

Chapter 201 Not Worth It Galilea was in a dilemma as her face was blocked by the reporters microphones She didn't know what to say.

At this moment, Nore stepped forward. His good-looking face revealed a rare calm expression. He directly took the microphones "Galilea is not from our team. I am the one you came to interview today, aren't 1?" The reporters only came to their senses after he reminded them. Then, someone asked, "What's the relationship between the two of you now? You once proposed to Galilea on the podium. She seemed to have rejected you." Sean's face darkened as he secretly memorized the reporter's appearance. Nore's deep pupils were covered with a layer of gloom. Sonny and the others all frowned. If Nore couldn't control his temper and got into a conflict with these reporters, wouldn't he be making a fool of himself?

They didn't have time to go forward and stop them. Galilea's hand secretly tugged at Nore from behind. She wanted to tell him that no matter what these reporters asked, he could ignore them.

Unexpectedly, Nore directly said, 'She clearly refused last time. It was me who didn't give up and kept pestering her.'

This time, all the reporters' curiosity was ignited. "In other words, you are currently pursuing Galilea unilaterally?" "Yes. "Then did you withdraw from the racing circle and transfer to the business circle because of her?"

"Yes."

Galilea looked at the side of his face, and the voice in her ear gradually became unclear. "I have never had any ability to make a move. It is normal for her not to choose me. After she rejected me last time, I thought about it for a long time. I can completely make myself better, have enough ability to protect her from being bullied by anyone." This declaration was not as hot as the words on the podium before, but it carried a kind of soul-stirring power. When he said this, his entire body was covered in a layer of faint light. Galilea's frozen heart felt a trace of warmth that she had never felt before. She felt that Nore had indeed become different from before. "If Galilea agrees to date you, will you get married in the future?" In fact, what the reporters wanted to ask was if the Lubi family would ignore Galilea's past, not caring that she had been married before. Everyone present could understand the meaning behind this. A cold light flashed across Nore's face as he resolutely spat out two words, "Of course." Just as the reporter was about to ask the next question, he pushed away all the microphones. "Now that I have answered your questions, please leave." "But..." Sean. With a glance, Sean, who had long been unable to restrain himself, immediately rushed over with the people from the team. He stopped the reporters who still wanted to move forward. "Alright, alright. The interview ends here. Please leave!" Everyone worked together and finally drove the reporters out. In the room, Galilea and Nore stood face to face. 'Is your father alright?' Galilea asked first. "He is fine. It was my fault. I confronted him with a few words, but you don't have to think too much. That matter has nothing to do with you." Nore frowned. She nodded indifferently. Just as she was about to speak, Nore gathered his courage and grabbed her wrist. His nervousness and hesitation were all written on his face. However, he knew that if he did not seize the opportunity in front of him, he might regret it for the rest of his life. Even if Galilea would push him away again, he wanted to give it his all. The warmth between his fingers was transmitted to Galilea. Then he took a doon kranth and amid Ilona... that it is not enou fartha

Chapter 201 Not Worth 11 Frankie Group to make a comeback. You need a lot of connections and a lot of money. I couldn't help you at all." "So I have recently taken over the family business. It won't be long before I can become your most trustworthy partner."

“Nore.”

Asmile appeared on his handsome face “Don’t feel guilty. At any time, I am willing to be used by you.” When he said these words, he never made people feel tired.

In fact, the moment he said it, he was ready to be scolded by Galilea. Unexpectedly, Galilea said, “Why are Sonny and the others not back yet? It is time to hold the retirement ceremony.” As she spoke, she removed her wrist from his palm and walked towards the door, Nore turned his head and slowly reacted. Galilea didn’t scold him? She listened to those words! The smile on Nore’s lips grew deeper and deeper. For the entire night, he felt as if he was stepping on the clouds and floating. He also drank a lot at the table. “I’ll send Young Master back first.’ Sean said as he helped Nore, who had drunk too much, into the car. After the car door closed, Nore opened the window directly and stretched out his body and hands. “See you tomorrow, Galilea!” he said.

Sean, be careful on the road, Galilea said casually. The car immediately drove out of her sight. Sonny and the others also left one after another. Galilea rejected their idea of sending her off and walked alone on the street. The wind of this month reminded her of many things in the past. Some pain buried deep in her memory surged.

But she would no longer cry from the pain. Tears were the most useless thing. She didn’t have time to use negative emotions to numb her cognition. “Galilea, wake up. She looked up at the red light flashing across the street and took a deep breath. Do you deserve to have love now?’ ‘Don’t you know what kind of expectations that passionate man holds for you?’ “How can you bear to use him?’

She lowered her head and smiled weakly. She was not worthy of Nore treating her so well. She slowly squatted down and buried her head between her arms. At this time, a black car passed by her.

The leaves fluttered in the air. The man in the back seat had a gloomy expression. He put his hand on the car door. He had come out of the hospital and was going to the nearby bank to do business. He happened to see Galilea having dinner with the people on the team. Galilea had just gotten along well with them. Not only was she smiling, but she was also drinking. There was a faint trace of anger in the depths of his cold eyes. ‘Is the debtor company doing nothing? Keith, who was in the co-pilot’s position, immediately called Vincent Had he repeatedly tolerated her, making her feel like she had returned to the days when she was being worshipped by others? ‘Don’t worry, Mr. Lorenzo. The debtor company will continue working. Are you going to the hospital now?’ Keith asked as he put down his phone. Micah slowly closed his eyes. ‘To the hospital,” Keith instructed the driver.

Chapter 202 She Was Making Trouble Again

The next morning, the news revealed that Micah had hidden a woman at home. When Dayana arrived late at night, she had seen some unsightly scenes with her own eyes She had even been pushed to the ground by the third party’s and almost suffered a miscarriage. Reporters swarmed in and were blocked by Micah’s bodyguards without exception But they had no intention of leaving. “You said that the third party is... “It must be his ex-wife!” The reporters were in groups of three to five, squatting in the hospital corridor. As they were muttering, they saw a slender figure walking in front of them. The few of them were stunned and only reacted after a long while. They wanted to take out their cameras to take photos because the person who came was none other than Galilea, who had caused Dayana to almost have a miscarriage! “Miss Frankie? What’s the matter?’ Keith, who was guarding outside the ward, quickly walked over to greet her. “I’m here to visit the patient,” Galilea said as she lightly listed her eyes and held the flower basket in her hand. If she had not seen the message sent by the debtor company early in the morning, she would not have come here. They were simply going too far! Not only had they ruined her reputation, but they had also forced her to the dead-end? Then why not speak frankly and see who would lose. "Mr. Lorenzo is not here now. You should not go in." Keith hesitated and stopped her. Micah ordered them to stop the paparazzi. Galilea was not among them. However, Keith still felt that he should stop her.

In case there was trouble again.

"If Micah blames you for it, you can push the blame onto me. However, I must go in today!" What was she doing? Today, she would teach Dayana the principle of being a human. "Miss Frankie, don't make things difficult for us." Keith took a step forward and reached out his hand to block Galilea. "Micah, you came at the right time. Galilea looked behind him with surprise. "Mr. Lorenzo?" Keith frowned and was stunned. Just as he turned around, Galilea had already circled into the ward from the side. After all, Dayana was a pregnant woman. The most they could do was to guard at the door. When they saw Galilea enter, they all looked at each other and did not dare to enter. "Report to Mr. Lorenzo immediately: "Yes, Keith!" Dayana was leaning against the bed playing with her phone. When she heard the sound of the door opening, she thought that it was Micah. She hurriedly pressed her phone under the pillow in a panic. "Stop pretending." Galilea casually threw the flower basket on the ground and stared at Dayana's face with her beautiful eyes. "Why is it you?" Dayana gritted her teeth and looked nervously at the door. Those good-for-nothings couldn't even watch the door." She was afraid that Galilea would seek revenge on her, so she had asked Elisa to release the news early in the morning. She had planned to use public pressure to force Galilea to admit defeat. Who would have thought that Galilea would actually dare to barge into the hospital? "You almost had a miscarriage because of me. How can I not come and see you?" Galilea smiled and walked forward step by step. "Don't come over!" Dayana retreated in a panic, her beautiful eyes wide open. "Why are you acting like a parrot that only knows how to repeat? Can't you say anything else? Oh, I almost forgot. Are you worried that I will record it?"

