

Jagged 1091

Chapter 1091

The talks between Hopkins and Joseph were very harmonious. Although the entire meeting lasted only two hours, the two parties had basically reached a consensus. The United States and Russia can be described as dry wood and raging fire, which can be ignited at one point.

The United States wants to let Bu Russia consume the strength of the Germans, so that it can be cheap in the end. And Bu Russia also wants to use the support of the Americans to fight against Germany. If you like me, they will naturally be able to reach a cooperation.

Of course, the cooperation between the two countries is a very complicated matter, and there are still many details that need to be negotiated. However, the talks between Hopkins and Joseph basically set the tone for the cooperation. Next, they only need to negotiate under this theme. Relatively speaking, it will be much easier. Moreover, the cooperation between the two countries is already the general trend, and no one can change it.

"Comrade Joseph, the Americans are borrowing knives to kill people. They want to use us as guns. They want to use us to consume the strength of the Germans and buy them time!" Molotov knew that the U.S. What are people thinking.

Joseph nodded: "Why don't I know what the Americans are thinking? However, the Germans are too powerful. I'm afraid it will be difficult for us to beat the Germans alone. For this reason, we have to find ways to get more Now, the Americans take the initiative to come to our door to cooperate with us, which is undoubtedly what we wish for. The United States has a strong industrial strength. If we can get their support, the possibility of us resisting the German attack is undoubtedly It will be much bigger. Who made us and the Germans neighbors? If the Germans want to start a war, we will naturally bear the brunt. Under such circumstances, we can only seek help from the Americans and let them There is no way to take advantage of it! We were defeated by the Germans, and it would be much better for the country to perish!"

Molotov nodded, he also understood the truth. For Buer, now is indeed a very critical time and space. If support can be obtained from the Americans, this will greatly enhance the military strength of Bu Russia. In that case, it may be possible to resist the German attack in future wars.

"Comrade Molotov, you will be fully responsible for the next negotiations with the Americans. I hope that you can get as much benefit from the Americans as possible. Whether it is loans or aid It is what we need. In addition, planes, tanks, artillery and trucks, as well as other light and heavy weapons, are also what we need. As long as the Americans can get it, we all want it. This time, we will definitely seize this Opportunity to blackmail the Americans severely. Otherwise, wouldn't we have lost a lot this time?" Joseph said.

Once the war between Russia and Germany breaks out, they will have to expand their army crazily. With the population of Bu Russia, there is no shortage of soldiers. However, the gap in weapons and equipment may be getting bigger and bigger. If they can get the support of the Americans in this regard, their soldiers will not be allowed to go to the battlefield with bare hands. At the same time, the possibility of defeating the Germans will also be greatly improved.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph, I understand." Molotov nodded solemnly.

While the Americans were solemnly hooking up with Bu Russia and negotiating secretly, the Ukrainian army had already withdrawn from the territory of Bu Russia and retreated into its own territory. Although this battle did not occupy an inch of Bu Russia, it caused a lot of casualties to Bu Russia. For the Ukrainian army, it was also a rare victory. Even better, the losses of the Ukrainian army in this battle were very small. This not only tested the combat effectiveness of their army, but also tested the reality of the Russian army, which can be said to kill two birds with one stone.

After this battle, the Ukrainian army also recognized its combat effectiveness. It turned out that they were not as weak as imagined. And the Russian army is not as strong as imagined. Compared with the two, the morale and confidence of the Ukrainian army have risen a lot. Of course, this is mainly because the Russian troops they faced this time were mostly second-line troops, not elite field troops. When Marshal Budyonny led the elite troops to the battlefield, they had already retreated. Otherwise, it will be very difficult for the Ukrainian army to retreat.

Marshal Budyonny led the Russian army to chase to the border, but under Joseph's order, he dared not cross the border. And this is obviously not in line with Germany's expectations. Germany hopes that the Russian army can cross the border and invade Ukraine. In that case, they would have an excuse to declare war on Bu Russia! Therefore, Admiral Rommel began to continue planning operations, trying to anger Bu Russia.

On the morning of September 9th, at the request of Admiral Rommel, the Ukrainian Army assembled thousands of cannons and launched a fierce shelling of the Russian positions.

The Russian army was out of reach, and suffered heavy losses under the fierce shelling of the Ukrainian army. Marshal Budyonny had to order the Russian army to withdraw from the artillery range of the Ukrainian army in order to reduce the casualties of the troops.

After that, the Ukrainian army not only used shelling to deal with the Russian army, but even dispatched elite small troops at night to cross the border to attack the Russian army, which not only caused heavy casualties to the Russian army, but also destroyed some important supplies of the Russian army base.

The behavior of the Ukrainian Army made the Russian army very angry. Marshal Budyonny sent telegrams to Moscow many times, requesting to lead the army across the border to punish the Ukrainians and let them know the price of provoking Budyonny.

However, Joseph has been unable to make up his mind. He worried that if the Russian army did cross the border, it would anger the Germans and start a war. However, the increasingly aggressive provocations of the Ukrainians also made him suffocate.

"Damn Ukrainians, are they looking for death?" After learning that the frontline troops lost more than 5,000 people under the shelling and sneak attack of Ukraine, Joseph couldn't sit still anymore. Although he has never led troops in battle, he also knows that this will have a great impact on the morale of the troops.

Coincidentally at this time, the secret talks between Russia and the United States had ended. The United States promised that once Germany went to war with Russia, they would provide Russia with enough weapons and equipment to arm one million troops every year, and thousands of tanks in addition. And thousands of combat aircraft. This greatly increased Joseph's confidence.

On the evening of September 10, Joseph called a meeting of the marshals of the Russian military. This time the meeting has only one topic, and that is to punish the Ukrainians!

Chapter 1092

"Those lowly Ukrainians, they just leaned on the Germans and thought they were hugging the Germans' thighs, and they dared to invade the great Bu Russia. This time, we must not let them go!" Joseph said. The indignation on his face was as if he had received a great insult. He seemed to have no memory of being prepared to swallow his anger before.

Before, because I was afraid of the Germans, I didn't want to go to war with the Germans. Therefore, no matter how dissatisfied Joseph felt, he could only choose to swallow his anger. Even if it is a counterattack, the troops are ordered not to enter Ukraine.

But it is different now. After the promise of the Germans and the Americans, Joseph seems to have become more courageous. The Americans promised that if Germany attacks Bu Russia, they will provide Bu Russia with a large amount of military assistance to ensure that Bu Russia can withstand the German attack. More importantly, the Americans also promised to go to war with Germany within one to two years. In this case, it will undoubtedly greatly relieve the pressure on Bu Russia.

Although, the Americans promised that they would not join the war until two years later. But Joseph doesn't think Boo can last even two years. In that case, Buer would be too incompetent, right? Let alone talking about liberating the world, that is a joke.

A group of generals of Bu Russia all looked at Joseph, waiting for him to give an order. Although they were worried that this would cause a war with Germany, they had nothing to do. Joseph has made up his mind, what else can they say? If they object, the consequences are not something they can afford.

