Chapter 741 Go Back To The Dormitory

Rufus' POV:

I held Sylvia in my arms and whispered to her, "I'm sorry, babe. I didn't tell them about your pregnancy. The doctor who examined you back in Leonard's pack told them about it. He seemed to have treated Leonard before. You know many questions regarding Leonard's untimely death still remain unanswered. My father wanted to know more about it, so he called the doctor and found out you're expecting a child."

Sylvia lowered her head uneasily. She fiddled with the buttons on my sleeve in silence. Seeing her like this was enough to make me worried.

Chapter 742 Unfathomable

Rufus' POV:

Sylvia's words left me at a loss. It made my heart ache. I knew my possessiveness would sometimes make her think I wasn't giving her any sense of freedom, so I had been trying my best to restrain myself. I didn't want to frighten her.

But even after all my efforts, it still didn't work.

I slowly let go of her hand and looked down. "I'm sorry..."

Sylvia lowered her head as well and simply went silent.

My heart ached when I saw her like that. I kept silent for a while too until I decided to compromise.

Chapter 744 Go To The Black Marke

Sylvia's POV:

The next morning, Rufus sent a car to pick me up before breakfast. I hesitated for a moment before I decided to go back and see him.

On the way, I stared out the window of the car and wondered how I was going to face him today.

Although I had tried my best to clear up the misunderstanding last night, I wasn't sure if he really bought it, and there was definitely still some awkwardness between us.

Chapter 745 Black Bar

Sylvia's POV:

I went downtown to watch an art exhibition. Around noon, I made an excuse to sneak away from Maya and the guard so I could slip into a black cloak.

Maya and the guard were in queue outside a popular shop to buy drinks and freshly baked cakes for me. They wouldn't be able to come back in a short while.

Still, I had to be quick and return as soon as possible. Rufus particularly chose a very smart guard to accompany me. I would be in trouble if he noticed I sneaked out on them.

Chapter 746 Air Wall

Sylvia's POV:

The appearance of the mysterious werewolf saved me from the fight.

Although he didn't seem to use much strength as he grabbed the man's wrist, the man's face twisted in pain, and he dropped to his knees right away.

I was surprised. This werewolf's strength was absolutely not inferior to Warren's.

"I'm sorry, everyone. It's my girlfriend's first time coming here, so she doesn't know the rules," the mysterious man said in a low voice. Then he released the strong man's hand.

Chapter 747 Change Voice

Sylvia's POV:

The mysterious man seemed to be very familiar with the black market, as he was able to tell me a great deal about it in a relatively short amount of time.

I kept quiet and paid close attention to what he was saying.

To my surprise, he then wrapped his arm around my shoulder as if we were close friends. "It's your first time here. Are you shocked that such a place exists in the heart of the capital city? Come on. I'll show you around."

The mysterious man took the lead in walking forward. I didn't follow him and just watched his back vigilantly.

Chapter 748 The Intervention Of The Royal Family

Sylvia's POV:

I pushed Blair's hand away and stepped back. "Of course, you're special to me. You're not only my teacher, but you've always been helpful to me. Most importantly, you're Rufus' best friend."

I intentionally emphasized the last sentence to warn him not to cross the line.

Although Blair never said it outright, his words and actions implied a lot.

However, I didn't want things to be awkward with him because he meant a lot to both Rufus and me.

Chapter 749 The Old Wizard

Sylvia's POV:

"It's none of your business..." Before I could finish my sentence, I suddenly realized that Blair was testing me.

Exasperated, I gritted my teeth in anger, but just as I was about to say something, he grabbed my hand and pulled me closer.

"Here we are."

It was not until then that I found myself standing in front of a dilapidated cottage. There was a huge sail hanging in front of the door riddled with intricate runes. On both sides of the door frame, there were firefly lights.

Chapter 750 Meeting Noreen's Enemy

Sylvia's POV:

Although I could feel Blair's shocked eyes gawking at me, I ignored him deliberately and walked up to the old man. I slung the bag onto the table and said, "I need you to do something for me. This is the reward."

Murray scoffed at me disdainfully and then opened the bag. I watched as his eyes widened in stunned disbelief when he saw all the jewelry inside. His mouth was agape, like a man stranded on a deserted island, who hadn't seen another person in years, suddenly saw a ship full of people to rescue him. "So many invaluable treasures..."
