

Chapter 211 Smash Her Face

Galilea sat in the hospital storeroom and slept all night. When she woke up, it was already bright outside. She sent a message to Fang Forrest and left from the staff lift behind. Before leaving, she left a small gift for Dayana. Wendy finished the discharge formalities for Dayana. As soon as she returned to the ward, she saw that Dayana was throwing a tantrum. "What's wrong?" Wendy looked at the mess on the ground and frowned, "Don't talk to me! I'm annoyed to see anyone now." Dayana bit the corner of her lips. If she had not been pregnant, she would have gone to settle the score with Galilea now. "Auntie, Dayana was scared by Galilea's prank just now." Elisa sighed beside her. "What?"

Wendy thought that Galilea had returned and looked behind her nervously. Elisa was stunned. Why was this family so afraid of Galilea? But she still explained, "Galilea put a few small bottles in the bathroom at the door, emitting white smoke. Dayana remembered that Galilea threatened her that the things inside were poisonous and would cause cancer." Wendy immediately covered her mouth and nose. "The doctor came to see it. He said it was just smoke. That slut actually dared to lie to me again and again. I'm going to kill her!" Dayana was about to explode from anger. Wendy heaved a sigh of relief. She glanced outside the door and went forward to grab Dayana, "Alright, let's go home first. Micah has already returned to the country. He'll come to see you at home in a while." "He's coming to see me? How could he take the initiative to see me? It must be my father who invited him to his house to talk to him about the cancellation of the engagement." Thinking of this, Dayana's heart was filled with sadness. "That might not be the case. This time, he took the initiative to go home, I think there is still a turning point for this matter, but you have to be alert first. Don't let others see a joke." Wendy took Dayana's hand and coaxed her with a few words. "No matter how capable Galilea is, she can't compare to the child you are pregnant with, understood?"

The child... Dayana's hand touched her lower abdomen. Yes, she wanted to protect the child. However, Galilea had warned her not to use the child as a bargaining chip. When Dayana walked out of the hospital, she was in a trance and in a daze. Seeing that she was in a particularly bad state, Wendy simply told her to turn her face paler so that Micah would cherish her and feel sorry for her pregnancy. "When the time comes, you will push everything onto Galilea. Do you remember?" Dayana changed into pure white lace pajamas, just enough to outline the shape of her lower abdomen. She looked down at her bloated figure. "With my current appearance, will Micah really be tempted?" In the past, Terry would call her at night, but now he would not call her anymore. Her current appearance was not attractive to men. "Of course! Listen to me." Wendy leaned forward and whispered a few words into Dayana's ear, "Alright, let's give it a try. Dayana's eyes lit up with joy. Half an hour later Micah's car stopped at the entrance of the Quincy family's house. However, he did not come alone. Other than Keith, he had also brought Galilea, who had just left the hospital, over. However, Galilea's hands were tied and her mouth was gagged. She was talking in a cool manner, but she could not be heard clearly. "Keep quiet, do you understand? Micah glanced at her coldly. Galilea was not convinced, but she could only nod. She did not want to be a mute all the time. "I don't believe it, Micah raised his hand and circled her in front of her, then pushed open the car door.

Cleop!1211 Smash Her Front "Galilea? Dayana and Wendy were in the living room. When they saw the woman who had been brought in, they were both stunned. What was going on with the situation in front of them? "It's fine if you came, but why did you bring this woman here? Do you think that we Quincy family have not lost enough face? Lachlan asked with a cold face. Dayana, on the other hand, followed Wendy's instructions and stood quietly to the side.

She was completely different from her usual barbaric self She would occasionally glance of Galilea as if she was afraid of being tortured by her Wendy rolled her eyes and also began to cooperate with Dayana in acting Dayana, don't be afraid. We are all by your side. Micah is also here to see you.' Just as Dayana was about to respond, she looked up and saw Galilea staring at her. "I can't do it!"

She grabbed Wendy's clothes and immediately hid behind her. "Micah, you saw it too. Dayana is really frightened, I think you should go back first. "No Micah, can you stay with me and let her go?' Dayana asked immediately. Wendy sighed helplessly. Micah's eyes were as indifferent as water. He glanced at Dayana and said directly to Lachlan, "What happened these days not only brought shame to the Quincy and Lorenzo families but also affected the business cooperation of the two companies. But I believe that President Quincy and I don't want to see such a situation.

Lachlan's expression froze.

Micah's words had struck a chord in his heart.

The person who did not want to ruin the Lorenzo group's relationship the most was him, but he had no choice but to pressure Micah because of his face.

If there was a chance...

Micah narrowed his eyes and closed his thin lips. "President Quincy. I have already brought the initiator of this matter. How to deal with her is up to you." As he spoke, he waved his hand and pushed Galilea in front of them.

Eight bodyguards stood behind him in unison

Galilea had nowhere to retreat

She glared at Micah. She had calculated everything, but she had never expected that he would bow down to the Quincy family.

"Don't worry, President Quincy. If anything happens, I will be responsible for it Even if Galilea died in the Quincy family's hands today, he could wipe the traces clean. Galilea stared at them with anger in her eyes. It was her fault for being careless.

"Really?' Dayana was overjoyed. She directly came in front of Lachlan. She was not shivering anymore.

'Dad, you heard it, right? I am in Micah's heart Didn't he catch Galilea?'

Wendy wanted to stop her, but she was a step too late.

Dayana came directly in front of Galilea. She raised her hand and gave her a slap. She used a lot of strength to throw Galilea off balance and even staggered back a few steps "You locked me on the balcony in the hospital.'

Another slap.

"You set me up and let me enter the psychiatric department! She was venting her anger freely, and she raised her wrist again. Micah raised his hand and held it.

"Micah, don't stop me. I will smash her face today!'

Chapter 212 Interference G escheeks net red from being hit and she tried her best to endure the pain, but she did not make a sound.

As this time, the action of Micah stopping Dayana only made her feel very ridiculous In this man's hand didn't he also want to torture her? Galen glared fiercely at the couple in front of her her eyes stubborn Devana stomped her feet in anger. 'She almost killed me and my child... As soon as she said this Dayana suddenly remembered that Galilea had threatened her not to use the child as a bargaining chip Her face froze and she was stunned "Be careful with the baby Micah also released her hand and said coldly There was a look of joy on Dayana's face again. She leaned into the man's arms like a little bird and said sweetly. You still care about me. I know I won't hurt her anymore if I hit her, my hand will also hurt Micah pulled his arm out of her hand without any trace and looked at Lachlan again. He had given the Quincy family enough face today. If he didn't appreciate it it would be that Lachlan really wanted to go against the Lorenzo group and seek death "Mr. Lorenza, let's go to the study to talk Lachlan immediately put on a smile and ordered the servants to pour tea and water. He also whispered to Wendy, 'Don't let Dayana do it again. It is still useful to keep her.'" Wendy didn't dare to do anything to Galilea from the bottom of her heart She was also afraid that Galilea would take revenge on her in the future. She immediately nodded. "Don't worry. I will take good care of Dayana." Lachlan patted her shoulder in satisfaction and entered the study with Micah The conversation ended very quickly. In less than ten minutes, Micah walked out. Lachlan sent him out with a smile. It seemed that they had already agreed on a condition that both of them were satisfied with Galilea chuckled with disdain. This was the face of a profiteer. He could ignore everything and even let go of his enmity with his enemies. it was at that moment that she seemed to understand that in the hearts of these two men the child in Dayana's belly was not so important. Unfortunately, Dayana herself did not understand. As soon as she saw Micah come out she welcomed him with a heart full of joy and circled his arm coquettishly. "Micah, what do you want to eat tonight? Just stay "No, I have something to do in the company. The indifference in Micah's eyes was as usual. In the next moment his eyes fell on Galilea. He turned his head and said to Lachlan, 'President Quincy. I will take her away.'