"Comrade Joseph, does this also mean that we are going to war with the Germans?" Andreyev asked.

"If we punish the Ukrainians and the Germans must intervene, then the war is inevitable." Joseph said.

"But the Germans are very powerful, can we really beat the Germans?" Andreev frowned, he was a little worried. After all, Germany has become stronger and stronger over the years, stronger than when they defeated Britain, France and other countries in the last world war. Although the current Bu'e is much stronger than before, he still has some doubts in his heart.

Other members of the Russian Politburo are also mostly worried about this. After all, although Germany has not launched a war in these years. However, the information obtained from all aspects can undoubtedly show that the German army has become stronger.

"Comrade Andreyev, don't worry at all. Although Germany is very strong, our construction over the years has not been in vain. The current Bu Russia is much stronger than when it was just founded. The Germans Although it is very strong, it is impossible to destroy us in a short time. We have a large strategic depth and population resources, which can make us able to persist for a long time even if we cannot defeat the Germans. Besides, although the Germans are very powerful, their enemy is not only us. The United States and Britain on the other side of the ocean, as well as the island countries in the Far East, are the great enemies of the Germans. The combination of so many countries is enough to defeat Germany” said Khrushchev, who was the secretary of Moscow and member of the Politburo, and a confidant of Joseph.

"Yes, Comrade Khrushchev is right. We are not the only enemy of the Germans. As long as we survive the initial difficult time, once other countries join the war, the Germans will be finished!" Joseph excited He said that he seemed to have seen the huge German Empire falling apart.

The other Politburo members also understood that Joseph had made up his mind at this time, so they stopped persuading him. In their hearts, they also believe that although Germany is strong, it has too many enemies, and Bu Russia may not have no chance of defeating Germany. If Bu Russia can win the war, then Bu Russia will take full advantage, and the whole of Europe will be under their control. At that time, they can integrate the power of Europe and liberate the whole world.

"Everyone, if you have no opinions, then it's decided." Joseph glanced at everyone.

Under Joseph's gaze, naturally no one dared to speak out against it.

Joseph nodded, and then said: "I plan to form the Southern Front Army, with Marshal Budyonny as the commander, General Zaporozhic as the political commissar, under the command of the 9th and 18th Army Groups and the 9th Army of the Independent Infantry Army .After the follow-up mobilized troops arrive, they will be incorporated into several group armies. The combat mission of the Southern Front will be to defeat Ukraine! Frustrate the Germans' ambition to invade us through Ukraine."

"Yes, Comrade Joseph. However, the strength of the Southern Front may not be enough. The total strength of the Ukrainian Army has reached 1.5 million, with six armies and some other troops." Voroshilov reminded.

Although Bu Russia looked down on Ukraine before, through this battle in Rostov-on-Don, the Ukrainian army also showed a strong combat effectiveness, which made the Bu Russia military take them seriously.

Joseph frowned: "Two elite armies plus an independent infantry army, there are more than 400,000 and nearly 500,000 people, can't they beat the Ukrainians?"

Voroshilov had to sit down and said no more.

Joseph thought for a while, and then said: "Since there are not enough troops, assign the 12th Army to the Southern Front!"

"Yes, Comrade Joseph." Shaposhnikov replied.

"Everyone, the war is about to begin. For the great Bu Russia, this is a severe test. But it is also an opportunity for us. If we can win this war, then we will gain huge Development. And we have enough ability to plant red flags all over the world!" Joseph looked forward.

The ultimate goal of these leaders of Russia is undoubtedly to liberate the whole world. Many people take this as their lifelong goal. After all, these leaders enjoy the best material treatment in Bu

Russia, and when they have achieved the ultimate in this aspect, they naturally need to have other pursuits. And liberating the world is undoubtedly an extremely lofty goal.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph!" The other Russian government and military leaders replied one after another.

Although they all know that Germany is very strong, Bu Russia may not have no chance. Since the war is inevitable, they naturally hope to win in the next war. No one wants to be a loser!

Chapter 1093

On the Ukrainian front, the Russian Army's newly formed Southern Front Command, Commander Marshal Budyonny and Political Commissar General Zaporozhets are discussing the next military operations. The order issued by Moscow is very urgent, requiring them to launch an attack as soon as possible.

However, Marshal Budyonny is not a reckless person. In particular, the Ukrainian army voluntarily abandoned Rostov-on-Don, which made him feel a great threat. In addition, although the Southern Front has three group armies and an independent infantry army under its jurisdiction, it has a total strength of more than 600,000 troops. However, the 12th Army is still on its way to the south, and there is no hope for the time being.

Before, most of the Russian generals did not take Ukraine seriously, thinking that the combat effectiveness of the Ukrainian army was terrible, and there was nothing to worry about. But in the previous battle, the Ukrainian army arrived in Rostov-on-Don in two days and captured it in only two days, which undoubtedly made people have to face up to their combat effectiveness. Even if it was defeated by the Ukrainian Army, it was only the second-line troops of the Russian Army. However, this is also worthy of vigilance. Marshal Budyonny also deduced from this that the combat effectiveness of the Ukrainians is no longer the same as in the past.

"Comrade Marshal, Comrade Joseph asked us to launch an offensive within a week. Now, it has been three days, when do we have to wait?" Admiral Zaporozhets asked a little dissatisfied.

As a political worker single-handedly promoted by Joseph, Zaporozhez is loyal to Joseph. In fact, the political workers in these troops are the tools used by Joseph to control the troops. They may not have much military talent, or they may have done more than fail. However, their loyalty was exactly what Joseph needed. It was precisely because of this that Joseph valued them very much. In many cases, in the army, the status of political workers is higher than that of military officials at the same level. It is even possible to arrest these military chiefs.

However, Marshal Budyonny is one of the few giants of the Budyonny Army, with a high rank and seniority, so Zaporozhez did not dare to be too presumptuous.

"Wait a little longer, the 12th Army is already on its way." Marshal Budyonny said. With only two army groups and an independent infantry army, he really didn't have much confidence in defeating the Ukrainians.

The Ukrainian 1st Army is undoubtedly elite. Compared with the Russian field troops, it is not bad at all. Even if the other Ukrainian armies are not as strong as the 1st Army, they may be able to defeat them by relying on their strength. . Therefore, Marshal Budyonny hopes to wait a little longer, and he will be more confident when the follow-up 12th Army arrives. Of course, if possible, he would like to wait a little longer, until after the mobilization of the Russian army is completed, more follow-up troops will arrive on the battlefield. In this case, his confidence will be even greater. However, Marshal Budyonny knew that Joseph had never been a patient person. If his patience was worn out and he did not get the result he wanted, the consequences would be more serious.

"Comrade Marshal, if the 12th Army is going to arrive, I'm afraid it will take several days, and it will be too late. Comrade Joseph blames it, how can we take care of it!" Admiral Zaporozhez looked worried.

