

Rejected, My Jaded Love Chapter 6

As soon as we arrive at my house, and I exit Nicole's car I feel my wolf come forward to let me know that we are about to make our first shift. I cannot even begin to deal with the amount of pain I am in now, and I am struggling to breathe. I drop to my knees. Nicole and Jessica speak calming words, but I cannot focus on what they are saying. They say the first shift is the hardest and most painful, but I think that it is way harder on me following how this week has gone. I was just rejected 20 minutes ago. I s*m again as the pain tears through me as my spine changes and elongates, and fur starts coming out of my skin. I let out one more s*m of pain before it mercifully stops. In all, it took 5 minutes, but with the amount of pain I was in, it seemed like an hour had gone by. I look up to look at Nicole and Jessica and see them both looking back at me with shocked expressions. I stand up slowly on my four legs and try to walk. It was harder to get moving than I thought it was going to be. I attempt to walk to the front door, but I am having difficulty trying to walk. I hear a few cars passing my home on their way to the packhouse and I just want to get inside and lay down. I ask my wolf how to change back to my human form. She tells me to just visualize myself back in my human form and I gradually change back to my very naked human form. Nicole grabs a small blanket from her car and gives it to me to cover myself. I asked my wolf what her name is with her replying "My name is Ivory".

As we enter the house, we overhear my mom on her phone with Jeremy. He had called her from the school to tell her what had happened. She was doing the breakfast dishes so she had her phone on speakerphone, so I could hear the entire conversation. Apparently, he was not aware I had left the school and was filling her in on what had happened in the courtyard.

I can't help but gasp as I hear my own mother say "good, I am glad she got rejected. Jade has been nothing but a huge pain from when we took her in when she was six months old. Too bad she didn't die in the same car wreck that killed her mother. If her mom hadn't had that life insurance policy for 2 million dollars, with the stipulation of us raising her, she would have been in an orphanage. There was a clause in it that we had to raise her until she turned 18. We were supposed to use it to provide for her according to the policy, but it left me in complete control of the money. I was only supposed to use half of it for her living expenses and give the other million to her when she turned 18 for her to have to live on until she is on her feet. I have spent it all now, Jade will have NOTHING, and I will be kicking her out of the house as soon as she gets home today because she is 18 now. I used the last of the money on my Range Rover, so I got a better vehicle this time around as I won't be able to get another one any time soon. A fat lot of good it did us raising her, she was nothing but a burden on all of us. The only benefit we had was the money. She is a fat; stupid cow and I have been ashamed to call her daughter these last 17 and a half years. Time to set the record straight and tell everyone, that she isn't my daughter. She is my stupid niece, and she doesn't have any family left because we are disowning her today. She has been completely worthless around here and I can't wait to kick her out when she gets home today. Make sure you head home right after School because I want you here just in case. She may try to attack me”.

Jeremy is overheard saying “Of course, I will be there for you Mom. I can’t wait to see you kick her out. She totally deserves it. She has been nothing but a waste of space and an embarrassment at school for people to think that I am related to her in any way. I almost wish we didn’t have to say that she is my cousin. I don’t want to be related to her fat a*s in any way. See you right after School Mom”.

I hear the call drop and I cannot move my legs I am frozen in place. Thankfully Nicole and Jessica both heard the whole conversation too. As mom, I mean my Aunt Sylvia, moves towards her bedroom on the first floor, I almost fell to the ground. Black dots were dancing in front of my eyes. Nicole and Jessica hurried me up to my room to let me lay down as they silently packed up all my personal items. My sad life stared back at me in the form of 1 small piece of used luggage and a duffle bag.

I will not be taking any pictures with me, not like I really had any, as now that I look around, I see that they had family pictures, but I wasn’t in any of them. I guess I was so focused on school, my grades, and my part-time job, that I didn’t even notice that I was always the outsider. I always just tried to get along and not cause waves and look where it got me. No one appreciates me or loves me. I sit there stunned by how this day has turned out. It is not even 9 am, how did my day de-rail like this? This morning I was so excited to meet my mate, and 2 hours later I have lost everything. I have no mate. I have no family. I mean I know my family wasn’t much, but I truly thought that when the chips were down, they would be there for me in an emergency.

