

Chapter 131 Men Were the Same

Galilea never thought that she would meet Huairen here. Listening to his words, it was as if she had been pulled back to more than a year ago "Thank you for bringing me up," she said in a low voice. "But, everything in the past is already in the past." Huairen sighed, "You children..." The elevator door opened, and Galilea rushed out first. Her hatred for Lorenzo family would not end with Huairen's help. Keith had already received the news and stopped her outside the office in advance. "Miss Frankie, Mr. Lorenzo is currently receiving guests. Please come with me to the lounge first." His words were considered polite. There were many employees around the Lorenzo group who were gathered together to watch the show "If you feel bored, you can go to my office to have a cup of tea." Huairen stood behind Galilea and said kindly "The Lorenzo group's employees gathered together and said, "Why is Vice President so good to Galilea? Is it because Mr. Lorenzo and Galilea are going to rekindle their old relationship?" "I saw that many reporters wrote that. Some time ago, Mr. Lorenzo was on the street with her..." Galilea heard these words and her face turned cold. "Keith, get out of the way. I don't want to make a scene. It will be ugly" Galilea did not give him any face at all. "Mr. Lorenzo is really entertaining guests. It's useless for you to go in now." Keith still refused to budge, "Alright, I'll go with you to the lounge. Lead the way." As Galilea said this, she quickly turned and barged into Micah's office just as Keith was about to head to the lounge. He was really attending a meeting. But this guest was actually Lachlan and his wife.

Galilea's appearance interrupted their conversation, but she ignored Lachlan's scolding and quietly stared at the man behind the desk. There were too many things in her eyes. At the moment when their eyes met, something grew in Micah's heart. There was a flash of hesitation in his eyes, but his face was still cold. "Keith, what's going on?" "I'm sorry, Mr. Lorenzo." Keith immediately stepped forward. This time, he was not the only one who stopped Galilea. Instead, he used the Lorenzo group's bodyguards. She was a woman and could not break free from the three men, so she was pulled away. Lachlan was very satisfied with Micah's actions. He smiled and said, "That's right. Some women are just pestering. I really don't know how Onyx taught his daughter in the past. What a disgrace." Wendy lowered her head, not saying a word. Hearing this, Micah coldly curled his lips, "What did President Quincy say just now?". Even now, he still called Lachlan this way, and his attitude did not change at all. No matter how angry Lachlan was in his heart, he had to endure because of the Lorenzo group's strength. "Just now, I said that you and Dayana should have another wedding. Even if you don't do it, you should take her to your place to live!" As he spoke, he even touched Wendy. She immediately understood and said with a smile, "Yes, Dayana's body now needs someone to take care of her. Sometimes, it is not good for us as parents to intervene. You and your wife should also nurture your feelings." "Didn't President Quincy say that he wanted to talk about business before he came? Is this what you meant by business?" Micah asked unhappily. He hated it when others took up his work time.

Now he knew why Dayana always lied and played tricks. "This is business. Only when Dayana is in a good mood and your relationship is better can the cooperation between our two companies last longer!" Micah's eyes were cold. He pinched the pen in his hand and suddenly let go. "Okay, I will think about it. Please go back." "What are you thinking about? Tell me the address. I will send her over later." At that moment, Lachlan's face was full of calculations and false smiles. Was he trying to sell his daughter? "I'll contact you after I've thought it through. I still have a guest. I'll be leaving first," Micah said as he slowly got up. "You're leaving just like that? Are you going to see that woman?" Lachlan shouted from behind him. If not for Wendy holding him back, he might have chased him out to argue with Micah. He actually ignored his suggestion and went to see Galilea? Lachlan felt that he had been slapped in the face and angrily left the Lorenzo group. However, Wendy had always been restless. Just now, she and Galilea looked at each other and her heart sunk

Chapter 131 Men Were the Same What to do...

In the lounge, Galilea was not in the mood to drink coffee.

As soon as the door opened, she stood up and stared at the other person. There is something wrong with the judgment of the Racing Association. The situation at that time could not have been an accident. It must have been man-made."

"Where is the evidence?" Micah said lightly. Then, he sat down in front of her. His slender legs were folded, and a cold light flashed in his deep eyes. "You can believe Nore's judgment unconditionally, but I can't. Neither can the Racing Association."

At that time, only Galilea and Nore were in the car. Nore's feelings were the standard of Galilea's judgment. Her beautiful brows slowly furrowed, and she said coldly, "Nore is so badly injured. Will he make up such a lie to cause this accident?" Micah suddenly smiled. His smile was contemptuous and cold. "He got you through this accident."

"You..."

Galilea clenched her fists and retorted, "Don't think everyone is as despicable as you are."

"Despicable?" Micah sneered and slowly walked towards her. He grabbed Galilea by the shoulder and pulled her toward him. His voice was like a whisper, but it was full of deterrence. "These days, aren't you guarding him day and night? This is what he wants. Men are the same. What he wants is your body."

Galilea was angry and raised her hand to hit him.

However, as soon as her wrist was raised in the air, she was grabbed by Micah.

He stared into her eyes. The rage that was spreading wildly in his heart was mixed with emotions that he should not have.

When he spoke again, the man's voice was particularly deep.

"As an investor, I can let the racing association restart the investigation. The condition is that you have to accompany me for a night."

"Are you crazy?" Galilea widened her eyes. She struggled with all her might, but she could not escape his embrace. "Heh..." He leaned down and blocked all the light on Galilea's head. He gritted his teeth and said, "What, are you afraid? I didn't say I was going to do you." Galilea's throat seemed to be strangled by someone. Her dignity and pride were all stepped on by this man. "Galilea, you took the initiative to deliver yourself to me. Besides your body, do you have any bargaining chips to negotiate with me?" He flung her away and frowned when he saw Galilea crash into the coffee table.

To negotiate terms with him for Nore? Micah's eyes darkened. It was because he was too tolerant that she had so much courage!

He felt the anger in his heart burn more and more.

In the next second, he paused because of Galilea's words.

Chapter 132 Make Him Satisfied

Micah's expression suddenly turned fierce. He turned around and stared at Galilea's fair face. "What did you say?" "Mr. Lorenzo's ears are not good. I said, I agreed. You can do whatever you want. As long as you let the racing association redo the evaluation." Galilea said this with all her courage.

She was betting

She was betting on the chance for Nore to make a comeback. In any case, everything that was supposed to happen between them had already happened. No matter how perverted Micah was, Galilea could still grit her teeth and endure it. It was only one night. Her hands were behind her back, tightly clenched. Otherwise, she would tremble beyond words. As soon as she finished speaking, Micah quickly walked back and approached Galilea in a few steps. Her teeth pressed against her lips, trying not to show any fear. "Mr. Lorenzo, can you do it tonight?" "Okay, tonight."

The man only left this sentence before turning to leave. As soon as the door closed, all the strength on Galilea's legs dissipated. She took a deep breath in confusion. "He won't. No matter what, he won't..." Deep in her heart, there was a panic that could not be concealed. She did not know how Micah would treat her.

