Chapter 931: Han Fei's Determination

Han Fei, who had taken over Gao Cheng's body, looked at his head in Gao Xing's arms. If he didn't stop Gao Xing, he'd be killed next. Everyone was born to be free, at least, that was what Han Fei thought. He was not good at human interaction, but he never thought of giving up on his life. He tried his best to be a comedy actor. That was his dream. He wasn't born to be a vessel for the black box. He just wanted to live. Gao Xing's appearance placed the truth before Han Fei. The chopped head explained everything.

Han Fei was made for a conspiracy. This is not the future I want, so I will you even if I have to die with you. The black mist rose. Han Fei held Rest in Peace. Energy came from his person.

Gao Cheng? Gao Xing's soul looked at Han Fei. He shook his head. No. You are not Gao Cheng. Something went wrong.

The black box was with Fu Sheng. You wanted to cultivate the new owner and killed endlessly for it. Han Fei understood many things. Fu Sheng couldn't stop you when he was an Unmentionable. He decided to take a bet. Before you knew it, he handed me the black box and revived himself in me.

The bloodred night at the orphanage turned Mad Laughter and Han Fei into suitable vessels for the black box. Fu Sheng knew that things couldn't change, so he based his plan on Han Fei. Fu Sheng didn't care about Han Fei's life because he needed to defend the world. However, Fu Sheng didn't expect Han Fei to make a choice different from him. Of all the owners, Han Fei was the only one who tried to open the box from both sides.

The different choices gave Fu Sheng a chance to see a different future. Fu Sheng started to train Han Fei as his successor. The Mirror God's altar was for Han Fei to get used to the cryptic world. Fu Sheng used his past to push Han Fei into despair at the plastic surgery hospital's altar world. However, Han Fei protected Fu Sheng's childhood and family in spite of the despair he faced. It was since that moment that Fu Sheng's attitude toward Han Fei changed.

After the challenges of many altar worlds, when Fu Sheng was also healed by Han Fei, he made the final choice. Fu Sheng originally planned to use the theme park altar world to take over Han Fei's body, but it became his farewell ritual. Both Fu Sheng and Mad Laughter failed to take over Han Fei's body. In the theme park altar world, Han Fei became the true owner of the black box. The blinds between Han Fei and Mad Laughter lowered, and Fu Sheng put down his past and placed his future in Han Fei.

Han Fei had experienced many things since he entered the cryptic world, but actually, he had merely experienced Fu Sheng's life.

The exchange of the building manager was completed inside the theme park altar world. Fu Sheng's life was wiped away. Other than Han Fei, all the other people would slowly forget Fu Sheng. Han Fei also swore to take up Fu Sheng's will.

The black flame of hatred burned behind Han Fei. Pure Hatreds crawled out of the abuse. They shivered before the False God, but there was anger in their eyes. I will not take Fu Sheng's route to destroy the cryptic world, but I will not allow you to enslave the real world as well. There has to be a balance between salvation and destruction.

There was pure evil like Dream, Butterfly, and Ten Fingers in the cryptic world, but there were also innocent victims like Ying Tong and Weep. Some people became despair while others still struggled for hope.

At least for Han Fei, the souls who were willing to fight for hope outnumbered the pure evil in the cryptic world. The cryptic world was not unsalvageable. The place merely needed full treatment.

I kill those who needed to be killed and save those who needed to be saved. That is why I have the black box.

The time inside the Taboo Building changed. The clock hands on the clocks trembled. The walls cracked, and dust started to cover the devices. Han Fei's personas influenced the rules of Taboo Building. The endless greed wanted to eat this place.

Immortal! On the lowest floor, Han Fei summoned the strongest ghost of the world of sins!

A sticky sea of blood gushed out. The whole floor soon became part of the fleshy hell. A giant figurine rose from the red sea. Strange patterns grew on it. It was invincible. This was the strongest Pure Hatred Han Fei had ever encountered. The rules governing the Taboo Building were corrupted by Immortal. All the black fire was mixed with Han Fei and Gao Cheng's ambitions. They had fully ruined Gao Xing's day.

The future you want to see will never appear. You're merely dreaming inside your own altar. All the devices started to turn into flesh. Immortal stopped the black dream device. Monsters in the nightmare scattered away. Blood sea gushed into the black dream and washed away Gao Xing's presence. His blurry face became clear. It was a normal face. His eyes were covered by black cloth, and he looked dispirited.

Do you want to kill me inside my own altar? The soul that represented Gao Xing's future stopped. Every word he said would influence the altar world. With every word, the Pure Hatred around Han Fei weakened. However, he was not the real Gao Xing. He could only do so much.

The names of the dead appeared on Gao Xing. All the people Gao Xing had killed became his power. The names were the scariest tattoo in the world. I've committed the gravest sin, but who can punish me? Do you think you can? Gao Xing laughed freely. He raised his hands, and the names covered the sky. Gao Xing grabbed the immortal figurine, and names started to appear on it as well. Flesh collapsed. Many voices echoed inside Immortal. They vented their hatred on Immortal.

Humans are the ugliest things in the world. Any creature is better than a human being. Look. I have merely given them a small chance, and they have decided to attack anything close to them. Such ugly humanity!

While you say that, you also yearn for the love and approval of your mother. Actually, the majority of the world is not bad. A pair of eyes slowly opened behind Han Fei. Gao Cheng had taken over Gao Xing's eyes of memory and had resolved everything with his birth parents. After obtaining the eyes of salvation at the hospital, Gao Cheng now had the right to fight Gao Xing for control of the altar!

Twinflowers have their fates bound together. The bloom of one will wilt the other. Gao Xing, your flower of the soul will wilt today.

Gao Cheng hated Gao Xing the most. He was captured and tortured by Gao Xing until Han Fei arrived. Even if he had to give up his own body, he'd drag Gao Xing into hell with him. He was only one step away from his dream. The eyes bled. The world and sky started to crack. The cracks corresponded to the cracks on Gao Xing's figurine.

Gao Xing's soul noticed he could control less and less power. The smile on his face dwindled. He reached for the black cloth on his face.

Be careful! No. 2 suddenly shouted. He had predicted the imminent danger.

Fate is never on my side. Everything is against me. Everyone who sees me wants to bully me. My parents want to dig out my eyes to give to another child. The neighbors call me a thief. The students call me a bastard. The teachers never help. Ive never relied on anyone else. Therefore, youre not going to make me love anything in this world. The only thing pushing me on is the desire to crush all of you. I will dismantle this place that has only disappointed me. The black cloth was removed. An altar was hidden inside the eyes.

This was different from all the altars Han Fei had seen so far. The altar inside the eyes was made up of cadavers. Gao Xing had turned everyone who had bullied him into materials to build his altar. The other Unmentionables altars were powerful and mysterious, but Gao Xings altar was filled with the desire to destroy. A terrifying presence emitted out of Gao Xings eyes. Everything he saw would be torn apart, even Pure Hatreds.

This is his power! Gao Xings life has been pierced by sins and murders! This also means that this soul of his is borrowing power from the real Gao Xing! No. 2 couldnt use his power too many times inside another persons altar, or hed suffer irreparable damage, but there was no other choice. No. 2 grabbed Gao Xings fate chains, and then he walked to the spot where the kids were hiding. The children who were numbered after 20 had no fighting ability. They stayed far away from the battlefield.

Im sorry, but I have to do this. No. 2 handed Gao Xings fate chain to a woman. The woman was wearing a black robe as she stared at the crazy Gao Xing. Hes your biological son. Ive connected your fates. You might need to atone for his sins.

Chapter 932: Matricide

Gao Xings mother was the only person who still loved him in this world. Even if the world thought he was an unforgivable bastard, his mother still loved him. No. 2 and the other children could feel this clearly. Gao Xings mother looked at her son with nothing but regret. As his mother, she failed to protect her son, and ultimately, he ended up a crazy man because of it. The more reckless Gao Xing was, the more regretful she felt.

Holding the chain of fate, the woman removed her robe. What should I do?

All my abilities are related to fate. I will connect your fate to his and destroy him by killing you. No. 2 didnt lie to Gao Xings mother. You should know what Gao Xing has done. Giving him a simple death is the best ending for him.

No. 2 told the other kids to leave. The chain of fate slowly glowed with blood. Without No. 2 needing to do anything, the chain pierced through the womans heart. As the most unique Pure Hatred in the altar world, Gao Xings mothers soul was pure. The black flame she had was different from other Pure Hatred. She had never hated everyone. She became a ghost due to love.

At the battlefield, Gao Xing and Gao Cheng felt something. They reacted the same way at the same time. They abandoned the battle and charged at their mother. As the chain of fate was dyed red, Gao Xings mother started to wither.

No. 2?! The fleshy hell expanded. Han Fei rushed to No. 2. Gao Xings mother hadnt done anything wrong. She was the most innocent in the altar world. Han Fei also wanted to kill Gao Xing, but he would never use Gao Xings mother as a sacrifice. She had once helped him too. No. 2 didnt expect Han Fei to come at him. In his plan, Han Fei would use this chance to attack Gao Xing. Are you going to stop me too?

Gao Xing, Gao Cheng, and Han Fei didnt want the woman to die. No. 2 looked conflicted. He didnt want to make the decision. He handed the chain to Gao Xings birth mother. The choice is yours. If you want to save everyone and stop the cycle of tragedy, then kill Gao Xing; If you fear death, then you dont need to do anything. No. 2 walked away. He glanced at Han Fei. He used to look at No. 0 the same way.

