

Chapter 25

"Why are you here?"

Yun Churan was very happy to see him at this time.

Ji Ninghan glanced at her and thoughtfully adjusted the air conditioner in the back row. She took the cloak and put it on her. "Are you in trouble?"

According to the calculation of time, she should have come out of this road a long time ago. Almost, he planned to get out of the car and go and have a look in person.

"It's just a small matter." She gestured with her fingers, indicating that there was no big problem. As a result, when she raised her hand, it got involved. She subconsciously hissed.

Hearing her gasp, Ji Ninghan frowned and held her hand. "He's injured?"

His face was cold, and his voice was even colder. Every line on his face said: He was very unhappy!

Yun Churan quickly explained, "No, it's just that I haven't exercised my muscles and bones for a long time. It's a little sour."

Fearing that he would not believe her, she turned to face him. "If you don't believe me, look, where did I get hurt?"

Ji Ninghan stared at her. Suddenly, he stretched out his hand and gently pinched her cheeks with his thumb and index finger.

Yun Churan: "..."

She lifted her chin slightly, checked it carefully from top to bottom, and then looked at her neck, collarbone, and arms...

His gaze was like an X-ray. He examined her entire body before nodding. "Yes!"

Yun Churan's face flushed instantly.

She didn't make any more movements, but she felt as if she had been caressed by his eyes, and her body was hot and dry.

She just said it casually, but he was really so careful.

The grievance in her heart was relieved a lot in an instant.

To be honest, it was impossible for her not to feel wronged. She had known Shen Mufeng for so many years. In her mind, he had always been a gentle and elegant man. But recently, what happened one after another had changed her bottom line again and again.

He not only cheated on her, but also schemed against her. After completely falling out with her, he even wanted to use force...

Although she had completely given up on this man, after all, they had been in love for five years. It was impossible for her to accept him so easily. In addition to anger, she was a little sad and disappointed.

"Promise me one thing." Ji Ninghan's hand finally returned to her chin. His thumb gently rubbed her lips.

"What?"

"No matter when, don't put yourself in danger."

As he spoke, he suddenly felt a chill on his wrist.

She looked down and saw a silver watch on her wrist.

The watch was very small, but it could be seen that it was made with exquisite workmanship. The watch was moving around in a neither fast nor slow manner.

She rarely had the habit of giving her watches, and it was really surprising for him to give her a watch so suddenly.

"This watch has the ability to locate the world and call people from all over the world. Put it on."

"..." Yun Churan was stunned for two seconds and then laughed. "Are you spying on me in disguise?" She said half-jokingly.

Of course, she knew that the watch that Ji Ninghan had given her meant that she could ask him for help at any time. It was difficult for him to be so thoughtful, so it was impossible not to be touched.

Holding her hand with one hand and still reluctant to part with her red lips with the other hand, he said in a low voice, "It's not a disguised surveillance, but a real-time tracking."

"Why are you so nice to me?" Looking into his eyes, she asked in confusion.

Although they hadn't known each other for a long time, Ji Ninghan was really good to her.

What he had done for her in the past few years was impossible for Shen Mufeng to do.

"Because... you are my wife."

As soon as he finished speaking, he got close to her and kissed her on the lips.

Yun Churan raised her head and took the initiative to cooperate with him.

She was a little shy, but she didn't run away. Her response was a great encouragement for Ji Ninghan.

He smiled with satisfaction and deepened the kiss.

When Shen Mufeng got home, he was completely depressed.

He never expected that one day someone would threaten him with a knife on his neck, and that person was Yun Churan!

How could she be so good at punching and kicking? When did she start practicing? How could she not know? How many things did she not know?

"Clang!" There was a crisp sound of someone stepping on a piece of debris.

Looking at it again, it was a complete mess.

In this mess, Lan Yinmeng sat on the sofa in the living room with a cushion in her arms. When she saw him looking at her, she immediately raised her hand and threw it at him. "You still know to come back!"

He leaned to one side, smashed the cushion on the door behind him, and fell to the ground.

"What are you doing?"

She bent down to pick them up, carefully avoided the fragments, and sat down next to her.

Although it was expected, she still felt upset when she saw such a scene.

