

Chapter 111 A Flash of Hesitation

Just as Galilea retracted her gaze, she heard someone call out to her. *You can rest for two more days." This was the first time He Xiao was concerned about her. Galilea's neck was still covered with gauze. She turned around and chuckled. "It's alright."

Yes, it doesn't matter.

She was still alive, and she had personally experienced how despicable and shameless these people were, so she couldn't hide.

Since Micah loved Dayana so much, then let them have a good feel of each other's love.

He Xiao looked at Galilea's eyes and frowned.

That kind of desolate and empty eyes, if there was anything inside, it would be the hatred toward everything!

But in the blink of an eye, it was completely restored. He Xiao almost suspected that she had seen things. Galilea smiled at her, "The things have been sent over, and the jewelry has been checked. Do you want to see it yourself?" Today's jewelry was one of MON's limited editions. The King's Heart necklace was very expensive, and it was the only one in the world. "Well, I'll go and take a look." Galilea watched her walk towards the lounge behind. The King's Heart was in the safe that had just been moved in, and the smile on her lips became even wider. The filming officially began fifteen minutes later. During this period of time, only the female models would enter the lounge at the back. And today, the main model Qin Yao had not arrived yet. Currently, only Dayana had come. After Director Forrest had a private chat with Dayana for a while, he returned with a face full of smiles. After that, Qin Yao came. She had already changed her clothes in the van. She slowly walked down, her face fair and beautiful.

Director Forrest leaned against the chair and said, "Take out the necklace and start." A staff member immediately went over. However, they soon came back with anxious expressions. "Director Forrest, the necklace is lost." "Lost? How is this possible?" Director Forrest's eyes almost fell out of their sockets. The necklace that was worth nearly a hundred million was lost? "Hurry up and find it! Everyone, go and find it immediately!" The bodyguards who had been waiting outside the resting room all this time also said, "Other than Dayana, no one else has entered. Now, the necklace is gone." They were all MON's bodyguards, so their words were very credible. Yun Xi received the news and rushed over. He Xiao and Galilea were both beside him. "What's going on?" Yun Xi looked at He Xiao. "I'm sorry, Teacher Yun Xi." He Xiao nodded.

She had indeed seen it, and she had seen it with her own eyes! She couldn't tell where the problem was, but she vaguely remembered the look in Galilea's eyes at that time. He Xiao looked over, and Galilea was still as cold as usual. Feeling her searching gaze, Galilea turned her head, and her smile deepened. Yun Xi also noticed the eye contact between the two of them and immediately scolded, "Galilea, have you checked it?" Galilea looked up at him. The tail was finally revealed?

Chapter 111 A Flash of Hestation If he couldrit find the necklace, he would start looking for people to blame?

li was a pity

Her plan was flawless "I went to confirm it before He Xiao, Galilea confessed.

Yun Xi frowned even more. Was it not what he had guessed? Yes, with so many people watching, even if Galilea wanted to frame Dayana, she would not use such a stupid method. "The surveillance camera must have caught it," Galilea blinked. Yun Xi no longer doubted her and immediately said, "Check." Everyone looked at the surveillance video together. Galilea went in. There was no problem. He Xiao went in, and there was no problem

Only Dayana went in and out of the lounge in the end. Moreover, when she came out, she was holding something in her hand

Dozens of eyes caught up with Dayana.

She panicked "No, it wasn't me! I didn't do anything." She swallowed a mouthful of water and tugged at Elisa beside her. "Help me explain." "Dayana, if you took it..." Elisa hurriedly shook her head. "Shut up, I didn't!" However, under the gazes of so many people, she was anxious. Her heart was thumping and trembling nervously, "I, I did take it out and put it on, but I have already put it back!" Galilea lowered her eyes, and no one noticed her.

She knew Dayana too well. She was greedy and ignorant. The value of the King's Heart was something she accidentally talked to the staff about. At that distance, Dayana, who was putting on makeup, could definitely hear it. And what Galilea was waiting for was an opportunity. When Dayana said this, everyone stared at her. "You must have lost it, or you didn't dare to say that you broke it?" "Take it out now. Let's see how to deal with it! Miss Quincy, you should know that the necklace is expensive. Even if you really broke it, we will try our best to repair it. Don't make things worse now." "I really didn't take it. I put it back." Dayana shook her head. The more she said, the less confident she was. In the crowd, she felt someone staring at her. When she looked up, she met Galilea's cold eyes.

At that moment, Dayana widened her beautiful eyes.

"It was her. She must have framed me." She pointed at Galilea.

"The last person to enter the lounge was you." Galilea raised her eyebrows. These words were simple and clear. Therefore, no matter how much Dayana argued, there was no result. Director Forrest could no longer protect her. "Dayana, don't delay our work progress."

"Elisa, what should we do?" Dayana was so anxious that she was crying. She was really scared. "If we can't find it, we can only call the police" someone else said. "No! You can't call the police. If my dad finds out, I will be finished. Help me call Micah and ask him to save me." Dayana said, gritting her teeth. Save?

The smile on Galilea's lips grew wider. What a good show!

Chapter 111 A Flash of Hesitation "Alright, let's split up and search. In an hour, if we still can't find it, call the police directly." Yun Xi said.

If it was stolen by an internal stall, this decision was to give the thief time to put the necklace back in order to not blow up the matter.

As his voice fell, he glanced at Galilea. However, Galilea looked calm, as if this matter had nothing to do with her. Ten minutes later, Micah's car stopped at the entrance of the shooting shed. He stepped in, his entire body cold. "Micah, quickly come and help me. I didn't take that stupid necklace. I just tried to wear it. I really didn't steal it." She was already Micah's woman now, how could she covet such a necklace! But her words were without proof. The necklace indeed disappeared after she touched it. No matter how Dayana thought about it, she felt that this matter must have something to do with Galilea. "Micah, can you let them search Galilea's body? She must have taken it and deliberately slandered me. As long as they find it, I will be proved innocent." "Come out with me." Micah held her hand.

He pulled Dayana, but his deep and cold eyes looked in another direction, vaguely hesitating.

Chapter 112 Was It Fun?

Soon Kelth care in from outside After communicating with several people in charge, everyone was taken to a certain room alone

*Search?

"Is everyone searched, or only me? Galilea raised her eyebrows.

"Please cooperate. This is Mr Lorenzo's order." At that moment, Galilea experienced the strength of capital Even though the Lorenzo group and MON did not have direct business dealings, he could still influence these people with a single sentence. "Wait, I can do a body search. I can cooperate, but I want to meet Micah alone." Galilea said *This..." "Let's go and ask. If we can get her to tell the truth directly, we can also go home early."

Then, they went out to ask. The door opened again, and Micah's tall figure appeared in front of Galilea.

"Where is the heart of an Emperor? Take it out as soon as possible. Don't waste everyone's time," he said coldly. "I don't know," Galilea said with a smile. "Are you kidding me?" Micah asked. "I only said that I wanted to see you, but I didn't say what I wanted to do." Galilea shook her head innocently.

