Chapter 971 - 971: Going To Subei City

Yu Qi wanted to set up a new business. She discussed with Su Yu Hi about the new business that she wanted to set up. It was a jewellery business, especially, which included jade.

Jade has become more popular with the upper-class people recently. It became more popular than gold, silver and pearls.

Su Yu Hi was also interested in the jade business. However, he was concerned about getting the resources. Usually, the jade shop owner hired some experts to get their resources from the stone gambling.

Su Yu Hi felt it was a little risky for them since they were new in the jade business. They could buy the jade directly from the jade mining but usually, people would bid the price for the jade. They would end up losing the money before starting the business.

Yu Qi was smiling when she listened to Su Yu Hi's concerns. She told him that he should not worry about that. She had her own way to get the resources.

Since Yu Qi told him that she had the way, he would leave the matter to Yu Qi. He would prepare the papers for setting up the jade business.

Yu Qi applied for a day off. She was heading to Subei City to get the resource. Subei City was famous for jade mining. A lot of businesses over there were jade related businesses.

She was not be going alone. She would be accompanied by Feng Yue. Feng Yue also took the day off on that day. She wanted to visit Yu Qi at the hospital and found out that Yu Qi also applied for a day off on that day.

She just wanted to see Yu Qi. So, she did not have any specific place to go. When she heard that Yu Qi wanted to go to Subei City, she did not mind tagging along.

....

"It is the first time, I have come here." Feng Yue said after the flight landed at Subei Airport.

"Really?" Yu Qi was surprised to hear that.

"Yeah. Well, we have a hotel which is operating here but I have never come here before." Feng Yue explained.

"Oh, I see. So, we will stay at your hotel, then?" Yu Qi asked.

"Yes, I have already told the manager here to give us a premium room. We are going to stay in a room together." Feng Yue grinned.

They took a taxi and went to the Feng Hotel. It was a 5-star hotel. When they arrived at the hotel, they were stumbled upon someone that they knew. Feng Yue frowned as she saw the person.

The person was also surprised to see both of them. However, her face changed fast, as she began to smile at Yu Qi and Feng Yue.

"Miss Tang, Miss Feng, I am surprised to see you here. What a coincidence!" Chi Yuan greeted both of them.

Yeah, the person was Chi Yuan, the so-called-Long Hui's childhood sweetheart. Feng Yue disliked this woman since she often heard that this woman pretended that she would get married to Long Hui before Long Hui met Yu Qi.

"Yeah. What a coincidence and bad luck." Feng Yue did not hold back.

"Rude. My young miss is nice enough to greet you." A girl behind Chi Yuan stepped ahead and scolded Feng Yue.

"I have never told her to come and greet me though." Feng Yue snorted.

"You..." The girl wanted to say more but Chi Yuan held her back.

"Miss Feng, I am sorry on the behalf of my people." Chi Yuan apologized to Feng Yue. "Are you also staying at this hotel?"

"Why does it matter to you?" Feng Yue rolled her eyes.

"My young miss has just asked you. Can you answer the question, normally?" The girl was angry when Feng Yue replied like that to her young miss.

"Just pretend that we don't know each other, will you? You know that I hate you, right?" Feng Yue said before pulling Yu Qi into the hotel.

Yu Qi and Chi Yuan were glancing at each other while passing. Chi Yuan was smiling while Yu Qi wore a blank expression on her face.

"What a rude girl." The girl complained.

"Xiao Yao, watch your words. Do you know who is she?" Chi Yuan asked.

"Who is she, young miss?" Xiao Yao asked back.

"She is the eldest young miss of Feng Family. She is also the young miss of Long Family." Chi Yuan explained.

"What??" Xiao Yao was shocked.

Feng Family and Long Family, she had heard about the two families. One was from the business industry and another one was from the military. She had offended the person who belonged from both of the families.

"Young Miss, am I going to be okay?" Knowing the identity of the woman earlier, Xiao Yao became scared. Scared that she might lose her head.

"Don't worry too much. She would not do anything. Let's go in." Chi Yuan assured Xiao Yao.

Xiao Yao suddenly remembered that the hotel belonged to Feng Cooperation. So, she wondered if it was okay for them to stay here.

When they entered the hotel and went to the receptionist counter, they saw Yu Qi and Feng Yue again. This time, Xiao Yao did not dare to look at the girls. She just looked down.

The receptionist gave a key to Feng Yue. "Enjoy the stay, First Young Miss." The receptionist told Feng Yue with a smile.

They already knew Feng Yue as the young miss of the Feng Family. Meaning she was their half boss. So, they treated Feng Yue with respect.

Chapter 972 - 972: Sick Pretentious Act

After checking into the room, Yu Qi and Feng Yue decided to go out. It was 11 am. Yu Qi decided to go to the stone gambling market. It took about 30 minutes to drive from the hotel to the stone gambling market. They arrived at the market. There was a lot of people here.

Once they arrived, they also saw Chi Yuan together with the same girl earlier, talking to an elderly man. When she saw Yu Qi and Feng Yue, she was also surprised to see them here. She was wondering what Yu Qi and Feng Yue wanted to do here.

"We meet again, Miss Tang, Miss Feng." Chi Yuan greeted them.

"I think you need to check your memory, Miss Chi." Feng Yue said.

"What do you mean by that, Miss Feng?" Chi Yuan asked.

"I have already told you that just pretend that we don't know each other. Have you forgotten about that?" Feng Yue snorted.

"Young Lass, you should mind your manner." The elder man who was talking to Chi Yuan just now reminded Feng Yue.

"Yeah... Yeah... I am a rude girl." Feng Yue rolled her eyes.

The elder man frowned as he listened to Feng Yue's response.

"I am sorry on her behalf." Yu Qi said respectfully to the elder man.

The elder man frowned less as he heard the other girl apologize to him.

