were laying down on the road groaning in pain. They never thought a woman like her would be so strong. Even the trained men like them had been beaten up by her.

Yu Qi slowly collected her bag. Yu Qi looked down at the men.

"If your young master wants to meet me, ask him to come here to see me by himself." Soon, she walked away from the place and to her car.

...

Qi Qi Skincare recently launched sunscreen cream. It became a hit since when the time it had launched, it was the summer season. A lot of people who liked to go to the beach purchased the sunscreen and was very satisfied with the effect given by the product.

The sunscreen protected the skin very well. People in Binhai disliked when their skin became tanned as they played at the beach. The sunscreen protected their skin very well from becoming tanned.

As usual, there were some fake products that emerged to make some profit from Qi Qi Skincare. The people who bought the fake product complained about the product on the internet. Then, more of the comments supported the articles.

Yu Qi read about the articles during her lunchtime. She narrowed her eyes. She made a call to Sang Yu Min, her employees.

"Miss Yu Qi." Sang Yu Min answered the call.

"Have you read about the articles?" Yu Qi asked. She did not tell what articles it was.

"Don't worry, Miss Yu Qi. Our team has already discussed the appropriate solution for the matter." Sang Yu Min said.

"Good. I will wait for it." Yu Qi nodded.

The call ended. Yu Qi did not want to keep useless employees that could not think a solution when the problem occurred. She knew that the employees that she chose would be good at doing their work.

Late on the evening, Qi Qi Skincare had released the statement regarding the articles. Qi Qi Skincare advised the person to delete the articles they had posted. Otherwise, the company would sue the person who wanted to damage the good name of the company.

Qi Qi Skincare assured the public that their products were safe to use and had been tested by a government lab and had been approved by them. The company even posted the certificate that they got from the government lab.

The company claimed that the person who wrote the articles bought the fake product from the other website or store. Qi Qi Skincare had its official store and website. If the person claimed to buy the genuine Qi Qi Skincare sunscreen, then they could go to the official store and represented the receipt from the official store and website.

Yu Qi was satisfied with the response given by the company. Yu Qi was on duty for tonight. As Yu Qi was checking the patient, the nurse on the registration counter came running towards her.

"Doctor Yu Qi, please come to the counter." The nurse said in exhaustion.

"What's happens?" Yu Qi asked.

"There is someone who has comes and wants to see you. He has come with some scary looking bodyguards." The nurse explained.

Yu Qi thought for a while. She remembered one person in her mind.

"Let's go." Yu Qi said.

When Yu Qi and the nurse arrived at the counter, the place was quiet. The nurses around looked with caution at the man who casually sat at the chair surrounded by his bodyguards.

Chapter 936 - 936: Courting Her

'Nie Feng La.' Yu Qi remembered the name of the patient who was discharged from the hospital last week. He was here due to the appendix removal surgery.

"What do you want by requesting my presence? Do you want my consultation for something?" Yu Qi asked without feeling scared by the looks of the bodyguards.

"You have told my bodyguards if I want to see you, I need to come here by myself. So, here I am." Nie Feng La said while smiling.

"Yeah. So, what do you want from me?" Yu Qi asked again.

Before Nie Feng Lan had time to answer the question, someone came and pulled Yu Qi behind him, protecting Yu Qi from Nie Feng La's eyes. Yu Qi was stunned as she realized who the man was.

"Brother Qin Hao." Yu Qi called in a low tone.

Nie Feng La saw the man who had suddenly pulled Yu Qi and blocked his sight from Yu Qi, frowned. He looked at the man. The man's face was expressionless as he also looked at Nie Feng La.

Tang Qin Hao left the room leaving his research work as soon as a nurse came to inform him about the dangerous man who had come and requested specifically for his sister.

"Brother Qin Hao, let me talk to him first." Yu Qi calmed down her brother who seemed to be angry.

Tang Qin Hao looked at Yu Qi and nodded. He released the hand which he had been holding before.

"Is this your boyfriend?" Nie Feng La narrowed his eyes.

"There is nothing to do with you. Just tell me what do you want from me?" Yu Qi asked the question again.

"Ahem..." Nie Feng La faked a cough.

Then, one of his bodyguards handed something to him. It seemed that it was a small box. Then, he handed the box to Yu Qi.

