Chapter 721 The Baby

Rufus' POV:

My heart clenched painfully as I held Sylvie, who was on the verge of breaking down, in my arms.

The doctor's words ran through my mind. The good news was that Sylvie was pregnant, but the bad news was that the fetus was weak. Keeping this baby might be difficult. She had to be careful.

I sighed, wrapped my arms around her tightly, and rubbed her back to comfort her.

After a while, she finally calmed down. My body sagged with relief and I dried her face with a handkerchief.

The crying seemed to have exhausted Sylvia. She just let me do what I wanted and stared blankly out of the window.

"Do you want to sleep for a while?" I asked her softly.

Chapter 722 The First And Last Time

Sylvie's POV:

That evening, Rufus actually took me to the mourning hall where Leonard's body had been placed. Aline was not there.

I didn't know how Rufus had made her leave, and I didn't care about it anymore. I was just happy she wasn't here to disgust me again.

"I'll be outside. Call me if you need anything."

Rufus considerately gave me some time alone and left to guard the door.

After the door shut, I slowly made my way to the bed where the corpse was placed.

Chapter 723 An Irresistible Force

Sylvie's POV:

From the darkness came a peal of muffled leughter. "Sylvie, is this the connection between our heerts and souls? The power of the bloodline is indeed indisputeble."

Sylvia's POV:

From the darkness came a peal of muffled laughter. "Sylvia, is this the connection between our hearts and souls? The power of the bloodline is indeed indisputable."

"We are worlds apart. I belong to the werewolf race." I watched with my stern eyes as Noreen emerged out of the dark. I had expected this to happen and didn't intend to call for help.

Because I knew it would be pointless.

Chapter 724 Eating Flowers

Rufus' POV:

I quietly waited by the door for Sylvia to come out. No one was around since I had sent all the guards away.

I absent-mindedly fidgeted with the ring on my finger as I fretted that Sylvia would lose control of her emotions.

Surprisingly, I could sense that the atmosphere in the room was constantly peaceful. I had a nagging feeling that something was wrong.

I stood up and went closer to the door, wondering if I should go in and check what was happening. However, I recalled that Sylvia had specifically requested some alone time.

Chapter 725 What Is She Hiding

Rufus' POV:

Using the flowers in my hand, I managed to successfully lure Sylvia to an open space.

Fortunately, no guards were nearby and we made no noise.

When Sylvia attacked me again, I locked her in my arms to prevent her from running away.

Then I repeatedly called out her name like I had done the last time.

After a while, she finally snapped back to her senses.

She looked at me with puzzlement. After a long pause, she asked, "Did I lose control just now?"

"Did you feel different?" I asked nervously.

Chapter 726 The Funeral

Sylvia's POV:

When we returned to our living quarters, I didn't get a wink of sleep. Rufus however, soon drifted into dreamland. His face was lined with exhaustion. Too many incidents had taken place in the past few days, and he probably hadn't got a chance to rest properly.

I kissed his forehead lovingly and muttered his name, but he didn't stir.

He changed his position, but continued sleeping.

It looked like he was in a deep sleep.

I carefully unwrapped his arm from around my waist and quietly got out of bed to sit in the living room.

Chapter 727 A Stubborn Girl

Sylvia's POV:

Warren wailed miserably. I had never seen him break down like this. Even when he had fallen off the cliff in the forbidden forest and was severely injured, he hadn't shed a single tear.

He looked awful and had lost a lot of weight in just a few days.

Fortunately, Flora was with him, which would give him some comfort.

Owen and Edwin were also in the same state. Edwin seemed to suddenly have aged ten years, with grey hair sprouting all over his head. He stood behind Owen, not speaking a word. He just stared blankly out the window, as if his soul had already departed with Leonard.

Chapter 728 Sisters Dislike Each Other

Sylvia's POV:

"I don't need it!" I retorted without hesitation.

From the beginning, I never thought of Alina as my sister. After all, she and I were polar opposites. There was no way we could get along.

Alina rolled her eyes upon hearing my retort. "That's good, then. I just hope you won't shamelessly come back to me one day."

Alina's arrogant expression irritated me. Who did she even think she was?

Chapter 729 Don't Interfere With Each Other

Sylvia's POV:

I was so confused about how Alina was reacting. She was in a state of panic with a hint of unspeakable guilty conscience in her eyes.

"Do you know why Noreen came to harm Leonard? Hadn't you been in contact with Noreen? You should know something about her plan. Have you ever seen or talked with Noreen before Leonard died?" I stared at Alina's face, trying to read something into her flustered expression.

Chapter 730 Everything Is True

Sylvia's POV:

I shook my head, refusing Edwin's kindness. "No, thanks. It doesn't matter anymore."

With a sympathetic expression, he continued, "Your father was ecstatic the night he discovered the truth about you. He wanted to tell you immediately. If this accident hadn't taken place, you might have already been Sylvia Quinn right now."

I pursed my lips and gave him a small smile. "All I ever wanted was only my father."