Yu Qi and Feng Yue left them. Yu Qi had already targeted which shops that she wanted to go to. She already made the research about the shops in Stone Gambling Market

The first shops that she wanted to go to were Xiaoling Jade Mining. It was a popular jade mining shop here. There were a lot of people around the shop.

It seemed Chi Yuan also wanted to go to the same shop. Yu Qi saw her entering the same shop after they were in the same shop for about 5 minutes.

"Elder Chu Mingshu." Others greeted the elderly man who came together with Chi Yuan.

Yu Qi could conclude that the old man was a famous person for others. She did not care much about that. So, she started to look at the stone which she wanted to choose.

She looked around. The stones were placed randomly. The stones were sold according to their sizes. The bigger the stone, the higher the price. However, it was not guaranteed that in those stones, the contents in the stone would be worth its price.

Someone could be rich if the stone that they chose, the stone's price was cheaper than the price of what was inside the stone. However, they could also go bankrupt if it was the opposite way. That was why stone gambling was very dangerous, to begin with.

"I guess Miss Tang is also interested in stone gambling."

Yu Qi looked over and saw Chi Yuan was behind her. Yu Qi frowned. Yu Qi did not like this woman since she wanted her position beside Long Hui.

"What do you want exactly?" Feng Yue asked.

"I am just asking Miss Tang. If she is interested, I can give her some pointers on choosing the stone. I may look young but I have experience in choosing the stone." Chi Yuan smiled.

Chi Yuan was involved in the jade business. She was a student of Chu Mingshu, the expert in choosing the stone. The stones that she had chosen turned out worth the money. Chu Mingshu was proud of this student.

"That's right, young miss. You should get some advice from Miss Chi. Who knows you will become a millionaire." An onlooker heard the conversation said to Yu Qi.

"No need for that. I can handle it by myself." Yu Qi politely said that.

However, others who watched and listened to the conversation felt that Yu Qi was an idiot when she rejected the help from Chi Yuan.

"Miss, you should not reject Miss Chi's advice. She is kind enough to help you." An onlooker was despised Yu Qi for rejecting Chi Yuan's help. He even thought, 'What a useless woman. She just has a beautiful face.'

"Since she is good enough, she can help other people. I don't need her help." Yu Qi did not care about what people would think about her.

"Since Miss Tang feels that way, I will leave you." Chi Yuan said in an aggrieved tone.

People who watched the situation felt Yu Qi was very mean.

"Miss Chi, let her be. She can do whatever she wants. You want to help her but she is ungrateful to reject you." A man comforted Chi Yuan.

Feng Yue was angry that she wanted to say something. But, Yu Qi pulled her hand and shook her head signalling that she did not have to say anything. She only glared at Chi Yuan who was showing that sick pretentious act.

"What is happening here?" Chu Mingshu asked when he heard some commotion. He just came out of the behind room.

"Master Chu, someone is bullying Miss Chi." Xiao Yao, the girl who was together with Chi Yuan reported that to Chu Mingshu and pointed towards Yu Qi.

"Young Miss wants to help her to give some pointer for her to choose a better stone but she has harshly rejected Young Miss and said bad things about Young Miss." Xiao Yao knew that she was exaggerating the story but she did not care. Those girls needed some scolding.

"How dare she!" Chu Mingshu was furious.

Chapter 973 - 973: A Competition

"What have you said about my disciple?" Chu Mingshu approached them. The question was for Yu Qi.

"Huh? What are you talking about? She has never said anything about your disciple." Feng Yue did not want to be rude but this was too much.

"Elder, I have not said anything about your disciple. I have just rejected her help. That's all." Yu Qi looked straight at Chu Mingshu.

"Then, why..." Chu Mingshu wanted to say more but Chi Yuan stopped him.

"Teacher, don't mind about this." Chi Yuan said with an aggrieved face.

"Mingshu... I think your disciple can enter the entertainment world. She really can act." An old woman appeared.

"Madam Zheng." Everyone greeted her.

Zheng Zhuxian was another expert in stone gambling. She was Chu Mingshu's rival. She had watched the whole situation and analysed it differently than others.

From the start, it was Chu Mingshu's disciple who come over and talked to the girl. The girl clearly disliked Chu Mingshu's disciple. However, Chu Mingshu's disciple kept talking and even offered her help in order to make herself look better. n()σ)(v/)e-)l..b(-1/.n

Chu Mingshu's disciple used her position as Chu Mingshu's disciple to make the girl look bad in front of others and make the girl get criticized by others. What a vicious girl!

"What do you mean by that?" Chu Mingshu questioned Zheng Zhuxian.

Zheng Zhuxian glanced at Chi Yuan once and moved her eyes to Chu Mingshu again.

"Why don't you ask your disciple why is she acting like that? This girl..." Zheng Zhuxian pointed to Yu Qi. "She doesn't say anything rude and has just politely rejected your disciple's help. Why does she make the thing bigger?"

When Zheng Zhuxian said that, some people were kind of realized the matter. It seemed 'Miss Chi' was deliberately leading them to criticize the other young girls.

Chu Mingshu turned his view to Chi Yuan asking for her explanation.

"I just want to help her. Nothing else. Stone gambling is dangerous. So I think it is better for her to guide her about that since it is not her expertise." The longer Chi Yuan opened her mouth, the more confident she became.

Yeah, she offered help to Yu Qi because she thought Yu Qi was new in the stone gambling since she was a doctor. And the hidden purpose that she wanted Yu Qi to say something to Long Hui.

If Long Hui knew that she helped his fiancée, he might have a better understanding of her. Long Hui would think she was a kind girl because she even helped his fiancée. That was what she aimed for.

"How do you know this is not her expertise?" Zheng Zhuxian asked.

"Because she is a doctor." Chi Yuan said. It was a fact that even Yu Qi could deny that.

"Is that so, Miss?" Zheng Zhuxian asked Yu Qi.

"Yes. I am indeed a doctor." Yu Qi nodded.

