

A Staircase

Ash kept hugging me trying to dodge that question. "ashtray" i said seriously. "where do those stairs go to?"

"um. im not sure Fez don't want me going up there" ash said moving.

"why not? you've been here long enough too see"

"babe can we just take a nap" Ash said groaning putting his hands on his face.

i cuddle up with ash still looking at the stairs.

"you still looking at those stairs?" ash said rubbing my head.

"mhm" i said looking up at him.

"can you just let it be for right now, i wanna be with you" he pulled me up right by his face. We looked into each others eyes for awhile till we fall asleep.

"Fez" Faye said loudly

"what do you want" fez said hitting his head because of his massive headache.

"my head hurts" Faye said falling on the floor.

"go get sum medicine i don't know"

"where's the weed at"

"ion think that's medicine" Fez said taking his fist o his head.

Faye walked into the bedroom waking me up.

"hey y/n do you have any. wow" Faye paused

"what Faye?"

"where does that staircase lead too?" Faye said not taking her eyes o of it.

"i don't know" i paused sharply having the best idea.

"wanna go up?"

"um duh!" Faye said pulling me out of bed.

there was a door on top of the stairs so Faye opened it.

"it leads to literally nothing" i said looking around the rooms.

Everything was white in the floors, walls and the ceiling.

Once me and Faye walked in the door shut behind us. Faye screamed, Faye tried to open the door but it wouldn't open.

"damn it!" i yelled

"what am i gonna do without my weed" Faye cried

"you think about weed when we're stuck in a room!?" i yelled

"well what are you thinking about."

"ash.." i mumbled.

"sorry didn't hear you" she cu ed her hand over her ear.

"i said ash! ash is gonna get so pissed at me because i didn't listen to him he told me not to worry about it and i did the opposite" i cried talking 100 mph.

"y/n..." Faye wrapped her arms around me.

Faye can be weird as hell but she was probably one of my best friends i could ever have.

"wait do you have your phone on you?" i perked up.

"no do you?" she backed up with her arms on each side of my arms.

"god damn it!" i yelled again.

"what's that?" Faye said backing up.

i looked behind me and there was two doors that had labels in on it.

"life" the one said while the other said "death"
