

My Irresistible Love

Chapter 1

In the president's office of the Flourishing Age Group, a man and a woman were playing an intense limited-level video on the bed.

The woman said in a delicate voice, "Mu Feng, do you love me or that Yun Churan?"

"Baby, of course I love you! Yun Churan is a woman with no sense of romance. After tomorrow's perfume competition, I will kick her out. You will be the only boss of the company in the future."

"Brother Mu Yun is the best. Ah, be gentle..."

At this point, the video stopped abruptly.

Yun Churan put away her mobile phone, suppressed the grievance in her heart, and said with red eyes, "This is Shen Mufeng, president of Xiang Mei Company. I have been with him for five years."

"Back then, he founded a company. In order to support him, I didn't even ask for my salary. Every year, I studied perfume in the laboratory every day in order to earn more money for his company, so that we could live our own lives in the future!"

"But this afternoon, they actually had an affair in my lab, trying to stir up trouble..."

At this point, Yun Churan's voice was stained with tears. She sniffed and took a deep breath. When she raised her head again, her eyes were full of stubbornness.

"They trampled on my efforts and ignored my existence. I must make these scums and bitches pay the price!"

"Mr. Ji, please help me!"

On the other side of the desk, Ji Ninghan's face was cold. "How do you want me to help you?"

Yun Churan pursed her lips and braced herself to tell her the purpose of this trip.

"There will be a national perfume competition tomorrow. I know your company will also participate in it. I've studied a kind of perfume in the past few months, and I hope to join your team."

"The Grand Era has already decided on a competition." Ji Ninghan wasn't moved by her words at all.

Of course, she had already guessed it, but she still wanted to fight for it.

"But the competition is not the only one. I just want to join, even as a substitute."

"You're just a newcomer."

Ji Ninghan said unhurriedly, "Even if the Sheng Group doesn't have you, they'll still be ranked. Miss Yun, the company doesn't need any icing on the cake."

Yun Churan was completely speechless.

The Flourishing Age Group was the top existence in the country. She came here today regardless of anything because she wanted to vent her anger!

"This is just a greeting gift. If you think it's not enough, then the perfume I developed in the next two years will belong to the Flourishing Age Group. Is that okay?"

Her sincere words did not seem to arouse Ji Ninghan's interest.

Yun Churan had no choice but to make a desperate decision. "Mr. Ji, as long as you agree to let me join your team, I will agree to any request you make."

"You can agree to anything?" Ji Ninghan stared at her with interest and asked word by word, "Including marrying me?"

"What?" Yun Churan was completely stunned and did not understand what he meant.

Ji Ninghan couldn't be bothered to explain. "If you don't want to, you can leave now."

"No, no, no..."

Yun Churan only felt that he couldn't figure it out. Ji Ninghan was worth hundreds of billions of yuan, and he was as handsome as a male model. He was clean and had no scandal. He was a man that all the women in the city dreamed of!

He actually wanted to marry her?

She subconsciously pinched her thigh. It hurt very much. Wasn't she dreaming? Was there something wrong with her ears?

She looked at Ji Ninghan in disbelief. After much consideration, she summoned up the courage to ask, "Why did you choose to marry me?"