Chi Yuan smiled proudly. However, the smile was not long after she heard the next sentence that Yu Qi made.

"But who says a person can only be an expert in one field?" Yu Qi looked straight at Chi Yuan.

Since Chi Yuan already provoked her many times, it was a little bit rude if she kept ignoring that. So, she decided to take part in this fight.

"Miss Tang, are you saying you are also an expert in the stone gambling?" Chi Yuan snorted.

"I can not say that I am an expert right now. But I have learnt a little bit about the stone gambling." Yu Qi said humbly.

Chi Yuan smirked in her mind. 'If you are a doctor, just become a doctor, why do you want to become something else?'

"Look like Miss Chi is looking down on me. Why don't we play a game?" Yu Qi suggested.

"What game?" Chi Yuan asked.

"How about we choose our own stone and see what kind of treasures are present in the stone?" Yu Qi told them the game.

Everyone was surprised to the suggested game came out from Yu Qi's mouth. Everyone thought Yu Qi was kidding about that.

Zheng Zhuxian could feel that this girl was serious and had the confidence to win the game. She did not know why she was thinking like that.

"What is the bet? There is no fun competing like this without betting for something?" Chi Yuan smiled.

She felt Yu Qi was an idiot. Yu Qi dared to challenge her expertise.

"We can choose 5 different stones. Whoever lost will be one who pays for all of the stones? How about that?" Yu Qi set up the bet.

"Sounds good. Then as for determining the winner, the person with the highest grade of jade shall be the winner. If we get the same grade, the number of jade including its grade will be considered. Oh, before I forget no one should give us advice on choosing the stone." Chi Yuan was excited about this competition.

She was confident that she would win this. She learned about stone gambling under her teacher for about one year and a half. She would never lose to the noob like Yu Qi. She was also delighted to show to Yu Qi the difference between both of them.

"Okay." Yu Qi nodded. She did not need others to give her advice. She already got her help.

Yu Qi also could guess what had been played in Chi Yuan's mind. Chi Yuan never thought of her as the opponent.

Chapter 974 - 974: Really Blind

Chu Mingshu was also confident that his disciple would win this competition. He had been training Chi Yuan for quite some time. Chi Yuan was an excellent student.

Zheng Zhuxian looked at Chu Mingshu. Zheng Zhuxian felt that today Chu Mingshu would definitely taste defeat. Well, she did not know why she had been this feeling. That girl was definitely not a normal one.

"Can we start the competition now?" Chi Yuan asked.

"Sure." Yu Qi nodded.

"I will let you choose first, Miss Tang." Chi Yuan let Yu Qi choose the stone first.

"Are you sure, Miss Chi?" Yu Qi's lips slowly lifted up.

"Yeah. I will let you choose first." Chi Yuan said.

The shopkeeper showed the area where the stones were. There was a lot of stones. Yu Qi was just glancing at the stones while she passed by one by one.

Feng Yue was a little bit nervous for Yu Qi. But she knew that Yu Qi would not be suggesting to compete on something if she never had a chance to win.

Everyone became the audience for the competition. They never thought that they were coming here to watch such an interesting competition.

Actually, Zheng Zhuxian came here for a different purpose but she felt that she did not want to do it anymore. Watching this was more interesting.

"What is she doing? She is just walking passing the stones."

"Well, without some experience, she will not know about to choose the good stone."

"Hey, she probably has some methods to choose the stone. Otherwise, why does she suggest the game?"

"I think I have seen her before."

"Yeah. She is probably an artist with that looks."

"Miss Chi already said that she is a doctor."

"Wait. You mean she is a doctor?"

"Why do you act like that?"

"Hey, I remember who she is."

"So?"

"She is Tang Yu Qi."

"So?"

"Hey, she is Colonel Long's fiancée."

The three friends were talking just now, looking at each other. They realized the truth. Since their voices were a little bit louder, people around them were listening to the conversation.

That was included Zheng Zhuxian. She was also surprised to know the true identity of the girl. Indeed, this was not a normal girl. She also knew about the girl.

She was a disciple of the legendary Doctor, Tang Jiang Man and got engaged the person from Long Family.? When she connected all those things, she realized why Chi Yuan targeted the girl.

Zheng Zhuxian came from the imperial City where Wei Family stayed. She knew Wei Family. Long Hui was the maternal grandson of the Wei Family.

So, she had heard that the old madam from Wei Family wanted Long Hui to marry Chi Yuan. She always treated Chi Yuan as her granddaughter in law. However, Long Hui rejected the idea and got his own choice of woman which was Tang Yu Qi.

This news slapped Chi Yuan in the face, making her embarrassed about that. No wonder, she tricked everyone to make Yu Qi look bad.

This thought made Zheng Zhuxian shake her head.? Chu Mingshu was really blind for taking such a disciple like that.

Yu Qi walked passing all the stones. Well, she was not walking without purpose. She already scanned all of the stones. Thanks to Bo Ya. He already made the list of which stones that Yu Qi should choose.

Yu Qi did not know much about the rank of the crystal or jade in those stones. However, Bo Ya made the list earlier by arranging them according to their ranks. There were not many stones that had a valuable jade or crystal in them.

She set to choose the large stones. In the middle of this competition, she had time to consider her business. Since stones were priced using their weight, she should choose the largest that had valuable jade or crystal. The larger the stones, the larger the jade or crystal.

She did not have to pay for these resources. With that, she chose five large stones. When people saw this, they sneered.

"I think Miss Tang has a misunderstanding about the stone gambling concept."

"She definitely thinks the larger the stone, the good it will be inside the stone."

"Well... we can not give advice for her, right? Let her be."

Chi Yuan also smiled looking at Yu Qi. She also thought the same. Yu Qi had a huge misunderstanding about stone gambling.

She thought Yu Qi had some tricks since she was the one who suggested the game. But looking at the situation, she had nothing to worry about.