Dayana's heart was exposed, and her eyes became even more flustered. "I really didn't prepare a recording pen today, because I don't need to deal with people like you." Galilea looked around, pulled out a chair, and sat down beside the bed. "What the hell are you doing! Is there anyone outside? Come in quickly and take this crazy woman away!" Dayana screamed.

Chapter 202 She Was Making Trouble Again Not only was she stupid, but she was also timid. Galilea clicked her tongue and looked at Dayana's face. Then, her gaze slowly moved down and landed on her lower abdomen. "Don't look at my baby..." At this time, Dayana realized that something was wrong. "You have always used this baby as a bargaining chip. Are you worthy of being his mother? You are not!" Galilea raised the corner of her lips and revealed an exceptionally enchanting and gorgeous smile. However, her eyes were filled with sharp hatred. "When you fell at the Lorenzo family, did you ever think that you might really lose the qualifications to be a mother?"

Dayana was about to retort. Galilea suddenly got up and pressed her hands on her shoulders. She pinched her hard and her nails dug into her hospital gown, "Not everyone is qualified to have children. For example, a vicious woman like you is not." "Let go of me! You had a miscarriage and you can't have a child. What does it have to do with me?" Dayana couldn't help but shout at the top of her lungs. Pa' Galilea raised her hand and gave her a slap. The crisp sound rang out in the ward. Dayana was stunned and subconsciously wanted to go to the other side of the bed. She wanted to hide on the balcony! God knew what Galilea would do when she went crazy. Dayana thought she was fast enough, so Galilea didn't catch up with her. She didn't know that as soon as she entered the balcony, Galilea locked the balcony door. Then, in front of Dayana, she threw the key into the toilet and washed it away. The cold wind was whistling outside, and Dayana was wearing a single robe. She was constantly trembling from the wind. She was angry in her heart, but she could only stare at Galilea's face. Galilea looked back in the direction of the hospital bed and took out the phone that Dayana had hidden under the pillow. Because it was too rushed just now, the phone screen had not been turned off, so there was no need for the fingerprint password. The moment the phone was checked by Galilea wantonly, Dayana completely collapsed. "Stop! That is my privacy. You can't look at it."

Micah never paid attention to her phone, so Dayana never thought of deleting them. Who would have thought that her phone would one day fall into Galilea's hands? Dayana's hand clung to the glass door of the balcony, staring at Galilea's beautiful face that made people jealous. 'The content of your phone is really wonderful. Do you want me to give it back to you?' Galilea raised her hand and shook it. Dayana's eyes lit up. "Then let you in?" Dayana's body trembled and she nodded repeatedly. The smile on Galilea's face deepened, and she slowly spat out two words, "You wish." Another gust of cold wind blew, and Dayana shivered from the cold. She just watched as Galilea took her phone and walked out. "No..." Dayana was extremely afraid. What if Galilea showed her phone to Micah? What if her phone was taken by the paparazzi... Just as Dayana was lost in thought, someone suddenly shouted from downstairs, 'Why is there a person standing on the balcony of the 15th floor?' Dayana thought of something. 'I want to jump off the building. I don't want to live!' Yes, she was going to push all the blame onto Galilea and blow up the matter. Even if she really dug out the contents of her phone, she could say that they were forged by Galilea! Dayana made up her mind, both hands gripping the balcony railing. Against the cold wind, her hair was blown so messy that it was impossible to see her face. Soon, a lot of people gathered downstairs. "Don't be impulsive!" 'Hurry up and tell the nurses and doctors.'

Chapter 202 She Was Making Trouble Again "That floor seems to be an obstetrics ward. Is this pregnant woman suffering from depression after giving birth?" At the door of the ward, after Galilea left, Keith quickly pushed open the door. Seeing that Dayana was trapped on the balcony and looking like she was going to give up her life. "Miss Quincy, Mr. Lorenzo is coming soon!"

Chapter 203 Don't Do Anything Stupid

"Don't do anything stupid. The only thing Keith could do was ask his subordinates to find a way to open the balcony door. If Dayana really lost her balance and fell down, the consequences would be unimaginable. However, at this time, Dayana was reminded by a sentence downstairs. She covered her head and kept shouting, "I really don't want to live anymore. My baby hasn't seen this world yet, and he has to suffer so much pain. Why should I let him come to this world? As a mother, I am unqualified. Let me just jump down and die!" Dayana was acting in a heart-wrenching manner. Suddenly, she saw a figure walking behind Keith. It was not Micah, but Galilea who had returned! Dayana's heart skipped a beat. But at this stage, how could she stop when Micah was not here yet? Otherwise, she would be making a fool of herself. Moreover, she could not enter the ward at all right now and could only stay on the balcony with a pale face. Galilea glanced at Dayana, the corners of her lips curling upwards. She deliberately lowered her voice and whispered something beside Keith. Dayana slapped the balcony door fiercely. "Don't listen to her nonsense. This woman is trying to harm me. She is just jealous that I can get pregnant with Micah's child." Keith frowned and said helplessly. "Miss Quincy, don't be agitated yet." At this time, Dayana couldn't listen to anything and kept shouting like a madwoman who had depression. The smile on Galilea's lips deepened. Immediately after, the staff in the hospital were also alarmed. After all, Dayana was one of Micah's people. If something really happened in the hospital, they would be buried with her. "Break the door immediately. As soon as the principal gave the order, the people from the hospital went forward. Keith frowned and stopped them. 'The balcony is not large enough. If you force the door open, it is likely to hurt Miss Quincy. We have already called the police to deal with it.'"

“Then, are we just going to watch? Where is the spare key? Go to the security office to find one immediately!” “Mr. Lorenzo is already on his way. The most important thing now is to stabilize Miss Quincy’s mood. Don’t provoke her anymore.” Keith looked at Galilea hesitantly. “I don’t want to provoke her. Ask her if she wants me to leave.” Galilea smiled calmly. On the balcony, Dayana clasped her palms together. She shook her head slowly, but very quickly, she shouted, “Don’t let her go!” Galilea looked as if she had already expected it, which made Keith even more suspicious. He glanced at the bodyguards behind him and said, “Think of another way to open the door.”

“Yes.”

Dayana had been frozen in the cold wind outside for more than ten minutes.

Even a normal person, wearing such thin clothes, would feel cold at this time, not to mention that she was pregnant.

Galilea sat openly on the sofa, and no one dared to drive her away. Dayana’s eyes were fixed on her face, unwilling to look away for a moment. Her eyes were full of hatred, but also seemed to be afraid. Keith watched the atmosphere between the two of them and frowned in confusion. But at least, Dayana would not shout that she was going to jump off the building now. The hospital had also cooperated with the police and set up a gas bed downstairs. The emergency room was also on standby. At this height, if a normal person fell down, it might be okay. Dayana was pregnant! With Micah’s baby. Several executives of the hospital, under the principal’s leadership, were busy and waited for the news, afraid that Dayana would have an accident. At this moment, the vice-president ran over in a hurry. ‘Principal Chen...’ After hearing his words, Principal Chen’s eyes widened. “Quick, get ready immediately!” Just as everyone was sweating. Dayana was almost frozen. Throughout the whole process, Galilea had not moved a single finger of her.

Keith was even more surprised after checking the surveillance video. What was Dayana afraid of? Ten minutes later.

Chapter 203 Don’t Do Anything Stupid Micah walked in with a cold face. He first looked around the entire ward and saw Dayana on the balcony whose lips were blue from the cold. There was also Keith, who was waiting to be on standby at the side.

And Galilea, who was sitting on the sofa and watching the show.

“Micah...” “Save me,” Dayana said as she leaned against the door with tears in her eyes. “Miss Quincy was just courting death. Now that she’s seen Mr. Lorenzo, does she not want to die? With such a cold face, can he awaken your desire to live?” Galilea asked. Dayana bit her lip and did not dare to argue with her. At that moment, Micah also saw something. “Mr. Lorenzo, I’m very sorry. It was our mistake. We will rescue Miss Quincy right away.”

Pfft.

Galilea couldn’t help but laugh.