She could only pray in this way. Other than her, no one else could change the current outcome and give Nore justice. Galilea lowered her eyes. This was the only thing she could do.

A few minutes later, Keith knocked on the door. "Miss Frankie, Mr. Lorenzo's car is waiting for you downstairs." "Alright"

She braced herself and walked into the elevator,

There was no sign of Micah in the car. Galilea did not ask much and sat in. She adjusted her phone to silent mode in advance, her fingers clenched back and forth. Keith opened the door and told the driver, "Go to Crown Hotel." But he did not get in the car, and then closed the door. Galilea frowned and the car slowly drove out of the parking lot. Micah, you are really not satisfied. Crown Hotel was a star hotel with rapid development in recent years. The VIP cards of this hotel were only handed to top celebrities of Cloud Town

Galilea was left at the door by the driver, and a manager came over. "Miss Frankie, right? Please come with me." Galilea stepped into this luxurious place step by step. With every step she took, it was like she was walking towards hell. The manager took her upstairs and came to the door of a suite. "Please come in." Galilea could not tell the meaning of the smile in the other person's eyes. She slowly reached out and opened the door.

This was not just a suite, there was also a place to drink and sing. It was not just Micah inside, there were also many of his friends and business partners He was socializing? Galilea suddenly appeared, and everyone inside was looking at her. "Isn't this Miss Frankie? You actually chased our Young Master Lorenzo here?" Davis mocked. In their eyes, Galilea was the kind of woman who took the initiative to come to their door and kept pestering Micah, Galilea followed the light inside and looked over. Micah was sitting alone on the innermost sofa, holding a glass of wine in his hand, like a king who ruled over everything. In front of him, Galilea was not qualified to bargain. She took a deep breath and walked bravely She ignored Davis' ridicule and stood in front of Micah. Pa!

"Oh, my hand slipped. Miss Frankie, sorry to trouble you." Davis said as he dropped the cup in his hand Galilea had a look of forbearance on her face as she raised her eyes to look at Micah With just a glance, Galilea understood She was as obedient as a trained servant Without tools, she could only pick them up one by one with her hands and tissues. On the sofa, there was a mocking and taunting voice "Tsk, isk The young miss who lived in prison is really different. She works really well." 'Mr. Lorenzo is too attractive. She has already been divorced but she still tries to kiss his ass'

Chapter 132 Make Him Satisfied Kiss his ass?

Galilea lowered her eyes and still did not refute.

She packed up the glass fragments and stood next to Micah.

He glanced at Galilea's neither servile nor overbearing attitude and felt bored. He raised his hand and drank up the wine in his glass. Galilea moved over and wanted to fill his up with wine. She needed Micah to be in a good mood. If he was in a good mood, there would be hope for the investigation to restart. Unexpectedly, before her hand touched the cup, it was blocked by Davis.

"This is not your turn to do this." He whistled towards the door.

A dozen young, beautiful, and voluptuous beauties immediately walked in. They entered their embrace with smiles on their faces.

The men's laughter also became even louder. There were also people who pushed Galilea to the side in order to get close to Micah. "Mr. Lorenzo, let me toast to you." The beautiful woman did not dare to call Micah brother directly. She smiled sweetly and used her red lips to hold the wine in her mouth as she leaned closer to Micah. Was this how they talk business?

Galilea retracted her gaze and turned her head away. Her movements of hiding fell into Micah's eyes. He got rid of the woman beside him with a cold face and ordered Galilea, "Come here." Galilea felt the jealousy and hatred in the eyes of the two beauties. She sighed helplessly and walked over. "Mr. Lorenzo, do you want to drink?" He narrowed his eyes and raised his wrist. "Do the same."

Galilea looked over and saw the scene...

"Sorry, Mr. Lorenzo. I only know how to pour wine." She forced herself to smile.

The next second, the wine glass in Micah's hand was thrown out and smashed into the opposite wall.

Fragments of the glass scattered all over the ground

"Tomorrow, the news of Thunder Cup's accident will be announced. You still have seven hours." He glanced at his watch and his tone was cold to the extreme.

If he was not satisfied, the racing association would announce the unjust investigation result to everyone.

If Black Horse's team wanted to turn the tables, it would be difficult.

Moreover, they would also let the real culprit get away. Galilea gritted her teeth. She had been forced into a desperate situation... Micah tightened his fingers and slowly clenched his fists. It seemed that she did not like Nore very much. He actually felt a little more joy in his heart.

However, Galilea suddenly picked up the wine glass and took a sip.

Then, she walked towards him.

There was no hesitation on her fair face. She slowly approached him, her arm propped up on the sofa, and slowly pressed her lips against his cold and thin lips

A trace of red wine flowed down the corner of her lips and entered his lips. Such a charming scene was seen by everyone. Davis sneered, The dignified daughter of the Frankie family is bowing her head in front of Young Master Lorenzo! "Let's go first. Young Master Lorenzo's expression is not right." Novah stopped him at the right time.

"Go?"

Davis did not react.

On the other side, Micah quickly pushed Galilea away, picked her up, and entered the room inside.

Galilea only felt that the sky and earth were turned upside down. She lay on the soft bed, and the next second, Micah pulled off his tie and got on top of her

His eyes seemed to be burning with flames

"For him, you can have no shame."

His hand gripped her chin tightly, and the pain surged. Galilea had no choice but to grab his wrist with both hands. "You asked me to..." Before she could finish her sentence, he had already kissed her lips

Galilea struggled, but he was too forceful

"You do whatever I tell you to do? Why are you so cheap after divorcing me?"

Chapter 133 Who Told You to Touch Her?

Galilea's tears rolled down the corners of her eyes. She was still stubborn and refused to lower her head. Even though the pain on her lips had not dissipated, she slowly moved the corners of her lips and smiled contemptuously. "Doesn't Mr. Lorenzo like people who are so submissive? You told me that all men are the same."

Micah trembled all over and looked at her eyes again, leaving only emptiness. Before she came, she had already thought of everything. She did this only for the career of that man? Micah could no longer control his anger. He leaned over and bit her neck like a beast. The room was filled with the faint smell of alcohol. Their breaths were also getting more and more rapid. Run? After this word appeared in Galilea's mind, she knew it was impossible. She would remember everything that happened tonight. She knew that she could not avoid it. Threatening was always Micah's best move. But sooner or later, she would make his dignity trampled on the ground. She thought that Micah would not let her go, but he still stopped after venting his anger. There was still surging anger in his eyes. He looked at the mark on Galilea's neck and frowned. Galilea could not see his thoughts. She only felt that she was almost suffocated by the pressure. She coughed a few times and provoked, "Mr. Lorenzo can't get it up tonight?" "Get lost!"

