

Chapter 6

"In order to be fair, the judges decided to postpone the release of the award for the top three this time. We'll make it public after the investigation."

As soon as these words came out, the whole audience burst into an uproar.

The people below began to discuss, "Why do we have to postpone the announcement? It's unfair to others."

"Since there is a work of Lei Tong, why don't we cancel the qualification of these two companies?"

The reporters picked up the camera and pointed it at the stage in high spirits.

Before coming here, they thought it was just an ordinary competition. They didn't expect that someone dared to copy it. Wasn't that the headline of tomorrow morning?

Shen Mufeng was particularly confident, and his words were also very arrogant. "Yes, since there is a case of Lei Tong, why don't the host announce the result at the scene so that everyone can see which two families are suspected of cheating."

"I believe that the people in charge of these two companies are also present, and there are so many peers as witnesses. If we work together, we will certainly be able to get more benefits."

His righteous tone immediately became the focus of attention.

Before the host on the stage could say anything, Shen Mufeng was so anxious that he couldn't wait to prove his innocence.

It was as if she was an innocent victim!

Anyway, he had made up his mind to protect Lan Yinmeng and not let her become a joke in the eyes of others.

Lan Yinmeng's eyes and brows were filled with pride. Now that she was standing beside Shen Mufeng, she had become the focus of everyone's attention.

The bigger the fuss became, the more famous the Wind-burning perfume would be in the future.

At that time, even without publicity, it could directly become the perfume with the first sales volume. Shen Mufeng would definitely make a lot of money.

As long as they kept holding Yun Churan, the cash cow, in their hands forever!

The host frowned and looked at the chaos on the scene. Suddenly, someone ran to the stage and whispered a few words in his ear.

"Next, the committee decided to announce the names of the two companies and the two contestants' works."

With this, the host cleared his throat and said in a serious tone, "In this competition, the participating works of the two companies are the same. This perfume is called ' started by the wind'."

Hearing this, Shen Mufeng and Lan Yinmeng were both stunned.

Previously, Yun Churan had specially named the perfume as Flaming Wind. It was a combination of her and Shen Mufeng's names. With the addition of "Fire", she hoped that this perfume could make the company prosperous in the future.

Only the three of them knew the meaning of this name. It was such a coincidence that the company had the same name as them!

After this, the host no longer kept her guessing and said straightforwardly, "Yes, one of the companies that published this work is Xiang Mei Company. The other company is named Nirvana."

As soon as the name "Nirvana" appeared, it caused an uproar again.

This company was the head of the Flourishing Age Group, and no one could afford to offend the people behind it!

At this time, Shen Mufeng still didn't realize that the problem was serious. He said sarcastically without thinking, "I'm very curious. How did you get the formula of the perfume that Xiang Mei Company has worked hard to develop?"

He was really not afraid of offending people. As soon as he came up, he directly sentenced Nirvana, and insisted that this company was a copy.

At this moment, a cold female voice suddenly came from outside the door.

"Excuse me, is there any problem with the perfume I have tested?"

A graceful figure slowly walked into the venue. Under the spotlight, she wore a light blue dress, and her legs were slender and long. She put on light makeup and looked like a beautiful lotus in the distance. Her every move was elegant.

Her eyes were confident and firm. Especially when she looked at the scum and the b*tch, there was a provocative smile on her face.

Shen Mufeng was the first to react. He said incredulously, "Yun Churan, why are you here?"