Everyone looked over in surprise, including Micah. “No. You don’t have to worry about me. I just suddenly thought of something very funny.” The others couldn’t see the reason and only thought that she wanted to watch the show. But Dayana was nervous. When she was helped to the bed by the nurse, her hands and feet were already cold. “Who locked you up on the balcony?” Micah took a step forward and looked at Dayana’s pale lips.

No matter how much he could tolerate Galilea, he could not let her bully Dayana and the child in her belly in front of him.

Galilea tilted her head slightly and looked over nonchalantly.

Dayana wanted to say something, but as soon as her eyes met Galilea's, she immediately lowered her head.

"I, I was careless!"

The anger in Micah's eyes almost overflowed. He said in a low voice, "With me here, no one dares to bully you."

The gentle embrace that Dayana was looking forward to was right in front of her!

However, she abruptly stopped moving. She did not dare to go forward. Because at this moment, the phone in Galilea's hand was hers.

She was extremely regretful, but she could only swallow her tears. She could not say it out loud. Once she said it, Galilea would definitely give the phone to Micah. At that time, could she still marry Micah? He definitely wouldn't want her.

The others didn't know what had happened. Keith also went forward and reported in a low voice, "The surveillance video didn't capture anything."

Micah stared at Dayana, but she refused to say anything. This matter could only be left unsettled.

Did it really have nothing to do with Galilea? The man turned around and looked at the woman on the sofa. 'I came here to apologize to Miss Quincy on purpose. After all, I almost caused her miscarriage.

Here, the flower basket is here." Galilea blinked innocently.

She had evidence. But Dayana did not. Galilea finally opened her mouth, and Dayana lowered her head even more.

Micah's eyes also darkened. Just as he was about to order everyone to go out, he had to ask carefully and clearly. Principal Chen brought a psychiatrist doctor and ran in in a hurry. "Mr. Lorenzo, everything is ready. We can make a mental diagnosis for Miss Quincy now." "I have no problem. Why do I have to go through that kind of diagnosis?" Dayana suddenly raised her head. For the next second, she stared at Galilea and understood everything

Chapter 204 The Unknown

Director Chen looked at the doctors behind him and explained to Micah in a low voice, "It was Miss Quincy who used her phone to ask for help from our hospital. She said that she often felt absent-minded recently as if there was another person controlling her body. We suspect that it might be because she was under too much pressure during her pregnancy, causing her to hallucinate." At this time, Micah's expression could only be described as gloomy. Dayana stared at Galilea with her eyes wide open. No one knew that her phone was with Galilea, and she did not dare to speak. She could only watch Galilea put her phone into her bag with her own eyes. She was then helped to the wheelchair by the nurse. "Miss Quincy, don't worry. We will find the most authoritative expert to treat you." "And when one is pregnant, it is normal for such a situation to happen. Don't be nervous, relax." Dayana could not speak. She bit the corner of her lips. On the other side, Galilea stood up and walked to Dayana's side. She clicked her tongue and said, "What a pity. Miss Quincy is so young and has this kind of illness. It seems that when one is pregnant, one really has to be more careful. Otherwise." "It will cost two lives." To curse his child in front of Micah, only Galilea could do this, right? Director Chen looked at Micah's face that was about to be furious. He stepped forward and said under the pressure, "That is only a small chance. The experts in our hospital's psychiatry department are very authoritative. They are already on standby in the examination room." "I want to know the result as soon as possible." Micah's face sank. "Okay, Mr. Lorenzo, hurry up, push it to lift number 2." Director Chen breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly led the group out. Dayana turned around and stared at Galilea. When she was about to go out, she was still leaning against the door frame and kept saying, "I have no mental problems. I won't do an examination!" "Miss Quincy, the patients who go to the psychiatric department all say that at first. It's because you have been under too much pressure recently. Otherwise, you wouldn't want to jump off the building today. For you and the child in your belly, you have to cooperate with us." Director Chen advised patiently. Then, he asked the nurse to remove Dayana's hands and force her into the lift. Galilea smiled and looked at the man with a cold face. "Mr. Lorenzo, the world is really unpredictable." Her regretful smiles really made him feel unhappy. "You guys go out." Micah suppressed his anger. Keith immediately cleared the room. Soon, only Galilea and he were left in the ward. "What did you do to her?" If Micah had seen what had happened in the villa that day, he would believe that Galilea would not have done that. But today, he saw with his own eyes that Dayana's face was pale from the cold on the balcony, and she even looked like she was being controlled and did not dare to speak.

He was 100% sure that Galilea had done something that could threaten Dayana when no one saw it.

What exactly was it? "I don't understand what Mr. Lorenzo said. I'm here to visit the patient. What can I do? Maybe Director Chen is right. Your fiancée has a mental problem." "Impossible." Micah's face darkened. "Things are unpredictable. I once married a husband. It turned out that he was a bastard with a human face." As soon as she finished speaking, Galilea's arm was pulled over. She was forced to look at the man in front of her with a distorted posture. She raised her chin and slightly curled the corners of her lips. She smiled seductively. "Micah, are you angry from embarrassment now?" She was not afraid of him at all. She did not even feel pain. Just like that, she raised her slender neck, fearless.

The moment the man lowered his head, he saw the disdain and indifference in her eyes. His hand slowly tightened. Galilea's current posture was becoming more and more difficult to endure. As long as he used more force, he could make her cry out in pain. Micah just wanted to see her begging for mercy, even if it were just a sentence or a glance, but she just had that fearless look. She did not bow her head, and she did not admit her mistake.

Chapter 204 The Unknown "Micah, open your eyes and take a good look. I will let everyone around you leave you one by one unless you kill me." Galilea was very painful by his pinch, but she still endured it. She just did not want to admit defeat. What if she went bankrupt? What if she had to bear a huge debt? Micah and Dayana just wanted to see her kneel down and beg for mercy. She was not willing to do so. Now, she had personally sent Dayana to the mental hospital! Let her go in and take good care of her baby "Good, very good. Do you want to die?"

Micah suppressed his anger and placed his hand on Galilea's neck. Galilea had no choice but to frown and endure. She already felt that her breathing was not smooth and she was about to leave this world.

Bang

The door opened from the outside.

"Mr. Lorenzo, Miss Quincy fainted." Keith ran in anxiously. If not for this urgent news, he wouldn't have rushed in so disrespectfully. Micah suddenly let go of her hand. Galilea violently choked. She lay on the bed and coughed with difficulty. Her hand tugged at the bedsheet, and she seemed to have returned to life.

"Take her to the villa. Without my permission, don't let her leave even half a step." Micah stared coldly at her pale face.

"Yes." Keith lowered his head. Then, he quickly left.

Galilea took a deep breath and slowly propped herself up on the bed. She could not remember how many times she had almost died in his hands.

But every time, he did not really do it. Galilea walked into the bathroom and washed her face with cold water. The face in the mirror was thin and pale, and only the corners of her lips were a little blood red.

Galilea could no longer remember what she looked like in the past. She bit the corner of her lips, lowered her head, and took out Dayana's phone from her bag. She had already saved the data that she might be able to use. Such interesting things, of course, had to be stored and used slowly. As for this phone... She threw it directly into the bathtub. Galilea walked out confidently and directly said to Keith, "Let's go."

She would not implicate others because of her own matters. Moreover, with Micah's strength, as long as she was still in this city, she would not be able to escape from his grasp. Rather than running away, it was better to face it. Besides, she still had a good show to watch. Keith had thought that he would have to waste his breath. Seeing that Galilea was so cooperative, he immediately said, "The car is already at the door." "Thank you." Galilea walked out with no panic in her eyes. Before she entered the lift, she heard the nurses in the corridor talking about Dayana. "Could she be really suffering from pregnancy depression? I heard that Director Chen has invited Director Lee from the psychiatric department back." "The results of the examination are coming out soon."