Yu Qi had already chosen her stones. The shopkeepers took the stones and brought them to the scale to weigh them. Each of them had various weights.

The largest one weighed about 10 kilograms. The smallest one weighed about 4 kilograms. So, the price of Yu Qi's was about 10 million.

"Do you confirm about your choice, Miss Tang? If you want to? change, you can." Chi Yuan said.

"Don't mind, Miss Chi, you should focus on yourself." Yu Qi made a faint smile as she walked toward Feng Yue and sat beside Feng Yue.

"10 million, Yu Qi. Is that okay?" Feng Yue whispered.

"It is not me who is paying for those. And it is just 10 million." Yu Qi also replied by whispering. She had a lot of money right now. Indeed 10 million was a small amount for her.

"I forget that my best friend is a millionaire." Feng Yue chuckled.

Chapter 975 - 975: Real Professional

Chi Yuan went to select her stones. Unlike Yu Qi who just looked at the stones, Chi Yuan went to touch and felt the stones. This act showed that she was a professional.

Everyone praised Chi Yuan's actions. Even Chu Mingshu nodded with approval when he saw how Chi Yuan selected her stones. He turned to Yu Qi and wanted her to see how the professional worked but that girl seemed did not to care about that. She just talked to her friend at the corner.

Chu Mingshu snorted and turned back to his disciple. Chi Yuan spent about 30 minutes selecting her stones. After that, she went to weigh her stones. The price of her stones was about 5 million. Half of Yu Qi's stones.

The next process was cutting the stones. They would need a lapidary, someone who cuts, polishes and engraves gems.

"Our shop has the certificated lapidary that you can choose." The shopkeeper said to Yu Qi and Chi Yuan.

The shopkeeper called their lapidaries. About 5 of them came out.

"Miss Tang, you can choose first." Chi Yuan said.

Yu Qi did not hold up. She looked at them one by one. The first man looked at Yu Qi with a ridiculous stare. It was obvious that he hated Yu Qi. Yu Qi could see that this man did not want her to choose her because he wanted Chi Yuan to select him.

The other three also showed displayed expressions on their faces. They also had the same thoughts as the first one.

Only the last man who seemed a little bit younger than the other four. He also seemed nervous. Yu Qi already knew who to choose.

The lapidary would be paying 10% of the amount that the stones actually had. If the stones had worthless stones in them, they probably would not get the money.

People did not believe in Yu Qi's ability. As well as the lapidary. They did not think there would be something valuable in the stones that Yu Qi chose. So, they did not want to be chosen by Yu Qi.

"Okay. I choose him." Yu Qi said.

When Yu Qi chose the man, others were relieved that they were safe from being picked up by the young woman.

"Are you sure that you want to choose me?" The man asked.

"Yeah. What is your name?" Yu Qi asked back.

"Lu Yeyang." He answered.

"Okay. Mr Lu, I will pay your 10% of the number of my stones even the inside turned out nothing. 10 million... 10% of it, 1 million." Yu Qi said.

Lu Yeyang was taken back. Not only him but everyone was shocked to hear that. 1 million. They did not expect that she would be paying 1 million to the person who going to cut her stones regarding what's inside the stones.

The other lapidaries instantly regretted it. It was free money. They should promote themselves before. Right now they really hoped that Chi Yuan would choose them but in their heart, they knew that Chi Yuan had already chosen her person.

The person that Chi Yuan chose was the first person, Bo Wulin. He had cooperated with Chi Yuan many times before.

"Miss Chi, thank you for choosing me again." Bo Wulin said.

"Yeah. Thank you in advance." Chi Yuan smiled.

So, both of them went to their table. Usually, they would be cutting the stones in a room. As for today, they would be cutting the stones in the public. They would be cutting the stones at the same time.

Chi Yuan asked someone to bring the stones and give them to Wu Bolin. Yu Qi did not have someone to ask. She brought the stones by herself. Others were speechless with Yu Qi. The stones were quite heavy actually but this woman could light up the stones without struggling too much.

"Mr Lu, I will leave them in your hands." Yu Qi said.

"Yes..." Lu Yeyang nodded.

He was quite nervous at the moment because he usually had not been called by the customers to cut the stones. Wu Bolin and others were the ones who the customers usually called.

"You can cut the stones now." The shopkeeper said.

Both of them started their work. Wu Bolin was very fast since he was very experienced in cutting the stones and the stones were small that making them easier to cut.

On another side, Lu Yeyang was a little bit struggling to cut the stones. The first stone was big.

"Wow... Look at that... It is transparent like water with a shiny smooth texture."

"It is water type medium level jade. Wu Bolin just cut the medium level jade."

Wu Bolin continued his work until the end. He wiped the dust and revealed the jade to everyone.

Chu Mingshu and Zheng Zhuxian came to look at the jade. They had confirmed the jade was indeed the water type jade.

"Well done, Xiao Yuan." Chu Mingshu praised his disciple.

"Miss Chi is indeed promising." Zheng ZhuXian smiled.

"Thank you, Master, Master Zheng." Chi Yuan said thank you.

Everyone was excited to see what came from Chi Yuan's stone. Chi Yuan was happy too but she did not show on her face. She maintained a faint smile on her lips like she was expecting the jade inside her stone.

"This is the real professional. The stone that she chose has the medium level jade."

"I wonder what's inside Miss Tang's stone."

Chapter 976 - 976: Lucky

"I bet it is a worthless stone."

Everyone had praised Chi Yuan and talking shit about Yu Qi. Feng Yue was angry but she did not retort. She believed in Yu Qi. She was sure that Yu Qi would give slap faces to those were who talking shit about her.

Chi Yuan was looking at Yu Qi. At the same time, Yu Qi was also looking at her. She knew that Chi Yuan was showing off through her eyes. Yu Qi was calm during the process as if nothing happened around her.