I am stunned that my mother had set up her life insurance to try to protect me, believing in her sister to do the right thing, and she hadn’t. She blew all my money on stuff for herself, and her family, and left me with absolutely nothing. And on top of that, now that she had blown it all, she was going to try to just kick me to the curb with nothing. I swear if it is the last thing that I do, I will be getting at least my million dollars back from her, no matter what.

Nicole had excused herself to the bathroom in the hall, about 10 minutes ago, as I sat there continuing to stare at my luggage wondering what exactly I was going to do? To go? Where in the world am I going to go?

In just one week, my life has been annihilated by a group of assholes. I close my eyes and ask the Goddess “where am I going to go from here?”.

I heard Nicole say to me “With me, we are going to get packed up and then go to my uncle’s pack to live”.

Nicole had called her parents, Bryan & Aubrey Morris for help. Bryan called his brother to see if they could come and join their pack, the Stone Moon pack. Bryan explained what had happened and told his brother, Alpha Andrew Morris. He told him what had occurred and that it would be more than just the three of them coming. That they would be a total group of five, with one human in their group. Jessica had also called her mom (while Nicole was on the phone) and told her that she was going to go with Nicole and Jade to the Stone Moon pack as well and finish her Senior year with them. Jessica turned 18 two months ago, so there were no problems with Jessica coming with them, her mother didn't have a problem with it. She knew how close the girls were, and after hearing what Jade was going through, she knew that Jade would need both of her friends to get through what had happened to her.

We quietly go downstairs taking my suitcase and duffle bag and leave the only home I ever knew. I follow Nicole and Jessica to Jessica's home for her to pack up as well. We got to Nicole's home at 1030 am, with her parents already packed up. Nicole's mom, Aubrey, is a beautiful she-wolf and is the older version of her daughter with blonde hair and grey eyes. Natalie's father, Bryan, is very handsome with black hair and blue eyes. They put the rest of their bags from their home into Nicole's car, and we all pull up at the border to reject and leave the Howling Wolf pack forever. As we all take turns rejecting our bonds to the Howling Wolf pack, I hear faint howls from a distance as I reject the bonds of our pack. I am so grateful that Nicole had kept her parents informed on what had been happening lately. I am crushed with finding out that my mate rejected me choosing instead to stay with Sophia, the soon-to-be Alpha just wanted me as a booty call, and my mom and dad, are NOT my mom and dad, my real mother is gone forever, and I never got to know her.

Oh, and the best part, I am a white wolf, and never knew it. Nicole and Jessica, both told me as we were packing up my room. I still can't get my head around that. I am a white wolf. I didn't even think they existed, as I have never in my life seen one. I just thought it was werewolf lore.

Nicole's parents had already wanted to leave the pack, for the last few months, they believed that females needed to be trained. They had just ended up in the pack because Aubrey's previous pack had been attacked 2 years ago, and the family was absorbed into the Howling Wolf pack. But they now needed to get away, especially as they know I am a white wolf and will need extra training to control my powers. A white wolf is more than just a regular werewolf and I will need to be trained to control my abilities. They also want Nicole and Jessica to train as well, well as much as Jessica can train with us. I am getting a little excited to find out what my bonus abilities will be. I am hoping that it will be something cool. I really can't take any more disappointment in my life right now. I think that I am done with the craziness that is now my life. Whatever happens at Stone Moon pack, I have a feeling that I will be living a lot better life from now on.

I hear Ivory speak inside my head "Oh, yes. You will. Your life is about to be completely different". She then fades back into my mind. I think about what she said, and I tear up. I put an earbud in so I can listen to my iPod and follow Nicole's parents at the head of the group, as Nicole follows me in her car with Jessica. I let my mind wander as we start our journey to Stone Moon. This trip will be around 170 miles and should take a little under 3 hours to drive.

Jade doesn't look back as they take off to their new pack. She was not aware that she was now in danger, that someone had seen her in her white wolf form when she changed for the first time in her front yard, and now she was going to be hunted because of it. Someone had been searching for a white wolf for a while. And they were soon going to be coming to find her.