Chapter 205 No One Would Believe It

Chapter 205 No One Would Believe It

That night when Dayana's report was delivered to Micah, the man's face sank and his fingers gripped the report. "You mean she is indeed suffering from pregnancy depression?" "According to the inspection index, there is indeed a problem with Miss Quincy's mental state. This may be the reason why she behaved abnormally today. Moreover, we also know that she often lost control of her emotions at home." Micah's eyes were cold as he stared at the report for a long time. He paid more attention to the result than the process. "We have already invited Director Lee of the psychiatry department, but we have to take into account Miss Quincy's actual situation to conduct the psychological counseling. If it is operated in the hospital obstetrics ward, there will be many limitations." "Get to the point." Micah frowned even more tightly. "After our discussion, we think that we should transfer Miss Quincy to the special ward of the psychiatric department as soon as possible so that she can receive better treatment." Keith listened from the side and looked at Micah's expression. "Director Chen, Miss Quincy is still in the pregnancy stage. Isn't it inappropriate to do this?" Micah's fiancée was diagnosed with mental illness. If word got out, Micah would lose face. What's more, wouldn't this kind of treatment affect the baby in her belly? Director Chen nervously wiped his cold sweat. "We will prepare a ward for Miss Quincy alone. There have been similar treatment cases before, so there should be no problem." "Should?" "In a week. I want the result." Micah suppressed the anger in his chest. "This... Director Chen wanted to say something else, but Micah had already left. 'Miss Quincy will be transferred to the psychiatry department tonight. This news must be kept secret from the outside world. If there is an accident, we both know Mr. Lorenzo's temper.'" "Yes, yes, yes, we must do this well." Director Chen personally sent Keith out. When he walked to the door, he watched the car drive away and heaved a sign of relief. He took out his phone and looked at the message sent by Dayana's phone number. He frowned. Was it really pregnancy depression? Half an hour later, Dayana was dressed and supported into the wheelchair. "Where are you going to take me? I want to go home!" she asked, looking around at the nurses who were taking care of her. "Miss Quincy, please don't move. We'll be there soon." "What do you mean?" Before Dayana could finish asking, a black cloth covered her head. She bit her lips and cursed Galilea ten thousand times in her heart. When she went out and took back her phone, she must throw that bitch into the sea to feed the sharks. Dayana was pushed forward and could not see anything. Suddenly, she heard the sound of an iron door opening. Then, the person pushing the wheelchair behind him stopped, and there was another round of rustling sound. "What took you so long? Hurry up and take this thing off my head!" Dayana was angry. A pair of hands pressed down on her shoulder from behind. "Miss Quincy, what are you in a hurry for?"

This voice was...

"Galilea!"

Dayana struggled violently, but her wrists and ankles were tied, and she could not break free at all.

"Don't worry, we will be in the psychiatric department soon. You have to go in and receive treatment. It will be good for both you and the baby in your belly. Since you take the child as a bargaining chip, this is your retribution." Galilea bent down and leaned close to Dayana's ear. As soon as she finished speaking, Dayana's face turned pale. Then, the black cloth cover above her head was removed, and she was pushed into the psychiatric ward zone with the wheelchair. She turned around and saw Galilea standing behind with a mask and nurse's clothes. She waved slightly at her. "Ah!" Dayana screamed. The doctors and nurses who were waiting to pick her up surrounded her at the same time.

Galilea was very painful by his pinch, but she still endured it. She just did not want to admit defeat.

What if she went bankrupt? What if she had to bear a huge debt?

Micah and Dayana just wanted to see her kneel down and beg for mercy. She was not willing to do so.

Now, she had personally sent Dayana to the mental hospital!

Let her go in and take good care of her baby. "Good, very good. Do you want to die?" Micah suppressed his anger and placed his hand on Galilea's neck. Galilea had no choice but to frown and endure. She already felt that her breathing was not smooth and she was about to leave this world.

The door opened from the outside. "Mr. Lorenzo, Miss Quincy fainted." Keith ran in anxiously. If not for this urgent news, he wouldn't have rushed in so disrespectfully. Micah suddenly let go of her hand.

Galilea violently choked. She lay on the bed and coughed with difficulty. Her hand tugged at the bedsheet, and she seemed to have returned to life.

"Take her to the villa. Without my permission, don't let her leave even half a step." Micah stared coldly at her pale face. "Yes." Keith lowered his head. Then, he quickly left. Galilea took a deep breath and slowly propped herself up on the bed. She could not remember how many times she had almost died in his hands.

But every time, he did not really do it. Galilea walked into the bathroom and washed her face with cold water.

The face in the mirror was thin and pale, and only the corners of her lips were a little blood red.

Galilea could no longer remember what she looked like in the past.

She bit the corner of her lips, lowered her head, and took out Dayana's phone from her bag. She had already saved the data that she might be able to use. Such interesting things, of course, had to be stored and used slowly. As for this phone... She threw it directly into the bathtub. Galilea walked out confidently and directly said to Keith, "Let's go." | She would not implicate others because of her own matters. Moreover, with Micah's strength, as long as she was still in this city, she would not be able to escape from his grasp. Rather than running away, it was better to face it. Besides, she still had a good show to watch. Keith had thought that he would have to waste his breath. Seeing that Galilea was so cooperative, he immediately said, "The car is already at the door."

*Thank you." Galilea walked out with no panic in her eyes. Before she entered the lift, she heard the nurses in the corridor talking about Dayana. "Could she be really suffering from pregnancy depression? I heard that Director Chen has invited Director Lee from the psychiatric department back.” *The results of the examination are coming out soon.”

Chapter 205 No One Would Believe It

That night When Dayana’s report was delivered to Micah, the man’s face sank and his fingers gripped the report. “You mean she is indeed suffering from pregnancy depression?” “According to the inspection index, there is indeed a problem with Miss Quincy’s mental state. This may be the reason why she behaved abnormally today. Moreover, we also know that she often lost control of her emotions at home.” Micah’s eyes were cold as he stared at the report for a long time. He paid more attention to the result than the process. “We have already invited Director Lee of the psychiatry department, but we have to take into account Miss Quincy’s actual situation to conduct the psychological counseling. If it is operated in the hospital obstetrics ward, there will be many limitations.” “Get to the point.” Micah frowned even more tightly. “After our discussion, we think that we should transfer Miss Quincy to the special ward of the psychiatric department as soon as possible so that she can receive better treatment.” Keith listened from the side and looked at Micah’s expression. “Director Chen, Miss Quincy is still in the pregnancy stage. Isn’t it inappropriate to do this?” Micah’s fiancée was diagnosed with mental illness. If word got out, Micah would lose face. What’s more, wouldn’t this kind of treatment affect the baby in her belly? Director Chen nervously wiped his cold sweat. “We will prepare a ward for Miss Quincy alone. There have been similar treatment cases before, so there should be no problem.” “Should?” “In a week. I want the result.” Micah suppressed the anger in his chest. “This...” Director Chen wanted to say something else, but Micah had already left. “Miss Quincy will be transferred to the psychiatry department tonight. This news must be kept secret from the outside world. If there is an accident, we both know Mr. Lorenzo’s temper.” “Yes, yes, yes, we must do this well.” Director Chen personally sent Keith out. When he walked to the door, he watched the car drive away and heaved a sigh of relief. He took out his phone and looked at the message sent by Dayana’s phone number. He frowned. Was it really pregnancy depression?

Half an hour later. Dayana was dressed and supported into the wheelchair. “Where are you going to take me? I want to go home!” she asked, looking around at the nurses who were taking care of her. “Miss Quincy, please don’t move. We’ll be there soon.” “What do you mean?” Before Dayana could finish asking, a black cloth covered her head. She bit her lips and cursed Galilea ten thousand times in her heart. When she went out and took back her phone, she must throw that bitch into the sea to feed the sharks. Dayana was pushed forward and could not see anything. Suddenly, she heard the sound of an iron door opening. Then, the person pushing the wheelchair behind him stopped, and there was another round of rustling sound. ‘What took you so long? Hurry up and take this thing off my head!” Dayana was angry. A pair of hands pressed down on her shoulder from behind. “Miss Quincy, what are you in a hurry for?” This voice was...

“Galilea!”

Dayana struggled violently, but her wrists and ankles were tied, and she could not break free at all. “Don’t worry, we will be in the psychiatric department soon. You have to go in and receive treatment. It will be good for both you and the baby in your belly Since you take the child as a bargaining chip, this is your retribution.” Galilea bent down and leaned close to Dayana’s ear. As soon as she finished speaking, Dayana’s face turned pale Then, the black cloth cover above her head was removed, and she was pushed into the psychiatric ward zone with the wheelchair. She turned around and saw Galilea standing behind with a mask and nurse’s clothes. She waved slightly at her.

