

Jagged 669

Crown Prince Karl and other members of the Austro-Hungarian delegation watched as Vachter and Paul Boselli signed their names on the treaty with a smile on their faces.

What this means is very clear to everyone. The peace negotiations between the Germans and Italians have reached an agreement. After they signed the peace treaty, it meant that their peace negotiations were over.

The Austro-Hungarian Empire, which has been left aside, once again encountered the betrayal of the Germans.

Crown Prince Karl was very angry, and the Germans not only left them aside during peace talks with France. Now even when it comes to peace talks with Italy, they are once again left behind. This made Crown Prince Karl feel that it would be very, very difficult for him to realize his demands. The betrayal of their allies undoubtedly stabbed them hard in the back.

"Your Excellency Wachter! Why? Why did the German Empire once again abandon the covenant. The original covenant was clear that no country should make peace with the enemy alone. The last time you negotiated with France, the empire did not participate in the war. The war in France is an excuse. But this time? The empire sent hundreds of thousands of troops to fight the Italians!" Crown Prince Karl was furious.

"His Royal Highness, the Empire has long said that we cannot allow the negotiations between the Austro-Hungarian Empire and the Kingdom of Italy to continue indefinitely. We need to complete the peace negotiations as soon as possible so that we can concentrate on other matters. Therefore, when the conditions put forward by the Austro-Hungarian Empire are too harsh and the differences with the Kingdom of Italy are very big, the empire is not willing to waste time." Vachter said coldly. Facing Crown Prince Karl's accusations, he didn't care at all. Failure to abide by the treaty will of course have a very adverse impact on the reputation of the empire. However, as long as the empire obtains real benefits, naturally it doesn't need to care about other things.

"You..." Crown Prince Karl became even more angry. These Germans were too shameless. They didn't abide by the treaty themselves, but they still blamed the Austria-Hungary Empire. This is simply shameless!

"Your Excellency, what does your country do? Are you not afraid of destroying the friendship with the Austro-Hungarian Empire? We are allies in this war, but your country's approach does not regard us as allies at all!" Austria The Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Hungarian Empire, Baron Bercidold, also looked ugly. What the German Empire did was simply trampling on and damaging the interests of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

"Your Excellency, the German Empire and the Kingdom of Italy reached an agreement first, which will not affect the peace negotiations between the Austro-Hungarian Empire and the Kingdom of Italy. Therefore, the interests of the Austro-Hungarian Empire will not be damaged. The German Empire has always attached great importance to the Austro-Hungarian Empire. We also hope that the alliance between the two parties can last forever." Wahit looked sincere.

"Hmph!" Crown Prince Karl snorted coldly, and sneered at Wahit's statement. He is not a fool, how could he believe such deceitful nonsense of Wahit?

"Your Excellency, I want to protest to His Majesty the Emperor of your country, against your country's non-compliance with the covenant!" Crown Prince Karl said angrily.

"I'm sorry, Your Majesty has left Berlin and went to France to inspect the front line." Wahit didn't even blink his eyes, and directly blocked Crown Prince Karl's words.

"You..." Crown Prince Karl felt that he was about to explode with anger. He never thought that these Germans would be so shameless. However, they have no other way to do it. You can't just tear yourself apart from the Germans and start a war with them.

Seeing that the Germans were resolute and seemed to be reticent, although Crown Prince Karl and others were angry, they knew that there was no way to trouble the Germans. Therefore, they could only target the Italians. After all, if they want to get benefits, they can only find a way from the Italians.

"Well, if this is the case, then let's continue the negotiation! Your Excellency Boselli, have you considered the conditions of the Austria-Hungary Empire? If you do not agree to the conditions of the Austria-Hungary Empire, then be prepared to accept the conditions of the Austria-Hungary Empire." Prepare for the wrath of the Hungarian Empire!" Crown Prince Karl stared at Paul Boselli angrily, and it was good to tear him to pieces.

"I'm sorry, Your Royal Highness. Our country still believes that the conditions proposed by the Austro-Hungarian Empire are too harsh. If the Austro-Hungarian Empire does not change the conditions, then we cannot agree!" Paul Boselli said.

After signing a peace treaty with Germany and having the support of the Germans, Paul Boselli is no longer afraid of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Although Crown Prince Karl looked like he was going to eat people, he still didn't scare him.

"Aren't you afraid of war? Your Excellency Boselli, you have to think about it. Once our army launches an attack, the consequences will be very serious." Baron Berchdold reminded.

"Your Excellency, if the Kingdom of Italy agrees to your conditions, then we will be no different from subjugation. Therefore, we would rather fight to the end." Paul Boselli was very tough.

Facing Paul Boselli's resolute attitude, Crown Prince Karl and Baron Berchdold looked very ugly. They are very clear that they keep saying that they will send troops to attack the Kingdom of Italy and destroy them, but they just want to scare the Kingdom of Italy. If you really want to do this, it will be very difficult. The combat effectiveness of the Austro-Hungarian army was not strong. If the Italians were desperate, they might not be able to win. If it fails, then there will be a big problem. Not only will the Austro-Hungarian Empire not get any benefits, but it will become a joke all over the world. Therefore, without complete assurance, they will never go to war against the Kingdom of Italy.

Originally, the Austro-Hungarian Empire wanted to call the German Empire to attack the Kingdom of Italy together. With the strength of the German army, defeating the Kingdom of Italy would be a sure thing. But who knows, the German Empire has betrayed them and has reached an agreement with the Kingdom of Italy in private? This also made all their plans come to nothing.

Crown Prince Karl looked at Vacht angrily. He knew that the Germans were behind all this. Otherwise, the Italians would never have the courage to reject the request of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.