"I know what to do!" Marshal Budyonny said.

Seeing this, General Zaporozhets hated him secretly, but he didn't say anything more. Anyway, he had already persuaded him, and if Marshal Budyonny didn't listen, it was none of his business. As long as Joseph has an order to arrest Budyonny, he will execute it immediately.

Joseph is indeed a suspicious, irritable, and impatient person. After he issued the order to form the Southern Front Army, he hoped that Budyonny could lead the army into Ukraine as soon as possible, and beat the Ukrainians to the ground, so that Budyoni would be ashamed. However, Budyonny did not move, which naturally did not satisfy him.

In the first two days, Joseph was able to bear it. But then, he couldn't help it. He began to send continuous telegrams to the Southern Front Army Command, urging Marshal Budyonny to lead the army to launch an offensive.

Marshal Budyonny was unmoved by Joseph's pressure at the beginning. However, the most unacceptable thing for Joseph was that others ignored his orders, especially Marshal Budyonny, who commanded the army, which made him deeply afraid from the bottom of his heart. Therefore, Joseph was about to lose his patience soon, and even thought of replacing Marshal Budyonny.

Under such circumstances, Marshal Voroshilov sent a telegram to Marshal Budyonny, telling him not to go any further, and to execute the order quickly. Otherwise, I'm afraid it's hard to protect myself.

Marshal Voroshilov was promoted to Marshal in the same year as Marshal Budyonny. He has a good personal relationship, so he reminded Marshal Budyonny.

Marshal Budyonny sighed and had to follow the order.

On the morning of September 12, 1939, the Russian army crossed the border and launched an attack on Ukraine.

The Kingdom of Ukraine seems to have been prepared for the attack of the Bu-Russian Army. They were on the border and did not deploy many troops, allowing the Bu-Russia Army to drive straight in.

Thanks to the German spy network in Bu Russia, they were able to obtain a lot of military intelligence from Bu Russia. Although, the Russian NKVD has encircled and suppressed the German spy network in Burus many times and arrested many German spies. However, the German spy network has been functioning and operating efficiently.

Facing this attack by the Bu-Russian Army, the Ukrainian Kingdom adopted pocket tactics, intending to put the Russian army in first, and then gather superior forces to carry out the siege. In this case, the possibility of their victory is undoubtedly greater.

While the Russian army invaded Ukraine, the Ukrainian army also began to gather. A large number of troops rushed to the front line by train and car, preparing to participate in this battle.

Joseph who was far away in Moscow had a smile on his face when he learned that the Russian Army had invaded Ukraine and drove straight in. He seemed to have seen the scene where the Russian Army conquered Kyiv and arrested all the bureaucrats of the Ukrainian kingdom for trial. up.

"Ukraine will return to the big family of Russia. In the future war, the winner will definitely be ours!" Joseph looked confident.

Similarly, Qin Tian, Emperor of the German Empire in Berlin, also showed a smile on his face.

"After so much effort, the Russians finally invaded Ukraine. Then, we finally have an excuse to declare war!" Qin Tian finally found a reason to declare war as he wished.

Chapter 1094

Germany, Berlin, Imperial Palace.

Emperor Qin Tian sat in his seat, and the military and political ministers of the empire sat on both sides of the long table. There were smiles on everyone's faces. Even those important military officials were even more joyful.

After arranging for so long, Bu Russia finally couldn't help launching an attack on the Kingdom of Ukraine, and fell into the trap that Germany had set up long ago. And this means that Germany can use this as an excuse to declare war on Bu Russia. Ukraine is a protectorate of Germany, and when its protectorate is attacked, Germany certainly cannot sit idly by. Otherwise, what do the rest of the Protectorate think, will they continue to be loyal to Germany? Even the people of the empire will understand this.

Germany has been preparing for this war for a long time. It can be said that this war must be fought. In order for Germany's hegemony to be stabilized, all countries that pose a threat to Germany's hegemony must not be resolved. In this way, Germany's hegemony will be unbreakable.

"Everyone, Bu Russia has invaded the territory of the Kingdom of Ukraine. Now, the Kingdom of Ukraine is mobilizing troops to prepare for the invasion of Bu Russia. The Kingdom of Ukraine is the protectorate of the Empire, and the Empire must not sit idly by!" Qin Tian, Emperor of the Empire Shen Sheng said.

"Your Majesty, since the Kingdom of Ukraine became the protectorate of the empire after the last world war, it has always been respectful to the empire, and it has done its best to complete the tasks assigned by the empire. Among the many protectorates of the empire, it is definitely the most loyal one. Now, the Ukrainian kingdom is being brutally invaded by Russia, and the empire must not stand idly by!" Imperial Prime Minister Vahit also said.

Although, compared to those military militants, the ministers of the civilian faction don't like war very much. They prefer to solve problems in a peaceful way. However, this time the ministers of the civil service faction also knew that war was inevitable. Under such circumstances, there is no other way but to fully support the empire to win this battle. Therefore, they have also been actively preparing for battle over the years. Everyone knows very well that if the empire can win this future world war, then the empire's dominance will be truly stable.

"Your Majesty, the army, sea and air forces of the Empire are all ready to launch an attack on Bu Russia at any time!" The Chief of the General Staff Marshal Manstein reported. The imperial army has already started preparing for war. Under Qin Tian's request, they have not slackened over the years. This made the fighting power of the Imperial Army more and more powerful. The important ministers of the military firmly believe that the empire will definitely win this war.

Qin Tian nodded: "This time, if we launch a war against Russia, then it means that the world war will start again. Perhaps, other countries will not be involved in the war immediately. But, they will definitely participate in the end. The main enemies of the empire, the United States and the island countries, will not just watch Bu Russia be destroyed by the empire. They all know that if Bu Russia is destroyed by the empire, the empire will be able to Control the whole of Europe. At that time, they will no longer have the strength to fight against the empire. Therefore, they will definitely cause trouble for the empire when the empire attacks Bu Russia. For example, provide support for weapons and equipment to Bu Russia, or send troops into Bu Russia to support Bu Russia in its operations. Even, open up a second battlefield in other places to contain the strength of the empire."

Qin Tian looked at the crowd, and then continued: "Although the current empire is stronger than it was in the last world war, the enemies of the empire are also making progress. Therefore, this war will be A very tragic war. I estimate that this war may last for more than five years. Although we have made a lot of preparations before the war. However, if the war drags on for too long, no one will I can assure you that we are fully prepared. Therefore, I hope that everyone will do their best in this war. Otherwise, if the empire fails to win this war, the consequences will be very serious of!"

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Everyone replied with serious faces. Everyone is very clear that Qin Tian is so solemn about the upcoming battle, which means that the future battle will be extremely tragic. Even if Germany can win this war, I am afraid it will pay a huge price.

However, these ministers have firm eyes. They know that the current German Empire has no way out, and they must go forward bravely to win this war. Otherwise, once Germany loses the war, the consequences will be disastrous. Those countries that have won will never let Germany go. In the end, waiting for Germany, I am afraid there is only one way to perish. Therefore, in this war, Germany must do its best to win.

