On November 18, 1915, Emperor Qin Tian went to Wilhelmshaven in person to welcome Marshal von Falkenhain and a group of generals who had returned from the British battlefield, as well as the first batch of troops withdrawn from the British.

This is undoubtedly a very high honor for the generals and soldiers of the Imperial Army. One must know that Qin Tian played a huge role in the German Empire's victory in this war. In the entire German Empire, he has been faintly deified.

This made Qin Tian both happy and worried. The happy thing was that this would further consolidate his power, and even make it bigger. In the end, let the personal will become the will of the whole country, and become a supreme, dictator with one word and one word. But the good thing is that such people often don't end well. Isn't Comrade Führer an excellent example? Therefore, Qin Tian has been trying to find a way to avoid this, to avoid causing huge losses to the country due to his own mistakes. Fortunately, from the looks of it now, he is still relatively sober, and there will be no problems in that area. However, even he himself is not sure whether he will become old and foolish as he grows older.

Of course, for Qin Tian, that is undoubtedly a very distant thing. Now he is only 27 years old, but he is already the emperor of the most powerful empire in the world, and he can be called the most powerful person in the world.

At 9 o'clock in the morning, the transport ship that Marshal von Falkenhain and others were on docked. Marshal von Falkenhain took the lead and walked down the gangway. Following him were General Crook, General Howson and Lieutenant General Ludendorff and others.

"Thank you, my marshal! And my generals! I am very happy to have you commanders! You have made great contributions to the revival and strength of the German Empire!" Qin Tian said. He never hesitated to praise his loyal generals and marshals. Of course, these generals and marshals are also worthy of him. Although Qin Tian is a traverser, he is not an all-rounder after all. For example, in terms of fighting wars, these professionals have to be responsible. Otherwise, it would not be so easy for Germany to win the war.

"Your Majesty, it is our honor to contribute to the rise of the empire. The soldiers of the empire will always be loyal to your majesty and to the German Empire!" Marshal von Falkenhain said.

The other generals also expressed their opinions one after another. Everyone's face is full of smiles. This time they returned home triumphantly, and they were very satisfied. Because they believe that what awaits them next will be flowers and applause, as well as glory and promotion. Many legion commanders with the rank of admiral were finally able to get promoted as they wished this time and become marshals. For many people, this is already the culmination of their lives.

Qin Tian didn't spend much time talking with these generals, because the soldiers had already started to disembark. Compared to these generals, although those soldiers seem small. However, they are the cornerstone of the German Empire and an important guarantee for the German Empire to dominate the world. Without the dedication of these soldiers, without their bloodshed and sacrifice, it would be almost impossible for the German Empire to win this war. Qin Tian is also very fortunate to have these brave and skilled soldiers.

"Soldiers, thank you for everything you have done for the empire, thank you!" Qin Tian said to the soldiers.

He shook hands with soldiers whenever he could, expressing his gratitude. After all, these soldiers are fighting with their lives on the battlefield! If you are not careful, you will lose your life.

"Your Majesty... this is what I should do!" A soldier said excitedly.

He probably never thought that His Majesty the Emperor would be so approachable!

"Well done, you are the best soldiers in the empire, I am proud of you!" Qin Tian patted the soldier on the shoulder.

Although there are only a very small number of people who can shake hands with Qin Tian and talk to him. However, these lucky ones have become the envy of others. At the same time, this also made Qin Tian's influence in the army climb to a peak again. The soldiers of the empire completely treated Qin Tian as a god. In this case, in the German Empire, no one can oppose him. Any opponents will be torn to pieces by these soldiers. After all, no matter which country you are in, whoever holds the gun is the one who really holds the power.

What greeted the soldiers returning in triumph were applause, flowers, and passionate kisses from the girls. This makes these soldiers who are fighting desperately on the front line very happy. Although the battle was hard and dangerous, it was totally worth it now.

After the welcome ceremony, Qin Tian and the military and political ministers of the empire returned to Berlin. On the special train, Qin Tian couldn't help but fell into deep thought.

It has been more than ten years since he was reborn into this world. At this moment, he felt that his efforts were not in vain. Although, his rebirth status is honorable, when he is familiar with the history of another time and space, he has always been worried, for fear that Germany will lose in the war. In that case, even if he is a prince, he will have no effect.

In order to survive and live better, Qin Tian desperately wanted to strengthen Germany's military strength so that Germany could win the war.

Fortunately, his efforts finally paid off. In one war after another, Germany defeated powerful enemies one after another, and finally won the victory of the World War.

Qin Tian, he has finally rewritten history. The glorious British Empire has been trampled underfoot. The German Empire, which was supposed to be facing difficulties or even destruction step by step because of losing the war, ushered in glory. The current German Empire has replaced the British Empire as the new world hegemon.

Moreover, the German Empire is still a more powerful overlord than the British Empire. Because the German Empire has the world's largest army, the world's largest navy, and the world's largest air force. In terms of industry, Germany, which has swallowed half of Europe, once the integration is completed, it is not a problem to surpass the United States. Coupled with its huge overseas colonies, Germany's comprehensive strength will be well-deserved to become the world's number one. It will be very difficult for other countries to surpass Germany.

Of course, to further consolidate the hegemony of the German Empire, Germany will not be able to relax in the future. Whether it's Russia in the east, the United States on the other side of the ocean, Britain that wants revenge, or the island countries in the far east, they are all enemies that the German Empire needs to defeat further!