Rejected, My Jaded Love Chapter 7

A little after 3 pm, we pull up at a large gate as we arrive at the Stone Moon pack in Chandler, AZ. We announce ourselves into the intercom. A large ten-foot-high cement wall could be seen surrounding the perimeter. I shake my head as I cannot imagine how much building that wall cost the pack to be able to secure the entire perimeter of their pack lands, but it did bring another level of protection and security against attacks. We were allowed through the gates and one of the werewolves guarding the gate advised us where we needed to go to get to the packhouse. Mr. Morris smiled at him and advised him it wasn't necessary, that he knew where they were going.

I noticed that their land is well maintained and taken care of, much more than their land was taken care of back in Tombstone. We drove about 5 minutes further into the pack on the main road. She followed the SUV driven by the Morris', as well as Nicole's car up the long driveway, up to the packhouse. I noticed that there were several people standing there at the base of the porch watching us approach. I started to get anxious, wondering if I had made a mistake coming here. Will this pack bully me too? I have only seen a few people, but no one here so far has been overweight. My stomach is starting to clench up in anticipation of meeting the Alpha and Luna, and the rest of the Stone Moon pack. I remove my helmet and slowly get off my bike. I take my time taking off my gloves and putting them into my helmet. I go forward to meet the Alpha and Luna currently standing with Bryan, Aubrey, Nicole, and Jessica. The Alphas family had already hugged and greeted them and were now watching me approach with curiosity in their eyes.

Alpha Andrew Morris is a handsome man with black hair and bright blue eyes. He doesn't look a day over 30 and is around 6'2" tall. He has a broad chest and obviously trains hard to keep as fit as he is. He is looking at me curiously as he gives me a small smile and a nod as he sees me looking anxiously at him and his family. Luna Monica Morris is a beautiful lady with long dark wavy hair going to the middle of her back and dark blue eyes. Her dark hair has some caramel and honey, colored streaks in it and she is fit, but still has a curvy figure. She is smiling warmly at me as she looks directly at me and holds her arms out to hug me. I am scared to step forward to her, but she just lowers her arms and steps up to me, and says "Welcome to the Stone Moon pack Jade. We are so excited that you came to live here. We were told about the terrible way you have been treated and we all want to welcome you and let you know how happy we are that you are going to join our pack. I know you will be happy here honey. Please let me know if you need anything at all. It would be my pleasure to help you in any way possible". Luna Monica then hugs me tightly, and it really feels good for someone besides Nicole and Jessica to hug me. I guess I have missed having a warm, loving hug from a motherly figure.

As soon as I think of that I make a small noise in my throat as I think about my mother being gone and me never getting the opportunity to ever see her or hug her. I blink back my tears from my eyes and tried to hold in my whimper as the pain comes back full force for the love and affection I will never get from my mom. She is gone and I never get to have a motherly figure in my life. Luna Monica pulls me in harder and starts to rub my back. Aubrey leans forward and rubs my back as well. She looks at Monica and said, "We need to talk in your Office". Alpha Andrew nods to Bryan and Aubrey and steps back sweeping his arm out for us to enter the packhouse. Luna Monica calls back to Nicole, Jessica and the other two teenagers still standing there and tells them "Get some help from some of the Warriors together to help you take all their luggage up to their rooms. They will be on the Gamma floor as Bryan is going to become the Gamma and Aubrey the Gamma female. Give them the master bedroom on that floor and you girls can choose from the other 3 rooms, while we go talk in the Office. We will get Jade introduced to you guys at dinner tonight". Luna Monica then turns to walk away leading me into the packhouse, and I wave bye to Nicole and Jessica.