"Galilea!"

"There is a limit to my patience," the man growled.

"I know," Galilea replied. She knew everything from the day he destroyed the Frankie family. So, she wanted to see for herself how patient this man was with Dayana. "Elisa, did you call the company? You have to tell them that I was framed by that bitch Galilea." "Dayana, don't talk nonsense. Wait for Mr. Lorenzo to come out and see what's going on." Elisa sighed.

"I talk nonsense? Dayana was annoyed and walked out. But just as she reached the door, she was blocked by Qin Yao, Without saying a word, she slapped Dayana, and everyone heard her clearly "You dare to hit me?" Dayana widened her eyes "If not for your dirty hands and feet, would everyone have stopped working here? We are all waiting for you!" Qin Yao was born into a wealthy family, and recently, she started dating a famous overseas director, so she was very popular in the circle Now that Dayana had been beaten, she could have retaliated.

However, she was in the wrong. If Galilea didn't let her go, or if she couldn't find the necklace, she would have no way to escape the blame. That was tens of millions Thinking of this, Dayana could only take a step back and pretend to be weak. "Big Sister Qin Yao, you misunderstood. It really has nothing to do with me. It was Galilea who framed me." "Heh.." Qin Yao covered her face and smiled. "You are two years older than me. And you call me big sister? Kidding me?"

She snorted in disdain and turned to leave. The agent also told the director very impolitely. "Next time there is such a person, don't invite Qin Yao. Do you know how busy Qin Yao's schedule is? She doesn't have the time to play detective games." "Yes, yes, yes. I will definitely verify it next time." Director Forrest could not afford to offend Qin Yao, so he had to personally send her out After returning, the atmosphere in the entire studio changed. Director Forrest stared at Dayana. If Micah was not inside, he was afraid that Dayana would have been swallowed alive by them. "It really has nothing to do with me." "Shut up. You'd better find that necklace immediately. Otherwise, we will all die." Dayana pursed her lips and looked back at the room.

"Micah, why have you been in there for so long?" At this time, the surrounding staff began to whisper, "Could it be that Dayana hid the necklace and self-directed this show?"

"Really? But it's her own stupid love affair. Why is she dragging everyone down." "Say, they've been in the room for so long, are they doing what I think they're doing?"

“Didn’t the two of them sweat in the car yesterday?” When Dayana heard these words, she was so angry that her face turned green, but there was nothing she could do. She could only wait. In the room. Micah listened to Galilea’s conditions. There were only three words, “Impossible.” “Then what should we do?” Galilea grinned. “Anyway, the police are here, and I have the same answer.” The man’s eyes darkened. Looking at Galilea’s indifferent appearance, he felt even angrier. Galilea glanced at the time. Today was the day the president of the Oppl Group came to Inspect Cloud Town. At such an important time, Micah was actually held back by Dayana, When she thought of this, she was in a very good mood. Micah held the phone, and the coldness in the corner of his eyes became even stronger. He was 100 sure that Galilea did it on purpose. But his people checked and found no clues. This woman was becoming more and more shrewd. She was so shrewd that Micah could not bear to ruin her. After a long time, he said slowly, “At most, your debt will be reduced by five million.” “SO, Dayana’s reputation is only worth five million in your eyes.” Galilea clicked her tongue. She shrugged. “I thought you two were so in love.” These words were a real provocation. “Galilea, don’t go too far. I’ll get someone to turn this place upside down and I will find it.” “Then go ahead.” “I have plenty of time,” Galilea said, blinking her eyes. “If we can’t find the King’s Heart, Dayana will be charged with the crime of stealing. The child she gave birth to will also be called...”

“Six million.” The man almost gritted his teeth and said this number. The problem was not how much it was, but that Galilea already had a trump card to negotiate with him, which made him very unhappy. “Alright, then come here and I will tell you personally.” Galilea pretended to hesitate. “The same old trick?” Micah frowned and sneered. If she played that kind of trick again, it would ruin her reputation. He was sure that Galilea would not dare.

However, at this time, the woman in front of him directly grabbed his collar, stood on tiptoe, and left a kiss on his shirt.

Chapter 112 Wanli Fon? Her body temperature suddenly approached, and the fragrance on her body was fascinating

In this narrow room, Micah clearly felt his heart skip a beat

However, the initiator of evil did not have the slightest bit of reluctance.

Seeing that the lip print had been printed, Galilea directly let go and said lightly, “The thing is in Dayana’s car. Howev don’t waste time investigating You have nothing on me, because she took it out herself.

But when she turned around, her wrist was pulled by someone.

The next second, the sky and earth spun. Galilea was pressed down on the table by Micah. He held her chin tightly with his palm, his eyes deep. “Is it fun?” Galilea’s eyes no longer had the kind of feelings that she used to look at him, only indifference,

Like him, she did not care about anything.

“Not bad.”

Seeing his uncontrollable anger, Galilea felt that her boring life was not so dull anymore.

Chapter 113 Old Feelings Rekindled?

“Micah, how is it?” Dayana asked from outside the door.

She couldn’t take it anymore. They had been in there for almost half an hour, and no one knew what was going on. “Mr. Lorenzo, your girlfriend is looking for you.” Galilea looked at the man in front of her, who was holding her captive, Micah frowned as he stared at her delicate face. The strength in his hands grew stronger and stronger. Why didn't she cry out in pain? Why was she so indifferent?

She wanted to fight him to the end even if she ruined her reputation?

Micah's heart was filled with a feeling that even he couldn't tell. His finger rubbed against the wound on Galilea's neck. She frowned in pain. Then, the man let go. "Now you know the pain?" Galilea ignored him and opened the door. "Micah!" Dayana blurted out, only to see Galilea's collar wrinkled and her cheeks flushed. She stepped out first. "Get out of the way." Galilea pushed Dayana away. "You..." Just as Dayana was about to say something, she saw that Micah's shirt collar was open and there were lip marks near his chest. At that moment, Dayana felt as if she had been struck by lightning. Just now, she was as anxious as an ant on a hot pot, but now, her mind was completely blank. "Micah, you..." "Go to your car," the man glanced at her indifferently. "Micah, you haven't told me clearly. You and Galilea have been in there for so long. What have you done?" Dayana asked. "Do you know how others laugh at me? Micah, stop!" It was the first time that she threw a tantrum at Micah. "The thing is inside. What did you take from the studio?" the man asked. "I didn't take anything!" Dayana frowned and suddenly remembered, "I asked Elisa to bring me some food." She was full of doubts. She went in and opened it. The necklace was indeed in the bag. "How is that possible! I really don't know," Elisa explained to Dayana with a face full of disbelief.

"Micah, now that the evidence is conclusive, it must be Galilea who framed me." Dayana gritted her teeth in hatred..