"The army of the empire, from now on, is entering the final stage of preparations for the war. Within a week, all preparations must be done!" Qin Tian ordered.

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Marshal Manstein, Minister of the Imperial Army and Chief of the General Staff, Marshal Raeder, Minister of the Imperial Navy, and Marshal Albert Kesselring, Minister of the Imperial Air Force, replied one after another.

"Minister of Foreign Affairs, ask the representatives stationed in Bu Russia to warn the Russians, ask their troops to withdraw from Ukraine immediately, and double the compensation for the losses of the Kingdom of Ukraine. Otherwise, all consequences will be borne by themselves!" Qin Tian continued.

"Yes, Your Majesty." Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann nodded.

Qin Tian knew that such a warning was of no use to Bu'er. Since Bu Russia dares to send troops to attack Ukraine, it means that they have made up their minds and will never be frightened by Germany's warning. Therefore, this war will inevitably break out.

Even though Qin Tian knew this, he still asked the representative in Bu Russia to warn Russia, just to further let the people of the empire see that the empire has made a lot of efforts for peace. However, Bu'e has been aggressive again and again, so the empire has no choice but to stand up and fight.

On the morning of September 13, 1939, Ribbentrop, the representative of the Empire in Bu Russia, urgently met with Molotov, the People's Commissar of Foreign Affairs of Bu Russia, and formally issued an ultimatum to Bu Russia, demanding that the Russian army that invaded Ukraine immediately Withdraw from the Kingdom of Ukraine.

"Your Excellency, the German Empire is very angry at your country brazenly sending hundreds of thousands of troops to invade the Kingdom of Ukraine! The Kingdom of Ukraine is the protectorate of the German Empire, and His Majesty the Emperor is also the King of the Kingdom of Ukraine. Your country's invasion of the Kingdom of Ukraine, is the invasion of the German Empire. The German Empire requires your country's troops to immediately withdraw from the Ukrainian Kingdom and compensate the Ukrainian Kingdom for its losses. Otherwise, the German Empire will use all means to safeguard the rights of the Empire and the Empire's protectorate!" Ribbentrop growled harshly.

Molotov was expressionless, watching Ribbentrop's performance. In fact, after deciding to attack Ukraine, the Russian high-level officials had already expected that the Germans would never let it go. Even, the Germans will soon launch an attack on Bu Russia. However, Joseph insisted on punishing the Kingdom of Ukraine, even if a war broke out with Germany, he would not hesitate. This made Bu Russia know that war is inevitable.

In addition, these leaders of Bu Russia are not fools. They all know that Germany has been preparing for war over the years. Germany wants to dominate Europe and even the entire world, and Bu Russia is undoubtedly the first target of Germany to eliminate. Even this time the Kingdom of Ukraine dared to provoke Bu Russia, and Germany was definitely behind it. Therefore, they are also very clear that war is inevitable.

Although Germany is very strong, Bu Russia is definitely not Germany's opponent. However, this time Bu Russia is not fighting alone, they will have the support of the United States. As long as the most difficult first two years have passed, the United States and other countries will attack Germany one after another. At that time, the pressure on Bu Russia will be greatly reduced, and even defeat will be turned into victory. It is not impossible to win the war.

It was precisely because of this that Molotov didn't seem worried at all when facing Ribbentrop's roar.

"On behalf of your Excellency, Buer did this in self-defense! We were the first to be invaded by the Ukrainians, so we fought back. Therefore, it is not our fault!" Molotov said.

"Who is right and who is wrong, it is useless to say now. Although Ukraine sent troops to retaliate against you, but the same, isn't it because your border guards crossed the border to attack the Kingdom of Ukraine before? So, the empire now only looks at As a result, your country's army once again invaded the Kingdom of Ukraine, which is absolutely unacceptable to the empire. His Majesty the Emperor requires your country's army to withdraw from Ukraine immediately!" Ribbentrop's attitude was very tough.

Ribbentrop also knew that the warning to the Russian government this time was actually just a formality. All fools know that this war is inevitable. In this case, all diplomatic efforts are useless. Germany hopes to use this war to defeat Bu Russia and other world powers in one fell swoop and maintain its hegemony. Bu Russia and other powerful countries hope to resist Germany's attack, even defeat Germany, and end Germany's hegemony. Under such circumstances, in the end, it is only natural to use war to decide the outcome.

"On behalf of your Excellency, is your country trying to use its powerful strength to oppress Bu Russia and make us submit?" Molotov asked angrily.

"No, Your Excellency, everything the empire does is to protect the interests of us and our protectorate. If your country is stubborn and determined to confront the empire, then the empire will take the most severe measures "" Ribbentrop threatened.

"Including war?" Molotov said with a sneer on his face.

"Yes, including war!" Ribbentrop nodded without hesitation.

"On behalf of Your Excellency, if your country thinks that this will make Bu Russia compromise, then you are completely wrong. No matter how powerful the enemy is, Bu Russia will never compromise. We firmly believe that no matter how powerful the enemy is, The final victory must be ours! The Russian government and people are confident in defeating all invading enemies!" Molotov responded with the same tough attitude.

"Your Excellency, since this is the case, then I will not say more. I hope that Buer will not regret today's choice." Ribbentrop stood up after finishing speaking.

"Buer will never regret it! Because we will win the final victory. The last regret will definitely be the German Empire." Molotov showed no weakness.

"Really? Let's wait and see! Farewell!" Ribbentrop then left.

Molotov looked at Ribbentrop's leaving back, and couldn't help feeling a little worried.

"Can we really defeat Germany? Germany is so powerful, even if other powerful countries unite to defeat Germany, I am afraid it will be very difficult. No, the great Bu Russia will not be defeated. We have The largest army, the most steadfast faith, and the final victory will definitely be ours!" Molotov once again strengthened his mind.

Subsequently, Molotov went to the Kremlin to report to Joseph the results of this meeting with the German representative.

"Comrade Molotov, your answer is very good. We are a great Russia. Whether it is our party, our government, or our people, we will never compromise with the Germans. Although, the Germans It is very powerful. But, so what? The great Buo will not be defeated, and we will win the war!" Joseph said.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph, I have always believed in victory!" Molotov said.

"However, judging from the attitude of the German representative, the Germans are really ready to start a war this time!" Joseph said.

Molotov nodded: "From the beginning to the end, the Germans preferred Ukraine's provocation against us. All of this is a conspiracy of the Germans. I think they would like us to send troops to attack the Kingdom of Ukraine. If so, they would have a reasonable excuse to go to war against us."

"Yes, all of this is a conspiracy of the Germans. However, in the face of absolute strength, all conspiracies and tricks are futile. Because we will definitely win the final victory. The Germans will soon know that they They didn't trick us at all, but let them fall into the pit themselves." Joseph said confidently.