The packhouse is huge and is 6 stories high. It is a beautiful building with a modern design. The building is newly built, and each room has a floor-to-ceiling glass window to let in natural light, sliding glass doors are built into the wall of windows leading out to small balconies for each room. There were small patios around the whole first floor, for the larger rooms on the bottom floor. Each patio has a large floor-to-ceiling window on either side of the built-in French doors with a 6 ft wrought iron fence around the patio and a locked gate for you to be able to come and go from the outside after a run in the forest. It seems like a lot of thought had been put into the design of this packhouse with the result being a beautiful, modern living space. We took the stairs up to the second floor where the Alpha's office was located. I enter the Office with Alpha Andrew, Luna Monica, Bryan, and Aubrey, with two unknown men now walking in behind us. The first man was huge, his shoulders were over two feet wide, with a slim waist, wearing a tight black t-shirt. There was a sleeve of tattoos showing on his left arm and he made a very intimidating sight. He looked like he spent his whole day in the gym and was an imposing figure at 6'4" tall and around 240 lbs. The second man was 6'2" tall and was around 215 lbs. and impressively built. He was not as broad as the first man, but he was still impressive to look at. Wearing only his basketball shorts, his colorful tattoos were showing as a breastplate on the left side of his chest over his heart and then as sleeves down both his arms, with a clearly visible 8 pack showing. His blonde hair had been tied into a bun at the top of his head to keep it from his face, and I assumed that it was at least shoulder length long. He has sparkling blue eyes and was a leaner version of the first man, but with a dangerous air about him, I would not want to get into a fight with either one of them.

Alpha Andrew sits down behind his desk and Luna Monica sits down on his lap. He motions for everyone to sit down, and I sit in one of the two chairs in front of the Alpha's desk sitting next to Bryan. Aubrey is noted as sitting in a chair that was next to the couch against the wall, with the two men sitting down on opposite ends of the couch. Alpha Andrew speaks to the group "I called everyone here so we would only have to go over this once. Gentlemen, as you know this is my brother, Bryan Morris, he is coming back to live in our pack and will be taking over the Gamma position. His wife, Aubrey, will be the gamma female, and they are returning to the pack with my niece Nicole. This is Jade, she is coming to live here and will be joining this pack as well. There is a third young lady with them, and her name is Jessica, and she is a human. She is aware of our kind, and she wanted to stay with Nicole and Jade to finish her Senior year, as the girls are like sisters. Jade this is my Beta, Mason James, and he points to the very large man on the far end of the couch. The guy who apparently didn't have time to get a shirt on before he reported to my office is my Head Warrior and Elite Fighter, Braxton McCoy".

Rejected, My Jaded Love Chapter 8

Braxton said "Hey, you told me to come to your office immediately, so I did" and then started laughing. It was kind of funny and my lips twitched, I pressed my lips together to stop them from moving or a laugh escaping.

Mason hit him in the chest with the back of his hand and said "Man, you are never dressed. You love going around without a shirt on, don't use being asked to come to the Office as a reason to not be dressed. You could keep a shirt with you to put on after you are complete with training, but we all know you won't".

"How can I work on my tan if I have to wear a shirt all the time?" Braxton returned to him, continuing to laugh. We all knew he was just joking around with us, and I felt my nerves start to loosen and felt better about my new pack. Werewolves really didn't have a problem with exposing their skin, and apparently, Braxton really didn't have a problem with exposing his, but I guess if I was in as good a shape as he was, I probably would too.

Alpha Andrew clears his throat and continues to speak "Anyway, they are coming from the Howling Wolf pack, and they have had several issues with that pack and recently decided to leave. Brax, I would like you to start training Nicole & Jade starting tomorrow. Neither has had any real training, Nicole had been trained some by Bryan and Aubrey, but we really want them to get more in-depth training now. If Jessica wants to try her hand at training, feel free to train her as well. The girls wanted to stay together for their Senior year, and I see no problem with it. I didn't have the full story until about an hour ago when they got near our border when Bryan called me to fill me in. I knew Jade had experienced several issues at Howling Wolf, but earlier today some more things ended up happening, and they needed to change up packs immediately. Bryan would you or Jade like to share what had happened to Jade in the last week?".

Bryan looked at me and tilted his head in question to me. I really didn't want to talk about what had occurred to me in the last week, so I nodded at him and said "You can go ahead and tell them. I really don't want to talk about it. This whole week has sucked, and I don't think that I can tell them my story without crying".

Bryan then nods and starts speaking "I will try to keep this brief. A little over a month ago the soon-to-be Alpha of the Howling Wolf pack, Eric Taylor, started paying attention to Jade right after he turned 18. Jade believed it was because they were mates but was not sure as she was not 18 yet. She used to be bullied continually by him and his group of friends, but he suddenly stopped the bullying behavior and included her in his group. Last Friday night on their first date it was exposed that it was just a prank to see if she would sleep with Eric”.