"Yes." The man responded indifferently. "Elisa, immediately call Director Forrest and MON's people over. I want them to know Galilea's true colors." Dayana was stunned.

"Alright, I'll go now." However, at the same time, Micah said coldly, "You better not do that." "Micah! You actually want to help that woman?" Dayana was stunned. At this moment, Micah really doubted Dayana's IQ. "You carried the thing yourself and got in the car. There is no evidence to prove that Galilea framed you. If you run over and say it now, who will believe you?" "As long as you are here, they will definitely..." "Don't tell me that you want to stand on Galilea's side?" Dayana stared at the man in front of her in a daze. Her

Chapter 113 Old Feelings Rekindled? expression was extremely awkward. Micah did not respond. His indifference had already explained his attitude. "Today's matter will end here." Dayana took a deep breath and grabbed him regardless. "No, Micah, I can't just let it go like this. It is not the first time she has schemed against me like this. How can you tolerate her?" Micah frowned. His patience with Dayana had completely collapsed. "Then tell me first, how did the wound on Galilea's neck come about?" he asked, suppressing his anger.

"... How would I know!"

"Maybe she provoked someone she shouldn't have!" Dayana shouted. "Last time, there was a usury looking for her to collect debts. That's why she made a fuss at the wedding. This time, she was forced into the hospital. Dayana, I'm not blind." Micah clenched his fists.

"Micah, listen to my explanation!" Dayana panicked. However, the man had already gotten into the car and left. Dayana patted the window and ran far away, but Micah ignored her. A few minutes later, the necklace was sent back to its original position. Dayana said that she was feeling unwell and left the studio.

The shooting continued. However, a piece of explosive news spread. "President Lorenzo and ex-wife's relationship has been rekindled!"

There were also people who revealed that Micah did not like Dayana at all. Otherwise, he would not have ruined two weddings with Dayana for Galilea. Galilea frowned as she looked at the news. Her eyes were cold.

Although she had thought that the news would spread, she had not expected it to be spread so quickly. Why didn't Micah let people intercept them? Galilea pondered over this matter and did not notice the person beside her. "Galilea!" He Xiao called out to her again.

"Huh?"

"There won't be any filming for our group starting tomorrow. Teacher Yun Xi specially gave you three days off. You should go back and have a good rest." "I'm fine."

As soon as Galilea stood up, she felt dizzy.

The wound on her neck was also pulled, and it hurt so much that she took a deep breath. "Don't try to be brave. Take care of yourself. Also, if today's matter is exposed by the paparazzi, the publicity department will come out to solve it. If they find you, you don't have to say anything. Do you understand?" He Xiao looked at Galilea with sympathy. Galilea nodded and did not decline. When the filming was over, everyone had finished their work. She carried her bag on her back and walked out.

There was a car behind her, following her. The window rolled down, revealing half of her face. "Get in the car, I'll give you a ride." "Teacher Yun Xi?" Galilea's reaction was slow by half a beat. She did not feel that their relationship was so close. "You are MON's designer and you are injured. I should take care of you. Hurry up. There is a camera there. I can't park here."

Galilea hesitated for a moment, then opened the car door and got in.

The car drove out of the intersection. Behind them, a few MON employees gathered together and discussed, "Teacher Yun Xi actually personally sent Galilea off?"

Chapter 113 Old Feelings Rekindled? "Oh my god, I have been in the company for so long, but I have never seen Teacher Yun Xi treat anyone so well!

"This Galilea was still in the room with Mr. Lorenzo in the morning."

He Xiao heard these words and could not help but frown. She put on her earphones and walked to the bus stop.

The screen on her phone was a photo of her and a man. The man only revealed half of his face, and their movements were very intimate. If someone saw it, they would definitely say why this man looked somewhat similar to Yun Xi.

Inside the car.

Galilea was silent. She was calculating the reason why Yun Xi had taken the initiative to send her.

SO

"Don't be so nervous. I don't eat people." Yun Xi suddenly smiled and took out a box of gum to give to Galilea. "No need, thank you." Galilea tactfully refused. Yun Xi was obviously a little unhappy.

He casually threw the chewing gum to the side and made a loud noise.

Galilea was stunned. She had only rejected his chewing gum and he was already angry? The next second, what surprised her even more was that Yun Xi asked directly, "Two years ago, you were the last to leave after having dinner at Mr. Qin's house."

Chapter 114 Ouch

The last time, he seemed to have completely forgotten about it. After a brief moment of shock, Galilea nodded and replied, "Yes." The car just stopped in front of the traffic light. His unfriendly gaze swept across Galilea's face. "Mr. Qin has always taken good care of female students, especially beautiful female students." Galilea's pupils shrank.

Then, Yun Xi turned the steering wheel and the car drove to a small road on the side.

The streetlights around were very dark. Galilea only felt that his eyes were very sarcastic. "Teacher Yun Xi, what do you mean?"

"What? You don't dare to admit what you have done?"

He suddenly stepped on the brake and grabbed Galilea's wrist tightly, forcing her to look at him. "A woman who spent a few hours at the teacher's house and was intimate with her ex-husband on the street. Why are you pretending to be lofty in front of me!" Galilea suddenly retreated. However, the car door was locked from the inside, and she could not push it open no matter what. Yun Xi was like a ferocious beast that had run out in the middle of the night, staring at her delicate and pretty face.

"Micah really is stupid. He abandoned such a good-looking woman and chose that idiot Dayana? Heh..." Galilea met his dark eyes and gritted her teeth.

"If you dare to do anything to me, I will make you lose your reputation in the design circle." "Oh, is that so?" Yun Xi clicked his tongue and took out the prepared camera. "You may not know, but without my permission, it is impossible for someone to enter this circle." Galilea leaned back with both hands, trying to find something to protect herself.

However, it was too late.

She was dizzy and her vision began to blur. In the midst of her haziness, she seemed to hear Yun Xi's chuckle. "You're quite good at enduring. By this time, they had already fainted."

No!

Galilea also didn't know where she got the strength from, but she suddenly slammed into the window. She almost risked her life, but her sudden movement pulled the wound on her neck, and the pain hit her, and she woke up in an instant. The faint feeling of the unknown drug was covered up by the pain. *You..."

She rushed over, grabbed Yun Xi's head, and slammed into the steering wheel. He did not expect that Galilea would have the possibility to counterattack. He was careless for a moment, and when he began to counterattack, his forehead was bleeding. Galilea reacted quickly and wrapped her seatbelt around his neck before he could react. She used both her hands and feet to control him in the driver's seat. "I just need to exert a little more strength and you will die." She pulled hard, and Yun Xi was strangled to the point where his consciousness blurred. "Let... Let go!" Galilea sneered. With a forceful swing. Yun Xi's head hit the glass and he fainted.

The whole world seemed to have quieted down at that moment.

Galilea's palm was full of red marks, and her neck hurt badly. However, she had no time to hesitate. After all, she was just a woman. She could only escape when Yun Xi wasn't paying attention. She had to find a way to prevent him from taking revenge on her.