"What are you talking about?" Sitting up straight, Lan Yinmeng turned her head to look at him. "Let me ask you, what should we do now? You heard what Yun Churan said at the press conference, and I told you that she can't be trusted! You just don't believe it! Now it's all right, she insists on it. Do you know that I don't even dare to log on Weibo now!"

"Why don't you dare?" Shen Mufeng said, "You don't have a guilty conscience. You are fair and square."

"That's enough. It's fine if you say something like that to the reporters. I'm asking you to think of a way now. I'm not asking you to be perfunctory and coax me!"

She grabbed Shen Mufeng's arm and acted like a spoiled child. The reason why she left the press conference angrily was that she could no longer confront him.

If Yun Churan continued to make trouble like this, it would be bad for her. She might as well pretend to be angry and leave first.

"Now let me think of a way. Why didn't you say that you would think of a way since the press conference left?" Shen Mufeng glanced at her and his face was full of displeasure. "Do you know how the reporters will write if you leave the press conference like this? Are you angry from embarrassment? Are you guilty?"

"If I don't leave, isn't the situation even worse? It's obvious that Yun Churan has already believed in our relationship. She's going to bite me to death!"

As she spoke, her face fell, and her big eyes were stained with tears.

"Mu Feng, what did I do wrong? I just love you! I have gained some fame with her perfume in recent years, but she has always occupied your place!"

"You know, in my heart, there is nothing more important than you! She has taken away my most beloved, and I just take a little profit. So what? She is making trouble now because she wants us to force Xiang Mei to die. Mu Feng, she doesn't care about you at all. She doesn't care about you at all!"

Every word of hers was stuck in Shen Mufeng's heart, and it was exactly what he thought.

As long as she still cared about her old feelings, Yun Churan would not make such a reckless scene.

When he thought of the dagger on his neck, he suddenly felt a chill on his neck, and his heart was even colder.

"Since she's so heartless, then don't blame me for being heartless."

Shen Mufeng's face was a little ferocious. "She thought that she was amazing just because she knew the formula and idea, but she didn't know that the authorities only looked at evidence. What we have is evidence!"

"What do you mean? Are we really going to sue her?" She was just trying to scare him.

"A lawsuit? Not to mention the trouble, I may get into trouble."

"Of course, of course! Not only do we have to sue him, but we also have to let everyone know!"

Chapter 26

Shen Mufeng was not joking this time. Soon, he posted a lawyer's letter in the company's headquarters, saying that he wanted to sue Yun Churan and ask her to apologize and compensate for the loss of the company.

Not only was it posted on the website, but also on the platform such as Weibo and bar etc. There was also a statement from Xiang Mei. It seemed that she was going to take it seriously.

Xiang Mei was so tough, and the Nirvana stage was completely silent, so the public opinion was very clear.

Although what happened at the press conference that day made people feel confused, and some people even doubted that Yun Churan was innocent, they quickly changed their standpoint because of Xiang Mei's attitude.

If it weren't for his guilty conscience, why didn't Nirvana stand up and speak? Why didn't Yun Churan show any favorable evidence?

In the face of the blame of Xiang Mei, Yun Churan's performance was really too bland. She responded, but she reposted the message in the lawyer's letter and replied with four words: "I will accompany you at any time."

It seemed that she said it lightly, but every word showed contempt, as if she could see her disdainful eyes. She didn't take Xiang Mei's warning seriously at all.

The response of these four words immediately triggered a heated discussion, rising to the top of the hot search list.

Originally, there were not many people in the industry of perfume artists, such as perfume and beautiful makeup. If it were not for the new products or the endorsement of popular stars, it would be rare for them to be on the trending list.

As a result, in recent days, because of this scandal and the fight, it had frequently become a hot topic.

This matter was out of the circle. Many onlookers said that they had seen someone who copied, but they had never seen someone who was so tough. Both sides did not admit it, but they were sure that there was nothing wrong with them. It was really hard to tell.

Compared with the enthusiasm of the onlookers, the person involved was too calm. At this moment, she was on her way to the Nirvana stage, and then she received a call from Zhenzhen.

"You're back on vacation?"

She had a relaxed smile on her face, but Wu Zhen's tone was anxious. "I saw the lawyer's letter from the company outside. How are you? Do you want me to help you?"

Yun Churan burst into laughter. "No need."

"You don't have to worry about dragging me down. Until now, even if I don't stand out and express my stance, Shen Mufeng will not tolerate me." Zhen Zhen understood very well.