The chain of fate connected Gao Xing and his mother. In this world, they only had each other. Gao Xings mother slowly picked up the chain. She looked at the children running at her. Both Gao Xing and Gao Cheng were her sons. She wanted to love them forever, but she couldnt do that. Her love morphed into the black flame. The wavering flame represented her soul. After a moments hesitation, the mother made a choice. The black flame dissipated. She wanted to bring her sons away from this world of pain.

Gao Xing had done too many crazy things. If he were alive, more people would be hurt. Gao Xings mother had seen too many tragedies in the cryptic world. If she allowed Gao Xing to continue with his plan, everything she saw would become real.

Are you going to betray me too? You also want to kill me! The chain connected Gao Xings heart to his mothers father. When he saw his mother was ready to give up her black mist, the worlds beautiful pair of eyes burned with hatred. I've given you half of my world and carved you inside my altar. You are everywhere in my future. How can you do this to me?!

His mother would rather die to kill him. As his mother's soul weakened, Gao Xing's power was affected too. Gao Xing wanted to struggle loose from the red chain, but no matter how hard he struggled, nothing changed. No one could manipulate their mothers. Without his mother, Gao Xing wouldn't have existed.

You, all of you, shall die! Gao Xing's world collapsed. He was completely insane. He wanted to kill his mother. On this day, Gao Xing lost everything. The altar in the eyes bled. A cruel world crawled out of Gao Xing's eyes. He grabbed the chain that connected him to his mother and gazed at her with his eyes. Gao Xing used his power on his mother. He couldn't shake off the binds of fate, so he would kill her before she could do any damage to him!

When Gao Xing opened his eyes, God's eyes appeared before the mother. Gao Cheng had experienced love due to his adoptive mother. Even though he knew that the woman behind her was not his birth mother, it was this woman who showed him the beauty of the world. For Gao Cheng, the woman was all the colors in the world.

Twinflower bloomed. Four eyes met.

Gao Cheng controlled the power he stole from the altar to resist Gao Xing. I've stolen your fate. You can take revenge on me, but you can't harm her.

God's eyes lost their colors. Gao Cheng faced the attack head-on. His memory started to fade, and wounds appeared on his soul. Even No. 2 didn't dare to face Gao Xing's power directly.

There's a prerequisite behind Gao Xing's power. One has to be looked at by him. Han Fei noticed this key point. Earlier, when Gao Xing tried to kill his mother, he turned around and away from Han Fei. The pressure on Han Fei lowered significantly. No. 1 noticed this as well. No. 3, and he already appeared beside Gao Xing.

If we attack at the same time, only one person will be attacked.

The sins channeled into Han Fei. Han Fei hid inside the sea of mist and raised the blade. No. 3 and No. 1 were ready. They all rushed at Han Fei. At this point, no one was afraid of death. They had experienced worse things than death. Gao Xing realized something was wrong a few seconds later. These few seconds were enough for Han Fei's group to surround Gao Xing.

Gao Xing pulled the chain of fate. He wanted to use his power on the others, but Gao Cheng exploded Gao Xing's eyes. He grabbed Gao Xing tightly. Twinflower bound together. Gao Cheng's hatred was no less than Gao Xing's.

With faith, miracles will always happen. No. 1 aimed his punch at Gao Xing's heart.

Han Fei gathered the power of all the Pure Hatreds. He slashed at Gao Xing's neck. The shine of the blade lit up the entire world. The rules of the building fell apart. The floor cracked. Red threads fell down. Gao Xing's wife finally smiled. She didn't need to hide anymore. She turned the fear and hatred in her heart into a blade.

Gao Xing's expression froze. This should be the best day, but it has become the worst day. That's not true. Every day is awful whenever I'm alive.

At the last moment, Gao Xing focused his eyes on Gao Cheng. Without you, all the happiness should be mine. It was you who stole everything from me. Gao Xing's soul stared at Gao Cheng. Even at death, they were bound together.

The altar in Gao Xing's eyes glowed. The doors opened. The power of the Unmentionable poured into Gao Cheng's body. Before he died, Gao Xing wanted to destroy Gao Cheng.

I want to destroy this disgusting world. If I can't do that, then I'll kill everyone who disgusts me. If I can't do that, then I'll just kill you!

The punch pierced Gao Xing's heart. Rest in Peace decapitated Gao Xing. His head was destroyed by his wife.

Gao Xing's last soul finally disappeared.

The altar hidden in his eyes appeared at the lowest level of Immortal Skyscraper. It resonated with the altar inside the black dream device. After killing Gao Xings three souls, his altar was now ownerless. The most suitable heir, Gao Cheng, was killed by Gao Xing.

The souls of two children burst into colors under the sun. Gao Xings mother slumped to the ground. The chain on her heart shattered.

Gao Cheng made his choice. You have protected him for his whole life, and he just wanted to protect you once. Han Fei could sense everything related to Gao Cheng disappearing from his mind. The man had disappeared after being abolished by the Unmentionable.

He hadn't been with Gao Cheng for long, but he could be considered the person who understood Gao Cheng the most, other than his mother. Even if he had to go against the world, Gao Cheng would stand up repeatedly to resist God.

Gao Xings three souls have disappeared, but his actual body is still in real life. After you take over his altar, you can kill him next. No. 2 walked over. A God who has lost his altar is not to be feared.

Looking at the black dream device, Han Fei walked forward with Rest in Peace. He pulled off the black cloth and waved the blade at the figurine.

No one would stop him in this world. Screams echoed everywhere. Gao Xings main altar was destroyed. Class Sevens kids moved Mad Laughters figurine to replace the destroy figurine. Immortal Skyscraper started to crumble. The altar world was changing!

Han Fei heard the system notification.

Notification for Player 0000! Youve completed Grade C Altar Mission Worst Day!

After destroying all the figurines inside Immortal Skyscraper, you should understand that all fates point towards you. You are the tragedy and the hope.

Notification for Player 0000! Youve gained triple EXP and a chance to bring a ghost out of the altar world! Youve gained Gao Chengs approval and can inherit the entire greed persona. This persona will become a part of you and can be brought out of the altar world. Gao Cheng wished to give everything to you after his death. He hoped that youd help take care of his mother!

Greed Persona (Eight awakenings): Your burning desire will consume everything!

Notification for Player 0000! Your level has increased twice! Obtained 2 free attribute points.

Gao Cheng was a real soul. He was a twinflower with Gao Xing. He had disappeared with Gao Xings three souls.

One day, will I become like them? Han Fei looked at Gao Xings broken carcass. His head was right there. I am the hope and the tragedy

Chapter 933: Nine Awakenings

The black box was in Han Feis brain. He was the key to the tragedy but also the hope. Those who knew the truth might have a different attitude toward Han Fei. Some would do everything to kill him, and others would do the opposite.

Han Fei touched his head. He opened the greed abyss and swallowed the head, the black dream device, and Gao Xings soul fragment. Han Fei broke through the limit and became the only person with nine awakenings in the city. The greed abyss turned into the world of sins. Gao Xings endless names entered his brain. They became part of the greed persona. His mind almost became the second altar world. This breakthrough was like Pure Hatred becoming Unmentionable.

No wonder theres a limit in Gao Xings altar world. After the ninth awakening, the human brain would build a new mental world based on his memory, experience, and personality.

After the tragedy, humanity was not completely helpless. Persona users with eight awakenings could fight Pure Hatreds, and persona users with nine awakenings could touch the Unmentionables world. The key point was nine awakenings was still not the upper limit. Han Fei tasted the edge of the greed persona. His world of sins affected the running of the altar world. He could sense all the sins running in the city. Unfortunately, that only works in the altar world. If only I'm as strong after I leave Gao Xing's altar.

Gao Cheng and Gao Xing's souls disappeared. The altar world had a categorical change. All of Gao Xing's figurines shattered. Mad Laughter's figurines became the city's only faith. Without Gao Xing in the way, Mad Laughter easily took over Gao Xing's last altar. The figurine slowly took on Mad Laughter's resemblance.

Why hasn't he awakened yet? Han Fei and the kids of Class Seven could reach this step mainly because Mad Laughter had sacrificed himself. Now that Gao Xing's three souls had been vanquished, Mad Laughter should have been reborn.

There are some things and people related to Gao Xing still remaining in the altar world. Only after eliminating them that usurpation is fully successful. No. 2 looked at Han Fei differently. He didn't think Han Fei could reach this stage, but Han Fei used actions to prove him wrong. He wasn't worse than No. 0.

Han Fei nodded. The usurpation was 90 percent done.

The fight between Gods was crueler than expected. All the souls on the altar were affected. The kids picked up Mad Laughter's figurine and entered the corridor. After Gao Xing's soul died, Immortal Skyscraper changed completely. This was hell on earth. The images reminded Han Fei that he couldn't allow this to happen in real life. Everything in the building rapidly aged. The investigation members outside the building noticed the anomaly. They looked at the building entrance with high alertness.

No one was able to leave the Taboo Building alive, but that was about to change. The rusted door was pushed open from the inside. Han Fei, Ah Nian, and the kids walked out. They had changed the world and the fate of everyone in the altar world.

From today onwards, the new era has arrived. The moment Han Fei exited the building, cheers erupted in Zone A. The humans suppressed by ghosts roared. God who enslaved the world has been murdered. Our future will be built on his body. The sun shone, and the clouds covering the city dissipated.

The three survivor bases spread the good news. Han Fei became the new leader.

Gao Xing and Gao Chengs birthdays are the days after tomorrow. Well finish the usurpation ritual before the birthday party.