That won't do!" Dayana said hurriedly "Alright Dayana, be careful of your fetal condition' Lachlan said as he shot Wendy a look. Galilea did not expect that she would leave the Quincy family so easily. She thought that she would have to take at least another dozen slaps. Micah walked in front and Galilea followed behind. It was not that she was willing to enter the tiger's den, but that the bodyguards behind her had been staring at her She really had no choice. "Let's go Micah instructed the driver with a cold gaze. As the car drove out of the Quincy family's door, he took out his phone and dialed a number. "Inform everyone that from now on, support Quincy Group's water therapy project with all your strength. All technology must be the best Galilea raised her eyebrows. This was the benefit that he had given Lachlan? That was true. With the Lorenzo group's support, Lachlan would be able to save a lot of money. The outside world would also know that the Lorenzo family and Quincy family were on good terms. This price was not small. Galilea's face turned cold and she thought disdainfully. In order to coax his fiancée. Micah had really put in a lot of effort,

The car did not go straight back to Micah's villa but stopped at the door of a pharmacy The man pushed the door open and got out of the car, going in to buy some medicine. After returning to the car he pulled Galilea over. Galilea subconsciously resisted and struggled, only to hear him say coldly, "Don't move." Galilea's chin was hooked up by him. His eyes were like a pool of stagnant water, and her face quickly felt cold. He was smearing the ointment on her cheek

Chapter 212 Interference That strange feeling made Galilea frown tightly Micah frowned "Close your eyes Galilea was not that obedient. She just stared at the man in front of her Unlabeled eyes showed annoyance and he took the thing that was stuffed in her mouth. Galilea's face was already a little numb. She took advantage of the moment when Micah let go and hid behind. The distance between the two suddenly widened. Her clear disgust and avoidance were also seen by the man. His eyes darkened and he threw the ointment aside. 'Don't go out for the next few days. If Sister Zhang doesn't watch you well again, she will bear all the responsibility.' 'On what terms? Galilea subconsciously retorted. The moment she opened her mouth, the corners of her mouth burned with pain. However, she endured it and argued with him, 'You tied me up here. Isn't that enough for Dayana to vent her anger? You even want to drag Sister Zhang into this. You are too despicable' The man gently turned his head to look at her and suddenly sneered, 'In your eyes, I have always been a despicable person Galilea did not say anything. She had nothing to say to him. As soon as the car stopped in the yard, she pushed open the door and walked into the villa. Micah watched her enter the villa with his own eyes. His tightly knitted eyebrows slowly relaxed. His phone rang

He pressed the answer button.

'Micah, everything is clear. Director Qin of your company used to be Onyx's business partner. They had some friendship, but later on, their business philosophy was different, so they went their separate ways. After Onyx died, Qin Sihai avoided the matter of the Frankie family Lachlan must have taken a fancy to his relationship with the Frankie family, so he made him interfere.' Micah listened to Jasper's words, and his eyes were deep.

Also, the contract cancellation books have been dealt with. They will not trouble Galilea again. If you really want to help her, why do you have to do it in such a sneaky way? Jasper suddenly thought of something If they did it openly, those people would not dare to do it again in the future. Galilea would also understand his good intention. Even if she did not forgive him, she would not hate him so much. 'Forget it. Micah said tiredly as he held his phone. Before he did all these things, he had never thought of forcing Galilea to forgive him. Today, he had made her go to the Quincy family to receive two slaps, and he was afraid that she would hate him even more in her heart

Micah rubbed the space between his eyebrows, 'You should also help me with the cooperation project with the Frankie Group. If i come out, too many things will be involved "Okay, understood

After the two of them hung up the phone, Jasper followed Micah's instructions and began to push forward the development project of the West City District Micah returned to the company. Before he entered the office, Qin Sihai and several directors were already standing at the door.

'Mr Lorenzo, we really know that we were wrong, but our original intention was good. Cooperating with the Frankie Group will do the Lorenzo group no harm'

Yes, Mr Lorenzo, don't be stubborn. Sometimes, you have to listen to our opinions, right?

"Your opinions? Micah slammed the door. Your stupid actions almost smashed the Lorenzo group's signboard!

Chapter 213 Compensation

His sudden anger intimidated the directors. They looked on helplessly and did not dare to make a sound. Only Qin Sihai, relying on his seniority, had worked in the business world for many years. 'Mr Lorenzo, we are indeed doing this for the sake of the company. The private affairs between you and the Frankie family should not affect the development of the company.' When did I need you to teach me how to do things? For a moment, the anger that he exuded swept through every one of them. "Mr. Lorenzo, Director Qin doesn't mean that your position in the company is incomparable.' 'Yes, yes, yes. Director Qin wanted to persuade the little girl at first, but he didn't expect it to end up like this. Keith Micah shouted. Keith immediately walked in with a low manager, then, dozens of accounts and reports were sent to the directors.

Mr. Lorenzo had already planned it. I was not a whim to cooperate with the Frankie Group. It was just that the abrupt and ignorant actions made Mr. Lorenzo have no choice but to close the relationship with the Quincy Group. * This!"

The few directors were dumbfounded, Their original intention was not like this. "Back then, Vice President Xiao and we..." 'Who is in charge of the Lorenzo group?' Before he finished speaking. Micah threw a fierce look at him.

"You! Of course, it's you" The directors immediately lowered their heads, not caring about the issue of face or not. They repeatedly promised, "We will never interfere in the future. Please forgive us, Mr. Lorenzo. Qin Sihai did not want to lower his head, but he was pressed down by the director next to him Micah glanced at them coldly, then gave Keith a look 'Everyone, Mr. Lorenzo just came back from a business trip. He needs to rest. Please go back.' Keith opened the door "Yes, yes, yes. We won't disturb Mr. Lorenzo anymore.' The few of them hurriedly walked out.

The door closed again, and Micah slowly closed his eyes. In order to rush back, he had not slept for a day and a night. If not for these old guys who were so worried, he would not have lost so much. Outside the door, there was a knock Hualen Lorenzo's secretary walked in with a smile. 'Mr. Lorenzo, this is the concert ticket that Vice President Lorenzo asked me to send to you. He means that you've worked too hard, and you should take time to relax with Miss Quincy. The secretary placed the tickets on the table and left quietly. However, Micah frowned slightly, Dayana had never liked these things. Moreover, he did not want to go with Dayana Looking at the promotional words on the tickets, he vaguely thought that Galilea seemed to like this band very much.

After setting the company matters, Micah returned to the villa. It was already post dinner time. As soon as he entered, he heard Galilea and Sister Zhang happily talking about something in the kitchen, But when they heard Micah's footsteps, they immediately stopped. Galilea put down her cup and went back to her room.

The man's eyes turned cold. He did not expect Galilea to react like this. Even if she made a scene, he would feel better. "Sir, would you like me to warm up the food?" Sister Zhang asked hurriedly.