“Ah!” Dayana screamed. The doctors and nurses who were waiting to pick her up surrounded her at the same time.”

Chapter 205 No One Would Believe It “You must pay attention to the patient’s mood. This is a VIP customer of our psychiatric department and also Mr. Lorenzo’s fiancée. You must not have any accidents.” Director Lee said, raising his spint.

The nurses nodded and used all their strength to control Dayana to prevent her from hurting herself. Under their control, Dayana could not say anything and was pushed into the ward. “Galilea is behind! Bring that bitch in to see me.” Dayana was helped to the bed and shouted crazily. “How is that possible? Miss Quincy, you must have seen wrongly.” Director Lee was used to this kind of illness. At this time, with a smile on his face, he patiently comforted her emotions. “Don’t worry, the doctors and nurses in our department are very experienced. They can definitely cure you and let you leave the hospital.” Dayana directly swung her hand and slapped the nurse next to her. “Listen to me clearly. Bring that bitch Galilea in. You have all been deceived by her.” The nurse’s eyes turned red and she ran out crying. Director Lee had no choice but to ask someone to go out and find Galilea. With no result.

“Miss Quincy, you are really mistaken. The person you were talking about is not in our hospital. Please cooperate with us to treat you. Otherwise, I will have to take coercive measures.” Director Lee’s face also turned cold at this time. No matter how powerful Dayana’s background was, she was still a patient in his hands. How could he let her mess around? Following the continuous cursing and screaming in the ward. Galilea took off her mask and went around the other side of the safety staircase.

There, there were already people waiting for her.

“Fang Forrest, thank you.” The nurse uniform that Galilea was wearing was hers.

Fang Forrest was her inmate in prison. They had only spent more than a month together before Fang Forrest was released from prison.

“Don’t say that, Galilea. You were the one who helped me back then. Otherwise, I really wouldn’t have been able to face my current life.” Fang Forrest smiled. She had been the scapegoat for her boyfriend back then, but after she went in, that man actually fell in love with another woman.

She had committed suicide in prison but was stopped by Galilea... “If it is found out that I borrowed your clothes, you don’t have to be afraid. I will bear all the responsibility.” Galilea did not want to drag others down because of her. Fang Forrest was stunned at first, then shook her head, “Galilea, you still don’t understand the uniqueness of this department. Who would believe the words of a mental patient?”

“Even if I bring you in now and appear in front of Dayana, as long as I don’t say it, everyone will think that she is crazy.” What she said made sense.

Fang Forrest then left. Under the night sky outside the window, Galilea quickly walked out of the hospital. She had told the maid that she had to go out to buy some daily necessities, so she had run out of Micah’s villa. Now it was time to go back. When she went back, she could see the man’s expression. As she thought about this on the way, the corners of Galilea’s mouth could not help but rise.

Chapter 206 Too Late

Everything was just as Galilea had expected. Not long after she returned to the villa, Micah’s car drove in. He was full of anger. As soon as he entered, he questioned Galilea, “You went to the hospital?”

Galilea was peeling oranges in the dining room. She looked up, her eyes full of innocence.

“What?”

“I said, did you go to the hospital to scare Dayana?” Micah slammed the table. The doctors in the psychiatric department all said that Dayana was very abnormal, and she kept talking nonsense, saying that she had seen someone who should not have appeared in the hospital.

“Micah, if you want to say something, say it properly. Don’t slap the table. You have controlled my freedom now, is it not enough?”

“Even if you sue me for anything, present the evidence, and I will admit it,” Galilea shouted angrily. The two of them started arguing in the restaurant. When Sister Zhang heard the sound, she quickly got out of the kitchen. “Sir, don’t be angry. Miss Frankie has not left today.” She did not want the two of them to quarrel like this. Galilea looked at Sister Zhang and said nothing. Micah looked down and stared at Galilea’s beautiful face. “Okay, don’t let me find evidence, otherwise...” “Mr. Lorenzo! President Quincy and his wife are coming soon. They want to take Miss Quincy out of the hospital as soon as possible.” “To take her out?” Micah slowly stood up and said coldly. “Yes, the Quincy family doesn’t think we should send Miss Quincy in,” Keith said. They had even said a lot of unpleasant words on the phone, but Keith chose not to say them. In case he would add fuel to the fire. As they were talking, Lachlan and Wendy walked in with panic in their eyes. After seeing Galilea standing in front of Micah, Wendy’s expression was twisted with jealousy, and she frowned to avoid Galilea’s smiling gaze. “No wonder you wanted to send my daughter to that place. You wanted to secretly meet this woman. Are you worthy of my daughter’s feelings?” Lachlan shouted. “Lachlan,” Wendy carefully tugged at him from the side. “In the past, you did not respect me and looked down on our Quincy family. I will not argue with you. But today, you have to return my daughter to me.” Lachlan did not give him face at all.

Just like that? Galilea blinked and silently took half a step back. She adjusted her mentality and prepared to watch the show. How could the Quincy family sit still when Micah sent Dayana to the psychiatric department? If something happened to the baby, they would not be able to get close to Micah. Galilea really felt that Lachlan’s courage was commendable.

To think that she had reminded him so much before. Micah was not a good person. Lachlan had still... reduced to a chess piece in her hands.

In comparison, Wendy was much more clever. She quietly looked at Galilea’s expression and a thought occurred to her. Could all of this have something to do with Galilea? But how could she have such a great ability to deceive Micah and plot against Dayana? Wendy thought about it again and again and only felt that Galilea was even more terrifying. Not only was she scheming, but she was also especially good at acting. Even if ten Dayanas added up, they would still not be a match for her. Wendy looked at the angry Lachlan in front of her and sighed silently. “Have you said enough?” Micah’s face soured and the coldness in his eyes rolled over and over. “If you feel that my way of handling things is wrong, you can take your daughter back” Lachlan’s face stiffened. He did not expect Micah to be so easy to talk to today. He must have been frightened by his angry appearance, Lachlan felt a lot better and gulped, “At least you are sensible. However, Micah coldly said, “in the future, the marriage of the Quincy family and the Lorenzo family will be canceled, and we will contact each other” “What? Lachlan raised his eyebrows. Chapter 206 Too Late Wendy’s heart also skipped a beat. It was over They still provoked the tiger, Micah. “Lachlan, don’t be angry Sit down and talk slowly. Micah is in the same boat as us, both for Dayana and the baby in her belly.” Wendy had already married Lachlan, so naturally, she would share the honor and disgrace with the Quincy family. At this moment she could only pretend to be a good wife and persuade Lachlan. If they really confronted the Lorenzo family, then the Quincy family could wait to go bankrupt. Micah only needed to move his fingers, and it would be enough for them to suffer. With her saving this, Lachlan finally had a way out

He placed his palm on the table and looked at Galilea, who was watching the show, and his anger surged again.

He did not dare to fight Micah head-on, but couldn’t he move Galilea? “Also, what is the meaning of this woman appearing in your house time and time again? What is the relationship between you two?" Although Lachlan was still roaring, his voice was obviously much softer. Wendy breathed a sigh of relief, Fortunately, this man was not too stupid.

If not for Galilea, this matter might have passed just like that. But today, Galilea, the number one audience, was present,

This fire, of course, had to burn even more vigorously.

"Auntie Wendy is right. You are a family. It is not good to leave an outsider like me here. I will leave immediately!"

Galilea smiled, clapped her hands, and was about to leave. Lachlan was still sitting there and swearing. The next second, Galilea's wrist was grabbed by someone. 'She can't go anywhere.' He pulled hard and lowered his eyes. "You...

Lachlan's eyes widened. Wasn't Micah slapping his face right in front of him?

"Micah, you're going too far." As he roared, he clutched his chest, clearly furious. Wendy immediately went over to support him, slowly raising her eyes to look at Galilea, her eyes revealing panic and worry. Galilea did not need to think too much to know what Wendy was worried about.

"Mr. Lorenzo, can't you bear to part with me? What should I do? It's not suitable for me to stay in your house without an identity."

These words almost made Lachlan faint on the spot.

Micah had sent her daughter to the hospital and was messing around with his ex-wife at home.