Han Fei led the persona users of the three bases and cleansed the city. He didnt kill all the ghosts. He had his own plan. It would be hard to create a world where humans and ghosts coexisted in real life, so Han Fei wanted to use this altar world as a test drive. One day, Ill find the balance between the real world and the cryptic world. Han Fei had a plan. Perfect Life is the plan Fu Sheng has written for me. The elder who wanted to destroy the cryptic world probably has considered this option before.

Han Fei worked together with No. 2 to clean up the rest of Gao Xings forces. Mad Laughter changed every moment. Han Fei didnt relax. He didnt know how many ghosts he could bring out of the altar. In the end, he decided to feed most of his trapped Pure Hatreds to Wu Chang. The weakest ghost who accompanied Gao Cheng eventually became the strongest ghost in the city. Everything continued until Gods birthday.

After acquiring many sacrifices, Mad Laughters figurine changed on the day Gao Cheng and Gao Xing was born.

The New God walked out of the Old Gods altar. The twisted laughter turned the whole world. Gao Xings rules were changed. The bright sun turned red.

The survivors were all stunned. This New God was crazier than the Old God. Han Fei was quite helpless. Mad Laughter tore apart the altar world. His life as Gao Cheng was reaching the end. The edge of the altar world started to crumble, but the people and souls survived. Gao Xings planned future was changing based on Han Fei and Mad Laughters hope. It returned from despair and moved down another direction.

The city changed. The sky was forever covered by the blood. Humans and ghosts shivered, but this time, they had to face the unknown together. Laughter came from the altar and echoed throughout the world. Han Feis vision blurred. He could see the kids entering Mad Laughters altar. Only No. 2 stood before Mad Laughter and had a serious conversation with him. On Gods birthday, Gao Xing didnt appear. Mad Laughter completed the usurpation and became the new owner.

The system rang incessantly. This was Han Feis first time escaping from an Unmentionables altar.

Notification for Player 0000! Youve completed Grade C MissionUsurpation!

Usurpation: Kill Gao Xing to become the New God!

Gao Xings consciousness in the altar world has been demolished. You will become the new owner of the altar and mobilize the Unmentionables power inside the altar!

Warning! When you choose to use the power of the Unmentionable, youll lose the right to be a human!

Notification for Player 0000! Youve completed Grade C Altar MissionTwinflower! Youve protected all 30 children inside the altar. Youve gained triple EXP and friendliness level with all the kids!

Youve completed your promise to No. 0! No. 0 has promised something to you too. Hell never replace you!

Notification for Player 0000! Youve reached the ninth awakening for the greed persona! With this persona, whenever you first enter a new altar world, you can release three ghosts trapped inside the abyss!

Warning! All the ghosts will change once they leave the altar world. The stronger they are, the bigger the changes! Taking away powerful ghosts will affect the stability of the altar world! Please be careful!

Warning! There are more hidden talents to be found in this power!

Notification for Player 0000! Youve killed more than 10000 criminals and evil ghosts in the altar world. You even dared to punish God. Compatibility with profession, Executioner reached 100 percent! Do you wish to take on the unique hidden professionExecutioner of Unmentionables?

Executioner of Unmentionables: Judgement and execution. All the tragedies and sins are your targets. Your name cannot be mentioned in the dark.

Warning! The requirements to fit this profession are very difficult. You need to actively take down the souls of Unmentionables before level 50 to complete the profession upgrade!

Han Fei was shocked. Attack Unmentionables before level 50? But this profession looks like it can damage Unmentionable. I should consider it. Han Fei picked Executioner as his third profession and saw the detailed introduction for it.

Profession Speciality 1: Everyone who has a guilty conscience will be afraid around you. Your weapon will sharpen during execution!

Profession Speciality 2: You have eyes that can see through all the sins. You have a strong body to face all kinds of danger. Stamina + 5!

Profession Speciality 3 (Sin Seeker): All the sinners youve killed will become your strength. Their names will provide you with superhuman ability!

Profession Speciality 4 (Atonement): The damage you receive can be replaced by your collected sins. Your determination is so firm that no sins can shake you.

Profession Speciality 5 (Execution): Execute your target by exploding the power of all the sins. This effect is effective on all ghosts except Unmentionables!

Han Fei already had Rest in Peace. With the power from Executioner, he finally had the courage to slash Unmentionables.

After being in the cryptic world for so long, Han Fei knew that most abilities wouldnt work on Unmentionables, so he was very satisfied with this new power.

Han Fei still had one last thing to do before he left the altar world. He decided to use the reward from his main altar mission, where he could take one ghost out with him.

He had many choices, like Ah Nian, Yan Lan, and the other Pure Hatreds, but in the end, Han Fei chose Gao Xings mother.

He could bring out three trapped ghosts with him, but Gao Xing's mother was not trapped in the abyss. Other than that, Han Fei also promised Gao Cheng that he'd look after his mother.

Ghost Mother once helped Gao Cheng see the colorful world. This time, Han Fei believed it was right to bring Ghost Mother back to the normal world. After all, the real Gao Xing was still alive.

Chapter 934: Big Ghost and Small Ghost

In this world, only Gao Xing's mother still cared for him. This connection was the most unique. After Han Fei made the decision, a shadow flashed in the altar world. At the same time, Han Fei's mental realm started to collapse, and the ghosts he had trapped were absorbed by the altar world again.

It's time to make a choice.

Han Fei could bring three ghosts out with him. He first chose Wu Chang. Wu Chang had consumed endless Pure Hatreds to become a Top Pure Hatred. Then, Han Fei planned to choose Immortal, but Immortal was too strong. If he brought it out, it would shake the altar world's foundation. Han Fei took a step back and chose the Executioner and the little girl lost at the aquarium. Actually, the choice wasn't so hard. Most of the ghosts had been eaten by Wu Chang, and the new altar owner was Mad Laughter.

Notification for Player 0000! You've made your final choice!

Wu Chang (Top Pure Hatred): It exists for the sake of Gao Cheng. It will always protect you in the changing nightmare. You personally fed his Pure Hatred so its power would not decrease after leaving the altar world.

Executioner (Unique Pure Hatred): It is 100 percent compatible with your hidden profession. It has obtained all the sins accumulated in the greed abyss and the world of sins. It is one of the most unique Pure Hatreds in the altar.

Deep Seas Daughter (Pure Hatred): Her black flame burns in the deep sea. She was once taken in by Gao Xing, but she now follows you. Don't let her feel lonely again. When you bring her light, she'll repay you with warmth.

Han Fei's greed abyss disappeared after the three Pure Hatreds left. The process lasted for quite some time. When Han Fei reopened his eyes, he was already back inside the skyscraper.

His limbs were encased inside the building's main pillar. Around him were the cadavers. The altar made from flesh was right before him. The black cloth was lifted by the blowing wind. Since Mad Laughter completed the usurpation, the fleshy figurine took on Han Fei's face. Gao Xing's disciples bled and died on the spot. The battle at the top floor shifted as well. Everything was turning for the better. The risk of usurpation was high, but the reward was high too. Han Fei added all his free attributes into stamina. He noticed something new in his menu.

Player 0000 has two personas!

Greed Persona (Nine awakenings): Extremely rare persona. Only the craziest ambitionist has the chance to awaken it.

Healing Persona (First awakening): 1/10000 persona. In many people's eyes, you're the medicine to heal the world. You are hope incarnate.

Warning! You can use the power of the persona anywhere. They exist as long as you believe.

Han Fei had no idea what the persona power was just from reading the menu, but he felt like the system was giving him some hints. He could use the power of the persona not only in the cryptic world but also in the real world.

Once the tunnel between the two worlds opened, the power of persona changed as well. However, Han Fei temporarily would not allow that to happen.

The giant axe chopped open the living pillar. The Executioner opened a gap for Han Fei. The little girl and Wu Chang followed up. They surrounded Han Fei. Big Sin was thrown out of the altar by Mad Laughter. It felt like the Executioner had taken over its spot. It pouted. Next to Big Sin was a weak mother. After leaving the altar world, Gao Xing's mother lost all her hatred and became a normal soul. Her power came from regret. After Gao Cheng and Gao Xing's three souls disappeared, her power disappeared too.

Gao Xing still exists in real life. The things you saw in the altar world are the things he is planning to do. The man is attempting to commit to his crazy plan. Han Fei wanted to persuade Gao Xing's mother, but after knowing what she had gone through, Han Fei realized sometimes, words were rather powerless.

Han Fei sighed. Han Fei had Big Sin protect Gao Xing's mother while he went to find Xu Qin. Xu Qin was anxious after she saw Han Fei enter the altar world. She hated herself for failing to protect Han Fei, and she started a massacre.

It's fine. We've taken over the altar. When Han Fei saw Xu Qin, the emotions inside his heart surged forward. He just wanted to take a rest beside her. Xu Qin pulled Han Fei to her side. She would protect him.

It's fine. Han Fei was about to say something when the death presence enveloped the whole floor. Evil Soul, who had taken over the director's body suddenly, appeared. While Han Fei was gone, the Evil Soul had expanded greatly.

You're still alive?! And I thought I finally had my chance. Evil Soul glanced at the altar. That No. 2's brain is cunning. He split your soul because he probably predicted that you might die. Speaking of, where is he?

No. 2 might still be inside the altar. Han Fei didn't understand the current situation. When he left the altar world, he saw No. 2 standing before Mad Laughter's figurine. He was talking to Mad Laughter seriously.

That person is the kind who'd do anything to achieve his goals. We need to be careful of him. He's just a brain, but he dares to do so many things. Evil Soul led the way forward. He was not afraid of anything. He was crazy and evil.

