

Chapter 121 She Didn't Provoke Him

Hearing Galilea's name, those rich ladies were obviously less excited. "Her? MON's standard is really getting worse and worse." "I heard that she and her ex-husband..."

"I think I saw Dayana come just now. Is that Micah also here? This kind of gossip was the easiest to arouse people's curiosity. When the walk was halfway through, Dayana was so anxious that she was about to cry in the toilet "Micah, I'm begging you. Come and pick me up! I feel my stomach hurts." This was not the first time she had talked about her child. On the other side, Micah had just finished the meeting and was walking out of the company. When he heard the voice from his Bluetooth headset, his eyebrows furrowed and his cold face sank. "I'll get the driver to pick you up." "No, Micah, come here personally, okay?" Dayana was almost begging him, her voice extremely humble. Halfway through, she heard footsteps outside and quickly hung up the phone. The call suddenly ended, and Micah frowned. Jasper had already made an appointment with him early in the morning, and he had just driven over. Seeing that his expression was not right, he asked casually, "What's the matter?" "Accompany me to a place, Keith. You can get off work first." "Yes, Mr. Lorenzo." Then, a super sports car drove out of the Lorenzo group's parking lot. The sound of the engine swept across the street.

As soon as they arrived at the entrance of the show, they saw the photos and names on the poster. "Galilea is also here?" Jasper felt that things were not so simple. Micah frowned and walked up the stairs. "It's been more than a year. Why can't she learn the lesson?" Jasper shook his head. If Dayana knew how to read people's minds, or how to please Micah, she would have already taken the position of the hostess of the Lorenzo group. But she still held on to Galilea. Jasper followed Micah in. The walk show was coming to an end, and all the designers and models went on stage together. The audience was full of applause. MON's performance was obviously good. "I think the part of the bracelet is really good. It's very new." "Galilea is indeed talented."

Micah stopped in his tracks. His gaze could not help but be attracted by the figure on the stage. She stood in the spotlight with a quiet and gentle smile on her face. Her eyes were shining brightly. That was the real Galilea.

She was so dazzling and proud. Even among those models and actresses, she was not inferior at all. Their gazes seemed to meet at that moment. The man raised his eyebrows slightly but found that Galilea didn't seem to notice him at all. She did not quickly look away but looked indifferent. The fists under his sleeves slowly tightened. He saw someone walk over from the side and go on stage to deliver flowers to the designers. The one walking at the front was actually Nore! He took off his baseball cap in front of everyone and smiled as he presented a bouquet of flowers. "Galilea, congratulations." Galilea's hand froze in mid-air and she could not help but reveal a surprised smile. "Why are you here? Why didn't you tell me!"

1/3

Chapter 121 She Didn't Provoke Him "Sorry, I came late Galilea did not say anything. She would explain things to Nore, but this occasion was not suitable. *Thank you, designers and models. Please rest for a while. Our auction will begin immediately! Tonight, we will auction the masterpiece of five jewelry designers.." As all the designers stepped down, Nore also followed Galilea. Micah stared at the back of the two of them, a nameless fire rising in his heart. "Micah." "Micah, thank you for coming to pick me up." Micah glanced at her and slowly pulled his hand out. "Didn't I tell you don't go to crowded places?" As a pregnant woman, she should understand such a basic thing. As for Dayana, she was too eager to achieve quick success and gain benefits. She was going to use her identity as Mrs. Lorenzo to show off everywhere. He had long known about it. It was just that he did not stop her. Dayana pursed her lips and said delicately, "I'm sorry, Micah...: "Does your stomach hurt? Let's go now." Micah turned around and was about to leave. However, how could Dayana let go of such a good opportunity? "Micah, they just said that there is an auction. Let's stay and watch for a while, okay? Just a while." Dayana said with a smile.

Jasper could feel Micah's displeasure from the side. However, Dayana refused to let Micah go and dragged him to the start of the auction. Jasper watched as Micah was pulled to the seat and sat down by her. He helplessly held his forehead. Even his friend could tell that Micah did not like her at all. If not for Dayana being pregnant, perhaps... When this thought came to mind, Jasper immediately coughed. He was like those people and became so gossipy. The designers also came out from backstage. Galilea was still following Nore. He had been looking for an opportunity to explain to Galilea. However, Galilea did not respond. Her attention was on the stage, so Nore had to suppress those words. "Why don't we sit here?"

Galilea nodded. As soon as she sat down, she felt a sharp gaze. She turned her head and saw that Micah was staring at her.

She was stunned. Did she offend him? Galilea frowned and turned around. Her attitude was still very distant. Micah tapped his knee with his finger. That was the action he would often do before he got angry.

Jasper noticed it, but Dayana was full of satisfaction as she thought about how to show off their love and let everyone present know that she was the real Mrs. Lorenzo. She did not notice the change in Micah's mood at all. "Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for waiting. Next, please take out our first item. It is the work of our MON company's chief designer, Yun Xi. He did not participate in the big show today, it is a pity." "This is a diamond necklace..." "The starting price is three hundred thousand."

As soon as the host finished speaking, someone started bidding. Soon, the necklace auction was successful. "The next one is the bracelet that Miss Zhang Min just showed us. It perfectly explains our theme tonight. It is comparable to the eyes of the queen that shine like stars. Although its value is not comparable to King's Heart, it is also a proud work of our company." "The starting price is five hundred thousand."

Galilea only reacted at this time. No wonder the bracelet looked familiar. It turned out that it was also made by the Chapter 121 She Didn't Provoke Him same person who designed King's Heart 'This is the part you are responsible for, right?' Nore suddenly leaned over and asked, Galilea agreed.

2/3

12.06D

The next second, he immediately raised his card. "Six hundred thousand." "You want to buy it?' Galtea was stunned. 'Yes, I'll give it to you.' Nore's eyes were filled with determination. "I don't want it," Galilea rejected subconsciously.

Other than money, I don't know what else you lack. Moreover, I don't seem to have anything else Nore sighed. Galilea was amused by his deliberate expression. "Your mother will kill you.'

"Are you not angry?' Before Galilea could answer, a voice came from behind, 'Seven hundred thousand."

Chapter 122 Not Worth the Price

*750,000! Nore gritted his teeth

"Forget it," Galileo sighed helplessly. She had never wanted it, and from the looks of it, Micah had deliberately raised the price. Even if the bracelet was created by a famous designer, it was not worth this price. On the other side, Dayana, who was beside Micah, had already started to get excited. Micah, on the other hand, had a cold expression on his face. His eyes were as deep as the sea, making it impossible to see his emotions.

Galilea only glanced at him before shifting her gaze away.

"One million," Micah said, holding the auction card. "One million? It seems that Mr. Lorenzo is determined to win! Are other buyers interested in this bracelet?" As the host spoke, he smiled and looked in the direction of Nore and Galilea, Nore still wanted to call out a price but was stopped by Galilea.

"There's no need." She felt that it was really pointless. In this life, she had seen enough of those people throwing away their money for the sake of face. She did not want to be the kind of person who would sink into the whirlpool of greed. Moreover, compared to Micah's financial resources, Nore would definitely lose.

"Galileo, I'm sorry," Nore said again. Galilea smiled. Her smile was unprecedentedly relaxed and bright. It was only at this moment that she realized that what she wanted was not to return to the circle of rich and famous people, but to prove herself. She did not have the Frankie family as her trump card. She could also win.

As for Micah, Galilea did not care. When the host personally handed the bracelet to Micah, Galilea and Nore had left. Someone began to whisper, "Micah still chose Dayana."

