

Chapter 12

The breakfast prepared by the hot spring club was very sumptuous, and the two of them ate very happily.

"When I go to the company, I'll pass by Nirvana. I'll take you in," Ji Ninghan said calmly.

Yun Churan quickly shook her head and said, "Don't bother. I'm going to report my Nirvana in the afternoon. We've already agreed not to announce our relationship to the public first."

A hint of displeasure flashed across Ji Ninghan's face. She patiently explained, "Don't worry. Since I promised to get married, I won't go back on my word."

The man nodded and said, "Only the highest-level person in charge of Nirvana knows that you were found by headquarters. The other employees don't know..."

He deliberately paused here, staring at Yun Churan's face, and said affectionately, "You are mine."

The short words carried a strong possessiveness, which made Yun Churan's heart beat faster.

"This man is so good at flirting, isn't he?"

Although he had a face full of restraint, every time he opened his mouth and said something serious, it made people blush when they thought about it carefully.

Yun Churan lowered her head unnaturally, pursed her lips, and said unnaturally, "I'm done. Let's go out and make a phone call."

As she spoke, she picked up her phone and realized that there were more than 30 missed calls. They were all from Shen Mufeng.

Having been in love for five years, the number of times Shen Mufeng had called her could be counted on one hand. Even if he had called her, it was mostly for work!

How could he have the nerve to call her when he was protecting another woman in public yesterday?

It seemed that he was so anxious that he had no choice.

Just as she was hesitating, the phone rang again. It was from Shen Mufeng.

She glanced at the name on the screen and then at the calm and elegant man beside her. After thinking twice, she clicked the answer button.

After the theft incident last night, she and Shen Mufeng had completely fallen out. They would be real enemies in the future.

Now that she had chosen to marry Ji Ninghan, she shouldn't have hidden anything from him.

"Hello, Mr. Shen?"

"Yun Churan, where are you?" Shen Mufeng's voice sounded tired. He could tell that he had not had a good rest last night.

"Mr. Shen, if you have anything to say, just say it." She was too lazy to answer Shen Mufeng's question and directly retorted.

"Yun Churan, come back quickly. It's useless to escape like this. You can escape from the first level, but you can't escape from the 15th level!"

"Is that so?" Yun Churan replied calmly, "Why should I run away?"

She wasn't the one who had copied it!

If Shen Mufeng was so capable, he would use the evidence to sue her!

It's so funny to call and threaten someone.

"Since you didn't run away, why didn't you come back all night? Do you know that I waited for you all night!" Shen Mufeng gnashed his teeth and said.

He took a deep breath and tried hard to calm himself down. "I believe it was a misunderstanding about what happened yesterday. When you come back, we can explain it to you in person, okay?"

Yun Churan smiled indifferently and said, "Oh, okay."

After that, she hung up the phone.

Ji Ninghan looked at her. "Are you going to Xiang Mei?"

"No rush." Yun Churan sat back at the dining table. Early in the morning, she found that her ex-boyfriend was having a hard time. She was in a particularly good mood and had a good appetite.

"Anyway, I'm not looking for him. Let him wait."

In the past five years, she had waited patiently for Shen Mufeng for so many times. Now that she could feel that he was waiting for her, wouldn't she be able to get back at him with her own interest?

Ji Ninghan kindly reminded him, "That Shen fellow definitely won't let it go so easily."

As long as Shen Mufeng had some sense of propriety, he would not have made such an embarrassing scene yesterday. He was obviously unreasonable, yet he still dared to make harsh remarks in front of the media.

Wasn't he going to slap him in the face?

Yun Churan's departure was bound to be a fatal blow to his small company!

"That's great. I won't let him go so easily," Yun Churan said indifferently.

Shen Mufeng waited for a whole day.

He was so anxious that he didn't even have lunch or dinner. He waited until seven o'clock in the evening, but he still didn't see Yun Churan.

When he called her, no one answered. He was so angry that he almost dropped his phone.

To one side, Lan Yinmeng was leisurely munching on her melon seeds. She did not forget to say a few sarcastic words, "Mu Feng, I have already told you that Yun Churan is an ungrateful person whom you don't know. You don't believe me!"

"Yesterday's competition was probably a trap that she had dug a long time ago. She was just waiting for you to jump into it! She must be dissatisfied with the current situation and went to find some big boss. She is now waiting for you to have a good show!"

"Shut up!" Shen Mufeng rolled his eyes at her.

He was already full of anger, the reputation of the company was damaged, the betrayal of Yun Churan, the various speculations of the outside world, and so on, all of which made him unable to breathe.

Lan Yimeng had been holding back for a whole day. At this time, her temper also broke out. She said angrily, "It's not me who betrayed you and the company. Why are you so angry with me?"

When she finished speaking, she remembered that her words were not in line with her usual gentle and sensible image. She quickly added, "Don't be angry, okay? It's bad for your health. There are ways to solve any problems. What should I do if something happens to you?"

The more she spoke, the more aggrieved she became. Her eyes were filled with tears, as if she would cry if Shen Mufeng said something harsh.

Seeing her pitiful appearance, Shen Mufeng's heart softened a lot. He sighed helplessly and comforted her, "I didn't mean to get angry with you. I'm really under a lot of pressure today. Don't think too much about it, okay?"

"On the surface, you tried to coax me, but in fact, you are still thinking about Yun Churan. This is not in the bowl..." She quietly approached Shen Mufeng and deliberately touched his sensitive parts.

The atmosphere gradually became ambiguous.

At this moment, the door was pushed open. As soon as Yun Churan entered the door, she saw this scene. She sneered and said, "It seems that I came at the wrong time. If I disturb you, shall I go?"

"Don't go!" As soon as Shen Mufeng saw her, he threw Lan Yinmeng away with a disgusted look as if he was throwing rubbish. Then he turned around and pretended to be affectionate. "Churan, come back. Let's have a talk."

He had been waiting for an entire day, and it wasn't easy for him to wait for Yun Churan. He couldn't let her run away so easily.

"Where did you go? You didn't answer the phone or reply to the message, as if you were evaporated from the world! Do you know how worried I was about you?"

Shen Mufeng couldn't wait to pull her in and close the door.

Yun Churan had really witnessed his free and easy acting. He was still holding Lan Yinmeng in his arms a second ago, but in the next second, he was actually able to talk to her in love like he did before...

Lan Yinmeng, who was left aside, was not angry. She asked with concern, "Churan, it's good that you're all right! You've been missing for the whole night. Are you with the people of Nirvana Company?"

"Did they give you a generous offer? You can't be fooled by Hua Yan's clever words."

Send Gift

Comments