The elevators inside the building stopped giving Han Fei trouble. They successfully came to the 99th floor. Han Fei pushed open the last door leading to the rooftop. Black rain fell on their bodies. Han Fei and the four Pure Hatreds came to the roof.

A giant eyeball was like a dual-colored sun hanging in the sky. This was Gao Xing's last insurance. It hung right above the skyscraper. However, currently, black names crawled all over the eyeball so that it couldn't see the world clearly.

Right underneath the eyeball was a thin old man. He was united with the night. His body of sins was enough to make Pure Hatreds feel fear.

Teacher Hearing the familiar voice, the elder turned around, but he could no longer recognize Han Fei. In the murky eyes, there was only hatred for sins. Even after death, he still wanted to protect Xin Lu.

Cant you recognize me anymore? Han Feis emotion was complicated. After the Sin Seeker used their power too much, they would become engrossed in the power and would lose themselves completely.

The elder did a lot of work to prevent Gao Xing from descending to the altar fully.

A womans laughter came from the altar the Executioner was carrying. Red life threads dropped from the night. Each thread had Gao Xings enemy hanging on them. Everyone who fought with Gao Xing was turned into a dead body. The one who helped Gao Xing kill them was Big Ghost.

The laughter echoed on the top floor. All the life threads swayed. An unmentionable presence gathered. Moments later, a monster that looked like Gao Xings wife came out of the life threads. Her body had taken over half of the sky. Her body was covered in wounds and sins.

The elder stared at her. The night became his blade. However, the monster didnt attack the elder. She crawled among the threads and finally knelt before the altar. With Mad Laughters help, Gao Xings wife was released from the altar.

The wife who had regained her humanity was immensely beautiful. She walked towards the giant ugly monster.

Over the years, Gao Xing trapped his wifes humanity and consciousness inside his altar. Then, he channeled the experiments Dream wanted to try on him to his wife. After he made sure there was no problem, he would use them. Gao Xing didnt believe in Dream, so he sacrificed his wife, who believed him, unconditionally. His childhood experience turned Gao Xing into a madman. He lacked normal emotions. He turned his wife into the Big Ghost, who relied on him. That was how he repaid her love.

Even after I was killed by Gao Xing, the wounds he delivered still remain. Even time cant wipe them away. Gao Xings wife walked out of the altar and touched Big Ghost. Their bodies combined and became complete.

Big Ghost was Gao Xings wife, and she underwent Dreams modification with Gao Xing. Little Ghost was Immortal Pharmas Fu Yun. Han Fei found that out in the altar world, but he hadnt seen this person before.

Life threads in the night sky snapped. Big Ghost found her humanity. She was no longer under Gao Xings control. She even became the ghost who wanted to kill Gao Xing the most. The eyeball became the only thing in the sky. Everyone had abandoned it.

Teacher, leave the rest to me. Han Fei had the Pure Hatreds place the altar under the eyeball. The altar, made from broken body parts, came alive. The people who were killed by Gao Xing reached out their arms to scratch the eyeball in the sky. They would never reach the eyeball in the sky, but Han Fei and Mad Laughter had given them this chance.

Endless sins pressed on Gao Xings eyeball, causing it to fall from the sky. It was dragged by the hands into the altar.

The black rain in the sky slowly stopped. Everything that belonged to Gao Xing was taken over by Mad Laughter. Mad Laughter stepped on the giant building, and his terrifying smile echoed throughout Zone A.

A sentence on Han Feis back slowly disappeared. It was Jin Shengs curse on him. It was also a different kind of blessing. Jin Sheng believed Han Fei would stand on the cryptic worlds tallest building and become the owner.

In the end, Gao Xing didn't appear. The madman probably knew the altar here had been destroyed. He probably is going to start Dreams plan.

There were still many things to do in the cryptic world, but Han Fei had to return to real life as soon as possible. The worst future was about to happen in real life.

Chapter 935: Waging a War

The mad laughter appeared to be some kind of siren for the cryptic world. Mad Laughter had been oppressed for so long since the bloodred night. Killing Gao Xing's three souls was just the first step in his revenge.

Han Fei moved away from the altar to Gao Xing's mother. Gao Cheng has disappeared, but Gao Xing is still here. The scenes you saw in the altar world are slowly becoming true. I don't know much about Gao Xing, so I need your help.

Gao Xing's mother was the person who knew Gao Xing the most. The woman sat at the edge of the skyscraper and looked down at the dark world. This was the place her son lived. If she didn't stop Gao Xing, all the living humans would be dragged into this hell.

I can tell you everything I know, but I hope you can promise me one thing. Gao Xing's mother pleaded. I wish to see Gao Xing, not his soul but his actual person.

Gao Xing is in real life, and he has become an Unmentionable. This request is rather hard. Han Fei sat beside the woman. Is there something you want to tell him?

I want to hug him. Gao Xing's mother looked at the night. The rain had stopped. At least one hug.

Gao Xing owed the world, but Gao Xing's mother felt the opposite. She felt like she owed Gao Xing. It was because of that guilt that she became the strong Ghost Mother.

Okay. I promise you. Han Fei took out a white box. This box was the first-place prize Huang Yin won a long time ago for being the first-place winner in the rankings. It could allow Han Fei to bring an NPC out of Perfect Life. Han Fei originally planned to keep this super rare item for his neighbors, but none of his neighbors planned to leave Happiness Neighborhood alone. Therefore, Han Fei kept this item until now.

Gao Xings mothers eyes teared up after hearing Han Feis answer. She thanked Han Fei and began to share with him his memory of Gao Xing, from the first time she saw Gao Xing at the optometrist's hospital to the last moment when she was dragged to the altar. Gao Xings mother saw her son slowly walk into the abyss and became the new king of crime at Xin Lu.

Theres a voice controlling Gao Xing. Gao Xing calls it Dream. Gao Xing knows that Dream is not human, but he is overly confident in himself. He believes he can become stronger than Dream. Gao Xings mother told Han Fei seriously. When you trap a human and a lion together, the human has to be on alert at all times. If he lets his guard down, the hungry lion will not hesitate to eat him.

What are you trying to say?

Youve destroyed Gao Xings world and eyes. Now is the moment when he is the weakest. Dream might attack him. After stripping him of his value, Dream will eat him alive. Gao Xings mother was very clever. Gao Xing didnt return even if his altar was destroyed. Perhaps Dream is in his way too.

Gao Xings mother patiently explained Dreams scariness. Actually, she didnt need to do that because Han Fei knew how scary Dream was. At the theme park altar, Han Fei had seen Dream in action. Dream was an Unmentionable from Fu Shengs era. The scariest thing was one of Fu Shengs altars at Ziggurat was taken over by Butterfly. Butterfly was a puppet cultivated by Dream. Therefore, Fu Shengs death might be related to Dream.

Dream and Gao Xing wanted to find the black box. However, neither of them expected that Fu Sheng had already moved the box to real life and had already given it to Han Fei.

Never underestimate Dream. It is a monster that can cultivate Unmentionables. After it knows youve destroyed Gao Xings altar, it might find another way to destroy the city. Gao Xings mothers words stunned Han Fei. His enemy was not a normal entity. It was the vilest existence in the cryptic world.

The future I saw turned the rooftop of this skyscraper and the basement of Immortal Pharma into a channel between the two worlds. If they want to change the plan, where will they make the new channel?

Im not sure. Gao Xings mother shook her head. But I can tell you where you can find Gao Xing.

Do you know where hes hiding?

Yes. Ill bring you there personally. Gao Xings mother was very clear. She wanted to see Gao Xing in person. To be able to kill Gao Xing before the tragedy was very alluring to Han Fei. After giving it some thought, Han Fei placed the white box before Gao Xings mother, This is the first time Im using this. Im sure if itll work or not. The success rate is higher on weaker ghosts.

Its okay. After leaving the altar world, Im no different from an Animated Regret. After Gao Cheng disappeared, Gao Xings mother only had one family left. She just wanted to see Gao Xing. The white box opened, and a weak light glowed. It was out of place in this world.

However, to everyones surprise, the small light opened a crack in the night sky above them. The terrifying presence came from all sides. The cryptic world didnt allow this to happen. It didnt want any locals to see the light. Ghost Mothers soul entered the white box. Soon, the light disappeared. The white box fell on the ground, and it looked so normal.

Is that it? As a member of the cryptic world, Han Fei couldnt bring the white box out either. He had to summon Huang Yin.

Huang Yin appeared and was surrounded by four Pure Hatreds. He almost jumped off the building. Whenever Han Fei called him into the cryptic world, it would shock him immensely.

Brother Huang, long time no see. Han Fei gave Huang Yin a big hug. It made Huang Yin feel uncomfortable. Hadnt they met a few days ago?

How come you make it feel like its our last meeting every day? Huang Yin whispered. Is there anything that you need my help with?

Theres something very important. Han Fei didnt hide anything from Huang Yin. He told him everything that had happened to him inside the altar world. This time, our enemy is Immortal Pharma and Unmentionable. I cant do this alone. I need help from the police and everyones help.

Immortal Pharma wouldnt allow the police to investigate the building. However, Han Fei needed to take on the company to prevent the tragedy from happening. He decided to take out the evidence from the altar world. Some people are unwilling to change, so well help them change.

Is that too crazy? Huang Yins scalp numbed the moment he heard the words Han Fei said. He knew how influential Immortal Pharma was.

Ill give you a list. Well start with the secret clients of Immortal Pharma. Han Fei had a super powerful memory. He silently wrote down the info he found in Fu Jings office and the underground lab. Seeing the names Han Fei provided, Huang Yin sweated. There were a lot of big shots.