"Here. This is my thank you for checking on me last time." Nie Feng La said.

Yu Qi did not take it.

"No need for this. I will not accept it since it is my job as a doctor." Yu Qi rejected it.

Nie Feng La paused. He then recovered back the box. "I see."

"How is your wound?" Yu Qi remembered about the surgery.

Seeing that the woman worried about him, Nie Feng La smiled. "I am already okay."

"Then, you should have no meaning to come to the hospital, right?" It was an around-about statement saying that he should not have to come to the hospital again.

Nie Feng La was not stupid. He understood what Yu Qi meant by that.

"If you are sick, then you can come." Yu Qi added.

"A patient is having a breathing problem." The nurse came and reported.

Hearing that, Yu Qi left immediately following the nurse towards the patient. Tang Qin Hao stayed there and looked at Nie Feng La. He could feel that this man was a dangerous man. He did not want Nie Feng La to approach Yu Qi.

"Stay away from my little sister." After saying that, Tang Qin Hao left the place.

Nie Feng La was silent as he watched the man. 'So, he is her brother.' He smiled to know the fact.

"Let's go." Nie Feng La said to his bodyguards.

So, the area became quiet again after Nie Feng La left.

"This is scary." One of the nurses who watched the whole thing was relieved that the scary-looking men had finally left.

"Yeah. But Doctor Yu Qi was calm confronting them." Another nurse said.

"That man just came for Doctor Yu Qi."

"But from what we can see, they already met before."

"Of course, they met before. That man was one of our patients. He was discharged last week. Doctor Yu Qi was the one who went to check his condition before he was discharged."

"Then, he fell in love with Doctor Yu Qi at that time?"

"Probably."

"But I heard Doctor Yu Qi already have a fiancée."

"So?"

"She should not flirt with another man."

"Hey, you. Which eyes do you see Doctor Yu Qi flirting with that man?"

The nurse who accused Yu Qi of flirting with the man was silent. She was looking awkward.

"Okay.... okay... Let's end this discussion here. Do your work." Another nurse smoothed things up.

That nurse who was silent was Ye Sui. She was a newcomer too. She was beautiful too but when comparing to Yu Qi, she was behind.

When she was first working here, she had become the attention to others, men and women. The men usually came to talk to her and the women usually praised her beauty and then asked for beauty tips.

After Yu Qi joined, the attention that she received before had decreased. They usually talked about Yu Qi. And she heard about Yu Qi's fiancée. Some of them saw her fiancée once and praised how handsome the man was.

Ye Sui became jealous. Then when the earlier man came and looked for Yu Qi. The man was not so bad. And the most important was he was rich. Just looking at his bodyguards. Who needed the bodyguards if he was not rich or powerful?

That Yu Qi must be flirting with that man when she was checking his condition. Otherwise, that man would not act like that.

However, she was angrier when her colleagues defended Yu Qi like that. She also heard the head of nurses praised Yu Qi several times. She felt that Yu Qi got lucky to have a powerful family. If she had a powerful family like that, people would praise her instead.

Chapter 937 - 937: Excited

Yu Qi finally received an e-mail from Mr Jack about their cooperation. The email was saying that if she wanted to co-operate with him, she needed to show some sincerity.

Yu Qi was smiling as she read the email.

'Sincerity... Hmm... What should I do?'

Then her eyes twitched. She had decided. Since she already knew what that person wanted, she would prepare the best for him.

It was a day off for Yu Qi. She had already made a plan. It had been a long time since their last meeting, Yu Qi wanted to see her fiancée.

Turned out, Long Hui also had the same intention. It was his day off too. He did not want to make his beloved Qi Qi tired, so he drove to FINN City to meet her.

After breakfast, Yu Qi got ready to go out. Her aunties were teasing her.

"Oh my... Your face is shining today." Ming Yue chuckled.

"Someone will meet her beloved today. Of course, her face is shining." Su Xiao added.

"Aunties..." Yu Qi blushed in red as she heard the tease.

"It is good to take care of your relationship." Su Xiao said. n0Ve/lB)1n

"Yeah. Don't be like your brothers. They only know how to work. The girls who are dating them are very miserable." Ming Yue rolled her eyes as she remembered her sons.