The man waved his hand and pushed Galilea to the side. She barely managed to stand firm, and the clothes on her body were torn. Galilea pulled back her hair and slowly tidied up her clothes. "It seems so. I have already done what you wanted me to do. If you don't fulfill your promise, I will definitely expose everything and make you lose face." For Nore, she did not hesitate to sacrifice her own reputation and... The footsteps gradually faded, and Micah punched the wall. Compared to the anger in his heart, he was even more annoyed that it was Galilea who made him care so much. Outside the window was big fireworks show that was going on in Crown Hotel. The rising flames were colorful in the air. Galilea took the elevator and could see the whole scene. The moment the fireworks bloomed above her head, all her disguises were shattered. She slowly squatted down, covering her face and crying. However, as she cried and cried, there was only hatred left in her heart. Micah had ruined her family, and he also wanted to completely destroy her. He clearly knew what she cared about the most. Galilea lowered her head, her eyes full of exhaustion. When the elevator door opened, she only wanted to escape as soon as possible, but before she could take a step, she was hit by someone. "What are you doing!" Novah rushed over in time and grabbed Davis. He looked at the unconscious Galilea on the ground and frowned. "Young Master Lorenzo will be angry if he knows." "How is that possible? I am helping him ease his relationship with Dayana. If Dayana knows what happened between him and Galilea in the hotel, he will definitely make a big fuss." With a look from Davis, one of his subordinates immediately stepped forward and carried Galilea. "Since Young Master Lorenzo chased her out, it means that he doesn't care about the innocence and life of this woman. Send her to the room upstairs," Davis guessed. Seeing that Galilea was taken away, Novah pulled Davis and said, "Don't talk too much. Last time, because of your uncle's car accident, Young Master Lorenzo spent a lot of effort...". "Enough, don't dawdle. I am his brother, not a dog by his side!". Davis shouted and walked out. He wanted to find a few people to serve this Miss Frankie. So what if Micah knew? Would he break off all ties with him because of Galilea? The more Novah thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong. He still took out his phone and called Micah. Otherwise, something would definitely happen tonight.

Two hours later.

In the Crown Hotel room, Galilea felt very hot. She struggled to open her eyes and saw that she was lying in an unfamiliar room. And it seemed that she had not left the hotel yet. She tried hard to recall that when she came out of the elevator, she was knocked unconscious. Galilea suddenly opened her eyes, The clothes she was wearing were still the same? Har worried heart fall to the round Chapter 133 Who Told You to Touch Her? Hearing footsteps outside the door, Galilea had nowhere to hide and could only lie back down to pretend to sleep.

Who was it?

“Who told you to touch her?” Micah’s voice came through. Galilea gritted her teeth. He had already let her go, yet he was still playing dirty behind her back? Micah, are you interesting?

Then, there was a mess of voices.

Galilea could not tell.

The next second, someone shouted, “Isn’t she just a broken shoe that you threw away? Do you have to do that? If you can play with her, my brothers...”

Bang.

Micah attacked again. He grabbed Davis by the collar and picked him up to beat him up. One punch after another, not simply venting. “I am the only one who can touch her. From tomorrow onwards, do not appear in front of me.” He was filled with hatred. By the time Novah arrived, Davis had already lost a few teeth. His face and body were also covered with scars. He hugged his ribs and cried out in pain.

“Young Master Lorenzo, isn’t this too much? He isn’t...” “Get lost.” Micah spat out this word and directly entered the room. “I’ll take you to the hospital,” Novah sighed as he watched Davis get beaten up. At the very least, Micah had arrived in time, and Davis had not been beaten up. Otherwise, he might have really lost his life. Davis was lifted up by someone, and he no longer had the strength to walk out. He could only mutter, “He clearly hates Galilea so much. Why, why can’t he allow others to...” “All these years, you still don’t understand Young Master Lorenzo? If he really wanted to make a move, Galilea would disappear from Cloud Town tomorrow. He just doesn’t dare to admit his feelings for her.” Novah sighed, “Go back and take good care of yourself. I will plead for you again. I am also responsible for this matter.” Davis’ head drooped down and he fell silent. There was no light in the room. Galilea felt someone coming in, but she knew that this was not the best time to open her eyes.

Why was Micah so angry? She could not figure it out and could only wait. Listening to the footsteps getting closer and closer, she was thinking of a way to deal with it. But he did not get too close, nor did he touch her. For the first time, they stayed quietly on a bed. Micah sat and she lay down. Only when he sighed in the air did Galilea know that he had not left yet. He slowly raised his hand and gently stroked the right side of her neck. That was the mark he had left just now. The man’s eyes darkened and a layer of heartache gradually appeared in his eyes. His movements were gentle like never before. Galilea was shocked.

She held her breath and continued to pretend to be asleep. “If you can...” Before he could finish his sentence, his phone rang. He glanced at the phone screen, got up, and walked out. The door closed again, and Galilea slowly opened her eyes. She was sure that the person just now was Micah, but how could Micah be so gentle to her?

Chapter 134 Scared

Galilea stayed in the room for a while, and it was almost dawn. Micah should not come back Galilea breathed a sigh of relief and immediately got out of bed and walked out. As soon as the door opened, she saw Micah’s bodyguard standing outside. “Miss Frankie, the car is downstairs. Shall I send you back now?” The bodyguard asked.

Galilea was stunned. She thought that they were watching her and would not let her go. She nodded. The two bodyguards, one in front and one behind, sent her to the car.

The car was still Micah's car. Galilea furrowed her thin eyebrows. How could he be so kind? The conversation she had just heard surfaced in her mind again. So, the person who had knocked her out was not Micah. On the contrary, it was Micah who had saved her. Galilea glanced at the scenery outside the window. No matter how she thought about it, it felt like a dream.

She didn't go to the hospital directly. Instead, she went home to change her clothes and put on a turtleneck sweater to cover the traces left by: Micah last night.

Then, she went to buy breakfast nearby and took her to the hospital. Today, Nore had a few checkups to do. She thought about it and quickened her pace. As soon as she reached the door of the ward, she saw Xu Ya and her family sitting inside.

"Brother Nore, this is the chicken soup I made with my own hands and some snacks. They are all very light. Try them." Xu Ya smiled warmly.

"No need." Nore frowned,

"But I made them for you early in the morning." Xu Ya said awkwardly.

Nore looked completely ungrateful. Xu Ya had to take the bowl back first. She looked up and saw Galilea standing at the door. She turned her eyes. "Sister Galilea, you are here." Everyone turned to look at Galilea,

Only then did Galilea press the door handle and walk in. The breakfast she bought was placed together with the exquisite breakfast Xu Ya brought. It really looked very unpresentable. But Nore said directly,

"Galilea, I want to eat." He had just rejected Xu Ya. This sentence really made the Williams family embarrassed. Xu Ya's parents immediately left with cold faces, leaving only Xu Ya sitting there. "I'll hold it. Galilea, you sit there and rest." Lucy walked over and said softly. She blamed herself a little. Xu Ya had always tried to get rid of Galilea. It was her fault that she liked Xu Ya in the past. "Yes, Sister Galilea needs to take a rest. She must be very tired after playing at the Crown Hotel until midnight last night!" Xu Ya looked innocent, but she directly took out the photos that she had prepared, "Yesterday, my dad went there to talk about business. He just happened to see Sister Galilea with several men. She seems to be the young master of the Bai Family, right?" "I didn't expect Sister Galilea to be so open." "Does it have anything to do with you?" Galilea gritted her teeth.