"Galilea is really stupid. No matter how strong the Lubi family is, he can't compare to Micah."

"Although the wedding was not completed, it is a fact that Dayana is pregnant. Sooner or later, she will enter Lorenzo family's door." Hearing these words, the smile on Dayana's face became deeper and deeper, "Micah, thank you." Unexpectedly, the man just got up and walked out.

The bracelet did not enter Dayana's hand at all.

She was a little disappointed, but what she wanted had been obtained. She pursed her lips and quickly followed.

Jasper clicked his tongue. He knew Micah too well. This matter was not over,

Galilea went to the office backstage to get her things. When she came out, Nore stood by the street and waited for her.

She hesitated for a few seconds and walked over.

"Don't apologize to me. I am not qualified to accept your apology. How you and Xu Ya develop is your business." Galilea had no emotions, and she was not questioning Nore about anything,

They were not boyfriend and girlfriend. "You," Nore's throat froze. The words he had prepared for a few days were all stuck in his throat. He clearly understood the calmness in Galilea's eyes.

The night wind blew the hair in her ears. She smiled easily and instantly broke Nore's heart. You are right. It's all none of your business." Nore forced a smile and told himself that he would deal with all the messy relationships and not let Galilea be criticized. In the distance, Galilea saw Micah and others coming out. She felt unlucky.

Chap! 122 Not Worth the price "Let's go! I'll treat you to a meal!" She potted the bag in her hand, "I got paid today." Nore nodded. At the very least, they could still get along as trends. For him, this was already a very happy thing. If Galilea pushed him away or never saw him, he could not imagine what would happen to him at that time

The two of them walked forward side by side. Micah's driver also drove over and took him and Dayana away. The night was cold. When Jorper was about to drive away, he happened to meet with Galilea and the others. "Miss Frankie, how have you been?" "Young Master Jasper." Galileo nodded as a greeting, Jaspero gaze fell on Nore and he smiled faintly. "Mr. Lubi is young and impetuous, but it's best not to provoke people who should not be provoked, lest it affects the family business. The Lorenzo group had cooperations with the Lubi Group. Nore was very clear about this. He frowned and was about to retort when he was stopped by Galilea, "Young Master Jasper, we still have something to do. We'll be leaving first." Nore was forcefully pulled away by Galilea, There was a fire in his heart, but he would not do something that Galilea did not like. Jasper watched them leave and narrowed his eyes, "Interesting." Halfway through the meal with Nore, Lubi family called to ask Nore to go back. "Young Master, Madam's heart is not feeling well. She has been calling your name. If you don't have any important dates, you should come back to accompany Madam' Sean said. They had already played this trick once, "I still have something to do..."

Nore said and was about to hang up. "If Nore has something to do, just let him do it. I'm fine," Lucy said. She sounded really weak Nore frowned and said, "Okay" before pressing the call button "Let's go home, Galilea said as she walked out of the restaurant. She smiled and did not look unhappy at all. "Sorry, I was going to celebrate with you today.* "Did you count how many times you apologized to me today?" Galilea asked with a smile. There was no need for that between them. At her most difficult time, Nore was really a ray of light that shone into her life. But no one would want to embrace the sun in their arms. Because it was too hot, neither of them would be happy. Stopping damage in time was the most important thing that Galilea learned after starting again, "I used my phone to get a cob just now." Galilea looked at a black car by the roadside in the distance, "It should be here. I will go over first." She did not want to become a conflict between Nore and his family anymore. She smiled and waved her hand, walking quickly to the opposite side of the road. But halfway through, Galilea realized that something was wrong. The plate was not right, Galilea turned around and saw that Nore had just gotten into the car and had yet to leave. She slowed down and thought to wait for Nore to drive before stopping, However, the window was rolled down, and it turned out to be Micah. Galilea stopped in her tracks, turned around, and was about to walk back. But halfway through, her phone rang,

Chapter 122 Not Worth its Price "Get in the car and 10,000 yuan"

Galilea was so angry that she gritted her teeth. Did he think that she would compromise for 10,000? Galilea frowned fiercely. She opened the car door and got in. She was not that kind of person in the past, but now, she had to lower her head,

The car drove forward, and Galilea turned to stare at the man's side profile. "Mr. Lorenzo is really getting freer and freer. He is still hanging out on the streets at this time." Didn't he send Dayana away just now? They should be at home kissing. Or perhaps they had done it already. The more Galilea thought about it, the more disgusted she felt, "I was just passing by to remind you. Don't be stupid enough to think that Lubi family will let you in. It won't do you any good." Micah's voice was calm and his eyes darkened.

Chapter 123 When the Competition Ended

Galilea frowned

"Mr. Lorenzo, you should worry about your own matters. It is my freedom to interact with anyone."

Galilea's face turned cold

With their relationship, Micah had no right to teach her a lesson. No matter how bad she was, it had nothing to do with him! "If Mr. Lorenzo wants me to get in the car to talk nonsense, then please stop the car."

The man took out the bracelet box and threw it in front of Galilea, "Consider it as a reward for helping me deal with the Opple couple. Stop the car." Micah said coldly as she looked up at the driver Galilea only took a glance before getting out of the car with the bracelet. Nothing is free in this world. But there was really no other choice from her current situation. Even if Micah dug a pit for her to jump into, she had to jump in with a smile. This was the rule of this world. However, after taking a few steps, Galilea turned around and looked in the direction of his car. "He actually didn't lose his temper?"

Three days later, the night before Thunder Cup's race was held. Galilea received a call from Sonny. "Something happened to Black Horse's co-pilot. Tomorrow is the competition, and I really can't find him. If you have time, can I trouble you this time?" "Don't worry, I definitely won't let you be busy for nothing. We'll split thirty seventy, how about it?" "Nore originally didn't let me find you, but the matter was too urgent. I really can't find anyone else." Sonny was afraid that Galilea would disagree, so he added. Tomorrow was Saturday, and she was really fine. "Alright, I can go, but you can also look for someone else. If there is a more suitable candidate..." "You are the best candidate! Others will never be able to compare with you, the goddess of victory. I think I can go to the celebration banquet now."

When Sonny heard that Galilea agreed, he slapped his thigh happily. The next morning, Nore drove to pick her up. It was different from normal times. Today, Nore spoke less. "Nervous?" Galilea supported her chin with one hand and turned to look at him. Nore gripped the steering wheel and shook his head. "Is the team in trouble again? Nore did not make a sound. He only sighed. "If you have something on your mind, you'd better not race." Galilea was very rational. Once they got on the race track, they could not turn back. If something happened in the middle of the game, no one could bear the consequences. As the car stopped outside the competition venue, the rumbling sound of the engine came into his ears. Nore suddenly smiled, and his dark eyes shone with a bit of brilliance. "Galilea, after this competition ends, give me a chance. Let's have a good talk, okay?" Was it because of this that he was distracted? Galilea nodded and said yes. The two of them registered and went to the locker room to change. When Galilea tried to put on the helmet, she heard two staff members next to her discussing, "I heard that Black Horse fell out with his family because of the funding of the team. Is there such a thing?" "I heard it too. It seems that his family forced him to get engaged to a rich family's daughter. As for him, he has 1/3

12000

Chapter 123 When the Competition Ended someone else in his heart, so he broke up with his family."

'The one that Black Horse likes is the one he proposed on the podium last time..."

"Shh, be quiet!"

Galilea waited for them to leave before she slowly walked out. Looking at herself in the mirror, she sighed in a trance.

It was time to have a good talk.