Tang Jin Wei and Tang Han Lee who were currently doing their job at the hospital coughed twice. The nurses who were accompanying them at that time had even asked them whether they were fine.

Yu Qi laughed when listening to Ming Yue's words. Then, her phone rang. The screen showed Long Hui's name.

"Answer the call quickly." Su Xiao said.

Yu Qi answered the call. It was Long Hui's. He was already outside the house.

"Aunties, I will go first." Yu Qi waved her hand before running out.

"Okay. Have fun." Su Xiao said.

"It is nice to be young." Ming Yue said.

"I am always young." Su Xiao joked.

"Yeah. We are always young." Ming Yue laughed.

Yu Qi saw Long Hui parking the car outside the gate. Sensing Yu Qi was out, he turned around and he was right. His beloved Qi Qi ran towards him.

"Slow down." Long Hui said after he caught Yu Qi in his arms.

"I am excited to have a date with you today." Yu Qi said.

Both of them entered the car and headed towards their first destination. Today's plan was arranged by Yu Qi. She asked some of her colleagues about the interesting place that people could visit as a couple.

Her colleagues gave many ideas that she could use for her date. So, after a few thoughts, she made a plan for today's date.

"Oh, before I forget, have you taken breakfast?" Yu Qi asked.

Long Hui drove here. It was possible that he still did not eat breakfast.

"No. But it is okay..." Long Hui could not finish his sentence.

"That will not do. Let's head to some cafe. It is not good to miss the breakfast." Yu Qi ordered.

Long Hui chuckled as he heard the order. "Okay. I will listen to my princess."

So, they headed to a cafe. Yu Qi ordered a light breakfast for Long Hui and a cup of tea for her. She was still full from her breakfast earlier.

Under Yu Qi's eyes, Long Hui ate his breakfast. Missing meals during the morning was a normal case for Long Hui but since it was Yu Qi's request, he fulfilled it.

Far from their table, there was a group of women who were eating and talking.

"Look at the couple, that man is so handsome."

"That woman is also beautiful. They are matching other each."

"If they enter the entertainment world, they will be instantly famous."

"What are you talking about?" Ye Sui asked her friends.

She did not know what her friends were talking about since she had just returned from the ladies washroom. She was on her break too. So, she invited some of her good friends to hang out together on her day off.

"We are talking about that couple. Look at them. Aren't they handsome and beautiful? They are matching each other." Her friend, Shui Ang Den pointed at the couple.

Ye Sui turned out to look at the couple. She was shocked to see Yu Qi together with a very good looking man. The man looked like a sculpture with his good face and fine jawline. Even the man was sitting, she knew that he was tall from his legs.

'Is he fiance that others had been talking about?' Ye Sui remembered that others said that Yu Qi had a handsome fiance and she loved him very much.

"Hey, the girl is going somewhere. Let's go and ask for his contact information." Another friend, Wang Bien Wen, who had a beautiful face suggested the idea to her friends.

"But he already has a girlfriend." Shui Ang De said.

"Well, he is a man. He probably wants to taste another flower." Wang Bien Wen said.

She was excited when snatching a good looking man from their girlfriends. It was like a hobby for her.

"Bien Wen, don't play with fire." Shui Ang De advised.

"Don't worry. I will be fine." Wang Bien Wen grinned.

She then stood up and walked to the handsome man's table.

"Hello." Using a wanton tone, Wang Bien Wen greeted Long Hui.

However, Long Hui ignored the woman. It was not the first time this had happened.

"Excuse me, can I have your contact information? I just want to befriend you." Wang Bien Wen said again.

She could see that the man did not pay any attention to her. He was looking at his food and sometimes looked in the direction where his girlfriend had gone.

"Mister... Can you hear me?" Wang Bien Wen asked.

"Can you leave? I want to eat in peace." Long Hui turned and glared sharply at Wang Bien Wen.

He then released his murderous aura. Wang Bien Wen stepped back when she looked at Long Hui's eyes. She could not believe the look in someone's eye and it came from someone with good looking.

She heard some chuckles from other tables. She was sure that they were laughing at her. She saw the woman who sat together with the man came back. Feeling flustered and embarrassed, she wanted to get back to the man using his girlfriend.