Xu Ya looked surprised. How could she still be so confident? "I'm just concerned about you. I know Auntie Lubi doesn't like girls who play around. It wouldn't be good if you drink with four or five men all night."

"Alright, your parents have already left. You don't have to stay here." Lucy couldn't take it anymore and shouted. On the other side, Nore's face was also very gloomy. Seeing that her words had worked, Xu Ya stood up happily, "Aunt Lubi is right. Then I will go first. I will come to see Brother Nore next time."

When she went out, she gave Galilea a special look, and the sneer on her face was particularly dazzling.

The door closed again, and the ward was silent. "Galilea, what she said just now, is it true?" Lucy hesitated. "Yes," she said. She didn't want to lie. You How could you! Sigh, even if you are bored in the hospital, you can't go to that kind of place!" Lucy was a little anxious. Lubilamily's recent business development was not good. In addition, Nore was injured. The couple was very tired. How could Galilea do this at this moment, Galilea twisted her fingertips, not knowing what to say. Nore, who was lying on the bed, suddenly sat up and said gently, "Mom, I asked Galilea to see my friend." Galilea suddenly looked up. Nore just ate the breakfast she bought indifferently as if he was talking about an extremely ordinary thing.

"Really?" Lucy looked around them

Chapter 134 Scared "Xu Ya wanted to make a big deal out of it. You don't have to take it to hear Nore said as he took another bite of the side dishes

Since his own son had said so, Lucy naturally had no reason not to believe it

"I knew it Galilea is so obedient. It's impossible for her to be like that come, you two eat together I'll go out for a while

She wanted to leave the two of them some space to be alone

Just as they were about to leave the house, Lucy looked at Galilea's figure and walked out while thinking of something

"Nore, last night. Galilea sighed,

"You don't have to explain to me. I know very well what kind of person you are" Nore swallowed the last mouthful of porridge and looked up again, his eyes clean

That kind of sincere gaze touched Galilea's heart,

"Because of me, right? I talked to Sonny in the morning. He said that the racing association delayed the date of the public investigation report Galilea, don't carry it alone" Nore took out his phone He couldn't bear to see her being manipulated for his sake,

"I just want to do my best. It's good that he kept his words"

This "he" was even more uncomfortable than what Xu Ya had just said,

Nore put down his bowl and chopsticks and slowly and carefully held Galilea's hand. "If, if the doctor didn't say I might be amputated you

His words were choked with emotion,

"Would you still agree to date me?"

He stared at Galilea in a daze, his eyes overflowing with affection,

Meeting his gaze, Galilea finally nodded slowly

Without waiting for Nore to speak again, the nurse pushed the medicine cart in and said, "Bed 3, the medicine has been changed. Also, the doctor just finished the consultation and will have a second operation in the afternoon. Before the operation, water and food are banned

Only then did Nore let go of Galilea's hand,

The nurse looked at the ambiguous atmosphere between the two of them and said enviously, "If the operation is successful, he should be discharged soon."

Galilea heaved a sigh of relief. The two of them looked at each other and smiled.

Everything would be fine.

At noon that day, something big happened to the Lorenzo group. The president's office announced unilaterally, "End all business cooperation with Wu Family and fire Davis" After hearing this news, the person who was the most shocked was not Davis, but the vice president, Terry He was working indoors in his office. When he heard the secretary's report, he slammed the glass cabinet door

"What?"

He pulled his tie and sneered, "Mr. Lorenzo is getting out of control now."

First, he sold the goods in the warehouse, which caused Terry to lose a lot,

Now, he cut off all ties with the Wu family,

Then how could he embezzle the company's money in the future? Terry cursed and smashed the coffee table with the cue. At the door, Hualen happened to pass by and looked at the man who was smashing things in the office to vent his anger and turned to leave

Chapter 135 Completely Different

Then the Lorenzo group held a board meeting. Not only was Terry late, but he also gave a look to the familiar board members. The other party immediately suggested, "Mr. Lorenzo, now that Thunder Cup's accident competition has become so big, the racing association has not given a statement. I think it's time to take back the company's investment."

Since it was related to money, people naturally echoed, "Yes, now the outside world is waiting to see us make a fool of ourselves. I think it's better to withdraw the investment as soon as possible."

Micah sat in the president's seat and casually said, "The funds have already been transferred. We signed the contract in advance. How can we go back on our words at this moment?"

There was no way back.

"Then we don't need to pay for Nore's medical expenses, do we? I passed by the department in the morning. They..."

Before he finished speaking, Micah had already cast a glance at him. The director immediately shut his mouth in fear. Terry frowned and pretended not to know. "Mr. Lorenzo, Director Li's words are also reasonable. No one can say for sure what happened at the racing field. Since the company's investment has been in place, there is no need to take responsibility that should not be taken. Otherwise, people will spread rumors and say that Mr. Lorenzo is using public power for private interests." "What do you mean?" Micah's face sank.

"Of course, we all believe in your character. But there will always be villains who will have evil thoughts behind your back. Now, isn't your ex-wife Galilea Nore's girlfriend? I think it is better to avoid suspicion at this time." "Yes, Vice President Xiao is right, and Lubi family doesn't lack this bit of money!" Micah's eyes turned cold, and he slammed the folder on the table. "This matter has been discussed during the last meeting. You are just wasting everyone's time now." Terry curled his lips, and his smile deepened. "Mr. Lorenzo means that we should consider the company, right?" Soon, the meeting room was in an uproar.

Huaien originally did not attend the meeting, but when he received a report from his secretary, he had no choice but to step forward and be a peacemaker.

"Our company is also responsible for this matter. A portion of the medical expenses is nothing to the Lorenzo group." Huaien pressed down on the Lorenzo group's shoulder. "Moreover, be generous and there will always be returns."

Micah and Huaien's shares combined were enough to dominate the entire Lorenzo group. Terry could only swallow this anger. In the end, he left in anger. The few directors also knew how to judge the situation and did not say anything more. Huaien coughed a few times. "Alright, you guys continue with the meeting. I'll go see Vice President Xiao. As a young man, it's normal to have different opinions. Everyone is doing this for the development of the company." With these few words from Huaien, the tense atmosphere in the conference room clearly eased a lot. Before he walked out of the conference room, he whispered to Micah, "You have to restrain your temper too. I'll go take a look at Terry. You don't have to worry." Micah nodded and did not say much.

The meeting continued. After it was over, Keith came over with his phone. "Mr. Lorenzo, the racing association hopes that you will go over."

"Let's go."

The man got up and left the meeting room. Then the directors all breathed a sigh of relief.