I could hear Luna Monica; Beta James and Trainer McCoy all take in a breath at hearing what kind of people were at Howling Wolf. It was not good that an Alpha would participate in that kind of bullying and abuse of a pack member.

Beta James asked Bryan “Was he, her mate?”

Bryan said “No, he wasn’t, and he knew that before he asked her out. The prank, well I can’t honestly call it a prank, as it was much more than an innocent prank. He knew he was not her mate, but he wanted to see if he could get her to sleep with him. They planned on getting her drunk and Eric taking advantage of her if she didn’t voluntarily sleep with him. Things just didn’t go as planned, because the Alpha heir ended up taking her out to eat first like they were on an actual date before they went to the party. Eric’s Girlfriend then came out to where they were sitting in his vehicle and ended up assaulting Jade, with the whole incident caught on video. Jade was humiliated, in front of almost 200 people, and the video that they took was released on social media and has been viewed by over 2 million people”.

Luna Monica gasped loudly and yelled “What in the hell is wrong with those people? Why on earth would they do that to her? I don’t understand, what is wrong with them. That is absolutely disgusting that they would do that to this sweet girl. Why do they pick on her so much?”

Jade speaks up and says “I don’t know why they started bullying me. It is all that I can remember. I never understood why they picked on me so much, but I guess it is because they could get away with it as I am technically an orphan, and no one would do anything to them for hitting and bullying me”.

Beta James speaks up “What do you mean you have no family. I thought you were the daughter of the Gamma for Howling Wolf pack? Are they not your family?”

I turn to Beta James and tell him “No, I found out just this morning that apparently my mother was my Mom’s Sister. I mean that Sylvia, who I thought was my mom my whole life, was my aunt. She never told me, she still hasn’t told me, I overheard her speaking on the phone with my brother, I mean my cousin, this morning after I left school. My mom had a $2,000,000 life insurance policy that named Sylvia as my guardian to raise me. It specified that Sylvia could use half the money to feed and clothe me until I was 18, and then she was to give me the remaining money for me to live on, along with the interest it had been accumulating. She did neither. I had to work at a local diner to earn money for my clothes and shoes, while my bro-, I mean my cousin Jeremy got to stay home. She never bought me clothes or birthday presents, I never had birthday parties except for the last two years, with Nicole and Jessica doing small parties for me. I paid for my own motorcycle, and she ended up apparently spending all the money that was supposed to be mine. They used some of the money to build their house and she gets a new car every few years and gives her old ones to my Da-, Uncle Harold, and to Jeremy. The worst part is that if I hadn't been rejected first thing this morning at school, I wouldn't have come home and found out they weren't my parent. I would have been blindsided after School, as she was planning on kicking me out of the house when I got home from school today. I don't know what would have happened to me if it had gone down that way, I could have been physically hurt by Jeremy as he was really looking forward to me getting kicked out".

I hear two loud growls coming from the couch and look over to see both the Beta and Head Warrior digging their nails into the hands and their eyes were flickering from their regular color to black as they tried to control their wolves.

Luna Monica yells out "Are you freaking kidding me? What is the world is happening in that pack? They are totally backward. Jade, I am so sorry you have had to go through all of this. But you are here now, and you are one of us. We will help you through this and I guarantee that nothing like that will happen here".

I said, "Thank you Luna Monica and Alpha Andrew for allowing me to come here and become a member of your pack. I am really interested in being trained and seeing what my extra abilities will be".

Alpha Andrew said, "Oh, yes I forgot to mention that part. Beta James and Trainer Braxton you will both be needed to help train Jade. She is a white wolf".

At that sentence, the Office erupted in noise.

Rejected, My Jaded Love Chapter 9

Braxton yells out "What! Are you serious? What kind of training have you gotten and what are your special abilities?".

Beta James also said, "Really, a white wolf? What all do you know about your abilities? What about your father? I know you said that your mother is gone, but maybe you got the white wolf genes from your father?

Luna Monica stands up and say's "I am going to call the Dark Moon pack and speak with Alpha Thomas Harris. He may be able to help us with some information about white wolves, but I will be calling Sylvia Devoe first to get your mother's name and some information about her. It can only help us, as I have some suspicions, but want to get my facts straight before I say anything else". Luna Monica looks at her husband and then leaves the room.