Chapter 114 Ouch Galilea looked around the car for a while, her eyes fixed on the camera,

A few minutes later, she quickly left Yun Xi's car.

At this time, it was already late. Most of the staff had left, and there were no taxis passing by. Galilea gasped for breath, but the scenery in front of her was becoming more and more blurry. She followed the road all the way to the city, and she could vaguely hear the sound of cars behind her. Yun Xi has caught up? She was so nervous that her heart was about to jump out.

You can't stop. Galilea...

The sound of tires grinding against the road was extremely ear-piercing. Galilea staggered and fell forward. She really had no strength left on her legs. "Don't come over." She only said these three words before she fainted. Blood oozed out of the wound on Galilea's neck and stained the man's suit. "Galilea, wake up!" His eyes were full of coldness. In a daze, Galilea felt that someone was calling her. But she was really too tired to open her eyes. All of a sudden, her body was cold. She could only crawl to the hottest place around. Her hand reached behind her and touched someone. His body was very hot, and his heart was beating very fast. Galilea's face also rubbed over. "Wake up." He called out to herself again. His voice sounded a little like Micah, but when had that man ever been so gentle? It was as if he was afraid of losing her. He was so careful and tender. Galilea closed her eyes, upset that she was still thinking about that person at this time. "What's the use of waking up? It's better to die." She really felt tired.

A drop of tears slipped out of the corner of her eyes and she fell into the man's arms and lost consciousness.

At the door of the bedroom on the second floor, Micah frowned as he listened to the doctor. "Mr. Lorenzo, the wound on Miss Frankie's neck has not been properly treated. Now, she has taken some kind of hallucinogenic drug, causing her to have a high fever. She can't use medicine now. We can only judge the condition : when she wakes up tomorrow." "Otherwise, it is very likely that the wound will be infected." Seeing Micah's cold face, the doctor advised again, "You don't have to worry too much. If the high fever causes her to babble nonsense, or if she shows some pain, it can be cooled by physical methods..."

The doctor gave a lot of instructions and then left. Micah frowned and looked at the woman lying on the bed. Her face was pale, and even her lips had no color. Her appearance was heartbreaking. Just now, when the doctor checked her wound, he removed the gauze on her neck. Only then did Micah see how scary the wound was.

He remembered that Galilea was very afraid of pain. During their wedding, she accidentally pierced her finger and cried in pain. Now, she could carry this kind of wound and quarrel with him, and walk on that road alone for so long... "Let go of me." She closed her eyes and cried out in pain. Micah looked at her with sunken eyes. He walked over.

The next second, his hand reached out to see if she had a fever and was speaking nonsense. She suddenly opened her eyes and grabbed him. 2/3

Chapter 114 Ouch Micah's eyes suddenly turned cold.

He knew that this woman was definitely scheming against him. "Galilea, if you wake up, get the hell out of here." He had always been a clean freak and only brought her here temporarily because it was closer to the hospital. Unexpectedly, Galilea just stared at him in a daze. After a while, she murmured, "Since you hate me so much, why did you marry me?" The coldness in Micah's eyes suddenly faded. "You ruined my marriage and yourself." She chuckled. "I'm really useless. How many times do I have to dream of you?" Galilea sobbed.

Her body and shoulders trembled.

At that moment, Micah did something that he had never done in his life. He walked over and sat down by the bed.

He reached out and patted her on the shoulder.

Gradually, the woman's crying became softer and her breathing became steady.
"Next time, don't dream of me."

Chapter 115 Then Tell Him That I'm Seriously ill

When Galilea woke up, she found herself lying in an unfamiliar room. The luxurious decoration and the smell of perfume in the air made her feel refreshed. Was she still caught by Yun Xi?

Then where was this! Galilea sat up abruptly, ignoring the pain on her body as she walked out barefooted. But just as she got out of bed, she bumped into the man who came out of the bathroom.
"You!"

She screamed and shouted, "Micah, why are you here?" Did he make some kind of deal with Yun Xi? Or... Micah glanced at her face and walked up, wanting to check the temperature of her forehead. But when he touched Galilea, she slapped his hand away. "Stay away from me!" The man's elbow paused in the air, and a chill filled his eyes. The woman woke up, as if there were thorns all over her body. Galilea ignored him and walked out directly. When she went downstairs, she realized that this place should have nothing to do with Yun Xi. Although he had a lot of influence in the design circle, Yun Xi definitely could not buy such a villa in Cloud Town! The entire fifth floor of the villa was decorated in a luxurious European style, and even the wall lamp on the wall was very exquisite. Galilea went around downstairs and did not see anyone. "What's the difference between this and a haunted house?" When she heard the footsteps on the second floor, she glared at Micah before entering the kitchen without looking back. She was hungry. Micah changed into a suit and a shirt and walked downstairs. When he saw the woman in the kitchen, he could not help but smile. She grabbed the bread on the table and drank the milk in one gulp. She did not forget to mutter, "Such a big house, but only bread and milk? Is the Lorenzo group going to go bankrupt soon?" At that moment, Micah realized. He did not seem to mind her curse at him at all. The man restrained his thoughts and walked straight over. Ignoring Galilea's resistance, he reached out and pressed on her forehead. "It's not burning anymore. Does your neck still hurt?" Hearing him say this, Galilea frowned.

"It doesn't hurt." She still maintained the distance between them, calculating something in her mind.

"The doctor will come over later to check your body. Remember to take your medicine on time." After he said that, he walked out Galilea looked at his suit jacket, and her mind was a little confused. "Micah, is there something wrong with your brain?"

Since he was not with Yun Xi, why did he pick her up? In this world, he should be the one who wanted her to die the most.

Didn't he hate her to death? Galilea held the glass of milk in her hand and couldn't figure it out for a long time. "Let's talk when you are recovered." The man completely ignored her words.

"Talk about what! Do you think I'll stay here and wait for you? Are you crazy? I'm not Dayana."

Then you chatry You won't be able to get out The man sneered

Alto be finished peaking the sound of the door being tocked was heard

"Micah, you perven, lei me out

Galilea fan to the floor in ceiling window in the living room and shouted, but she only had time to see the man driving away

Ten minutes later, the sat on the carpet dejectedly

Hor mobile phone and bag were missing, and all the doors and windows were looked In other words, she was put under house arrest by Micah, Boon, the doctor Micah mentioned came After he checked Galilea, he left without saying anything "Doctor, is my wound alright?" Galilea stopped him directly

The doctor looked at her and shook his head. As long as Miss Frankle hog o good rest and takes medicine on time, there will be no problem.” “Oh, then will you tell Micah about my condition?” The doctor nodded.

“Yes, I have to tell Mr Lorenzo.”