"Vice President should come back. Young people nowadays are not afraid of anything." "In the future, remember to send someone to inform Vice President to attend this kind of board meeting. With him here, the tension between Mr. Lorenzo and Vice President Xiao will not be so heavy." The directors thought about who they should side with in the future and walked out of the company in two or three. When Micah received the notice from the Racing Association, Galilea also received a call from the association president. He Pingru. After discussing with Nore, she insisted on going alone.

"You will have surgery later You should not leave the hospital at this time. If there is any problem, uncle and aunt will worry." Galilea knew the pain of worrying about her loved ones. She didn't want to see Nore repeat her mistakes.

But I'm worried There must be an investigation result from the Racing Association. They probably want the two sides to compromise privately." No matter how he thought about it, he felt that if Galilea went over, she would suffer a loss. Seeing that he was worried about her, Galilea smiled and said, "It's okay. I'll bring a recording pen with me. They won't dare to do anything to me in broad daylight"

"When your operation is over, I will come back. I guarantee that you will be able to see me when you open your eyes, okay?"

. Okay

Only then did Nore let her go. He knew that she would never go back on her promise.

Chapter 135 Completely Different But this time, it was an exception. When Galilea arrived at the racing association, Sonny and the others were extremely anxious. "They said that they wanted to settle this privately. They wanted us to admit that this was an accident. What should we do?"

"We have already sent over all the information we checked at that time. Unexpectedly, they are now certain that we have no evidence in our hands. Those bastards!"

The people in the team were furious.

"Don't tell Nore about this yet." The first thing Galilea thought about was Nore's physical condition. "He has an operation in the afternoon. Try to delay it until tomorrow."

"Okay, I understand." Sonny looked back and told Galilea, "The one wearing a blue shirt over there is He Pingru. He is a little stubborn. Moreover, I heard that he often receives gifts and benefits from teams." Galilea frowned.

In other words, it was very likely that this person had been bribed by someone. But who would do such a thing? Someone who had a competitive relationship with the convoy, someone who had a grudge against Nore and Lubi family, or were they coming for her?

After clearing her thoughts, Galilea went straight to Sonny's ear and said a few words. "Can it work? I'll try my best!" Sonny gritted his teeth. "Thank you, Sonny." "Sigh, it was you and Nore who worked hard. Especially you, you almost lost your life." Sonny slapped his thigh. Racing had always been risky. However, only the two of them, who had risked their lives, knew that the accident this time was not simple.

Who could be so flawless?

On the other side, Sonny took the people from the fleet to make arrangements. Galilea sat on the sofa and waited. There was a noise behind her. She turned around to look. Micah walked in in a neat, high-definition suit. Behind him were Keith and the bodyguards. In front of him were several managers of the racing association

Their faces were full of flattery. Galilea couldn't help but sneer. Right, Micah was their god of wealth. If the Lorenzo group took back his investment in Thunder Cup, then the loss of the racing association would be great. In other words, Micah's opinion alone was enough to change the whole situation. Galilea also stood up and looked at the man in the crowd from afar. At the same time, Micah also noticed her.

When their eyes met, the two completely different sides of him in the hotel room appeared in Galilea's mind...

Which one of them was the real him?

Chapter 136 The Price

"Mr. Lorenzo! Welcome, welcome. I am really relieved that you have come to visit me." He Pingru was as vain as the rumors said. When he faced Micah, he was full of smiles and almost knelt down to wipe his shoes. As usual, Micah's expression was still indifferent. He only glanced at He Pingru, and then Keith behind him said, "Mr. Lorenzo's time is limited. It is best to end it in twenty minutes."

"I see Good, good. No problem!" He suddenly looked behind him, his eyes fixed on Galilea, and then waved his hand to signal Galilea to come over Galilea was now representing Black Horse's team. Originally, there were not many female drivers in this group. In addition, almost everyone knew her relationship with Micah, She walked over, and there were already some whispers and discussions around her. "Mr. Lorenzo, this is the representative of Black Horse's motorcade. I invited you to come here today to explain something. The results of our investigation are here, but I hope this matter will end here."

Galilea raised her eyebrows and did not express her opinion. Micah glanced at her and pressed his eyebrows down. "Reason?" "Well... Mr. Lorenzo, take a look first and you'll know." He Pingru laughed dryly, and there was a hint of flattery in his tone. Just as Micah reached out to take it, Galilea took a step forward and said, "I was at the scene at the time of the accident. It's more appropriate for me to look at it." Her fingertips swept across Micah's hand. The man's wrist paused, and there was no displeasure on his face. His gaze then fell on Galilea, and he watched quietly. Galilea opened the results of the investigation in public, and her brows knitted tighter and tighter. "Have you finished reading it?" He Pingru coughed.

He reached out to take it, but Galilea dodged it. She stood up immediately. "With this result, you still think it was an accident? How shameless!" Then, she threw the report in front of Micah. "Mr. Lorenzo, I want to hear what you have to say." All of a sudden, the atmosphere became very anxious. He Pingru did not expect that Galilea, who looked gentle and weak, would be so difficult to control when she was angry. Moreover, she actually dared to get so mad in front of Micah... No wonder they would divorce. If he had known earlier, he would have met Micah alone. Great. He originally wanted to sell a favor to Micah and strive for the investment for the next competition, but now it was all ruined.

Immediately, his attitude towards Galilea became a little unhappy.

"Miss Frankie, this is the racing association. It is not a place where you can act recklessly. If you continue to do this, I will ask you to go out."

"Heh..."

Galilea sneered and took out a recording pen from her pocket. "I uploaded it in real time. What we said has already been transmitted to my computer. If you chase me out now, I will release the recording on the Internet."

"You!"

He Pingru had not expected that Galilea would do this. He gritted his teeth in anger. At this time, Micah had also finished reading the report. For a moment, his face was extremely gloomy. Previously, he had only asked Keith to find out that Dayana had bribed two staff members to tamper with the brakes. However, it was only a witness and testimony. He could still suppress it with his own strength, But

The situation was different now. After a week of investigation, the Racing Association had already grasped conclusive evidence and the timeline was very clear. Based on the evidence they had now, not to mention sending Dayana to prison, it was also easy to convict her of murder. If this continued, this matter could not be suppressed. And it was very likely to involve the entire Lorenzo group. Micah pressed down on his forehead. He never made a loss. "President He, please go out first I want to talk to Galilea alone." Micah emphasized the word alone

"Okay, okay, no problem The two of you can talk slowly He Pingru cast a look and the people from the racing association immediately cleared the area

I just talked to the people from Black Horse's team. They won't accept any bribes or compromises We want the truth "Why?"

This staternate won't be good for you or Nore, or the team "Micah smiled carelessly. Moreover, it was possible to throw Nore's racing career into it

Chapter 136 The Price After all, no competition would hope for a tainted racer to participate. Even though Galilea was already mentally prepared, when facing Micah alone, she still felt that her momentum was suppressed by him.

In this world, only with capital could one have the right to speak.