I look at the Beta, and Trainer Braxton and tell them “I have never been trained. The Howling Moon pack doesn’t train women, so I have had no training at all. I am interested in my abilities as well, but I honestly don’t know the first thing about fighting, or what special things I might be able to do.

Beta James tells me “Jade, you can call me Mason. We will be working together for the foreseeable future, and we will be great friends. You can call this one Brax, we all do, and you will be training him daily. You can come to either one of us if you have any problems or issues come up. We don’t allow bullying in this pack, and we will take care of it if it ever comes up. Not to press you, and feel free to say if I am overstepping, but why were you rejected? And who rejected you?”.

I look at Mason and quietly tell him “My mate was the soon-to-be Beta, Calvin Williams. He rejected me because I am fat, ugly, and weak and no one would want me as a mate. Also, he has a Girlfriend, Sophia Neil, and she made him reject me. He chose her, over me. He turned 18 two days ago and knew he was my mate, so I really think that the group convinced him to reject me, during the two days between birthdays. He told me I was useless and that I should just kill myself. He also implied that I was a slut, as I tried to get with the Alpha, and then him. I thought that the Alpha could be my mate, as he changed after his birthday, but I was wrong. With Calvin, it was the mate bond, and I didn’t create it for him. I have no control over who the Goddess chooses for me. I really wish I had listened to Nicole and Jessica when they tried to get me to not go out with Eric that night, and just go to the movies with them. I don’t know why they hate me so much I have truly never done anything to them to make them treat me this way”.

Aubrey speaks up and says “Hindsight is always 20/20. There was no way that you could have known what they were trying to do. You are a sweet girl, and you need to realize that it is them. There is something wrong with all of them, not you. Please do not let their words take up space in your head. You are going to blossom here at Stone Moon, and we will all protect you, honey. We love you and I think of you as a bonus daughter. We will take care of you”.

Braxton then says “They were wrong. You are not worthless, and you are NOT ugly. You have just had your confidence crushed by them. It will take time for you to build it back up, but with how hard you are about to be working out daily you WILL lose the excess weight. You need to have faith in me and Mason, we will get you trained and exactly where you need to be. With you being a white wolf, I bet that you will lose it even quicker. Please call me Brax, as Mason is right, everyone does call me Brax. I am only 2 years older than you, so you can let the formalities go with me. We are going to be great friends I can feel it already. Be sure to take the instruction that we give you seriously, even if you don’t understand why, and we will get you in fighting shape. I think you will be killing it in no time”.

Alpha Andrew tells me “I believe that we might be able to help you find your father’s side of your family. I know Monica has an idea of where to start and I don’t want to get your hopes up, but I know her heart breaks with all you have had to endure in your short life. You have another Champion in your corner Jade. Rest assured that Monica will try to do anything that she can to help you find your family. If it is at all possible, she WILL get it done”.

Bryan leans over and pat’s the top of my hand. “I feel the same as Aubrey does. You are our bonus daughter, and we will be taking care of you from now on. You can come to us for any help you need. You are a member of our family now, and I already know Nicole thinks of you as a sister. Jessica is a sweetheart, and we are glad that she is here for you both too. You will both stay here with us and train. You will be a member of this pack too. We will have the ceremony tomorrow night at the full moon, for us all to become members of the Stone Moon pack”.

Luna Monica was in her Office making her calls. She first calls Howling Wolf and speaks with Gamma Female Sylvia Devoe. “Sylvia, this is Luna Monica Morris from the Stone Moon pack and I have a few questions for you”.

Sylvia answers “Sure, no problem. What do you need to know?”

“Can you tell me about your sister? Her name? What pack she was staying at before her accident?” Monica asks.

“Why do you want to know about Her? Do you know where Jade is? She ran away from home today, and we are worried sick about her”. Sylvia asks.

“I was just interested in her as I saw the videos done on her on my Facebook account and wanted to know more about her. I thought that you were her mom, but my niece Nicole told me that Jade was your niece and not your daughter. So, I was reaching out to see if you had any information on Jade. I am worried about her”. Monica tells Sylvia.