Then tell him that I am very ill and will die soon, okay?” Galilea asked very seriously

Whol.” “Please “Galilea grinned,

The Lorenzo group

When Micah came out of the conference room, he received a report from Keith “Doctor Chen said that Miss Frankie’s illness is very complicated, and it is very likely that she is injured in the head. It is bent to go to the hospital for a thorough examination, otherwise, it will turn into depression.” Hearing this, the man stopped, “What?”

*That’s what Dr. Chen said,” Keith said, Micah furrowed his brows and walked into the office.

“Mr Xiao has already returned to work at the company, but he insists on not being in charge of the purchase case. The board of directors all think that you have punished Mr. Xiao too heavily.”

“Is there anything else?” Micah glanced up. He did not need to ask for instructions from those old fellows for everything, “In addition, Vice President Lorenzo said that he wants to return to the country to work next month. He means that he is old and wants to go back to Cloud Town to retire.” Keith put the application transfer book on Micah’s desk. Micah did not think about it and signed it directly.

“Since Second Uncle wants to come back, then prepare in advance. His position and residence must be the most suitable. I will leave this matter to you.”

“Understood, Mr Lorenzo.” Micah acknowledged and raised his hand. Keith immediately closed the door and quietly left. As soon as Micah arrived at the company, he began to have a meeting. He was already very tired, but just as he breathed a sign of relief, the sound of high heels came from outside the door.

“Micah, I must have a good talk with you today.” Dayana rushed in with her bodyguards. The bodyguards directly pushed Keith away. She pushed the door open and bither lips, looking extremely aggrieved, “What’s wrong?”

Chapter 115 Then Tell Him That I’m Seriously 11 The man opened his eyes coldly.

His tone was so distant. The next second, he gestured to the person behind him, and Keith immediately closed the door. Dayana cried until her eyes were red, and her face was covered with thick makeup, barely covering up the tiredness of a night of sleepless nights. ‘Take a look for yourself.’ She took a picture in front of Micah. It was a private detective she hired. After following Galilea, he took a picture. She actually lived in Micah’s villa and did not leave for a night! Even now, she was still there. “You found someone to follow me?” Micah asked with a cold face. ‘No, I’m not following you. He was following Galilea. I was afraid that she would pester you again.’ Dayana’s temper suddenly softened.

“Is there a difference?” Micah’s eyes were empty. Watching Dayana step over his line again and again, he only felt bored. Dayana’s tears trickled down. “Micah, why are you like this now? You never treated me like this before.” “That’s because I didn’t know that you had so many tricks up your sleeve before.” One could not judge a book by its cover. Only now did Micah realize that this delicate woman in front of him was much more complicated than Galilea. Not only did she play tricks behind his back, she was also acting so differently.

Chapter 116 Just So-So Sensing Micah’s cold gaze, Dayana panicked. She twisted forward, trying to grab her clothes and act like a spoiled child, but before she could get close to Micah, he dodged her. Then, Keith knocked on the door. “Mr. Lorenzo, Mr. Xiao said he has something to talk to you about.” “Got it.” “We shouldn’t meet for the time being. Calm down,” Micah said as he stood up and stared at Dayana. After he finished speaking, he only left Dayana with a cold back view. “Galilea, it’s all Galilea!” Dayana slumped on the sofa in her office, her eyes filled with hatred.

Galilea was trapped in the villa and spent a boring day. A servant came to work before noon, but it should be because of Micah's obsession with cleanliness and order. They just lowered their heads to work and ignored the addition of Galilea in the villa. It was as if she was air. "When did Micah buy this house?" "What do I eat for lunch?" "Talk to me!" But no matter what she said, she couldn't pry open their mouths. Galilea helplessly returned to the bedroom and fell asleep. When she woke up, it was evening again. She felt thirsty and walked towards the kitchen. She inadvertently heard someone calling outside. "That case is temporarily stopped. Terry, business doesn't work like this." Micah held the coffee cup and suddenly looked in Galilea's direction. There were no clothes for women to wear here, so yesterday the maid put his clothes on Galilea, a round collar T-shirt, on her body. It was like a skirt. Her two long legs were just exposed in front of the man. His fingers holding the mobile phone tightened, withdrew his gaze, and walked past her. Galilea leaned over, not wanting to touch his body, but she did not pay attention for a moment and almost touched the knife on the table.

"Be careful:

With a wave of his arm, he hooked his arm around her waist in time. On the other side of the line, Terry's long and narrow eyes narrowed. He did not hear wrong. There should be a woman's cry of surprise. He turned his head to look at Dayana beside him, and the corners of his mouth curled into a smile.

"Micah, who are you with..."

"No one. That's it. We'll talk about it tomorrow."

He hung up after he finished speaking. Galilea felt that he had not released his hand from her waist. She frowned and pushed him. "Thank you. You can let go now."

There was a deep meaning in Micah's eyes. He let go of his hand and said coldly, "Be careful." "Then let me go. Once I leave this door, I won't touch your things."

Micah's face turned cold.

"You want to leave?" "If I don't leave, do I have to stay here and live with you? Mr. Lorenzo, this is illegal imprisonment. Do you know that I can sue you?"

Chapter 116 Just So So In the air, a man sneered, Galilea stared at him with wide eyes. Was he really crazy?

Just as she was about to finish her sentence, Micah let go of her hand, walked around her, and entered the kitchen, "When you recover, you can leave." Galilea stood rooted to the ground. "Are you afraid that I will sue Dayana?" "I'm not as despicable as you guys." This thought popped up in Galilea's mind. If she wanted to take down the Lorenzo group, she would not use such despicable means.

It turned out that he could protect Dayana to this extent.

Galilea suppressed the chill in her heart and glanced in the direction of the kitchen. Micah did not seem to hear what she had just said. Instead, he busied himself in the kitchen as if no one else was around.

Not long after, two servings of pasta were served on the table. "Mine?" Galilea raised an eyebrow. "I won't let you starve to death here." He laughed and shook his head. "You won't poison me, will you?"

Galilea raised her head and saw that he had already started eating.

She thought that although Micah was cold blooded and heartless, he wouldn't poison her. Otherwise, he wouldn't have found a doctor for her. This was the first time she had eaten something made by Micah.

The taste was unexpectedly good. Galilea ate a few mouthfuls and could not stop. "How does it taste?"

The man finished eating first. Seeing Galilea wolfing down the food, he pushed the tissue over. But Galilea chewed and muttered, "It's what it is." There was a smile in Micah's eyes. He reached out to grab a tissue and slapped it on Galilea's mouth. "Eat slowly." In that instant, his finger inadvertently swept across Galilea's cheek. Both of them were stunned. Galilea recovered first and stood up all of a sudden. She returned to her room angrily. Micah stood where he was and took a deep breath. Some thoughts went into his mind, but he did not want to think about them. He cleaned up the plates alone and went into the study. Late at night, the entire villa was as quiet as an isolated island. Galilea lay on the bed, her mind lingering on Micah's face. Why did he cook for her? Because he wanted to eat! Then why did he... Galilea frowned. She could not fall asleep no matter what. She walked to the door and saw that the lights were still on in the direction of the study. She rushed over and knocked on the door, "Micah, let's talk." She could promise that she would not sue Dayana. Tomorrow morning, she would leave. But there was no response from inside. Galilea tilted her head and gently pushed the door. He was not there. She pursed her lips helplessly and was about to leave when she turned around and bumped into a warm chest.