In front of him, Galilea was just struggling to survive. Micah threw the report in front of Galilea. "State your conditions," he said. His eyes looked as if he was sure that Galilea would relent.

The countermeasure that Galilea had come up with great difficulty was shattered at that moment. He knew too well how to grasp the weakness of his opponent. Galilea could grit her teeth and disagree.

What about the others in the convoy? What about Nore?

They needed to keep this team alive.

Fighting Micah head-on was no different from striking a stone with an egg. Losing just like that? Galilea was unwilling. She clearly knew what the truth was and Micah also knew! She bit the corner of her lips, unable to squeeze out a single word for a long time. Micah took in all of her reactions. Looking at her hesitant expression, he only thought that she was feeling sorry for Nore. For a moment, his tone sank.

"Even if it was made public, I still have the resources to suppress this matter. Right now, you all still have the qualifications to negotiate. If this continues, even this little bit of benefit will be lost." His words stabbed into Galilea's heart. She lowered her head, her eyes full of loneliness. "Micah, do you really think that everyone is controlled by you and will live according to your wishes?" she asked.

She looked up again and said stubbornly, "I believe in Nore. He will not compromise."

"Galilea, I am giving you a chance." Micah clenched his fists. Was she so considerate of Nore?

She had to go against him! He had too much tolerance and care for her, so much so that this woman thought she could fight with him.

Just as the man was about to get angry, Galilea suddenly smiled. Then, in front of Micah, she threw the report into the trash can. "Thank you for the opportunity, Mr. Lorenzo. We don't need it. Just now, I asked the manager of Nore's motorcade to contact the lawyer. From now on, we will no longer listen to the one-sided words of the racing association.". "We will let the lawyer take charge of this matter. Since the racing association can't give a fair judgment, then we will wait for the judge."

"Galilea, don't go overboard." Micah's eyes turned cold. He didn't want to waste so much time on this matter. Meeting his gaze, Galilea's smile deepened, "Micah, you forced me to do this. That day at the hospital, you knew that this matter was related to Dayana, but you chose to protect her."

"She is killing people, do you understand?"

Chapter 138 Insult

Dayana's refusal made Terry very angry

In the past, she would come whenever he wanted, but now it was so difficult to invite her?

"You want to see Micah tonight?" He tentatively guessed. Apart from Micah, he couldn't think of anyone else that Dayana would be so interested in "That's right, I have an appointment with Micah tonight."

Dayana was still happily picking her clothes, She had to make sure that everything was foolproof and let Micah have fun in her arms. This way, she would be able to completely cut off the path of that slut, Galilea. She would no longer want anything that did not belong to her! "Alright, you can go then." Terry sneered. After he finished speaking, he hung up the phone. After pondering for a while, he called his subordinate, "Check where Dayana is going tonight." Since he lost to Micah in the company, he couldn't give up on that woman.

After all, Dayana was pregnant with his child!

On the way back to the hospital, Galilea bought fruits for Nore.

She wondered how she should tell him about the racing association. Her phone rang. It was President He of the racing association, Galilea did not want to pick it up, but the ringing never stopped.

"Miss Frankie? It was not a pleasant conversation just now. I am very, very sorry. Do you have time? Let's meet again. We will definitely provide all the evidence you need here."

Why was he so cooperative?

"President He, we have already entrusted the matter to the lawyer. You can contact them directly."

Galilea stood at the crossroads.

"Don't, don't, don't. Miss Frankie, you should know something about this line of work. If the matter blows up, it will not be good for the association and the team. I think you should come over. If we can come up with a solution, there will be no need to cause so much trouble in court."

President He tried to persuade her again and again, and Galilea let out a cold sigh. "Where are we going?"

If she could solve this matter today, it would not be a waste of her efforts.

Hearing President He mention the place, Galilea checked it with her mobile phone. It was not far from here. She sent the location to Sonny and hoped that he would take the lawyer there. Galilea took the fruit and took a taxi directly

When she arrived at the entrance of the high-end hotel, she hesitated.

This was not a suitable place to talk about things. She circled around the door twice and a waiter came to ask, "Excuse me, is it Miss Frankie?"

Galilea nodded. "I'll bring you in," the other party immediately said with a smile. The entire hall was magnificent Galilea was brought to the room on the second floor. "Please sit here for a moment."

"Haven't they arrived yet?" Galilea frowned. How could they be late? "He hasn't come yet. Please wait for a while." The waiter said and closed the door. Galilea was bored and put the fruit aside, planning to ask about Nore's operation first But just as she opened the phone page, she heard a very indecent voice coming from the next door. "Just once, let me do it!"

When Galilea heard this voice, she was shocked. Such a luxurious hotel, but the soundproofing was so bad?

She looked at the wall on the left, and the voice seemed to come from there.

However, the next second, the voice surprised her even more, "Micah, I know you are not feeling well. I will help you immediately. You just hold me." Galilea thought for a moment. Same name?

Or was it Dayana and Micah who were in the next room?

Soon there was no movement from the other side.

Galilea could not help but sheer. Micah was really impatient, completely ignoring that Dayana was pregnant, and in this kind of place.. In her mind, the expression of him pinching her chin that night appeared. Galilea hesitated for a moment and thought of a plan. She opened the door, walked around the corridor, took a picture of the private room next door, and was about to send the picture to the paparazzi. The door suddenly opened. The room was dark.

A pair of arms wrapped around her forcefully, and then his violent aura swept over.

Chapter 138 Insult “You are crazy! Look clearly who I am!” Galilea shouted, She was not his Dayana.

“Galilea.” Micah’s eyes darkened. He clearly said her name and kissed her. This kiss never stopped. No matter how she struggled, he did not let go. Early in the morning, Galilea was woken up by Micah’s phone ringing. She thought about everything that had happened last night and felt extremely humiliated. How could she have thought that she had actually become a prey that had taken the initiative to deliver herself to her doorstep? Could it be that President He had colluded with this man? As she thought this, she stared at him fiercely.

At this time, Micah also woke up. When he saw Galilea’s white shoulder, he was in a trance for a moment. His throat paused, and his hand subconsciously turned off the phone.

“Last night...” He opened his mouth, and his throat felt like it was tearing.

Last night, he really lost control. He didn’t know what Dayana had fed him. Just as he was about to find someone, Galilea appeared. He actually felt a trace of relief in his heart. If he touched another woman, even if it were Dayana, he would probably feel uncomfortable.

But Galilea...

He was actually infatuated with the taste of her body.

Pa.

Galilea reached out and slapped him. “Despicable!” “I thought you were different from those playboys at the Crown Hotel that day. Now it seems that you are just pretending to be more profound and dignified. How disgusting.” Micah pursed his thin lips tightly. “Galilea.”

“I clearly heard that you and Dayana were intimate in this room. Why did you drag me in? You clearly knew that it was me last night!”

Galilea shouted almost accusingly.

She tried hard to recall, but she only remembered that all her struggles were blocked by him. Later, she seemed to smell something and fainted. Because of this, Micah’s eyes also sank.