*What did she do after she came back?' Micah nodded indifferently,

Just like before, she was reading books and cooking something in the kitchen with me. The bread in the oven was baked by Miss Frankie.' Sister Zhang said as she served the food. He sniffed the air and sure enough, there was a faint smell of milk in the air. So she lived comfortably He did not see Galilea for the whole night

The next morning, Sister Zhang sent her breakfast to the room as usual. Micah just came out of the study, and before he could even see the hem of her clothes, the bedroom door was closed. The coldness between his eyebrows became thicker and thicker

Chapter 213 Compensation

Sic, or you looking for Miss Frankie? Sister Zhang looked back and saw Micah standing there 'No Micah threw out the word and quickly went downstairs, He could feel that Galilea was disgusted, so she did not want to see him This looking made him very uncomfortable. He changed his coat at the door and suddenly felt the concert tickets in his pocket. He put them on the table and said, 'If she wants to go, let the driver send her.'" Galilea heard the sound of the car driving downstairs and came out of the room.

*Sister Zhang, the pomdige for breakfast is very delicious. Thank you Galilea had mentioned once by chance that she liked the taste. but she did not expect Sister Zhang to remember it and make it for her specially Galilea was much simpler than Micah thought. As long as anyone was good to her, she would find ways to return it 'As long as you like it. Oh right, Miss Frankie, this was left behind by Sir before he left. Do you want to go? Sister Zhang asked with a smile.

Sister Zhang always felt that this was how Micah was apologizing. Galilea was originally not interested, but when she saw that it was her favorite band. &

She hesitated 'Sister Zhang, why don't you go with me? 'I don't know much about this, so I won't go.'

Galilea looked at the two tickets and her eyes darkened. She remembered that before she got married, she had invited Micah to go to the concert, but he stood her up. The late compensation was really annoying. 'Anyway, it's for nothing. It's a waste not to go. Galilea held the two tickets. Moreover, these two tickets were VIP tickets for the inner court. Galilea hesitated a little, then called Nore. There were some things that she wanted to tell him in person. At seven o'clock in the evening, Galilea was sent to the entrance of the concert by Micah's driver. "Miss Frankie, after the concert is over, I am still waiting for you here." Galilea agreed She knew that she could not run away. As long as Micah said a word, she would be caught even if she ran to the ends of the earth. Rather than that, it was better to eat and drink in the villa. Nore had been waiting at the door for a long time. Seeing her go over his face was full of worry. 'Dayana is discharged. She didn't make things difficult for you, right? "She is a spoiled young lady. What can she do to me? Galilea smiled and shook her head. Although she had indeed been slapped twice. However, compared to the pain she had brought to Dayana, this was nothing. Nore looked at the unconcerned expression on Galilea's face, and his eyes sank. The Galilea of the past was also held in the palm of everyone, but now. "Alright, it's about time. Let's go in." Galilea wrapped the coat around her body and felt that it was very cold. Nore followed her and carefully took off his coat and put it on her shoulder,

The two of them walked into the concert hall side by side.

There was a black car parked in the distance. The man in the car saw this scene

Good, very good

She actually took the concert tickets he had given and dated Nore?

Chapter 214 On Purpose

Mr Corror, pe you still going to the company? The driver could clearly feel the low atmosphere in the car and asked in a low voice *lun! yorg

Allir coying that Micah opened the door

At the end of the concert, Galilea was still immersed in it

She had liked this band for long, but now that she had experienced so much, listening to these songs again gave her a different feeling "Let's go 'Nore accompanied her. "There's a coffee shop downstairs Let's sit down. I have something to talk to you about." "Okay Galilea sat down by the window and smiled. "During this period of time, Lubi Group has developed very well under your leadership. I have watched the news.'

Her appearance made Nore feel strange. "Reporters are always exaggerating' He pushed the coffee in front of her. "En Galilea rubbed her coffee cup. When the accident happened last time, I felt that I was responsible, sol. "Galilea, don't say anymore "No matter what you want to say, I don't want to hear it today. Just let me be willful to you for once, okay? "Don't be so childish. I have to say it sooner or later,' Galilea said with a frown

"That's because you haven't seen what I will look like in the future. I will make the Lubi Group take a step further. At that time, no one will dare to bully you and threaten you."

He had never been so determined to do something Even in the past when he drove a race car, Nore had always had a playful mentality, but now, he was really serious Wasn't it just Micah? As long as he was willing to study diligently, it wouldn't be long before he could fight with that man. "There are some things that I don't want you to be implicated in. Micah and L... Galilea moved the corners of her lips. Before she could finish speaking, her gaze was fixed on the figure at the door. His body emitted a cold air. His black windbreaker was stained with the snow of the night. He looked around the entire hall expressionlessly. When he saw Galilea, he quickly walked over. "It's time to go" Micah looked at the two cups of coffee and felt that it was very dazzling. "Galilea is not going anywhere." Nore also stood up and confronted Micah. "Is that so?" Micah smiled mockingly and glanced at Galilea. The light in his eyes was deep and cold, like a sign of a blizzard approaching Galilea's hand was on the table.

She understood Micah's expression too well. Every time he was about to get angry, he would have this expression. If she didn't want to implicate Nore, she could only submit to him.

Nore, I haven't finished today. Let's talk another time. Galilea stood up, lowered her eyes, and walked behind Micah.

"Galilea!"

Nore was anxious and wanted to pull her back But just as he reached out he was stopped by Micah.

"Don't force things that don't belong to you." Micah said this and then took Galilea out. The snow outside the door was getting heavier and heavier. Galilea's coat looked very thin. She took a few steps forward and saw Micah stop. "Don't think that I will be like him and give you the coat to wear" He turned around with a cold look in his eyes. "I didn't think that way." Galilea frowned.

She strode towards the car across the road.

When she arrived, she realized that the car door was locked. In other words, Micah was personally driving here to wait for her? Galilea looked at the man who was slowly sitting in the driver's seat in confusion. She only felt that Micah was crazy Otherwise, why would he have wasted so much energy on her? Or perhaps, he was still planning something.

Chapter 214 On Purpose "Get in the car"

The man glanced at her coldly Histone was cold

Galilea adjusted her coat. After sitting in the car, she felt a little warm In the distance, Nore was walking out of the coffee shop Galilea only glanced in that direction, and Micah stepped on the accelerator harder. She did not react in time and was shaken violently Her head almost hit the window

"You.

She gritted her teeth in hatred and was about to curse when Micah's phone rang.

He pressed the call button with a cold face. "Mr. Lorenzo, the cooperation plan with the Frankie Group has been drafted. Should I send it directly to Miss Frankie? According to the current situation, she is the only one of the Frankie Group, and there is no actual office location. It is difficult to start the follow-up work" Keith reported. Galilea clutched her seatbelt. This was indeed what she was most worried about. She could disregard her face and stick to the Lorenzo group. As long as this project was completed, the Frankie Group would have the capital to make a comeback.

But before that...

Where could she recruit talents in this area and how could she rent an office?

The reality was always like a sharp blade, cutting away all her hopes unknowingly. At the next intersection, Micah looked ahead and said lightly, "Let's talk about it tomorrow" "Okay, Mr. Lorenzo" Then, the phone was hung up. It was not until the car stopped at the entrance of the villa that Micah slowly turned around. His eyes were sharp and piercing 'I can destroy the Frankie Group, and I can also give the Frankie Group hope to live. Can Nore do this?' Galilea frowned and did not speak. "Beg me, and I will let the Frankie Group live. Otherwise, once the cooperation is concealed the Frankie Group will once again be drowned in the dust." Micah said, slamming the door and leaving. Galilea felt the temperature in the car cool down bit by bit, just like her mood at this time, falling into the deep valley Galilea stepped up the steps, each step like stepping on a needle tip "Miss Frankie, why are you standing at the door?" Sister Zhang quickly took the coat and put it on Galilea. However, no matter how warm the room was, it could not warm Galilea's heart. "Sister Zhang, no matter what you hear later, you don't have to go upstairs.' She lowered her head and changed her shoes. Before Sister Zhang could react, Galilea had already stepped upstairs to the room. When Micah heard the footsteps of someone going upstairs, he looked up and saw Galilea standing there. Her eyes were calm as if she was an emotionless puppet that could be manipulated at will "What does Mr. Lorenzo want me to do? She said softly and lifted her eyes to look over. That carved handsome face, with a hint of an unruly smile, took two or three steps to stand in front of Galilea. He reached out and mercilessly clamped her chin. With just a little force, he pinched her until she hurt. "Haven't you begged anyone? Is this how you beg people?" Micah sneered, his fingers stroking her lips. 'Also, don't you know what a man wants?'