So, when the woman walked beside her, she purposely let her shoulder hit the woman's shoulder. She wanted to collide and make the woman fell to the ground. However, it was not the woman who fell on the ground but herself.

"Ouch. It hurts." Wang Bien Wen shouted.

'Why did I fall? Is this woman's body made up of iron? Why does it hurt very much?' Not even her butt felt hurt, her shoulder felt severe pain.

"Are you okay?" Yu Qi wanted to help the woman who had collided with her.

But her hand was slapped away by that woman. Yu Qi was dumbfounded by the situation.

"You make me fall just because I am hitting on your boyfriend." Wang Bien Wen shouted the false statement.

"Huh?" Yu Qi was confused.

"It is you who has purposely collided with her. But in the end, you are the one who has fallen." One of the customers said after she heard Wang Bien Wen's accusation.

"Yeah. I have also seen it. Just because you can not get what you want from her boyfriend, you want to embarrass her." Another customer added.

With that, all of the eyes in the cafe fell onto Wang Bien Wen. With the help of the people, Yu Qi finally understood what was going on. She looked down at the woman. She then squatted down and whispered something to Wang Bien Wen.

"Your left butt implants is rupturing. You should go to the hospital now. Otherwise, you will risk your life." Yu Qi whispered.

"What???" Wang Bien Wen panicked.

She stood up and felt the difference in her left butt. It seemed the woman was telling the truth. Without saying anything, she ran toward her table, grabbing her bag and ran out.

Her friends, Shui Ang De and Ye Sui were dumbfounded. They looked awkward as people started to whisper while looking at them. They stood up and went to the counter and paid for their meal before leaving.

When Ye Sui was about to leave, she looked at Yu Qi. Yu Qi also looked at her. She quickly turned around. She was afraid that Yu Qi would recognize her and tell the hospital about this incident.

That hospital belonged to Yu Qi's family. Yu Qi could tell the hospital to fire her. That should not happen. It was so hard to get into that hospital. She regretted that she did not stop her friend from doing that.

Yu Qi recognized Ye Sui. She remembered that Ye Sui was also one of the nurses at the hospital. However, she did not care much about Ye Sui.

"Having someone disturb you again?" Yu Qi chuckled.

"She was asking for my contact information." Long Hui said.

"Then, what did you do?" Yu Qi asked.

"I just glared at her and she left." Long Hui confessed.

"I bet your glare was very terrified making the girl gave up and became angry." Yu Qi smiled.

"She already knows that I am with you but still come here, asking for my contact information." Long Hui rolled his eyes.

"Let's forget about her. Today is our date. Don't let insignificant things ruin our date." Yu Qi said. "Have you finished?"

"Yeah." Long Hui nodded.

"Let's go to our first destination." Yu Qi said.

"Okay."

They paid for the meal and left the restaurant. The first place in Yu Qi's plan was a pottery class. Yu Qi read about the pottery class after her colleagues told her about it.

So, she started to search for a place offering the class for beginners. Luckily for her, she found one. It was in FINN City only. She booked one session for both of her and Long Hui.

Long Hui drove to the place directed by Yu Qi. He did not know what the place was. When they arrived there, he finally knew it. They parked the car.

"Are we doing pottery today?" Long Hui asked.

"Yeah. I want to create something together. So, I think the good way is to create something with pottery." Yu Qi explained to Long Hui.

"Okay, let's go." Of course, Long Hui followed his girlfriend's wish.

They were greeted by a friendly staff. Yu Qi told her that she had booked a session for two. After confirming the reservation, the staff led them to a locker room. There, they were allowed to put their belongings into the locker. They got a piece of an apron.

Chapter 939 - 939: Pottery Date

When they entered the classroom, there were not many people in the classroom. The staff showed their place. Then she left.

The people in the classroom consisted of three women and 4 four men. One of the men approached them with a smile. Yu Qi assumed that he was the teacher who would teach them. And her assumption was correct.

"Welcome to our pottery class. Have you tried the pottery before?" The man, Gu Hao, greeted the newcomers into his class.

"Hello. It is our first time. Please teach us.." Yu Qi said.

"Okay... okay... I assume that you must be a couple, right?" Gu Hao said.

"Yeah." Yu Qi nodded with a slight blush on her cheeks.

