"His Royal Highness, Your Excellency, I have already inquired. The Germans ranked us last!" the island country's ambassador to Germany Yasuya Uchida reported. As the Japanese ambassador to Germany, he also has his own way of inquiry.

"Baga! The Germans are bullying too much!" Crown Prince Hirohito was furious.

Kato Takaaki's face was also livid. The German side actually ranked the island country last in the audience. This is clearly looking down on the island country, and it is a complete insult to them!

"Your Excellency, if we leave Germany now and return to the Empire, what will happen?" Hirohito asked in an atmosphere.

Kato Takaaki's heart tightened suddenly, he knew that Hirohito was a person who had never been angry. However, although doing so can give a sigh of relief, it will not be of any benefit to the island country! This is clearly an embarrassment for Germany, and if it fails, the peace that the two countries have finally achieved will be ruined again, or even go to war directly.

"Your Highness, absolutely not! If we do that, it will give the Germans an excuse to march on us again. Now, the Germans have defeated the British. They have enough troops to use force against the empire. Once the war begins Otherwise, it will be difficult for the empire to defeat them! For the sake of the overall situation, we must be patient!" Kato Takaaki persuaded earnestly.

"Damn the Germans, they are so unreasonable!" Hirohito trembled angrily. Of course he knew what a mess it would be if he left at this time. However, he was very unwilling.

"Your Highness, it is not too late for a gentleman to take revenge for ten years. Now, the Germans are relying on their strength to humiliate the Empire at will. When the Empire defeats them one day, then we can repay the humiliation we have suffered a thousand times I'm back. I believe that we will be there soon, and we can wait until that day." Kato Gao was obviously very confident.

Crown Prince Hirohito nodded: "Your Excellency, I understand, I understand what to do!"

The so-called weak country has no diplomacy, even an island country can be considered a strong country. However, they were too weak against Germany. Therefore, Germany can still bully them. And all of this, Crown Prince Hirohito could only endure, comforting himself to seek revenge from Germany in the future. Other than that, there is no other way.

Crown Prince Hirohito and Kato Takaaki did not receive the Kaiser's summons until the afternoon of December 17.

The two entered the palace under the leadership of German diplomatic officials.

"These are the imperial palaces of the Germans. They don't look very good. They can't compare with the imperial palaces of the empire!" Crown Prince Hirohito was very disdainful. In his opinion, apart from a few decent palaces, the German imperial palaces are not very good at all. As the palace of the most powerful country in the world, it seems too shabby.

However, Crown Prince Hirohito didn't say anything. Although he was young, he was still able to distinguish the importance.

"Respected His Majesty the Emperor, on behalf of His Majesty the Emperor of our country, I would like to extend my most respectful greetings to His Majesty the Emperor!" Kato Takashi was very respectful.

"Your Excellency, Minister of Foreign Affairs, convey my greetings to His Majesty the Emperor of the Island Country!" Qin Tian said.

Afterwards, the two sides said some meaningless scene words according to the usual practice. Although Qin Tian hated the islanders very much, it was not easy to show it at this time. In that case, it would appear too impolite. In any case, he is the emperor of the German Empire, the emperor of the most powerful empire in the world, so he still needs to have some face.

"Your Majesty, the German Empire is the most powerful country in the world. I think the German Empire should set an example for the whole world." Hirohito said.

"Oh? Your Highness, what do you think the German Empire should set an example?" Qin Tian asked with a teasing smile. He could see that Hirohito was trying his best to show that he was an adult. However, his behavior undoubtedly appeared too naive.

"Your Majesty, at least the German Army cannot massacre civilians! In the island country, the German fleet bombarded the coastal cities of the island country, causing hundreds of thousands of casualties of innocent civilians. Such behavior is really hard to call the demeanor that a big country should have!" Yuren said.

Qin Tian's complexion turned ugly: "His Royal Highness, are you accusing me, the German Empire?"

"Don't dare, I'm just discussing the facts." Hirohito said.

Kato Takaaki did not expect Hirohito to be persistent on this issue, so he quickly winked at Hirohito. However, Hirohito didn't seem to see it at all. Although, every senior official of the island country gritted his teeth for the Germans' frenzied bombardment of the coastal cities of the island country. But for the sake of the overall situation, they had to selectively forget about it.

"As for the war between the empire and the island country, I don't want to comment anymore. The reason why the empire declared war on the island country is entirely because you are to blame! I think our peace treaty has written very clearly that the responsibility for the war lies with the island country, It's not you! All of this was caused by your greed. If it wasn't for your own reasons, this war would never have broken out!" Qin Tian said.

"The island country did not attack Germany. We attacked the British colony. All of this has nothing to do with Germany. Can Germany bully other countries at will by relying on its strength?" Hirohito asked angrily.

Qin Tian got a little impatient when asked by Yu Ren, "What? Is the island country trying to tear up the peace treaty? If that's the case, then I can fulfill your wish!"

Yuren was speechless immediately, he absolutely did not dare to answer Qin Tian's words. Because he knew that if he dared to give an affirmative answer, he would undoubtedly be seeking his own death.

That would give Germany an excuse to tear up the armistice treaty and resume war on the island nation. The current island country does not have the strength to confront Germany.

Thinking of this, Hirohito felt very aggrieved. In his view, this is clearly the use of powerful force by Germany to force them. However, they have to bear the burden of humiliation due to their weak national strength.

"Your Majesty, please calm down, His Royal Highness didn't mean that!" Kato Takaaki said hastily. He didn't dare to let Crown Prince Yuren continue to talk nonsense, otherwise, the island country and Germany might really meet each other.

"Hmph! You are also the prince of the island country. Although you are young, I hope you will use your brain when you speak. Otherwise, this will bring disaster to your country!" Qin Tian said contemptuously.

Hirohito clenched his hands into fists, his nails dug deep into the flesh, even blood came out.