The auditorium on both sides of the track was full of people. As one of the investors, Micah also arrived at the scene. However, he did not sit outside. Instead, he sat in the VIP room to watch the competition.

"Mr. Lorenzo, Vice President has boarded the plane. He will arrive at Cloud Town International Airport in four hours."

"Arrange the apartment." "Understood, Mr. Lorenzo." Micah looked up, his eyes focused on the screen. His eyes were deep, and there was no joy or anger in them. This morning, the Lorenzo group officially announced the cancellation of the contract with Lubi Corporation, not because of his personal grudge with Nore, but because the quality of Lubi Corporation's products was not satisfactory to him. The previous cooperation was quite smooth. This time, Micah planned to reorganize the atmosphere of the company from the inside and cut off the relationship with the old partners. Lubi Group was one of them. Ten minutes before the competition, Nore received a call from Lucy in the locker room. "Nore, your father invited Uncle Williams's family to dinner tonight. After the competition, you must come. Do you understand? This time, your father's company made a big fuss. It was all because of that Micah.... Nore was already tired of listening to the matters at home and the company.

"Mom, I will compete first. If there is anything, we can talk about it later tonight

Lucy was a little unhappy over the phone. "Is your car more important, or is your father and more important? You know how much trouble the company has been in recently. Now, only you and Xu Ya can save our family!"

"Black Horse, it's time to go on stage."

"Mom, I beg you. Let me finish this competition first, and then I will listen to you, okay?" Nore lowered his head and said in a low voice. He was the only son of Lubi family. There were some things that he could only do. Hearing Nore's words, Lucy finally breathed a sigh of relief. "That's more like it. Mom believes that you will make the right choice." Nore put down the phone weakly, got up, put on his coat, and walked out.

Was this decision really correct? The stadium was filled with cheers from fans and audience.

"Black Horse, Black Horse!" "I didn't expect you to be so popular, Galilea joked. 'Galilea, this time, I must win.'" The corners of Nore's lips twitched, and his eyes were filled with emotions. Whether it was on the racing track or on the business field.

Only when he became stronger would he be able to protect Galilea and prevent her from being criticized again. Galilea did not know the meaning behind his words. She smiled and replied, "Okay, you must win" Soon, the competition officially began. "The first curve, Black Horse passed through with absolute advantage!" "It's too fast. Is Black Horse going to set a new record this time?" "Audience, let's wait and see. Who will be the first place today? Wait, what happened to Black Horse's car? The camera zoomed in and let us see why Black Horse's car seems to be out of control!" In the control room, Sonny rushed in, sweating profusely. "Hurry up and call the ambulance. Black Horse's car brake is Chapter 123 When the Competition Ended not working."

Bang! The sound of violent collisions echoed in the field. As thick smoke rose, Nore and Galilea were carried out on stretchers by the rescuers. Nore kept holding Galilea's hand and kept calling her name. Half an hour later, "My son! Nothing must happen to you!" Lucy cried in front of the operating room. After asking the nurse, Sean came over to help her up. "Don't worry, the young master's operation is still ongoing. He has already asked the director to come over for a consultation." "I told him not to play racing anymore. He just didn't listen! It was all for that woman. She really wanted to kill my son!"

Chapter 124 The Situation Was Not Good

Through a door, Galilea had just woken up in the ward. The doctor held a flashlight. "Look to the left, look above... What is this? I am your attending physician. My surname is Fang. Can you hear my voice?" Galilea looked at him waving his hand. But she could only see the doctor's lips moving, without a sound. She looked blankly at the nurse who was recording her data. She looked at the medical instruments and the shaking trees outside the window. Galilea clutched the quilt and shook her head slowly. She could not hear anything.

She could not hear anything. The doctor glanced at the nurse and said, "Try to inform her family as much as possible. We still need to do further checks.”

“Yes, Director Fang.

Through the door, Galilea saw that there were many people outside. But she was too tired. Coupled with the treatment of medicine, she quickly fell asleep. When she opened her eyes again, it was already late at night. Just like the daytime, she still could not hear anything. Galilea opened her mouth, grabbed the nurse who had changed her IV drip, and asked slowly. “How is the person who came with me?” “You mean Nore? The nurse opened her mouth to tell her but realized that she could not hear it, so she took out her phone, typed a few lines, and then showed it to Galilea. Seeing the words from the nurse, Galilea’s hand began to tremble. When the car passed the first curve, Nore found that the brake was not working. At that time, the situation was urgent. He could only cooperate with Galilea and slowly reduce the speed in a different way. But this method did not work on the racing track. In order to get a chance to live, Nore made a bold decision at that time. He let Galilea hold on to it, then turned the steering wheel and rushed to the low slope on the track... He knew that there was an obstacle in that place, and the moment he hit it, he blocked Galilea with his body. The scene was still lingering in Galilea’s mind. She should never forget what Nore said in her ear in this life. A teardrop fell from the corner of Galilea’s eyes. “Nore has injured his leg and spine nerves. He is in the observation period after the operation, but he is not out of danger yet.” Spinal nerve? Galilea had a bad feeling. Before she could put down her phone, the door of the ward was forcefully pushed open. Then, Lucy rushed in with a group of people! “You bitch, why did you wake up so quickly? You deserve to die...” She shouted one sentence at a time, her eyes hiding invisible knives, as if she was going to cut Galilea into pieces at any moment

However, Galilea could not hear a word, She stared blankly at Lucy rushing towards her. Reaching out, she grabbed her hair and tore it with all her might. The pain made Galilea’s thoughts clearer. Could something have happened to Nore? “Madam, please calm down.”

12 101

4

Chapter 124 The Situation Was Not Good Behind her, there were also many people pulling Lucy She shouted and collapsed on the ground, crying “Nore, what’s wrong with Nore? Galilea reached out her trembling hand and grabbed the nurse. Her voice was trembling and her eyes were unfocused. Why couldn’t she hear? What were they arguing about? Galilea was on the verge of collapse. But looking at her blank face, Lucy became even angrier. She stood up and rushed over, giving Galilea a tight slap. Galilea curled up and crouched on the ground. After her ears buzzed, she unexpectedly heard a sound, “I want you to pay with your life for my son!” Lucy pulled her up and scolded. “So, how is Nore?” Galilea rubbed her ears and breathed rapidly. Her eyes were red as she stared at Lucy in a daze. “Young Master’s spine has been damaged. After the doctor’s consultation, he gave us a plan to amputate his limbs to save his life.’ Sean pulled Lucy and said this. Galilea stopped. She staggered away everyone in front of her and ran towards Nore’s ward.

Her mind was blank and she just looked at the unconscious man on the bed. When Micah left the director’s office as an investor, he saw her standing barefoot on the ground, staring straight into the ward. Behind her was Lucy, who kept cursing. “Mr. Lorenzo, do you want to stop her?’ Micah raised his wrist and walked over personally. “Tell me, there were only the two of you in the car at that time. What exactly happened? Lucy insisted. She hated the fact that the person lying inside was not Galilea, but her precious son. As a mother, she knew very well how much Nore liked Galilea. Therefore, when she saw that her son was injured so badly, but Galilea was only slightly injured, Lucy could not accept this fact.

She raised her hand and was about to hit Galilea again.

Galilea did not dodge.

But she did not wait for this slap to land. "Madam Lubi, this is an accident. You should not vent your anger on her." Micah's voice was deep, and he stopped Lucy in time.