"I bet so. It has becomes so popular among the young couple to try the pottery together." Gu Hao gave a small laugh.

After that, Gu Hao started to explain the pottery to them. The basic things for making the pottery were clay, pottery wheel and kiln.

There was three types of clays that could be used on making the pottery. Stoneware clay, earthenware clay and porcelain clay, these three clays were used for different purposes and had their own methods as such their firing temperatures as well as water absorption and shrinkage percentages.

Since both Yu Qi and Long Hui were the beginners, Gu Hao suggested that they could use the stoneware clay because it was most versatile and easiest to work with. It also came in a variety of colours from white to dark brown.

So, Gu Hao showed the methods to mix the clay with the water properly. After showing it to them, Gu Hao gave the chance to the couple to try by themselves.

Yu Qi mixed the clay and the water. On her first try, Gu Hao told her that the mixture had over water. So, Yu Qi needed to start again. She did the process a second time.

Meanwhile, for Long Hui, he successfully mixed the mixture very well on his first try.

"Brother Hui, you probably have talent in the pottery." Yu Qi chuckled.

Long Hui just smiled hearing the praise given by his fiancée.

The next step in the pottery was to make the shape of the clay. So, they put the clay on the pottery wheel. It was possible to not using the pottery wheel however, without it, the shape could be limited.

Using the wheel pottery, the maker could unleash their imagination on making the shape of the clay.

Yu Qi and Long Hui wanted to make a Japanese teacup and a vase. Both of them would exchange their creation among them.

Since the shape of the Japanese teacup was simple, they were done fast. So, they tried to make the vase then. Yu Qi imagined the shape of the vase that she made in her mind, before instructing her hands to make it.

It was fun. Yu Qi looked at Long Hui. He looked so focused on doing his pottery making Yu Qi wanted to tease him. With the clay on her hand, she poked Long Hui's face.

When Long Hui turned to her, the clay was right on his cheek making his face looked nothing changed. He looked more handsome with the smear on his face. Yu Qi laughed.

"Brother Hui, you are handsome even with a smear on your face." Yu Qi said.

Long Hui wanted to reply back. So, when Yu Qi was laughing, he also smeared her forehead.

"Now we can be called even." Long Hui chuckled.

The people in the classroom looked at them. They were thinking that the couple indeed had a good relationship. They felt that they were given the dog food while attending the pottery class.

The one who was still single sighed and wanted to find the partner. While the ones who had their partners but was not here wanted to go back to their partners.

After playing with each other for a while, they were back on making their pottery.

Within two hours, the couple managed to finish their own creations. Gu Hao explained the next step. The drying process. The clay needed to dry first before putting them in the kiln for firing. The drying process was important to make the pottery stronger and protected the pottery from exploded inside the kiln.

Usually the clay was be put let drying within 7 days but the technology nowadays was good. It can put a less than a bone dry piece of ware on a long preheat in the kiln. Some potters will do an overnight preheat at less than 212F.

The next step was the longest step on the pottery making which was firing. The clay needed to be put inside the kiln.

Kilns were a type of oven capable of producing temperatures high enough to fire things like pottery and bricks. It simply dried the clay and turned it into ceramics once done.

The clay was usually been fired twice. The first firing with its another name, bisque fire, took around 8-10 hours. And the second, or glaze firing took around 12 hours. So, in total, it took about 22 hours to fire clay in a kiln.

So, the pottery would be finished within three days. Yu Qi and Long Hui could not take them before that. Gu Hao told them there was a policy in their pottery class that they could come and take the pottery within two months. After two months, uncollected pottery could not be claimed and would be their property.

Chapter 940 - 940: Always Disturb Them

Hearing that, Yu Qi and Long Hui were happy. They could take them on their next day off. If Long Hui could not make it, she could take some time to come and take them by herself.

Yu Qi had time to take some pictures of the pottery before the pottery had been put inside the kiln for the preheat. So, the pottery date was completed.

Long Hui and Yu Qi went to wash their hands since they were completely covered by clay. They also needed to wash their faces since their faces were smeared with clay too.

After leaving the pottery place, they went to the hotel. They wanted to clean their whole bodies and changed their clothes. Since their changed clothes were in Yu Qi's space, that was why they decided to use the hotel room as their cover.