Molotov also had a look of confidence, but perhaps only he himself knew whether this was the case.

Chapter 1096

"Comrade Molotov, come with me to the General Staff. Marshal Voroshilov and General Shaposhnikov have already made a plan to prevent the Germans from attacking." Joseph said.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph." Molotov nodded. Although he didn't know why Joseph would take him to understand the war preparations of the Russian army. But it wouldn't do him any harm if he could learn more about the subject.

Joseph and Molotov arrived at the General Staff Headquarters by car. Voroshilov and Shaposhnikov, with a large group of generals, were already waiting for them outside the General Staff.

"Comrade Joseph, welcome to the General Staff!" Shaposhnikov smiled.

"Comrade Shaposhnikov, you have worked hard. For a long time to come, you will work even harder. However, I believe that you will be able to overcome these current difficulties and win the final victory for the great Bu Russia. Victory!" Joseph said.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph! We will do our best to win victory for the party and the country!" Shaposhnikov promised.

Subsequently, Joseph and others, surrounded by a group of generals, entered the general staff. They went directly to the War Department to listen to the deployment of the next war formulated by the General Staff.

"Comrades, just now the representative of Germany in Bu Russia officially issued an ultimatum to us, asking our troops to withdraw from Ukraine immediately. Otherwise, the Germans will use all means to attack us. Obviously, this is undoubtedly It was Germany who declared war on us. The Ukrainians, just sent their troops to invade the great Burus. However, the Germans turned a blind eye to it. Now, we have just started to fight back, and they jumped out to accuse us and threaten us! The Germans clearly wanted to bully us by doing this. Although Bu Russia has not been established for a long time, it is a great country and a country with backbone. Therefore, Comrade Molotov sternly rejected the Germans, Claiming that we will never compromise, will not surrender, and will not compensate the Ukrainians for losses! Unless, the Germans can defeat us on the battlefield!" Joseph said.

The Russian generals present here all looked filled with righteous indignation. Many of them are really angry because of the behavior of the Germans, but some of them are probably just pretending. As a military officer, you can't act emotionally, so many people are very rational. They will not be easily infected by Joseph like those political workers. They will not blindly worship Joseph like them. However, now Joseph has controlled the entire army through those political workers. Therefore, they did not dare to resist rashly. In that case, you will only get yourself into it.

"Comrades, Germany is very powerful. They won the last world war and became the hegemony of the world. In the past twenty years, they have developed very fast by exploiting the vast colonies in the world. But Bu Russia is also not as poor and empty as it was when the country was just founded. We also have a strong industry and an even stronger army. It is impossible for the Germans to defeat us and destroy us. What's more, we have other countries Assistance. Therefore, our victory in this battle is very great. I firmly believe that the final victory must be ours!" Joseph continued.

"Bu Russia will win! Long live Comrade Joseph!" The political workers shouted loudly. Others also followed suit.

Seeing this situation, Joseph nodded with satisfaction, and he continued: "The Germans have been preparing for war over the years. They want to dominate Europe and even the entire world, and the empire is the goal they must destroy. Even if it is At the beginning, they fully supported us and cooperated with us in order to invade us today. Therefore, we must not allow the German wolf ambition to succeed. In this war, we will definitely win. Only in that way can our ideals be realized, and we can realize the goal of liberating all mankind!"

The political workers seemed to be infected by Joseph's words, and they all looked at him with fanaticism. In the combat room, there was thunderous applause.

Joseph nodded and looked at Shaposhnikov.

"Comrade Shaposhnikov, please introduce the military deployment of the General Staff!" Joseph said.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph." Shaposhnikov replied.

"Comrades, the Germans have the most powerful army in the world. Therefore, we must be cautious when fighting the Germans. Although we don't want to admit it, our current military strength cannot compete with the Germans." Compared," Shaposhnikov said.

Joseph was expressionless, and was not angry at what Shaposhnikov said, because he knew that Shaposhnikov was telling the truth.

"However, we also have our advantages. Although the Germans are very powerful, they have made too many enemies. There will not be too many troops that can really be devoted to the Russian battlefield. We will have an absolute advantage in terms of military strength .At the same time, we still have a vast territory, which gives us a huge strategic depth. In the face of the powerful German offensive, we can trade space for time, and at the same time continue to lengthen the German logistics supply line. In this case, we It will have a greater advantage and a greater chance of winning," Shaposhnikov said.

Joseph nodded after hearing this, and he also believed that Bu Russia's advantage did not lie in fighting the Germans recklessly, because in that case, they would have no chance of winning.

"In the direction of Ukraine, we have formed the Southern Front Army, led by Marshal Budyonny, who is responsible for fighting Ukraine. We also need to form several other front armies to guard against German attacks." Shaposhnikov continued.

The generals of Bu Russia cheered up one by one, because this is related to their vital interests.

"With the approval of Comrade Joseph, we will form the Western Front, which will have the 3rd, 4th, 10th, 13th, and 16th Army, the 3rd Tank Army, and the 1st Air Force Army. The commander will be General Timoshenko. The political commissar is General Forminekh. The formation of the Southwest Front Army, under the jurisdiction of the 5th, 6th, 13th and 26th Army Group, the commander is General Kirporos, and the political commissar is Lieutenant General Lykov. Formation of the Northwest Front Army, under the jurisdiction of the 8th, 11th and 27th armies. The commander is Admiral Kuznetsov, and the political commissar is Lieutenant General Dibrova!" Shaposhnikov announced.

Germany, Berlin, General Staff.

While Bu Russia is actively deploying troops and generals to prepare for the German attack. Germany is doing the same. A large number of German troops are gathering and marching to the border. Convenient transportation enables the German army to achieve rapid mobilization. The railways and roads have been crowded with military trains and vehicles, and the civilian evacuation had to be temporarily stopped.

Throughout Germany, there is a tense atmosphere at wartime. Although Germany has not yet chosen Bu Russia, almost all Germans believe that war is unavoidable. They are not dissatisfied with this war. Since this period of time, under the instruction of Kaiser Qin Tian, the major media in Germany have begun to report on the brazen invasion of the Kingdom of Ukraine by Russia.

Since Germany became the hegemon of the world, while the living standards of the German people have continued to improve, national self-esteem and self-confidence have also continued to rise. Germany has become a hegemon, so naturally it cannot tolerate provocations from other countries. Many Germans believe that Bu Russia's attack on the Kingdom of Ukraine is a provocation to the German Empire. The German Empire should declare war on them, defeat them, and let them know that the majesty of the German Empire will never tolerate provocation.

Although, some people worry that Bu Russia is not a small country. Even if Germany is very powerful, it may be very difficult to defeat Bu Russia. Even if you win in the end, you will definitely pay a big price. Is it worth paying so much for a protectorate?

It's just that this is just the thoughts of a small number of people. Most people undoubtedly support the empire. In particular, although the emperor Qin Tian has not made a public statement yet, other members of the royal family have frequently revealed that the empire will not hesitate to fight in order to maintain its dignity. This has made the people of the empire inclined to support the empire in launching a war.