"Accident? How is that possible!" Lucy widened his eyes and was about to say something when she was stopped by Hanming who had rushed over. "Alright, the most important thing now is that Nore has woken up. What's the use of hitting her!" Hanming's eyes were also red. The couple only had one son. After twenty years, they actually... Behind him were Xu Ya's parents. They protected their daughter behind them and said politely, "Old Lubi, don't be too anxious. If you need us to do anything, just tell us. I see that there are a lot of people here, so I will take Xu Ya back first."

"You..."

Lucy was stunned. These were the in-laws that she had set her mind on. Once something happened, they ran away just like that?

Xu Ya hid behind her parents, not saying a word.

However, her mother said in a low voice, 'The marriage between our two families has not been officially set. Xu Ya is still young. She can't spend the rest of her life with a cripple.' "You can leave!" Hanming gritted his teeth.

2/3

Chapter 124 The Situation Was Not Good Lucy was already about to faint from crying in her arms. The Williams family immediately left this troublesome place.

Galilea stood in front of the glass window, took a deep breath, walked straight to Hanming and his wife, fluttered and knelt on the ground Micah frowned, and his fingers slowly tightened. 'I don't need your apology. Get out of here!' Lucy cried and shouted. "I know there is no point in apologizing, but if Nore does not wake up, I will kneel here and apologize. If he really.. I will use the rest of my life to atone for my sins, be his servant and be his leg If she was not in that car, if Nore did not use his body to protect her...

He would not be so badly injured!

These words touched Hanming's heart at that moment. Even the crying Lucy looked at Galilea with a complicated look and said fiercely, "Why are you acting? If not for you, how could my son... Halfway through her words, she fainted. *Doctor, doctor!"

Galilea knelt there without moving.

Chapter 125 Lubi Family Will Not Pity You

She did not go back on her word. For the next ten hours, besides going to the toilet, she had been kneeling in front of Nore's ward. She had not eaten anything and only drank a few mouthfuls of water. "Miss Frankie, there is no point in doing this. Our madam will not forgive you. You should leave." Sean walked over.

Galilea lowered her head and did not respond. "Forget it, you can do whatever you want." When Galilea heard the sound of the door opening, she suddenly reacted and looked at the doctor and nurse. However, the attending doctor still shook his head regretfully. "If the patient doesn't wake up tomorrow morning, we plan to undergo amputation surgery." Galilea's heart felt like it had fallen into a cliff. "He can't amputate. If he doesn't have legs, how can he drive?" She murmured. She knew better than anyone else that Nore's greatest dream was to become the world's top racer. Her tears flowed down her cheeks. She patted the window and whispered, "Did you hear that? If you don't wake up, you won't be able to drive anymore." That night, Galilea knelt there, her legs numb. She did not know what time it was, but she had been paying attention to the sky outside the window, hoping that the sun would rise a little later, hoping that Nore could open his eyes quickly. "What you are doing is meaningless, and Lubi family will not pity you." Micah stared at her back and sneered, "If you really want to kneel, you should go to the temple to burn incense and worship Buddha. That will be more useful, just maybe." Galilea hid the emotions in her eyes and said nothing. Micah looked at her quietly, the coldness in his eyes getting stronger and stronger. "If he does an amputation operation, will you really give your life to him?" "I will keep my word. If you want to say these sarcastic words, please go away." There was no light in her eyes. This kind of indifferent and sorrowful expression was all for Nore? "If you go back on your word, I will tie you up and send you to their house." Micah pursed his lips into a thin line. After saying this, he turned around and left. However, he did not leave the hospital. Instead, he went to participate in the operation meeting on the fifth floor of the hospital. Because Nore's accident happened in the competition arena, other than Micah, two investors were also invited to the hospital.

"Mr Lorenzo, is Mr. Lubi really going to perform amputation surgery?"

"I know several well-known neurologists. I can ask them to come over and take a look!"

Micah's eyes were gloomy. He also thought the same way. His mind was full of Galilea's firm face. The man clenched his fists and shouted at the doctors, "Is there no other way? Other than amputation, think of other plans!"

"But"

This operation meeting lasted for two and a half hours, but there was still no better solution. The attending doctor looked at his watch and sighed, "There is really no other way. Let the operating room prepare for the operation. If this drags on, I am afraid that we will miss the best time to treat the patient. Contact the patient's family and inform them..."

At this moment Galilea pushed open the door of the operating room. Her pale face was smiling with tears.

"He's awake, he's awake..." She ran up from downstairs, barefoot, and ran three floors, Chapter 125 Lubi Family Will Not Pay You Several doctors immediately went out to check on Nore.

Galilea panted heavily, her hands and legs shaking violently, and her eyes were filled with tears.

This scene was like a needle, fiercely stabbing into Micah's heart. He walked over, his steps slow. "Are you so worried about him?" Galilea sobbed, her hands still shaking.

The next second, her hand was forcefully pulled over, and then her entire person was lifted up by him.

"Let go of me! Galilea, your cheap life is mine. You can't die without my permission." Did she forget that she had just experienced a car accident? Although her injuries were not as serious as Nore's, she could not ruin her body like this. After kneeling for so long and not eating a single mouthful of food, no matter how good her physique was, she would still be half-dead from exhaustion. When Micah carried her downstairs, Galilea had already fainted from exhaustion. However, she was not thrown down.

Instead, she was gently carried and placed on the bed. "Please check on her." In order to prevent Lubi family from finding trouble with Galilea, he especially took her to the inpatient department downstairs.

"Your wife is very weak. As her family, you must pay attention to her nutrition." Family? Micah frowned.

"We..." "Also, do you have a child?" The doctor pushed up his glasses. "If not, you better be quick. If you want a child, you have to hurry up. Her physical condition..." With a cold face, Micah went to the pharmacy to get the medicine.

"If she wants to be pregnant, it will be very difficult. You have to understand her more and accompany her."

"Did she have a miscarriage in the past?" "It was at that time that the seed of the illness was planted." In the window, the nurse stretched out her head and asked, 'Are you here to get medicine?' Micah reacted after a few seconds and handed over the prescription. He had never been so absent-minded. The nurse handed him the medicine. "Three meals a day. It's all written on the medicine box. You'll have a follow-up in a week." Micah took it. The coldness between his eyes grew stronger. His phone rang. It was Dayana. He frowned and picked it up. "Micah, where are you? I had a nightmare. Can you accompany me?" Dayana cried. "Take care of yourself," Micah said, gripping his phone. He hung up immediately after he finished speaking, Dayana listened to the disconnection sound coming from her phone and gritted her teeth in anger. She deliberately found this time to call Micah, so that he could come over before he went to the company so that he wouldn't use business to stall her.

But now, he didn't even bother to find an excuse?

And from the sound, he seemed to be in the hospital.

"It can't be that he went to take care of Galilea!" Dayana frowned. As soon as this thought came out, Dayana couldn't sit still. She immediately changed her clothes and was about to rush out. Just as she went downstairs, she was stopped by Lachlan. "It's just dawn. Where are you going?"

Chapter 125 Lubi Family Will Not Pity You 'I have a date with Micah for breakfast.'" Dayana casually made up a reason. If it were in the past, Lachlan would have wanted her to please Micah, but now, his relationship with the Lorenzo group was very stiff. He saw that his daughter seemed to be holding onto Micah recently. "You are not allowed to go. You haven't even held a wedding ceremony and haven't received a certificate. Is it appropriate for you to walk around the streets with him with a big belly?" "Dad!"

"Micah has already said that we will register in the future. As for the wedding... isn't it just a formality?" Dayana murmured Although she was also unhappy in her heart, what could she do? The two weddings had been ruined by that slut, Galilea. She had to go to the hospital now and not give them a chance to be alone. "You can't go. If you dare to go out of this door today, don't go back to this home. Let that Micah take care of you." Lachlan slammed the newspaper in his hand.