Galilea's cheeks were burning hot, and the shame of being humiliated swept through her whole body. "Let go of me! The next second, the man's hand moved away mercilessly, and he only coldly said, 'It doesn't matter. The life and death of Frankie Group have nothing to do with me.' Then, he carried the towel into the bathroom, listening to the faint sound of water coming from inside, Galilea's heart sank bit by bit She wanted to protect her Frankie Group

Was this the only way?

Chapter 215 To Be a Servant

The mirror in the bathroom was covered with a layer of mist. The man raised his hand to wipe it, revealing his cold and cool side profile. There seemed to be no sound in the room outside His cys were slightly heny, and his mind constantly revolved around the appearance of Galilea and Nore. After putting on his bathrobe, he laughed at himself If he had realized what he wanted earlier, he would not have been tortured like this right now. The bathroom door opened and the water mist dispersed. Sure enough, Galilea was no longer in the room He could not tell what he was feeling. His eyes darkened a little and he was taking off his bathrobe when the door was pushed open. Galilea was stunned and quickly turned around 'You you put on your clothes!" She did not expect him to come out so soon And, she had witnessed this scene. Micah quickly put on the sweater and his Adam's apple rolled. Galilea nodded and placed the fruit ica and coffee on the table. She lowered her head and asked in a clear voice, 'Can I change the conditions?' Her fingers gripped the tray tightly.

Whether it is being a servant or going to the Lorenzo group to sweep the toilet, I can accept it except.: Except for the way he had mentioned, she was willing to put down all her pride. When she said this, she closed her cyes in pain. Micah's gaze fell on her There was a bit of anxiety and hesitation Galilea kept her head down and did not hear his response. She frowned. If he did not agree, she had no choice. 'Or, can you give me a few more days? I can find a way to get rid of the trouble. At most, one week. If I can't do it, I will take all the responsibility for breaking the promise.' The air was quiet for a long time. "What do you have to take the responsibility?" He suddenly spoke. His voice was very close to her almost above her head. 'Nore?" "Can you not keep mentioning him?" Galilea frowned. It was a matter between them. Why did he have to involve others? She raised her head and suddenly bumped into his shoulder. Looking up, it was his extremely dark eyes. He slowly said, 'Or you can stay by my side and work like a cow and a horse until the cooperation is over' Galilea did not catch the first part of what he said. She only heard that he agreed to her bargain She Immediately nodded 'Okay." "I will let Keith sort out the contract and give it to you later.' As Micah said this, he picked up the fruit tea on the table and drank it all in one gulp. Galilea breathed a sigh of relief. As she listened to the sound of footsteps fading away, her heart still beat non-stop. An hour later, Keith arrived. "Isn't it a cooperation plan? What is this?" Galilea looked at the few pieces of paper in front of her and frowned It was clearly an unequal treaty that Micah used to restrict her freedom 'This is the contract Mr Lorenzo wants to sign with you personally. If you break the contract, the cooperation between the Lorenzo group and the Frankie Group will immediately be void. Moreover, the Lorenzo group will pursue all the responsibility of the Frankie Group Galilea gritted her teeth. She lipped to the last page and signed her name. "Miss Frankie, aren't you going to read the content carefully?"

There's no need for that Just as she finished speaking, Sister Zhang walked over and said, "Miss Frankie, Mister just told me that he wanted to eat fish for dinner 'Let me cook?" Galilea was stunned for two seconds. "Yes,' Sister Zhang nodded lactfully

AFO

Chapte: 215 To Be a Servant Galilen took a deep breath and forced out a smile 'Okay, nt go Anyway. It was not like she had not been ordered by Micah. Galilea was busy in the kilchen and did not notice the figure walking through the living room and dining room alter Keith left 'Sit rd better go in and help Miss Frankie.' Sister Zhang listened to the sounds coming from the kitchen from time to time and leaned over worriedly to look over "No need Micoh took a sip of collec, frowned, and then dropped it on the table. 'Galilea, pour coffee, Galles was busy cutting vegetables. When she heard the sound, she walked out with a kitchen knife in her hand. 'What? Her lace was still stained with fish scales. The man's gaze fell on her and he knocked on the table in displeasure. "Alright, 111 do it right away Galilea had also adjusted her mentality. She poured water and made coffee in one go. She tumed around and quickly walked into the kitchen. Then, there was a series of crackling sounds. The man picked up his coffee cup and took a sip His lips could not help but curve into a smile Sister Zhang wiped the decoration of the living room beside him. She shook her head helplessly and muttered in a low voice, 'He clearly wanted to keep her by his side so that he can see her every day, but he doesn't say so.' Micah heard it very clearly, and his smile instantly faded. Only then did Sister Zhang realize that she had been too nosy and hurriedly lowered her head to focus on her work. Suddenly, she felt a wave of dizziness. Sister Zhang shook her wrist and broke the vase in the living room.

Pa.

Gablca heard the sound and hurriedly ran out. Seeing that Sister Zhang's hand was cut by a fragment, Micah stood of the side with a cold face, motionless. 'Sir, I'm fine.' She apologized while packing up her things. 'Sister Zhang, don't move all clean it up. You deal with the wound first. Mr Lorenzo, if you don't help, please move aside!' Galilea hurriedly pulled her up and looked at the stunned Micah. He was truly cold blooded to the extreme! Galilea pulled Sister Zhang to bandage her wound. She lowered her head and picked the pieces out of her flesh bit by bit. 'Sister Zhang, it might hurt a little. Please endure it a little "It's fine I can't feel my hand anymore.' Sister Zhang smiled. Galilea's hand poused Sister Zhang sighed lightly, 'The only wish I have now is to do something in the remaining time.' Galilea had never seen Sister Zhong so sad. All of a sudden, she did not know what to do. "Miss Frankic, do you think Sir is really cold? In fact, when he was young, he was a very lively and cheerful child. It was because his days were 100 bitter and there were thoms everywhere that he became colder and colder' Sister Zhang looked out of the window and thought of what had happened a long time ago. Galilea lowered her head to deal with the last piece of slag. then disinfected it and put on some medicine Throughout the vihole process, Sister Zhang did not show any expression of pain. Instead, she told Galilea many things about Micah when he was a child. "In the past, Sir really liked reading storybooks...' Galilea just listened with no expression on her face, Sister Zhang tilted her head, and unknowingly, her entire wrist was bandaged. "You don't have to be so exaggerated. I can't work anymore," she said with a bitter smile. 'Ill do your share "Sister Zhang, no matter what he looks like in front of you, he is not like that to me Galilea did not want to understand the person she once had loved so deeply, and she knew she hated him now Besides, she had no ability to understand others in her current situation. *But..