The German royal family still has a great influence in the hearts of the people. Especially Qin Tian, the emperor of the empire, was faintly deified. No one in the entire empire would oppose Qin Tian's will, and no one would dare to oppose it.

On September 13th, Qin Tian brought the cabinet ministers to the General Staff Headquarters to listen to the battle plan against Bu Russia formulated by the General Staff Headquarters. Although, this battle plan has already been drawn up almost, but it has been revised recently. After all, the military strength and deployment of Russia have been changing all the time. Germany also needs to make targeted adjustments.

"Marshal Manstein, let's start!" Qin Tian said.

"Yes, Your Majesty." Marshal Manstein nodded.

"Currently, the first batch of mobilized troops of the Imperial Army has been mobilized, and we have once again formed 12 group armies. Now, the Imperial Army has 24 group armies. Deducting the 4 group armies deployed in the Far East and Australia, we There are a total of 20 group armies in Europe. Two group armies are stationed in the British Isles and northern France respectively. In this battle against Bu Russia, we will dispatch 18 group armies, and strive to hit hard in the first round of large-scale attacks. Boo!" Marshal Manstein said.

"Eighteen army groups have been invested, so how to defend the country?" Prime Minister Wasit asked.

"Your Excellency, the domestic defense can be handed over to the police. Now that the empire is powerful, no country dares to attack the empire at this juncture. As for the United States on the other side of the ocean, it is impossible to attack the empire before they defeat the imperial navy. The mainland. In addition to the British Isles as a barrier, although we only deployed one army group on the British Isles. However, the combined army of our slave countries exceeds two million. The Americans want to take the British Isles It is impossible for the three islands, let alone attacking the mainland. In addition, our second batch of mobilization has already begun. Soon, we will have sufficient troops!" Marshal Manstein explained.

"The Imperial Navy will firmly hold the Atlantic Ocean, and the Americans will never set foot on Europe!" Marshal Raeder said confidently.

"Prime Minister, don't worry, the 18 armies dispatched this time are only for the purpose of injuring Russia in the early stages of the war. After the battle at this stage is explained, some troops will be transferred back to the country. At that time, a large number of protectorate troops will be dispatched to From the front line!" Qin Tian said.

Washite nodded, and then said no more.

"The 18 armies of the Empire attacking Bu Russia are the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, and 17th , 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, and 22nd armies. The 5th army is stationed in the British Isles, the 6th army is stationed in northern France. The 11th and 23rd armies are stationed in the Far East, and the 12th and 24th armies are stationed in Australia !" Marshal Manstein said.

"The army attacking Bu Russia this time will be divided into four groups. The 1st, 4th and 10th armies will form the A group army group, and the commander of the 1st group army, Admiral Werner von Bromberg, will also serve as the group Commander. The 3rd, 8th, 13th, 14th, and 15th armies form the B army group, and General Guderian, the commander of the 8th army, also serves as the commander of the army group! The 7th, 9th, 16th, The 17th and 18th armies form the C army group, and the commander of the 9th army, Admiral Rommel, also serves as the commander of the army group. The 1st, 19th and 20th armies form the D army group, led by Walter, the commander of the 10th army. Admiral von Brausch also serves as the commander of the army group." Marshal Manstein announced.

"Yes, Marshal!" Several generals who also served as commanders of the group army stood up one after another. A smile could clearly be seen in their eyes. In addition to Guderian and Rommel, who are valued by Kaiser Qin Tian, General Bromberg and General Brausch are also very capable people.

The others looked at them with a hint of envy. Obviously, they also know that serving as the commander of the group army group means that they are one step closer to the marshal's scepter.

"The Finnish army, the armies of the three Baltic countries, will assist Army Group A in combat. The armies of the Kingdom of Poland and the Kingdom of Belarus will assist Army Group B in combat. The army of the Kingdom of Ukraine, after solving the Russian army that invaded the Kingdom of Ukraine, will separately Assist Army Group C and Army Group D in combat!" Manstein continued.

In the first phase of the battle against Bu Russia, these protectorates that are very close to Bu Russia will send troops to cooperate with the German army to fight. Of course, they mainly undertake some auxiliary tasks, and the main force is still the German army.

"The Imperial Air Force, in this battle, will fully assist the Imperial Army in attacking Bu Russia. The Air Force's 1st Aviation Group, 2nd Aviation Group, 3rd Aviation Group, and 4th Aviation Group will support the attacks of the 4 army groups respectively. In addition, the strategic air force will be responsible for the bombing of Russia's strategic locations, important cities and industrial bases!" Marshal Manstein continued.

An aviation group of the Air Force, including five aviation wings, more than 600 fighters. For example, the 1st Aviation Group includes three fighter wings, one dive bomber wing, and one ground attack wing. Originally, the Army wanted to bring dive bombers and ground attack aircraft into the Army's own jurisdiction, but of course the Air Force was unwilling. The two sides fought a lawsuit for a long time because of this. In the end, the Army still failed to succeed. Of course, the Air Force also guarantees that it will fully support the Army in the war. The reason why the army wants to obtain the management of dive bombers and ground attack aircraft is naturally to support the army's attacks better and faster. Now that the goal has been achieved, naturally there is no more to say.

Qin Tian also knew that the army must have its own aviation power. At his request, the Aeronautical Research Institute has developed a helicopter. It's just that the current helicopters are still very crude, and the reliability is not enough, and further improvements are needed. The take-off weight has to be increased at least further, so that armor and weapons can be added. Otherwise, it would be a living target on the battlefield, and it would be easy to be shot down.

Qin Tian hopes that the future German helicopters can be equipped with machine guns and rocket launchers, which will pose a great threat to ground troops. At the same time, because of the presence of armor, it is not easy to be shot down. However, if these requirements of his are to be realized, I am afraid it will take a while to get on board. Therefore, the army can only be wronged first, and when it needs air support, it can only turn to the air force first.

The strategic air force is equipped with mainly twin-engine medium bombers, four-engine heavy bombers and long-range fighter jets. Currently, the Strategic Air Force has only four aviation clusters, namely the 101 Aviation Cluster, the 102 Aviation Cluster, the 103 Aviation Cluster and the 104 Aviation Cluster. Each aviation group includes two medium bomber wings, two heavy bomber wings, and a long-range fighter wing.

With the outbreak of war, the production of various weapons and equipment in Germany will continue to increase. At that time, the German Air Force will continue to grow. In Qintian's plan, the general aviation clusters will be expanded from the existing 8 to 16. The Strategic Air Force Group will also expand from the current 4 to 8. In this case, it can be barely enough.

"Yes, Your Excellency the Chief of Staff." Air Force Minister Albert Kesselring replied.

