

Moral Of The Story

There was two cars Fez and Faye went in one, Ash and I went in the other. "so" ash closed the car door, i started the car and i looked at him.

"you love me?" he asked. "well yea" i said smiling at him. "why though" he looked away.

"ash is that even a question?"

"i just wanna know why"

"ash, you bring me so much comfort you make me the happiest person alive. i hate being without you. i've been with you so much your family now" i grabbed his hand, he's cheeks got a little red.

"y/n?"

"yea?"

Ash went in to kiss me and pulled away right away. "sorry, we can leave now"

i smiled and pulled out of the apartment.

"so where are we going first?"

"rues."

"oh bet. wait isn't Gia her sister?"

i sighed "yup"

"well um i shouldn't go in"

"ash don't worry about it"

i knocked on rues door and her mom answered.

"y/n, sweetie!" she hugged me "hi!"

"hey" i stood there.

"who's this?" she questioned looking at ash.

"oh um, I'm her boyfriend" he said manly.

she smiled and looked back at me, "so what's up?"

"i need to talk to rue it's code red" i laughed nervously

"oh! come in!"

Ash and I walked into rues room and she threw her vape across the room.

"oh shit you guys scared me" she said standing up to pick up her vape.

"rue we got some questions" i sat on her bed

"where's fez?" she closed the door.

"just us" i replied. she looked at us weirdly.

"what where you doing yesterday?"

"y/n i was with you?"

"yea what we're we doing"

"well we went to fez's bought some shit and then we went school shopping went out to eat and went home"

"when does the first day of school start?"

"y/n you know this"

"just tell me rue"

"tomorrow"

"you fucking around?" i put my pencil down.

"nope i'm being dead serious"

"oh well, thanks rue" i said getting up.

"that was it?" rue backed away from the door.

"yup thanks"

Once me and ash got in the car i turned and looked at him. "if i mess with tomorrow will it screw up the future?"

"i don't know. i just wouldn't mess around too much"

A er awhile i dropped ash home and went back to my house.

"where the hell where you" my mom said when i walked in.

"getting ready for school" i said walking up to my room.

"good girl" she yelled up at me.

Something was beeping, it was getting louder and louder, "ugh stop this ringing" I said putting my pillow on top of my head to cancel the noise.

Only to remember today was your first day back to school. "this is the worst day of my life" punching the alarm clock to make it shut up, I got up and tripped on a pile of clothes i forgot to wash this weekend.

" Y/N ARE YOU UP" my mom yelled a couple times, i didn't have any energy to respond.

I looked in the mirror realizing this already happened to me so i turned my head know my mother was gonna be in the doorway.

"your wearing that?"

"mom"

"y/n"

"i'm trynna change."

once my mom le i didn't change at all because i remember exactly what i wore. i grabbed my keys knowing rue would want to skip school right when i hopped in the car I was in the white room again with Faye.

"y/n!" she hugged me

"try opening the door" i pointed.

Faye opened the door. we saw the steps so we shut the door and went down.

Ash wasn't in the bedroom so we walked out and there where papers everywhere Fez and Ash were pasted out on the floor with cups i mean cups of empty co ee by them.

i looked at Faye and ran to Ash

"Ash" i poked him

"y/n! where the fuck were you?"

"don't get mad but me and Faye when up the stairs"

"yea i figured" he rolled his eyes and hugged me.

"are you mad?" he shushed me and hugged me.

We decided to start living in that house with Fez and Faye, we built on to the house and Fez always wanted an animal farm so we added that. Ash and I had our wedding with family and friends from home.

Fez started to date Lexi. Faye is just living her best life.

A/N👉

This is the end💕 but i'm thinking about making a Fez book. I've had so much fun with reading your comments reading your guys reactions and more! even know this book wasn't too romantic i put action into bc i got requested that.

Like i said i'm thinking about doing a fez book, let me know on your thoughts!