“Yeah right, so you know I am not her mom and want to know who her mom is. Well, I am not going to help you. You are being a nosey bh and I don’t have to tell you anything. We had been looking everywhere for her. Alpha Heir, Eric Taylor, is looking everywhere for her, along with Beta Heir, Calvin William’s. They have been searching for her since she left the pack. I guess I know where to tell them to look next”. Sylvia says to Luna Monica.

“Please tell them to come here, we will look at it as an act of war if you do come and it will not end well for you and your pack. I wish I didn’t have to do this, but I will for Jade”. I then use my Luna command in my voice and compel her to answer me. “What is Jade’s mother’s name? What pack was she last in before the accident? What color was your sister’s wolf? And do you have any idea who Jade’s father is?”. Monica asks again.

“Her name was Hillary Davis. She was a dark grey wolf like me. I have no idea who my it sister got pregnant by, and I only know that she was living in Arizona, but I have no idea which packs she belonged to. Why do you need to know what color her wolf was? What color is Jade’s wolf? Why are you suddenly so interested in my niece?”. Sylvia had been compelled to answer Luna Monica as she had used her Luna tone, but now she was curious as to why Luna Monica was asking about Jade's wolf.

Luna Monica then thanks her and drops the call. Luna Monica is about to make the harder of the two calls, and she was not looking forward to it. Lives were going to be changed after today.

Sylvia puts her cell phone down and starts to think. What is going on with Jade for Luna Monica to be involved? Why was she suddenly so important that Luna Monica is now asking questions about her? Jade had always been so unimportant, just a bug under their shoes. She is a weak and useless wolf. It is probably just Luna Monica being nosey and shrugged it off.

Sylvia then decided to call Alpha Heir, Eric, to let him know that she believes that Jade is now at Stone Moon pack, and what Luna Monica has said about anyone attempting to come and get Jade. They can just let it go, as they would be no reason to start a war, especially over her worthless niece.

Rejected, My Jaded Love Chapter 10

At 420 pm today, my life as I knew it changed. I received a phone call from Luna Monica from the Stone moon pack and my world shifted. As Alpha of the Dark Moon pack in Sedona, AZ few things can shake me. My name is Thomas Harris, and I was currently sitting behind my desk in my office thinking about the phone call with Luna Monica.

I think back to over 18 years ago to when I met my mate. I had been dating a member of my pack at that time, Hillary Davis. A beautiful she-wolf that I was in love with, we had been living together for 5 months and all was going great. She had not found her mate yet, and I hadn't either. She was a beautiful 20-year-old she-wolf and I really thought that at 27 years old, I would never find my true mate. We enjoyed hiking and running together. We had similar interests and we really enjoyed spending time with each other. I was ready to make her my chosen mate.

I was going to do just that after I came back from the scheduled Alpha meeting, over the weekend when I met my true mate. The attraction was instant, and my heart belonged to this beautiful she-wolf. I immediately forgot about Hillary waiting for me at home when I met my true mate, Joy Billings, now Harris. Joy was everything that I ever wanted in a wolf, and I could not fight the attraction I had for her. Joy and I ended up mating and marking each other that first night. I could not control my wolf around her, and I realized that what I felt for Hillary was nothing compared to what I felt for Joy. I didn't even think about Hillary until, Joy and I were about 20 miles from my pack, then I realized that I had a big problem.

I stopped the car and told Joy about Hillary, that we weren't mates and I had kind of given up on finding my mate as I was getting older and started to want a companion. Joy took it very well. It was before I had met her, and she was sweet to say that she was not upset with me. I don't deserve Joy, just thinking back on this, makes me realize how blessed I am to have found her. We continued to my packhouse, and I brace for having to hurt Hillary, as I really did have feelings for her, they just weren't the same as the feelings that I have for Joy. They didn't compare to each other at all.

As I pulled up to the packhouse I mind linked my Beta, Bryant Young, for him to come down and meet my car. I asked him to hurry as I had brought the Luna home with me and let him know that I would be asking Hillary to leave my room and go to her own room in the packhouse. Beta Young didn't waste time getting to my SUV.

As Beta Young went to take Joy to my Office to keep her safe, Hillary ran out to the door and ran to my arms. At 6'4" tall I didn't lean down to accept her kiss. She was immediately concerned.

