

Irresistible 1031

Chapter 1031 A Kiss After Five Years

Rufus' POV:

Seeing Crystal act in such a way stunned and surprised me.

Even I myself didn't know that my weakness was...

During my whole life, no one dared to risk their life to tickle me.

But right now, Crystal pressed me on the ground. When I struggled and was about to strike back, she gently tickled my waist again.

I trembled and even wanted to laugh.

Chapter 1032 Agree To Cooperate With The Investigation

Crystal's POV:

With my eyes wide open, I immediately pushed Rufus away.

He seemed dumbfounded after the unexpected kiss, and he turned his head away awkwardly.

A little embarrassed, I wiped my lips with the back of my hand. Although our lips only locked for a few seconds, there was still a tingling feeling on my lips.

Rufus and I kept silent for a long time. Neither of us spoke as we tried to calm down.

At the thought of it now, our fight just now was too childish.

Chapter 1033 Hand Over The Power

Crystal's POV:

At the start of the video call, Blair greeted Rufus respectfully first, then looked at me and greeted me in a distant tone. His indifferent attitude was in line with the normal treatment of a stranger that he didn't fully trust. No one would believe that he used to know me.

As I studied his familiar face, I wasn't sure if he had also lost his memory.

"Go ahead. Inform him about all the things he needs to know while managing the pack in your stead," Rufus ordered me casually.

I shot him an impatient glance and bit out, "I know."

Chapter 1034 Back To The Imperial Palace Reluctantly

Crystal's POV:

Rufus pursed his lips and remained quiet for a few minutes. Then, he said, "Maybe I'm mistaken. I seem to notice a slight difference in your demeanor when you're dealing with acquaintances and strangers. Sometimes I get the impression that you're also familiar with me."

I was nonplussed for a second before I smiled. "You're definitely mistaken. This is the first time I'm visiting the imperial city and meeting you. I was nobody before this. How could I know you? And I haven't stepped foot outside the border pack since assuming the position of Alpha."

Chapter 1035 New Hairstyle

Crystal's POV:

The more I noticed how similar Arron's face was to Rufus', the more helpless I felt. And while I was immersed in that thought, there was a sudden soft knock at the door.

With my brows slightly furrowed, I went to open the door, wondering who would come.

As soon as I opened the door, I caught Flora outside, looking around vigilantly.

In a delighted surprise, I quickly pulled her inside and asked, "How did you know I'm here?"

Chapter 1036 Poor Acting

Rufus' POV:

After sending Crystal back to her new residence, I went to my mother with Beryl who was sleeping in my arms.

At this time, my subordinate came to me and informed me in a whisper. "Flora seemed to have followed our car to Crystal's new residence."

Hearing this, I stopped and said lightly, "Let her be. As long as she doesn't cause any trouble."

My subordinate nodded. "Got it."

Chapter 1037 A Possibility

Rufus' POV:

As for the matter with Crystal, I didn't want to argue with my mother anymore. Taking a glance at Beryl, who was sleeping soundly, I asked, "Mom, what do you think is the matter with Beryl? She has been sleeping for so long, but she still hasn't woken up yet."

Hearing my words, she immediately panicked and she looked at me nervously. "Right, why is she still sleeping? Do we need to call the doctor?"

Chapter 1038 Hard To See Through Her

Rufus' POV:

The conversation between me and my mother sounded each other out, but neither of us got the information we wanted.

My wolf, Omar, couldn't help but ask, "Why don't you just question your mother about the real relationship between her and Crystal? Instinct tells me that she has the answers to your questions. You two should just talk about it frankly."

"There's no need to rush. They're hiding something from me, and they'll keep fabricating lies the more questions I ask them. It's better to pretend not to know anything and just wait for them to expose themselves," I countered.

Chapter 1039 Childish Rin

Crystal's POV:

After sending Flora away, it suddenly occurred to me that I have another old friend in the imperial capital.

I quickly changed clothes and walked to the edge of the forbidden forest, toting a small, wooden whistle.

Arron had planned to go with me, but in the end, he decided against it because he didn't want to go out with his new hairstyle. He was so upset that he even pouted whilst eating.

Amused, I had no choice but to promise him I'd make him a woolen hat later.

Chapter 1040 Meeting Rin Again

Crystal's POV:

I turned around and studied the bush, but the sound disappeared.

"Forget it. I'm leaving." I pretended to walk away, and heard something move again nearby.

After going back and forth like that for a couple of times, I was more certain that Rin was secretly observing from somewhere close by, but she was probably hurt and didn't want to come out to meet me.

As expected, she wanted me to cajole her further.
