

Chapter 5

As soon as Yun Churan got out of the car, she saw that Shen Mufeng's car was parked at the entrance of the venue.

He was wearing a black suit tonight, with a formal smile on his face. He really looked like a successful person.

After Shen Mufeng got out of the car, he turned around and walked to the other side of the car. He opened the door and took Lan Yinmeng's hand to get out of the car.

It turned out that when her ex-boyfriend was so gentle and considerate, why hadn't she found out?

"What are you looking at?" Ji Ninghan turned around and asked in confusion.

She quickly lowered her head to hide the disappointment and unwillingness in her eyes.

She was disappointed because she had spent five years. Why did she have such poor taste? She did not expect that she could not see that Shen Mufeng was a pure-hearted scumbag. She was unwilling to let the two of them step on her and live such a glorious life. They were in love with each other outside and did not feel guilty at all.

Her efforts and feelings over the years had really been fed to dogs!

Although this perfume competition was not large in scale, it was quite fair and just. The judges were professional experts selected from various departments.

All the participating works were sent by the representatives of various companies three hours before the competition.

When it came to the ranking, experts would judge the quality of the perfume, as well as the scent of the perfume.

Now the ranking of the competition had been announced, but it had not been announced yet. After everyone gathered together, the awards would be announced one by one.

After getting out of the car, Yun Churan kept a very low profile. She followed Ji Ninghan to the VIP room. There was a super-large broadcast screen inside, so they could clearly see what was going on inside the venue.

As soon as Shen Mufeng and Lan Yinmeng entered, they were praised as a golden boy and a jade girl. They were so proud of themselves, as if they had the confidence to win the first prize.

Yun Churan looked at them with no expression on her face. Taking advantage of the fact that the award hadn't been announced, she smiled more. When the host came to the stage, they would cry.

The lights in the venue dimmed, and it was time to reveal the answer. The guests who were praising each other sat up straight and stared at the stage.

According to the usual practice, the host would start from the most inconspicuous award.

Shen Mufeng obviously didn't take these small awards seriously. It was the best if he couldn't hear the name of Xiang Mei Company, but he didn't like those awards.

Not long after, the host on stage began to announce the top three awards.

The host cleared his throat and emphasized, "This competition is fair and just. You can participate as long as you meet the requirements of the competition. But I have to warn you, except for the quality of the perfume itself."

"The character of the competitors is also very important. We are determined to destroy all copy and corruption. Once we find them, we will punish them severely!"

Yun Churan, who was in the VIP room, looked nervous. Her fingers subconsciously tapped on the table again and again, staring at Shen Mufeng and Lan Yinmeng on the screen.

Obviously, they didn't know why the host said these words, and he took the lead to applaud. He was like two clowns!

Shen Mufeng, in particular, said shamelessly, "Although my Xiang Mei Company is not large in scale, it has always respected the management and firmly resisted cheating. Even if the final result is not satisfactory, we will never do something without bottom line."

Lan Yinmeng immediately agreed and said, "That's right. Although I'm just a middle-level antique, and my skills can't compare with other seniors and masters in the industry, I've always kept my bottom line in mind. I'll work hard to design my own work and get my perfume out of the country!"

These high-spirited words instantly lit up the whole audience.

The reporters also seized the opportunity to take photos of the harmonious scene of two people holding hands.

The manager still had that polite smile on his face and asked, "Mr. Shen, do you mean that the Xiangmei Group's participating works are absolutely unique? Is that so?"

"Of course," Shen Mufeng replied with great confidence.

He had a vague feeling that something was wrong. He had participated in many auctions and competitions before, but no one had ever asked him as much as he did today...

But on second thought, the main event of the company this time was the Flaming Wind perfume, which was the result of Yun Churan's three-month experience in the laboratory, and it could still be guaranteed.

With this confidence, he straightened his back, and his eyes and eyebrows were full of pride.

Yun Churan looked at the jerk, who was trying to get up, and felt that it was extremely ironic.

The host gave Shen Mufeng a meaningful look. When he turned to look at the crowd, he said seriously, "There is a special case in the process of this competition. The works that the two companies used to participate in the competition are the same, and even the names of the works are the same."

Although she didn't directly name the company, the host had specially asked Shen Mufeng before. A smart person would know who he was talking about when he heard it.

As for who the other company was, he had no idea.

Shen Mufeng's face darkened on the spot. This was more embarrassing than not winning a prize!

The host's meaningful words were a slap in the face, weren't they? If this was exposed by the reporters, the reputation of Xiang Mei would be ruined!

He frowned and was anxious to know what had happened.

In the VIP room, Yun Churan stood up with great confidence. "It's my turn."

Ji Ninghan reminded him with a straight face, "If you can't solve it, you can choose to come to me."