How could he, the future father-in-law, accept this? Micah's eyes were filled with anger as he tightened his grip on her wrist. "Shut up!" "You hurt me." Galilea cried out in pain. His expression was extremely ugly. With a ruthless tug, he pulled Galilea towards him. Then, his tone was extremely cold. "Then I'll give you an identity. I'll let you live in the cage for the rest of your life, in which you would only wish you could die." Galilea's expression froze and she wanted to pull her hand out. A cold smile actually appeared on Micah's face. 'Want to run? It's too late, Galilea.'

He openly hooked her into his arms, his arms restraining Galilea's escape movements, and lowered his head to kiss her fiercely.

Biting, invading without any reason... "Fight me?"

Chapter 207 You Are So Ruthless

When he let go. Galilea regained the night to breathe She gasped for breath and was thrown aside by the man before she could stand firmly There was a slight wound on the corner of Galilea's mouth

Looking up again, Micah's face was gloomy and cold "You... Are you worthy of my daughter? She is pregnant with your or You are simply lawless!" Lachlan frowned. He felt that Lachlan was hopelessly stupid. No wonder Dayana was so unscrupulous. It was all inherited from

"President Quincy, this is my home. I don't have to report to now at I want to do you came uninvited, and I have given you enough face. If you want to order me around here, I am afraid you are not guilty."

Micah glanced over, and a chill filled the corners of his eyes "You!" Lachlan pounded his chest, almost unable to breathe "Keith, send President Quincy off." "President Quincy, this way please." Keith waved. "You will get your retribution! We, the Quincy family will not let this ça lacrilan pointed at Micah with trembling hands. "I will wait" Micah turned around and drank a cup of tea. When the door closed, he turned around and walked towards Galia Looking down at her, he suddenly sneered "It seems that I was too tolerant of you. I let you think that you m o whatever you want in front of me."

The freedom she could now enjoy was given to her by him. If she wanted to be out of his control, she was daydreaming Galilea kept her head down and tried to ease the meters internally. On then did she raise her head again. The pair of beautiful eyes reflected the cold face of the man she had long expected that such a day would come. "What's the use of Mr. Lorenzo saying all this now? You don't have to see that I did it. Dayana has entered the ward of the psychiatry department." Based on Lachlan's appearance just now, he would definitely be disappointed with Micah. The news that Dayana had a mental problem would spread tomorrow morning. He would become the gossip of everyone. She had achieved her goal. "I don't have much hope for this life of mine. But Mr. Lorenzo, you are unfortunate unfortunately." Galilea slowly pulled the corners of her mouth. "Galilea Frankie." As her name was ground out of his lips. "The Frankie Group has already signed a contract with the LTD, 712. Don't president, mysteriously disappear, do you think the outside world will suspect you? Galilea cured her lips.

She had carefully planned this and was waiting for Varusk to the

Now, it seemed that everything had gone very secure. She was indeed humiliated just now, but so what? Even if she died a hundred times, she would be happy as usual. She was turned into ashes. Micah clenched his fists fiercely, his eyes overflowing with anger. Galilea saw him step into the study, and with a bored expression, Sister Zhang immediately walked over and helped her.

Why? My temper. He only yields to a soft approach." The corners of Galilea's lips twitched, and she said, "What a coincidence, I am the same." She stared in the direction of the study and looked deep into it. Thank you. In this prison-like place, if not for Sister Zhang, you would be dead.

it was hard for her to imagine if she could personally confront him. "Sigh, silly child. Sister Zhang put Galilea's hand on her shoulder and tested and shook her head. Between the two, one was more stubborn. Galilea had already angered Micah. It was impossible for them to be together. This page that were the bodyguards outside.

Chapter 207 You Are So Ruthless She could only go back to her room first, pacing around and thinking, her heart growing a mess. Now that Micah was so angry, what would he do? Would he cancel the cooperation with the Frankie Group?

Or...

She waited for a while, and there were footsteps outside, Galilea frowned and stared in the direction of the door. "Miss Frankie, Mr. Lorenzo is on a business trip. But he still has people guard the outside. You had better not go out for the next few days." Sister Zhang was afraid that Galilea would be unable to think things through and would do something stupid. This unexpected situation made Galilea unable to come back to her senses for a long time. "What else did he say besides letting people watch me?" Sister Zhang shook her head, "No more." Galilea pursed her lips tightly. Could it be that he was deliberately putting her in suspense? "Thank you, Sister Zhang. I want to stay alone for a while." "Okay... If you need anything, call me at any time." Sister Zhang sighed and slowly closed the door.

In the car heading to the airport. Micah was using a fluent foreign language to communicate with the partner about cooperation. There was a temporary problem with the project over there and he had to deal with it personally. After getting the other party's understanding, Micah ended the conversation. As soon as he put down his phone, Keith handed him a report. "Mr. Lorenzo, a few directors of ours have been invited by Lachlan to have tea at home."

The man lifted his eyes, his expression cold.

"Keep a name list. I'll deal with it when I get back."

"Yes, Mr. Lorenzo." Keith took note of this matter but soon thought of something. "Mr. Lorenzo, do you need to send more people to your villa?"

It was absolutely impossible for Galilea to stay obediently.

In order to prevent her from going to the hospital to cause trouble again, he should make plans early. Of course, Micah had already considered this. "For the time being, don't worry about her," he said indifferently. His mind was constantly haunted by Galilea's incomparably firm eyes. His sudden business trip was definitely beyond her expectations. With such a good opportunity, she would definitely do something. What he wanted to wait for was a perfect opportunity. He wanted her to understand who was the one who decided the rules of the game. As for the loss that the Lorenzo group suffered this time, of course, it was all on her head. He had plenty of time to slowly drag it out with her.

He was afraid that the Frankie Group would not be able to survive until that day. Ever since the Frankie Group went bankrupt, Micah had taken this company into his pocket and had been secretly managing it. However, he did not actively manage it. Over time, this company seemed to be left with only an empty shell. But in fact, there was an even bigger surprise waiting for Galilea. Micah leaned back in his chair and slowly closed his eyes. At this time, at Lorenzo family's villa. Galilea looked at the contract cancellation books and leaflets that were sent to her hands, and was shocked speechless. She clenched those contract termination books and gritted her teeth. A thought came to her mind. 'Micah, you are ruthless enough!

A thought came to her mind. 'Micah, you are ruthless enough'

Chapter 208 Climbing Over the Wall

Sister Zhang saw how angry she was and leaned out to take a look, Galilea held several company termination books in her hands, and the dates were two years ago. Logically speaking, these things should have been disposed of long ago, but they had been delayed until now and no one had solved them. Why did they come to find her at this time? Apart from Micah who could do this behind the scenes, who else could do it? "Ms. Frankie, you don't have to be so excited. We also know that it has been a long time, and the sum is huge. It is hard for you to accept it for a while. At eight o'clock tonight, my boss is holding a banquet at Juhai Restaurant. Perhaps Ms. Frankie will find a solution when the time comes. The person who came to deliver these things was a young man in a suit, who spoke politely. "Who is your boss?" *This, it is temporarily inconvenient to tell Ms. Frankie. You will know when you attend the banquet tonight." Galilea watched as the other party turned around and left. She pursed her lips and seemed to be deep in thought.

Could this person have been sent by Micah? No, he did not have to beat around the bush. But for this person to be able to find her here, it was very likely that it was someone who understood the grudges between the Frankie family and Lorenzo family. Moreover, this news should have already reached Micah's ears. "Miss Frankie, are you going tonight?" Sister Zhang was a little worried. The corners of Galilea's mouth slowly twitched, and she directly threw the contract termination books into the trash can. "Of course not

Sister Zhang could not react in time. She was still thinking about how to persuade Galilea. After all, Micah had told her not to leave the villa before he went on a business trip. Galilea smiled. "Sister Zhang, although I am impulsive when I do things, I am not stupid. There is no need to go to such a banquet." "What do we eat?" Galilea said as she stretched. "Crucian soup, and." Sister Zhang hurriedly went into the kitchen to do her work. Galilea stood where she was and her smile gradually faded. She did not expect that at this time, the person who cared about her the most was actually the Lorenzo family's servant. She could not bear to let Sister Zhang worry about her. She lowered her eyes and glanced at the trash can. Galilea looked away expressionlessly. They had prepared so well that they must have a backup plan. If she did not go today, the other party would still come to her. They would definitely not be so easy to deal with next time.