They form an alliance due to a shared benefit. But I can tell you for certain that immortality wont be realized temporarily. If they continue to trust in Immortal Pharma, they will only become a shell controlled by ghosts. Han Fei pointed at the cryptic world behind him. There are many ghosts here waiting to take over their bodies.

Do you think theyll believe that? Huang Yin chuckled sadly.

I control both Butterflys dresser and the theme park passage. Plus, I have the Spiritfarer talent. If words cant convince them, well use actions. Han Fei smiled cruelly. It isnt too hard to make them suffer 1/10th of my pain, right?

Your smile sure is scary. No wonder youre the most popular horror movie actor now. Huang Yin put away the files. Dont worry. Ill do my best.

Huang Yins eyes shone with determination. This is officially a war with Immortal Pharma, right?

Were merely helping it get back to the right path. Han Fei handed the white box to Huang Yin. A mothers soul is inside this box. Try to bring her out of the game. We need her help.

Huang Yin was sent back. Han Fei took a deep breath. Xin Lus fate would be decided in the next few days.

Fu Sheng is the founder of Immortal Pharma, and Im Fu Shengs handpicked heir. So what is my connection to Immortal Pharma?

Chapter 936: Brain Failure

After sending Huang Yin away, Han Fei reached his limits as well. However, he still had many things to arrange. Li Xues teacher became the strongest Night Police at the skyscraper. He dared to stop God even under the night. However, his consciousness had sunken into endless sins. It was unknown when hed awaken again. The elder depended on his determination to defend the rooftop. As long as he was still there, no one would be able to get close to the door.

With the elder and Big Ghost guarding the building, Han Fei was relaxed. Mad Laughter was still absorbing Gao Xings power inside the altar. The brain fragments hidden inside the building were found, but Han Fei realized there were still more missing fragments. Only when he collected all of No. 2s brain fragments that Han Fei had gained a complete Unmentionable. No. 2s power was related to fate. He was much stronger than the Singer and Mirror God.

Han Fei had all the ghosts listen to Xu Qin as he asked her to take over the black rain area. Then, he pulled back Evil Soul, carried the altar, and pressed the exit button.

Blood descended, but the bloody person who was always there didnt appear this time. Han Fei tried to turn back, but the bloody man had already left. He had to rely on himself from now on. Blood swallowed the city. Even the sky was dyed red. Han Fei stood on the rooftop alone. He could sense the threat from all sides. Unmentionables from the deep world have noticed him. The monsters who killed Fu Sheng were turning to him. Han Fei felt moisture near his eyes. He lowered his head. His eyes were bleeding. His chest, arms, and body were covered in blood.

In the past, when he logged out of the game, only the city was dyed red. This time, even his body was red.

Does this mean the person behind me has been sharing my burden in the past? The pain came from the back of his head. When Han Fei reopened his eyes, he was already out of the game. Compared to before, it felt like the pain was 10 times greater. Once he moved his body, it felt like it was going to break. He tried to remove the helmet, but as his hands touched it, it felt like a knife pierced into the back of his head. The sharp pain knocked him out again.

Darkness fell. Han Fei felt like he was trapped inside a black box. No matter how loud he yelled, there was no answer. He was alone. After who knew how long, light shone on Han Fei's face. There was someone calling his name anxiously. The pain didn't disappear. Han Fei opened his eyes blurrily. He saw the white walls and bed. He was at the hospital.

The patient is awake! The rapid footsteps came. The door was pushed open. Several doctors came to the bed and inspected Han Fei. Han Fei, who had just escaped from the cryptic world, was still unfamiliar with this. When he saw the doctors, he subconsciously wanted to evade them.

Han Fei, relax. The familiar voice calmed Han Fei. He turned to the voice. Li Xue and her colleagues guarded his bed. The female director of the Investigation Center overlapped with the woman before him. Han Fei moved his fingers. Li Xue grabbed Han Fei's hand and leaned in as if to listen to him.

His situation is rather special. It was a coma due to acute brain failure. Normally, brain failure can be caused by intracranial hematoma, hematoma due to external trauma, or high intracranial pressure. However, based on our CT scans, other than the small shadow at the back of his head, he's completely fine. The doctors recognized Han Fei as the famous actor, but they had no idea why so many police were with him.

How can that be treated?

There are many reasons behind brain failure, and we have no conclusive treatment for clinical patients. The doctor said with difficulty. Now, we can only confirm one thing. His brain is indeed gradually failing. If we don't find out the reason, he might slowly lose perception of things or go into a coma.

Go into a coma? Li Xue and her colleagues were worried. Over the years, only Han Fei and Huang Yin managed to escape from Butterfly. Furthermore, Han Fei helped the police a lot.

The doctor nodded. To be honest, we recently have received many patients with brain failure. They share one similarity. They've all played a game called Perfect Life. Before the doctor could finish, a patient appeared at the door. He looked very pretty, like an actor. The police immediately became alert. Han Fei couldn't move, and he was an easy target. They needed to protect him.

My name is Qiang Wei. I'm Han Fei's friend. We've met inside Perfect Life. After Qiang Wei left the game, he had the same symptom as Han Fei, but his condition wasn't serious, and he recovered quickly.

Well wait for him to wake up first. Li Xue rejected Qiang Wei. She had everyone leave the room after the doctors finished the examinations. Han Fei woke up in the afternoon. He got filled in by Li Xue. Han Fei lost consciousness after he exited the game. Huang Yin called Han Fei, wanting to ask him what to do with the white box. However, he couldn't reach Han Fei. Worried, Huang Yin called the police. The police kicked down the door and rushed the unconscious Han Fei to the hospital.

Han Fei had many secrets that he couldn't tell the doctors. The way he left the game this time was different. The bloody man behind him disappeared, and it took longer for him to leave the game. All these had to do with how Mad Laughter had left his body. There was two consciousness in this body in the past. Mad Laughter had become an Unmentionable. He planned to leave Han Fei alone.

Brain failure? Han Fei had two personas, and his mind was stronger than most. Normally, this shouldn't happen to him. This coma is probably caused by the altar mission. I was in Gao Xing's world for too long. Once I stop entering the cryptic world, everything will slowly recover. Han Fei mumbled to himself. Han Fei had Li Xue prepare many portions of meat. With the nursing staff looking on in shock, Han Fei engulfed all the food. His appetite alone differentiated him from a normal person. The doctors even wanted to find out whether his condition had caused gluttony. Han Fei planned to leave the hospital after that.

Li Xue, I have some criminal evidence on Immortal Pharma. It'll greatly help your investigation of the company, but the info cannot be leaked. I need to meet your superior. Han Fei told Li Xue seriously. I'm Teacher's last student. I will finish his wish.

Han Fei was a helpful citizen in the past, but after Li Xue's teacher officially took him on as his student, Han Fei's identity changed. The police saw him as one of their own.

Okay. I'll ready the car now. Once Li Xue and her colleagues left, Qiang Wei appeared outside the door. Beside him was the player called Boss. He was the founder of Absolute Truth.

Han Fei, long time no see. Qiang Wei's memory had been edited by the hospital altar. He only remembered that he was friends with Han Fei.

Why are you here? Han Fei was shocked.

Same as you, after we left Perfect Lives hidden maps, Boss and my brain suffered damage to a certain degree. Qiang Wei walked to the bed and lowered his voice. I came here this time mainly to tell you one thing. He pulled back the curtain and frowned. Someone is hunting all the children who have participated in the persona experiment. My friends and I have been targeted. A few of them have died.

A hunt? Han Fei remembered the future he saw inside the altar. The members of three organizations carried 31 black boxes into Immortal Skyscraper and used all the despairing children as keys to open the path.

Of course, we are not sitting ducks. Weve been through hell and we plan to fight back. Qiang Wei extended his hand to Han Fei. You are close to Xin Lu Police. I hope you can join us.

No problem. Han Fei accepted. But you have to consider this. We are not facing just those killers but also Immortal Pharma.

It has treated us as experiments. It turned us into monsters. Its time for it to pay. Qiang Wei didnt show any fear. The children had all grown up.

Han Fei nodded and then he turned to Boss. Is this our friend too?

Im just a normal rich man. Boss met Han Fei in game too. I used to have some conflicts with Immortal Pharma.

What an interesting introduction.

Han Fei told Qiang Wei some info about the three criminal organizations. He told them to be careful. The crazy people were mixed in their everyday lives.

After getting Qiang Weis contact, Han Fei reached out to the other surviving children. To Han Feis surprise, all the children who survived the persona experiments were elites in Xin Lu.

Compared to them, Im so normal.

Chapter 937: Night and Net

Han Fei shared part of his plan with Qiang Wei and Boss. However, for these kids, the main thing wasn't to take revenge but to save themselves. Only by being alive could they witness the future they wanted.

Li Xue and her colleagues burst into the room. They escorted Han Fei away. "Come on. Let's go to the headquarters. My superior wants to see you." Li Xue drove Han Fei. Two officers sat at the back.

"It's fine. You don't need to assign such heavy protection detail on me." Han Fei felt his social anxiety coming back, surrounded by the police.

"Xin Lu is too dangerous now." The fact that this came from Li Xue signified how serious the situation was. "It doesn't look like much on the surface, but we've already crossed swords with three criminal organizations on many invisible battlefields. They are a lot more cunning than we thought."

"Invisible battlefields?"