"Why is there no sound when you walk!" Micah looked down at her. It was such a close distance. It was such a deep night. She was wearing his clothes. The man's Adam's apple bobbed. He pinched her wrist and took her into the study room.

Pa.

The door closed.

Chapter 116 Just 50-50 'Let go of me. I want to tell you that I have to leave tomorrow. You have to let me go 'Galilea struggled uneasily "Huh?

An unfathomable flame danced in Micah's deep eyes

"I can promise not to sue Dayana. I will pretend that my injury never happened.' Galilea gritted her teeth and said,

"Reason?

The heat in Micah's chest was getting stronger and stronger, but the woman in front of him seemed to feel nothing.

"I don't want to stay in the same house as you." This was the truth

Micah's eyes turned cold. He saw the determination on her face with his own eyes. At that moment, he regained his senses

When they were still husband and wife, didn't she look forward to him going back?

Now... time had passed, He should have been too tired from working too much, and he actually felt a trace of remorse from the bottom of his heart.

He had been stunned and did not make a sound. Galilea was anxious and pushed him away. "If you don't speak, I will take it as you agreed.' After that, she slammed the door and left. Her heart was beating rapidly. She returned to the bedroom, locked the door, and got into the quilt.

She wanted to have a good sleep! Tomorrow, she would be able to leave this place. However, as expected, when Galilea woke up. Micah had already disappeared. The maid who came spoke to her, but there was only one sentence, 'Mr. Lorenzo is on a business trip for two days. You can live here alone.'

Alone? Galilea rolled her eyes speechlessly.

He still had to imprison her until her wound recovered!

Chapter 117 Then I Have a Condition

The more Galilea thought about it, the angrier she got. She took her phone and wanted to spread the news online.

However, if she did it without any preparation, it was very likely that she would be sent to the public relations department as soon as it was released, and the truth would sink into the sea

She had to endure,

Galilea took a deep breath and looked at the servant again. "What do I eat for lunch?" Since she couldn't leave, she should enjoy herself. She would eat the most expensive food! During this time, Nore called her a few times. Galilea hadn't thought about how to face him, so she simply didn't answer. His engagement with Xu Ya was his business. Galilea had no right to interfere, and she never felt that Nore needed to explain anything to her. In terms of relationship, she was no longer suitable and would rather hide like an ostrich. Thinking about it now, there was nothing wrong with staying in Micah's empty villa, at least there was food and drink. It would save a few days of living expenses. Two days later, Micah came back from a business trip. Just as he entered the door, he saw a woman sitting on the sofa, chewing on snacks. He frowned and saw that the sofa was full of snacks. The briefcase was heavily placed on the table. He walked over and said, "Why don't you eat proper food?" "Sister Zhang said that I can eat anything I want. Didn't you tell her that?" Galilea asked as she chewed. He did say that "Go and change your clothes. I need to entertain Mr. Oppe and his wife tonight. You should accompany me." Micah pulled her out of the sofa. "I don't have clothes."

Galilea answered very calmly, then smiled sweetly, "Let me go. I have them at home. I'll go back and get them." "Heh... If I let you go, will you come back?" Micah sneered and pushed Galilea away with one hand. "The clothes are in the bag at the door. Mr. Oppe has a good impression of you. He also pays attention to whether the partner has a stable marriage relationship." "Then you should call Dayana over. What if I refuse?" "Then you will stay here for the rest of your life." His voice was extremely cold, and his body emitted a heavy aura. He was not joking "Then I have a condition." Galilea gnashed her teeth in anger. "Speak: Two hours later. Galilea was wearing a dress that Micah had brought back. It was a purple dress with an elegant style. Moreover, she did not wear any jewelry. Her hair was simply tied behind her head. She sat there with an ethereal beauty. Micah was discussing business matters with Mr. Oppe. Galilea was accompanying him and occasionally chatted with Mrs. Oppe. Micah promised to reduce the debt by one million. It was just a meal, she could endure it. "I thought that the one who would appear here tonight would be that Miss Quincy." Mr. Oppe smiled gently, and his words suddenly did not have any special meaning. Galilea cut the steak without saying a word. "Galilea just happened to be looking for me, so I invited her to stay for dinner," Micah suddenly said with a smile. She came to look for him?

Chapter 117 Then I Have a Condition

The corners of Galilea's lips twitched, and she nodded reluctantly

This man's acting was really unexpected "Has your relationship eased up? Can you still be friends after the divorce? Sorry, did I ask something I shouldn't ask?" Mr Oppe voiced out the doubts in his heart.

The word divorce stuck in Galilea's heart.

But she found that she no longer cared so much.

"Yes, we can be friends even if we are separated, Galilea smiled without any playful posture, as if she was very sincere in saying her thoughts, Micah looked at her from the side.

There were many things in those eyes that Galilea could not understand.

"Since we are not meant to be, there is no need to be obsessed with the past. I believe that Mr. Lorenzo also thinks so, right?"

He still did not move.

Galilea looked over in surprise. Under the table, her foot hit Micah's leg, Only then did he slowly turn his head away and say, "Not really." Galilea was stunned. What was going on with him! She was so cooperative with his acting, and he actually dropped the ball at a critical moment? Just as she was thinking about how to explain it, Micah said something that shocked her, "To be able to maintain this relationship, perhaps it's because one side wants to redeem it." As soon as he said this, Galilea's mind buzzed. Just as she was about to speak, Micah picked up some food and gave it to her.

"Try some of this."

He deliberately created this ambiguous relationship so that the Ople couple would think that he was a dedicated and affectionate person. In order to succeed, this man really could do anything, For the rest of the time, Galilea did not say a word, because no matter what she said, Micah could describe the relationship between the two of them in a very delicate way. "Mr. Lorenzo, thank you for your hospitality tonight. We have spent a very good time." Mr. Ople said this, and his wife smiled gently at Galilea. This night, she motioned to Galilea countless times that, if possible, she should consider getting back together with Micah. Galilea awkwardly pursed her lips. If not for the one million, she would have exposed Micah's trick.

She stood at the door and watched Micah send them off.

For a moment, Galilea couldn't help but think, if the Frankie family was still here.. Would the two of them maintain a seemingly normal marriage relationship like this? As the car drove out of sight, Galilea retracted her gaze and returned to her room to change back into her own clothes. This evening dress made every cell in her body very uncomfortable. When Micah returned after sending Ople and his wife back, he saw Galilea sitting on the sofa waiting for him, "Where are you going?" "Our deal is over. Mr. Lorenzo, you have to keep your word." Galilea walked over expressionlessly and lowered her head to change her shoes. She had helped him act out this scene. He had removed her debt and treated her fairly, A layer of annoyance rose in the man's heart. He grabbed her wrist and asked, "Are you so anxious to leave?" He thought she wanted to run away from him and into the arms of another man Galilea rolled her eyes helplessly. "Micah, if you are addicted to this kind of cosplay, go find your Dayana and stay away from me."

