"Everyone, I plan to split Britain into several independent countries after we defeat the British. In this way, it will be easier for us to control Britain and eliminate the influence on Britain." Qin Tian said, looking at the important ministers of the empire.

Although, the battle against Britain has not yet officially started. But everything is ready, the arrow is on the string, and it has to be launched. It is also convenient to deal with Britain as soon as possible after the war is over.

"Your Majesty, I completely agree. There are tens of millions of people in the UK. If the imperial army lands on the British Isles, it will definitely cause great losses to the UK. There will definitely be a lot of people who died in the war. This will further deepen our conflict with the British. Even if we formulate various demands to weaken Britain, a Britain that hates the empire will always pose a great threat to us. If Britain is divided, overall our threat will be much smaller. This is a very good way, after we defeat the British, we must do this!" Prime Minister Billow was the first to support.

In terms of the next war and dealing with Britain, Germany must take eliminating the British threat to the empire as the first element. Splitting the UK is undoubtedly a good way to achieve this goal.

"Your Majesty, the Irish look forward to independence, and we have always supported them. After we defeat the British, it should be no problem to support the independence of the Irish. The Scots and the British also have constant conflicts." If we provoke them appropriately, it shouldn't be a big problem to let them become independent. But the Welsh and the English, they have already been closely linked. If you want them to surrender, it will be very difficult.!" said Foreign Secretary Wahit.

Qin Tian nodded: "The total population of the UK is more than 45 million, but after deducting Ireland's 4 million and Scotland's 4 million, there are only 35 million people in England and Wales. Although, this is still a populous country. But with Ireland and Scotland in check, they will not pose much threat to us."

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Wahit replied.

"Your Majesty, the heads of the Irish Sinn Féin Party and the Brothers of the Irish Republican Party are both in Berlin. They hope to have a meeting with His Majesty." Wacht said.

"Let's arrange it. I have an hour to meet with them in the afternoon. In addition, for Scotland, try to choose people who are pro-imperial. For Wales, try to provoke them. If the Welsh can also be independent, England will be further weakened." Qin Tian said.

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Everyone replied.

That afternoon, Emperor Qin Tian received Griffith, the founder of Sinn Féin, and Patrick Pierce, the leader of the Irish Republican Fraternal Party, in the reception room of the imperial palace.

Among the many Irish forces resisting the British government, the Irish Sinn Féin and the Irish Republican Brothers are the two largest. Of course, they are also a thorn in the side of the British. In the previous suppressions by the British, many people from both parties died at the hands of the British. This also makes them full of hatred for the British government.

Although, the British Isles are the mainland of the British Empire. As the subjects of the world's most powerful country, the British undoubtedly enjoy many privileges. But sadly, none of this has anything to do with the Irish. They have to guard the exploitation and oppression of the British government all the time. The vast majority of Irish people live very hard. This also makes them look forward to overthrowing the rule of the British government all the time.

Now, the Germans are about to launch an attack on the British mainland. And there is a great possibility of defeating Britain, which makes the Irish cheer. The leaders of Sinn Féin and Brothers of the Irish Republican Party eagerly went to Berlin, hoping to gain further support from Germany. In this way, after the overthrow of British rule and Ireland's independence, more benefits can be obtained.

Griffith, the head of Sinn Féin in Ireland, wears glasses and is personable, as if he is a scholar. Before founding Sinn Féin, he was editor-in-chief of the United Irishman.

And Patrick? Pierce is a burly person, as if he was an athlete.

They all acted tremblingly in front of Qin Tian. After all, in front of them is the emperor of the most powerful country in the world.

"Hello, Your Majesty, thank you very much for your support to us all the time!" Griffith said first.

"Yes, Your Majesty. Without your support, we might have been suppressed by the British long ago." Patrick Pierce also said hastily.

Qin Tian nodded: "The Irish are a great nation, but the strength of the British has caused you to be suppressed by them all these years. The German Empire is a big country, and we are obliged to support you!"

"Yes, Your Majesty. The British have been oppressing us for hundreds of years. We have been killed by them a lot. Now that we have the support of the German Empire, we finally don't have to be afraid of them!" Griffith said.

"This time, the German Empire will definitely defeat the British. And Ireland will also gain independence. This is my promise to you!" Qin Tian said.

Griffith and Patrick Pierston were all beaming. After getting Qin Tian's guarantee, it can be said that Ireland's independence is already a certainty.

"However, you should also know that there is no free lunch in this world. Therefore, you must also do your duty." Qin Tian knew.

"Your Majesty, do you know what we need to do?" Patrick Pierce asked.

"First, when we attack the mainland, you must launch an uprising in Ireland to hold back part of the British forces. We will provide you with weapons, equipment and other support. Second, after Ireland gains independence, you must Sign an alliance treaty with the German Empire and become an ally of Germany. In terms of diplomacy and military, you must be consistent with the German Empire. Of course, the German Empire will also guarantee your safety!" Qin Tian continued.

Griffith and Patrick Pierce looked unnatural.

Qin Tian didn't urge them either, he knew that the two of them would definitely make the right choice.

Griffith and Patrick Pierce hesitated for a while, then finally nodded and accepted Qin Tian's conditions.