"Yes. Those people have taken down the defense of Xin Lu's online world. They have sent many viruses into the web." Li Xue's expression was severe. "Whenever night falls, they would attack the internet to destroy the traffic control, communication system, and economy. This is an attack from all sides. Panic spreads among the citizens." The three organizations contained a lot of criminals, but some of them were very clever. The firefights that Han Fei expected didn't happen. The Unmentionables chose the battles that would hide their weaknesses. Dream, Gao Xing, and Butterfly were experts at playing with human emotions.

"They appear to be fighting a war without any bloodshed." Han Fei knew the scariness of Unmentionables. But he didn't expect they could still cause such damage after the cryptic world was sealed.

"The enemy is scary, but we're not pushovers. Until now, they haven't really reached the core control system. We're basically pushing and pulling around Deep Space Tech's seventh supercomputer." Li Xue revealed some insider info.

"The seventh supercomputer? Isn't that the core of the intelligent city too?"

"Yes. The three organizations no longer have enough human power to personally commit crimes. Therefore, they are trying to use the city to kill people by controlling the auto cars, management bots, and so on." Li Xue said worriedly, "The machines used to save lives will become emotionless murderers."

Han Fei frowned. He remembered something. "Compared to that, isn't it more dangerous for the millions of players who play Perfect Life? All these players have their consciousness inside the virtual playground made by the supercomputer. If these players were all controlled by ghosts..."

"All the info says that they haven't attacked Perfect Life," Li Xue's colleague said.

"The three organizations are attacking Deep Space Tech. Is it possible that this is a distraction? Could their real target be the other giant, Immortal Pharma?" Han Fei saw the worst future at the altar. He knew that Gao Xing and the three organizations would sneak into Immortal Skyscraper on Thursday to open the path between the two worlds. Han Fei looked at the people around him. "What day is today?"

"Wednesday."

Han Fei broke out in cold sweat. "This is not good! We might have been fooled! We must make a move now!" Han Fei panicked because he had seen the worst future, but for the others, he might be overreacting. However, the police treated him seriously because Han Fei had proven that he had a sharp criminal instinct.

At the headquarters, Han Fei met Li Xue's superior. It was Captain Zhong from the Investigation Center. Han Fei cut straight to the point. He shared part of what he saw in the cryptic world with the man.

"The members of the three criminal organizations will enter Immortal Skyscraper on Thursday. Their real target is the black box hidden underneath the building. There's someone called Fu Yun at Immortal Pharma. He's their spy." The police wouldn't believe this so easily, but Han Fei was prepared. He listed out the things he memorized, exposing Immortal Pharma. "All my hypotheses are based on evidence."

"How did you know these things?"

"A few Immortal Pharma workers with conscience told me," Han Fei wanted to mention Du Jing, but he didn't want to bring her trouble. When Immortal Pharma was wiped out, Han Fei planned to use this excuse to find some talents.

"Your info is very valuable. But our enemy is not Immortal Pharma but the criminals." The superior said seriously. He had his people verify Han Fei's words.

"I understand." Han Fei knew the rules. "I handed you the info so that you can force Immortal Pharma to cooperate with you. Immortal Pharma's Fu Yun is just an opening. Immortal Pharma has done many horrible things in the past. Now that you have evidence, they will need the scapegoat, and Fu Yun will be that scapegoat for them."

Seeing Han Fei, the superior sighed. "I finally understand why that elder would take you as his final student."

In reality, justice required due process. Han Fei handled this well. He wasn't blinded by hatred.

"Go back and rest. Leave the rest to us. I'll personally negotiate with the admins of Immortal Pharma." The leader told Han Fei, "I believe they'll focus on the big picture."

Han Fei was sent out of the headquarters. He looked around at the bustling city. The normal citizens had no idea how much danger they were in.

"Tomorrow is Thursday. I have to stop Gao Xing." Han Fei called Huang Yin. He realized that Huang Yin was already at Han Fei's home. He was worried. Han Fei took a police car back to his home. He saw Huang Yin once he arrived. Beside Huang Yin was a giant wooden box. When the police left, Huang Yin came close to Han Fei. "I've brought the NPC you told me to bring out of the world here. To be honest, I'm quite shocked."

"Why?"

"The white box doesn't look like it was an item programmed in the game. It was more like a unique reward produced by Perfect Life itself." Huang Yin shook his head. "I don't know how to explain it. Take a look yourself." After no one was around, Huang Yin opened the box. Inside was his AI butler.

"Where's the white box? Why did you bring your butler?"

"The NPC's consciousness is inside the butler." The butler left the box and entered Han Fei's home under Huang Yin's command. "Immortal Pharma has been researching consciousness transference. I think they've succeeded."

Huang Yin closed the door and keyed in a new command in the butler's head. The butler collapsed to the ground and a few minutes later, it stood up again. Compared to before, its gaze was different.

Huang Yin and Han Fei felt fearful looking at the robot. It was human, but not.

"The white box can sustain consciousness in Perfect Life. I follow the computer's instructions, and this is the result." Huang Yin was afraid too. "You can try to communicate with her. The consciousness inside the butler came from the white box."

Han Fei sat beside the robot politely. "Do you still remember me?"

The robot nodded.

"I can bring you to find Gao Xing. Can you tell me where he is?" Han Fei looked at the robot nervously. It didn't seem to know how to speak. After a long time, it wrote something in irregular writing on the table, Home.

Chapter 938: Dream's Child

"Home? Does Gao Xing have a home?" Han Fei didn't mean anything bad by that. He was just curious as to where the monster would consider his home. Gao Xing's mother still hadn't gotten used to the AI butler's body. Of course, there was a possibility that her consciousness was damaged when she was moved out of the game.

"I remember Gao Xing used to live in the poorest part of the outer city when he was young. The place is abandoned now." For Gao Xing, his childhood was his permanent nightmare. He wouldn't return there. However, the AI butler nodded.

“Is he a masochist? Why would he go back there?”

In any case, Han Fei made his move. He moved the butler to Huang Yin’s car and called Li Xue. Then, he moved to the old city. Gao Xing’s home was a poor people’s zone a few decades ago. With the construction of the intelligent city, the place was directly abandoned. After meeting up with the police, the few cars headed down the empty street. The buildings here still looked like they did a few decades ago, but the walls were cracked.

“Clinic, school, convenience store...” The shops were recognizable through their old signboards. These old buildings made up Gao Xing’s wounded past. Part of the scenes Han Fei saw in the altar world overlapped with the scenery in the real world. The alley where Gao Xing was bullied by his classmates, the route where the thief took after he killed Gao Xing’s parents...

This was Gao Xing’s cage but also the nest where the demon was born. Han Fei, Huang Yin, and the police entered the dirty alley. They found Gao Xing’s former home in the smelly alley. It was an apartment with a courtyard. There were three kinds of rooms. Gao Xing’s family had the smallest room. Their window faced the residential area’s trash dump site.

“Don’t let your guard down. Our enemy is very scary this time.” Han Fei rejected the police’s kindness and walked in front. The altar was destroyed. Gao Xing might have left and set up a trap.

“The apartment’s courtyard has been dug up. Something is buried here.” Han Fei noticed this immediately. The police took out the tools from the car. He dug a few times and found a broken arm. The arm had the tattoo of the murderer’s club. It should belong to Gao Xing’s victim.

“Keep on digging when this is over. There should be a mass grave under here.” Ever since Han Fei entered the yard, he felt uncomfortable. It was daylight, but he kept shivering. He walked to the building where Gao Xing’s home was. When the light was blocked, a dark presence stuck to everyone. Han Fei moved up the stairs. At first, everything was normal, but as they moved upstairs, they felt more oppressed. The dusty walls started to have unknown drawings on them. They looked like the scribbling of a child or the work of an abstract art master. Every picture was strange. If you look too long at them, you’d be sucked into them. The strangest thing was after you stared at the pictures long enough, a name would appear in your mind.

“Remember. Do not dwell on anything you see here. Do not mention anyone’s name.” Han Fei knew how scary the enemy was. Based on the info he gained in the altar world, Han Fei came to Gao Xing’s home. The people behind him were ready for battle. They opened the door with a lockpick. The smell of blood wafted out. Even the police frowned. Han Fei slowly entered the room. The small room was filled with many handmade toys. This appeared like a normal home.

“There’s no blood in the living room so where does the smell come from?” The police following Han Fei was very careful. Han Fei had proven that he was never wrong with his instinct. There had to be something very wrong here.

“The kitchen and bathroom are left open. Only this bedroom is close.” Gao Xing’s home was tiny. There was only one bedroom. His adoptive parents gave the room to Gao Xing because he was the only one who could see. He minded his privacy, but that was nothing for his blind parents.

“The blind parents live and work in the living room. The bedroom is Gao Xing’s room.” Han Fei pushed open the bedroom door. There was a large mirror in the narrow room. The mirror was covered in blood. Every person in the mirror appeared to be bleeding.

“Scatter! Do not look at your reflection in the mirror!” Han Fei shouted, but it was too late. One officer and Huang Yin’s reflections appeared in the mirror. At first, the officer felt fine, but as blood dripped, he touched his head, and his face was covered in blood. In other people’s eyes, he was normal, but the man went insane.

Huang Yin’s situation was unique. He had been tortured endlessly by Butterfly. He was no longer afraid of death. In the mirror, his clothes were covered in blood and butterfly patterns, but he was fine.

“Han Fei, there’s one more person in the mirror.” Huang Yin mentioned. After the officer was dragged away, there were three reflections in the mirror, even though only Han Fei and Huang Yin were left in the room.

“The additional person... should be the person we’re looking for.” Han Fei wanted to take out Rest in Peace, but he gained nothing. He was in the real world. However, this also meant that Gao Xing’s power was limited as well. The additional figure in the mirror started to move. In the end, he stood before Han Fei.