Chapter 117 Then I Have a Condition She had no time to play this boring game with him.

Galilea shook off the man's hand and fled the villa as fast as she could. She was afraid that if she stayed any longer, something would grow in her heart. The man in the villa had a cold expression. After a long time, his hand hung down and his gaze fell on the seat where Galilea had just sat.

Escape from him?

Galilea, you are not the one to decide this!

After leaving Micah's villa, Galilea walked aimlessly on the street for three hours before returning to the city from the outskirts.

She scolded Micah ten thousand times in her heart.

When she opened the door and went home, it was already early in the morning. She was too sleepy and fell asleep in the quilt

The next day, when she opened her eyes, there were more than a dozen unread messages on her phone,

Just then, Liu Yuanyuan called. When she picked up, there was a worried voice on the other side.

"Galilea, are you alright? Why can't I find you for two days!"

Chapter 118 Ten Million, No Bargain

"It wat

pa ght yesterday It happened to be when she left Micah's villa and headed home "Where am I going to meet you?" Galilea pondered and gritted her teeth

Then, she left home

But what she did not know was that five minutes after she left her the wall panned

"Move quickly, do not leave any traces. "Yeah" Twenty minutes, the city hospital Galilea met up with Liu Yuanyuan and Kai Forest at the entrance of the hospital After listening to Yuanyuan talk about what happened, Galilea frowned even more After the shoot that day, nothing happened to Yun Xi Hotelumed to the company safe and sound and did not tell anyone what happened between him and able to hia But last night, he was suddenly robbed It was the police officer on duty nearby who rent him to the hospital "I heard that it was not an ordinary robbery Teacher Yun Xi only lost a watch. I was worth more than 100,000 e still had cash in his car, but the robber did not take it" Kai Forest said "If something happened to Teacher Yun Xi, he would not be able to participate in the weekend VN show "It can't be that someone from a competitor company deliberately schemed against him so his mind was wide open and the more they guessed the movie ridiculous it became On the other hand, Galilea had never been this clear headed before That day when she escaped from Yun Xi it was Micah who took her away He definitely knew what had happened last night. Yun Xi was targeted like this by someone and was discovered by the police, but they couldn't find any clues It meant that the person who designed this robbery accident was not only hidden but also very powerful

The possibility of it being Micah was very high But Galilea did not understand why he did this She followed them into the ward with a confused face. In a moment, Mo Nian and Anna were both there "Teacher Yun Xi you have to be careful As soon as Yuanyuan booked up she saw that the game on Yun Xi ahead was wrapped like a beehive, and the red medicine applied to his eyes, she almost laughed out loud Kai Forest coughed and quickly tried to smooth things over, Teacher Yun Xi hope you can feel Yun Xi glanced over, his body was beaten to the point of being unable to move his gaze fell on Galilea, dukan unknown He Xiao said from the side, "Teacher Yun Xi needs to rest. You can go back first" "Okay, then we will go fast. Kai Forest pulled Yuanyuan Liu Yuanyuan kept her head down to control her smile "Galilea, wait a minute I have something to tell you Galilea paused and saw He Xiao also send Anna out then he locked the door of the Ward "I didn't expect you to be so capable. These words were said by Yun Xi

Chapter 118 Ten Million, No Bargain However, his voice was no longer as pleasant to hear as before. Instead, it revealed a hoarse and cold feeling Teacher Yun Xi has misunderstood. I have no power and influence right now. What ability do I have? Galilea curled the corners of her mouth. "You... Yun Xi gritted his teeth in anger. He Xiao walked over to support him, and said in a low voice, let me speak" She patted Yun Xi's back, and Yun Xi's mood slowly calmed down. "Teacher Yun Xi being robbed is just a cover. In fact, he was beaten unilaterally, and the person who beat him was sent by Micah. Galilea, you should know about this matter!" "I don't know." Galilea shook her head. She really didn't know. She just relied on her imagination. He Xiao sighed, "Since we've already spoken to this point, you don't have to pretend anymore. These two days, Teacher Yun Xi has been looking for you. He wants to have a good talk with you. What happened in the car that day was not his intention. You must have misunderstood." Misunderstanding? Galilea sucked in a breath of cold air. If that situation was also a misunderstanding, then the murderer wouldn't have to take legal responsibility.

But she quickly came to a conclusion. He Xiao knew what kind of person Yun Xi was, and she also knew the contents of the memory card. It was also possible that He Xiao was also one of the female protagonists of the recording. Galilea frowned. She could not figure it out. He Xiao was young and beautiful, and also had talents. Why would she want to be together with someone like Yun Xi? "Take out the memory card. You can also make a condition." He Xiao's attitude was very firm. Seeing that Galilea did not make a sound, she added, "If the matter blows up, your reputation will be damaged. What's the point?" Yun Xi was lying on the hospital bed the entire time. Only his eyes that were filled with anger seemed to want to kill Galilea. Galilea pulled over the chair in the ward and sat down directly to look at the two of them. She chuckled, "Do people like me care about these things? Name conditions, right? Ten million." "Too much." He Xiao seemed to have expected that Galilea would say that. "No bargain." Galilea got up and walked out. He Xiao sighed and pressed Yun Xi's shoulder. "I'll chase after her. You should rest first." "You must make that woman agree." Yun Xi was so angry that he almost died. He had been looking for Galilea for two days, but Galilea seemed to have disappeared from the world. In the end, he was attacked last night. It must have been Micah! Yun Xi cursed in his heart. How could he be so careless and let Galilea run away? The things in the memory card must not be made public, otherwise, his life would be over. He Xiao thought it would be difficult to catch up with Galilea. But she saw that Galilea stopped at the vending machine at the end of the corridor and bought a drink for her. "You are also one of the victims, right?" Galilea's voice was faint. He Xiao's body stiffened. She stared at Galilea, her lips trembling. It has nothing to do with you. You have no use for that card. Give me the card, and I can help you get a reasonable price." "Even ten million can't buy your innocence?" Galilea took a deep breath. He Xiao was speechless. "I've never thought of making it public, and I haven't looked into it either. Everyone has their own right to choose. I respect your decision, but I also have to protect myself." Galilea frowned and faced He Xiao. No matter what kind of feelings He Xiao had for Yun Xi, it had nothing to do with her. Galilea held the drink cup and went straight around He Xiao.

Chapter 118 Ten Million, No Bargain When they went out of the hospital, they saw Liu Yuanyuan and Kai Forrest being stopped by a few paparazzi reporters

"We are just newcomers to MON. It is useless for you to interview us." Galilea went over. After saying that, she pulled Liu Yuanyuan away, and Kai Forrest quickly followed.