“At least, he can now have everything he wants as he pleases, right? Galilea opened the door and went downstairs to the kitchen At the corner of the door, Micalis deep and cold gaze followed her figure all the way until it was completely dark

Chapter 216 Ho Regretted It

As soon as Sister Zhang came out, she saw Micah outside. Se you heard it all?’ Sister Zhang was upset that she should not have sold those words, otherwise, it would not have caused Galilea to be disgusted
She was just being kind and wanted to make the two of them get back together At the very least, they could not hate the other party so much

Take care of your body. Don’t worry about anything else, Micah said indifferently Sister Zhang nodded
The person who knew the most about her physical condition was Micah Sister Zhang sighed silently. At her age, she had long forgotten about life and death

That night Just as Galilea was about to go to sleep, Micah called her to the study room and gave her a document, “Mi Lorenzo, these are all your project books. I am an outsider, isn’t it inappropriate?’ She frowned, She did not want to be gossiped about by others in the future. Moreover, it would definitely be early in the morning after all this was done. The man lifted his eyes and looked at her. He did not say a word, but his cold eyes conveyed his meaning Galilea pursed her lips and sat down helplessly Two hours later, her eyelids were twitching *Continue Micah threw another document in front of her Galilea was dizzy. When she took it, she almost knocked over the teacup on the table. At this time, there was suddenly a burst of cracking sound outside the door. “It wasn’t me.”

Micah immediately got up and went in the direction of the living room. Galilea chased out and saw Sister Zhang lying beside the sofa She had lost consciousness *Call a car and go to the hospital! “Okay Galilea saw the anxious look on Micah’s face with her own eyes. He carried Sister Zhang and walked out of the door in a few steps Galilea’s heart tightened and she hurriedly followed out.

The hospital corridor in the early morning was very quiet. The lights in the operating room were always on Galilea curled up on the bench and Micah sat opposite her. The two of them looked at each other in silence

The words that Sister Zhang said in the afternoon surrounded her ears. Micah was not a cold person by nature. He was also forced to this extent by the plight of life Galilea lowered her head She seemed to have never investigated why Micah had always regarded the Frankie family as an enemy The hatred that he kept talking about, exactly.. Bang Sister Zhang was pushed out of the hospital bed by the doctor.
Because it was a patient brought by Micah, the chief surgeon was the deputy director on duty tonight “Mr Lorenzo, let’s go to my office to talk. The doctor looked worried, Micah seemed to have expected this result and followed him without any expression Galilea held their coats and walked out the back After our treatment, the patient will soon regain consciousness. But it is inevitable for the cancer cells in her body to spread. In the past few years, both you and the patient have worked hard, but unfortunately Micah clenched his fists, and the sadness in his eyes could not be dispersed. Galilea was also shocked
She opened her mouth but did not know what to say “How much longer?’ Micah asked after a long silence, The vice president sighed and said conservatively, “At most one month deeper look and did not mourn for long time

"Mi Lororo, do you need to cancel your digmat sor in the morning? Keith hurriedly rushed over when he received the news. Recently, 11• Lon group had a lot of things to deal with. Me glanced at alles and said after a while, "If there is anything, tell me al hrvy file"

Gallero nodded and watched the man turn and leave.

The lights in the ward were still on. Galilen adjusted her mood and walked in. "Sister Zhang, you're awake? How do you feel?"

Mul had to show nervousness. Otherwise, Gute Zhong would feel even worse. "It's fine, it's just an old illness." Sister Zhang smiled and got up. She looked in the direction of the door. Although she did not ask, Galilen knew what she meant. "Micah went to the company. Maybe he doesn't want to see me. It just so happens that I don't want to see him. Slotter Zhong, what do you want to call this morning?" Galilea squeezed out a smile. Galileo tried her best to act as normal as possible. "Let's go back and out. I'll steam the buns for you, okay?" Sister Zhang smiled with a smile. But she could not be discharged yet! Sister Zhang, the people in the hospital said that you can only be discharged after Micah has signed it. But he is not here now and we can't go through the discharge formalities." Galileo reluctantly found a reason. Sister Zhang was stunned for a while and seemed to believe it. "111 go to the hospital restaurant to take a look. You rest first. 111 be back soon." Galileo waved her hand with a smile and quickly walked out. She really didn't know what to say to Sister Zhong. The phone vibrated, it was a message from Micah. It was a very detailed explanation of Sister Zhong's preferences and the things she should take care of. Galileo's pupils trembled slightly. That man was not cold. He was taking care of Sister Zhong in his own way. If he was too considerate, Sister Zhang would probably dodge and refuse. That was why he had maintained his usual alienation, Galilea held her phone and replied, "Got it. Before sending it out, she hesitated again and again before adding, "Don't worry." At this time, in the car heading to the airport, the man looked at the phone screen and unconsciously curled his lips. Galilea had never been so gentle to him. He flipped through the messages she had sent over from two years ago. "Micah, are you coming back for dinner tonight?" "Micah, Dad's company seems to have a problem. Can you help him?" "Micah." Without exception, he had never replied. Micah's heart suddenly fell under the ice. When Onyx had an accident, how hopeless would she have been? The man tightened his grip on his phone. He had used that marriage to achieve his goal, but it had also truly destroyed Galileo's entire life. How could he not have known? Micah choked as if something was pressing on his chest, making him unable to breathe. Galileo accompanied Sister Zhang in the hospital for a day. When she went out to buy food at night, she accidentally met Lucy. There was only Sean behind her. Seeing Galilea, Lucy immediately walked over. "Galilea, why are you in the hospital? Are you feeling unwell?" "My friend is in the hospital." "Auntie, why are you in the hospital?" asked Galilea, "I've been feeling unwell lately, so I come over for a physical examination." Lucy held Galilea's hand, refusing to let go no matter what. Recently, Nore has been busy with the company matters. Did he neglect you? Don't mind it. After a while, when he has sorted out those things, it will not be like this: Of course, Lucy could feel Galilea's alienation towards her.

Chapter 216 Her Regretful It was far less intimate and enthusiastic than when Nore was hospitalized. Galilea took her head when she heard this. "Auntie, it's not like that. Most of the time Nore didn't tell you I told him."

Chapter 217 Wait for Him to Come Back

Before Galilea could finish speaking. Sean came over and interrupted them. "Wendy is getting late. It's time to go to the banquet." Sean smiled and gave Galilea a meaningful look. His expression needed to indicate that he didn't want her to continue. "Auntie, why don't you go and mind your business first? I'm going to buy something too." Galilea frowned. "Alright, I am busy today. Next time, let Nore pick you up."

and come to our house, okay?' Nore asked. Galilea just smiled and said nothing Through the glass window. Galilea clearly saw Lucy getting into the Lubi family's luxury car. Her clothes the jewelry she wore, and the bags she carried were all things that Galilea could not afford right now She had to think about how to revive the Frankie Group in this period of time. As for her feelings, it was really too extravagant for her.

As soon as Micah landed on the plane, he received the photos and messages sent by Galilea. Her tone was still as calm as ever and there was even a strange feeling. He could feel her alienation from those words, and there was also a kind of unfamiliarity Sister Zhang drank the soup. The doctor came to check the room and told her to take medicine on time.' 'Sister Zhang just fell asleep, and the nurse come' Every sentence was like a mechanical report. But just these few words and a few pictures made Micah look at them for a long time. "Mr Lorenzo, it's time to get off the car' Keith reminded Only then did Micah put away his phone and strode into the hotel. After the meeting, the first thing he did was to take out his phone. However, there was no news. The man furrowed his eyebrows, found a quiet place, and dialed Galilea's number. 'Hello? Galilea had just fallen asleep She took her phone and went to the corridor 'Sister Zhang is already asleep.' Micah was stunned on the other side. He forgot that there was a time difference here.