Han Fei tried his arm and tried to punch the man. Without any warning, Han Fei suddenly attacked the mirror. To his surprise, the pain came from the back of his head. Greed bound his fists.

The mirror shattered. The invisible power that originated from the back of his brain could affect ghosts in real life to a certain degree. The crack on the mirror spread. Han Fei resisted the pain and swung his fists again and again. The strange man in the mirror approached. He stood beside Han Fei. His face bled, and he leaned intimately toward Han Fei's ear.

"It's pointless even if you've seen the future.

"You can't do anything. You can only see the future happen again and die. No. 0 can't sustain the despair, and that's why you were born. Your birth is to sustain the despair. He never told you the truth. He would only throw you away when he's done with you. Twinflower is my life. You and No. 0 are my perfect creation. Your ending will be the same as mine. Dream has written the script at the start. I know you won't believe me. How about we make a bet to see if you can change my future?"

In the cracked mirror, the strange man leaned close to Han Fei like they were close friends.

"You sure like to talk. You can't even save your own eye, and you want to talk about your version of the future? Why don't you go back to the cryptic world? But your altar has been taken over by No. 0. Thankfully, you have escaped, or your wife would have torn you apart." Han Fei retorted. The fists continued to fall. The mirror crumbled.

Standing in the pile of broken mirrors, Han Fei saw the wall which was previously covered by the mirror. On it were several strange children's paintings.

In the first picture, a boy dreamed that a giant black cocoon came out under his bed after he fell asleep. He was scared, but a voice came out of the cocoon to calm him. It said that it could fulfill the kid's three wishes if he helped it.

The second painting depicted the boy making his first wish. He hoped that his parents would recover their sights and become rich. The cocoon agreed, but the boy's life didn't change. The boy thought the cocoon was a liar, but the cocoon insisted that the boy had already been fulfilled. It led him to find evidence.

In the third painting, the boy held a bloody knife. His face was filled with red pens. He made his second wish. He hoped that everyone who bullied him would die. The cocoon granted his wish.

The fourth painting was made a long time after the third painting. The style was very different too. The cocoon forced the boy to make his third wish, but the boy was clever. He seemed to know that once he made his third wish, the cocoon would swallow him.

Underneath the fourth painting was the sentence—They call me the devil. Is it because they know that I also live in hell?

Chapter 939: Fu Sheng's Heir

Han Fei's focus was on the four paintings. He only turned around when Huang Yin gasped. All the windows in the room were closed but the quilt fluttered. Something that looked like black paint dripped from the bedframe. Han Fei and Huang Yin came closer. He pulled back the quilt. Underneath the bedframe was broken black cocoons. "I think I've seen this in Butterfly's nightmare before." Huang Yin took a step back. He pointed at the black cocoon pieces. "Butterfly morphed into my mother in the nightmare. Whenever he transformed, similar pieces would fall off his body. However, his cocoon wasn't pure black but had colorful patterns."

"Dream, black cocoon and Butterfly." Han Fei remembered the giant shell underneath Ziggurat. That was the shell left behind by Dream. After the bloody mirror was shattered by Han Fei, the black cocoons under the bed lost their protection and they wanted to escape. Han Fei didn't dare to touch them. He found a lighter from the police and tried to light one up. The fire appeared underneath the bed. The black cocoons retreated like they were alive.

"Be careful." Huang Yin saw that Han Fei was trying to crawl under the bed. He quickly grabbed Han Fei by his arm. "This is not a game."

"I want to see what kind of monster is under the bed." Han Fei wanted to turn the bed over but he found out he was too weak to do that. To get a closer look, he had to get on the ground. There were a lot of cocoon pieces. Some of them had stuck together. They bound to Gao Xing's bed and tied the child's dream there. When the light appeared, the glued-together cocoon pieces seemed to form a tunnel.

"Is this an illusion?" Han Fei turned to Huang Yin. The other man was shocked too. The sticky substance formed by the black cocoon didn't look like it could be made by humans.

“Shall we go in to take a look?” Han Fei was very brave. After all, he had sacrificed many Pure Hatreds already.

“Is that a good idea?” Huang Yin paled. Whenever he was with Han Fei, it was like he was in a horror movie.

“Both of you calm down. We’ll send in the robot dogs first.” The officers carried the devices from the car. They controlled a small robot dog to get close to the hole formed by the black cocoons. Before the adjustment was done, the dog collapsed. The officers hadn’t met this situation before. It felt like there was another world underneath the bed.

“Give me the recording device. I’ll go to take a look.” Han Fei fixed the camera on his chest. He tied a rope around his waist. He held the torch and crawled under the bed. The closer he got to the hole, the chillier he felt. At the same time, there was another voice in his brain urging him to get closer to the hole. Han Fei looked into the hole. A stench came out. It was too dark for him to see anything.

“How is this so deep? Where does it lead?” The hole’s entrance was small but it was just large enough for a child.

Han Fei crawled downwards. Children’s broken faces appeared on the sides of the tunnel. They were once occupants inside the cocoons. Han Fei finally reached the end of the tunnel. He found a donation agreement form among the shattered cocoon pieces. The yellowed page had been torn and pasted together many things. This paper was from many years ago. The handwriting was blurred. The general content was that Gao Xing’s parents had agreed to donate their child’s eyes to Gao Cheng.

“Is this the source of the nightmare?”

Once he grabbed the paper, the tunnel began to collapse. If not for the police’s help, Han Fei would be buried alive.

“Have you discovered something?” Everyone worked together to drag Han Fei out. They also looked at him with respect.

“I found this and captured the faces of some children.” Han Fei handed the camera and the donation paper to the police. When the police checked the camera, they found nothing.

“It’s alright. I have memorized their faces. I can draw them out for you.” Han Fei cleared away the stain on the donation paper. He had to wonder if there were more children like Gao Xing.

Dream purposely targeted children with unstable mentalities. It dragged them into the nightmare to cultivate them into monsters.

Han Fei drew out all the faces he saw deep inside the cocoon. The police compared Han Fei’s drawings to the database. They realized that most of the children had gone missing when they were young, while a small portion of them had become the elites in Xin Lu. Two of them shocked Han Fei. One of them was an expert in biomedicine. The man’s frame resembled the guinea pig!

The other was someone familiar to Han Fei. She was the singer, Ye Xuan. She might be a core member, Death.

“They were both dragged into the nightmare by the cocoon before?” The three organizations had many killers who were cultivated by Dream. The sins at Xin Lu looked like they were made by Gao Xing and Butterfly, but the mastermind was Dream. “Every child should have something that was considered a source of nightmare from their childhood.” Han Fei put the donation paper inside the evidence bag. Even though the mission didn’t arrest anyone, they found much info on the core members of the criminal organizations. If they followed this trail, they’d eventually find the murderers hiding in the dark.

“Gao Xing is not home. He should have started the plan. It’s Thursday tomorrow. Based on his plan, all the tragedy will occur tomorrow.” Han Fei didn’t dare to waste time. The police continued their search at Gao Xing’s home. Han Fei and Huang Yin led the AI butler toward Xin Lu theme park. Han Fei still needed to see something to enter Immortal Skyscraper to stop Gao Xing.

He called Du Jing in the car. She was Fu Sheng’s good friend when he was still alive. She was also Immortal Pharma’s biggest shareholder during the company’s founding moments. Therefore, she had influence within the company. Many things couldn’t be explained on the phone so they promised to meet at the theme park. With the worker leading the way, Han Fei entered Du Jing’s office. Compared to a few days ago, Du Jing appeared even younger.

“It’s about the life and death juncture for this city.” Han Fei had seen Du Jing in Fu Sheng’s plastic surgery hospital altar before. He was familiar with Du Jing’s past. “There’s someone inside Immortal Pharma who wants to destroy Xin Lu by cooperating with Unmentionable.”

Han Fei shared the worst future he saw. When he mentioned Fu Yun’s name, Du Jing’s expression shifted.

“Do you know Fu Yun?”

Du Jing nodded. “Fu Yun is Fu Tian’s adopted child. He is the cleverest, cruelest and scariest one. Back then, Immortal Pharma was in an unstable state and needed to protect something within the company. Therefore, Fu Tian prepared two paths for his descendants. If the situation stabilized and the city was threatened by unknown objects again, then his eldest and second sons would cooperate to manage the company. They are both responsible people. However, if the situation worsened, the company would be led by Fu Yun. This way, the company’s legacy would continue because Fu Yun would do everything in his power to make sure that was the case.”

“In other words, since the company had stabilized, Immortal Pharma was inherited by Fu Tian’s eldest and second sons. That was why Fu Yun wanted to betray the company and destroy everything?” Han Fei could hazard a guess.

“Fu Yun is capable of anything. He is capable of turning against Immortal Pharma.” Du Jing sighed. “They are all kids I saw growing before my eyes, but they took completely different paths.”

Han Fei got much info on Fu Yun from Du Jing, but that was not why he was there.

“Through some special methods, I saw what would happen tomorrow. Many people would die, including me. My head would be chopped off to become the key. Therefore, I need your help. I need to enter Immortal Skyscraper tomorrow. I need to stop something myself.” Han Fei described the worst future for Du Jing.

Du Jing’s reaction was weird. She didn’t reject or agree to Han Fei’s request. Instead, she said something weird. “Your head is the key to activating the tragedy. At the same time, you are trying your best to save the city. It’s conflicting but real. This reminds me of something.” Du Jing looked outside the window. “My most important friend once gave me a voice band. After so many years, I received two conflicting messages. One was from Fu Tian. It told me to kill you at all costs; The other came from an unknown stranger, telling me to help you at all cause. I didn't understand it in the past, but I get it now."

