

Chapter 35

On the screen of the tablet was a Weibo, which seemed to be some sensational news. At a glance, Yun Churan saw that the Weibo owner was a big V who often made headlines. He immediately turned his head and laughed at him. "I didn't expect that President Ji would read these gossip."

Ji Ninghan gave her a sidelong glance, not saying a word.

Yun Churan had a vague feeling that something was wrong with her eyes. He looked at the screen again and took a closer look at the content of the article. It was about her.

It was about her when she was in college. To be exact, she had been in society since she was in college. Among them, the most detailed information was about her relationship with Shen Mufeng and Lan Yinmeng.

The book was very loud. It was a happy time when a bitch jumped up and down.

Yun Churan was dumbfounded.

Rather than being angry, it was better to say that she was too surprised. She did not expect that Shen Mufeng would do such a thing.

He thought that he had used the full power of slander and slander to seize the information and to sue him in court, but he didn't expect that there would be such a trick. He didn't even allow them to carry their previous feelings.

Oh, I'm sorry! Maybe they really don't have any feelings for each other.

Otherwise, how could they do this?!

"I..." After roughly looking at it for a while, Yun Churan turned to look at the man behind her. "Do you believe me?"

It didn't matter what others said or how they slandered him. What mattered was what he thought.

Ji Ninghan still had that calm look on his face. Hearing her question, he only blinked his eyes. "What?"

"I've told you, it's boring."

This time, he turned off the tablet and took her into his arms. He looked down at her face and pinched her nose with one hand. "Are you angry?"

Yun Churan shook her head.

Then he opened his arms to hold his neck and pressed his head against his shoulder pocket, taking in the sense of security that came from his body.

That's right. How could she ask this stupid question? If he believed in those things, how could he be so calm? He said it was boring. He trusted her so much. Although he trusted her without any conditions, even she herself felt puzzled, it was really reassuring!

The longer she spent with him, the more she understood what a good man should be like in this world, so that she could reflect on what kind of shit she used to have, and how she would be so loyal to someone like Shen Mufeng.

"You've said that it's boring. Why should I be angry about it?" She leaned against his shoulder and said gloomily.

"That's right."

Ji Ninghan stroked her long hair with one hand and rubbed it in his palm. It felt really good. He loved it so much that he couldn't let it go.

"You skipped work on the first day of work. Are you unhappy?" He asked casually, as if they were chatting. "Is there someone in the company making things difficult for you?"

"No. The leader is very considerate. Give me three days off to deal with my personal affairs, and give me time to adapt to the new environment as soon as possible. Don't be too considerate." She clapped her hands and applauded to the new leader.

"Is that so?" Ji Ninghan gave her a sidelong glance. He was suspicious of her words. "It seems that I need to find some time to take good care of such a considerate leader."

He looked very serious and didn't seem to be joking at all.

Yun Churan waved her hands repeatedly and said, "That's not necessary. Nirvana is just an insignificant subsidiary of the Sheng Group, and our leader is just my immediate superior. He is far away from you, the high and mighty president. If you suddenly meet him like this, don't scare him."

"Pfft..." Being amused by her, Ji Ninghan pinched her chin. "This flattery isn't bad. Think about it and reward me."

"What should I reward?" she asked with great interest.

"What... do you want?" She got close to her and asked, almost sticking to her ear.

At this moment, all the pores on Yun Churan's body were opened. She jumped up like a spring. "Well, I have to think about it carefully! Let's eat first. I'm hungry!"

Seeing that she had escaped into the kitchen, Ji Ninghan didn't try to stop her. He smiled and withdrew his gaze. His gaze landed on the tablet again, and the waves in his eyes darkened.

Although it was just some nonsense, the woman who dared to slander him would definitely make these people pay the corresponding price!

In the kitchen, Yun Churan washed her hands and went to the refrigerator to rummage. She thought there were only some simple things like instant noodles or eggs, but she didn't expect that there were all kinds of meat and fresh vegetables, which surprised her.

He had thought that someone like Ji Ninghan wouldn't be affected at all. He didn't like to have servants at home every day. It hadn't even been two days since work had started. How could he have stored so many things at home?

She rummaged through the dishes and decided to cook first. She would ask him later.

Recently, she had been busy with the "improve Wind" issue, so she hardly had a good meal. Later, Ji Ninghan took her out to have a big meal twice, but she missed the home-cooked dishes.

There was a ready-made pot of bone in the refrigerator, which saved him a lot of trouble. He directly mixed the blood and stewed it in the pot. Then he broke the eggs to stir it up and cut some side dishes.

Outside, Ji Ninghan had been sitting there for a while. By the way, he had dealt with some things. Before his little woman came out of the kitchen, he got up and walked in.

When he came in, Yun Churan was cooking with a pot in his hand. From the door, he smelled a strong fragrance, so strong that he couldn't eat directly.

She simply stopped at the door of the kitchen, leaned against the door frame, and looked at the busy little woman quietly.

She was slim and wore a large home apron with a belt around her waist, which made her look thinner. She turned her head to look at the soup and was busy cooking. She was really beautiful.

It was just that...

After watching for a while, Ji Ninghan seemed to have seen something. He frowned, stood up straight, walked over, and took the shovel from her hand. "Let me do it."

"Ah!" He was so focused that he didn't notice when he came in. Yun Churan was shocked.

Fortunately, he reacted quickly. He covered her waist with one hand to prevent her from falling down, and held the shovel firmly with the other hand. The next second, he had taken the initiative to take over the task of cooking.

"You... I'll do it!"

Yun Churan was stunned for a moment. She wanted to take it back, but he skillfully avoided her. As he stir-fried the dishes in the pot, he pushed her out and said, "You go out first. It'll be ready soon."

"..." She didn't understand what he meant. Yun Churan stood beside him for a while. Seeing that he was also good at cooking, she didn't mean to force him.

"Go!" Seeing that she was still standing by the side, Ji Ninghan urged her

Since someone had already taken her place, Yun Churan could only withdraw from the second-tier position. "Well... well! I've already let go of the salt in the soup. Don't put it in any more."