'You don't have to worry I asked the doctor and she can be discharged tomorrow. I will do everything well' She thought that he was worried about Sister Zhang. Micah listened to her voice which was as calm as water, and the anxiety in his heart seemed to be soothed.

After we go back tomorrow you may have to find someone to cook Galilea was thinking about how to take good care of Sister Zhang "Okay, I will arrange it. You rest well too. Micah's attitude was much gentler than usual. When Galilea heard these words coming out of his mouth, her eyes trembled. She never thought that she would be able to hear Micah say such things to her in her lifetime. A blind voice came from the other side of the line. Galilea lowered her hand and went back to the accompanying bed in the ward. No one was there. During Micah's business trip, Galilea received several calls from Manager Fang of the Lorenzo group, who wanted to talk to her about the specific details of the cooperation plan She could only delay until Micah came back before making a plan Unexpectedly, the other person, Terry, from the Lorenzo group appeared. When he appeared in front of Galilea with his assistant and secretary, he said coldly. "The cooperation between the Lorenzo group and the Frankie Group must be implemented within a week. Otherwise, the Lorenzo group will pursue the responsibility of the Frankie Group's breach of contract

'But, Mr Lorenzo has promised to give me a period of time.'" The secretary behind Terry immediately had a cold face, "Ms. Frankie, our President Xiao came here personally not to listen to your private affairs Your relationship with Mr. Lorenzo has nothing to do with the company! At present this project is in the charge of President X180, understand?

Galilea frowned Of course, she also knew that she could not drag this on any longer However, Micah had indeed agreed to it Moreover, Miss Frankie should also know how you got this contract. Why don't you submit the termination application yourself to avoid unnecessary complications? Once you go through the legal procedures, you have no chance of winning at all" The other party repeatedly pressed.

Chapter 217 War for Him to come Back He almost placed the termination document in front of Galilea, Feng Lee 'All of this is Mr Lorenzo's order. You have to pay attention to your words.' Terry said coldly, stopping him from continuing

The secretary named Feng Lee finally shut his mouth Totlock and expression had already explained everything Galilea felt very uncomfortable 'You can go out first I want to talk to Ms Frankie alone. Terry raised his hand, Nils expression unfathomable. The door closed Asmile appeared on Terry's face. 'Ms. Frankie, you don't have to listen to the people below. I believe that Mr. Lorenzo must have his reasons for giving this project to you. Moreover, I don't want to interfere with the cooperation between you two. Galilea listened to him quietly and felt that it was not that simple. "However, there are things that have to be done according to the rules. Manager Fang has contacted you several times, but you are always deliberately delaying. I have reason to suspect that the Frankie Group has no ability to take on this project at all. In other words, Mr Lorenzo has misjudged this time. Galilea frowned even more. 'No.' 'NO?" Terry suddenly leaned over to her side. All of a sudden, all the reasons that Galilea had thought of were stuck in her throat She needed this opportunity. She could not give up. Micah was right. He was the only person who could bring the Franklc Group back to life Galilea made up her mind. She raised her head again and smiled brightly and firmly 'There are some things that President Xiao and I con not decide. As far as I know, Mr. Lorenzo will be back tomorrow. How about we meet again after he comes back? 'Even if Micah comes back, can you guarantee that he will definitely stand on your side? Terry immediately raised his eyebrows 'Ionly want to talk to Me. Lorenzo Sorry, I soll have a patient to take care of Galilea replied. With that Galilea got up and was about to go to Sister Zhang's ward. "That servant is Lorenzo family's old servant. She does have a deep relationship with Micah, but if you want to curry favor with her and achieve a certain goal. I'm afraid it's unlikely. You should know better than me how cold and heartless Micah is li's better for you to talk to me about this deal' Terry said coldly. 'Let me make a bold guess. President Xiao asked me to give up this project because you want to transfer this project to the Quincy Group, right?' Galilea asked.

Terry narrowed his eyes. After a while, his smile deepened, "Ms. Frankie is indeed a smart woman, but sometimes, it is a bad thing for a woman to be too smart

'I am really sorry. I am not a flower vase like Dayana' Galilea glanced over

She was not wrong. Terry had come for the Quincy family. It was probably because Lachlan could no longer sit still that he asked him for help Or perhaps, they had reached some sort of deal. But that had nothing to do with her. What she had to do was wait for Micah to come back, but she could not guarantee that he would definitely stand on her side when he returned

Chapter 218 Take Care of yourself

Gallerod ulcorty Ouessed the purpote of Terry's vitit. She had nothing to be afraid of The only thing he was worried about was that Micah could not come back as promised Alle lime, Terry's ice was already gloomy He played with the several contract books in his hand and smiled with contempt. "Bofore I come, I really didn't expect that the relationship between Ms Frankie and Mr Lorenzo would be so firm. Even if you have to take the nok of being sud, you have to wait for Mr Lorenzo Alter Galilea was constantly pressured by hum. she kept asking herself whether it was worth it to do this! If the were to lower her head to Terry now.. Also, you already know about the matter between me and Dayana?' He narrowed his eyes and said coldly without waiting for Galilea to reply. "Then I'm sorry I absolutely can not allow you to continue working with the Lorenzo group." With the entonglement of benefits, his eyes revealed endless coldness. The hand under Galileo's sleeve slowly clenched into a fist. 'Since we've already talked so far, I'm not afraid to tell you. I have a lot of evidence that can make you and Dayana be spurned and furred into ashes I don't care about anything by mysell, But il President Xiao's current status and reputation are ruined, it would be a pity Galilea tumed around, her eyes full of stubbornness. "You are ruthless. Then you should take care of yourself. Terry's face darkened. He got up quickly, slammed the door, and left. Golilea suddenly lost her breath and collapsed on the chair, It could be seen that a villain like Terry would retaliate against her sooner or later, Galilea was thinking about how to protect herself. Her phone suddenly rang. She thought it was Micah calling, but when she looked at the screen, it was an unfamiliar number Galilea hesitated for a moment and pressed the answer button.

'Hello?' "Miss Galilea, is it? I am Jimmy. I have a design draft for a set of catwalk ornaments. I wonder if you are willing to join my team. Of course, the commission will be based on the market price. "Of course I'm willing, but I still have something on hand, so I can leave. Galilea looked troubled. 'It doesn't matter. I'll send the design draft to your email. We can talk over the phone. Soon Galilea received the design draft sent by Jimmy. Coincidentally, when she saw the design, she felt that it was very familiar, but she could not remember where she had seen it before. After asking Jimmy, she found out that this was a sketch of the buyer. Based on the confidentiality of the customer's information, he could not tell her too much. Galilea could understand this. But she always felt that she had seen this design draft before, and it was even possible that she had seen the finished product. But she could not remember

It's all my fault. I dragged you down and you have to take care of me: Sister Zhang felt sorry Galilea raised her head and smiled. 'Sister Zhang, it is because I am accompanying you in the hospital that I am able to get such a good opportunity. It is you who has brought me good luck.' Galilea smiled calmly, without any hint of insincerity. Sister Zhang looked at her and sighed silently. She even coughed a few times.

Will get you some hot water ' Galilea immediately went over to help her pat her back and breathe. She took the thermos cup and walked out Sister Zhang sat on the hospital bed, her face becoming more and more skinny. She said to herself, 'How good it would be if that hadn't happened.'

The next morning, Galilea helped Sister Zhang with the discharge procedures Micah sent a driver to pick them up, but he never appeared. "When will Mr Lorenzo come back?" Galilea helped Sister Zhang get out of the car and could not help but ask. The driver was stunned, 'Mr. Lorenzo has already come back. He went to the Quincy family just now.' When Galilea heard the two words 'Quincy family', the brilliance between her eyebrows sank. It turned out that she had too many expectations. Perhaps when Micah came back, he would be impatient to cancel the contract with her In any case, all of this was just a game that he had played on impulse. Galilea took a deep breath and stepped up the stairs. Until the night, Micah did not return .

