

Jagged 837

"His Royal Highness, Germany is the most powerful country in the world. Their navy, even the Royal Navy of the British Empire, has been defeated by them. Therefore, there is a huge gap between us and them, which is inevitable! The Imperial Navy has begun to rise Go straight to catch up, even if you can't surpass the German navy, you can still shorten the gap with them!" After seeing the expression on Crown Prince Hirohito's face, Kato Takaaki knew what he was thinking, and quickly comforted him.

Hirohito nodded: "The Germans are indeed very strong. However, their enemy is more than the empire. The Americans, the British plus us. After the German navy is dispersed, there is nothing to worry about!"

"What Your Highness said is very true!" Kato Takaaki saw that Crown Prince Hirohito was not frightened, and nodded in satisfaction. You know, these people also regard Hirohito as the hope of the future of the island country!

The battleship "Fuso" entered Wilhelmshaven under the guidance of the guiding ship.

Hirohito and Kato Takaaki walked down the gangway and came to the pier. However, to their embarrassment, the German side only sent a small official from the Foreign Ministry to meet them. This immediately made Hirohito almost explode with anger.

Hirohito is young, and he is already at the age of being competitive. He thinks that he is the crown prince of an island country with a distinguished status, and he has come all the way to participate in the German military parade, which is already giving Germany a great deal of face. Due to emotion and reason, Germany should also welcome him grandly! However, only a small person was sent to receive him. This clearly did not take him seriously, and did not take the island country seriously!

Kato Takaaki's face is also very ugly, thinking that Germany is clearly slapping them in the face. Of course, the island nation lost to Germany in the previous war. However, they were not completely defeated. It's just because the coastal cities were destroyed and they didn't want to fight any more, so they chose to compromise. The current island country is still one of the most powerful countries today. The behavior of the Germans is simply humiliating them!

"Your Highness, be patient! This is Germany." Kato Takaaki said.

Hirohito nodded helplessly, he knew that the strength of Germany cannot be controlled by his temper.

The people of the island delegation were sent to the train. Although there will be a ship review in Wilhelmshaven, first there will be a military review in Berlin, and then there will be a ship review. Therefore, delegations from various countries will go to Berlin first, and then to Wilhelmshaven.

After getting on the train, Hirohito vented his dissatisfaction.

"Damn it, I'm the prince of the empire, the Germans should send an equivalent person to meet me!" Hirohito was furious.

"Your Highness, the Crown Prince of Germany is only 4 years old!" Kato Takaaki said.

"What about the Kaiser's brothers? There will always be, right? However, they still haven't sent anyone. This is clearly a humiliation to the empire!" Hirohito was very angry. Germany's contempt for the island country made him completely unacceptable.

"Your Highness, the Germans are indeed very unreasonable. However, for the benefit of the empire, we should not fall out with the Germans!" Kato Takaaki reminded. The island nation is now in a period of full recovery. If Germany is provoked again, the consequences will be unimaginable.

Hirohito nodded. Although he was young, he understood what Kato Takaaki meant. That is, let's write down these things for the time being. After the strength of the island country is restored, there will be opportunities to find trouble with the Germans.

After the train arrived in Berlin, the German Foreign Ministry still only sent ordinary officials to receive it. This made both Crown Prince Hirohito and Kato Takaaki very dissatisfied. However, they did not express much.

However, when arranging accommodation, the original island delegation should go to the hotel arranged by the German Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, Crown Prince Hirohito proposed to live in the Japanese embassy in Germany.

Obviously, Hirohito's child had a heart attack. Kato Takaaki tried to persuade him, but Crown Prince Hirohito was very stubborn. No way, Kato Takaaki had to communicate with German diplomats. In the end, the German Ministry of Foreign Affairs agreed to allow the delegation of the island country to stay in the embassy of the island country.

German Foreign Minister Vachter specifically reported this matter to Emperor Qin Tian of the Empire.

"Hmph! That brat seems to have some personality! But who does he think he is? How dare he be so presumptuous in the empire?" Qin Tian said coldly.

Of course, Yuren is still a teenager, it would be too much for a man as big as Qin Tian to get entangled with him. However, Qin Tian never had a good impression of the islanders. Especially Hirohito, who could be described as a heinous crime in another time and space. If it weren't for the help of the Americans, he would have been court-martialed long ago. In this time and space, Qin Tian certainly wouldn't let him be so arrogant again.

"Your Majesty, shall we teach those islanders a lesson?" Wasit asked.

Wacht knew that Qin Tian didn't have a good impression of the island country, so the Ministry of Foreign Affairs despised the island country delegation, and he did that on purpose. Originally, he thought that the islanders would choose to settle down. But I didn't expect that they would dare to fight back. You know, in the eyes of Wahit, the island country is nothing more than a defeated country. If it weren't for being too far away from Germany, Germany would have sent troops to destroy them long ago.

"Postpone my meeting with the island delegation until the end!" Qin Tian said.

According to the plan, Qin Tian will receive delegations from other countries. As for the order of reception, they are often arranged according to national strength and relationship with Germany. The current island country is still one of the most powerful countries in the world. According to the order, it should be at the front. However, with Qin Tian's words, the island country was directly ranked last.

Hirohito and Kato Takaaki have been staying at the embassy, waiting for Qin Tian's summoning. But they waited and waited, but they were not summoned for a long time. Even those other effects were summoned, but they still disappeared, which immediately made Hirohito and Kato Takaaki a little restless.

If Qin Tian refuses to summon the island country delegation before this military parade, then there will be a big problem. This is undoubtedly tantamount to announcing to the whole world that Qin Tian hates the island country very much. In this case, many countries will surely take this opportunity to add insult to injury. At that time, the situation of the island country will be very miserable.

As a last resort, Kato Takaaki had no choice but to go to the German Foreign Office, requesting an audience with Kaiser Qin Tian. But the reply I got was still waiting for the notification. This made everyone in the island delegation feel even more uncertain. Hirohito was under tremendous pressure because of this.