He himself could not accept this fact. He knew that it was Galilea, but he still did it. It was not venting, nor was it punishment. He really wanted her.

Cloud Town had so many women, and she was the only one he wanted to possess. As this thought entered his mind, he immediately stood up and wanted to drag Galilea over. But she was one step ahead of him and picked up the fruit knife on the table. “If you take one more step closer, I will...” “As long as you can vent your anger, you can do it.” A fierce look flashed across Micah’s eyes. Now that things had come to this, he did not want to lie to himself anymore. There was indeed hatred between them. But the Frankie family no longer existed. Onyx had already paid the price, and Galilea’s years of youth had been destroyed by him. The man’s eyes surged with emotions that he could not suppress. He wanted to give himself a chance to see if Galilea was the kind of woman he thought she was.

Chapter 139 You Never Break Your Promise

Just as he moved, he wanted to get close to her.

“Get out of my way,” Galilea said as she retreated backward.

Not only did she look at him with disgust, but she also hated the man in front of her.

That gaze abruptly stopped Micah. He clutched his shirt and said after a long time, “I’ll go prepare clothes for you. Then, I’ll send a car to send you back”

Galilea looked away, not even looking at him. The man withdrew his gaze, feeling very unhappy. He only heard someone knocking on the door, followed by the sound of Dayana shouting. "Micah, open the door!"

She was so anxious that her heart was tearing and her heart was tearing. However, the more she shouted, the colder Micah's gaze became.

Galilea looked at the torn clothes on the ground and could no longer wear them. If someone outside barged in, what would she do?

"Micah!"

Dayana ordered the hotel staff to open the door with a spare key and rushed in with her men.

It was at that moment that she saw Micah holding a woman covered in a blanket.

At that moment, Dayana almost fainted from anger.

"You... Who is she? Micah, how can you do this to me! I worked so hard to get pregnant for you, but you are here enjoying yourself!"

The broken clothes in the room, the scattered sheets, all revealed how intense the situation last night was.

Dayana glared with hatred. She shouldn't have gone to find Terry. When she returned, she couldn't open the door no matter what. The hotel even received her order in advance. No matter who came, they couldn't open the door.

This wait lasted for an entire night. How could she have thought that Micah would find a woman?

Dayana was so angry that she was trembling. She had put in so much effort, but in the end, she was actually making a wedding dress for someone else. "Let me see, who exactly is she?" She stepped forward and was about to pull the woman's hair, but she was directly blocked by Micah. He said ruthlessly, "Have you had enough?" Dayana had never seen that kind of gaze before. "Micah, how can you betray me?" she cried, her movements sluggish. "Then you should ask yourself what you did yesterday. Dayana, there is a limit to my tolerance for you." Dayana did not dare to say more. She did not expect Micah to notice. "... She muttered for a long time but could not say a word to explain. Throughout the whole process, Micah's hand did not leave the woman's shoulder. He used the quilt to cover her body and face. When Keith rushed over, he picked up the person in his arms and walked out without looking at Dayana. "Micah..." Dayana slumped on the sofa, burying her head and crying. After an unknown period of time, a voice sounded above her head. "Do you want to know who the woman who was with him last night is? It's Galilea." Terry looked down at her, raised his hand, and pinched her chin. "What!"

Dayana couldn't accept this result. Even if Galilea wanted to enter the room to seduce Micah, at that time, Micah clearly knew what kind of situation he was in, and he still kept her? He knew exactly what he was doing! Dayana sat there in a daze, his eyes full of jealousy.

Micah took Galilea to the top suite upstairs.

"You should rest first. Someone will send you clothes later. We will talk about it when your mood stabilizes," he said in a low voice.

He said this but found that Galilea had not answered.

Why was she not arguing with him? "Galilea?"

He pulled the quilt away and found that her face was red, her cheeks were hot, and her eyes were closed tightly as if she was in pain

For the first time, Micah panicked

He immediately asked Keith to call the doctor, and then let a few female waiters come in to serve Galilea.

Chapter 139 You Never Break Your Promise He had never left the room. Even if the company called more than a dozen times to urge him, he did not go away. "Mr. Lorenzo, Miss Frankie must have eaten something by mistake, causing the blood in her body to surge. In addition, she has been overworking recently, so she got a high fever." "When will she wake up?" Micah looked at the person on the bed. "Soon, at most three hours. Miss Frankie's health is poor. Mr. Lorenzo needs to be more considerate. The frequency needs to be moderate." The doctor said

Frequency? The image of her being by his side last night circled in Micah's mind. He became more and more greedy and could not stop. Even he could not remember how many times there were. Keith sent the doctor away and brought Galilea's clothes. "Mr. Lorenzo, the company is urging you again." "Send a car to send her back. Remember to tell me how she reacted." Micah slowly got up, but his gaze was fixed on the person on the bed. "Yes, Mr. Lorenzo." Two hours later. Galilea woke up again with a sour pain all over her body. Thinking of what had just happened, she looked around the room angrily. He was not here. Galilea endured the pain and got out of bed. She saw the note and medicine on the bedside table.

Without even thinking, she pushed away. It shattered all over the ground. When she thought of the name Micah, she wanted to vomit. There were new clothes in the bag beside the bed. She did not hesitate. Only by putting them on could she leave this place as soon as possible. As soon as Galilea opened the door, there were two bodyguards standing at the door. She was really annoyed with this kind of drama. "I don't need you to send me. If you come closer, I will call the police." The bodyguards did not dare to go forward. They could only follow Galilea slowly from behind. They watched her take a taxi and then immediately reported to Keith. She washed her face in the hospital bathroom to get rid of the bad luck. As soon as she went out, she saw Xu Ya, who was dressed in branded clothes, holding a high-quality gift box in her hand. "Are you washing your face in this kind of place? Lubi family's taste is really too bad." Xu Ya snorted contemptuously. Galilea was angry and could not be bothered to pay attention to her. "There are some people who just can't recognize their position and want to climb up to the rich and return to their past lives. Are you even worthy?"

"The Frankie family has long gone bankrupt. People like you are simply..." "People like me? You can insult me, but if you continue to mock the Frankie family, don't blame me for being merciless." Galilea turned back abruptly and stared at Xu Ya fiercely. She remembered everything that Xu Ya had done before. In that instant, Xu Ya was frightened by her gaze and was unable to retort for a long time. They just happened to be near the ward, and Nore, who was throwing a tantrum inside, suddenly heard Galilea's voice.

"Galilea!"

He called her all night, but no one answered.

He was really worried. Nore held onto his walking stick, but because the ground was wet and slippery, he accidentally fell to the ground. That sorry appearance... Xu Ya frowned, feeling extremely humiliated. Galilea was the first to rush over and support Nore, "Did you get hurt? Let me see." She was in a hurry to help him check if there were any injuries from the fall, but Nore directly pulled her into his arms. His voice was gloomy and low, revealing a joy of regaining what he had lost. "Didn't you say that I would be able to see you after the operation?" "You never go back on your word Galilea's movements suddenly froze, and her throat seemed to be choked by someone.