Chapter 218 Toke Core of Yourself After Stutter Zhang rested, Galilea sat alone in the living room. She only looked up when the car lights in the yard lit up. The man was cold and walked slowly into the villa When she opened the door, Galilea smelled a faint smell of alcohol As soon as he came back from his business trip, he couldn't wait to go to the Quincy family and drink until now? Galileo's eyes darkened. She gave up the idea of talking to him and turned to go to the room. However, when she stepped onto the stairs, she heard a sound behind her. She looked back again and was pulled into someone's embrace. He had just returned from outside and his body was very cold. For a moment, it was as if a cold wind had drilled into Galilea's body.

Let go!" She struggled and looked up. only to see that he was looking at her. However, his hands refused to let go 'You hurt me. Let go Galilea struggled regardless of the pain. Micah seemed to sigh and slowly let go of her hand. Terry looked for you?" Did he know? "Yes, he wanted to force me to cancel the contract, but I didn't agree. The more Galilea spoke, the softer her voice became. A thought suddenly emerged in her heart. If Micah had been convinced by the Quincy family and decided to give up the Frankie Group, what would she do? She had no confidence at all. At least Terry was right. The Frankie Group had been destroyed by Micah. If the Frankie Group made a comeback, where would Micah put his face? Galilea lowered her head and felt that she had been deceived by Micah again. "If you want to cancel the contract, I have nothing to say.' She pushed the man in front of her away and turned to go upstairs Closing the door, Galilea made up her mind to say goodbye to Sister Zhang tomorrow and leave this cold prison! The lights in the corridor were on the whole night. Early morning Golilca opened the door and cow a meso. The documents, books, and clothes were all thrown on the ground The strange thing was that she did not hear any strange sounds last night. 'Micah?' Galilea called out tentatively, but no one responded When she went to Sister Zhang's room, Sister Zhang was also confused. 'Mr. Lorenzo is back?' "He seems to be." Before Galilea could finish her words, she saw Micah come back from the outside, dressed in casual clothes, as if he had gone out for a walk after a hangover. He was carrying breakfast in his hand, three servings.

'Let's cat." Micah glanced at Galileo's shocked face and entered the kitchen. Galilea frowned and helped Sister Zhang up

You don't have to worry about that. Ill go and clean it up later' 'It's fine, ni clean it up. As Galilea spoke, she was even more confused. Could it be that there was a thof yesterday? After breakfast Micah watched as Galilea cleaned up the mess in the corridor Her figure was reflected in his eyes, and the thing he . was considering in his mind became clearer and clearer. "Galilea, come here.' "What is 117' Galilea was busy and reluctantly stopped, She turned around and saw that Micah was looking at her. There were too many emotions hidden in his eyes, and she could not understand

Are you going to cancel the contract or not?' Galilea was a litto anxious. She didn't want to be hung up by him like this!

'Who said that I want to cancel the contract?' The man said coldly with a firm altitude,

Chapter 219 Happy Cooperation

"Then wir did Terry's teartlety why that the Lorenzo group and Frankle Group_." Before the cod finish speaking, she was interrupted by Micah

You dont have 10 listen to them in the Lorenzo group, I have the final cay As Micah said thio, ho stood up and walked to her step by clep "Othey then this, I have other things to ask you' AT THE Tómo fan gaze was too deep, and Galilea panicked for a morment. In the nert second, her wrist wan Grabbed by him. 'Hicancel the engagement with the Quincy Tomily, are you willing to give ine on other chance? The retence caused Galile's heart to tremble. "Micoh did you drink 100 much? As I end, I won't sell myself" Galilean face tank

"No

"Tholu not what I meant. I'm serious' Micah frowned in frustration "Serious? You regretted trat you did? You want to moke up for mo7

The man frowned and said in a deep volce, 'Yes.' Galilea immediately took a step bock Her eyes were full of resistance Il Micah deliberately teased her or schemed ogoinst her, she knew how to deal with it.

When he was so allectionate, it would only arouse the tragic memories in Galilea's mind. *Back then, when you told my dad that you wanted to mórry me. you had the same attitude. I don't know what you wont from mo again, but I'm telling you I definitely wont repeat the same mistake!' Galllea took a deep breath. The light in his eyes slowly fell He really regretted it

Howovec, cho rofused to give him onother chance

'Il Mr. Lorenzo wants to cancel the contract, I have nothing to say, but please don't say such words. I will move out from here now. I have fulfilled my personal contract until now. Even if you have any excessive requests, I am sorry, I can't agree to them.' Galilea tumed around, packed up her things, and walked away from the door of the villa. The bodyguards outside the door wanted to stop her, but Micol's cold order cama through the carphone, "let her go. When Gplilea returned to her rented apartment, a burst of musty smell hit her. She frowned and looked at the narrow room in front of

It was indeed incomparable to Micah's villa. She lowered her head and cleaned up for the whole day before lying on the bed in peace. Just as she closed her eyes, she saw Micah's ice-cold face. 'Give me another chance?'

Galdea immediately shook her head. She was thinking about what she would do if the Lorenzo group sued the Frankio Group for breaking the contract. Just as she was thinking about it, a call came in. "Ms. Frankie, it's still me, Terry. I wonder if you have changed your mind about what I talked to you about before. If possible, I want to talk to you in person again." 'President Xiao, you have found the wrong person. The decision of this cooperation is not in my hands,' Galilea's voice was muffled. She could not figure out what Micah was thinking. But since Terry had found her again, could it be confirmed that the Lorenzo group had indeed followed Micah's orders, or else Terry would not have taken the initiative to look for her again and again?

Me Frankie, you don't have to be in such a hurry to refuse me. Why don't we meet and you listen to my conditions before making a decision? In fact, with your current ability, you don't have to be controlled by Micah all the time.

Where am I going to see you?

Half an hour later Galilea followed the address given by Terry and arrived at the entrance of a restaurant. She was stopped just as she arrived at the door. 'It was Mr. Xiao who asked me to come.'

*Please wait here for a moment. I'll go to confirm the manager smiled. Galilea didn't say anything. She was standing there waiting when she suddenly saw a familiar figure walking over from afar. It was Micah! Galilea immediately hid behind a pillar. She personally saw Micah talking to Keith behind him, 'The collaboration with the Frankie Group will temporarily stop.'

Chapter 210 Liberty Operation One could not hear the rest of the words clearly.

The words ringing in her mind that the Frankio Group in not hope of making a comeback. If she made the opportunity, she didn't know how long one would have to wait. So when the inner came out and in her mind she directly rushed in and rushed to Terry. "The Lorenzo group has decided to stop working with the Frankio Group, right? She needed to confirm.

Terry's narrow and shrewd eyes were filled with a smile. Galilea's bent could not calm down for a long time. Why did Micah hurt her again and again? Did he think it was fun?

He gave her hope first and then mercilessly tore it apart.

Terry leaned back in his chair and smiled lightly. 'However, the official order has not been issued yet. If Mr. Frankie wants to continue to cooperate, there is still a chance.'

"You want to continue to cooperate with the Frankio Group?" Galilea frowned.

He should be helping the Quincy family. "There are no eternal friends, only mutual benefits. I am a businessman. I only consider making money. In my opinion, working with you is more beneficial than working with the Quincy family." As Terry said this, his smile deepened and he threw out no further help.