"What do you mean?" Han Fei was confused.

Du Jing smiled but didn't answer. She placed an id card on the table. "IF you can answer my question, I'll agree to all of your questions."

"Ask me." Han Fei said.

"Who is the founder of Immortal Pharma? Does Fu Tian have a missing family member? Tell me that person's name." Du Jing guessed a possibility through many clues, but she needed confirmation.

"Immortal Pharma's founder is Fu Sheng. He is Fu Tian's elder brother from a different mother. I am his only heir and the only person in the world who remembers him." Han Fei told the truth.

"Fu Sheng..." Du Jing went into deep thought. After a long time, she handed the card to Han Fei. "How did you two meet?"

"I am one of the participants of Immortal Pharma's first batch of experiments. At first, the persona experiment was handled by Fu Sheng. After his disappearance, it was taken over by Fu Tian. That was also when the tragedy started." Han Fei believed Du Jing had asked him something similar in the past, but clearly, she had forgotten about it.

"Has he been prepared since then?" Du Jing seemed to have understood something. She picked up her phone to call someone. "From today onward, you'll listen to Han Fei's orders and manage his relationship with Immortal Pharma." The man was a core member of Immortal Pharma. Even though he was confused, he believed in Du Jing.

"Thursday is the time of big changes. Tomorrow I'll bring you to Immortal Skyscraper. You'll represent me. No one will dare to stop you." Du Jing smiled. "Good luck."

Chapter 940: Potential Unmentionable

Han Fei put away the card Du Jing gave him. Perhaps it was a coincidence. The card showed that Han Fei was a Grade A+ researcher, just like how it was in the altar world.

"Mr. Han, in the next 24 hours, I'll be your personal bodyguard." The worker said respectfully. "You can call me Assistant Tao." The man drove Han Fei out of the theme park. Huang Yin followed silently from behind. When they returned to the old city apartment, there were still six hours to midnight.

Han Fei planned to prepare a room for Assistant Tao, but Assistant Tao took out his phone and directly planned to buy the room next door at ten times the price. If the tenant next door were a normal tenant, this would have gone through easily. However, the tenant next door was the police sent to protect Han Fei. After the door opened, everyone was awkward. Assistant Tao also understood the meaning of money wasn't everything the first time. In the end, Assistant Tao stayed in the room underneath Han Fei. Huang Yin settled the AI butler and temporarily stayed with Han Fei. Honestly, he was much more nervous than Han Fei. He had been through some waves, but he was nothing compared to Han Fei, the monster who swam in the sea every day.

As the sky darkened, Han Fei led everyone to have a nice dinner. When Assistant Tao and Huang Yin saw Han Fei swallow the food, their hearts soured. They assumed Han Fei saw this as his final dinner.

After he was done, Han Fei led everyone home. Huang Yin and Assistant Tao got to see the everyday life of a celebrity. First, he learned city management, then, criminal psychology, and finally, cases related to suspects before he crawled into the gaming hub. Han Fei's life was busy, but nothing he did was related to acting.

"He could have had an easy life, but he insisted on adding challenges to his life. Is that why Teacher Du Jing values him so greatly?" Assistant Tao was impressed. Huang Yin, who knew part of the truth, looked at Assistant Tao with pity. To be on Han Fei's side, one had to go through the challenge of the cryptic world, and no one would survive that. Huang Yin shivered when he thought of the school that was filled with ghosts.

There were only a few hours to midnight. To get to Immortal Skyscraper early, Han Fei entered the game earlier than usual too. Blood descended. The bloody man behind him still didn't appear.

Han Fei opened his eyes and realized an experienced gaze was staring at him. He was startled. "Teacher?"

Li Xue's teacher was still guarding the top of the building. The body of sins radiated a presence scarier than the night. Even though his mind wasn't fully conscious, the elder appeared to have recognized Han Fei. He didn't harm Han Fei. He merely glanced at him and then left.

"Will teacher slowly return to normal once he stops using the power of the sins?" Han Fei respected Li Xue's teacher. He didn't wish for the elder to become a monster.

The blood threads dropped. Big Ghost crawled towards Han Fei. Her body took up half of the rooftop. Her eyes were filled with hatred and also humanity. "It looks like you can leave the cryptic world freely."

"Stop trying to trick me." Han Fei moved his eyes away from Big Ghost.

"I'm not interested in that." Big Ghost's voice was similar to Gao Xing's wife. "I just want to ask you. When will you move this altar away?" Big Ghost was very strong, but she was afraid of the altar dominated by Mad Laughter.

"It'll take some time. Where are the others?" Han Fei stood up. He planned to finish a mission and logged off.

"After you left yesterday night, the New God who took over the altar presented the curses Gao Xing had collected over the decades to the Pure Hatred with the table knife." Big Ghost crawled on the web made by life threads. "She is a source of curses. After she gained the curses, her power rose. Now, with the help of the New God and the brain, she's trying to construct a world related to curses." Big Ghost said sourly. Her beautiful eyes glanced at the altar and the brain fragment before the altar. "Two Unmentionables are helping her. Who is she?"

"If she is successful, can Xu Qin become an Unmentionable?" Han Fei had collected many curses in Gao Xing's altar world. As the most brutal criminal, everyone he had harmed cursed Gao Xing. In the past, Gao Xing used his three souls to suppress the curses. After Mad Laughter took over the altar, he decided to gift all the curses to Xu Qin.

"Do you think becoming an Unmentionable is so easy? The gap between Pure Hatred and Unmentionable cannot be crossed with brute strength," Big Ghost held her chin. After she got her revenge and freedom, she was rather bored, so she liked to chat with Han Fei. "However, if you die, you should be able to become an Unmentionable easily. I see intense despair in you and a special quality. When Dream was cultivating Gao Xing, it mentioned people like you had the greatest potential."

"Thank you." Han Fei ignored Big Ghost and walked towards the altar.

Noticing Han Fei, Big Sin lowered its head obediently. The bug was always understanding around Han Fei. However, once Han Fei was in deep danger, it would become extremely excited, like it was afraid that people wouldn't know its master was about to die.

"Not bad. You didn't eat Mad Laughter's sacrifice." Han Fei was worried that Big Sin would eat No. 2's brain.

Big Sin shook its brain when it heard Han Fei as if trying to say that it wasn't that kind of a 'person'.

"I was curious why someone would like you to keep a pet as ugly as this. Now I realize you two are quite similar." Big Ghost crawled slowly over, but she didn't dare to come too close to the altar. "New God should have more than one altar, right? He's silently gathering the power from all the altars to prepare to become an Unmentionable. I feel that this New God is scarier than Gao Xing."

"Naturally. Gao Xing, Mirror God, Fu Sheng, one person controls the altars of three Unmentionables. Only he knows his upper limit."

After the bloodred night, Mad Laughter sent his and three children's consciousness into the bloodred orphanage. He sustained all the pain to wait for this day. Mad Laughter didn't leave the altar. It looked like he had made the decision to leave the body to Han Fei. For Mad Laughter, this was not a sudden decision. As he spent time with Han Fei, he realized Han Fei was the right choice.

"If Xu Qin and Mad Laughter could both become Unmentionables, my life here would be easier." Han Fei looked at the altar. "Usurpation was highly risky, but the reward was immense too. I wonder if I can do that again. I'll provoke an Unmentionable to pursue me into the real world and then have No. 2 and Mad Laughter take over their altar in the cryptic world."

"Are you crazy? Even I think that's a bit much." Big Ghost crawled away. She didn't want to be targeted by Han Fei.

"You're the crazy one." Han Fei leaned against the altar and looked down at the night sky. The skyscraper was the tallest building in this zone. Han Fei pulled up the map. Compared to the entire world, his territory was about the size of a thumb. "At least there's light in this map now."

Han Fei took out Xu Qin's food from his inventory. He ate them happily. After Mad Laughter left his body, Han Fei didn't feel as affected by the altars. Mad Laughter appeared to have taken the negative things away.

Han Fei then led Big Sin downstairs. He didn't see Xu Qin but did run into the gardener and dancer. The members of the elderly murderer's club were worried about Han Fei, so they decided to come to help. This touched Han Fei.

After a whole day of cleansing, all traces of Gao Xing had been removed. The new rules were built. Han Fei planned to turn this place into a residential area where he'd invite players over to stay. "Good things are meant to be shared."

Han Fei wanted to log off soon, but he received a message from Drake at midnight. Ghost had a bad feeling recently, as if something would happen to the theme park tunnel. To prevent accidents, Han Fei rushed back to the theme park. He had been staying at the skyscraper, so when he returned to the theme park, he was surprised to find out that the atmosphere there was rather heavy. After talking with Ghost, Han Fei frowned. The theme park had been targeted by another Unmentionable.

"Is it Dream's helper?" Han Fei asked.

"I can't be sure, but they do have a presence that I'm familiar with." Ghost wiped the blade he was holding. "This city you're building in the cryptic world is going to face its first challenge. The monsters in the dark wouldn't allow the existence of any light."

"It's fine. I never plan to coexist peacefully with these monsters anyway." Han Fei's goals were salvation and destruction. "The rooftop of the skyscraper has a tunnel that connects to the real world. I suspect this Unmentionable is trying to distract us."

"We can't risk this. The tunnel here is very important too." Ghost warned.

"You're right. Then, we'll focus our power around these two tunnels." Han Fei contacted his neighbors.
"Once we survive these few days, the Gods around us will become Unmentionables too."