Chapter 126 Gradually

Dayana was so angry that she wanted to cry. Behind him, Wendy walked over and said, "Dayana is just unwell and wants to go out for a walk. It's normal. Why are you scolding her so early in the morning?" As she spoke, she poured a cup of tea for Lachlan. Then, she stood behind him and massaged his shoulders. Most men liked this. In an instani, Lachlan's expression eased a lot. "If Dayana was half as sensible as you, I wouldn't have to be so angry." He snorted. Dayana was still sobbing in a low voice. "I think it's good for Dayana to go and see Micah. You men shouldn't bring your business to your house. Besides, it would be bad if outsiders think that we are not getting along." Wendy said. Every word of Wendy hit the bottom of Lachlan's heart. "Why are you spoiling her?" Wendy smiled and walked over to pull Dayana out. "I heard that Young Master Lubi had a car accident with Galilea. This has nothing to do with you, right?" "Of course not. It was a car accident!" Dayana's heart skipped a beat. "That's good. Don't worry. I'm just asking. Go quickly and have a good chat with Micah." Wendy sent Dayana into the car and turned to go back. Dayana sat in the car, biting her lips. Before she reached the hospital, she asked the driver to drop her off.

Then, she turned around and got into another business car. In the car, Terry was already waiting for her. The moment he saw Dayana, he immediately put his hands on her. "Don't touch me. Tell me first whether the person you found is reliable or not. They won't find me, will they?" Seeing that she was worried about this, Terry smiled contemptuously. While touching her back, he said, "Don't worry. I have already sent the two people abroad. No third person will know that they had tampered with Nore's car.

Moreover, these days, Lubi family was busy and confused because of the hospitalization of their only son. No one suspected that this was planned." "That's good..." Dayana breathed a sigh of relief. The next second, she was pulled into Terry's arms. She let him kiss her a few times and felt his hand still moving down. "I still have to see Micah. Don't mess up my clothes." Dayana quickly grabbed his hand. "Do you really want to marry Micah that much?" the man asked with a flash of desire in his eyes. "Of course, everything I do is to marry him." Dayana chuckled.

She tidied her clothes and looked at the mirror. After making sure that there were no traces, she opened the car door and walked to the hospital. Terry sat in the car and fiercely smashed the steering wheel. A shrill whistle sounded.

"How am I inferior to Micah?" In business, he was lower than Micah. And even women... "Sooner or later, I want all of you to think highly of me." Terry's eyes were filled with coldness as he gripped the steering wheel. Dayana asked around but did not find Galilea's ward, so she had to go to Nore's ward first. She had just arrived, and there was no trace of Nore in the ward. Only Lucy was personally making the bed for her son. "Why can't I find Galilea? Even your son is nowhere to be found!" Dayana was a little impatient. Hearing her tone and tone, Lucy's face turned cold. "Please get out. You are not welcome here." If Dayana had not told her that she was going to target Galilea, she would not have told Dayana about the competition venue. Lucy stared at Dayana's face. She knew very well that the accident in Nore and Galilea's car was likely done by Dayana! But she had no evidence.

Looking at Dayana now, she could only vent her anger in her heart.

Dayana seemed to have seen through Lucy's thoughts. "So angry with me? That's good. Do you want me to go out and tell everyone that your son's accident this time has something to do with you? I want to see what your husband will think when the time comes." "I wonder which one is more important to him, his son or the snake that sleeps with him!" "Shut up!" Lucy rushed up, grabbed Dayana, glared at her, and wanted to tear her mouth apart. "What's the use of arguing with me? The culprit of all this isn't you, nor am I, it's Galilea! Do you understand?" Lucy suddenly loosened her grip, and her entire body stood there in a daze. In the end, she could only cover her face and cry.

11 was her fault, she was possessed...

Chapter 126 Gradually Dayana snorted and patted the wrinkles on her body. "If you dare to go out and talk nonsense, I'm not afraid of falling out with you. Anyway, I have the recording of our conversation here. At worst, we will die together." "You bitch, get out!" Looking at Lucy's flustered and exasperated look, Dayana turned her head disdainfully, opened the door and left. Lucy sat alone in the ward. She reached out her trembling hand and touched the bed in the ward. "Nore, Mom is sorry... As long as you can wake up, Mom can do anything. Whoever you like, you can be with her. Mom will never force you again. Please..." As soon as Dayana walked out of the ward, she saw Keith quickly approaching her. "Where is Micah?" she asked hurriedly. "Miss Quincy? Mr. Lorenzo is busy." Keith subconsciously looked at Nore's ward behind her. "What is he busy with? Speak clearly." Dayana could not stop him and could only follow him back to Nore's ward. When Lucy saw that Dayana had returned and even Micah's personal assistant had come, a bad idea suddenly came to her mind. "My son, is he..." She covered her mouth and her tears kept falling. "Mrs. Lu, Mr. Lubi has woken up. The doctor is checking on him upstairs. He will be sent back to the ward soon. Don't worry." Lucy's worried heart finally fell to the ground, and she felt dizzy. Keith and the nurse helped Lucy settle down. When he looked back, she saw that Dayana had already disappeared. His eyes darkened and he quickly walked out.

Dayana went around most of the hospital's inpatient department but could not find Micah and Galilea. She was almost sure that after the car accident, Micah must have been in this hospital and was with Galilea!

When she thought of this, Dayana gritted her teeth. "Those people are really stupid. They only made her suffer minor injuries." She looked around at the empty corridor in front of her and left the hospital in a sulk. Behind her, Keith took his phone and recorded what she had just said to herself. Then, he took the other evidence he had investigated and walked into Galilea's ward.

It was a suite. On the sofa outside the other suite, Micah was reviewing documents.

"Mr. Lorenzo, there's news." "Who?" the man asked coldly. "Miss Quincy" "At the time of the accident, Miss Quincy was not at the scene, but she bribed two staff members of the maintenance station and tampered with the car brake in advance. The two people originally wanted to go abroad, but were stopped at the airport by our people."

Chapter 127 Heartless Miss Frankie

If Micah wanted to pursue this matter, he could send Dayana to prison right now. It was intentional murder. No matter how many lawyers Quincy family hired, it would be useless.

Micah slowly closed his eyes. "This matter is temporarily suppressed." On the hospital bed in the suite, Galilea opened her eyes at some point. She wore an oxygen mask on her nose, but her ears could already clearly hear the sound.

Micah, you want to protect Dayana? Haven't you always hated evil? Just because it is Dayana, you are lenient again and again?

Good, you are cruel enough. In Galilea's opinion, he was no different from an accomplice. If not for Micah's favor, how could Dayana hurt her again and again? She was already injured all over, so she didn't mind getting hurt more. What about Nore? He was just an innocent person who was implicated, and now... The tears in the corners of Galilea's eyes fell again, and her fingers gripped the sheets tightly. That afternoon, Galilea recovered quite a bit of her strength. She sat on the hospital bed, took advantage of the short table, drank three bowls of porridge, and ate several buns. "Aren't you full?" Micah watched from the side. He also handed Galilea a few pieces of tissue, but he was ignored. "I was the one who brought you down from upstairs. I was the one who paid for this ward. Galilea, are you so heartless?" Micah asked coldly. He had also stayed in the hospital for a few days. Although he was not guarding Nore, he had also taken responsibility for this matter. How could she show such a cold face to him? "Then I have to thank Mr. Lorenzo for not letting me die in the corridor." Galilea suddenly smiled, but there was no smile in her eyes. "Do you have to be so sarcastic when you speak!" Micah rushed forward and grabbed her wrist. But the next second, his eyes met Galilea's cold and fearless eyes. There was nothing in them. Micah's heart skipped a beat. Something was touched.