"If Mr. Frankio has any doubts, I can invite you to attend the Lorenzo group's high-level meeting tomorrow morning. At that time you will know what kind of person Micah is." "There is no need for that. Because I already know him very well."

I just want to ask you, how do you want to cooperate? I don't want to waste my time.' Once the cooperation was suspended, what awaited the Frankio Group was likely to be the indictment of the court, or a huge compensation fee. She couldn't wait anymore, she couldn't afford to wait.

"Okay, I'll send a car to pick you up tomorrow morning. Ms. Frankie, happy cooperation.' He took the initiative to reach out his hand. 'I hope President Xiao is a man of his word. Otherwise, even if I risk my life, I will make the Lorenzo group's people pay the price: Galilea sold quietly. She turned around and walked out in a few steps. Terry slowly lowered his hand and stored the beautiful figure that disappeared of the door. A hint of ruthlessness flashed through his eyes.

Sure enough, she is an interesting woman. The next morning Galilea was directly taken to the Lorenzo group's underground parking lot by Terry's driver,

The secretary, Feng Forrest, was waiting for her at the lift entrance. "Ms. Frankie, this way, please."

Galilea did not have a good impression of him and did not speak along the way. "I told you a long time ago that our President Xiao is the one who can really decide the project cooperation could Feng Forrest 'Aren't we going to the conference room?" asked Galilea.

"It's not time yet. You can use this phone to see the situation in the conference room. After President Xiao gives the order, I will take you there immediately." Feng pushed open the door of an office and handed a mobile phone to Galilea. "Alright." Galilea nodded.

"You are a smart woman, it's best if you don't have any other thoughts. President Xiao isn't easy to fool, Feng said with a meaningful smile.

Chapter 220 Heartache

In the concern Micah listened to the report of the exciting Trance, and his eyes were cold. The emotion mediated by this body made everyone present hold their breath and sit still. According to data analysis, in addition to the Frankie Group, several companies are very suitable to accept the project. First of all, the Quincy Group and Lubi Group. As the manager spoke, he felt a cold game. Micah raised his eyes and looked closer. It was just an indifferent glance, but it was full of oppression.

The manager was so scared that his hands trembled. He almost couldn't hold the laser pen in his hand. The others cast sympathetic looks. At such a tense moment, there was actually someone who dared to mention the Frankie Group in front of Micah. Wasn't this courting death? Only Terry had a smile on his face as he leaned back. The manager wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. He turned around and carefully continued to introduce. "The advantage of the Quincy Group is..." He had not finished speaking. The door of the conference room was pushed open, and Galilea directly barged in. "Wait a minute!" Everyone looked over at her. Micah glanced over with a deep look in his eyes. Galilea was a little afraid of that gaze. The person who had broken into the Lorenzo group's conference room without permission was indeed her. No matter how angry Micah was, it was reasonable. However, she still had to go in. Otherwise, there would be no way out. Fortunately, Micah only looked at her and did not let anyone drive her out. Galilea quickly walked in and said in a clear voice, "The Lorenzo group's contract with the Frankie Group has not expired yet. The Lorenzo group has no right to terminate the contract unilaterally." These words made everyone chuckle. "Ms. Frankie, this is our Lorenzo group's internal meeting. How can you break in?"

Yes, your company has delayed for so long, and you still haven't given us a solution. Don't you want to benefit with bare hands? Galilea clenched her fingers and endured the sarcasm. Terry looked at the atmosphere in the conference room. The smile of contempt on his lips became even wider. The pen in his hand fell on the table with a snap. Then, he said, "If I remember correctly, the Frankie Group was able to get this project all because of Mr. Lorenzo's thought. Now that such a mistake has appeared in the project, does Mr. Lorenzo want to make a statement? When Micah heard this, he glanced at the other side. His voice was as cold as ice. "You mean you want me to take responsibility?" Terry sat up straight and spread out his hands. "Of course. The Lorenzo group's rules have always been like this. Whoever is responsible for the project has to resign, right? He looked at the managers present while he said that. Everyone was familiar with Micah's iron-blooded ability to manage the company. Not to mention a failed project, even when the company's reputation was tarnished, or when there were any mistakes in their work, it was very likely that they would be instantly fired. Everyone took a deep breath. They felt that Terry's words were directed at Micah and it seemed to be night. No matter what was said, the Frankie Group had relied on Micah to obtain this project, and the result was that it was a completely empty company. Of course, Micah had to take responsibility for this pot. 'There's no need for Mi Lorenzo to take responsibility. I'm here today to settle this!' Before Micah could speak, Galilea had already taken a step forward and placed the contract on the table. This action was beyond everyone's expectations. Terry frowned even more, and his smile became a bit ruthless. "Ms. Frankie, is this your purpose for coming here? So many people are listening. You better recognize your own strength. Otherwise, the Lorenzo group will definitely pursue it to the end. There was a bit of anger in his eyes as he looked over threateningly. How could he have thought that Galilea was still hiding this move!

cancelled not speak only turning his head and giving Keith a look "We Frankie, please sit down and talk" Keith immediately stepped forward.

Thank you! Galilea's hanging heart was call beating wildly sitting on the chair her legs were not so weak. Fortinbirly, no one noticed that her fingertips were trembling. She took a deep breath and recalled the time when she participated in the design college interview. She said to herself silently, 'Don't be afraid! I understand everyone's concerns. When I first got this project I also wanted to quit. But I remember that Mr Lorenzo once said this in an interview

The man glanced at her his deep eyes vaguely shaking. He said that a project does not depend on a person or a team. Micah looked at her, and a strange feeling washed through his heart.

He had not opened his mouth, and no one dared to stop her. Terry sat next to him and he could not help but sneer, 'Our time is very precious Ms Frankie, let's get back to the point' After Terry finished speaking, he slapped the table, and the atmosphere in the conference room became even more depressing. Everyone sighed, feeling that Terry's words today were directed at Micah. Galilea probably wouldn't be able to escape unscathed today. When the two bosses were at loggerheads, someone had to be implicated, and this person would be Galilea.

"Does Mr. Xiao not know the latter half of the sentence?" Terry frowned even more. Was this woman deliberately looking for trouble? "The latter half of the sentence is that most of the success of a business is dependent on luck. A smile appeared on Galilea's face. It was so dazzling and firm.

Other people would only think that she was crazy. She clearly did not have half a trump card in her hands and her company only had an empty stand, yet she dared to say such words on the Lorenzo group's conference table. But only the man sitting on the President's leather chair could see her fear and desperation at this time. . Even he could not remember exactly what he had said a long time ago, but the woman still remembered it. Back then, only he knew how much blame and hatred he had suffered from the outside world. The current Galilea was very similar to him at that time. It had been so difficult to get rid of the grudge. His heart seemed to be gnawed by someone. The suffocating and oppressive pain swept over. His cold eyebrows pressed down, and his face carried a bit of anger. He was not angry that Galilea had been used by Terry, and did not believe that he would handle this matter well, Bul. Everything that she had encountered had been caused by him. He was the culprit who had ruined her life. How could such a person like him ask for her forgiveness? Looking at her struggling in such a situation, his heart ached more than anyone else. What was even more unbearable was that he could not tell anyone about this feeling. Micah clenched his fists, and the coldness around his body became stronger and stronger. In the back row of the conference room, there were several people who were Terry's confidants. They exchanged glances with each other, and soon someone asked, 'Ms. Frankie, with your ability, how can you compare with our Mc Lorenzo? You should talk about the most practical problem at hand. If you don't cancel the contract, won't your Frankie Group become a vermin sucking the Lorenzo group's blood?