Galilea had kept her word and had stayed at the Lorenzo family's villa to watch TV that night. There was a sudden flash of lightning outside the window. After a clap of thunder, the whole villa fell into darkness. "There should be no electricity. I'll go find the candles." Sister Zhang immediately took the flashlight and went to the storeroom. Galilea sat on the sofa and looked outside in a trance. There were several figures passing by in the courtyard.

"Who?"

Another bolt of lightning appeared in the sky. The courtyard was quiet, as if she had seen wrongly. "Miss Frankie, I only found two candles. Let me send you back to your room first. Galilea retracted her gaze and headed for the stairs. When she entered the room, Sister Zhang left. The whole villa was filled with a dark and lonely feeling. Galilea listened to the rain outside the window and frowned. This rainy night pulled her memories back to the day when her father had an accident.

The memory was like a brand, engraved in her heart

The Frankie family's door was smashed They broke into the house like crazy, smashed things, hit people.. Even now, the chaotic scene still made her feel angry

Chapter 208 Climbing Over the Wall The phone suddenly lit up. It was a message from an unknown number "Miss Frankle, you will regret it that you haven't come tonight" Was it Mr Oin? The boss of the person who had sent the contract termination today While Galilea was still hesitating about how to reply, the other party sent another message. It was a photo There were seven men and two women in the photo They were all business celebrities. Her father, Onyx, was one of them! "Time flow. In the blink of an eye, Mr. Frankie has been gone for two years. It seemed to be raining on the day of the Frankle family's accident too." Who the hell was he? Galilea immediately took out her phone and dialed the number, but no one answered, She kept calling, but the other party never answered, "Who are you? What are you trying to do?" Galilea sent a message. However, there was no reply until noon the next day. "Miss Frankie, why don't you eat something?" After waking up, Galilea had not eaten anything. She looked at her phone from time to time. "No need, Sister Zhang. I'm not hungry." Rather than saying that she was not hungry, it was better to say that she could not eat. She always had a very bad feeling, and she had to admit that the person who was watching her from behind the scenes seemed to be more sophisticated than Micah. Galilea had a feeling of being controlled for no reason Sister Zhang sighed, "How can you not eat anything? If Sir comes back and finds out, he will definitely..." "When will Micah come back?" A thought suddenly popped up in Galilea's mind. "It should be tomorrow night." Galilea muttered to herself and returned to her room with her phone "Should I tell Sir about this?" Sister Zhang sighed. At this time, at the overseas hotel. Micah had a meeting for the whole day. When he returned to his room, he saw a message from Lachlan. He advised him to go back as soon as possible and pick Dayana up from the hospital. Otherwise, he would bear the consequences.

The man stared at the phone screen and skipped to the next message, He hated being threatened the most. The Quincy family always had to step on his bottom line to test his patience. At this moment, Sister Zhang called. A beautiful face appeared in Micah's mind, He frowned and pressed the answer button, "Sir, Miss Frankie has run away over the wall." "She ran away?" The man's voice was full of anger. "Where can she run to? Get someone to catch her." "I saw a lot of blood on the windowsill. She seemed to have broken the glass and jumped downstairs. Will she be all right? Sister Zhang was very worried. She only regretted having not gone upstairs to take a look earlier. Otherwise, she should have been able to stop Galilea. On the other side of the line, the man's eyes suddenly turned cold. But when he was about to blurt out the words, he suddenly thought of something, "Got it. I will go back and deal with it." "But..." The more Sister Zhang thought about it, the more worried she felt. "Sir, should we send someone out to look for her?" "Look for her? She must be very well. The blood may not be hers." Micah's voice was extremely cold. He only said this one sentence before hanging up the phone.

Sister Zhang stood by the window, and her thoughts became heavier

In a small shop a few hundred meters away from the Lorenzo family's villa, Galilea was slowly enjoying her midnight snack After eating and drinking, she took out her phone and looked at it again. Then, her thin figure disappeared into the night The bright moon was in the sky, of course, it was a good day to go to the hospital for a visit.

Chapter 208 Climbing Over the wall Although the Lorenzo family's bodyguards had all been with an in order to prevent outsiders from approaching Dayana warl. Director Ice had sent extra people on this floor it was indeed a bit difficult to enter without anyone noticing Tanglorest sighed, "I was too naive before in this situation, I may not be able to secretly bring you in"

She was annoyed that she could not help Galilea

"Who said I was going to sneak in? Galilea smiled indifferently

Chapter 209 How Much Did Quincy Family Get?

Fang Forrest was stunned for two seconds "You mean."

"Dayana is now a patient in the hospital, not in prison I will register according to the visiting process, right?" Galilea blinked seriously.

"Yes, but you have to ask for the consent of the patient or family members." "Take me to see your Director Lee. The Quincy family will agree to let me in." Fang Forrest was confused But she believed in Galilea and chose to take her to Director Lee's office, In fact, Director Lee was also very anxious at this time. This was because the results of Dayana's several examinations were very different Although this had something to do with their positive treatment plan, what Director Lee was even more worried about now was that perhaps from the beginning, Dayana had no mental problems! "Which segment went wrong? When Director Lee thought of the pressure from the Lorenzo group, he was so anxious that he broke out in cold sweat.

Dong "Who is it?" Director Lee shouted at the top of his voice. "Director Lee, this young lady said that she is a friend of Miss Quincy and has also been approved by her family. She wants to go in and visit the patient" Fang Forrest brought Galilea inside. "Who agreed? Director Lee's face was unfriendly Why was it related to Dayana again? "Dayana's mother, Wendy. She agreed to let me come, Galilea said with a smile. A few minutes later. Galilea pushed open the door to Dayana's room. As soon as she entered, she smelled a strong smell of disinfectant. "Director Lee, did you use too much disinfectant here?" Galilea looked around, pondering something. Director Lee thought that she felt that too much disinfectant would affect the health of the patient. He immediately explained, "Everything is done according to the standards of the hospital. If the patient's family members feel that we have overused it, then...

'Overused it? 'No, I don't think it's enough, Galilea said with a smile. "Dayana is inside, right? she asked, looking at the tightly closed door in front of her. Director Lee looked at her and felt that there was a deeper meaning in it. But Galilea was generous and magnanimous, so he could not say anything.

"Please go ahead, Miss Frankie The strange thing was that when Galilea entered, he felt that he had heard this name somewhere before. It was very familiar, but he could not remember it for a while.

"The others go to the office first. Fang Forrest, you guard outside the door. Don't let Miss Quincy feel uncomfortable." "Don't worry, Director Lee. I will guard it well" Fang Forrest twitched the corners of her lips, and the smile under the mask was bright and harmless. In the ward. Galilea's footsteps were very light. Seeing that Dayana had fallen asleep on the bed, she chuckled. She took out a small bottle from her bag and placed it on the table. Perhaps she felt that someone was staring at her, Dayana woke up very quickly. When she saw the person sitting in front of her clearly. "You slut, I will kill you!" Dayana immediately screamed. If not for Galilea having set her up, how could she be locked up here and suffering? Moreover, she didn't need to go out to know how those people outside would talk about her! Dayana had signed several advertising contracts, but now all of them were ruined. "Miss Quincy, don't do anything illegal. It's not good for you and your child; Galilea said with a faint smile as she met Dayana's gaze. Child When she heard Galilea say the word, Dayana trembled all over and tightly protected her lower abdomen "Don't come over Someone come! Is there anyone outside?" But the person guarding outside was Fang Forrest No matter how hard Dayana called out, it was useless. She could only watch as Galilea walked towards her step by step.

Chapter 209 How Much Did Quincy Family Get? “What exactly are you trying to do...’ Dayaria was both angry and scared, and the expression on her face was indescribably wonderful “I’ve said it many times I’m here to visit the sick. You’re mentally ill now, so of course, I have to show my concern.” Dayana tugged at the corner of the blanket tightly. She pressed the bell at the bed. Galilea frowned and looked at Dayana. “After all, I have personally sent you in.’ Hearing Galilea’s words, Dayana was already on the verge of crying. The nurses did not allow her to use her phone at all. She did not know what had happened outside these days. When she heard Galilea’s words, the last string in her heart was broken. “If I were you, I wouldn’t have asked such a stupid question.’ Galilea took out the small bottle she had brought with her. There were a total of three bottles in front of her. “What are they?’ Dayana stared at her.