She seemed to have experienced a life-and-death situation. Nore was unconscious. When there was a risk of amputation, she might still be like a person. She still had some thoughts in her heart. But now, her entire person seemed to have been emptied out. No matter how tightly Micah held her, it seemed like he could not grab the soul in her body.

His thin lips opened and closed. "You like him so much?" he whispered, word by word. He couldn't control the surging emotions in his heart. The strength in his hand was also out of control. Galilea's wrist was painfully gripped, but she gritted her teeth and replied word by word, "Yes, love him to death."

Galilea didn't remember how Micah left. She only knew that when she was thrown on the floor, every bone was hurting. He only said, "Even if Nore recovers, he will not want you." Galilea's fingers were on the floor as she slowly closed her eyes. She did not really like Nore, but Galilea could not forget his kindness. She also did not dare to forget. When she saw Nore again, it was three hours later.

Lubi family stared at Galilea as she walked in, as if they were going to stare a hole in her body. Nore leaned against the bed and stretched his hand towards Galilea. The first thing he said was, 'Are you alright?' Galilea smiled bitterly, the tears in her eyes falling down again. At this time, was he still thinking about her?

"Let's all go out and let them talk alone." Lucy stood up in a daze. For the first time, she did not blame Galilea. She staggered to the door and looked at her son, who was staring straight at Galilea. She sighed helplessly. The door closed

The entire ward was filled with the smell of disinfectant. It was very pungent.

Nore's face was still a little pale. The anesthetic had just passed and he felt that every inch of his bones was in pain. But when he saw that Galilea was safe and sound, he finally had a smile on his face. "You don't say that I'm stupid. I'm not stupid. If you gave me another ten thousand times, I would still do that. Nore's eyes were filled with determination that had never been seen before. "Galilea, do you remember that before the competition, I told you that we had to talk after the competition?" "What do you want to talk about?" Galilea asked.

Chapter 127 Heartless Miss Frankie Nore gulped. He gathered his courage and grabbed Galilea's hand. His fingers slowly tightened. "I won't get engaged to Xu Ya. I still want to pursue you. Even if you don't like me, it doesn't matter" he said

He seemed to have been saving up for a lifetime and kept talking.

This was the first time that Galilea did not interrupt him or avoid him. Instead, she stared straight at Nore's face. "Are you sure?" she asked,

Nore was stunned

"I am Micah's ex wife. If you are with me, everyone will laugh at you."

"You know that I don't care about this." Nore frowned.

"Then after you leave the hospital, let's go on a vacation together. Don't you want to go to see the sea?" Galilea asked.

After saying this, she got up and left. "You agree?" Nore sat on the hospital bed, and his smile gradually widened. His excited shouts came from the ward. Galilea slowly closed the door and found that everyone was watching her.

"Miss Frankie, Mr. Lubi and Mrs. Lubi want to talk to you alone." Sean stepped forward and said, "Okay."

Then, Galilea was taken to the next ward.

As soon as she entered, Lucy stared at her. "Don't even think about getting any benefits from our Lubi family. It was all your fault that my son became like this. No matter what you promise him, it is only right!"

Galilea agreed

She stood there quietly. "Alright, you clearly didn't think that way. Why are you throwing a tantrum at her? The results of the appraisal have already come out. It's normal for our son to be heavily injured. After all, he is the driver. He has the right to decide," Hanming said as he grabbed Lucy. "Then..." Lucy covered her face and cried, unable to say a word. Hanming was relatively calm. He hesitated for a long time before asking Galilea, "After the doctor's consultation, he said that Nore's nerves are seriously damaged. Perhaps, there is also the risk of amputation. Do you know?" "I heard from Director Lithis morning," Galilea nodded. Her voice was like a clear spring, without any excess emotions, making people feel at ease listening to it. "Then you are still willing... willing to accompany him?" Hanming cautiously used his words. Lucy also looked at Galilea, her eyes full of scrutiny, as if Galilea had said the wrong word, and she was about to rush up and tear Galilea to pieces "I said, no matter whether Nore needs someone to take care of him or not, I am willing to stay. Even if you two have a problem with me, I hope you can help me.”

Her life was already broken.

But Nore was different.

He originally had a bright future ahead of him, a marriage contract with a rich family’s daughter, but because of her, it was all ruined. What was the difference between her and Micah!?

“Good, good,” Hanming did not know how to thank Galilea. Compared to the Williams family who drew a clear line the moment something happened, Galilea’s promise was particularly weighty. “Miss Frankie, please take care of Nore.” Hanming only had one son at this old age. He solemnly held Galilea’s hand, Chapter 128 Can You Take Responsibility?

Galilea did not make a sound. She only left after hearing Hanming’s instructions. The door closed and Lucy sighed slowly. “Is Nore really happy that she did this? If he knew that Galilea only agreed because she thought he could be amputated. Lucy seemed to have aged several years She had seen what Galilea had done and how determined she was. She had to admit that she had been biased against Galilea because of the Frankie family. “Then don’t let him know!” Hanming said coldly, “It wasn’t easy for Nore to survive. As long as it was something he wanted, it had to stay with him in the future, he would have to compensate her with other things. The most important thing now is Nore’s life.” “Yes, we only have one son.” Lucy muttered. Even if the sky collapsed, nothing could happen to Nore!

At the same time, the reporters rushed over and blocked Micah in the hospital corridor. “Mr. Lorenzo, did your company investigate the accident that happened in Thunder Cup’s arena?” “I heard that it might be caused by someone. What do you think?” “I heard that your ex-wife, Miss Frankie, has a close relationship with Nore. It is possible that they will become boyfriend and girlfriend. They were in that car at that time. Was it a coincidence?” The spearhead was pointed at Micah.

“In addition, the Lorenzo group is Thunder Cup’s biggest investor in this competition. With such a scandal, your company has suffered a great loss. Will you continue to invest in racing competitions in the future?” Micah’s eyes turned cold. The ignorance of these reporters made him very unhappy. But just as he was about to speak, a voice suddenly came from behind the crowd, “Whether the two of them are together or not is their business. It has nothing to do with the Lorenzo group! Also, this is just an accident. If you want to interview, go and interview Galilea.” Dayana frowned and appeared behind the reporters. When the camera was aimed at her, she immediately said irritably, “We have nothing to say. In this kind of race, anything can happen. Now the results of the investigation have not come out yet. Who knows if it was the two of them who made a mistake!” This sentence removed the responsibility of Micah and the Lorenzo group. Galilea came out of the elevator with the nurse and clearly heard these words. She also saw Dayana standing side by side with Micah, refuting the reporters. Their standpoint and rhetoric were not a problem. But the matter has not been investigated clearly, so why are you in such a hurry to prove your innocence? Galilea held the medicine bottle in her hand, Micah, you are really getting worse and worse. Dayana saw that the reporters were shocked by her words and became more and more arrogant. She held Micah’s arm and said, “Micah has been in the hospital for several days out of a sense of duty. He did what he should do. If someone gossips behind the back again, it will be their problem.” Were these words directed at Lubi family and Galilea? Micah glanced at Dayana. These words were not what he wanted to say, However, the reporters were all holding up their cameras and snapping pictures. Just as he was about to stop Dayana, he caught a glimpse of Galilea’s back as she walked past. He vaguely felt her cold gaze. Micah’s heart sank. But beside him, Dayana held him tightly and whispered, “Micah, it’s not just me. Second Uncle is also here. Let’s go pick him up.” “Second Uncle?" The man suppressed the emotions in his eyes. He had clearly instructed not to alarm Huaien Lorenzo about this matter. Second Uncle had just returned to the country not long ago. He hoped that he could have a good rest. Unexpectedly, the news spread so fast. "Micah, the reporters are watching." Dayana reminded him in a low voice, but she did not forget to lean against him and pretend to be in love, Micah glanced at her and did not push her away in public. He strode to the first floor. In the ward, the nurse changed the medicine for Nore and told Galilea the precautions. "We have to change it at eleven o'clock at night. When the time comes, you can just press the nurse belt." Galilea nodded and noted it down one by one. In the past few days, she had already become familiar with making coincidences. On the other side, Lucy saw all of this, Other than Galilea's current debt and her previous failed marriage, even a picky person like Lucy had to admit that Galilea was a perfect choice for a daughter-in-law. "Mom, don't look at Galilea like that. She will be shy." Nore deliberately smiled and joked. He did not know what had happened, but after waking up, his mother and Galilea could actually coexist peacefully.