At the same time, Wu Bolin had already cut the second stone. It revealed what was inside the stone.

"Another water type jade. This time, it is high level jade."

The shopkeeper announced it. Everyone was delighted. It was rare to have someone to get the high level jade this day. Usually, people would get the medium level jades.

"I bet 10 million for the jade."

"No, 20 million."

"50 million."

Everyone began to bet on Chi Yuan's jade and completely ignored Yu Qi. Looks like they had already forgotten that they were in the middle of the competition.

"What?" Someone shouted.

Turned out that it was Lu Yeyang who shouted. The shopkeeper went to see. Even he was shocked to see what was inside the stones. Lu Yeyang also finished cutting the large stones and wiped the dust.

Zheng Zhuxian approached them and saw it. She was shocked. She had never seen a large water type high level jade before.

"It is a water type high level jade." Zheng Zhuxian announced.

Everyone who had talked about Chi Yuan's jades was silent and turned to look at Lu Yeyang's side. It was indeed a large water type medium level jade. It was very big.

Yu Qi asked the shopkeeper to weigh the jade. It was about 7 kilograms. Her eyebrows lifted up and her lips curved up. She nodded satisfied with that.

She thought Yu Qi would not get anything from that large stones. But she never believed that Yu Qi's luck would continue.

Wu Bolin had been asked to cut the third stone. It was a larger stone compared to the first and second ones that Chi Yuan chose. However, it was smaller compared to those that Yu Qi chose.

The stone revealed itself. It was a hibiscus type high level jade. It had a yellowish colour. Chi Yuan was also satisfied with this. She did not wait long to cut the next stone.

So, the next stone had been cut. Everyone was once again surprised to see a glass type high level jade.

"Good one." Chu Mingshu praised his disciple.

Chi Yuan nodded to her teacher. She also did not expect that her luck was not so bad today. As the last stone, she would continue later. She wanted to wait for Yu Qi.

As for Yu Qi's side, Lu Yeyang was currently cutting the second stone.

Chu Mingshu and Zheng Zhuxian approached near and took a closer look at the jade.

"The green colour is bright and colour shape seemed a strip shaped." Zheng Zhuxian analysed.

"Yeah. The filaments are also arranged in a straight line and in the form of a shallow bottom." Chu Mingshu added.

"This is the silk type. The green strips are clearly distributed in a certain direction. The jadeite crystals are elongated and oriented in fine fibre shape. So this is medium level silk type jade." Zheng Zhuxian concluded.

It was a normal jade. But Yu Qi liked the result. Everything could turn to money later.

Chi Yuan sneered at Yu Qi when people's attention was on Yu Qi's jade. It was a normal jade. As expected Yu Qi was not her opponent.

After that, Yu Qi put the green jade aside. She asked Lu Yeyang to cut the third stone.

After 15 minutes of cutting, they finally saw the jade inside the stone. It was pink lotus root type. It was high level one. The pink jade was rare and was highly in demand in the market due to its pink colour. A lot of girls liked the pink colour in their jewellery.

Chu Mingshu and Zheng Zhuxian were speechless when looking at the jade. The stones that Yu Qi chose were huge. Even the normal raw jade that was big and considered worthless in front of several million.

Yu Qi asked the shopkeeper to weigh the pink lotus root jade. Its weight was 6 kilograms.

"I will bet 50 million for that pink jade."

"Just 50 million? Are you kidding me? I will give you 100 million, Miss Tang."

"I am willing to give your 200 million for that."

"The jade is very big. So, the price should be higher than that."

Everyone began to fight for that pink jade.

"Sorry, everyone. It is not for sale." Yu Qi suddenly said.

"What? Why?"

"You can become instantly rich by selling this jade."

"I already have a plan for this jade. So, I apologize for it." Yu Qi politely rejected it.

Zheng Zhuxian was curious about the plan. She wanted to know what Yu Qi wanted to do with the jade. From what she knew, Yu Qi did not lack money due to her career as a doctor right now.

"Yu Qi, you are very lucky." Feng Yue said.

"I will give a set of this pink lotus root jade jewellery later." Yu Qi smiled.

"What? For me?" Feng Yue was surprised.

"Of course. I know you will like it." Yu Qi nodded.

Chapter 977 - 977: Really Rare Jade

Yu Qi had already thought about what to do when she saw the jade. She knew that Feng Yue liked the pink colour. So, she knew Feng Yue would get delighted to receive some pink lotus root jade jewellery.

Zheng Zhuxian happened to sit nearby smiling as she heard about Yu Qi's plan. This girl was very loyal to her friend.

Chi Yuan's lips formed a straight line as she saw the jade. She never thought that Yu Qi would be so lucky on her first time. Chi Yuan began to feel nervous again when she saw that pink lotus root jade. 'Why is this woman's luck so good? I should be the one, getting that luck.' She clenched her fists under her sleeves.

Wu Bolin felt complicated when he saw the pink lotus root jade. It was the first time he saw it in the real life. He had just read about the pink lotus root jade a few days ago and he wanted to be the one who cut that stone that had the pink lotus root jade.

Yu? Qi put aside the pink jade and moved to cut the third one. Lu Yeyang was not feeling nervous anymore, instead, he was feeling excited. He wondered what was inside the next stone.

He was very careful in cutting the stone. People started to pay attention to Yu Qi's side. It seemed the goddess of luck was also smiling at Yu Qi.

Chi Yuan thought she should be cutting her last stone. She immediately asked Wu Bolin to cut her last stone. Her stones was a small one. So, it was faster to cut it. People could see the green colour.

Chi Yuan prayed to the god that she wanted the last one to be King Green. Also known as the Imperial Jade. She knew it was very rare to find the imperial jade but if she was the one who got the imperial jade, she would be instantly famous and would be everyone's talk. That way, Long Hui probably look at her way.

Chu Mingshu and Zheng Zhuxian came and inspected the jade.

