

Chapter 17

Soon, the car behind them was left out of sight.

"Shen Mufeng was afraid that I would jump into nirvana, so he used such a dirty move to defend against me?" Yun Churan couldn't help but complain.

Ji Ninghan looked into her eyes and asked, "Did you promise him that you wouldn't go through nirvana?"

"I didn't agree to anything, but he felt that he had already convinced me."

Anyway, in Shen Mufeng's eyes, his charm was infinite. Yun Churan should be fascinated by him and give herself to him unconditionally.

In the past, Yun Churan had given him enough trust, but after witnessing his shameless betrayal, she was completely awake. She saw through Shen Mufeng's nature as a scumbag and would never be deceived by his sweet words again.

"What are you going to do in the future?" Ji Ninghan asked.

He was very curious about what method the girl in front of him would use to fight back.

Yun Churan replied calmly, "Shen Mufeng will hold a press conference and ask me to take all the responsibilities."

Ji Ninghan's gaze turned colder. He asked, "When?"

"He didn't say the exact time, but I guess it's either tomorrow morning or tonight."

"Why are you so sure?"

"Because he's too impatient."

Yun Churan chuckled and said casually, "What happened last night made him too embarrassed. The reputation of Xiang Mei, which he has always been proud of, has been damaged. He has no patience to wait for the result. This matter must be solved as soon as possible."

"Don't tell me you're really going to admit it?" Ji Ninghan asked.

If she really had the spirit to give up her own life, she would not have made such a big trouble!

"That's impossible." Yun Churan gnashed his teeth and said, "I'm going to take back everything that belongs to me, including the original one and the profit."

Ji Ninghan looked at the stubborn girl in front of him. Once she fell in love with him, she would sacrifice herself for him. But after recognizing the jerk, she immediately sobered up and turned to leave without hesitation, using her own power to get back what belonged to her.

The more he looked at her, the more distressed he felt for the girl in front of him. He said softly, "If you need help, you can come to me at any time."

This short sentence warmed Yun Churan's heart.

In the past few years with Shen Mufeng, she had been used to relying on herself in everything.

He was always very busy at work and engaged in social activities outside. He said that he wanted to open up the market and had no time to eat or watch movies with her. He didn't even have time to listen to her.

Only those days when she developed a new product could she feel the deep affection of Shen Mufeng.

As long as she complained a little, Shen Mufeng would criticize her for being narrow-minded and not understanding him.

But suddenly, a man told her that you could rely on me at any time. Yun Churan was very moved.

It was only then that she realized that the feeling of being doted on was like this!

Yun Churan leaned on his shoulder unconsciously and said, "Thank you."

Ji Ninghan looked at her red eyes and asked in confusion, "What do you want to thank me for? Why are you crying again?"

She sniffed and said, "Thank you for protecting me unconditionally."

"You are now my wife. Of course I have to protect you." Ji Ninghan gently helped her wipe away the tears on her face.

"Where are we going later?" She was not good at being emotional, so she quickly changed the topic.

"Let's have dinner first." He asked with concern, "Are you still hungry?"

Yun Churan touched her empty belly and asked in surprise, "How did you know?"

Could this man have installed a monitor on her?

Ji Ninghan seemed to know how to read minds. She could tell what he was thinking at a glance.

"I don't have the hobby of following others. I just know how to observe more."

As soon as she finished speaking, Yun Churan's stomach suddenly made a "Cooing" sound. It seemed that she was really hungry...

The restaurant, which had been very popular recently, was nothing more than a rose garden that many Internet celebrities had been to.

This was a holy place for couples to date, and the decoration style was unique. The restaurant's owner was Chinese food, and there were also the top chefs of the eight major food departments. No matter what kind of flavor the guests liked, they could find the dishes they liked.

However, the price was too high for ordinary people to afford.

The location of the restaurant was extremely difficult to book, and some private rooms had even been reserved by some big bosses for the new year.

Ji Ninghan had brought her here for a meal. After the waiter politely handed over the menu, he smiled and said, "Miss, what dish department do you like? We have a special menu for choosing."

Yun Churan thought for a moment and replied, "Let's start with Sichuan cuisine."

After that, she turned her head and asked Ji Ninghan, "Can you eat spicy food?"

"Sure." Ji Ninghan nodded.

After Yun Churan took the menu, she took a quick glance at it. The price on it was so expensive that it was hard to accept.

Although Ji Ninghan wouldn't let her pay, when she saw the price, she still felt her heart ache.

"What's wrong?" Seeing that she didn't look right, Ji Ninghan asked in confusion.

"I chose to have a heart attack." She frowned and really didn't know what to eat.

Ji Ninghan didn't urge her. He only said to the waiter, "Make sure your family's signature dishes are all on display. As for the rest, she'll take her time to watch them."

The waiter smiled and said, "Okay."

Yun Churan secretly breathed a sigh of relief, which saved her the trouble.

She put the menu aside and did not want to look at the exaggerated amount. In fact, she was not very poor, but she rarely came out to enjoy life.

Moreover, Shen Mufeng hoped that she could work hard and manage the family. Over time, she had gotten used to the days when a penny was divided into two parts.

The waiter served the dishes very fast. When she was about to eat, her mobile phone suddenly rang.

She glanced at the flashing "Zhenzhen" name on the screen and answered the phone without hesitation. "Hello, what's wrong?"

"Sister Ran, I'm on leave."

"Did he agree?" Yun Churan guessed.

"Of course, he nodded happily! Sister Ran, you're right. Shen Mufeng wants me to leave as soon as possible. Listen to me say that I want to go out for a trip, and he wants me to be responsible for it. I hope I can play for a few more days. He really has a lot of bad things to do."

Yun Churan chuckled and said, "I know."

Treasure's voice sounded very pleasant, and Yun Churan was happy for her from the bottom of her heart.

However, Ji Ninghan was still waiting by the side. She couldn't let him wait too long. She lowered her voice and said, "Go out and have some fun. Be happy."

"Sister Ran, I'm not in the mood to play at this time. If you need anything, call me at any time! If he dares to slander you, I'll be the first one to disagree!"