Although the strength of the Air Force has grown a lot now, it is still in a subordinate position in the war. There is still a long way to go to become a decisive force on the battlefield. After all, with the current technological conditions, it is almost impossible to achieve a war that can be won only by dispatching the air force. However, with the continuous advancement of science and technology, the importance of the Air Force will also increase, and it is not impossible to eventually become the protagonist of the battlefield.

Marshal Albert Kesselring knew exactly this, so he hoped that the Air Force could perform well in this battle, so that everyone could see how powerful the Air Force is.

Soon, Marshal Manstein's battle plan was announced, and everyone's eyes fell on Qin Tian. From everyone's eyes, Qin Tian could feel the vigorous fighting spirit. Everyone is eager for war, eager to get more meritorious service, so that they can be further promoted.

"Marshal Manstein, when will we be ready to attack?" Qin Tian asked.

"Your Majesty, the troops on the front line are almost ready, and all kinds of war materials have been mobilized. If you decide to launch an attack, it will only take two days to complete the integration and launch the attack!" Marshal Manstein Said.

Qin Tian nodded: "Okay then, send a secret telegram to the troops on the front line. The war will start in three days! That is to say, launch an attack at 6 am on August 17!"

"Yes, Your Majesty!" All the generals replied. Everyone knows that after Qin Tian made his decision, the war will start soon!

After returning to the palace, Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann was already waiting in his office.

"Your Excellency, Minister of Foreign Affairs, what happened?" Qin Tian asked.

"Your Majesty, Ribbentrop called, and Bu'er's attitude was very firm. The warning from the empire was of no use at all. From this, it can be seen that Bu'er should know that war is inevitable, so he didn't Ready to find a way to avoid war," said Gustav Stresemann.

Qin Tian nodded: "This is not beyond our expectations. The leaders of Bu'er are not fools. They should know that the purpose of everything the empire does is to start a war. If there is no other way, They can only choose to resist to the end. In that case, there may be a little chance of winning."

"Your Majesty, Ribbentrop also reported that Americans were found to be active in Moscow. In addition, there are islanders." Gustav Stresemann continued.

"It's no wonder that Bu Russia has such great confidence. It is obvious that other countries have supported them. From the current point of view, the Americans must have decided to support them. That's why Bu Russia dared to go to war with the empire." Qin Tian said .

"Your Majesty, then we may have to face the attacks of Bu Russia, the United States, the island country and the United Kingdom at the same time." Gustav Stresemann was a little worried.

"Don't worry, even if they are enemies of the empire at the same time, the empire will defeat them." Qin Tian was very confident. Because several countries will not go to war with Germany immediately, and the only thing the imperial prime minister has to face is Bu Russia. What's more, before the imperial navy was defeated, the United States, the island countries, and the United Kingdom could not pose a substantial threat to the empire.

Gustav Stresemann nodded: "Your Majesty, is the war declaration ready?"

To declare war, there must be a declaration of war.

"No need, on the morning of September 17th, I will make a televised and radio speech to announce the news to the people of the empire!" Qin Tian said.

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Gustav Stresemann said no more.

At 6 am on September 17, Emperor Qin Tian announced to the German people through television and radio that from now on, the German Empire declared war on Russia!

Chapter 1099

"All citizens of the Empire, in ten minutes, His Majesty the Emperor will make a speech on television and radio!" At 5:50 in the morning, tweeters in various towns and villages of the German Empire began to broadcast such announcements.

In order to promptly publicize the policy of the empire to the ears of every imperial citizen, the German government deliberately set up many tweeters in various towns and villages. Usually, these tweeters mainly play some radio programs, and the government will only broadcast announcements when something important happens.

This time, the German Empire is going to declare war on Bu Russia. For Germany, this is undoubtedly a big deal. His Majesty the Emperor is going to make announcements on TV and radio speeches, so naturally the public will know through these loudspeakers.

At this time, not many people got up, and most of the people in the empire were still sleeping. Many people were woken up by the tweeter.

"What the hell, what's going on? Why did the horn sound so early?"

"His Majesty is going to make a televised and radio speech? Has something happened?"

After the German people knew the news, they turned on the TV if they had the conditions. If they didn't, they could only prepare to listen to the radio. Since it was His Majesty the Emperor who was going to give a speech, even if they were woken up, the people of the empire would have nothing else to say. They all know that under normal circumstances, His Majesty the Emperor of the Empire basically does not make TV and radio speeches except to express congratulations to the people on Christmas.

Ten minutes passed quickly. Most of the people in the empire were woken up by the tweeter playing the announcement in a loop. At the same time, the envoys of various countries stationed in Germany, as well as the spies sent to Germany by the intelligence agencies of various countries, were also awakened.

Everyone knows that something big is about to happen. So everyone held their breath, ready to listen to the Kaiser's televised and radio speeches.

At six o'clock in the morning, Qin Tian appeared on the TV screen on time.

"People of the Empire, I am the Emperor of the Empire. I am sorry to wake you up from your sleep. I have a decision and I have to tell you. The Kingdom of Ukraine, the protectorate of the German Empire, is now being attacked by the Russian army. Invasion. Hundreds of thousands of Russian troops have invaded the Kingdom of Ukraine. This weak country is being ravaged by war. As the suzerain of the Kingdom of Ukraine, the German Empire must not sit idly by. In order to avoid war, we have done diplomatically Great efforts. However, the Russian government turned a blind eye to this. In this case, under the unbearable situation, I decided that from now on, the German Empire will declare war on Bu Russia! The great German Empire will use force to protect our protection Let the whole world see that the dignity of the German Empire cannot be insulted!" Qin Tian said.

"From now on, the peace between the German Empire and Russia is over. We will be in a state of war immediately! The subjects of the empire, I hope you can support the empire, support me, so that the empire can win this war!" Qin Tian finally said.

After Qin Tian finished speaking, he bowed to the camera and left. However, the entire German Empire erupted because of Qin Tian's speech.

"Long live His Majesty the Emperor! Defeat Buer!"

"Teach those damned old men a lesson and let them know that the German Empire is not easy to mess with!"

"Down with Boo!"

Almost the entire empire is a voice to support the German Empire in this battle. The empire's protectorate was attacked, which made the people of the empire very angry. Coupled with the appeal of the emperor Qin Tian, the start of war became the mainstream public opinion of the entire empire.

"The war has begun! I hope the Russians can resist these crazy Germans. Otherwise, the whole world will be ruled by them!" The US ambassador to Germany turned off the TV, and then personally sent a telegram to the country.

Representatives of Russia in Germany, although they knew that the war was inevitable, they did not expect that Germany would declare war on Russia so soon. In their view, even if Germany wants to choose, it will have to board for a while. After all, war is not a child's play, not a joke. Once it enters a state of war, it is impossible to restore peace. Therefore, countries will be very cautious when deciding whether to go to war. In addition, war also takes time to prepare.

But now it seems that Germany has premeditated this. Therefore, Germany was able to declare war on Bu Russia in such a short period of time. Moreover, Germany declared war at six o'clock in the morning, which obviously wanted to catch Bu Russia by surprise!