"The green strip is shining bright. It also forms a zipzig formation." Zheng Zhuxian said.

"Hmm... It is an emerald of the glass type. A high-level one." Chu Mingshu said.

"That's right." Zheng Zhuxian also agreed.

Zheng Zhuxian also agreed about that meaning that Chu Mingshu was not biased toward his disciple.

Hearing that, Chi Yuan was a little bit disappointed but still satisfied with that result. She got one medium level jade and the others were the high-level jade. She never thought that Yu? Qi would get another high-level jade after this.

Lu Yeyang finally finished cutting the fourth stone. He wiped the dust. Then he was stunned.

"Hey, look. Why has Lu Yeyang stopped moving?" Someone asked.

So everyone looked at Lu Yeyang. Then their eyes moved at Lu Yeyang's hands.

"What? It is a violet colour." Someone exclaimed.

Chu Mingshu and Zheng Zhuxian quickly approached Lu Yeyang. They could see the violet colour jade.

"It is violet glass jade type and it is high-level one." Chu Mingshu was the first to confirm it. n)-0vELb1n

Another rare jade appeared. Now everyone looked at Yu Qi as if she was an alien. They did not expect that this girl to be so lucky.

"Oh, I am also not selling this jade." Yu Qi announced before anyone could react.

"Miss Tang, I am willing to buy this jade at any price. You can tell me the price that you want." A man said.

"I am sorry. I am not selling it." Yu Qi rejected the offer.

It was her resource to start her jade business. How could she sell the jade?

Everyone was disappointed to hear that. Even though they wanted that jade, they could not force her to sell it to them.

However, someone was thinking of another idea. He wanted that jade for his shop. He decided to meet the girl later after this. He would ask nicely first. If the girl did not want to sell the jade to him, she would know that he was serious to get the jade.

Chi Yuan was trembling inside. 'Violet glass type jade??? What is it? Why is this happening? Everything is not going as I want. Why the heck is that girl getting everything that I want?' She screamed inside her mind.

"Miss Tang, is this your first time doing the stone gambling?" Someone asked.

"Indeed. My luck is very good today." Yu Qi said.

Everything was thanked Bo Ya. He was the one who decided to choose the stones.

"Well, the competition is over, right?"

"Wait, Miss Tang still has one stone to be cut, right?"

"That's right. Miss Tang still needs to cut the last stone."

Yu Qi smiled as she asked Lu Yeyang to cut the last stone. Lu Yang nodded. It was the biggest stone that Yu Qi chose.

Everyone was waiting excitedly to see what was inside the stone. However, Yu Qi did not pay any attention to the competition. She went to where the stones were. She wanted to choose other stones to bring back since it was her purpose of coming here.? She also brought the trolley with her.

"Yu Qi, don't you want to see the result?" Feng Yue also followed Yu Qi.

"No need." Yu Qi smiled.

"Wow, someone is confident." Feng Yue said. "But it is very satisfying to see Chi Yuan's reaction when you have gotten the rare jade."

Chapter 978 - 978: Imperial Jade

"She feels that she is the best but her face has changed a little bit when she has seen your jade." Feng Yue laughed. "She has always thought that she is suitable for Brother Hui since Old Madam Wei likes her so much. She thinks with that background, she will be the one who will get married to Brother Hui. It is refreshing to see her like that."

Yu Qi smiled as she took stones into her trolley one by one. She was not holding back a little bit. When Bo Ya informed her, she quickly took the stones. Until the trolley was full.

"It is King's Green." Someone shouted excitedly.

Yu Qi and Feng Yue went to see what happened. Everyone seemed to be more excited than before.

"Miss Tang, it is an imperial jade." Lu Yeyang informed Yu Qi.

"Oh..." Yu Qi made a normal reaction.

Zheng Zhuxian saw it and thought that Yu Qi was probably thinking that it was a normal jade.

"Miss Tang, it is the rarest jade ever. The last imperial jade had been seen 15 years ago." Zheng Zhuxian told Yu Qi.

It was her teacher the one who got the imperial jade. It was ball golf size. Right now, this raw imperial jade was very big and it weighed about 7.5 kilograms. The biggest raw imperial jade had been seen.

"What? Really?" It was Feng Yue who was asking that. She turned to Yu Qi. "I want your luck too."

Everyone was speechless when seeing the imperial jade as big as this one.

"So, what is the result of our competition?" Yu Qi asked.

"It is obvious. Miss Tang, you are the winner. Chu Mingshu, you don't have any problem, right?" Zheng Zhuxian asked.

Chu Mingshu nodded.

Zheng Zhuxian turned to Chi Yuan. "Miss Chi, you don't have any problem too right?"

"Yes." Chi Yuan forced herself to smile. "Congratulations, Miss Tang. I don't expect that you have talent in stone gambling."

"Thank you. Oh, I hope you don't forget to pay for my stones." Yu Qi said to Chi Yuan.

"Of course. I will not break my promise." Chi Yuan said. "But... the stones in that trolley..."

"Oh, don't worry about them. I will pay for those stones." Yu Qi understood the meaning.

"Miss Tang, do you want to buy other stones?" Zheng Zhuxian asked as she looked at the stones.

"Miss Tang, do you want to cut the stones right now?" The shopkeeper asked Yu Qi.

Everyone was waiting for Yu Qi's answer. They wanted to see what kind of stones that she brought.

"Not yet." Yu Qi shook her head.

"Oh..." The shopkeeper was a little bit disappointed.

"I will pay for these ones now, please." Yu Qi said.

The shopkeeper started to weigh the stones. All of the stones are worth about 100 million. Everyone who watched were shocked to hear about the price.? It was unusual for someone to throw that much money.

"Miss Tang is very rich. I wonder what Tang Family thinks if you use that much money?" Chi Yuan asked.

She had just finished selling the jade that she got just now. The jades were the high-level ones. So, people fought to buy the jade. So, Chi Yuan could easily pay for their earlier bet.