Chapter 128 Can You Take Responsibility? Moreover, his family had also cut off contact with the Williams family. The matter that he had been tangled up with for half a month had been resolved just like that

Other than the fact that his body still felt a little sore, Nore really felt that he was in heaven every day. "Do you want to eat apples?" Lucy smiled and changed the topic.

Galilea sent the nurse out and saw that the reporters were coming over. They were all holding microphones and looking imposing

Her eyes suddenly turned cold. Nore had just finished his first operation and his body had not fully recovered. He needed to rest.

But how could Micah have the nerve to send all the reporters here? "I'm going to deal with the reporters. Don't come out," said Galilea as she turned around Then, she closed the door Nore was a little worried and immediately asked Lucy to help him get out. "She told you not to go out. Your injuries have not healed yet!" Lucy pressed him down, not letting him move. "Mom, you don't know. Galilea has always hated dealing with reporters. At that time, when the Frankie family was in trouble, she couldn't even get peace in prison. Now she has to bear the pressure of public opinion for me. How can I let it happen?" Lucy slowly lost her strength while holding his hand. She did not know how to tell Nore that Galilea felt guilty more than she liked him. But what woman could be so calm as to throw the rest of her life into this... At this moment, Lucy completely acknowledged Galilea. "Nore, Mom will help you." Outside the door, Galilea held the door handle and refused to let the reporters pass. "Miss Frankie, we want to interview Mr. Lubi. Let us in!" "It's useless for you to interview me." Galilea looked over coldly, "City State TV Station, right? I know your Director Wang. Last year, she was in prison for corruption. She and I were prison friends."

The reporter instantly shut his mouth.

The others immediately aimed their microphones and cameras at Galilea. "Miss Frankie, can you talk about your current love life? Are you dating Mr. Lubi now?"

"That is my personal matter. I have the right to not answer." Galilea thought for a moment.

"Then you..." "Weren't you concerned about the accident? The statement from the racing association has not come out yet. We are also waiting for the news, but I can tell you clearly as one of the parties involved. We have completed the test for the car before the competition. There was no problem before the car got on the track Galilea asked. "Who touched the car after that is something to be investigated

Galilea said word by word, firmly circling the entire corridor. "Miss Frankie, you mean that this accident was man-made, right? Can you take responsibility for what you have said now?"

Chapter 129 There Was No Point in Apologizing

"Then do you have evidence? Miss Quincy said just now that it could be your own fault."

Galilea took a deep breath, and the coldness in her eyes became stronger and stronger. "Does Dayana know how to drive a race car? Do you believe her words just like that?"

The reporters stopped asking.

"Miss Frankie, the biggest investor of Thunder Cup's competition this time is the Lorenzo group. The scandal of a car accident will be a big blow to the Lorenzo group. What is your current mood?"

This question made Galilea want to hit someone.

"I am a victim. When we passed the first curve, we found that there was a problem with the brake."

Nore was pushed out by Lucy in a wheelchair. He took the initiative to block Galilea.

"If you have any other questions, come at me." Galilea's eyes flickered. "Nore..." His hand held onto Galilea's hand with a somewhat cold temperature, slowly tightening. Galilea lowered her head to look, but she did not struggle free. The eyes of the reporters lit up. As if they had caught a big piece of news, they immediately raised their microphones and pointed it at Nore. "Mr. Lubi, so are you officially dating? Was the rumor that you were going to be engaged to the daughter of the Williams Group fake?"

"What you see is what it is. We just want to wait for the results of the racing association. Please go back after taking the photos. After all, we are in the hospital. I don't want to affect the rest of the patients."

Nore smiled faintly. Since they had captured what they wanted to take, the reporters did not pursue them. Soon, the ward returned to peace. Nore was helped to the bed by Galilea and the nurse. Only then did he let go of Galilea. Nore was as happy as a young man who had just fallen in love. His eyes seemed to be glued to Galilea. Galilea frowned and muttered, "You haven't recovered yet. Why are you going out? What if..." "I'm worried about you." He did not hide his thoughts at all. Even in front of Lucy, his eyes did not hide at all. "The doctor asked me to go over just now. He said that the results of Nore's examination are out. I'll go over for a while." Lucy coughed. Not long after Lucy left, someone knocked on the door of the ward. Galilea thought that it was a reporter from a TV station who had returned.

"Brother Nore, I'm here to see you." Xu Ya appeared at the door with a fruit basket in her hand. She completely ignored Galilea and walked straight in.

Nore had also heard from Lucy and the others about what had happened during his operation these past few days, and his attitude towards Xu Ya immediately became even colder. Nore's voice became even colder. "I can't afford Miss Williams's generous treatment." Xu Ya's smile froze, and her lips twitched awkwardly. "Sister Galilea, I want to talk to Brother Nore alone. Can you..." "No," Nore said coldly, directly pulling Galilea to his side. "I can't leave her for even a second now." "Brother Nore, are you really going to do this to me? After the accident that day, I was worried about you and couldn't sleep. Uncle Lubi didn't let me see you, so I really had no choice." As she spoke, her tears dripped down. "If you want to cry, go out and cry." Nore was annoyed. "Brother Nore, I really miss you. I know that you must have misunderstood me. I... I will go back first. I won't disturb you. We will talk again when you are discharged from the hospital." As she said this, she walked out with a wronged expression. "If she goes out like this, she will definitely be blocked by reporters." Galilea frowned. "I don't care," Nore still did not let go of her hand. "I expected today during the competition that day. Before going on stage, Sonny and the others definitely had a good check. This kind of low-level mistake could not happen." Galilea was silent.

She had thought about this for a long time and had also called Sonny to verify it. Anything could happen on the field, but the brake not working was too rare. It was almost a one in a thousand chance that they happened to encounter it. "Although the racing association will investigate this matter, I don't think they can find out the truth. So, don't think it is your responsibility." Nore smiled at Galilea. He didn't want her to be burdened. Galilea's heart trembled. She looked down at the kettle. "There's no more hot water. I'll go get it." Nore watched her escape from the ward and sighed slowly. Galilea had just walked around the corner when she was stopped by Xu Ya, who was waiting there. "Get out of the way." Galilea was a little impatient.

Chapter 129 There Was No Point in Apologizing She did not have the time to play that childish fake crying game with Xu Ya. "I heard that you have been taking care of Brother Nore for the past few days? That's right, you caused him to be so miserable. Indeed, you should properly atone for your sins. But from tomorrow onwards, you do not need to appear again." Xu Ya said in a commanding tone. "This matter is between me and Nore. You can't make the decision." Galilea looked at her indifferently. As she spoke, she was about to go around Xu Ya.