"Despicable Germans, I hope the troops on the front line can be prepared! Otherwise, our losses will be great." The Russian representative in Germany cursed angrily. Then immediately ordered the representative office to send a telegram to the country, informing that the civil war had begun.

The entire Burus representative office took action. They need to hurry up. After the war between the two countries, they obviously could no longer stay in Germany. Soon, they will have to withdraw to Bu Russia, or go to other neutral countries.

However, they didn't actually need to notify, and Bu Russia also knew that the war had begun. Just after Kaiser Qin Tian's speech ended, Ribbentrop, the German representative in Bu Russia, arrived at the Bu Russia Foreign Ministry and formally handed them Germany's declaration of war.

At that time, Molotov was not at work, so the duty officer of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs could only call to inform him of the news. Molotov got up immediately and rushed to the Kremlin to report the incident to Joseph.

Ribbentrop, then return to the representative office by car. Last night, the representative office burned important documents overnight and packed up their luggage. After Ribbentrop handed over the declaration of war, they would immediately withdraw from Burus.

"The war has already begun. This time, the Russians are absolutely irresistible. Our heroic army has already begun to attack!" Ribbentrop murmured.

After returning to China this time, Ribbentrop was valued by Qin Tian because of his diplomatic ability, and he will be appointed as the Deputy Foreign Minister to assist Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann in handling diplomatic affairs. Gustav Stresemann is no longer young, and when he leaves office, the new foreign minister will inevitably be Ribbentrop.

Ribbentrop firmly believed that the German Empire would definitely be able to win this war. The next time he sees these Russian leaders, it may be time for them to sign the humiliating armistice agreement.

Chapter 1100

The Kremlin, when Molotov arrived at Joseph's office, he found that Joseph had already gotten up. Beria, member of the NKVD, is already reporting the situation to Joseph.

"Comrade Molotov, please sit down!" Joseph couldn't see any joy or anger on his face.

"Comrade Joseph, the German representative in our country just submitted the declaration of war to our country!" Molotov said.

Joseph nodded: "Just now the Kaiser has delivered a radio speech and declared war on us!"

"Then do we need to declare war on them immediately?" Molotov asked.

"Of course, since the Germans have declared war, it means that the war has begun. Naturally, we don't need to wait any longer. In the name of the Bu-Russian government, officially declare war on Germany!" Joseph ordered.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph!" Molotov immediately got up and left.

"Let Voroshilov and Shaposhnikov see me right away!" Joseph ordered.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph. However, the Germans declared war on us at this point in time, and they must want to sneak attack us. The frontline troops must be alert." Beria said.

Joseph nodded: "In my name, send a telegram to the front line to keep all ministries on alert! If the Germans dare to invade us across the border, we must teach them a lesson!"

"Yes, Comrade Joseph." Beria replied.

Voroshilov and Shaposhnikov soon arrived at Joseph's office.

"Comrade Voroshilov, Comrade Shaposhnikov, you should know that the war has already begun?" Joseph asked.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph. We already know that the war has begun." Voroshilov replied.

"The troops on the front line, are you ready?" Joseph asked.

"Please rest assured, Comrade Joseph, our troops are ready. Once the Germans launch an attack, our troops will definitely be able to severely defeat the German conspiracy." Shaposhnikov said.

Joseph nodded, but he didn't believe in his heart that Bu Russia's army could withstand the German attack. Had the Germans been so easily defeated, they would not have become world powers.

"We need to speed up our mobilization. The German attack will definitely be very violent. Therefore, we need more troops." Joseph said solemnly. He knew that their only advantage might be their strength. If a large number of troops cannot be mobilized in the shortest time to resist the German attack, then the consequences will be disastrous.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph. However, we have a big gap in weapons and equipment." Voroshilov said.

"I will contact the Americans. Now, it's time for them to fulfill their promise!" Joseph said. He believes that the Americans will fully support Bu Russia. Because, if Bu Russia loses the war, it will be of no benefit to the Americans. At that time, the pressure of the Germans will be all on them.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph." Since the problem of weapons and equipment can be solved, there is no major problem. After all, Bu Russia has always had no shortage of soldiers. As long as they have enough weapons, they can easily arm tens of millions of troops, or even more. Of course, if the restrictions on conscription are relaxed, this number can be further increased.

At this moment, Joseph's secretary walked in with a panicked expression.

"Comrade Joseph, the front-line reports that our front-line airport has been attacked by the Germans. Our air force has suffered heavy losses!" the secretary said with a pale face.

"What?" Joseph's face suddenly became very ugly.

Voroshilov and Shaposhnikov were even paler. They just assured Joseph that their army was ready. As a result, it was attacked by the Germans.

"Immediately find out the relevant situation and resist the German attack!" Joseph said viciously.

"Yes, Comrade Joseph." Voroshilov and Shaposhnikov hurriedly fled Joseph's office.

Joseph shook his head involuntarily as he watched the backs of the two fleeing. He knew that the German onslaught had already begun. Whether Bu Russia can withstand the German attack will soon be revealed.

Across the Ocean, Washington, USA. It was 9 p.m. on September 16 when Kaiser Wilhelm III made his televised and radio speech. President Roosevelt was informed of this while he was still on official business.

A few minutes later, the top leaders of the United States gathered in President Roosevelt's office. A radio was used to play Qin Tian's speech, and there was an interpreter, who was translating word for word for them.

When the speech was over, President Roosevelt looked up at everyone.

"Gentlemen, as we expected, the Germans really couldn't bear it and took the lead. The Germans chose to start war on Bu Russia at this time. Presumably their army also launched an attack when the Kaiser was speaking. I don't know if Bu Russia can withstand the German attack this time." President Roosevelt was a little worried. They hope to use Bu Russia to consume Germany's strength. If Bu Russia is defeated soon, then this goal will not be achieved.

"Your Excellency, the army of Bu Russia is naturally difficult to resist the German attack. However, Bu Russia's advantage lies in its strategic depth and population. Even if they could not resist at the beginning of the war, as the war progressed, Germany The human front will get longer and longer. By that time, Bu Russia will gradually gain the upper hand." War Secretary Woodling said.

"The prerequisite is that Russia must be able to persist until then. We need to provide the Russians with a large amount of weapons and equipment, otherwise, their industry will not last long at all." Secretary of State Hull said.

"Yes, Your Excellency the Secretary of State is right. The war has broken out, and we have the same interests as Bu Russia. Although we have not been involved in the war yet, we can't just ignore everything. Otherwise, Bu Russia will be defeated soon. Once Bu Russia is defeated, the Germans will dominate Europe. They have no worries, and they can attack us at any time. At that time, it will be more difficult for us to defeat the Germans. The support we promised to the Russian government before will be delivered to them as soon as possible!" President Roosevelt said.

"Yes, Your Excellency the President." Woodling replied.

"In addition, from now on, our war preparations need to be further strengthened. Perhaps, it won't be long before we are on the field!" President Roosevelt reminded.