Since they already decided to spend the night tomorrow, the hotel would be useful. The time after they had changed their clothes was 2.30 pm.

So, they decided to have late lunch. Yu Qi told Long Hui to drive to a restaurant. Of course, Yu Qi already checked the restaurant.

The restaurant sold a variety of food for its customers and the food tasted delicious. After the late lunch, they went to another place for their date.

It was an ice skating place. Yu Qi wanted to try it even in her past life. But due to her life experience, she could not go and try it.

As she predicted the place was not full since it was not the weekend. Her colleagues told her that if she wanted to try ice skating, she should go on the weekdays. She would have a huge space to skate and would not collide with other people.

After registration and putting on the shoes, they went on the ice. As expected, Long Hui balanced himself very well on his first try. Meanwhile, Yu Qi fell to the ground.

"Ouch." Yu Qi shouted.

Long Hui quickly approached Yu Qi. "Are you okay?" He pulled Yu Qi up. He checked whether she had any injuries.

"I am okay. It is hard to balance myself." Yu Qi pouted.

"Okay... okay... I will help you. Come." Long Hui held Yu Qi's hand and pulled Yu Qi to move forward.

After a few whiles, Yu Qi managed to balance herself without Long Hui's help. She tried to move forward by herself.

"Brother Hui, I did it." Yu Qi shouted happily at Long Hui.

Long Hui smiled gently at his beloved Qi Qi. However, as always, there was someone who came to disturb them.

"Look at her, she has just managed to balance herself and she is so happy with that." A girl chuckled and said loudly to her friends.

Yu Qi frowned when she heard the voice. She turned and looked at the three girls.

"What? I am telling the truth. Why are you looking so angry?" The girl, Su Zhian looked provokingly at Yu Qi.

"Yeah. It is ridiculous." Her friend, Song Meng Gi laughed.

"Younger kids can do better than that." The third girl, Mei Shen added.

"Hi handsome, I am Su Zhian, an ice skater. We can skate together since you are so talented in ice skating." Su Zhian introduced herself to Long Hui.

Long Hui ignored her and pulled Yu Qi away. 'Why are there always people who want to disturb them? Can these people leave them alone?'

"Hey, wait. Handsome, I can introduce you to a coach. You can be an athlete in the ice skating." Su Zhian did not give up.

"Get lost." Long Hui lost his temper. His murderous aura was leaking.

Su Zhian saw the look, slipped away and fell on the icy ground. She was shocked.

"Su Zhian, are you okay?"

Mei Shen and Song Meng Gi shouted and rushed to help Su Zhian.

"How can you push her?" Mei Shen asked in anger.

"Which eyes of yours see us pushing her?" Yu Qi asked.

"Su Zhian is an ice skate athlete. It is impossible for her to fall like this." Song Meng Gi said.

"We are 20 meters away from her. How can we push her in that distance?" Yu Qi looked down at Su Zhian.

"You can move away quickly." Mei Shen argued.

"I see. Should we ask the management to watch the CCTV?" Yu Qi asked.

When Yu Qi entered the ice skate space, she noticed that there were several CCTV cameras installed around the ice skate ground. She assumed that it was for security purposes. However, it also could be used to see all the whole thing on the ice skate ground.

Hearing that, they flinched. They forgot about it. Su Zhian stood up.

"No... no need for that." After saying that, Su Zhian skated away quickly as she wanted to run away from something.

Shen Mei and Song Meng Gi were confused when seeing their friend ran away just like that. Usually, she would fight since the man had attracted her attention.

"You have released your murderous aura at her." It was a statement.

"They always disturb us." Long Hui grumbled.

"It is because you are so handsome." Yu Qi stated.

"Then, should I change my face?" Long Hui asked.

"No need. I like your face." Yu Qi touched Long Hui's face.

"Oh, you just like my face?" Long Hui's eyebrow lifted up. "Hmm... what about my performance in the bed?"

Yu Qi's eyes went bigger as she heard the question. "Why are you asking that question at a place like this?"

"Oh, meaning, can I hear your answer when I ask the question at the appropriate place?" Long Hui teased Yu Qi.

"You...." Yu Qi glared at Long Hui with a red blush on her face.

Long Hui laughed as he saw the reaction. "Then, I will ask that question later. Hope to hear the answer from you."
