

Irresistible 801

Chapter 801 The Soothing Sounds Of Nature

Sylvia's POV:

Maya shot me a reproachful look. She seemed to want to say something, but bit her tongue in the end.

I grabbed the quilt, not defending myself.

After a long silence, she sighed and left the room.

As soon as the door closed behind her, I heaved a sigh of both relief and distress. I felt sad and bitter. I was truly like the main character of a tragic movie.

I wiped my tears, feeling bad for myself. Yana sneered at me again.

"Humph, are you feeling bad? Why don't you just tell them the truth? Keeping this secret to yourself is killing you."

Chapter 802 Loud Voice

Rufus' POV:

An unending string of visitors came through the doors and overwhelmed the hall. Even before I could take hold of the totality of the number of guests, my father entrusted me in dealing with the situation. I was now in charge of all kinds of affairs of the empire.

I was perched on the main chair at the head of the long table in this massive hall. At each side of the table were lined chairs holding up the councilors who were dignified to be there but respectful enough to sit on their chairs and not question my authority. Amidst the discourse of political affairs being thrown off from one side to the other, their echoed voices did nothing to get through to my head; my mind was gradually failing me.

Still, I managed to sign a document and handed it to the secretary behind me, asking him to send it to the king immediately.

Chapter 803 Cajole His Wife

Rufus' POV:

I felt a headache coming on, but I had no choice. It wasn't easy for Sylvia to find something that she would enjoy, and I didn't want to disappoint her.

"Let her be. I'll talk to my father."

"Yes, sir," Maya said with a nod and turned to leave.

"Wait!" I exclaimed, causing Maya to stop in her tracks and turn back to look at me. "What do women like to do nowadays?"

Chapter 804 The White Wolf's Trick

Rufus' POV:

The speed of the white wolf surprised me. She seized the opportunity and bolted down the corridor. When she was about to reach the stairway, I instantly transformed into a wolf and pounced on her, knocking her head to the floor. Then I bit the back of her neck and dragged her back to the room.

Frustrated, the white wolf flopped helplessly onto the carpet. A few wisps of her red hair on her head drooped. She didn't look as lively and energetic as before.

After assuming my human form, I locked the door behind me. I lifted the shackles on the ground to have a look and saw the wolf's skinny legs.

Chapter 805 Difficult To Deal With

Sylvia's POV:

When I said this, even I admired myself for the stupid courage.

I was probably the first and only person who had dared to provoke Rufus like this.

I didn't have the nerve to meet his eyes, but I had to, because Rufus held my face and forced me to look at him.

His face darkened as he said in a low voice, "Repeat what you just said."

I gulped hard and my hands began to quiver under the quilt.

Chapter 806 Practice Witchcraft

Sylvia's POV:

Rufus stood up as well and pulled up my collar that had slipped down my shoulder. "What is it?" he asked softly.

"This time, I returned to the pack and obtained my mother's inheritance, but many things are still to be tested. A crystal ball is one of the things included in the inheritance. With the ball, I can look into the past and present of any given individual. I want to try if I could see Leonard again."

As I spoke, I hauled Rufus out of bed and into the study.

Chapter 807 The One In The Secret Dungeon

Rufus' POV:

The atmosphere in the corridor was dull. I looked at the small iron door in front of me and went lost in thought for a while. When the cigarette was about to burn out, I signaled the guard beside me to open the iron door.

Blair was wearing a tank top and a pair of gym shorts. He was drinking beer and listening to music while relaxing on a massage chair.

People who didn't know better would have probably thought that he was here for a vacation.

Hearing my footsteps, Blair slowly turned to me, pretending to be surprised. "Why are you here?"

Chapter 808 What Should I Do With Her

Rufus' POV:

Blair was also terrified of Noreen. When he realized that she had probably come to Sylvia again, he finally stopped joking and told me everything Sylvia had done.

If I looked things from Sylvia's point of view, her behavior was actually quite understandable.

Chapter 809 The Crystal Ball

Sylvia's POV:

I swayed freely in front of Rufus, holding the purple crystal ball in my palm. "Look, I spent the whole afternoon making this. I was waiting for you to come back so you could see it."

Rufus asked in surprise, "You made it that quick? How well did that go?"

"I don't know. I haven't tested it out yet." I was giddy with excitement. If I succeed, I could learn my mother's love story with Leonard. Oh, right, I totally forgot that Leonard had lost his memory regarding that part, so he didn't remember my mother.

Chapter 810 The Scene Before Death

Sylvia's POV:

Alina's figure kept appearing on the crystal ball. Rufus was worried that seeing her would make me feel dispirited, so he suggested that I should watch Leonard's memory another time.

Hearing him say that just amused me. Rufus was so sweet and considerate. He always paid attention to my feelings even though it wasn't really a big deal.

"It's okay. Even though Leonard didn't say it often, he actually loved Alina very much. I've always known that." I smiled. "That doesn't mean he didn't love me, though."

I didn't actually mind it. Even though I wasn't that important to Leonard, I could totally understand it.