“Don’t worry, it’s not poison. It’s just that the chemicals here will react to the disinfectant in the ward. The gas produced will make it hard to breathe and cause cancer to the lungs.” Dayana immediately covered her mouth and kept retreating. “You madwoman, if you hurt me, you won’t be able to escape!” She wanted to use this kind of excuse to intimidate Galilea. However, it did not work at all. Instead, the smile on Galilea’s lips grew even wider. “Escape? I never thought of escaping. I lived to avenge Micah. After all, you are his fiancée.”

“We are not married yet, we have not registered! If you want to take revenge, go find him. Don’t look for me. I am innocent.”

Galilea did not expect that Dayana would change her face so quickly. “Really? I thought you loved Micah very much! Galilea played with the small bottle in her hand. Her beautiful face showed a feminine beauty under the moonlight. However, when she looked up again, her eyes were cold. “Unfortunately, your acting is not good at all, and there are many flaws. She pretended to open the bottle. Dayana screamed and begged for mercy, “No, I beg you!” Since the last time she was locked on the balcony and then sent to the mental ward, Dayana’s hatred for Galilea had only increased. However, she understood that Galilea was not talking nonsense. In order to take revenge, she really could do anything. Because of this, Dayana did not doubt the contents of the bottle at all, *If you have any requests, feel free to ask. Don’t hurt me.’ At this time, Dayana was like a fish on the chopping board that was at the mercy of others, crying and shouting. Galilea’s hand stopped moving. “Are you sure? Dayana leaned over and nodded. “I can do whatever you want as long as you don’t hurt me and the child in my belly.’ She was really afraid of Galilea.

“Then answer three of my questions. If you are right, I will consider letting you go for the time being.” Galilea said and sat down on the sofa.

She didn’t have much time. At this time, the Quincy family should have known that she came to visit. Galilea remained expressionless and looked at Dayana with a smile. “Ask away’ Dayana lowered her head, her voice muffled and fearful. “How much did the Quincy family get from the Frankie Group’s accident?”

Chapter 210 Physical Checkup

“I don’t know anything about business.” Dayana looked up and shook her head. “I really don’t know...” She felt that those things were very troublesome. Every time there were guests at home, she would hide in her room, Moreover, it had been so long ago, how could she remember it? Galilea’s eyes darkened. She did not expect Dayana to say anything, but from her expression, Galilea was certain that Lachlan must have participated in the bankruptcy of the Frankie family. They were not innocent when she treated the Quincy family like this. “Second question, when did Wendy get together with your father?” It was not easy for Dayana to get a question that she could answer. She was afraid that she would make Galilea unhappy, so she quickly said, "Last summer." "Continue." Galilea stared at her face and said in a cold voice. "I hated her from the beginning. She always looked gentle, which made my dad dizzy. Although my dad always had women outside, he never said that he would marry them. Wendy was the first one." Galilea calculated the time in her heart.

Listening to Dayana again, it did not seem like she was lying.

In terms of seducing men, Wendy was indeed very good. Otherwise, the Frankie family would not have been put in such a mess by her. "The third question..." Just as Galilea was about to speak, there was a sudden knock on the door. "Miss Quincy, the thing Mr. Xiao sent you has arrived."

This voice was not Fang Forrest. Galilea suddenly looked at the door and walked behind Dayana at the fastest speed. She raised her hand and tightly gripped Dayana's shoulder blade. Dayana was in pain from the pinch. She shouted at the door in a grievance, 'I have already fallen asleep. Let's talk about it tomorrow.' She did not know what Terry had given her. However, her relationship with Terry was a secret. She could not let Galilea know. Unfortunately, Galilea had already been clear about this matter. If not for the fact that she was afraid that someone would come in and interfere with her plan, Galilea wouldn't have done anything unnecessary. "Alright then, Miss Quincy. I'll come back tomorrow." The nurse said again before turning to leave. Galilea stared in the direction of the door. No matter how she thought about it, she felt that something was wrong. When she came in to visit Dayana, she needed her own consent. Why would Terry be able to give her something? Galilea directly put away the things on the table. She opened the door and walked out. Fang Forrest was no longer there. She turned sideways and wanted to go down the stairs. Suddenly, she saw light below and immediately went into the nearby storeroom. Then, the police came over with a group of people. The leader was Terry. "Thank you for your hard work. Capture the mastermind quickly. Only then will Dayana be safe.' The police officer nodded with a smile. "Don't worry, President Xiao He then ordered his subordinates to act. Soon, the entire corridor was filled with police officers. Galilea held her breath and stood nervously behind the door. The phone screen suddenly lit up. It was actually a call from Micah. Galilea immediately hung up, but he called again. She covered the phone and tried to reduce the sound of the vibration "How is it? Did you find her?' The officer asked his subordinate. The voice was very close, right at the door! Galilea frowned and kept thinking of ways. "No, Captain Gao, why don't we go downstairs and take a look? Maybe she has already received the news and left.' "Team One and Team Two, go look downstairs. 17.9

Chapter 210 Physical Checkup Soon, the footsteps were getting farther and farther away, and the corridor was quiet again. Galilea breathed a sigh of relief weakly. She glanced at the phone screen and sneered. Could it be that Micah had called her to prevent her from being caught... How was that possible?

Galilea leaned against the wall of the storeroom and did not dare to relax for a moment. She had been listening to the movements in the corridor. Soon, Lachlan and Wendy rushed over. Galilea chuckled. What a coincidence. Just as Terry left with the police, the couple arrived. Then, voices come from the next room, with Dayana's crying. Galilea carefully moved closer and leaned against the wall to listen. 'Why didn't you tell me in advance? I was scared to death by her," Dayana said as she patted the bed hard,

"Dayana, don't cry. Your dad didn't tell you because he was afraid that you would expose yourself and make that little slut suspicious. She has always been smart. Wendy advised. "But, didn't she still run away?' Dayana was so angry that she gritted her teeth. "When Micah returns to the country, immediately cancel the engagement with him.’ Lachlan slapped his thigh. Dayana was stunned.

“No.”

Her biggest wish was to marry Micah, how could she... “What do you want to do? With a big belly, you want to stick to him? Just because you two failed to get married, you were ruined twice. I don’t even have a place to put my old face.’ When Lachlan thought of this matter, he was so angry that his chest hurt.

Looking at the father and daughter pair who were so impatient, Wendy secretly shook her head. He was really not as good as Onyx... But she still said patiently, ‘I don’t think things are in a desperate situation. Don’t we have a helper here?’ “Helper? Are you talking about Terry?” Dayana blinked. Wendy nodded with a smile. She had been through it before and could tell at a glance that Terry was special to Dayana. Moreover, today’s plan had been proposed by Terry. If Galilea hadn’t taken the initiative to leave first, they would have definitely caught her.

She could at least be locked up for another year and a half! Wendy calculated the money she took from the Frankie family and made up her mind to cut off Galilea’s escape route.

Only in this way could she be Mrs. Quincy at ease. “He will help Dayana? He is the Lorenzo group’s vice president. It is clear that he is Micah’s man.’ Lachlan shook his head. “Not necessarily One sheath can not hold two swords. No one will want to stand under someone else’s feet forever.” Galilea listened in the storeroom and scoffed at Wendy’s treacherous plan. She was only annoyed that she had not discovered her venomous heart earlier,

At the same time. Micah had already boarded the plane back to China. Keith reported everything that had happened in the hospital to him. “Why did Terry go to the hospital?’ The man’s face gradually darkened. “I heard that Vice President was not feeling well. He went for a physical checkup.” Keith reported in a low voice.

The man pressed his eyebrows

Someone would go to the hospital in the middle of the night for a physical checkup? “After the police searched the hospital, they found nothing. Miss Frankie should have escaped Keith subconsciously felt that Micah would not be so angry when he heard this news.

Sure enough, the coldness in the man’s eyes dissipated a little. ‘Where is Dayana?’

‘Lachlan helped her with the discharge procedures. She will be discharged early tomorrow morning, “After the plane lands, we go directly to the Quincy family. Micah said. “Yes, Mr. Lorenzo. Since someone wanted to play tricks behind his back, he would go and see for himself who was so reckless,