On the other side of the parking lot. Anna took a picture of this scene with her mobile phone and then sent it to Dayana's agent, "Sister Elisa, I find that Galilea seems to have a problem with our company's chief designer..." Liu Yuanyuan saw that Galilea's expression was not right and asked tentatively, "Did Teacher Yun Xi make things difficult for you just now?"

Galilea shook her head.

The three of them sat side by side by the fountain.

Kai Forrest, who was on the other side of Liu Yuanyuan, tugged at her. "You guys chat first. I'll go buy some food for you guys." Liu Yuanyuan nodded. Seeing him walk away, Liu Yuanyuan went over and said, "Do you feel that He Xiao seems to have a special relationship with Teacher Yun Xi? The company is now spreading gossip about the two of them everywhere."

Chapter 119 My Hearing Is Not Good

"I don't really care about things that have nothing to do with me." Galilea frowned, Perhaps it was because of this that she had almost no affinity for gossip If not for the fact that Liu Yuanyuan often sent her some gossip, Galilea might not have known that Yun Xi was in the hospital today. Liu Yuanyuan looked at her and only said after a long time, "Galilea, I really envy you."

"Why?"

Galilea frowned and shook her head with a chuckle. "Why would anyone envy me?"

The phone buzzed.

It was a message from the debtor company.

Galilea glanced at it and directly sent the money that Wendy had given her. She also added, "I have talked to your boss, There is a change in the total debt." She had to repay this money as soon as possible and cut off all ties with that man. Her days had already been devastating. What was there to be envious of? "I will go first. You guys can talk." Galilea grabbed her backpack and quickly left. Liu Yuanyuan looked at her back as she left, and her eyes flickered. When Kai Forrest returned from buying food and found that Galilea had already left, he felt a little regretful. "I thought I could treat you guys to dinner today." "Don't worry, there will be a chance." Liu Yuanyuan patted his shoulder. Kai Forrest looked at her innocent smile and asked in a low voice, "Don't you think that Galilea is getting farther and farther away from us?" Liu Yuanyuan was stunned for two seconds, then took the ice cream in his hand, "Hurry up and eat it, it will melt." The entrance was cold, and she said as she walked forward, "Galilea was never from the same world as us." Kai Forrest heard this and suddenly did not know what to say. "Moreover, Galilea will return to her original world sooner or later. I believe that she can do it with her own ability."

She would not criticize Galilea behind her back like the people in the company. Her admiration and appreciation for Galilea were written in her eyes, without any concealment. That afternoon, Galilea received a notice from the company that she, a newcomer, would replace Yun Xi and participate in the next week's big show.

"Me?" "Yes, this is an order from the higher-ups of the company. You can go to the venue early tomorrow morning." This big show was the most popular show of the year for MON. Many jewelry and famous products would be displayed here. Participating in this kind of event, she undoubtedly got a ticket to a jewelry design hall of fame. Galilea was so excited that she didn't sleep well all night. She completely forgot about Dayana and Yun Xi. The next morning. She rushed to the venue according to the time of the notice. The staff Lisa had been waiting for her at the door. "Teacher Galilea, right? Please come in." Galilea nodded slightly and followed her into the elevator. Then, her hand was stuffed with today's promotional page and a cup of coffee. "The other teachers are also here. Please come in." As soon as the door opened, Galilea saw a very beautiful booth. It extended from the door to the steps inside. There were also some jewelry inside, all of which were high-end products of MON every season. And some of the more important works were on the second floor of the exhibition area.

Chapter 120 My Hearing Is Not Good Those who were invited to this show were either business celebrities or high-end fashion people. Ordinary people were not qualified to get an invitation Galilea could be considered a person who had seen these big scenes, but at this moment, after those times, she still felt a little emotional standing in this place. "Galilea Someone called out to her and waved at her from the second floor. It was Susan. Galilea nodded at the staff.

Then, she walked up to the second floor. Susan introduced her to a few other well-known designers in the industry They were all famous in the jewelry design circle. Some of them were even better than Susan. So when Galilea went in, they only took a few glances and went to chat with the people around them. Susan didn't like them either. She pulled Galilea to the balcony next to them. She picked up a cigarette and looked at Galilea,

"I'm fine," Galilea smiled. "Have you been to the hospital?" Susan asked angrily. "Yeah," Galilea replied, “Micah was too gentle. People like Yun Xi should have gone to hell long ago. Staying in this circle will stain the water.” Susan lowered her head and smiled, Galilea did not respond. As if she noticed that she did not want to continue this topic, Susan quietly finished smoking the cigarette. “This show is an opportunity for you. Don’t miss it.” Someone called her from outside. She patted Galilea on the shoulder and walked out. Galilea looked down and saw several cars parked at the door. Many bodyguards were moving the safe with jewelry inside. She gripped the railing, her eyes cold. In the hospital ward. Yun Xi had just been released by the doctor. He saw his swollen face in the mirror and smashed the mirror. “Don’t be angry. The doctor said that it will recover slowly.” He Xiao cut an apple for him. But as soon as she finished speaking, she was pulled over by Yun Xi. There was gloomy anger in his eyes. “Recover? How can it recover? I was beaten like this! You are so stupid that you can’t even get a memory card back! Do you really want me to give that bitch ten million?” His low and hoarse voice seemed to come from hell. He Xiao subconsciously dodged back. She was holding a fruit knife in her hand, but she never had the courage to stab him.

“You shouldn’t have touched Galilea.” He Xiao held back her tears and said in a low voice. “Heh...” Yun Xi spat on her face, “I’m tired of playing with you guys. Can’t I screw a fresh ass?” He Xiao was pushed back by him and fell to the floor powerlessly. Her palm was broken. She endured the pain and slowly stood up. “Your medicine is in the thermos. I’ll be leaving first.” Just as He Xiao left, the door was pushed open. “What did you forget this time? Can you grow some brains?” “Mr. Yun, Mr. Lorenzo wants to see you.” Keith raised his hand, and Yun Xi was dragged out of the bed. There was no one in the huge corridor. Yun Xi was still cursing and struggling, but when he was thrown to Micah’s feet, his throat seemed to be choked, and he could not say a word. “I should have informed MON’s people not to touch Galilea.”

Yun Xi clenched his fists and laughed dryly. “I just came back from abroad and didn’t know that Mr. Lorenzo and your ex-wife...

Chapter 120My Hearing Is Not Good Before he could finish his words, the back of his hand was stepped on

It hurt so much that he gritted his teeth.

“Now you know?”

Micah’s voice came from the top of his head

Yun Xi’s right hand began to feel numb He could not pull it out no matter what. The pain hit his brain. He immediately shouted, “Mr. Lorenzo, I’m sorry. I was wrong Please... Please let me go “My hearing is not good. I can’t hear you.” Micah’s eyes turned cold, and he exerted more strength in his feet
