Chapter 881 Twins

Crystal's POV:

Time flew, and five years had already passed.

The Sylvia Todd was now Alpha Crystal Quinn of the border pack.

I had just finished dealing with today's government affairs in the meeting hall. At this time, a subordinate rushed in to report that the vampires had come to harass the border residents again.

"Let's go and have a look." I instantly put my pen down and aggressively led my people to the border area.

When I arrived, I spotted two vampires arrogantly grabbing two male werewolves of fifteen or sixteen years old. My blood began boiling. I immediately turned into a wolf and charged at them. I attacked them with my claws and knocked them over, breaking their noses with one swipe of my paw.

Crystal's POV:

"Arron, come here," I tenderly called out to my baby boy.

He hesitated for a few moments before coming closer to us.

My daughter jumped off my lap and ran to her brother. She grabbed his hand and ran back to me. Apparently she thought that Arron was walking very slowly.

As I watched the twins with amusement, my heart was bursting with love.

"Mom," Arron called out to me again. His face was slightly flushed, and his delicate eyebrows and beautiful eyes looked just like his father.

Crystal's POV:

Perry, who was standing in front of me, was startled by my stern voice. Just when she was about to turn around, I quickly walked up to Beryl, blocking Perry's sight. Then, I secretly used magic to extinguish the flame in Beryl's hand.

Crystal's POV:

"Beryl, you're too young to understand this, but witchcraft is really dangerous." I felt so helpless. I wanted to explain to her how destructive witchcraft could be, but she didn't listen and insisted on opposing me.

I was surprised to know that Arron didn't like Parry either. Parry had always cared about him and praised him.

Not to mention, Arron was a lovely child. He could get along with just about everyone, so this was the first time he expressed his hatred for a person so straightforwardly.

"Why don't you like Perry? Can you tell me the reason why?" I asked in confusion.

Chapter 886 Mature

Crystal's POV:

After firing the nanny, I took Arron to the city hall for a meeting. Then I asked my subordinate to search for Beryl and keep an eye on her.

Before the meeting, I placed a child's chair next to me and made Arron sit on it. Several of the elders noticed his cute face during the meeting and often turned their heads to get another look at him. They really adored him.

Chapter 887 Still Mad

Crystal's POV:

After some thought, Arron finally nodded his head. "Yes, I know. She's probably at the orphanage."

In all honesty, I was taken aback by what he said. I didn't expect her to be in the orphanage. But after giving it some thought, I was not surprised at all. Beryl was a whimsical girl and rarely had friends. But unexpectedly, she became close with the orphan girl, Alva.

Chapter 888 An Agreement Between An Adult And A Child

Crystal's POV:

When I tore open the bag, I found more than a dozen of Beryl's favorite treats, all in different flavors.

Aside from myself, Felix arguably knew Beryl best.

"You are spoiling her." I sighed and closed the bag in my hand.

"You are spoiling her." I sighed and closed the bag in my hand.

Upon hearing what I said, Felix smiled and replied, "She's still young. It's okay to spoil her once in a while.

I felt helpless, but didn't say anything more. Instead, I changed the topic and asked, "Have you found the house yet?"

In the past few years, Alva and Felix had been living in the orphanage. They refused to move into the new residence I arranged for them, saying that they wanted to have their own real home on their own.

Chapter 889 Meeting Grandma

Crystal's POV:

I took my kids out for dinner in the evening before returning home. As soon as I stepped through the door, my subordinate approached me holding an exquisitely crafted invitation.

I took my kids out for dinner in the evening before returning home. As soon as I stepped through the door, my subordinate approached me holding an exquisitely crafted invitation.

As I took in the familiar national flower and the elegant cover, I instantly guessed what the invitation was for.

"Is this an invitation to the celebration of the empire?" I asked.

My subordinate smiled. "Yes, Alpha. The military parade, which is held every four years, is about to take place. Will you attend it this year?"

Chapter 890 A Familiar Voice

Crystal's POV:

Laura's eyes lit up at the sight of the two kids. Unlike the noble and elegant queen that she usually appeared to be, she didn't look aloof and distant to them at all.

Beryl and Arron liked their Grandma very much. They both scrambled to tell Laura what had happened this week.

Arron always restrained himself and patiently waited for Beryl to finish her words first.

Listening to the children's innocent chatter and silly stories, Laura laughed heartily.

I felt somehow comforted watching them talk so happily like that.
