

Irresistible 1101

Chapter 1101 Broken Dream

Rufus' POV:

The she-wolf's vagina stretched around my penis. Every wrinkle inside her hole was smoothed out.

I felt comfortable in my position and it seemed the she-wolf felt the same way, too. Allowing my penis to rub against her vagina, she twisted her waist with such flexibility. Her breasts swayed along to the rhythm with which we moved.

My breath hitched for a second, and her inside juices made my penis wet, causing me to let out a hoarse roar.

The sounds of our fluids rung in my ears. It was only after she switched her position a few more times that her vagina was able to completely open up to me. I could feel it get even wetter.

Chapter 1102 Noblest Werewolf In The Empire

Adela's POV:

I never imagined that Rufus would suddenly get a headache and pass out. The thought that something was wrong with the food crossed my mind, terrifying me.

But later, I discovered that Rufus only had a headache, and there was no sign of food poisoning, so I felt greatly relieved. I wanted to call the doctor, but Rufus quickly reined himself in and fell asleep.

As I traced his face with my eyes, I was suddenly struck with a selfish thought. I had always wanted to spend time alone with him and was now presented with an opportunity.

Chapter 1103 Saved By Beryl

Rufus' POV:

My mind was a complete mess, my clothes damp with my sweat. That dream just now felt so real that I almost believe it had really happened.

And, to my utter frustration, as I tried to comb back to the details of the dream, I was hit by another memory block. I couldn't remember anything. All I knew was that my heart was beating furiously from the desire coursing through my veins, and that I was at the very end of my tether.

Chapter 1104 He Had A Child

Adela's POV:

I was taken aback by the sound of a child's voice. I turned around and saw a gorgeous little girl standing in the doorway. Her white dress and lustrous blond curls made her look like a cherub.

She looked anything but angelic at the moment, though. The little one stood with her hands akimbo, her teeth bared as she glared at me in unmistakable animosity.

Chapter 1105 Counterattack

Crystal's POV:

I was furious. I was playing with Beryl at the royal kindergarten, when Laura called and said that Adela was pestering Rufus again. So, I persuaded Beryl to come search for him with me. As a result, I arrived at that scene.

If I had reached a little late, the shameless couple would probably have started having sex.

Fortunately, the mask that I wore concealed my enraged contorted face.

"Rufus didn't even try to give me an explanation," I couldn't stop myself from complaining to Yana.

Chapter 1106 Rattle Rattle

Crystal's POV:

Adela fell two steps back, the expression on her face tight and awkward. "Well, then. I'll go and change my clothes."

She dashed out the door without a backward glance.

Rufus said nothing and continued to cuddle Beryl, coaxing his little girl out of her sulk.

Thinking that something like this might happen again, I decided to offer some explanation. "Beryl has rhinitis and doesn't like particularly sharp and strong smells. She especially hates the smell of jasmine."

"I see." Rufus raised his head to shoot me a cold look.

Chapter 1107 A Clown In Their Circus

Adela's POV:

I could feel my hatred burning in my eyes as I glared at Crystal. This bitch was always out to ruin my plans! If it hadn't been for her, I might have already had sex with Rufus.

As expected, hideous people did nothing but cause trouble. Her disfigured face was likely the Moon Goddess' retribution for all the awful things she had done.

"I'm not trying to thwart you or anything." Crystal had the audacity to blink innocently at me.

"The why are you always messing up my plans, huh?" I demanded through gritted teeth.

Chapter 1108 Marry Anyone Else

Crystal's POV:

I knew from the look on Adela's face that she had misunderstood, but I didn't bother clarifying the matter. Because technically, Rufus was telling the truth.

Beryl had been conceived with Rufus' active participation. He just wasn't aware of it now that he had lost his memory.

Just then, a guard appeared and said, "The Queen Mother is looking for you, Miss Castillo. She said she had something to discuss with you."

Knowing that it would be awkward for her to stay after everything that had been said, Adela pounced on the opportunity and ran out of the kitchen like her life depended on it.

It reminded me yet again just why I adored Laura.

Chapter 1109 Crystal's Face

Rufus' POV:

"Who do you think you are to say something like that?"

I looked down my nose at Crystal, who bristled in front of me. For the first time, her meddling put me in a good mood.

I did my best to hide it, though, and maintained my cold manner toward her. "You are in no position to tell me who I can and cannot marry. Adela is the mate designated to me by the Moon Goddess. And you? You are nothing to me."

Chapter 1110 Little Trick

Crystal's POV:

I hurried out of the palace, fuming. My feet thumped heavily on the marble floor because of my anger.

If Rufus hadn't said something nice in the end, I might have been tempted to kill him today.

"Don't be angry. This is all Adela's fault. She is so smart that she even came up with the idea of using witchcraft that could make Rufus mistake someone irrelevant for his mate," Yana yawned and consoled me softly.