"My parents were too anxious that day, so they said something about annulling the engagement. But today, I came here to tell Auntie Lubi that I want to continue dating Brother Nore, so..." "Miss Williams, what right do you have to stand here and order me? When Nore needed someone to support him the most, where were you?" Galilea asked coldly. If Xu Ya really liked Nore, Galilea would not say another word. She would definitely keep a distance from Nore. But the truth was that their family only treated Nore as a chess piece. Xu Ya's expression froze. "Then it's not your turn to be a hero here. If you weren't in the car, would something have happened to Nore?" Xu Ya shouted. Seeing that Galilea's expression had changed, she knew that she had poked her mind and became even more proud. "Lubi family didn't pursue your responsibility, so you should be secretly happy. Moreover, you keep walking around in front of Brother Nore every day. Do you really want to kill him?"

"Miss Williams, you have to give evidence when you speak." Lucy took the report from the doctor's office and heard their conversation.

She went straight to Galilea. When she looked at Xu Ya, she did not have any emotion. "I already know the way of your family. Miss Williams, please go back. My son is not worthy of you." "Aunt Lubi!" Xu Ya panicked and apologized, "My dad was also anxious that day, so he said that. Don't take it to heart." Lucy sneered, "Heh... When my son was at his most difficult time, Galilea was the only one standing by his side. Now that he woke up, you ran over to apologize. Do you think that we are so easy to deceive?" "I... Aunt Lubi, you misunderstood me!" Xu Ya tugged at her skirt in panic, not knowing how to explain it. She thought that as long as she turned around, the Lubi family would welcome her with a smile, but she did not expect...

Chapter 130 Feelings Could Develop "From now on, the two of us better not interact with each other anymore." Lucy said solemnly. After that, she pulled Galilea towards Nore's ward.

Galilea was stunned for a moment. When she finally reacted, she saw that the corners of Lucy's eyes were red.

"Auntie, do you want tissue?" she asked hesitantly Lucy was stunned. She looked at Galilea and sighed heavily, "Why didn't you retort when she said that to you just now? We all saw how much you have done for Nore during this period of time. Silly child!" Hearing this, Galilea smiled and handed the tissue to Lucy. "It's meaningless to talk to her." She only wanted to spend her time on people who were worth her effort.

Those criticisms and accusations were not worth mentioning. She looked at Lucy's hand and asked, "What is the result of the examination?"

Galilea did not say the second half of the sentence. She knew that Lucy had always been concerned about the treatment plan for amputation surgery. "No, it won't happen! The doctor said that Nore has recovered well these two days. He won't be amputated. The previous treatment plan has been canceled. Although there are still two more operations, the success rate of the operation is very high. He only needs to slowly recover..."

Bang A loud sound came from the ward. Galilea reacted immediately and rushed in.

Nore fell to the ground in a sorry state. His hands were full of broken glass pieces. He looked at Galilea in a daze. "What were you talking about with my mother just now? What amputation surgery?" he asked.

"You are injured. Auntie, call the nurse over." Galilea frowned and grabbed his hand.

"Okay, okay, okay. I'll go now." Lucy hurriedly ran out. "You still haven't told me who is going to undergo amputation surgery!" Nore asked, as if he had no consciousness.

Everyone had kept this matter a secret from him.

When he was drinking water just now, he heard the sound of the door and panicked for a moment. That was why he fell down.

Galilea gritted her teeth. She knew she couldn't hide it anymore.

"Nore, that was just a treatment plan given by the doctor. Now that it has been overturned, you don't have to worry. You will definitely be able to race in the future." Galilea didn't know how to encourage him.

The words that came out of her mouth were so pale and powerless. She lowered her head and took off a large piece of glass with her hand. She blew gently, wanting to make him feel more comfortable.

But...

The next second, Nore grabbed her shoulder with his other hand. "So, you think I can't drive anymore, and I can't walk anymore. You feel guilty, so you agreed to date me?"

!

"I'm really stupid. I've been chasing you for so many years, and I know you the best. Right, how could you agree to date me? Why would I ever believe you?" "Nore."

Galilea held his wrist and looked up at him.

The two of them looked at each other and no one spoke again.

There were too many words in Galilea's throat. She did not know how to express her feelings. Perhaps, she did feel guilty.

"If you were me and saw a person willing to risk her life for you, you would also make the same choice as me. I am an adult. I know what I am doing." Galilea no longer struggled in her heart. She slowly moved the corners of her lips and said seriously. Hearing the sound of the door opening behind her, Galilea let go of Nore's hand and quietly withdrew. She already had a failed marriage, and it was impossible for her to throw herself into the fire like a moth. Whether it was family conditions or him, Nore was a good man. Perhaps the heavens had let them experience this life and death together, which was to let Galilea understand that she was not qualified to disappoint him again. Watching her go out, Nore's eyes slowly dimmed. When the curse finished bandaging him, Lucy looked outside. "Why has Galilea been gone for so long? I'll call her." "Morn. Don't let her come again. I don't want to see her," Nore stopped her. "Did you quarrel just now? Mom Told you that Galilea is a good child. Mom has been reflecting on herself recently. If you two get along well, your dad and I will not object." "NO

Nore felt very confused and did not know what to say

Chapter 130 Feelings Could Develop Lucy looked at him and fixed his eyes on the examination report.

"Feelings can be cultivated. You have a long way to go." "I don't want her to be with me because she pitied me.” Nore lowered his head, his hair covering his eyes, and his tone filled with endless frustration. Originally, Galilea only wanted to go out to get some fresh air and clear his mood before he could have a good talk with Nore. However, after she received a call from Sonny, she hurriedly ran out of the hospital. She called a car and headed straight for the Lorenzo group. She wanted to personally ask Micah why he wanted to influence the investigation results of the racing association!

He actually publicly admitted that it was a pure accident?

After she rushed into the Lorenzo group, she was quickly stopped by the security guards and the staff at the front desk.

“Miss Frankie, you don’t have an appointment. You can’t see Mr. Lorenzo.” “Get out of the way!” “If you don’t let me in today, you’ll regret it.” Galilea gritted her teeth. “Miss Frankie, please don’t make things difficult for us.” “Galilea?” Someone walked over from behind and recognized Galilea. He was wearing a neat handmade suit with a kind smile on his face. His round eyes were bright and spirited, and he did not look like someone in his fifties at all.

It was Huaien, Micah’s second uncle, also the current vice president of the Lorenzo group. Although he was called a vice president, in fact, he had no real power. He was transferred back to Cloud Town last month. Galilea had an impression of this person. It was also because he was one of Micah’s few relatives. Moreover, his relationship with Micah was quite good. When they had their wedding, Huaien was also present.

It was also at that time that they met. When Huaien saw Galilea turn around, his smile deepened. “It really is you. I told you, I am not old and dizzy.” Then, he frowned and looked at the security guards holding Galilea’s hand. “Let go!” “But Vice President, Miss Frankie doesn’t have an appointment. We can’t let her in,” The staff explained awkwardly. “The person she wants to see is me. I made an appointment with her. Okay, okay, go and do your work.” He waved his hand and gave Galilea a look. He took her into the elevator. “Why are you helping me?” Galilea could not understand. Huaien smiled. “No matter why you and Micah are separated, you were once my niece-in-law. You children just don’t know how to cherish a relationship. You have to wait until you regret it in the future. Sigh...”