

Chapter 21

As soon as Yun Churan came in, Shen Mufeng had a bad feeling. He was very worried that she would not play tricks again, would she?

So he took the initiative to grab the microphone and said to the reporters below, "It can't be said that it's a complete copy. Yun Churan has always been a member of our company. She takes on the role of Lan Yinmeng's assistant. She has more or less participated in the creation of the 'Killing Wind'."

"I don't want to describe this incident as cheating or stealing. After all, there are too many temptations in this society. It's understandable that we can't resist our bottom line for a while. We should give Yun Churan another chance. At the same time, Xiang Mei will bring better works to everyone in the future."

Faced with these media reporters, Shen Mufeng was very experienced and knew how to express his meaning sincerely.

He deliberately made himself a capable boss and tried his best to protect and understand the employees who betrayed his company.

"Isn't this the model of a good boss in China?"

The reporters were all moved by him, and they looked at Yun Churan with more contempt.

Now the matter had been completely explained. Yun Churan was unwilling to only be an assistant. He stole the perfume that Xiang Mei had recently developed and wanted to sell it to other companies. Unexpectedly, he was discovered in the competition.

At this point, how could Xiang Mei still be willing to leave such a person who betrayed her?

A sharp reporter stood up and asked, "But Miss Yun Churan said before that she is not an employee of your company. She has never signed a work agreement!"

Shen Mufeng had already considered this question. He answered calmly, "Yes, it's a loophole in my company. It's not that I don't want to sign it, but Yun Churan and I are college classmates. We are good friends in private, so I didn't consider it so thoroughly."

"I usually transfer her salary directly. This is my negligence. Now the company has prepared a new company, ready to sign with Miss Yun. After this misunderstanding, I hope that Xiang Mei will get better and better."

There was a warm round of applause at the scene, and Shen Mufeng breathed a sigh of relief. He was glad that this matter had been solved perfectly.

Fortunately, he reacted quickly. Otherwise, he didn't know what would happen to Yun Churan!

At this time, another reporter came out and asked, "Miss Yun, it's all your fault this time. Shouldn't you have an open apology? Do you know that Nirvana Company has betrayed you?"

"Your behavior is a fraud. Nirvana Company can totally sue you!"

No wonder they were reporters. They were afraid that the world would be in chaos, and they wished that the people on the stage would fight with each other, so that they could have some breaking news.

Shen Mufeng was so scared that he broke out in cold sweat. "Let's talk about this later..."

Before he finished speaking, Yun Churan directly grabbed the microphone and said coldly, "You're right, reporter. I'll answer your first question first. About apology, I don't think it's necessary. They don't deserve it at all."

Her words were so clear that every reporter on the scene could hear them clearly.

The crowd burst into an uproar. They all believed in Shen Mufeng's nonsense. When they heard that she refused to apologize and said that they didn't deserve it, they all felt that the person who stole the work was quite arrogant!

"Are you sure you want to say something like that?"

"They don't deserve it? Do you want them to apologize to you?"

"How shameless!"

All the people present were talking about it. Yun Churan listened with no expression on her face and continued to explain...