"What is going on?" Hillary asked narrowing her eyes. "Why won't you let me kiss you?" She looks around and sees Joy with Beta Young. "Who is she? Why didn't you answer any of my calls and texts?"

I sighed and answered her. "I met my true mate, Hillary. We knew if either one of us met our mate, we would end what we had and go with our mate. I am sorry and I never meant to hurt you, Hillary. But I am going to need you to take your clothes and stuff from my room and you will be assigned another room in the packhouse. You are welcome to stay, and I wish you well, but we will never be anything more than friends now. You are still young and should be able to still find your mate. Please don't make this harder by causing problems. I did not deliberately plan on this happening, but I love her so much and I am glad to have found my Goddess-given mate."

Hillary just broke down crying and sank to the ground telling me "I love you so much, Thomas. Why are you doing this to me? Did I mean so little to you? Did what we have together mean anything at all to you, so little that you would push me away like this? I don't want to leave you. Please reconsider this. I love you so much".

"I am so sorry Hillary, again I never meant to hurt you, but Joy is my Mate. It would kill me to be away from her, please understand where I am coming from. I never intended to hurt you. But now that I have Joy, I no longer love you as I did. I only love Joy now, I need you to clear your stuff out of our room, so Joy can move in".

"Ok, I will go. You will be sorry about this. I love you so much, but you don't love me anymore. All we had together is gone, and you have broken my heart. I cannot stay here and watch you and Joy have the life I wanted for myself. It would be too hard to see you two together every day and it would slowly kill me. I will go pack now. Goodbye Thomas". Hillary says to me as she goes into the packhouse to pack. I am sad that she insists on leaving, but I feel like it would probably be for the best for her to leave. I would hate for there to be issues between her and Joy. It would be safest for Joy, for Hillary to leave now. I have my Gamma bring around a car from the garage to give to Hillary for her to take with her. I then mind-link two warriors to help Hillary bring her stuff down from my room. I then mind-link the head of my housekeeping staff for my room to be thoroughly cleaned and the bedding changed out after Hillary leaves the room. A crew was waiting outside the room when Hillary exited and the hurt look that she sent me made me feel even worse about having asked so quickly for the cleaning to be done. I just wanted to get the room cleaned and Joy safe, secure, and happy in the room with me. I wanted her to be comfortable in her new home. I didn't intend to offend Hillary, but I know I did when I saw her face.

The warriors escort her downstairs and helped her load her vehicle. I followed them down to her car as I wanted to see if she had a place to go.

"Hillary, do you know where you will be going? Do you have any money? Or an idea of where you will be staying?" I asked her.

"Don't start acting like now you care Thomas. You really cannot wait for me to go. I wish you well with your new mate". Hillary said.

"Well, here is $1,000 for a hotel or gas to help you get wherever you are going. Let me know if there is anything I can do to help you and I will do it for you". I told her. She looks at me with fresh tears in her eyes and enters the car and slowly drives away. I feel terrible for her, but I have my mate now, and she comes first.

I remember that my warriors at the pack border called me a little over a year later telling me that she was at the gate, asking to speak with me. I was not in town as I was away on business, and I didn't want Joy to have to meet with her as she was newly pregnant with our second pup and watching the firstborn. I didn't want to take a chance on something happening to my wife or pups, so I told the Warrior to send Hillary away, as she refused to tell him a reason for her wanting to meet with me. The Warrior said that he had heard someone else in the car, but he didn't know who it was with her. I wish I had just had the warrior to call Beta Young to go down to the gates. I know now who had been in that vehicle, and I lost her for 18 years because I didn't ask what Hillary needed at the gate. My heart is breaking as I think about all that I missed with my first-born child, and it is ALL my fault. I wanted someone to be with me, and instead of patiently waiting on my mate, I caused this whole thing. The guilt weighs heavily on me now, leaving a bitter taste in my mouth. I hope my daughter will be able to forgive me when we get to meet.

I get up from my seat and head out of my Office to go find Joy. I will speak to her first, and then tell my sons that our family is now growing bigger and that they now have the sister that they have always wanted. Tomorrow I will go to the Stone Moon pack with my wife and sons and meet my daughter. I can only pray this goes well.