Chapter 140 Giving Face to Lubi Family

Where did you go last night?" Hore really cared about her and was and that something would happen to her Galilea was silent and did not know how to answer She helped Nore into the ward with the nurse and whispered to change the topic Did the surgery go well yesterday?" The nurse smiled and said, 'It went very smoothly Director Chen and Director both said that he recovered very well. If there's nothing wrong, he can be discharged at the end of the month Nore looked like a child waiting for someone to praise him. He grabbed Galleas hand and asked. "See?' That smile became a ray of light that shone into Gallea's dark world The corners of her mouth could not help but rise as if she had temporarily escaped from everything last night. *Thank you for your hard work." Nore smiled and slowly tightened his grip, wrapping Galilea's slightly cold fingertips in his palm At the door, Xu Ya, who was standing there like a block of wood was completely treated like a She gritted her teeth and forced out a smile. "Brother Nore, I brought you some pastry. Have a taste. I waited in line for it. I heard it is very delicious." "Oh, by the way, I heard that your team needs investment. My father's friend is doing business in this area. I have already talked to him. If you need it, you can talk to him first, and then sign the contract when you are discharged from the hospital After Xu Ya finished speaking, the smile on the corner of her mouth was very proud She wanted to let Nore and everyone know that Galilea could not compare to her. Those resources and connections were all things she could bring to Nore. As for Galilea, she only had a beautiful face coupled with her ruined past. What could she use to fight against her? The more Xu Ya thought about it, the more pleased she became, and her eyes revealed undisguised ridicule. "Who told you that my team is looking for investment? Nore frowned 'It was reported on the news. It said that your team can't continue to operate. Moreover, your manager is collecting money everywhere." Nore looked at Galilea subconsciously. Galilea did not say anything, but Xu Ya continued to chatter, "Moreover, my father said that the Lubi family's business has encountered some obstacles recently. Uncle Lubi should not be investing in your team anymore." Money It was all due to money. In fact, even without Xu Ya's explanation, Nore himself knew it Firstly, because he was injured this time, his family had already taken out a lot of liquidity. Secondly, the team was currently trapped in a competition accident, and their reputation was damaged. They needed to invest more funds to restore the image of the team. In addition to the pressure from the racing association... Sonny and the others must have had a hard time during this time. Nore clenched his fists. If he had been a little more cautious at that time, would the situation be like today? *This is not your fault. You've already done your best." Galilea said as she pressed down on Nore's hand that was about to hammer the bed. "But.. "Brother Nore, don't worry. As long as my uncle is here, he will definitely be able to help you.' Xu Ya said with a concerned smile. Galilea couldn't hold it in any longer. While pressing down on Nore to prevent him from hurting himself, she shouted at Xu Ya, "Don't provoke him anymore. Can't you see that his mood is very unstable? Please leave."

Xu Ya was stunned, and then she saw that Nore was like a trapped beast who could not control his emotions, struggling non-stop. His hand was not only hammering the bedboard, but it would also hurt Gallea. The nurses rushed over when they heard the sound, and together with Galdea, they pressed down Nore and gave him a tranquilizer. Xu Ya stood by the side the entire time and was scared out of her wits. Galilea's head was covered in fine sweat, but when she saw that Nore had fallen asleep quietly, she heaved a sigh of relief. 'Fortunately, you handled it in time. Otherwise, it would have affected the recovery of the wound.' The nurse checked the injuries on Nore's back and waist. In addition to hurting his spine nerves, there were some skin wounds at the back of his waist. If he was too emotional, it was likely that he would tear the wounds and cause them to be unable to heal. When the nurse checked Nore's wounds, Xu Ya saw those ugly scars. After applying the medicine, there were blue marks. She frowned and walked out with a cold face. She took out her phone and called her father, "Nore is fine. Even if he is fine, he is still an irritable and disabled person. I will never come to the hospital again. No matter how much money their family has, I don't care." "I don't want to serve a mentally disabled person for the rest of my life!" Xu Ya's high heels stepped on the tiles in the corridor, and her voice came from afar

Chapter 140 Giving Face to Lubi Family When Lucy came out of the elevator, she just heard these words. She immediately entered the ward.

Seeing that Nore was sleeping soundly on the bed while Galilea was preparing breakfast, Lucy was relieved.

No matter how she looked at Galilea now, she was very pleasing to the eye!

While Nore was sleeping, she quietly called Galilea out. "Auntie, what's the matter?" Galilea wiped her hands.

"Don't do this kind of rough work in the future. Let the nurse and the servant do it. When the nurse comes later, you will go out with me."

"Where are we going?" Galilea always felt that Lucy's smile was too kind and warm. "Go and dress yourself up."

Lucy said. Soon, she called the driver to pick them up. No matter how Calilea refused, she insisted on taking her to Cloud Town's luxury business circle. She bought several clothes and took Galilea to have a beauty salon. When they arrived at the beauty salon, they met several rich ladies. They had long heard that Nore had an accident in the car and the Williams family had canceled the engagement. Lucy had changed from her usual attitude towards Galilea and was holding her hand tightly. The two of them seemed to be very close. . One by one, the ladies revealed mocking smiles. "Mrs. Lubi seems to be very busy recently. I tried to play cards with you several times but you rejected me. Why are you so free today? With..." "I really don't know how to address her." She hesitated and sized up Galilea a few times. The few of them immediately covered their faces and laughed.

That kind of atmosphere made people feel very uncomfortable. Galilea's brows furrowed. There was nothing to be embarrassed about. She only felt that these people were too gossipy.

However, Lucy couldn't hold her face any longer. "Madam Lubi, I'll wait for you in the car." Galilea slowly stood to the side.

When she said Madam Lubi, she placed Lucy in a higher position than her. Those people were momentarily surprised. What was going on?

"Could it be that she has gone to your house to work now?"

If that was the case, it would make sense.

Otherwise, with Lucy's personality, how could she approve of Galilea dating her son?

"Oh, Mrs. Lubi, why didn't you say so earlier? We all misunderstood. I thought that your Lubi family would pick up a pair of broken shoes that others didn't want!" Mrs. Xu said awkwardly. The ladies all laughed.

Galilea had not gone far, and she heard these words clearly

She gripped the door handle with her fingers, lowered her eyes, and sat in the car. Lucy turned back to look at her awkwardly. She was grateful that Galilea knew the big picture and gave the Lubi family face, but she also felt a little guilty. But in the end, she was not willing to refute those people. She was not afraid of being laughed at by these people, but Lubi family still had to do business in Cloud Town. Only by having a good relationship with these people would Lubi Enterprises' business not be too difficult. Galilea sat in the car with a silent expression. Her phone suddenly rang. She opened the message, which was an unregistered number. *The medicine has been sent to the hospital. Remember to take it."

Medicine?

She frowned and thought about the medicine on the bedside when she woke up in the hotel. Could it be
Was it sent by Micah?