"Who says I use my family's money?" Yu Qi sneered.

"Then, whose money are you using?" Then, Chi Yuan frowned. "Don't tell me, you use Brother Hui's money! How could you use his money like that?" She became angry out of a sudden.

"So what if she uses his money? What does that matter to you? Who are you to Brother Hui, huh?" Feng Yue was surprised by Chi Yuan's burst out, so she quickly asked Chi Yuan.

Chi Yuan was speechless when that question had been pointed to her. Yeah, what was the identity that she should use? Who was she to Long Hui? She was just his childhood friend.

But she could not stand how Yu Qi wasted his money like that when he worked very hard to obtain that money.

"Why do you assume that I use my family's money and Brother Hui's money?" Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

"You are just a doctor. Not to mention a new doctor. It is logical to assume that way." Chi Yuan said.

"Miss Chi, I think you should investigate more about me." Yu Qi sneered.

Yu Qi did not care anymore about Chi Yuan. She turned to the shopkeeper to settle the payment. She wrote the cheque on the spot and gave it to the shopkeeper.

The shopkeeper read the owner of the cheque. It stated YQ Investment Company. He was shocked because he just saw that it was Miss Tang who signed that cheque. It meant she was the authorised personnel for the company account.

Even though he did not know that company very well, it was an investment company. Just now, he heard the conversation. Miss Chi said that this woman was a normal doctor at their family hospital. But now...

"Is there any problem with the cheque?" Yu Qi asked the shopkeeper when she saw the shopkeeper just staring at the cheque for a long time.

The shopkeeper snapped out of his thought. "I am sorry. I will ask someone to process the cheque quickly." He then called someone to go to the bank to deposit the cheque.

The bank was nearby. So it was not long to get the cheque processed.

Chapter 979 - 979: A Job Offer

"By the way, please deliver these things along with the jade that Miss Chi has paid to this address." Yu Qi put down the address.

It was a new warehouse that she had brought recently. The location was good. She already renovated the place. One side was a warehouse and another side was the factory where the jade would be produced into jewellery.

"Yes, Miss Tang." The shopkeeper did not dare to look down on Yu Qi anymore.

"Oh, before I forget, I need to pay Mr Lu for his services. Mr Lu, can I ask your account bank number?" Yu Qi almost forgot about that.

Lu Yeyang was stunned for a moment. He then looked for his account bank number and gave it to Yu Qi.

Yu Qi received that. She quickly transferred the money to Lu Yeyang. One minute later, the notification sound came from Lu Yeyang's phone. He checked it. 1 million had been transferred to him.

'For real?' Lu Yeyang asked himself while staring at his phone. He could not expect that he would get the money on the spot. 1 million. He had 1 million. He could ask his girlfriend to marry him right now.

Other lapidaries were jealous of Lu Yeyang. If they offered themselves earlier, the money would be theirs. They regretted it.

"Oh, Mr Lu. I have another thing to discuss with you. This place is not suitable for that matter. Can I get your phone number now so that we can discuss later?" Yu Qi said again.

"Yes.. yes..." Lu Yeyang gave his phone number to Yu Qi.

"Well, then, I think our business is complete here. Let's go to another shop." Yu Qi said.

"Do you want to buy more stones?" Feng Yue asked.

"Of course. This is why I am here today." Yu Qi nodded.

They left the place. Everyone wanted to ask for her contact information but no one dared to ask for it. After the two girls left, everyone went to ask the shopkeeper about her contact information but the shopkeeper also did not dare to give her contact information to others since he had been reminded not to do it.

Everyone was disappointed. They wanted to make the girl their acquaintances.

"Miss Tang, wait." Zheng Zhuxian who followed? Yu Qi and Feng Yue called Yu Qi.

"Elder Zheng?" Yu Qi was confused.

"Can I ask for your contact number? Here is my contact number too." Zheng Zhuxian said as she gave her card.

"Oh." Yu Qi accepted the card and gave hers to Zheng Zhuxian.

Zheng Zhuxian looked at the card. 'TANG YU QI... CHAIRMAN OF YQ INVESTMENT COMPANY.' Her eyes widened as she read the card.

"You are..." Zheng Zhuxian looked up and saw Yu Qi was smiling.

"I hope Elder Zheng will not tell others about this." Yu Qi said.

"Yeah... yeah... I will not tell anyone." Zheng Zhuxian nodded.

Zheng Zhuxian stared at the card for a while. She never thought that such a young woman would be a chairman. She then searched about the company on the internet. It was a legit company that had been invested in various fields.

Yu Qi and Feng Yue went to other stores and bought the stones. Yu Qi told the stores to send the items to the given address.

They stopped buying the stones when the sky changed its colour.

"What a harvest." Yu Qi stretched her body.

"You are buying a lot. What are you going to do with those stones?" Feng Yue asked.

"My new business." Yu Qi said short.

"I know it." Feng Yue smiled.

"Yu Qi, we should collaborate." Feng Yue said.

"Collaborate?" Yu Qi tilted her head.

"Actually, I have created a studio for clothes. It calls 'Trisha'." Feng Yue said.

"What? Really? That's great. Congratulations." Yu Qi was happy for her friend.

"We can hold a fashion show showing my clothes and your jewellery." Feng Yue said.

"Hmm... Nice idea." Yu Qi nodded.

Feng Yue laughed. "Don't forget about that. It is a promise."

They made a pinky promise.

"Ahem... Sorry to break such a nice atmosphere."

There was a man's voice that interrupted them. Both of the girls turned to see the man. Yu Qi did not know the man. She turned to Feng Yue and gave the signal asking if Feng Yue knew the man. Understood the signal, Feng Yue shook her head.

"Miss Tang, I am Zhui Guang, the owner of Shinsei Jade. Can we talk for a moment?" Zhui Guang placed his name card on the table while introducing himself.

