

Irresistible 1001

Chapter 1001 Looking Into It

Rufus' POV:

Crystal ran away as fast as she could, Arron in tow. She wasn't as calm and cunning as she used to be before, when she was trying to get rid of me. On the contrary, she looked quite scared and helpless without the mask. I highly doubted she'd have reacted like this if wearing a mask was just her "hobby". She wasn't a weak woman, and she should've been able to fight back, but she didn't.

Chapter 1002 Warm Feelings Inside

Crystal's POV:

After leaving the lounge, I didn't return to the ball. Instead, I went back to my current accommodations cradling Arron in my arms.

I tried my best to avoid the crowd. Rufus had broken my mask, so I couldn't take a more conspicuous route. It would be disastrous to bump into an acquaintance.

The whole palace was quieter than usual. Almost everyone was at the ball.

I shut the door and walked into the kitchen to cook some soup for my little guy.

Arron felt much better after having the warm soup. He was not as weak as before.

Chapter 1003 A Dutiful Husband

Crystal's POV:

When I opened the door and saw that it was Flora, I heaved a sigh of relief. I pulled her inside and promptly took off my mask.

"What're you doing here?"

Flora was still wearing a gown, as if she had rushed straight here from the ball.

"Did something happen between you and Rufus just now? People have been saying that you two were in the same room for a long time..." Flora held my hands, her eyes darting around nervously.

I had a bad feeling about this. "What's going on?"

Chapter 1004 Lovey-dovey Couple

Flora's POV:

I felt sad knowing that my best friend was about to leave me again. I stuck out my lower lip and linked arms with Crystal, insisting on staying here for the night.

Warren immediately refused. He pried my fingers away from Crystal and he even had the audacity to use our son as an excuse, claiming that Lucas missed me.

But when we got back, I found Lucas sleeping soundly in his room.

Speechless, I closed the door to his room and turned around to scold Warren. However, before I could get a word out, I was silenced by a kiss.

His lips pressed against mine, I moaned slightly and closed my eyes. I stood on tiptoe to wrap my arms around Warren's neck, responding to his affection wholeheartedly.

Chapter 1005 Just This Once

Warren's POV:

As soon as I inserted the tip of my cock into Flora's pussy, I held her thighs and hoisted her up so that I could thrust all of my cock inside of her.

"Ah..." Flora's eyes rolled to the back of her head as pleasure engulfed her.

The wet walls of her pussy enveloped my penis more and more tightly, and even I couldn't help but moan.

I held Flora's thighs and moved slowly for a while. Then, I sped up, thrusting in and out of her violently.

The naughty sounds of skin slapping skin every time I thrust inside of her made me go crazy. And Flora's body was so soft. I was torn between being gentle with her and ravaging her pussy.

"Yes... God, yes..."

Chapter 1006 Girls' Night

Crystal's POV:

In the afternoon, as I got ready to take Arron for a walk in the garden, I spotted Flora walking up to me with a huge stuffed bag in her hand. Warren trailed her with a scowl.

I grabbed Arron's hand and walked toward them. In a confused voice, I asked, "Don't you have to attend the summit today?"

After the parade, a summit was held by the packs for several days. The agenda was usually exchanging experiences or resources. I was worried about coming face-to-face with Rufus, so I pretended that I was unwell and didn't attend it.

Chapter 1007 See The King Alone

Flora's POV:

Stunned, I thought I misheard. "What did you say? The king wants to see me? Are you sure?"

The man nodded politely. "Absolutely. And the king wants to see you alone."

"What?! Why? Are you perhaps making a mistake? And it's my husband--Alpha Warren, that he want to see?" My heart leaped to my throat.

"Sorry, I don't know what the king's intentions are, but you're the one he wants to see and you'd better get ready to meet him as soon as possible." Then after bowing slightly, the man went out to wait for me.

Chapter 1008 An Oppressive Interrogation

Flora's POV:

My anxiety subsided upon hearing Rufus' question, because Crystal and I had discussed it. So now, I knew exactly what to tell him.

Rufus was the king, and his men were all over the imperial palace. He must have known that I spent last night at Crystal's place. Otherwise, he wouldn't have sent someone to look for me at there so early in the morning.

According to Crystal, Rufus was very wary of her now, so it was only normal for him to doubt and investigate people around her, including me.

Chapter 1009 Cornered

Flora's POV:

Shocked and caught off-guard, I stammered, "What do you mean?"

How could Crystal's photos still be in my Facebook? After what happened that year, Laura had done everything in her power to ensure that no trace of Sylvia Todd would ever exist again. Also, I double-checked it, so there was no way Rufus would find out about it.

Besides, I seldom posted her photos since she didn't like too much attention even on the Internet.

Was Rufus bluffing? Could it be that he was just trying to pull a fast one on me?

Chapter 1010 The Only Photo That Let Out

Rufus' POV:

My suspicions were confirmed when I witnessed Flora's panic.

I had the strangest feeling that it was Crystal in this photo. Even though I had only seen her face with a mask once and I could barely make out the woman's face in the phone I was holding, my gut told me that the girl in the photo was absolutely Crystal. No two people could have the same mole in the same exact location. Such a coincidence was impossible, unless the two were the same person.