During this period of time, she took the opportunity to travel. Her mobile phone was turned off, and she only turned on another private mobile phone. When she came back at this time, she found a lot of messages, which told her to sell off her vacation and go back to the company. As for how many phone calls she made, it could be imagined.

Why did he ask her to come back? She could roughly guess it by moving her toes.

"I'm not afraid of dragging you down. I really don't need it." After a pause, Yun Churan continued, "Don't worry. If it's useful, I won't be polite to you."

At this point, Zhenzhen could only nod her head and say, "Okay, then you should be careful."

She admired and trusted Yun Churan. Having been by her side for such a long time, she was really convinced of her talent and talent in incense. But this time, it was not an ordinary thing.

After all, Shen Mufeng was the president of the company. Everyone in the company had to listen to him. Yun Churan had been in the laboratory almost all these years. She rarely dealt with people from the company, so she was the only one who could prove that these perfumes were from her.

As for those documents that had been snatched away by them, Yun Churan would definitely suffer a loss whether it was in terms of human testimony or material evidence. Zhenzhen did not know what her confidence was. Was it the confidence given by Nirvana?

However, forget about the fact that Nirvana was only a part of the flourishing era, it was hard to say what kind of status it held in this era. Even now, no one from the Nirvana stage stood out to help her say a single word.

Zhenzhen still felt uneasy. Coupled with Shen Mufeng's constant urging, she decided to go back to the company first and help Yun Churan find out the truth.

On Yun Churan's side, he had officially gone to the Nirvana stage.

They had talked about it before, but they had not signed the contract. Yesterday, they had an appointment to come here on the first day.

In Ji Ninghan's words, he should first familiarize himself with the environment before officially starting his job.

Under her strong insistence, Ji Ninghan didn't interfere too much. He only asked Yuan Fei to arrange it. However, even so, she knew that her arrival wouldn't be so peaceful.

They passed through the office area and went straight to the general manager's office of Nirvana. There were already three people waiting inside, two of whom she had seen before.

"Mr. Wang."

The one sitting in the middle was the general manager of Nirvana, Wang Rong. The man on the left was the manager of the company. Both of them had met before, and the woman on the other side was unfamiliar.

Seeing her coming, Wang Kui immediately got up and walked around the table to her. He raised his hand and gently placed it on her shoulder.

"Xiao Yun, welcome to the Nirvana!"

"Hello, Mr. Wang and Mr. Li." She greeted politely. Her eyes fell on the woman and she stopped.

"Let me introduce you. This is the manager of our project, Zhao Xin. She is a strong woman. I hope you can cooperate well in the future," Wang Rong said with a smile.

"Hello, Mr. Zhao." Yun Churan greeted him, but her intuition told her that her future boss was not easy to deal with.

Sure enough, Zhao Xin just slightly nodded and stopped looking at her.

"Mr. Wang, our project is not short of people."

"There is no lack of people, but there is a lack of talents! After all, Nirvana is still in the primary stage. It is extremely necessary to bring benefits to the company. Yun Churan is a talent. You should take her well. This is also to inject fresh blood into your project."

Wang Kui's words didn't allow her to refuse.

However, it was obvious that Zhao Xin was not an easy person to back down. She even dared to challenge the chief. "talent? But why have I never heard of such a person in the industry?"

"Oh, that's not right. I remember that two or three years ago, there was a well-known 'Noseless,' called Yun Churan. Do they share the same surname? Or..." Her words were not polite, and her eyes were also very sharp.

In the face of her questioning and making things difficult for him, Yun Churan straightened her back and said, "If they don't share the same name, then I'll be the one that Manager Zhao is talking about."

"Oh?" Zhao Xin looked surprised. "So, is the requirement of 'genius' so low now?"

"There was a little misunderstanding about what happened that year, but it was hard for Manager Zhao. It's been so long, and I almost forgot about it. Do you still remember?" Yun Churan smiled. "It can be seen that we are really fated. We are destined to work together."

She was neither painful nor itchy, which made Zhao Xin's face fall. "It's fate, not fate. It's an evil fate."

Then, she stopped smiling and turned to look at Wang Kui. "Mr. Wang, I won't allow a person with no qualifications to come to my project. What's more, she has a lawsuit. I don't think it's wise for the company to recruit such a person at this time!"