"What do you want?" Yu Qi narrowed her eyes.

She felt that this man was not a good person. Since he came with many people. Well, they were hiding. It seemed he wanted to scare them.

Zhui Guang pulled a chair. Without shame, he sat at the same table.

"Miss Tang, I would like to buy your jade." Zhui Guang said.

"Since you know I have the jade, meaning you are also in that mining jade shop. You should know that I am not interested to sell my jade." Yu Qi replied and looked at Zhui Guang like a queen.

Zhui Guang felt intimidated. He shook his head.

"Miss Tang, I am not going to steal your jade. And I also would like to ask for your services." Zhui Guang continued again.

"My services?" Yu Qi was confused.

"I want to hire you as a stone gambler." Zhui Guang smirked.

Chapter 980 - 980: Offend Feng Cooperation

"Huh? Stone Gambler? Why should I do that?" It was Yu Qi's turn to smirk.

"As I know, you are a doctor. The new doctor. It would take a long time to get a much higher salary if you continue to be a doctor. If you become my stone gambler, I can pay you higher than your current salary." Zhui Guang offered.

"Higher than my current salary?" Yu Qi asked.

"Of course." Zhui Guang thought Yu Qi was interested in that.

"How much? 10%? 30%? 100%?" Yu Qi asked.

"Erm..." Zhui Guang did not know how to answer the question.

Of course, he did not know how to answer questions. He did not know how much salary that a doctor, to be more specific, a new doctor got in a month. If he said without knowing the amount, he would be at loss.

"How much you offer me, I will not quit my current job. I will not be selling my jade as well." Yu Qi said.

"What? Then why have you asked how much?" Zhui Guang asked in angry.

"I just want to know. That's all." Yu Qi said.

"You... Miss Tang, you better start to listen to me." Zhui Guang waved his hand.

People started to gather behind Zhui Guang. They seemed to be gangsters around here. Feng Yue, who was just drinking her tea calmly, turned to Zhui Guang.

"Finally..." Feng Yue said.

Zhui Guang did not understand what Feng Yue meant by that. He ignored her.

"Miss Tang, if you don't agree to be my stone gambler and sell your jades, you will not be able to leave the place." Zhui Guang threatened Yu Qi.

"Oh... what are you going to do with me?" Yu Qi lifted up her eyebrows.

Zhui Guang signalled a gangster to pull Feng Yue. Yu Qi moved in an instant. The gangster did not manage to pull Feng Yue and he had been kicked. He fell to the ground.

"Have you held back?" Feng Yue asked.

"Of course. I don't want to kill people. And of course, I do not want to pay for their medical fee either. This strength is enough for the self defence, right?" Yu Qi said to Feng Yue.

"Oh, I see." Feng Yue nodded herself.

"You bitch." One of the gangsters was angry that Yu Qi kicked his brother.? So, the gangster decided to beat Yu Qi.

The gangster began to circle Yu Qi and Feng Yue. They did not want the girls ran away.

"A typical gangster." Feng Yue chuckled.

"What do you mean by that?" Yu Qi asked.

"I am just reading a novel. The current situation is the same in the novel. The differences are the heroines will be waiting for her heroes to save her but we can save ourselves." Feng Yue started to punch a gangster on his stomach.

One punch. The gangster fell down. It made others angry. They began to attack the girls. As Feng Yue said before, they were not like the heroines who waited for her heroes. They fought themselves.

Not long after that, all of the gangsters fell onto the ground. Zhui Guang also sat down while seeing the two girls beaten up his men.

"I am sorry. Looks like I don't agree with your request." Yu Qi chuckled.

"Hey Zhui Guang, you have offended Feng Cooperation. Don't ever think about doing the business anymore." Feng Yue crossed her hands while looking down at Zhui Guang.

"What?" Zhui Guang was shocked. 'How could he offend the Feng Cooperation? Wait?' "Who are you?"

"Feng Yue. Eldest Young Miss of Feng Cooperation." Feng Yue introduced herself.

Zhui Guang's eyes became wide. 'Feng Yue! Of course, he knew the name. Eldest Young Miss Of Feng Cooperation. Not to mention, she was also from Long Family.'

He turned to Yu Qi. 'If she is Feng Yue, that means the other girl is Tang Yu Qi, the granddaughter of Tang Jiang Man and future mistress of Long Family.'

Zhui Guang kowtowed the girls. "Misses, I am sorry... Please forgive me. Please forgive me." He needed to save himself.

"You can talk to the police later." Feng Yue smiled.

....

One week later, Lu Yeyang got the message from Yu Qi. He thought that Yu Qi had already forgotten about him.

Tang Yu Qi: "Mr Lu, are you free now?"

Lu Yeyang: "Yes, Miss Tang."

A moment later, there was a phone call from Yu Qi. Lu Yeyang quickly picked up the call.

"Hello, Miss Tang." Lu Yeyang answered the call nervously.

"Hello, Mr Lu. Don't be so nervous like that." Yu Qi chuckled.

"Yes... Yes..." Lu Yeyang said.

"I will be straightforward. Do you want to work for me?" Yu Qi said.

"Huh?" Lu Yeyang did not understand the meaning. He was blinking several times.

"Do you want to work for me?" Yu Qi asked Lu Yeyang once again.

"Work for you? What do you mean by that?" Lu Yeyang asked.

"It means literally." Yu Qi said.

"But I don't know how to work in the hospital." Lu Yeyang said.

He remembered that Yu Qi was a doctor. Working for her, meant, he would work in the hospital. That was what he was thinking. Then he heard Yu Qi laugh.

"No... no... I am not inviting you to work at the hospital. You can continue working as a lapidary but for me." Yu Qi stated.

"Huh?" Seriously said, Lu Yeyang was confused right now.

"I am about to start my jade business. So, I am currently trying to hire you as my lapidary. You will not be regretting this." Yu Qi said.

...
